The insert page is a superb specimen of color printing, and is an evidence of how faithfully the patterns of oil cloth shown in the catalogue reproduce the original cloth. Besides its value as an assistance in ordering the Farr & Bailey Company's goods, every dealer should obtain one of these color printed catalogues for its attractions as a work of art, and as it can be had for the asking, applications should be made at once by mail to the Farr & Bailey Manufacturing Company, Camden, N. J.

Craig & Harding, carpets, furniture, &c., Washington, D. C., have failed, with liabilities $36,286 and assets $35,562.

Though only on the other side for a few weeks, Mr. A. W. Cole, of Pray's Brussels department, has forwarded some novelties in original designs, and they will shortly be under way for the fall line of Wiltons and Brussels. Continuous, persistent effort has certainly been recognized, as there are few retailers carrying high quality goods where Pray's Wiltons and Brussels are not represented.

Hirst & Roger, the Philadelphia Tapestry manufacturers, are having a very busy spring season. All their looms are running—some sixty altogether—and the product is very closely sold up for the season. Mr. Hirst returned home the 22d ult., after a ten weeks' trip, and the exceedingly active condition of the plant is proof of his ability as a salesman. He will now attend to securing the largest possible product and to filling orders on the books.

The M. A. Furbush & Son Machine Company, of Philadelphia, have just shipped one of their latest improved Smyrna rug looms to Richard Smith & Sons, Kidderminster, England.

Frank G. Rogers, 24 North Ninth street, Philadelphia, is offering a very attractive line of Japanese rugs at exceedingly low prices. These goods are highly desirable and will well repay inspection. No buyer should fail to see them, for they are bargains in every sense of the term. Mr. Rogers is also offering great attractions in Smyrna rugs and a big line of straw mattings for immediate delivery.

Mickey Mackie—"Ah, what would he be doin' but makin' imported rugs, ye mug!"

IN THE UPHOLSTERY MARKET.

FLOOR trade has been light during the fortnight among the drapery houses, but the practiced eye will readily see by looking at the list of visitors to the market that very many large buyers who ordinarily are here early in February have not yet put in an appearance.

There is an apparent scarcity of higher grades in some classes of foreign goods, though arrivals have begun to be larger.

In heavy goods business has been somewhat better than is usual at this season, and mail orders in furniture coverings are large and continuous.

Congress is being asked to pass a measure which shall prevent the award of any government contract which shall in its execution involve the employment of convict labor. It appears that two New York contractors for post office work employ such labor.

YEARS ago a well-known artist, whose New Jersey home was the Mecca of many bright men, covered the walls of his dining room with brown paper, such as his butcher used to wrap up the meat wherewith a man may live, and decorated it with patterns of his own. The effect was striking and handsome, but grocery paper has not yet come to be recognized as an upholstery fabric.

Very many readers of the women's pages of divers and sundry Sunday journals have produced results more or less alarming by the use of cheesecloth, denim, burlaps and bed tickings. There is no material so common or so cheap that in the hands of an expert it cannot be made to produce wonderful effects. In most cases, however, it is the artist, not the fabric, that justifies the work.

Plain white China mattings have before now done duty as dadoes, and decorated by a competent brush they have been artistic and pleasing, but it was the brush, not the straw, that made the decoration of any value.

Plain burlaps perform an honorable and praiseworthy duty as covering for furniture, carpets, &c. They are not draperies. Printed in colors after designs by clever artists, they are no longer burlaps. There is a good deal of nonsense being printed just now about these various articles. One would imagine that there was some exquisite charm about a piece of gunny bag or a striped bed tick. The truth is, they are simply the canvas upon which an artist puts his picture. If the picture is good, all right ; if not then a good article in its place has been wasted in the effort to soar after the unfathomable.

Marshall Field & Co. and Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., of Chicago, and Arnold, Constable & Co. and the H. B. Claflin Company, New York, have asked the Treasury Department to so amend its regulations that consuls at the port of shipment may certify to invoices of goods purchased elsewhere.

DUTY ON COTTON FURNITURE LACE.—In the case of Marshall Field & Co. against the collector at Chicago the Board of General Appraisers decided as follows :

The merchandise in this case consists of furniture lace made of cotton. It was assessed for duty at 50 per cent. ad valorem under paragraph 276, act of 1894, and claimed to be dutiable at 35 per cent. ad valorem as a manufacture of cotton not otherwise provided for, under paragraph 264, said act. The provision in paragraph 276 for "laces" is without limitation or qualification, except the requirement that they must be made of "cotton, flax, jute or other vegetable fibre." The articles here are composed of cotton, and in the opinion of the board fall within the lexicographical and commercial definition of "lace."

Protest overruled.

The United States Court of Appeals has decided that Chinese and Japanese umbrellas made of paper are to be classed not as umbrellas but as manufactures of paper. This question was raised by A. A. Vantine & Co., who protested against paying 45 per cent. duty on Japanese paper umbrellas for decorative use. Much money will be refunded to importers under this decision.

THERE have recently been exhibited in Washington specimens of various textiles woven from peat fibres, and said to closely resemble Scotch tweed and camel's hair. They came from the United States consul at Havre. It is claimed for the fibre that it can be bleached to a snowy whiteness and take unto itself any dye, especial advantage being claimed for the cloth for its antiseptic character and freedom from harboring disease germs. An examination showed that some of the samples were woven with a cotton warp, others with materials similar to the weft. They were all coarse goods made with yarn under one run fine, and woven in plain and twilled effects. All of the colors were dull, but possessed more or less attractiveness considering the material used. A microscopic analysis showed that the goods were not made wholly of peat, as the items in the daily press stated. Far from it. That peat was used in their fabrication is undoubtedly true, but probably not more than one-fifth to one-third of the weight of the fabrics consisted of this material.

Among the buyers in town during the past fortnight were : Messrs. J. J. Luckey, for the Alms & Doepke Company, Cincinnati ; David Rooney, for Boggs & Buhl, Allentown, Pa.; Everts, for Gimbel Brothers, Milwaukee ; E. D. Phillips and Buchanan, for Newcomb, Endicott & Co., Detroit ; E. Ganspohl, for the H. & S. Pogue Company, Cincinnati ; Zach. Offset, for the Stewart Dry Goods Company, Louisville ; H. B. Herpolsheimer, of Voigt, Herpolsheimer & Go., Grand Rapids, Mich.; E. J. Jones, for Field, Schlick & Co., St. Paul ; J. H. Bernheimer, of G. Bernheimer, Brothers & Co., Kansas City ; P. P. O'Halloran, for the William Barr Dry Goods Company, St. Louis ; Joseph J. Carroll, of Carroll & Co., Newark, Ohio ; W. H. Pulver, for T. Kingsford, Oswego, N. Y.; J. G. Reid, of Reid & Hughes, and W. Murphy, for Porteous & Mitchell, Norwich, Conn.; E. S. Brown, of E. S. Brown & Co., Fall River, Mass.; J. A. Burkey, for Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, Reading, Pa.; Charles E. Briggs, for the Howland-Stark Company, Bridgeport, Conn.; C. Pierson, for the John C. Mac Innes Company, Worcester, Mass.; Lewellyn, for H. P. Wasson & Co., Indianapolis ; W. H. Wright, for Woodward & Lothrop, Washington, D. C.; N. E. Chamberlain, Burlington, Vt.; George P. Estes, Gainesville, Ga.; Herman Schmitt, of Schmitt & Heinley, Danville, Ill.; John Engler, for Burke, Fitzsimons, Hone & Co., Rochester, N. Y.; C. R. Hawley, of C. R. Hawley & Co., Bay City, Mich.; John Shankey, for D. Crawford & Co., St. Louis; Herman Weil, for Nathan Gutman & Co., Baltimore; E. B. Mann, for Flint & Kent, Buffalo, N. Y.; R. S. Goodfellow, of R. S Goodfellow & Co., Minneapolis; W. M. McLean, of Hills, McLean & Haskins, Binghamton, N. Y.; H. O'Neil, of O'Neil & Co., Baltimore; William Piper, Sidney, Ohio; Harry Wilson, for the Trorlicht, Duncker & Renard Carpet Company, St. Louis; H. M. Mays, for the Barnard, Sumner & Putnam Company, Worcester, Mass.; C. Schuele, of Fries & Schuele, Cleveland, Ohio; C. A. Winsor, for the Hartwell-Richards Company, Providence, R. I.; J. McLaren, for the William Hengerer Company, Buffalo, N. Y.; F. P. Brown, for C. F. Hovey & Co., Boston; J. Jenkins, for Pardridge & Netcher, Chicago; P. P. O'Halloran, for the William Barr Dry Goods Company, St. Louis; C. F. Sisson, of Sisson Brothers & Welden, Binghamton, N. Y.; J. J. Wheaton, for H. S. Barney & Co., Schenectady, N. Y.; J. P. Johnson, of Johnson & Shurts, New London, Conn.; J. L. Martin, of J. B. Martin & Co., Lancaster, Pa.; D. Doyle, for the Taylor-Woolfenden Company, Detroit.

AN ENTRANCE HALL.

The entrance hall of Thurland Castle, Kirkby Lonsdale, which is illustrated on the opposite page, is a fine illustration of sturdy English furnishing, and the effect of such a scheme upon incoming guests could not but be one of comfort and welcome. While fully possessing the characteristics of English seventeenth century woodwork, there is nothing heavy or "lumbering" about it, and it is commended as a most useful study for the portfolios of those who have at any time to undertake the furnishing of interiors on such lines.

UPHOLSTERY PERSONALS.

Brockway. — Clark Brockway, formerly furniture manager for Hilton, Hughes & Co., sailed for Europe on the Aurania February 14.

Brooks.—Henry Brooks, head of the upholstery and drapery manufacturing firm of Geo. Brooks & Son, Philadelphia, was elected a Republican member of the select council of Philadelphia at the city election on the 18th ult., from the Thirty-fourth Ward. Mr. Brooks received about 800 majority, and the especial honor of his election is that his seat has been occupied by a Democrat for the past three years, and he has therefore turned a Democratic into a Republican majority.

English.—Here is the way Gillam, the $10,000 advertising writer of Hilton, Hughes & Co., exploits George C. English, Clark Brockway's successor in the furniture department:

There's a new hand at the helm; there are new ideas in the management. The new man thinks there are too many of the rich, exquisite parlor suites and bedroom suites and cabinets and desks and all that—and too few of the medium priced things. He wants to even up a little. He wants room; he wants stock that will jump all the time. Rich things, of course, always rich things, but not an overweight of rich things. And some of the richest furniture in the town is knocked at one stroke to nearly one-third prices, and with it a great lot of other sorts that will make buyers of every rank happy. There is but one restriction on the sale—none of the pieces will be exchanged or received back.

George is a clever fellow, but it will take several $10,000 men to convince people that he can buy furniture 66 per cent. less than Clark Brockway.

Evers.—Julius Evers, with the James Caven Company, was in Pittsburg last week on the way back home from his spring trip. Mr. Evers says he has taken as many, if not more, orders than ever, but that the individual orders are not as large as formerly.

Hutchings.—C. R. Hutchings, second man in the upholstery department of Abraham & Straus, assumed charge of the upholstery department of Henry Batterman, Williamsburg, February 24. Mr. Hutchings has had a valuable experience, and will doubtless make a success in his new sphere.

Lerche.—J. M. Lerche, who was with the Townsend & Wyatt Dry Goods Company, St. Joseph, Mo., some years ago, has returned to them, and is now in charge of their drapery department.

Marr.—Bernard Marr, of the Jay C. Wemple Company's traveling force, was in Pittsburg, Pa., on the 21st ult. He says that the trade he covers are becoming more and more convinced of the advantage of placing orders with a house like the Wemple Company, who can assure them of deliveries in proper season. He has heard many dealers complaining about not yet receiving shipments of their first spring orders from some other houses. Mr. Marr has been fourteen years with the Wemple Company.

Pingston.—Honors come easy to W. J. Pingston, of Barnes & Beyer. The other day he was registered at Willard's in Washington. The next morning he received a note addressed to Hon. W. J. Pingston, M. C., from Prince, the artist photographer, who requested that he would kindly honor him with a pose at his earliest convenience, as he was desirous of having his portrait for newspaper use. The whole trade will rise in indignation at the idea that any gentleman connected with the upholstery business could so far demean himself as to be a member of the present Congress.

Smith.—George Drake Smith, of the manufacturers' syndicate in 125th street, was one of a delegation of annexed district citizens who visited Albany in the interest of the 5 cent continuous fare bill. Mr. Smith said there were existing laws on the statute books which the Manhattan Road was now violating, and an attempt would soon be made to make the corporation obey the law.

Solomon—Gurry.—S. Solomon, of B. L. Solomon's Sons, is in Europe replenishing the firm's stock of novelties and specialties, and T. F. Gurry, who went there some weeks ago on the firm's affairs, sailed for New York on the 29th ult.

Teague.—The gold brick mining operators have struck the upholstery district. One of them induced so shrewd a buyer as Ed. Teague, of W. H. Fletcher & Co., to exchange his horse for 1,000 shares of some Cripple Creek hole in the ground, and the next day a dispatch announced that they had struck a varicose vein of 18 karat gold.

Wilson. — Harry Wilson, of the Trorlicht, Duncker & Renard Carpet Company, of St. Louis, who is always a welcome visitor, was in town last week.

VIEWS OF A VETERAN.

A reporter of Printers' Ink recently interviewed Mr. F. B. Thurber, who has nearly all his life been engaged in the wholesale grocery business and is a member of the largest concern in its line in the country.

"Upon general principles, and things being equal," asked the reporter, "how much more is an ad. in a trade paper worth than in a general newspaper?"

"One hundred times as much, I should say," responded Mr. Thurber, "for the reason that every reader, assuming that he is a dealer, as is usually the case, influences one hundred consumers." Then Mr. Thurber gave an interesting little dissertation on trade advertising.

"For a manufacturer or importer, or wholesaler who does not distribute his own goods," said he, "three things are necessary.

"First—Interest the consumer.

"Second—Interest the retail dealer.

"Third—Interest the jobber, and do it all about the same time, for to do either without the other leaves a link out of the chain. It is useless to attract the consumer unless convenient supply depots are provided. A jobber can distribute to thousands of retailers at less proportionate expense than the manufacturers can reach them directly.

"In turn the thousands of retailers can reach millions of consumers. The consumer is the foundation, and in advertising all three classes should be addressed through the mediums which they read."

Then Mr. Thurber stated a number of axioms regarding advertising. They are not all original, but he believes them, and as they are worth repeating here are a few:

"Large type is not necessary in advertising. Blind folks don't read newspapers."

"The fair sex don't hold all the curiosity in the world. First catch the eye, then appeal to the reason."

"Don't expect an advertisement to bear fruit in one night."

"A large advertisement once and then discontinued creates the impression that the man has fizzled."

"People who advertise only once in three months forget that most folks cannot remember longer than seven days."

"Trying to do business without advertising is like winking at a pretty girl through a pair of green goggles. You may know what you are doing, but nobody else does."

Mrs. Portly Pompous—Oh Bridget, you have broken that magnificent Japanese vase!

Bridget—Sure, mum; isn't it lucky that there was nothing in it!—Texas Siftings.

Sander Segelbaum, who has been extensively engaged in the dry goods business at Minneapolis for the past twenty-five years, has retired and will be succeeded by his sons, Alfred and Theodore, both of whom are abundantly qualified to carry on the business in which their father has been so successful.

A LAY TO THE NEW OFFICE BOY.

The boy who at our telephone
Doth sit from day to day,
The bookkeepers is driving mad
With his paretic way.
In fact he does not care a cuss
For either this or that,
His cranium now fails to fit
The band within his hat.

He sits each day beside the 'phone,
And at us winks and blinks,
But should the bell perchance to ring
He in the abstract thinks.
These flights of fancy bring to him
Of trouble quite a peck,
Should he not wake from out his trance
He'll "get it in the neck."

The truth about this bright boy is
"'E don't know where 'e 's at,"
And has the strange felicity
Of "talking through his hat."
On any subject, great or small,
He 's capable to speak,
And reason philosophically
Upon his three per week.

ROTHSCHILD MAXIMS.

The following is a copy of the alphabetical list of maxims framed and hung in Rothschild's bank. Baron Rothschild used to recommend these rules to young men who wished to "get on" and achieve success in life:

A ttend carefully to details of your business.
B e prompt in all things.
C onsider well, then decide positively.
D are to do right, fear to do wrong.
E ndure trials patiently.
F ight life's battles bravely, manfully.
G o not into the society of the vicious.

The Ansonia Metallic Bedstead Company is a new concern making brass and iron bedsteads at Ansonia, Conn.

CINCINNATI SHADE FACTORY.

The window shade factory of Chas. W. Breneman & Co., in Cincinnati, is complete in all modern improvements and the structures and equipments are new throughout, only having been completed last year. The firm and their predecessors, the Camargo Shade Cloth Company, have been making shade cloth in Cincinnati since 1861, when the business was started by H. H. Breneman, father of Chas. W. Breneman. Their specialty is hand made opaque shade cloth in all widths up to 126 inches, and the Camargo opaques are of the highest standard quality and finish, not being surpassed by any other opaque cloths in the market. Breneman & Co. also make cambric shade cloths up to 72 inches and mounted shades of all kinds.

Factory Reading Road.

They carry a general stock of shade goods, including laces and fringes, and will send catalogue and price list on application.

MONUMENTAL CITY MEMS.

Frederick Nassauer, of Joel Gutman & Co., dry goods and upholstery, visited the metropolis on business the 18th inst.

BALTIMORE, FEBRUARY 25.

A charter has been granted to the Anderson (S. C.) Upholstery and Spring Bed Company.

The Charcoal Club opened an attractive exhibit of designs for interior decorations at their studio, corner of Franklin and Howard streets, the 19th inst. The designs were loaned by the P. Hanson Hiss Manufacturing Company and embraced illustrations of drapery work, mural decorations, furniture sketches, &c.

The McKinney-Rea Company, dry goods and upholstery, Van Buren, Ark., has been incorporated, with a capital stock of $10,000, by W. J. McKinney and others.

The bedding and upholstery factory of George Woelfel, Nos. 1617 and 1619 Eastern avenue, was gutted by fire the 17th inst. Loss $7,000, insurance $4,000. Aaron Sindler's furniture and upholstery store, on the same street, was damaged to the extent of $2,000 by water; loss covered by insurance.

The Monnet Dry Goods Company, dry goods and upholstery, Pine Bluff, Ark., has been incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000. A. S. Monnet is the president.

The dry goods, furniture and upholstery store of S. Goodman, in the large building on High and Washington streets, Norfolk, Va., caught fire on the 15th inst., and was nearly gutted. Both stock and building were insured, the loss on stock from water and fire being probably $4,000.

Robert A. Pringle died at his home in Charleston, S. C., the 10th inst. in the forty-first year of his age. He was for many years a member of the dry goods and upholstery firm of Johnston, Crews & Co., and subsequently, with his brother, formed the firm of Pringle Brothers. A widow survives him.

Ignatius Lauer, for a number of years in the dry goods and upholstery business here, died on the 4th inst. of heart trouble.

AN OLD CUSTOMER'S NEW YEAR GREETING.

It is an illustration of the pleasant relations which exist between the old-established house of B. L. Solomon's Sons and its customers, especially those who have dealt with the firm since "auld lang syne," we are glad to present herewith a letter received by them from one of their oldest customers, Mr. Chas. M. Plum, of the Chas. M. Plum & Co. Upholstery Company, San Francisco. Mr. Plum writes as follows:

San Francisco, December 30, 1895.

Messrs. B. L. Solomon's Sons:

Gentlemen—It is nearly fifty years since I first became acquainted with the house of Solomon & Hart, of which you are the direct successors, and during all that long period I have held close relation, of a pleasant and profitable nature with them.

In the later years my intimacy with Solomon's Sons have been mutually friendly and I hope to them profitable, and now in my declining years I look over the past with satisfaction, knowing that I have been fairly dealt with and cordially respected.

The present is different from the past, not in respect to friendship, I hope, but in respect to profitable business. Times are changed and I sometimes feel that, like some of the mines in our State, the claim is nearly worked out, and unless a new vein is struck it will have to be abandoned. However, I also feel that while I have my good health, which is again restored to me, I will again recruit new means for holding my customers and reviving the business, which is greatly diminished by the prevailing methods of competition.

The prestige which has for so a long period been the pride of our firm and the envy of our competitors still remains with us, and though we may not again do the volume of business as in the past, yet we hope we shall not diminish that prestige in the future.

We in San Francisco are so far away from the busy scenes which surround you that we can scarcely judge of your success, but we learn that though your business has greatly changed from its former channels it is still large and profitable, and that your good health and energy are sufficient to carry it on with its accustomed vigor.

This is entirely gratifying to the writer and to all who have had the pleasure of your business acquaintance, and no firm of gentlemen with whom it has been my lot to be indebted is more deserving of this expression than the firm of B. L. Solomon's Sons.

With kind greetings for the coming year, I am faithfully yours.

Very respectfully, Chas. M. Plum.

J. S. Gillies & Co., furniture and upholstery, New York, are to remove from 35 and 37 to 119 and 121 West Twenty-third street. Their old quarters have been leased by George F. Vetter's Sons, now on Sixth avenue.

An auction sale of seconds produced by the machine-mounted window-shade concerns was held at the rooms of Field, Chapman & Fenner, New York, on the 6th inst. A large quantity of goods was sold, cleaning up the entire holdings of seconds in the hands of the companies up to the date of the sale. Prices ruled low and the goods generally went into the hands of jobbers.

OBITUARY.

Henry B. Blanchard.

Henry B. Blanchard, for a quarter of a century at the head of the upholstery department of Messrs. McCallum & McCallum, died at his residence in Ridley Park, Pa., on Sunday, February 16, 1896, in the eighty-third year of his age.

Mr. Blanchard occupied a position of unusual prominence in the carpet trade for many years, and was possessed of superior taste and judgment in everything pertaining to that particular branch of business. He was the last—save one—of the old-time upholsterers, who thirty or forty years ago held influential sway over the upholstery department of the retail carpet trade of Philadelphia.

Mr. Blanchard was born in Philadelphia, July 25, 1813, and began his business life with the late William Christie, then a prominent upholsterer doing business near Fourth and Chestnut streets. He remained with Mr. Christie until he was twenty-two years of age, and then started for himself, his store being located on Fourth street above Chestnut.

It must be remembered, in this connection, that starting in the upholstery business at that time required something more than a paper of tacks and a hammer. The upholsterers of that period were largely merchants and carried stocks of considerable magnitude. They also controlled a large clientage, many of the first families in Philadelphia relying upon their taste and judgment in the selection of their carpets. As the carpet stores at that time did not employ their own upholsterers, as at the present, the old-time artists had it pretty much all their own way.

In 1855 Mr. Blanchard removed from Fourth street to 727 Chestnut street, where he remained for a number of years. He was then in close proximity to James H. Orne, who was then carrying on a successful retail carpet business at No. 626, nearly opposite, while the old firm of J. F. & E. B. Orne were also occupying their old stand at 519 Chestnut street.

His next move was westward, to the corner of Thirteenth and Chestnut streets, where he had several partners associated with him, viz., John Wilson, John Michael, William Bernard and Maj. A. T. Goodman. He remained at that locality until 1870, at which time a change had come over the method of conducting the retail carpet business, and most, if not all, of the merchants employed their own upholsterers. The business at Thirteenth and Chestnut having become somewhat disastrous Mr. Blanchard concluded to relinquish it and accept a position as head of the upholstery department of the firm of McCallum, Crease & Sloan, who were then just occupying their new store at 1012 and 1014 Chestnut street. In this position he remained through all the changes that took place in the firm until the day of his death.

Aside from his great proficiency in his legitimate business, Mr. Blanchard possessed artistic ability of a high order, and spent many of his leisure hours in painting landscapes in oil, many of which adorn his late dwelling at Ridley Park, while others are in the hands of friends to whom he presented them. His artistic talent was exhibited also in many successful designs for carpets and wall papers. The late John F. Orne recognized this talent in him and frequently employed him in executing designs and colorings for his private patterns. These were generally successful.

Mr. Blanchard was at one time during his life possessed of a considerable fortune and moved among the first circles of his native city. Genial and kindly to all, conscientious to a fault, full of charity toward all in distress, it is not to be wondered at that his friends were legion. In him were found all the qualities that go to make up a true gentleman. One who had known him intimately for nearly twenty years remarked to the writer on the way to the funeral that he considered him one of "God's gentlemen."

On the day of the funeral the establishment of McCallum & McCallum was closed, while the firm and all in their employ attended the funeral in a body.

Mr. Blanchard was never married.

BIRKIN & CO.'S LACE CURTAINS.

Nottingham novelties in exclusive effects have proved a very successful attraction in the offerings of T. I. Birkin & Co. through their travelers on the road and at their new salesroom, 458 Broadway, New York. Buyers will find this new salesroom a most convenient place for inspecting the great variety of novelties and specialties which Birkin & Co. are offering for the spring trade. As manufacturers this firm rank particularly high, and the line now shown by them is certainly well calculated to maintain their reputation.

Mistress of the House—Bridget, some of the bed clothing is missing. Was any of it left out of doors over night?

Bessie (aged five)—Bridget doesn't know anything about it, mamma. I know where it is. Papa's got it.

"What do you mean, child?"

"I heard some of the folks next door sayin' this morning they saw papa the other day with three sheets in the wind."—Chicago Tribune.

The Hensel Silk Manufacturing Company are showing this season many striking novelties in fringes, lace edgings, insertions, braids and other decorations and trimmings for curtains, upholsteries and covers. A very happy idea with them was the making up of several table covers showing how their fringes, edgings and insertions can be used to obtain very handsome and tasteful effects. The firms who have adopted Mr. Hensel's suggestions are doing a very nice business on the goods, and his spring novelties have opened up a field of new decoration for draperies and covers that will be of great value to the trade. These novelties are only shown by the Hensel Company, and can be seen at their New York office, 337 Broadway, in charge of J. Rob. Stirratt, and at the mill in Philadelphia, 39 North Broad street.

OF INTEREST TO UPHOLSTERY MEN.

Clarence Whitman & Co. have secured a final injunction against Henry Schadewald, who, it was alleged, had imitated the patterns of Whitman & Co.'s popular "Teheran" quilts in inferior goods. The Teheran patterns are all patented, and infringers will be promptly prosecuted.

Mayer & Co., manufacturers of comfortables, have removed from 19 to 48 Walker street.

Samuel Simon, a salesman in the employ of A. N. Rosenthal & Co., 45 Greene street, and David Meyer, who was formerly a buyer for the firm, were arrested on February 19 charged with stealing silks. The house is prominent in the Oriental trade. A customer of the Rosenthals complained that a rival firm were underselling them in the same stock. The firm, it is alleged, identified some of the goods as having come from their warehouse. The dealer said he had bought the goods from a peddler, and helped the detectives to find Simon, whom he identified as the man. The police claimed that Simon confessed and implicated Meyer, who was also arrested.

Thos. J. Brew, resident New York buyer for the Ely & Walker Dry Goods Company, St. Louis, will remove his office from Room 56 at 256 Church street to Room 110 in the same building.

Neil Gray, treasurer of the Oswego Shade Cloth Co., sends us the company's new sample book. It is an admirable illustration of just what such a book should be, compact and easily handled. Of the contents it is hardly necessary, considering the reputation of the Oswego goods, to say more than that they surpass former efforts. "Chouaguen" holds a distinct place in the market. A 48 inch width has now been added.

W. C. Collins & Co. have engaged in the upholstery trade as commission merchants at 312 Cherry street, Philadelphia.

At the King sale of art objects on February 18 a high figure was fetched by a seventeenth century Flemish tapestry 10 feet 8 inches in height and 15 feet 6 inches long. The subject was "Clovis I. at Tours, receiving ambassadors from Anastasius, Emperor of the East, who gave him titles of Patrician and Consul." It brought $950. A "grand Farnese hanging, velours de Genes of rich red hue; coat of arms of the Farnese family in centre, and corner ornaments and borders in cloth of gold," brought $625.

A new departure in the way of a patent folding sham pillow and bolster has been invented by A. S. Rosenbaum, of 67 Grand street, New York, and bids fair to become very popular with the trade. It has no clumsy features, which were detrimental to some of the old box pillows, and besides this it can be folded so that it economizes room in shipment. It is light, handsome and clean, and will no doubt prove a success. The next issue of The Review will describe the new invention in a more comprehensive manner.

The Columbia Shade Cloth Company was incorporated under the laws of the State of New York February 17, 1896, for the purpose of manufacturing, buying and selling window shadings, shades, shade trimmings and accessories. The directors are: A. S. Page, J. H. Ware, Chas. E. Parker, T. D. McChesney, Chas. Tremain, D. W. Parker, D. B. Page, D. G. Wilkins, J. C. Perkins. The officers are: President, A. S. Page; vice-president, Chas. Tremain; treasurer, Chas. E. Parker; assistant treasurer, J. C. Perkins; secretary, T. D. McChesney; assistant secretary, D. G. Wilkins. The central office will be in New York city, with branch offices at other centres to be determined. Factories now in existence will at present supply the new corporation with goods.

James Whiteside, commission merchant and importer of upholstery yarns, has removed from Spring street to 31 Wooster street.

Messrs. Neuburger, Heine & Co., 466 Broome street, New York, have enlarged their lace curtain showroom, which now occupies the entire second floor in the building occupied by them.

W. A. Briggs and Frank T. Woods, who were formerly with W. & J. Sloane, have become partners, and have opened a retail establishment at 20 East Twenty-first street, New York.

H. C. Kroh & Co.'s business to this date has surpassed the record of the firm in all previous years, and as handlers of Scotch hollands Kroh & Co. have been and will continue to be especially conspicuous. They are receiving large shipments of these goods, and are in a position to meet promptly any demand for them which may be made by the trade. This ability to fill all orders for Scotch hollands without delay is a point which buyers will recognize as highly important.

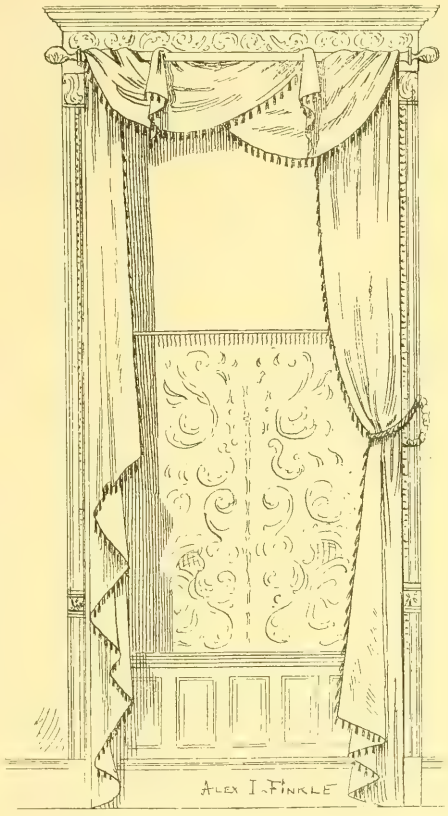
An architect may be a very clever gentleman in his own line and yet not be much of a hand at sign painting. The owners of many of the beautiful business structures in the city very properly put restrictions upon the character of the signs used by tenants. Such is the case with the big building in which John A. Brittain & Co., Dryfus Brothers, the Saranac Mills and other well-known firms are located. Unfortunately the architect seems to be of the opinion that business signs are intended as ornaments to the structure he has erected. Most people regard a sign as something to be read. As it is, a buyer would need six pair of eyes and a 20 inch telescope to read the gorgeous and costly structures hung on the outer walls of 434 Broadway. A plain black and white or black and gold sign against the cream colored brick would be worth for practical purposes a mile of the gold and wire foolishness now employed.

W. M. Cathrall, 1030 Arch street and 212 Church street, Philadelphia, offers to the trade a line of awning stripes embracing over 300 styles and brands. Write to him for samples and prices of these and other upholstery goods supplies. See his advertisement on page 77 of this issue.

The new Defiance button machine is an indispensable article in every upholstery establishment. It does its work rapidly and perfectly, and its price (but $5.00) places it within the reach of everyone in the trade. It is for sale by all the leading jobbers and at the manufacturer's New York salesroom, 23 Clinton place. Call or write for further particulars, circulars, &c.



This simple and effective drapery was put up by Wendell & Homan in the house of an Italian lady a resident in New York. It is of blue silk damask, with heading and frieze to match. The sash curtains are of Brussels.

C. F. Wildey's café at 351 Broadway is well known to the upholstery trade, who regard it as a comfortable sort of a place in which to spend a few moments on the way to and from business and sometimes between those hours. One well-known gentleman, who is located near the northern boundary of the upholstery district, came near making quite a stay there on the evening of February 24. He had dropped in for a nightcap, and stepped for a few moments into the toilet room. When he came out the place was closed. He made himself at home, mixed himself a few cocktails, rung up the price on the cash register, being careful to make it two for a quarter, until Patrolman Geo. McPhall came along, trying the doors on his beat. Then word was sent to Mr. Wildey at the Cosmopolitan. Later.—An employee of the hotel came up, collected the checks and released the upholstery man, who went home to bed.

The Winsted Metalliform Company are extensive manufacturers of drapery brass goods, curtain poles, sets, brackets, extension rods, upholstery hardware, &c. Their full line is shown at their New York salesroom, 343 Broadway, and buyers will find it replete with desirable novelties and specialties which cannot be procured elsewhere.

Thomas Wilson, as sole agent for the Columbia Lace Company, Columbia, Pa., is in a position to show very notable and desirable styles of lace curtains, nets, bed sets, &c., comprising new and handsome designs which cannot fail to make a highly favorable impression on buyers. Mr. Wilson has the line on view at his salesrooms, 42 White street, New York, and it well deserves inspection.

The most novel and attractive thing in the way of rope portières yet devised has just been brought out by Dryfus Brothers. The motive is taken from the American forests and is admirably worked out. The first of the series has just come from the factory. Very perfect imitations of a pine cone are strung on green ropes, like the dark foliage of the evergreen, lighted up with a slight and judicious use of metal.

The extensive importing house of Bossut Père & Fils, whose New York warehouse is at 47 and 49 White street, show highly attractive lines of upholstery drapery fabrics, curtains, couch and table covers, &c., in novel and exclusive effects. Buyers who want standard styles or choice new things, which cannot be matched elsewhere, are advised to inspect the offerings of the Messrs. Bossut, for we can assure them that their time will be wisely employed in so doing.

The Universal Rug and Curtain Company is a new concern which opened February 27 at 220 Sixth avenue. The owners are Messrs. Lachman, Sigenberg and Welch, formerly in the employ of Ludwig Brothers, of Fourteenth street, as salesmen.

NAUMANN'S LACE CURTAINS.

In his new and spacious salesrooms, 106 to 112 Spring street, New York, A. Naumann is showing the finest line of lace curtains ever offered by him, and to say this is to give the highest commendation possible, for Mr. Naumann is known everywhere in the trade as a connoisseur in qualities and patterns, with exceptional facilities and resources for meeting every demand which the most exacting buyers can make.

The line now on view comprises all grades and a remarkable range of patterns, including also choice novelties and specialties in great variety. No dealer should miss seeing these goods.

CHICAGO CHAFF.

Rudolph B. Phillips, for the past fifteen years with the J. V. Farwell Company, is now Western representative of B. Bischof's Son, New York.

S. C. Tobin, formerly with the J. V. Farwell Company and later in the commission business, is now in charge of the Chicago branch of Floyd Brothers, Boston.

William J. Sinclair, formerly in Mendel Brothers' upholstery department, is now manager of John A. Colby & Son's drapery department. The second man in this department is Harry L. Hunt, formerly with the Tobey Furniture Company.

MEATS & CO.'S LACE CURTAINS.

The extensive lace curtain manufacturing firm of W. E. Meats & Co., Nottingham, England, is represented in the United States by Mr. Wallis, whose stock and salesrooms are at 33 Howard street, New York. Mr. Wallis reports a good business in lace curtains and fish nets to this date. The firm's travelers have returned from the road with well filled order books, proving that the line shown by them has been promptly appreciated in the trade.

QUOTATIONS ON WINDOW SHADES.

The spring business has been brisk with Schroth & Potter, the Columbus, Ohio, window shade and lace curtain wholesalers, and their men are still sending in good orders. The extent of their business is realized in the fact that their road men cover twenty-four States, and their ability to interest any dealer on styles and prices is unquestionable. On page 88 the firm quote prices and trade discounts on the leading window shade goods of their line, and also give information as to deliveries and freight allowances. This page is a valuable reference and can be safely used in sending in mail orders. The prices are stated to be the lowest that can be obtained from any house for the same qualities, and an opportunity is thereby afforded buyers to test the attractions of buying from Columbus, Ohio.

"That little woman passes here every day," said the junior partner. "I wonder if she is married or single."

"Widow, I guess," said the senior partner. "She looks perfectly contented."

The theory was tenable.—Ex.

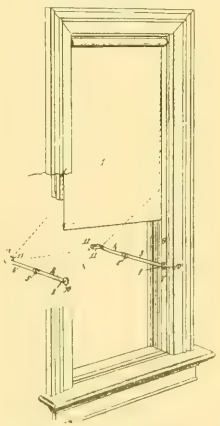
No. 554,958. Brace for Converting Window Curtains into Awnings.—Henry C. Schrenkeisen, Rye, N. Y. Filed November 27, 1895. Issued February 18, 1896.

Claim.—1. A window attachment for converting an inside window curtain into an awning, consisting of a pair of folding and unfolding braces, each composed of two pivotally connected sections which lie in alignment when unfolded or extended, one section of each brace having its outer end turned at right angles thereto and formed with a rigid fork to receive and hold the extremity of the window curtain stick and the other section having its inner end provided with means to pivot it to a window frame.——2. A window attachment for converting an inside window curtain into an awning, consisting of a pair of folding and unfolding braces, each composed of two similar sections pivotally connected by a butt hinge joint and lying in alignment when unfolded or extended, the outer sections of the braces having their outer ends turned at right angles thereto and formed integral with open forks to receive and hold the ends of the curtain stick, and the inner sections having their inner ends provided with eyes to pivot them to a window frame.



No. 554,959. Curtain Fixture.—John H. Scott, Winston, N. C. Filed August 5, 1895. Issued February 18, 1896.

No. 555,031. Curtain Fixture.—Antonio Agüero, New York, N. Y. Filed April 27, 1895. Issued February 18, 1896.

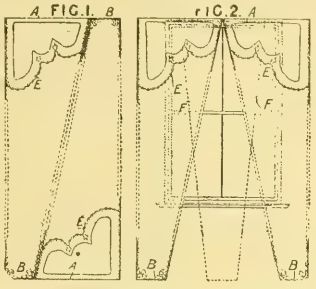
No. 16,622. August 31, 1894. Curtains.—Pratt, Hurst & Co., Limited, Stoney street, Nottingham, and T. B. Walker, 2 Melton road, Bridgeford, Nottinghamshire. Patent issued February 5, 1896.



Curtains are made with the top edge A longer than the bottom edge B. To save material, the curtain is made on the lace machine in the manner shown in Figure 1. When three curtains are used to a window, the edges of the middle one may both be inclined as at F, Fig. 2. The top part of the curtain may represent a valance, as at E.

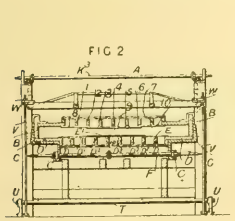
No. 16,727. September 3, 1894. Making Twist Lace.—E. Doughty, Heskey street, and H. and A. G. Flersheim, both of St. Mary's Gate, both in Nottingham. Patent issued February 5, 1896.

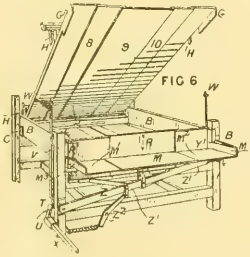
A stronger ground or foundation for patterns is made by using an extra warp, which is twisted round the bobbin threads and is traversed first to the right and then to the left over three or more, preferably five or six, bobbins.

No. 16,977. September 6, 1894. (Date claimed under Section 103 of Patents, &c., Act, 1883, February 6, 1894.) Stuffing Mattresses.—R. R. Thompson, 313N Main street, Bloomington, Ill., U. S. A. Patent issued February 5, 1896.

The stuffing is placed in an adjustable box and compressed by a plunger, N, and forced through a spout into the ticking. The bottom and top of the box consist of bars, D, D^1, D^2, D^3, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, connected by lazy tongs and overlapping plates, E, E^1, 8, 9, 10,

Figures 2 and 6. The sides B, b have brackets, C, with nuts, c, engaging right and left handed screwed shafts, F, F^1, connected by a chain and wheels. The top is braced to strengthen it, is hinged to a rod, I, capable of vertical adjustment in guides, K, by nuts and gearing on shafts, K^2, K^3, and has hooks, H, engaging the sides B.





The spout consists of a fixed middle plate, M, and sides, M^1, M^2, with flanges, M^3 connected to the sides B. The top of the spout is formed by the lid, and the sides by the flanges G^1, M^3, Fig. 6. An adjustable gate, consisting of central plate, R, and side plates, R^1, Y^1, sliding in grooves in the sides B, B, can be raised and lowered by hand lever Z^1 and spring levers Z, Z^2. The plunger is adjustable, and has a nut working on the screwed shaft O, having pulleys P, P^1 and clutch Q. The lid is clamped down by nuts W on rods V, which are connected by cranks U to shaft T, and which are forced downward by levers X, Fig. 1. The bottom, top and spout are adjusted at one operation.

No. 17,619. September 17, 1894. Curtains, &c., Hanging. — J. Kynaston, 70 Hope street, Liverpool. Patent issued February 12, 1896.

Curtains, mantel draperies and all kinds of hangings are formed at or near their edges with eyes, loops, slits, eyelet holes, &c., c, which are engaged with hooks screwed to rings or to moldings, &c. The hooks may be formed integral with the rings. Figs. 6 and 7 show two forms of hook, and Figs. 8 and 9 show a ring, e, screwed at g^1 into a bridge piece, G, which can be engaged with the eye in an ordinary curtain ring. The loops or the eyes c, c may be formed by a cord worked in the body of the curtain, &c., itself, or worked or woven on a tape or braid and sewn onto the curtain, &c.

PINNEY, CASSE & LACKEY COMPANY.

THE offerings of the Pinney, Casse & Lackey Company for the spring trade include a big line of staples and novelties in window shades, well calculated to win quick appreciation among buyers, and the orders received have been in full accordance with this fact. Buyers who desire really desirable, well made and quick selling goods will find that the Pinney, Casse & Lackey Company can fully meet such demands. Their line is remarkable alike for quality of fabrics and for designs and workmanship. Call at their New York headquarters, 273 Canal street.

William F. Buddenklepper was recently arrested on a charge of setting fire to an upholstery shop kept by him at 232 East 125th street, New York. It is charged that he set fire to the premises on the night of April 21, after increasing the amount of his insurance and removing a large quantity of goods from the shop.

EXPORTS of carpeting and kindred goods during the past fortnight were as follows: CARPETING.—Southampton, 80 bs., $3,004; Antwerp, 10 bs., $325; Hamburg, 9 bs., $311; Rotterdam, 7 bs., $202; Hayti, 3 bs., $79. CARPET SWEEPERS.—Hamburg, 14 cs., $218; British Australia, 2 cs., $82; New Zealand, 2 cs., $46; Antwerp, 1 cs., $20; Genoa, 1 cs., $18.

The New York Furniture Exchange will hold an opening of their permanent quarters in the Industrial Building, Forty-third street and Lexington avenue, March 2 and 3, 1896. The exchange will be open to members of the trade only. A collation will be served from 11 A. M. to 6 P. M. On the reception committee will be found the names of many gentlemen who have large dealings with those men in the upholstery trade who handle fancy furniture and odd pieces.

CLEANING WALL PAPER.

The easiest method of cleaning the dusty and somewhat blackened surface is to arm one's self with a broom, over which is pinned some cotton flannel, which must be changed frequently, as the flannel will soon be in such a condition that to continue its use would smear the walls with dust and soot. Go over the ceiling first with long, even, firm strokes; then do the walls in the same way.

Another way to clean the paper is to have on hand several loaves of stale bread, and use instead of the broom and cloth. Cut off the crust from the long end of the loaf and rub the paper with it, cutting off a thin slice as soon as the crumbs become soiled. This is a tedious method, but it is effective.

To remove a grease spot, lay coarse brown paper over it and pass a hot iron over the brown paper. Repeat this process, using a fresh piece of paper until the spot disappears.

THE PAPER TURNED YELLOW.

THEODORE M. STEPHEN, United States consul at Annaberg, Germany, sends to the State Department some comments by the directors of the Berlin Chamber of Commerce on an attempt recently made to introduce American wall papers into the German market.

The attempt, says the report, met with a success hitherto unexampled. American wall paper manufacturers sent a representative to Europe with a very large assortment, which was well received on account of the liking of the Germans for bright colored and lightly designed articles, and because the prices were moderate. "Unfortunately, however," says the report, "after delivery, signs appeared in many cases that the papers were not freshly printed, and in some instances they had turned yellow. The unfavorable impression made by these goods in Germany will not easily be forgotten when offers are again made."

Three Vital Points . . .

Are necessary to insure a perfect roller such as . . . .

The Improved Hartshorn Wood Roller.

FIRST—No Tacks Are to Be Used.

The patent shade holders furnished free with Improved Hartshorn Wood Rollers eliminate the use of tacks in the most satisfactory manner possible.

SECOND—Provision for Mounting Shade Cloth Absolutely True.

The groove in this roller is the only place where the shade can be fastened to the roller. As the groove is as straight as machinery can make it, the cloth must be fastened in a straight line.

THIRD—Prevention Against Tearing Cloth from Rolls.

Owing to the scientific construction of the new roller, when the shade cloth is fastened upon the roller in the groove with our shade holders, the resistance which it offers is so strong that when shade and roller are hung it is almost impossible to tear the cloth off.

This Roller received specific indorsement in our award of a Gold Medal and Special Diploma of Honor by the Judges of the Atlanta Exposition.

Our new Descriptive Catalogue for 1896 is now ready. Free on application.

THE NEWEST STYLES

. . IN . .

Lace Curtains

ARE SHOWN BY

A. NAUMANN,

AT HIS NEW SALESROOM:

Spring and Mercer Streets,

NEW YORK.

One eminent and popular house that has tried all makes announces them to be

"The Best Window Hollands Made."

Another equally large Importer of great experience states:

"The goods have always been and are now fast colors."

Another firm in the very front rank of the business describes them as

"Unequalled in quality, unshrinkable and of finest dyes."

While another firm of Importers, probably one of the largest shade goods houses in the world, characterizes them in these terms:

"JOHN KING & SON'S Famous Scotch Hollands."

JOHN KING & SON'S

ESTABLISHED IN THE YEAR 1775

Celebrated

Scotch Window HOLLANDS

ILLUSTRATING the high consideration these popular goods hold in the estimation of the most experienced importers of shade goods in the country, the attention of the trade is invited to the above opinions, published in the columns of this and other journals, over the signatures of the respective firms.

Enterprising but unscrupulous parties unable to reach the exalted standard of these celebrated goods, pay them the flattery of imitating the wrappings. It is the Goods, not the wrappings, the trade is after. See that Bands, Tickets and Tabs of every piece are marked

"JOHN KING & SON."

Wholesaled from every Shade Goods Importer and Leading Carpet and Upholstery Importer in the Country.

W. H. FLETCHER & CO.

THE LARGEST LACE CURTAIN HOUSE IN THE WORLD.

All we ask is a call—the prices and styles will do the rest. We have about 300 patterns in Brussels, from the lowest to the highest. Likewise over 750 designs in Irish Points, in white and ecru. In Fancy Fish or Scotch Nets we have 125 styles—stripes, figures, &c., and they begin at 7½c. a yard. Bed Sets Start at 75c. and end at $150. They are in Nottinghams, Antiques, Irish Points, Renaissance, &c. But what's the use of specifying—everybody knows that we have Everything Known to the Lace Curtain Trade. If you don't believe it try us.

Carpet Sewing Machine.

The original and most perfect machine for sewing carpets on a stationary track. Will sew perfectly every grade of carpet, from the finest Axminster and Wilton to the cheapest Ingrain. Easy to start, easy to run. Sews borders and mitres. Makes a lap seam of raw edge and selvage. Will make a seam of any depth; will match the figure perfectly; will not drop stitches; will earn its cost in a short time.

New Attachment, Just Out,

WILL SEW INGRAIN CARPETS WITH OVER-STITCH

exactly like hand work. By this new attachment the Gowing Machine can now be adjusted to sew over-stitch by a simple change of parts. It can also be attached to old machines at small cost, thus making them up to date in every way. The machine will do everything that any other kind of carpet sewing machine can do and execute the work more perfectly than any other machine. Price, with over-stitch attachment, ... $150.00.

"Aye, There's the Rub."

Wet Weather Wisdom.

"Aye, There's the Rub."

WHEN the rains descend and the floods come the prudent man begins to meditate on the nature and consistency of mud. He finds that it sticketh closer than a brother and hath a strong affinity for carpets, rugs and stained or polished floors. Then is he reminded of the Rubber Mat that shuts out this unwelcome visitor. He buys one, his peace of mind is restored and the tranquility of his home assured, "come rain, come shine, come fair or foul weather." Rubber Mats are neat, durable and clean, noiseless, soft to the tread, firm in place and impervious to moisture—i. e. DOUBLE DIAMOND RUBBER MATS.

Mats and Matting, Corrugated and Perforated, for stairs, steps, hallways, elevators, bars, floors, etc., in doors and out. Pitcher and Table Mats, Coin Mats, Mats galore. Made to order of any size required, not exceeding 6x30 feet. Lettering, 25 cents extra for each letter. Red or White Letters, 50 cents each.

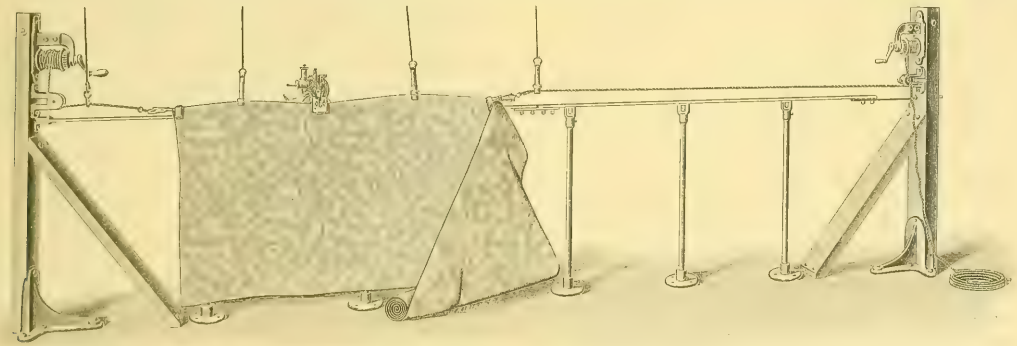
The Taft Universal Carpet Sewing Machine.



The first and only all round Carpet Sewing Machine ever invented. Sews carpets for less than ½c. per yard. A mechanical device of the highest type; complete in every detail. Requires the least possible space. Run by Hand or Power, electric motor if preferred.

TESTED TO SEW AT RATE OF 4 YARDS PER MINUTE. PUT UP TANDEM TO SEW 8 YARDS PER MINUTE OR 480 YARDS PER HOUR CARPET SEAM,

This machine will sew Ingrain Carpets over-stitch, practically a perfect imitation of hand sewn work. Being more even and stronger, will stand any amount of strain. Can be laid either side up. Will not rip. Will give perfect satisfaction. One inexperienced girl can, with this machine, sew more yards of Ingrain Carpet in one day than eight experienced hand sewers, and 20 per cent. better. With one of these machines you can deliver a carpet within one hour from time of receiving order for same. It is a well-known fact that 70 per cent. of the carpets made are Ingrain and no machine ever made to sew them, while dealers buy a machine to sew Tapestries, Brussels, &c., doing only 30 per cent. of their work. If 30 per cent. is worth one machine, 70 per cent. must be worth two, and a Taft machine which does 100 per cent. three. You must have the Ingrain Sewer to be up to date.

This machine is not confined to Ingrain work; but is equally good on all other carpets—Tapestries, Brussels, Wiltons and Straw Matting, &c. The machine can be changed in five seconds from over-stitch to straight stitch, and vice versa.

Will, without any change, overcast all raw edges, sew together two raw edges and overcast them. In fact, does all the work in its different branches with one operator, and is so arranged that a girl weighing one hundred pounds can handle any carpet with ease, and sew several hundred yards per day. The machine is simple, durable, light running and a rapid sewer. No carpet house can afford to be without one. Write for samples, terms, information and trial conditions to

This machine is sold direct only; no agents.

Crompton's New Ingrain Carpet Loom.

CROMPTON NEW INGRAIN CARPET LOOMS.

THE attention of manufacturers of Ingrain Carpets is called to the consideration of a new Carpet Loom just put on the market. It carries four (4) shuttle boxes at each end of the lathe; any one of the series at each end can be brought into line with the shuttle race at any pick, under the dictation of the Jacquard cards. The Jacquard is of the most approved construction and moves the warps kindly. The let off and take up motions bring out perfectly matched goods. On two ply work it makes sixty (60) yards per day. The apparatus for moving the boxes cannot be surpassed for its simplicity and efficiency. This Loom has no equal in speed and simplicity from four (4) to seven (7) colors.

CROMPTON ART SQUARE LOOM, for 3, 3½ and 4 yard goods, produces the best results and has no rival.

CROMPTON'S UPHOLSTERY LOOM, with Improved "1886" Box Motion, is capable of high speed and nice adjustment for its special line of goods.

"Before you begin, consider, and when you have considered, act."

DO YOU EVER examine the Sweepers you buy?

Are they as well made as those you bought years ago?

Have they all the late improvements, such as appeal to the practical housekeeper, who is the one who uses them?

Are you buying on "Old Reputation" or "Present Quality?"

Will it not pay to "consider" these points, and "when you have considered act," by sending for a sample of one or more styles.

Are the "pans" so put in that when the house girl uses the "broom action" there is no chance to cause "sprouting?"

Are the brushes all right?

Try It.
It Will Pay You.

WE make no so-called "competing line," only HIGH GRADE broom and Cam Action Sweepers.

PATENTED AUGUST 25, 1885.

This Patent Rubber Binding holds the ends of Matting, Carpets, etc., down in place, does not curl up like other flexible bindings, is not affected by dampness, will not break when shaken and thrown about, and is very durable and easily adjusted.

The Many Advantages of this Patent Rubber Binding give it the preference over any other heretofore used on Matting and Carpet runners for Hotels, Stores, Steamboats, Offices, Elevators, Street Cars, Railroad Cars, etc., etc.

It is Made in ⅞, 1, 1⅛, 1¼, 1⅜ and 1½ lengths and is perforated to facilitate the sewing. The most inexperienced person can sew it on perfectly.

This PATENT RUBBER BINDING can be obtained from all the Leading Carpet and Upholstery Dealers.

Clean Goods. Clean Business Methods.

Our celebrated Double Extra (10 wire) Tapestries are for Novelty of Treatment and Superb Color Effects a Revelation in the Art of Tapestry Carpet Manufacture. Brussels and Axminster Effects can be seen to perfection in this Line. It is conceded by the trade that our line leads.

OUR WILTON VELVETS HAVE MORE THAN DOUBLED THEIR SALES IN THE PAST TWELVE MONTHS.

Our different grades have been greatly strengthened this season, and our trade mark [Patented October 6th, 1885,] (Wilton Backs) which we are now putting on our two lower grades of Tapestries is increasing the demand for these goods.

Being among the Largest Manufacturers of Tapestry Carpets in the world, shrewd Buyers will inspect our line before placing their orders.

LOWELL MANUFACTURING CO.,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Wiltons, Brussels, Ingrains.

LOWELL CARPETS have been justly celebrated for more than half a century. For the guidance of buyers the word "Lowell" is woven in white capital letters in the back of our Wiltons and Brussels at each repeat of the pattern. The fabrics are of the best quality, designs and coloring.

Our Middlesex Wiltons have the word "Middlesex" woven in the back. The word is registered as our Trade Mark in the United States Patent Office.

The popular Lowell Ingrains are wound on a hollow stick made in two solid pieces, with the words "Lowell Man'g. Co." stamped within, a patented United States Trade Mark.

Bigelow Carpet Company,

ORIGINAL POWER-LOOM MANUFACTURERS OF

WILTON AND BRUSSELS

CARPETS.

The Carpets made by this Company have received the highest award wherever exhibited, including Gold Medals at the Paris Exposition, 1878, and at the Centennial, 1876.

Their deserved reputation for excellence of fabric, richness and durability of color, novelty and beauty of design, has led to frequent infringements, and inferior goods have often been palmed off in their stead. For the protection of the public the Company has adopted as a trade-mark the word "BIGELOW," which will be woven (at every repeat of the pattern) in white capitals into the back of the fabric. Customers will therefore have merely to examine the back of a carpet to be certain that they are getting the genuine Bigelow Wiltons or Body Brussels.

The Logic of Facts.

We have recently said something regarding the quality of our Linoleum, not the least feature of which was the reference to oil. THE FACT IS, WE ARE THE ONLY MAKERS OF LINOLEUM WHO ALSO PRODUCE LINSEED OIL, and we therefore positively know the kind of oil used in our Linoleum and that it is the best. The logic of facts is demonstrated in the composition of the BLABON LINOLEUM. The ingredients are of a superior kind, the thickness standard, and the patterns and colorings representations of advanced art in Floor Coverings. . . .

Blabon Linoleum.

The statements that thickness does not count are delusive. The more cork and linseed oil used the greater the thickness and cost and the better the goods. We have seen some Linoleum (imported) that could not stand on end in the roll; it lacked substance because the materials were not there. You cannot make Linoleum by simply painting a textile fabric. Toughness, Elasticity and Wear are obtained in the Blabon Linoleum. Any goods sold at lower prices than ours are far more inferior in quality than they are lower in price. When you buy of the Jobber ask for BLABON'S Linoleum, and be assured by us that you are getting unbeatable value.

Floor Oil Cloth.

The same care and attention referred to as being applied to the production of our Linoleum is likewise given to the manufacture of our Floor Oil Cloth. Our own make of linseed oil goes into our Oil Cloths, and our equipment of plant for rapid and economical manufacture is unsurpassed. We will not say here that we are the largest makers of Floor Oil Cloths, but we can justifiably enter any contest for that designation. In Styles of Oil Cloths, too, we invite any comparison.

UPHOLSTERY DEPARTMENT, PAGE 43.

Our readers are urged to remember that we are always desirous to receive communications of interest to the carpet or upholstery trades, such as changes in firms or managers, the building or opening of new stores, improvements in old ones, the adding of new departments, improved methods of doing business, new inventions, suggestions as to the cutting, making and laying of carpets, the designing and fitting of draperies, or inquiries and dissertations relating to the technical or commercial details of the trades to which this periodical is devoted.

THE RETAIL TRADE.

The cold and stormy weather prevailing during the past fortnight has interfered materially with the opening of retail trade, and duplicate orders have therefore been few and small, but most dealers take a hopeful view of the situation, looking forward to an active business when the weather becomes more favorable.

Reports of general business conditions from most parts of the country are fairly encouraging, and dealers note more inquiries than usual for the better grades of goods. The straw matting trade is likely to be especially active, and the competition of Chinese and Japanese mattings with our own product of low priced carpeting seems to be growing more formidable than ever. Some interesting statistics on this point are given in the present issue of THE REVIEW.

A DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

SENATOR FRYE has introduced a bill to make a department of commerce and manufactures. He says that the bill is the outgrowth of the resolution adopted by the National Board of Trade at its last annual meeting held in this city, and that he introduces it in response to a growing demand from business men and commercial bodies all over the country who thought the necessity for such a measure existed. It enlarges the cabinet by the appointment of an additional secretary and takes from the State Department a portion of its duties and from the Treasury Department all of its present functions that relate entirely to commerce, its protection and development, such as the life saving service, lighthouse board, marine hospital service, steamboat inspection, Bureau of Navigation, coast and geodetic survey, Bureau of Statistics, &c.

The Bureau of Statistics of the State Department is merged with the same bureau in the Treasury Department, and both bureaus are placed under the new department. Consular officers and commercial agents are likewise transferred from the State to this proposed department.

TO REGULATE AUCTIONS.

ASSEMBLYMAN LEONARD has introduced into the New York Legislature a bill relating to auctions and auctioneers. The bill provides that all auctioneers doing business in the city shall hereafter be required, between the "fifteenth and thirtieth days of April," in each and every year, to obtain from the mayor a license to engage in and carry on such business and occupation upon filing a bond with two good sureties in the penal sum of $2,000, "and to pay for such license the sum of $250, which sum shall be applied toward support of the poor of said city."

Every auctioneer shall, under his own proper name, give previous notice "in at least two public newspapers, to be selected by the mayor," printed in the said city, of every auction sale that shall be lawfully made by him; and in case he shall be connected with any person or firm his name shall in all cases precede, separately and individually, the name of such person or the title of the firm under which he transacts business.

All sales of goods by public auction in the city of New York by an auctioneer shall be made in the daytime, between sunrise and sunset, excepting: 1. Books and prints. 2. Goods sold in the original package, as imported, according to a printed catalogue, of which samples shall have been opened and exposed to public inspection at least one day previous to the sale. 3. Horses and live stock. 4. Paintings, statuary, bronzes and other works of art, and specimens of natural history, which shall have been on public exhibition in the city of New York for at least one day immediately preceding the time of sale, provided that public notice of the time and place of such exhibition shall have been given by advertisement for at least one day immediately preceding the day of such exhibition in one or more of the daily newspapers printed in said city, and designated as hereinafter prescribed.

AN INTERESTING DECISION.

A decision of importance to manufacturers was rendered by Justice Williams of the Supreme Court at Philadelphia on the 2d inst. in the case of Dempsey v. J. & J. Dobson. As previously noted by us, the facts in the suit were that the plaintiff had been in the employ of the defendants as a color mixer, and alleged that upon leaving that employment he was forcibly prevented from removing his books containing the recipes from the mills, and after copies had been made of them they were returned to him. He brought suit, claiming that these recipes were his own private property, containing secret processes valuable to him in his business, and a verdict of $10,000 was rendered in his favor. This was reduced by the court by remittitur to $5,000.

The defendants then took an appeal to the Supreme Court, which reverses the judgment of the court below and allows a new trial.

THE CARPET SWEEPER LITIGATION.

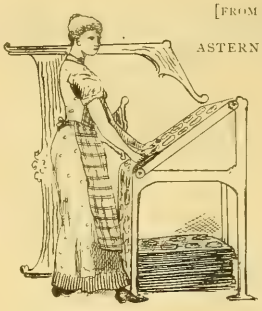
The Bissell Carpet Sweeper Company have forwarded to us the following letter:

We are just in receipt of advices from our attorney announcing as follows: "Decree modifying recent injunction reversed by the Circuit Court of Appeals in our favor."

We advised you some days ago that the Goshen Company had made application for a rehearing of the case we won against them, which was promptly denied. They then made application to the District Court in Grand Rapids to permit them to finish up and market what quantity of broom action sweepers they had in course of construction, being some 300 or 400 dozens, which that court granted, with the understanding that they were to pay us the profit on same, to be further determined. We at once appealed the decision of the District Court judge, and on February 17 the case was heard and they have just handed in their decison as above outlined.

A VIEW OF CHICAGO AND WESTERN TRADE.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]



Eastern manufacturers who have agents in Chicago can rely on the statements of these agents regarding the causes for any unsatisfactory trade this season. After an extended trip West and Northwest the writer can verify these statements, for he has come in contact with buyers and the most active competitors of these agents. There has not been a season for many years in which the obtaining or holding of orders after they were booked has been so difficult. Prices have been at sixes and sevens, owing to various causes. On Ingrains the early offering by one Western jobbing house of a price 2½ cents below the market for best goods made it very hard traveling in the West for Ingrain salesmen, and the wonder is they have done so well. It is a tribute to salesmanship as well as to merit of the manufacturers' goods that this Western house did not sell its Ingrains beyond its supply. That it did not is well understood. If the Eastern manufacturers will make up their minds to meet this Chicago house for one season on any price it makes for Ingrains they will find such action the quickest and doubtless the best way to stop its underselling. They have the cure of the present condition in their own hands by taking a heroic dose of loss of profit. Isn't it better to go through one season of Western business at a loss than to drag out other seasons similar to those of the past three?

On three-quarter goods the price conditions have been only a little better than on Ingrains. This was primarily due to the great quantity of job Taps, Velvets, Moquettes, &c., let out last November and previously during the fall. Of course the market has improved since the advances of February 1, but it is doubtful if the advances obtained will compensate the manufacturers for the great dissatisfaction among customers, who have had to pay the increase or who expected all orders placed before February 1 to be delivered at the old prices. Manufacturers should forever eschew advances or reductions in the middle of a season. They don't pay in the long run.

One thing that greatly surprised the writer in his talks with Chicago agents was the expression from some of the most experienced ones that the maintaining of offices in Chicago does not materially assist the Eastern manufacturers' business. They claim that just as good, if not better, results can be obtained by making all trips from the home headquarters. The amount of new business done after the first trips by the agents is very uncertain and unsatisfactory. The late buyers coming to Chicago seem to require only small quantities and want the goods quickly, so the jobber has the best chance to get this trade. Duplicates on first orders are mainly sent to the home house, anyway, and nothing would be lost in this respect. The local buyers instead of putting off buying to an extreme date, as is now often the case on goods represented by resident agents, would place orders when the travelers called at the regular period, as they do on goods not represented permanently. Men who have lived in Chicago for years as resident agents say this, and say they would prefer to travel directly from the Eastern headquarters. This matter is worthy of the manufacturers' close attention.

R. E. Burger & Co., 2151 Third avenue, have opened a branch store at Newburgh, N. Y.

The Consolidated Carpet Company, Brooklyn, N. Y., have made extensive improvements in their store.

Lin Fong & Co., importers of Chinese and Japanese goods, will remove to 597 Broadway about April 1.

George Dompierre, the Jersey City carpet and furniture dealer, has leased the three story building at 141 Newark avenue.

The C. H. Brown Company has removed its steam carpet cleaning and renovating plant to new and larger quarters at 221 East Thirty-eighth street.

F. W. Payne, the big pawnbroker of Jersey City, who has also a general store at 247 Newark avenue, is adding carpets to his stock. The building is the largest in the city.

Ludwig G. Gutman, importer and commission merchant, 611 Broadway, New York, will soon be in a position to supply the needs of carpet manufacturers in yarns.

Deputy Sheriff Lipsky has closed up the store of Sachs Brothers, dealers in curtains, rugs and peddlers' supplies, at 125 East Broadway, on a claim for $523 in favor of Rosie Goldman.

S. Baumann & Brother, the Sixth avenue carpet and furniture dealers, have leased the five upper floors in the building at the northwest corner of Fifteenth street, adjoining their present quarters.

The creditors of Thomas D. Blight have been notified to appear in the Supreme Court, Special Term, Part I., on May 14 next, in regard to a final settlement of the accounts of George Heyman, assignee for Blight.

Among the items in the annual report as prepared by the Committee on Ways and Means of the New York Assembly is one "for repaying taxes illegally assessed on and paid by the E. S. Higgins Carpet Company, $2,100."

Sheppard Knapp, of Sheppard Knapp & Co., is among the new members of the Wool Club in the Wool Exchange Building on West Broadway. The club is rapidly increasing its membership among the carpet and upholstery trade.

Richard Croker is regarded by at least one carpet dealer as "a good thing." He had an Oriental rug with a solid green centre which had been on his hands for many a day. By playing on Mr. Croker's love for his native land, he succeeded in unloading the shamrock hued rug at a handsome price and then sold him for $400 a blue one on the assurance that in the Orient blue was the exclusive color of royalty. The dealer says he has Mr. Croker's money. It is more likely that he has an inheritance in that lake which, &c.

James McNaughton, president of the Tradesmen's National Bank, will give a dinner to Mayor Strong, as president of the Wool Club, on the 19th inst. The dinner will take place in the Wool Club, and will be attended by the leading members of the Wool Exchange.

Yale University will receive $200,000 from the estate of Thomas C. Sloane, formerly of the firm of W. & J. Sloane. When Mr. Sloane died four years ago he left that sum to his widow, with the proviso that if she should marry again the money was to go to Yale. The formal engagement of Mrs. Sloane to Mr. James L. Barclay, of New York, has just been announced.

A horse full of ambition and blind staggers rushed into a millinery store on Eighth avenue the other day. The prices did not merit his approval, so he turned into F. G. Minshall's carpet and furniture store at 719, going in through the plate glass window instead of the door. He got mixed up between a bedroom suite and a lot of bicycles and was easily caught.

John A. O'Connor, for two years past manager of the Dry Goods Union, has opened an office at 45 to 51 Lispenard street, where he will act as buyer for out of town houses. Recognizing the superior advantages that have accrued to the members of the Syndicate Trading Company and the Dry Goods Union, through dealing with first hands to the saving of all intermediate profits, he has determined upon a similar organization to be known as the Dry Goods Co-operative Association. Mr. O'Connor solicits correspondence from representative houses in every city desirous of an intelligent representation in this market. He can be addressed as above, as the nucleus of an organization has been registered with him.

Among the buyers registered at the several hotels in Gotham during the past fortnight were : Messrs. M. Kahn, Rayne, La.; J. Paris, of J. H. Paris' Sons, Frankfort, Ind.; L. E. Abernethy, of the Abernethy & Jones Company, Pulaski, Tenn.; A. L. Thalman, Kokomo, Ind.; W. F. Davidson, of J. A. Davidson & Co., Port Huron, Mich.; M. G. Deming, Edinburgh, Ind.; John E. Frash, Huntington, Ind.; C. S. Huff, Martinsville, Ind.; C. W. Bibber, Eastport, Me.; M. J. Voris, of M. J. Voris & Co., Franklin, Ind.; Albin, of the Albin Company, Louisville ; J. V. and H. S. De Foe, of J. V. De Foe & Son, Adrian, Mich.; D. L. McCarthy, of D. McCarthy & Sons, Syracuse, N. Y.; W. E. Youland, Biddeford, Me.; C. L. Scott, for Campbell & Smith, and C. E. Greene (rugs), for Joseph Horne & Co., Pittsburg; J. A. Herring, of Herring, Jenkins & Co., Georgetown, Ky.; E. E. Arnold, of Arnold, Miller & Co., Providence, R. I.; W. H. Hager, of Hager & Brothers, Lancaster, Pa.; H. G. Munger, Herkimer, N. Y.; C. A. Robertson, for Porteous & Mitchell, Saginaw, Mich.; Charles E. Bacon, for R. H. White & Co., Boston; J. T. Campbell, Franklin, Pa.; George H. Kinsley, Burlington, Vt.; W. W. Wright, Cadiz, Ohio; Aaron Levy, of Levy Brothers, Tallahassee, Fla.; C. L. Stone, for Stone & Thomas, Wheeling, W. Va.; F. B. Clayton, of Clayton Brothers & Co., Cleburne, Tex.; S. S. Moffett, for W. M. Moffett, Madison, Ind.; W. L. Wickmore, Ironton, Ohio; H. Greenwold, Cambridge, Ohio; J. M. Greig, Corning, N. Y.; W. Kishlar and G. Davis, of Lamb, Davis & Kishlar, Ypsilanti, Mich.; Ambrose B. Park, Adrian, Mich.; L. D. Parker, of C. S. Parker & Co., Piqua, Ohio; E. B. Thirkield, of E. B. Thirkield & Sons, Franklin, Ohio, and the Thirkield Cash Store, Delaware, Ohio; G. Rosenheim, of the Rosenheim Company, Nashville, Tenn.; William Barie, Jr., of William Barie & Son, Saginaw, Mich.; E. J. Kuhne, for Brown, Thomson & Co., Hartford, Conn.; W. T. Crosby, of Crosby Brothers, Topeka, Kan.; Alexander Grant, Zanesville, Ohio; G. W. Hitt, of Hitt & Fuller, Urbana, Ohio; J. Williamson, for La Salle & Koch, Toledo, Ohio; C. B. Robertson, of Manchester, Robertson & Allison, St. John, N. B.; C. F. Sisson, of Sisson Brothers & Welden, Binghamton, N. Y.; J. B. Branch, of J. B. Branch & Co., Coldwater, Mich.; Charles Starr, Three Rivers, Mich.; S. C. Cowan, Muncie, Ind.; R. F. Livermore, Corry, Pa.; S. W. Anderson, of S. W. Anderson & Co., Tecumseh, Mich.; T. B. Kelly, for the Denholm & McKay Company, Worcester, Mass.; A. C. Wilkes, Circleville, Ohio; W. G. Rogers, for Forbes & Wallace, Springfield, Mass.; W. H. Wright (rugs), for Woodward & Lothrop, Washington, D. C.; C. E. Osgood, of the C. E. Osgood Company, Boston; W. M. Habliston, of W. M. Habliston & Co., Petersburg, Va.; C. W. Shoemaker, of Shoemaker Brothers, Defiance, Ohio; J. F. Rogers, for Smith & Murray, Springfield, Mass.; Frank A. Ray, for W. M. Whitney & Co., Albany, N. Y.; T. H. Reeves, of the Reeves-Veeder Company, Schenectady, N. Y.; J. Frank McDermond, Attica, Ind.; E. Foster and J. Stephenson, of Stephenson & Foster, Jackson, Ohio; J. B. Carlisle, Lebanon, Ky.; Ira L. C. Lockwood, Madrid, N. Y.; Donat Miller, Canton, Ill.; Daniel M. Christian, Owosso, Mich.; Peter Hoffmaster, Battle Creek, Mich.; A. W. Pelton, Conneaut, Ohio; W. Shelter and W. Rice, for Crossman & Shelter, Spring City, Pa.

HARTFORD BRUSSELS.

A superb line of Hartford Brussels is offered by Reune Martin & Sons, 114 and 116 Worth street, New York. The line is replete with choice novel and original patterns, and the assortment of halls and stairs is especially large and attractive. The line as a whole is the finest ever shown by the Messrs. Martin in Brussels carpeting, and its great merits have been promptly appreciated by buyers. Another prominent feature in the business of this firm is the cutting of Wiltons to order, thus enabling dealers to do a large business in Hartford Wiltons by selling from samples alone if they so desire.

BOSTON BUDGET.

BOSTON, MARCH 10.

The contract for recarpeting old St. Paul's Church in this city has just been awarded to John H. Pray, Sons & Co.

Frank Hayden has been on the sick list for four weeks, but is expected to be out now in a few days.

W. W. Corson reports an excellent spring trade.

George C. Boyd, of Boyd, Harley & Co., Philadelphia, was in town two or three days the past week.

John C. Randall, of the firm of John H. Pray, Sons & Co., returned yesterday from a visit to the South.

The Crescent Furniture Company has been reorganized, and is now known as the Aldrich Furniture Company, dealers in carpet, furniture, &c.

Arthur McArthur & Co., carpets and furniture, have bought out John Curtin, who has been carrying on the furniture business on Washington street.

The Boston Carpet Company has been incorporated with a capital of $80,000. The stockholders are Ezra Reid, of Plymouth, Mass.; L. P. Coffin, of New York, and C. N. King, of Jersey City. Messrs. Coffin and King hold one share each.

W. H. Reid has recovered from his recent illness and is now at his office, 611 Washington street, as usual. He will soon make a three weeks' trip on the road, and reports business as being pretty good, especially in Samuel White's Smyrnas and W. T. Smith's chenille and tapestry curtains and covers.

Timothy A. Murphy, Jr., is again being employed by a well-known Boston furniture house as a carpet salesman, says the Post. Tim tells me that when it comes down to business carpets are the only things to take up, for people buy them by the yard and wear them out by the foot; also that the tax on carpets will bare footing if one wants to see the point.

Houghton & Dutton, one of the largest dry goods firms in this city, and who carry a large stock of carpets and upholstery goods and furniture, have begun the erection of a structure to cost nearly $1,000,000, on part of the site now occupied by them. It will be nine stories, of light colored brick with terra cotta trimmings, having a frontage on Tremont street of 150 feet. F. J. B.

Bennett & Brickett, manufacturers' agents and commission merchants, 26 Chauncy street, refer on page 90 of this issue to some very attractive offerings of theirs in Extra Supers, carpet lining, imitation leatheroid, &c.

Elsewhere the M. A. Furbush & Son Machine Company, of Philadelphia, illustrate two of their special machines for the use of carpet manufacturers—a loom with needle motion for rug manufacture and a loom for weaving Smyrna rugs. The catalogue of the company will be sent to wool workers on application.

J. G. Rogers, 24 North Ninth street, Philadelphia, has "another lot" of Japanese rugs which he offers elsewhere at 40 cents to 52½ cents a square yard, together with 1,800 all wool Art Squares at 40 cents and Unions at 23 cents. The line covers all sizes from 2x3 to 4x5. The prices will doubtless attract the attention of buyers. Open a correspondence with him, and get quotations on choice mattings.

....Frank S. Osborne has left the carpet department of Gimbel Brothers and is now with J. & J. Dobson.

....James Ritchie, Jr., is closing out his carpet and furniture business at 1901 and 1903 Germantown avenue.

....F. G. Rogers, rugs, Art Squares, remnants, &c., is recording some very good orders in his line. Among the recent callers was a representative of Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, Reading, Pa.

....The "Migre" and the "Angora" weaves of Ingrain carpets manufactured by Keefer & Coon, Oxford Mills, Seventh and Huntingdon streets, are in large demand. New designs are in preparation.

....Chas. P. Cochrane, Devon Mills, Howard and Lehigh avenue, is busy in both places with orders for his special Ingrain weaves. The orders now recorded will keep the mill employed several weeks.

....Daniel Currie, proprietor of the Norris Mills, Lawrence street and Lehigh avenue, has had a good season and all his Extra Ingrains, C. C.'s and Union looms are now busy. New designs will be out in good time.

....David Jamieson's Sons', manufacturers of Extra Ingrains, C. C.'s, Union and Cotton carpets, 1732 and 1738 Leib street, have all looms in operation. Their output for the present season is far ahead of last fall's business.

....Dornan Brothers' rooms in the Bourse are open every day and all day. They have been booking some good orders during the two weeks just past. Swire & Scott are also meeting with good success at their rooms.

....Henry Dickel & Son, who make all grades of Ingrains at 2018 Ella street, have orders enough on hand to keep looms going till April 15, if not later. New styles are in preparation, with some tints never before put upon the market.

....The daily papers of the 27th stated that the large building at the corner of Market and Tenth streets had been let to a New York jobbing house, who carry dry goods and carpets and have a branch in Chicago. No names are mentioned.

....Among the visitors at the Bourse during the past two weeks were: P. M. Harman, of P. M. Harman & Co., Dayton, Ohio; Harry Dunn, of E. Dunn & Co., Connellsville, Pa.; W. A. Flack, Lock Haven, Pa.; E. White, Fort Wayne, Ind.

....Dickey & McMaster, proprietors of the Putnam Mills, Second and Huntingdon streets, are holding their own in their various grades of Venetian carpets, and are full of orders. Their Aubussons are an attractive feature in their productions.

....C. B. Ashbridge, the Ingrain carpet manufacturer, 2411 and 2413 Howard street, has his thirty-five new looms in full operation, with orders enough to last several weeks. Mr. Ashbridge will have his new designs ready in good time. Dark shades will be more conspicuous in the next season's offerings.

....Edward C. Read, Howard and Lehigh avenue, and who also has Room 672, Bourse Building, has had a very successful season with various grades of Ingrain carpets, and still has orders enough to last for several weeks. Exceptionally good styles did it.

....MacElroy Brothers & Scholes, Ingrain manufacturers; East York street, also 517 and 519 Bourse Building, find a ready sale for their Tapestry weave and other grades of goods. Still another weave of goods will be out shortly which has not yet been christened.

....The new palatial passenger steamer built by Naphy & Leavy, Camden, N. J., for the Hartford and New York Transportation Company, has been furnishd by Strawbridge & Clothier, through their efficient contract man, Mr. Bretherton. The furnishing includes carpets, draperies, bedding and furniture.

....James Artman, of the E. R. Artman & Treichler Company, contributed to the Press of this city on the 1st inst. a highly interesting description of a trip made by him on a bicycle from Philadelphia to Reading. Mr. Artman is an expert wheelman and is also the manager of a bright and successful weekly paper devoted to bicycling.

....John Dunlap & Son, Eleventh and Cambria streets, have had a very good season, and are still running most of their 100 looms. It is refreshing to look through their stock of samples, and one is astonished at their immense output of three ply carpets, the designs and colorings of which are well up to date, and something over.

....The Axminster Carpet Company is a new corporation formed to manufacture Axminster carpeting. The incorporators are Frank B. Trout, Andrew L. Moore, Chas. Cook, Edward E. Bottomley and R. B. Loynd, all of Philadelphia. The capital stock is $12,000. The company's mill is situated at Fifth street and Columbia avenue.

....The whole line of Byzantine rugs manufactured by McCallum & McCallum is faultless in the designs and color tints, but they have recently brought out one that deserves special mention on account of the splendid shade of garnet that is in the ground. The color is brilliant and perfectly pure, no shadow of a shade anywhere visible. The effect is greatly heightened by the rich cream tint that resides in the design. It is one of the happiest effects ever brought out in any floor covering, ancient or modern.

....Rumor has been busy with a story that the old J. F. Orne store was to be reopened by some of the old employees, including John Grayhurst, with the backing of a gentleman prominent in New York carpet circles. Such an effort was made, but it has fallen through. Mr. Grayhurst has engaged in the wholesale business in New York as the agent for Harrison Townsend & Co., of Norristown, Pa. The old store is soon to be sold to settle an estate, and it was thought that it could probably be rented for less than the $18,000 per annum which Mr. Orne and his successors were paying.

....Henry Holmes, the carpet manufacturer, gave a dinner to a number of his friends at the Manufacturers' Club on the 2d inst. The table was beautifully decorated with flowers and the menu was superb. Mr. Holmes' sterling qualities as a man and a manufacturer were happily referred to in the remarks of the guests, and all that they said in this connection was fully justified by the facts, as is well known to the wide circle of friends of Mr. Holmes in the trade.

....Robertson & Hall, manufacturers of chenille curtains and Ingrain carpets, are commencing operations in their new mill at Lehigh avenue and Front street. Their Ingrain mill was formerly at Tioga street and Trenton avenue, and their chenille mill at Howard and Mascher streets. Both works are removed to the new, or rather the old mill formerly occupied by the late George Ennis. Chenille curtain looms are in operation in the basement, and the power looms for Ingrain carpets will occupy the second floor shortly.

....Another rumor which has caused much comment for several days past is to the effect that Bloomingdale Brothers, of New York, are negotiating for a very valuable property on Chestnut street, below Twelfth, belonging to the old Baldwin estate. It measures 118 feet front by 230 deep. The owners want $1,000,000 for it, and the story goes that the Bloomingdales have offered $750,000. Whether that ends the matter remains to be seen. This, it will be remembered, is the property which W. & J. Sloane were said to be anxious to secure several years ago.

....The building now being erected by John Dobson on Market street above Tenth is approaching completion, and it is asserted very positively by merchants occupying nearby properties that John & James Dobson will occupy it for their business. The firm say nothing. Sharpless Brothers, adjoining the present Dobson establishment, which was originally a bank building, are reported to be anxious to secure it for the purpose of opening a carpet department. When I asked a member of the firm concerning the story the reply was, "Not for carpets. If we had it at all it would be for dry goods."

CARPETS AND POLITICS.

Of course no one will object to Controller Fitch making all the political capital he can by holding up the bills of Frank D. Croft on the ground that Silas C. Croft, the charities commissioner, is still a member of the former firm of Croft Brothers in 125th street, New York. The only result will be that the courts will compel taxpayers to foot the bills, with costs added. But it is carrying politics a good ways when the controller of the city charges a reputable merchant, holding also an important official position, with being guilty of what would be a misdemeanor, and impliedly charges him with perjury. President Croft's statement will be accepted by all who know him. He says :

There is no reason why Mr. Fitch should hold up those bills, because I have not had a dollar's worth of interest in the carpet business since a week before I took office. The fact that I had retired was published at the time, though no formal notice of dissolution of partnership was printed. I was fully informed about the requirements of the law, and got out of business when I accepted public place.

BALTIMORE AND VICINITY.

James A. Fretter, of the York (Pa.) Carpet and Furniture Company, was a visitor to town during the past week.

BALTIMORE, MARCH 12.

, A building belonging to Richardson, Smith, Moore & Co., Snow Hill, Md., was burned the 5th inst.; loss covered by insurance.

The store of Sligh & Rucker, general merchandise and carpeting, Florence, S. C., was destroyed by fire the 27th ult. Loss, $30,000 ; insurance, $15,000.

Harry S. Jenkins, of Jenkins Brothers & Co., has returned from a business visit to the metropolis.

The Busby carpet and furniture store, Ellicott City, Md., has been purchased by Nicholas Jones for $26,000.

Chase & Muldmo, general merchandise and carpeting, same place, were damaged by water $1,000 ; insured.

The store of E. W. Chaffinch, Blacksburg, Va., was destroyed by fire the 6th inst. Loss, $3,000 ; covered by insurance.

A large new hotel will be built in Catonsville, a suburb of Baltimore, by a stock company with a capital stock of $100,000.

M. Taylor, formerly with H. C. & D. D. Beattie, Manchester, Va., is now with the Richmond dry goods and carpet firm of Isaac Sycle & Co.

Frank Guntermann and wife celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding at Hungaria Hall the 7th inst. A large number of friends of the couple were present.

The store of Brown & Brother, dry goods and carpeting, Rock Springs, Md., was totally destroyed by fire the 4th inst., together with the contents. Loss, $3,500 ; insured.

The J. E. Britton Company, formed for the purpose of doing a general merchandise business, has been incorporated with a capital stock of $10,000 by Joseph E. Britton and others.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Carpet and Furniture Salesmen's Association of Baltimore held March 9 the following officers for the ensuing year were elected : President, Samuel Schillinger ; vice-president, Chas. H. Korb ; secretary, Claude W. Griffith ; treasurer, Geo. V. Peters ; sergeant-at-arms, W. A. Griffith ; finance committee, S. E. Conradt, E. H. Finckeldey and W. F. Bennett. The members of this association will hold their annual banquet at Ganzhorn's Hotel Monday, April 13.

The following carpet and furniture merchants were recently in town : Herman Burchardt, Washington, D. C. ; Mr. Lauxen, of Lauxen & Catts, Stockton, Cal.; J. F. Buchmarl, Washington, N. C. ; H. M. King, York, Pa. ; Mr. Childs, with Julius Lansburgh, Washington, D. C. ; H. W. Finlayson, Cheraw, S. C. ; Morris & Co., Centreville, Md. ; E. C. Hoover, Washington, D. C. ; H. Hamburger, Havre de Grace, Md. ; A. Alexander, Rock Hall, Md. ; Isaac H. Stubbs, Delta, Pa. ; H. Crockin, Norfolk, Va. ; W. E. Lang, Fredericksburg, Va. ; G. W. Weaver & Son, Gettysburg, Pa. ; A. Oettinger, of Oettinger, Brothers, Kinston, N. C.

R. L. E.

H. H. Taylor, 617 and 619 Bryant avenue, North, Minneapolis, is building up a very handsome business in the manufacture of rugs, carpets, hassocks and silk curtains. He makes rugs of Ingrains and Brussels from one to four yards wide. Freight is allowed one way to all customers outside Minneapolis.

CHICAGO CARPET NOTES.

CHICAGO, MARCH 11.

Enlargement is the order of the day at A. M. Rothschild & Co.'s. April 1 the firm will occupy an additional 200,000 square feet of space, which gives it almost all of the half block between State, Van Buren and Jackson streets. Manager C. W. Toles, of the carpet department, will have double the amount of floor space under the new arrangement. He will add a room 50x150 feet, which will be used for mattings, rugs and linoleums. Mr. Toles has recently added to his force of salesmen Mr. Price from "The Fair," and Thomas Potts, William Smith and William Thompson, all recently with the Chicago Carpet Company.

Charles E. Coloney has been in the city for a few days.

A fire in the store of M. J. Saul, Division street, on the 4th inst., caused heavy damage.

M. L. Newton was in town a few days ago buying goods for Pratt & Newton's new carpet store at Jacksonville, Fla.

C. E. Coloney, manager for J. & J. Dobson, reached town on the 7th inst. on his tour for ideas for next fall's styles.

The Philadelphia Carpet Company, 229 West Madison street, has certified to a reduction in its capital stock from $25,000 to $10,000.

Martin Emerich & Co. have bought out Morganthau, Bauland & Co.'s carpet and upholstery department and have placed Mr. Collins in charge of it.

W. H. Sheehy, of the firm of Smith, Hogg & Gardner, agents for the Lowell Company, was in the city for a few days and left for the East on the 6th inst.

M. M. Curry, of O. W. Richardson & Co., when he speaks now of the trade in cut carpets says that business is booming even more than in World's Fair times.

This month is the time when the Eastern manufacturers or their managers call upon us to see what styles have sold the best, and to get an idea of how trade is going.

John Dunlap, Jr., of John Dunlap & Son, the Cambria Mills Ingrain makers, was in town last week, and left for Philadelphia with C. E. Coloney on the 10th inst.

Manager Locke, of Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co.'s retail department, tells me that his firm had a satisfactory February trade. He considers that the outlook for the spring is decidedly encouraging.

Manager Birkle, of "The Fair," generally has a busy floor in his department, and very seldom has occasion to complain of business. February was a good month in his department he tells me.

J. A. Blumberg, representing S. J. Tellery & Co., the East India rug and furniture manufacturers, spent several days since the first of the month in showing his samples to Manager Dainty, of Marshall Field & Co.'s retail.

John M. Young, representing T. J. Keveney & Co., keeps a tidy office in the Medinah Temple on Fifth avenue, and is after the trade actively. With anything like an even show he can always get a liberal share of it.

The Pardridge property, fronting 64 feet on State street, near Madison street, has been sold to Cyrus McCormick for $800,000. It is reported that Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co. may lease the building to secure additional space for their retail business.

Frank Schlegel, representing S. Sanford & Sons, can sympathize with the Ingrain salesmen in their troubles this season, as he has been through it himself. He says he expects to see much better seasons in Taps and Velvets in his territory than this has been, although Sanford's goods have kept to the front.

The store occupied by the N. J. Sandberg Company, dealer in carpets and furniture, 360 to 364 Division street, was burned out on the morning of the 5th inst. It is thought that the loss will not exceed $25,000.

The Chicago Carpet Company are cutting Wiltons for the carpet trade, having started this department the first of the year. They have their samples already in the hands of many leading dealers, and are carrying an exceptionally good stock of Wiltons.

While John C. Carroll, of the Chicago Carpet Company, is on his trip South with his family, W. B. Baldwin is an exceedingly busy man with running all the departments of the business. Mr. Baldwin says they have reason to be satisfied with their first season in the jobbing business.

Pillman, Smuck & Co., the manufacturers' agents, who have a finely appointed office in the Lees Building, have recently become Chicago agents for W. T. Smith & Son's Smyrna rugs in addition to their other leading lines. Mr. Pillman makes his headquarters in Chicago, and Mr. Smuck at the St. Louis office.

W. K. Smith, Western agent of Dornan Brothers, Schofield, Mason & Co. and other Eastern manufacturers, looks for considerable more business before the season ends, but has had a full share of the contention in obtaining orders for high grade Ingrains like Dornan's. Mr. Smith's office is in the Lees Building, 147 Fifth avenue.

Mr. Flanagan and Mr. Moore, the resident representatives of T. B. Shoaff & Co., are feeling quite satisfied over their spring business on John Bromley's rugs, Whittall's Wiltons and Brussels and Roxbury Tapestries. They realize that this condition is an exception among Chicago agents. They have strong lines, of course, but still the business has not fallen into their laps.

M. H. Jordan, the able representative of W. & J. Sloane, says the orders coming in just now are mostly of the hurry up kind, so that his stock sheet is referred to constantly. Buyers who put off ordering until the last moment seem inclined to order only what they can get at once, and Mr. Jordan can supply them with it, doubtless, somewhat better than most Chicago agents. His office is finely located in the Champlain Building.

Daniel E. Brink, one of the most popular salesmen in the city, who has been with the Chicago Carpet Company for several years, left last week for Peoria, where he will take a responsible position. Charles King went over to Siegel, Cooper & Co.'s. W. B. Baldwin, treasurer of the company, tells me that the business of the company is in a very satisfactory condition. J. C. Carroll, president of the company, has been absent in the Southern winter resorts for two weeks.

Manager W. B. Reddon, of the J. V. Farwell Company's carpet department, says the spring business opened up exceedingly well, and was satisfactory up to about February 1. Since then it has been very backward and uncertain. Many merchants seem to have lost the strong expectations of greatly improved business they had at the outset of the season and are timid about taking in stock. Up to a few weeks ago, Mr. Reddon says, they were selling Tremont Extra Supers up to the full production and have maintained the price at 42½ cents. He says they have sold a great many Lowell Extras as usual, and that the new spring patterns form the largest proportion. They have had lines of last season's patterns at less than the regular price, and all their customers have had the choice of buying the new or old patterns as they desired, the cause of the difference in price between them being well understood.

Rosenthal & Brownlie, 147 Fifth avenue (Lees Building), have received the first samples of Lamond & Robertson's Smyrna rugs and are ready to take orders for them. This concern have heretofore made only hemp carpets, Napier mattings and jute rugs, but have recently gone into the manufacture of Smyrna rugs on an extensive scale. Rosenthal & Brownlie are their Western agents, and it should be remembered that the latter concern are also Western agents for Fritz, La Rue & Sinn, of Philadelphia, on straw mattings, goat skin rugs, Japanese rugs, &c.

T. W. Sharon, representing the J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company, St. Louis, will show his full line of samples at Room 8, Palmer House, for the next two weeks. Mr. Sharon, who was formerly for several years with the J. V. Farwell Company, covers Indiana, Michigan and part of Illinois for the Kennard Company, and covers it well, from all accounts. He is exceedingly popular with the trade and is an always ardent worker. He is demonstrating that a St. Louis jobber can sell carpets in Chicago, especially such a strong line as shown by the Kennard Company.

Theo. A. Steenson, representing John Gay's Sons' Park Mills and J. & J. Dobson, has obtained a share of the trade done this season, but frankly admits that his share is not up to expectations. The late taking in of stock last fall in expectancy of advances has hurt his spring business, as also the variable prices quoted on Ingrains. Mr. Steenson has held right up to the rack on prices for both Park Mills and Dobson's goods, and has done better than most salesmen could do under the prevailing conditions. His offices in the Champlain Building, at State and Madison streets, are at the top in location and excellence of appointments.

Manager Franklin Ames, of Marshall Field & Co.'s wholesale carpet department, states that the sales in his department this season are larger in dollars and cents than in any season in the history of the department. He is getting considerable trade yet from the smaller out of town buyers, and says he can give them the goods promptly. He believes his extra advertising in various ways has helped the sales largely. He says The Review did not quote him accurately in the article of a year ago in stating that he claimed the Western trade belongs to Chicago. What he meant was that his firm intend to hold their share of the Western trade against the Eastern houses, and he is still of that mind. He says now if the Eastern manufacturers would send stocks to Chicago, and open full fledged establishments to carry goods the same as his firm does, he would be one of the first to welcome them. These stocks would help to bring trade to Chicago, which is his aim. Mr. Ames shows all three-quarter goods on swinging cranes, with the body and border sewed into a square carpet. He has twelve sets of cranes, each set holding fifty patterns, and I believe has obtained or applied for a patent on the idea. The cost of the goods shown as samples on these cranes aggregates about $5,000, but each sample is marketable as a square rug after the pattern is dropped.

D. Jamieson's Sons are having a good season with their Hope Mills Ingrains. Their 8 pair cottons are full 1080 ends and excellent in design.

DIRECT SHIPS TO BALTIMORE.

The importing firm of Lyon Brothers & Co. (successors to Lyon, Hall & Co.), Baltimore, are engaged in the shipping business, and maintaining a line of fast sailing vessels between Japan, China and Baltimore direct, and having interest in lines from Liverpool to Baltimore and to San Francisco, as clearly defined on a map they recently issued, showing the points in the Far East made conspicuous by the late war between Japan and China.

This firm, the trade will remember, established their branches in China, Japan and England ten years ago, and having procured exceptional facilities and obtained control of each item of cost (transportation, handling and warehousing being a large percentage), are able to offer buyers relief for that tired feeling so general when seeking to secure popular goods to sell at popular and special prices and at the same time swell profits.

The members of this firm for many years before they became a strictly importing and shipping house were identified with the general carpet trade, and know the requirements of jobbers and retail dealers from a long experience as such. Their importations for the carpet and housefurnishing trade are confined to thoroughly desirable, attractive and durable floor coverings of the kind referred to at a laid down cost inside the general market.

Maximum durability that guarantees satisfaction, combined with minimum price to insure a large turn over, is their guide in all their operations. Their line of mattings, linoleums and skin rugs will interest all who buy for profit and who make the best goods for the least money the object of their search. Resident salesmen representing Lyon Brothers & Co. are located in the principal cities of this country; and in San Francisco, as well as Baltimore, a stock for immediate delivery is carried.

Import orders by the largest firms can always be placed at prices that are most attractive. The trade will do well to inspect their offerings, as Baltimore has been known for a long time to be the cheapest point for handling many articles of import and export in this country. And this is now made to apply to the lines referred to.

CUT WILTONS FROM ST. LOUIS.

J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company, St. Louis, have just started a cut Wilton department to cut any desired quantity of Wiltons for the trade. They have always been one of the heaviest handlers of Wiltons in the country and are able to interest carpet dealers on assortment of patterns and prompt deliveries. Mr. Voorhis, of their force, has been recently visiting the larger cities with their Wilton samples.

The J. W. Dimick Company are showing a new Wilton rug, 36x63. The patterns are novel in design and rich in coloring.

THE TARIFF QUESTION IN THE CARPET TRADE.

AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM ARTHUR T. LYMAN, OF THE LOWELL COMPANY.

Boston, March 2, 1896.

Carpet and Upholstery Trade Review :

PERHAPS the defeat of the Dingley tariff bill by the silver senators is a disappointment to many manufacturers, but it at least should not be so to carpet manufacturers, except for the brief and vanishing advantage which an advance of duties gives sometimes. The present duties on carpets, with free wool, are generally satisfactory to manufacturers. The reimposition of the wool duties of the McKinley bill (or 60 per cent. of them) would be exceedingly bad for the carpet trade, at least for the wool carpet trade, for it would bring in again all the unsettled questions as to double duty on sorted wools and the difficulties of classification. These difficulties before stopped the importation of important classes of carpet wools, and made it a matter of doubt and risk to import many others. This was no doubt very delightful to Judge Lawrence, whose object is to exclude carpet wools and all wools, but it was also exceedingly pleasing to the foreign manufacturer, who could buy these wools without American competition, and so make cheaper goods than ever. The carpet trade needs about 100,000,000 pounds of wool annually, and practically it is all foreign wool, because there is no wool raised in this country that is available, and it would not pay any American to raise it. There should certainly, in the interest of the carpet trade and of the whole people, be no duty on this wool, and it is equally for the interest of the manufacturers and consumers of first and second class wools that they also should enter free. But if any duty is put on wool it should be an ad valorem duty—a uniform ad valorem duty on all kinds of wool. This is the only duty that can be fairly applied, owing to the extreme variation in the shrinkage. It is absurd and destructive to put a uniform, specified duty on wools shrinking from 10 per cent. to 50 and 75 per cent. As to the raw wools, there can be no serious amount of undervaluation, as of course there may be in the case of complicated textile fabrics, for wools of all kinds have well-known market values, easily ascertained, and many of the most important kinds are sold at public auction. So I think the silver senators have for once been of use to the country.

There is another question worth considering, that is, whether it is for the interest of manufacturers to disturb the present tariff. Some of them are cursing it for the evils that have been caused by the vicious currency system of the United States and the reckless foreign policy of the President and Congress, and many woolen mills have lost their business from a change of fashion and from their poor condition. But some of the modern worsted goods mills say that the past year was the best they ever knew.

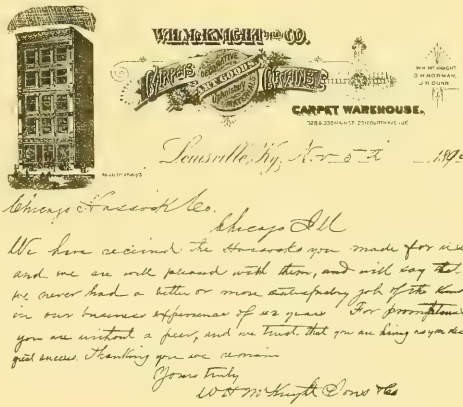
If duties are again advanced, and with the duties on wools put up to the extent of Judge Lawrence's wishes or threats, it will be necessary to put up the duties on woolen and worsted goods to ad valorem equivalents of 125 or 150 per cent. Is this going to be soothing or attractive to the Western people and others who feel poor and are crying for inflation or war to restore prosperity? Moreover, as soon as an advance in tariff rates comes in view, there will be an immense importation of foreign goods that will break the market and load it down even with the new duties on. It is impossible to say how the people will vote on the tariff, which, of course, generally they cannot understand, and if they feel poor and discontented they may see fit to put prohibitory duties on wool and put woolen goods on the free list. It is not an idea as absurd as the attempt to make money plenty and to bring on prosperity by law, as by the purchase of silver by the United States, or the cry for free silver which broke down business in '93 and has more than once brought on a scarcity of money and a panic.

The tariff is a pretty strong protective tariff as it is. It may need slight revision in details, but it is on the whole high enough for anybody's interest and for the interest of the people.

For prosperity we need not a change of tariff, but fewer laws and less silver and less war. Arthur T. Lyman.

THOSE HASSOCKS WERE ALL RIGHT.

The following is an electrotype copy of a letter received by the Chicago Hassock Company from a well-known Louisville carpet house. It is an unsolicited tribute to the great merit of the goods :



The Chicago Hassock Company are located at 47 Van Buren street, Chicago, and will send their catalogue and prices on application.

Albert Gall, Indianapolis, is making improvements in the ground floor of his store, and is getting ready for an active spring business in carpets, curtains and wall papers.

H. A. Moore, Cincinnati agent for Lyon Brothers & Co., of Baltimore, has done a good spring business in mattings and linoleums, and says the trade express high satisfaction with the goods. His office is in the Bradford Block, Cincinnati.

Edward Groetzinger, Pittsburg, Pa., reports his spring jobbing and cut order business as very good. He sends out three regular travelers on wholesale business, and has two men for special trips covering Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and Eastern Ohio. The manufacturers report good duplicates as being received from Mr. Groetzinger.

TRADE GOSSIP

The carpet, drapery and wall paper department of Katz Brothers, Honesdale, Pa., which was opened a year ago under the management of Hamilton Hill, has proved highly successful. Mr. Hill was for a number of years with Kerr, Siebecker & Co., Scranton, Pa.

Arthur, Schondelmyer & Co., for the past eleven years dry goods and carpet dealers in Allegheny, Pa., have dissolved partnership. Mr. Schondelmyer continues in dry goods, and Mr. Arthur is opening a new carpet and wall paper store on Federal street, Allegheny.

The H. C. Breeden Company, Portland, Ore., have just moved into their new building, which has five floors and a frontage of 200 feet. The extensive carpet and drapery departments are on the first floor and the second, third and fourth floors are devoted to the furniture stock.

J. A. Davidson & Co., Port Huron, Mich., will supply the new Hotel Harrington in that city with carpeting. They will furnish 3,000 yards of Bundhar Wilton and 4,000 yards of Body Brussels. Davidson & Co. are also furnishing the carpets for the Odd Fellows' new temple at Port Huron.

F. J. Poole, dry goods and carpet dealer, Ashland, Wis., who was burned out some time ago, has won a suit brought by him against the insurance companies, who wished to pay only about one-half of the amount of the policies. Mr. Poole has been awarded the full amount, $51,000, with interest, $863.39, added.

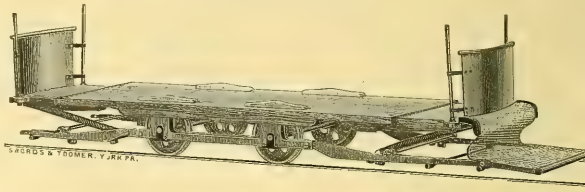
Among the employees of the late firm of Eastman, Schleicher & Lee, Indianapolis, Ind., who have found positions elsewhere are Major P. Harrison, C. E. Mallory and L. Schone, who are with Albert Gall; F. T. Lee with the New York Store; A. H. Schrader with Taylor & Taylor, and Wm. Marquis with the Badger Furniture Company.

It is getting back to old times with Albert Gall, the Indianapolis carpet, upholstery and wall paper dealer. His old trade has stuck to him very faithfully, and he is doing a liberal share of the business of his city. With the opening up of the spring retail trade Mr. Gall's spacious and always attractive establishment will be one of the busiest places in Indianapolis.

Allen & Hayman, carpet manufacturers' agents, Cincinnati, have dissolved, and the business is continued by Joseph M. Allen, who represents Thomas Develon's Sons, Ingrains; J. C. Dunn, Jr., oil cloths; Thomas Lynn & Son, cocoa mats; D. Jamieson's Sons, Ingrains, and Barnes & Beyer, curtains and table covers. Mr. Allen covers Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, and has an office in the Bradford Block, Cincinnati.

About 100 of the business men of Port Jervis, N. Y., have formed the Deer Park Club, which has a handsome club house, situated on a hill overlooking the town, and contains all the attractions usually found in a club, except the café. Two leading carpet dealers at Port Jervis, Messrs. Thomas J. Quick and Chas. I. Terwilliger, are members of the club. Mr. Quick was recently elected supervisor of the town of Deer Park.

Obe Cullison, the York, Pa., carpet dealer, is pushing the automatic car fender which we stated some time since he was perfecting. The engraving shows the advantages of his invention. It is so simple that it can be attached to any car, and has one easily apparent advantage, that being attached to the wheel truck it is not subject to the oscillation of the car body. On striking any object it shoots out about three feet and scoops up the object by a shovel-like action.



Regarding the condition of trade Frank McClintock, of Oliver McClintock & Co., Pittsburg, Pa., says that the spring trade of 1895 was good, but last fall's trade was not satisfactory, and that the recovery of the business of 1892 is very slow. Mr. McClintock recently said to a Review representative: "We have never made a dollar by carrying Wiltons in stock. I think the bane of handling Wiltons has been the stock necessary to hold in order to make a good showing. You do not know how much you make on a Wilton carpet until everything is cleaned up. I have often cut up whole pieces in order to accommodate other dealers, because I expected the same accommodation from them, but I regret to say I have not always received it. I am in favor of selling Wiltons from samples, because you know just how much you are making on every carpet, and I am perfectly satisfied to pay the extra cost for cutting Wiltons."

The firm of H. W. Robinson & Co., one of the oldest business houses in Brockton, Mass., was founded by Henry W. Robinson in 1844, and it has enjoyed a distinction given few firms since the date that the business was established. Many years ago Mr. Baalis Sanford became a member of the firm, and in the estimation of the people he has stood as the founder of the house, and is one of the most respected citizens the city has. In March, 1890, Mr. Robinson retired and the firm continued with Mr. Sanford, George Tolman and E. H. Blake as partners. The two latter had grown up in the service of the house and reached the position they gained by personal merit. Now another change is announced. The partnership as explained above has been dissolved, and a new co-partnership has been formed between Mr. Sanford and Mr. Tolman for the transaction of the general dry goods business, and the style of the firm will be H. W. Robinson & Co. Mr. Blake has associated with himself Fred. H. Washburn and E. Eugene Thayer, under the name of the H. W. Robinson Carpet Company, and they will conduct the extensive carpet, drapery and paper hanging business which has been a successful department of the firm's establishment. Mr. Blake and his associates have been identified with the growth of that branch of the business. Mr. Blake has been an employee and a member of the firm for twenty-seven years, entering the establishment as a boy. Mr. Washburn has been connected with the department for twenty years and Mr. Thayer for fifteen years.

Fire broke out shortly after midnight on the morning of March 1 in Gordon & Keith's wholesale housefurnishing establishment, a handsome five story structure fronting on Barrington and Granville streets, Halifax, N. S., and by 12:45 o'clock the whole building was a roaring furnace. The flames rapidly communicated to the adjoining buildings on every side, to which the firemen directed their whole attention. They were so successful that the damage to the adjoining stores was more from water and removals than from fire. Several small buildings in the rear were destroyed. At 3 o'clock the fire was under control. The estimated aggregate loss is between $150,000 and $200,000. Gordon & Keith's stock was insured for $67,000 and the building for $30,000.

The Eastman, Schleicher & Lee Company, of Indianapolis, is retiring from business, and will not occupy the new building on the old site. The corporation has not made an assignment, nor will it make one. The stock has been disposed of to the New York Store (Pettis Dry Goods Company) and the company will go into retirement. The concern will pay all of its indebtedness in full, and in quitting business carries with it many expressions of regret and of good will. The firm was regarded as one of the most enterprising in Indianapolis. The fire which burned it out caused a net loss of nearly $60,000 over and above insurance, which amounted to about $100,000. The firm had begun business with a capital of $50,000, and had accumulated a reserve which enables it to meet all debts and losses. It is understood that Mr. Eastman's desire to withdraw from the partnership is the prime course of the firm's retirement, as he is the main capitalist of the concern. The friends of Mr. Lee and Mr. Schleicher hope they will be able to continue in the business in Indianapolis in some satisfactory connection.

J. H. ORR'S NEW ESTABLISHMENT.

The Bennett Building on the Public square, Wilkesbarre, Pa., illustrated above, is nearly completed, and when finished will be one of the finest store and office buildings in Northeast Pennsylvania. It is 136 feet front, 150 feet deep and five stories high. The front is constructed of blue stone and yellow terra cotta, richly ornamented. The combination of color is very pleasing, and the general effect is attractive and imposing. It will contain six stores and eighty offices. The stores are high and the large ones very deep, and the offices are good sized and well lighted. The offices are reached by an elevator made by the Graves Elevator Company, of Rochester, N. Y., and are finished with all the modern conveniences. The cars of the Wilkesbarre and Wyoming Valley Traction Company bring their passengers from all the suburban towns, and land them at the Public square, which makes this and other places of business on the square the most desirable in Wilkesbarre.

The centre store will be occupied by J. H. Orr, whose growing dry goods, carpet and upholstery business has necessitated the acquirement of even larger quarters than those now occupied on Market street. A special sale is now in progress prior to the removal March 20. The new store is 156 feet deep, 24 feet wide and 14 feet high, with an extensive skylight in the centre.

NEW BUILDINGS NEEDING CARPETS.

PROJECTED NEW BUILDINGS OF INTEREST TO LARGE CARPET AND FURNITURE DEALERS.

We present herewith a carefully compiled report of all the hotels, churches, theatres, club houses and other large buildings in course of erection which will soon be in need of extensive furnishings. This work has grown to such importance in the affairs of many large dealers that this column will no doubt be a valued help to those seeking such contracts:

Hotels, Theatres, &c.—Opera house at Mammoth, Utah, for P. Donahue.—Art museum at Cincinnati, Ohio, O. J. W. McLaughlin, architect.—Opera house at Hedrick, Ia., for F. H. The M. A. Furbush & Son Machine Company, Philadelphia, are building a number of looms for J. & J. Dobson's Mills.

The popularity of the Whittall goods is shown by the quick way in which the trade have caught on to the facilities offered by John H. Pray, Sons & Co., who have the complete line of Whittall and Edgeworth Brussels, for immediate delivery, and also accommodate the trade with cut quantities.

J. BAUMANN & BROTHER'S NEW STORE.

The new building at 1479 to 1483 Third avenue, New York, which has been in preparation for some time for J. Baumann & Brother, the carpet, furniture and house-furnishing goods dealers, was formally opened on the 14th inst. The structure, a cut of which is presented herewith, comprises six large floors, each 58x100 feet, and contains every modern improvement necessary to the conducting of a large business.

W. S. Morris, who has been manager of the old store for a number of years, will continue in the same capacity at the new establishment.

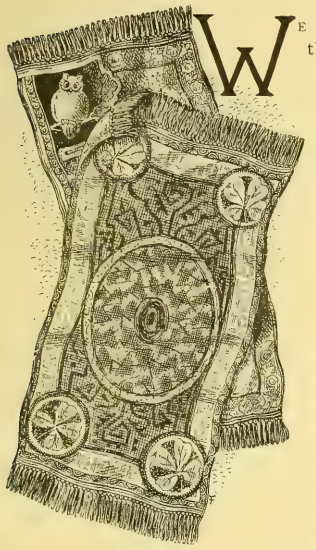
On the occasion of the opening of the new store the firm presented to its visitors as a souvenir a copy of "Jennie June's Cook Book," comprising about 400 pages, handsomely bound in a cloth covered board cover with a cut of the building and the firm name stamped in silver. They also presented a medical work of about the same character.

An important notice will be found on page 24. Joseph Wild & Co., as agents for the American Linoleum Manufacturing Company, issue a caution to the trade announcing that the American Company has begun suit against manufacturers charged with infringing the Melvin patents, and will fully protect its interests.

P. M. Gallahue & Son, Indianapolis agents for Boyd, Harley & Co., Philadelphia, have recently moved into handsome new quarters. They now occupy the street floor of a new building at 40 West Market street, Indianapolis, and have every convenient and modern facility for showing Boyd, Harley & Co.'s complete lines.

The Kidderminster Shuttle says that the leading carpet manufacturers of England and Scotland met in London recently. As a result of their deliberations the price of Brussels and Wiltons is raised 2d. per yard. The price of Imperial and other Axminsters also goes up 2d. a yard; and the Aristo quality is advanced to 5s. per yard; to take effect from March 25. The advance in the cost of materials has rendered this step imperative.

AN ASSOCIATION FORMED TO OPPOSE FRAUDULENT RUG AUCTIONS.



WE are glad to announce that the legitimate dealers in Oriental rugs, whose business has been so seriously injured by the fake auction sales of such goods, have at last decided upon a plan which seems well calculated to put an end to the operations of these auctioneers.

The plan is described in a circular issued to the trade on the 6th inst., announcing the formation of an association for the suppression of fraudulent rug auctions in this city, and for co-operating with regular dealers in other cities for the suppression of the illegitimate competition which they are constantly subjected to by parties traveling over the country with stocks of rugs.

Among the members of this association are Joseph Wild & Co., W. & J. Sloane, Arnold, Constable & Co., A. A. Vantine & Co., Lord & Taylor and Van Gaasbeek & Arkell.

In explaining the methods of the new organization the circular says :

In order to carry on the work of this association upon a scale which will meet the conditions created by the persistent and unscrupulous efforts of parties engaged in irregular and fraudulent auctions throughout the principal cities of the United States, it is necessary that legitimate dealers should interest themselves and become associate members of the organization just inaugurated.

The work is so directly useful to you that we anticipate little difficulty in obtaining your hearty co-operation and support ; the benefits which will accrue to you by reason of membership in this association, or any contribution to its funds which you may make, besides breaking up this whole system of rug auctions, which as you are aware, has its centre in this city, will be the co-operation of the association with you and other regular dealers in your city in preventing or neutralizing the effect of any auction sale of rugs which may be contemplated in your community, unless the same is honestly and regularly conducted.

It is enough that we should be subjected to the competition of men who are not under the expense of rent, insurance, and the other fixed charges that fall upon every regular merchant, without being subjected to the further disadvantage of competition conducted under fraudulent and dishonest methods.

It will be the aim of the association to keep such a watch upon the promoters of these auctions as will enable it to give you timely notice of any contemplated sale in your city, and to follow this up by placing in your hands information of the source of the goods, character of the people holding the auction, methods previously employed by them, and records of past sales of a fraudulent character, which being made public in your city through the proper channels cannot fail to result in wiping out this method of selling rugs entirely.

We realize, of course, that we have no just cause to complain of rug auctions honestly conducted, and must expect to compete with such, but we are satisfied from the investigation we have given the subject that rug auctions cannot be honestly and profitably conducted, and that to insist upon their being conducted honestly means their extermination.

The association will be fully equipped for efficient work, and will be a permanent institution. A part of its work will be to correspond with you and other dealers regarding your State laws and local ordinance bearing on the subject of auctions, and to suggest any reforms which we think would be to your advantage. In this city we will have the assistance of the most experienced detectives, a corps of stenographers, reporters and attorneys, and have no doubt whatever of our immediate success in this field, but you will readily understand that having driven this class of business from the city of New York the inevitable result will be to drive them to other cities, and it is with a view of co-operating with you to protect your local interests that we solicit your co-operation, with every confidence that the plans and purposes of the association are not only eminently worth it, but reasonably certain to render you full equivalent for your support.

This evil has grown to alarming proportions within the last three years, and unless immediately checked will make it impossible for regular dealers to profitably carry a stock of Oriental rugs, and compel them to abolish this department of their business.

None of us are exempt from this unfair and piratical competition, and, if we mistake not, you will find the competition much keener than ever before we have succeeded in suppressing such sales in this city.

The membership fee is $50, and we trust you will early indicate your willingness to join with us in this most important work.

Checks should be drawn to the order of John Sloane, treasurer, care W. & J. Sloane.

The finances of the association will be under the supervision of a committee of three, appointed by the firms above named, who will audit all accounts.

It is not intended that the association shall be a money making institution in any manner whatever, but that expenses will be kept down to a minimum, and any surplus that may remain after the work is completed will be returned to the members in proportion to the amount of their contribution.

Immediately upon the receipt of notice from you by wire that a sale is contemplated in your city, we will co-operate with you by giving you the benefit of our experience and work, outlining exactly the method we think should be adopted to bring about success in your own city, and, if necessary, send a representative of the association to your city to put the machinery in operation.

We are confident you will appreciate the importance of this undertaking, and realize that success can only be attained throughout the country by the regular and legitimate trade standing as a unit in prompt, vigorous and ceaseless action.

Awaiting an early indication of your pleasure, we are,

Very truly yours,

W. & J. SLOANE,
ARNOLD, CONSTABLE & CO.,
A. A. VANTINE & CO.,
LORD & TAYLOR,
JOS. WILD & CO.,
VAN GAASBEEK & ARKELL.

Representatives of Arnold, Constable & Co., Lord & Taylor and other large New York houses called upon Mayor Strong on the 3d inst., and had some conversation with him in reference to auctioneers who engineer fake sales of dry goods, which they advertise as coming from the large dry goods firms throughout the country.

EXPORTS of carpeting and kindred goods during the past two weeks were as follows : CARPETS—Southampton, 154 bs., $4,813 ; Glasgow, 56 bs., $2,280 ; Nova Scotia, 41 bs., $793 ; Manchester, 30 bs., $636 ; Antwerp, 13 bs., $405 ; Liverpool, 13 bs., $366. CAPRET SWEEPERS—Hamburg, 6 cs., $114 ; Antwerp, 5 cs., $100 ; Havre, 6 cs., $84 ; Glasgow, 4 cs., $75 ; New Zealand, 3 cs., $48 ; Liverpool, 2 cs., $26.

OBITUARY NOTES.

Walter J. Dinwoodey, son of H. Dinwoodey, of the Dinwoodey Furniture Company, Salt Lake City, was shot and killed by Harry P. Hynds on March 1.

Abraham Birch, superintendent of the spooling department in the mill of Jas. & Geo. D. Bromley, Philadelphia, died in that city on the 24th ult. Mr. Birch was for many years a local preacher in the Methodist Church. He leaves a widow and five children.

Chauncey T. Bowen, who died at Chelsea, Mass., on the 5th inst., was one of the pioneer dry goods jobbers of Chicago. The firm of Bowen Brothers was famous in the West thirty years ago, and did a very extensive business for those times. It dissolved in 1870, and the individual members then ceased to be connected with the dry goods trade.

The Carpet and Upholstery Trade Review :

Remnant Supplement comes to hand in excellent form, and, although our stock is not represented, will prove of great value to us throughout the year.

A NOTABLE CARPET.

A new carpet made by R. Smith & Sons, Kidderminster, England, for the Municipal Building in Birmingham is a patent Axminster woven in one piece in a loom 27 feet wide and made to include a bay space at one side of the room in which it is to be used. The Shuttle in describing it says : The ground is in five shades of old gold with a handsome écru scroll Louis Seize border. In the centre is worked a medallion which contains the city arms, with crest, supporters, motto, &c., artistically and heraldicly depicted. The dimensions are 24 feet by 24 feet, and it is interesting to know that it took 4,419½ yards of chenille weft—equal to 2½ miles—to make the carpet, which altogether is one of the most magnificent ever produced in our local looms.

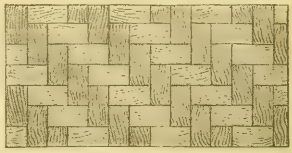
On page 19 of this issue Chas. P. Cochrane, proprietor of the Devon Carpet Mills, Howard street and Lehigh avenue, Philadelphia, has something interesting to say in regard to his attractive offerings in Ingrains. Mr. Cochrane's Roslyn Ingrains are high grade goods, heavier than an Extra Super, and are sold for about the same price.

A rumor has been current that a St. Paul or Minneapolis concern were to open up a large carpet and furniture house in the Plankington Block, Milwaukee. The New England Furniture and Carpet Company and Schuneman & Evans were mentioned in this connection, but we can say positively that neither of these concerns is to open a Milwaukee store.

The employees of the New York Store, Indianapolis, Ind., gave their annual ball on the night of the 18th ult. The carpet department was cleared for the occasion, and the proprietors of the store provided an excellent banquet. The New York Store is one of the best department stores in the country, and the furniture department, under the skillful management of Elmer Gay, has been especially successful.

HARDWOOD FLOORS AND CARPET DEALERS.

There are some changes in style or departures in house furnishing that a merchant would do better in accepting than in combating. He should turn his attention to the new order of things and make a profit out of it. Such is the case with parquet or hardwood floors. That their use is increasing cannot be gainsaid and while such use may interfere with the sale of carpets to be sewed and tacked down it has a compensating benefit in enlarging the sales of rugs. Many carpet dealers throughout the country are already showing samples of parquet floors and taking orders thereon as the foundation for a handsome and expensive rug sold at the same time. The sale of parquet floors can be easily attended to by any carpet dealer. The samples take up but little room and any carpet measurer can, with a little instruction, as well measure for a parquet floor. The manufacturer makes the floor just as ordered and ready to be laid and can forward it to any part of the country, where a local workman can lay the floor. That the interest in rugs is an increasing one with carpet dealers is readily apparent to anyone who visits the carpet stores of the different cities and the writer found many rug departments covered with parquet floors as a means of showing rugs to the best advantage.



A concern which makes a specialty of selling parquet floors through the carpet dealers is the Interior Hardwood Company, of Indianapolis, Ind. If you write to them they will cheerfully furnish particulars of how to sell parquet floors and illustrate the profit there is in it for you.

A NEW TECHNICAL SCHOOL.

The Supreme Court of Massachusetts held, in the case of Hanscom et al. v. the city of Lowell, that it was constitutional for the Legislature to pass an act to establish a textile school in a large manufacturing city under Part II., Chapter 5, Section 2, of the constitution of the State, which enjoins the Legislature to encourage manufactures.

The case came before the court in connection with the action of the Legislature in providing for the establishment of a technical school at Lowell, Mass. Objection was made to the measure on the ground that it was unconstitutional, and this objection is now proved to have no legal weight. The school will probably soon be established.

Chadurjian Brothers, 369 Broadway, are constantly receiving new things in Oriental goods. A recent lot of 1,000 Bagdad portieres has moved freely, and in carpets and rugs their business has been exceptionally good this spring.

The buyers must be hard to please who cannot find in A. A. Vantine & Co.'s stock of Oriental rugs and carpets, Japanese jute rugs, Japan and China mattings, Oriental draperies, hangings, &c., something to compel an order. Their offerings of mattings are unusually fine, and comprise all weights and colors in new and controlled designs.

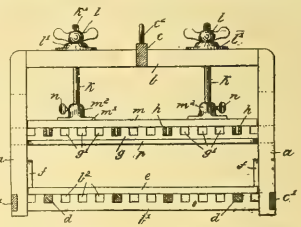
No. 555,609. Yarn Dyeing Machine.—Maurice H. Masland, Philadelphia, Pa. Filed October 12, 1895. Issued March 3, 1896.

Claim.—1. The combination with the main frame of a cage, of upper and lower longitudinal notched supports, upper oblong slotted and lower solid horizontal bars detachably engaging said supports, and means, substantially as described, connected with said frame and upper longitudina supports for raising and lowering said slotted bars.



2. The combination with the main frame of a cage provided with adjustable notched supports, of oblong slotted yarn supporting horizontal bars engaging said supports, solid horizontal bars engaging and locked to recessed lower longitudinal supports, shafts carrying said supports and movable in said cage frame and sleeves rotating on said frame and adapted to raise and lower said shafts to actuate said notched supports and yarn supporting bars.

3. The combination with the main frame of the dye cage and the lower fixed supports for the bars upon which the yarn is held, of the locking rod hinged to each of said fixed supports and turn buttons pivoted to the end pieces of said frame and adapted to lock the rod upon said fixed support.

4. The combination, in a dye cage, of upper supports and horizontal bars mounted therein, a perforated strip secured to each of said supports and projecting at right angles thereto, said strip adapted to prevent the end skeins of yarn suspended from said horizontal bars from clinging to the supports or creeping into or entering the recesses of said supports and also to permit of the passage of dye liquor to the sides to thoroughly saturate the same.

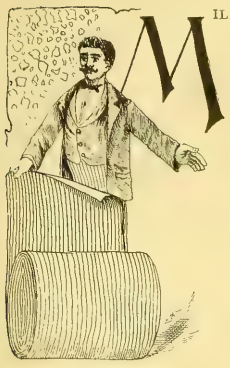
CURRENT CARPET CHAT.



Milan, Mo., was the scene of a disastrous conflagration on February 13. Among the buildings destroyed was that occupied by C. A. Schoene, dealer in furniture and carpets. His stock, which was valued at $4,500, was insured for $3,000.

The Lains & Lord Furniture Company is in a bad way through being incapable of steering clear of the snags in the channel of trade. George H. Lains, who managed the business, found that he could not compete with other merchants in the same line, and as a result the sheriff is in the furniture business by virtue of an attachment suit brought by G. F. Plyler for $2,215 upon various assigned notes from the Union Savings Bank and Milton Grims. A few days ago preparations were being made by the firm to retire from the business, and part of the stock was disposed of in a lump. Mr. Lains' household furniture at his home, 555 Second street, was also put up at auction. This caused alarm, with the result that creditors are now looking for a settlement of their claims.—San José (Cal.) News, February 8. A petition of creditors to have Lains & Lord, declared insolvent, has been filed in the Supreme Court. The creditors who filed the petition and the alleged claims are W. J. Sloane & Co., $365.91; Sanborn, Vail & Co., $126.32; Seller Brothers & Co., $17; H. Bernhart & Co., $66.75; Hulse, Bradford & Co., $73.74; Heywood Brothers & Co., $202. The liabilities are placed at some $6,000, with assets of about the same.

Elliott Brothers, Forest, Ill., have sold out.

Stough Brothers, Ponco, Neb., have sold out.

W. L. Sanders, Seneca, Kan., has sold out.

W. D. Detherow, Brookville, Miss., has sold out.

John Willis, Jr., Norfolk, Va., has purchased the interest of his partner, H. Lash, and will continue the business at 153 to 159 Church street, Norfolk.

The stock in Born & Co.'s carpet and furniture store, Indianapolis, was damaged to the extent of from $1,000 to $3,000, chiefly by smoke and water, on the 23d ult.

H. Choate & Co., Winona, Minn., have a new store 40x140 feet, supplied with all the modern improvements. Their carpet department will occupy the entire second floor.

D. G. Hendricks, the Chester (Pa.) carpet merchant, has been awarded the contract for 200 yards of Brussels carpet and cocoa matting, to be laid at Concordville Hall, Concordville.

The building occupied by R. C. Reynolds, Troy, N. Y., and adjoining the burned Burdett Building, has been restored to a condition of occupancy. Mr. Reynolds opened business on the 28th ult. with the addition of the space from the second floor up in the McCarthy Building, which with the store heretofore occupied will be made into a carpet and furniture store.

Charles Swain, Murray, Idaho, has sold out.

F. H. Brown, Hudson, Mich., is selling out.

C. C. Judson, Grand Rapids, Ohio, has sold out.

Cann & Davis, Westport, Ind., have dissolved.

A. H. Lohlker's carpet stock at St. Paul, Minn., was recently damaged by fire.

Chas. Boynton has sold his interest in the firm of R. Thompson & Co., Nunda, Ill.

Mullen & Buckley, carpet and furniture dealers, have refitted the interior of their big store at Far Rockaway, L. I.

H. C. Slaymaker has opened a housefurnishing goods store at Lancaster, Pa., and carries a stock of floor oil cloths.

An addition is being erected to the West End Carpet Store, York, Pa., of which A. F. Warnecke is the proprietor.

W. T. Griswold, Warren, Pa., has added a carpet department, and C. H. Koons, formerly with H. Stiles & Son, has taken charge of it.

Cordes & Paterson, San Francisco, have taken the carpet department of the "Emporium," the new department store just opened in that city.

McWilliams, Millbank & Co., carpet and furniture dealers, Steam Boat Springs, Col., have sold out, as have also Sargent Brothers, Grundy Centre, Ia.

The Harmon Furniture Company is a new concern at 142 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y. Myron A. Harmon, formerly with H. Messersmith, is the manager.

F. D. Verran has sold his carpet and furniture business at Rhinelander, Wis., to Robert Chafee, and will devote his entire attention to his store at Republic, Mich.

It is reported that P. E. Cox is closing out his dry goods and carpet business at Ipswich, S. Dak., and E. Bernheim & Co. are closing out their furniture and carpet business at Hueneme, Cal.

W. H. Daniels & Co.'s carpet and furniture stock at Greeley, Col., valued at $13,000 to $14,000, was totally destroyed by fire, smoke and water on February 13. Insurance, $11,500.

Yeager & Co., Fairmont, W. Va., have recently moved into a new four story building 85 feet long and 24 feet wide. It has a plate glass front and is claimed to be the finest store in the State.

Carl, Levan & Carl, Lockport, N. Y., opened their new store in that city on the 6th inst. They occupy the entire building and carry a large stock of carpets, furniture and upholstery goods.

Lieth & Schilling, carpet and furniture dealers, First street, Hoboken, N. J., have dissolved partnership, Henry Lieth retiring. Max C. Schilling continues the business under the old firm style.

Adolphus Kuhne, Newark, N. J., has given a chattel mortgage for $3,250, and judgment for $1,900 has been entered against him. He has been in business twenty-five years, recently valued his stock at $17,000, and said he had $30,000 owing to him and owed $14,000. He has assigned to George Zahn, who is taking an inventory and will call a meeting of creditors within a few days, when an offer of compromise will be made.

L. H. Pratt and M. L. Newton will start in the carpet and wall paper business at Jacksonville, Ill.

The Simons Dry Goods Company succeeds B. F. Simons, dealer in dry goods, carpets, &c., Lansing, Mich.

The carpet and furniture stock of Christopher Nugent, Jr., 77 Market street, Newark, N. J., was damaged by fire on the 7th inst. The stock was insured for $15,000.

Gimbel Brothers, Milwaukee, supplied the Masonic Temple at Ashland, Wis., with the largest carpet ever sold by them. There are about 500 yards in the main hall.

Houghton & Dutton, Boston, are building a new nine story store which will cost $1,000,000. It will have a frontage of 150 feet on Tremont street and 114 feet on Pemberton square.

An overheated stove was the cause of a fire in Wm. T. Woolley's carpet and furniture store at Meriden, Conn., on the 12th inst. The loss by fire and water amounts to $5,000; partially covered by insurance.

Goods stored in the cellar of Spear & Co.'s carpet and furniture store, 511 Wood street, Pittsburg, Pa., were damaged by fire and water on the 21st ult. The cause of the fire was an explosion of natural gas.

Bowman & Sons, Greensburg, Pa., have made a very desirable improvement in their carpet department, second floor, by making two small salesrooms out of the rear hall. The addition of these two rooms enables them to separate their various grades of carpets, which will prove very desirable to their patrons.

The New Haven Window Shade Company, dealers in carpets, draperies, &c., are closing out their Meriden, Conn., branch, which is run under the title of W. R. Smith & Co. Mr. W. R. Smith, who is a son of J. Boardman Smith, of the New Haven concern, is about to retire, and will engage in business in New York city.

The corporation known as Cannon's, dealing in carpets, furniture and housefurnishing goods generally, 246 Market street, Newark, N. J., has leased the adjoining buildings, Nos. 248 and 250, and will have a big establishment when the alterations now being made are completed.

The Masonic Block, one of the principal buildings of Westfield, Mass., was burned down on the 11th inst. The fire started, from some unknown cause, in the basement. The total loss was about $100,000, with about $70,000 insurance. The building was owned by Mount Monah Lodge of Masons, D. L. Gillett and Col. J. A. Larkin. The loss on the building was some $25,000. The ground floor was occupied by D. L. Gillett & Son, dry goods and carpet dealers, whose loss will reach nearly $45,000.

The heirs of the Willis Cook estate contemplate putting a two story addition to the block on Main street, Woonsocket, in which the Rhode Island Furniture Company is now located, as the carpet and furniture concern desires considerable more room for its rapidly increasing business.

The Jackson Company, Rome, N. Y., has been incorporated to carry on the dry goods and carpet business. The capital stock is $28,000, and the directors are J. Stevens, A. M. Jackson, Hugh McGuigan, J. J. Kelley and Harry Van Vleck. The company succeeds A. M. Jackson & Co.

The five years for which the partnership of the C. E. Crawford Furniture Company, Middletown, N. Y., was formed having expired, the firm gives notice that it has been decided to continue the partnership, each partner retaining the same interest as heretofore. The business of the company has been more than satisfactory.

The large household furniture store of Jeremiah Noonan at 1017 to 1023 Mission street, San Francisco, was gutted by fire on the 27th ult., causing a loss of about $25,000. Michael Doyle, a brother-in law of the proprietor, who was sleeping in the store, narrowly escaped being caught by the flames. He saved his life by jumping from a rear window. He sprained his ankle. The loss is covered by insurance.

The certificate of incorporation of the Trenton (N. J.) Furniture Company, Limited, was filed at the county clerk's office on the 4th inst. The capital stock is $7,500. The incorporators, each of whom holds $2,500 worth of stock, are G. H. Poole, George Hottenstein and Beverly W. Lee. The place of business of the company is at 15 South Warren street. The concern succeeds the Accommodation Furnishing Company.

A dispatch from Columbus, Ohio, says the J. L. Hudson Company, of Cleveland, was incorporated February 20 to carry on a general mercantile business, both wholesale and retail, in buying and selling clothing, gentlemen's furnishing goods, carpets, millinery and other articles sold in a department store. The capital stock is $150,000, and the incorporators are J. L. Hudson, Jones S. Dickle, Ida M. Rosenthal, C. A. Livingston, Frank F. Day and W. E. Gehres.

At a recent meeting of the creditors of Wood & Hall, Fall River, Mass., no definite proposition was made, but Mr. Wood explained that the assets were so small that it was useless to make an offer of composition, as little or nothing could be realized on them. An advisory committee was appointed to assist the assignee, Arba N. Lincoln, of the firm of Lincoln & Hood, lawyers. The committee comprises Abraham J. Hart, of the Union Savings Bank, F. O. Dodge and Mrs. Wood, who represent the principal creditors. It is said that the property will eventually be disposed of at a bankruptcy sale, and in the meantime the store will be kept open and goods will be turned into cash. The liabilities are $16,000, and it is probable that a lien on the stock, held by the owners of the building occupied by the firm, will result in legal complications. Mr. Wood will continue in the undertaking business.

Breinig Brothers & Co., who have for a number of years conducted a carpet and furniture store at Terre Haute, Ind., made an assignment on the 3d inst. to Jacob Breinig, father of the assignors. Henry Breinig says that their financial embarrassment was due to poor collections and the fact that one or two of their largest creditors have been pushing them for payment. The business is conducted largely on the instalment plan among the laboring classes, who have been unable to meet their payments except in a small way. In order to secure all of the creditors and himself as well, Mr. Breinig decided to make an assignment, but says that within three or four months he will be able to pay 100 cents on the dollar. The firm has no preferred creditors, has given no mortgage, and has property and accounts worth three times the amount they owe. Mr. Breinig said: "Our stock has invoiced at about $8,000, and our outstanding accounts and contracts will amount to between $12,000 and $13,000. The liabilities will be about $5,500." J. P. Stunkerd is attorney for the firm. The assignee has asked permission of the court to continue the business as before, and it is expected that the entire indebtedness will be paid off within three months.

J. KENNARD & SONS CARPET COMPANY.

In the immense variety of makes and grades of carpeting offered by the J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company will be found remarkably strong inducements to buyers. The offerings comprise the best patterns of the Alexander Smith & Sons Carpet Company, Hartford Carpet Company, Roxbury Carpet Company, Schofield, Mason & Co., Stinson Brothers, &c., and also a great assortment of Ingrains in all grades.

The J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company rank among the largest importers of Chinese and Japanese matting, and after the spring orders are filled they will have in stock over 12,000 rolls of the various grades.

Another prominent feature of the company's business is their cut order department, which enables dealers to sell Wiltons by samples, the goods being cut to order by the company.

A new advertisement of the company will be found on page 4 of the cover.

A NEW PATRIOTIC SOCIETY.

A new patriotic society is just being organized, the name of which will probably be Order of Founders and Patriots. To be eligible to membership the applicant must be a descendant in direct line from an ancestor who settled in any of the colonies prior to 1657 and whose descendants during the Revolutionary War were loyal to the cause of freedom.

The society will be incorporated in the course of a few days, and already applications have been received from many gentlemen of distinction and prominence not only in New York State but throughout New England.

We notice among the founders the names of Howard S. Robbins, of Joseph Wild & Co.; Clarence L. Collins, of Whitin & Collins; Matthew Hinman, of Hinman Brothers, and Howard Marshall, also connected with Joseph Wild & Co.

Lady (to impecunious workman she is employing for sweet charity's sake)—I hope you will come early to-morrow and finish the job promptly.

Public Spirited One—Really, mum, that would be impossible. I should like to oblige ye, but to-morrow I wa'ks with the unemployed.—Ex.

ST. LOUIS

F. Bronough, Kennard's rug traveler, has recently returned from the road.

H. C. Gottfried, of Kennard's, is president of the Missouri State branch of the Travelers' Protective Association.

One of the largest Persian rugs ever imported was recently sold by Trorlicht, Duncker & Renard. It measured 18x29 feet.

Jesse Palm, formerly Illinois traveler for the Kennard Company, is now manager of Wilson & Co.'s carpet department, Monmouth, Ill. Charles Dozier has succeeded to his territory.

L. W. Lacy, who has been with the Kennard Company for twenty years and has represented them in Western Kansas and Colorado, has retired from traveling and is now general house salesman.

The rug room of the Trorlicht, Duncker & Renard Company is the repository of some of the finest specimens of Oriental and Indian rugs in the country. A feature of the stock is its great variety, for Captain Duncker spends so much time in the East that he is enabled to pick up rare and choice things, and every rug is personally selected by him.

The traveling force of the J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company comprises W. M. Ingram, Texas; Joseph Tureman, Kansas; H. C. Gottfried, Mississippi; Ed. Benson, Iowa; S. C. Spiro, Nebraska; Charles Dozier, Illinois; T. W. Sharon, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin; R. L. Frisby, Arkansas; Thomas Atwood, Tennessee and Kentucky. With hardly an exception all of the traveling men have done a better business this season than a year ago.

Kroeger & Linde, the North Broadway carpet and curtain dealers, are in prime shape for the opening of the spring season. Their assortment comprises most of the best makes, and the stock has arrived. They are doing an excellent cut order business, and deliver goods promptly, as they operate an Ames electric sewing machine. Their building has a frontage of 48 feet and is 120 feet deep, with six floors devoted altogether to carpets and upholstery. Mr. Linde says business has kept up very well during the winter.

Captain Duncker and Charles Duncker, of the Trorlicht, Duncker & Renard Carpet Company, returned from the East about the first of the month, and have filled all wants of the retail stock, so that the house is well girded for the spring opening. Captain Duncker tells me their wholesale business has increased considerably over a year ago. He has not felt the price cutting on Ingrains of a Chicago house, and finds its force has been spent. He instructed his men to keep to prices, no matter what quotations were made on Ingrains by other houses, and to illustrate that the under price goods were worth no more than was asked for them. His house has sold more Union and cotton Ingrains than ever, and obtained the advanced price, too. In mattings the season has been a big one, and the delayed goods are coming in and will be delivered in time. They imported 22,000 rolls of matting directly, and have probably purchased 5,000 rolls more on this side. They bring in a quantity of Japanese matting overland from the Pacific Coast. Brussels are selling well with them and their interest in the goods is growing.

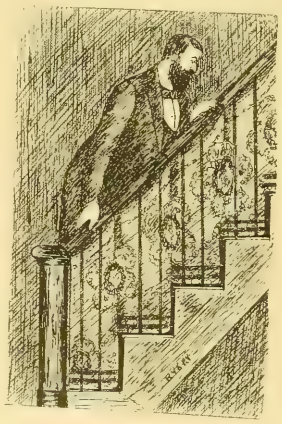
The J. Kennard & Sons Company have made a very substantial increase in their wholesale carpet business this season and have strongly demonstrated their ability to cope with any competition and to interest the best retail buyers. The writer heard them quoted freely from the time of his entering Indiana, and there is no doubt that they have obtained a great deal of trade this season that formerly went to other cities. There are few wholesale houses in the country that handle more Ingrain carpets than the Kennard Company, and this season they have been a big factor on all three-quarter goods likewise. They have moved Smith's Taps., Velvets, Moquettes and Axminsters and Roxbury Taps. very freely. J. M. C.

A HANDSOME BOOKLET.

"TO THE ORIENT IN SEARCH OF RUGS" is the title of a beautiful illustrated booklet just issued by W. & J. Sloane to call attention to their extensive offerings of Oriental carpets and rugs. As exceptionally conspicuous importers of such goods W. & J. Sloane are in a position to present very strong inducements to buyers, and the booklet referred to is well calculated to impress this fact upon the reader, while it also provides a large amount of interesting information relating to the various kinds of Oriental rugs.

Write to W. & J. Sloane, New York, for a copy.

THROUGH the indefatigable efforts of Mr. J. L. Pollitt, London manager of the Bissell Carpet Sweeper Company, the subject of prison made goods has been seriously discussed by the English Parliament, and according to the English blue book just published it would seem that the result will doubtless be that the sale of goods heretofore made in German prisons, consisting of carpet sweepers, brushes, mats, &c., and placed upon the London market ostensibly as English made goods, will be prohibited.



A NEW MAKE OF AXMINSTER, OR ENGLISH AS HE SPOKE.

SALESMAN (on stairs)—I say, Jones, did you sell a woman an Axminster carpet with spectacles on, this morning?

D. P. ERWIN & CO., the Indianapolis carpet jobbers, will soon remove their carpet department to the second floor of their building, obtaining more room and better light. As the trade in the Middle States have ordered conservatively, and have not put in usual sized stocks, it will be well to remember that Erwin & Co. are nearer their doors than most other jobbers, and have the stock to fill their wants. Manager F. H. Miller can also accommodate them on cut quantities, as the firm do a large cut order as well as piece business.

Callahan.—James J. A. Callahan, carpet manager of the Brooklyn Furniture Company, has had a week's tussle with illness, but turned up for business on the 10th in fair condition.

Constable.—Frederick Constable, of Arnold, Constable & Co. sailed for Europe March 11.

Croft.—It looks as though Silas B. Croft, the carpet ex-merchant whom Mayor Strong made a commissioner of charities, rather had the controller on the hip. It appears that all his appointees requiring civil service certificates were duly equipped with those valuable recommendations.

Devore.—J. E. Devore, manager of the carpet department of the World's Fair Store, has one of the best carpet stocks in Indianapolis, Ind., and has built up a very extensive business.

Dibble.—J. W. Dibble, of the H. B. Claflin Company, has abandoned the carpet business and become a dealer in new hats.

Fancher.—A. D. Fancher, of the Binghamton (N. Y.) House Furnishing Company, whose building was recently burned out, was injured by the sidewalk in front of the store giving way, but is reported to be improving slowly.

Fritz.—Charles B. Fritz, of Fritz, La Rue & Sinn, sailed for the Orient recently to replenish the firm's stock of rugs and carpets.

Grayhurst.—John Grayhurst, one of the most thoroughly trained men in the trade, will represent Harrison Townsend & Co., of Norristown, Pa., manufacturers of Wiltons, Brussels and upholstery fabrics. He has secured offices at 110 Worth street.

Hogg.—Wm. J. Hogg, the Worcester carpet manufacturer, and Mrs. Hogg made a trip to Florida recently.

Hyatt.—Mortimer Hyatt, manager of the carpet department of Heath & Drake, Newark, N. J., celebrated the fifty-second anniversary of his connection with the carpet trade on March 4. He entered the employ of his brother George E. L. in 1844 in New York.

Knapp.—It was just twenty-five years ago on March 10 that Sheppard Knapp, who for seven years had been a member of the firm of DeWolf & Knapp, started out for himself in a little room on the second story of the old building on the corner of Hudson and King streets. Happening to recall the fact the other day to one of his older salesmen, the employees of the big establishment on Sixth avenue which has grown out of the unpretentious Hudson street beginning set to work to give Mr. Knapp a surprise. One of their number was dispatched to the downtown jewelry district with orders to buy the handsomest gold handled whip in town. Mr. Farley, who does the serious poetry of the house, as Riley does the humorous work, tuned his lyre and sang as follows:

You must "put up" to put it down,
So goes the carpet trade.
This business had a heavy nap,
It wore well, so it paid.

Like infant in his swaddling clothes,
Your venture first began;
It grew so fast that all men know
For carpets you're the man.

Industrious your years have been—
In all things to the fore;
May each year bring you fame and wealth
And happiness galore.

Mr. Knapp is now the envy of the gentlemen who watch him handle that whip as he swings up by Macomb's Dam.

Lyon.—J. Crawford Lyon, of Lyon Brothers & Co., Baltimore, stopped at his firm's branch offices in the West last month on his way to the Pacific Coast and thence to China and Japan.

McGrorty.—Wm. G. McGrorty, who has been associated with his father, James J. McGrorty, in the carpet and furniture business at 2270 Third avenue, New York, has joined forces with John C. Harrigan, and opened a law office at 150 Nassau street, New York. Mr. McGrorty was graduated from the law school in 1894, and his knowledge of replevins, chattel mortgages, &c., gained in the furniture business will stand him in good stead in his new vocation. Mr. Harrigan, the senior member of the firm, while not devoting himself exclusively to that practice, is the leading criminal lawyer of Westchester County and represented his district in the State Legislature in 1894. Constituted as it is the firm cannot fail to have a successful future before it.

Osborn.—Frank Osborn has severed his connection with Gimbel Brothers, Philadelphia, to accept a position with J. & J. Dobson.

Perkins.—R. P. Perkins, secretary of the E. S. Higgins Carpet Company, who has been recuperating in Europe, will return to New York next month.

Searing.—L. B. Searing, who has been abroad for several months in the interests of W. & J. Sloane's Oriental rug and carpet department, sailed from Liverpool for home on the Majestic on the 11th inst., and is due in New York on the 18th inst.

Senior.—Fred Senior, of Sperry & Beale, celebrates his sixtieth birthday on St. Patrick's Day. He has been in the carpet trade in this country for thirty years, beginning with John H. Pray in 1866.

Spate.—When a city marshal seized the furniture of a fashionable boarding house in Twenty-second street for a debt of $200 he woke up a Tartar in the person of Charles Spate, of Spate & White, the Twenty-third street carpet dealers. Mr. Spate owned the handsome carpets on his apartments and recovered them from the marshal's men with the aid of an axe.

Stark.—C. G. Stark, head of the Stark Brothers Company, Milwaukee, was in the New York market the first week of the month, and will visit Washington and a few other points before returning home.

Stoy.—Wm. V. Stoy, the Lafayette, Ind., carpet dealer, has been very successful in soliciting money for the building of a mission chapel in that city.

Weeks.—Farmer Si Weeks, of the H. B. Claflin Company's carpet department, has returned from his farm. The March hay crop is all in, and he says he has planted several acres to Berkshire boars, and looks for a large harvest of bolognas next summer.

Wehn.—George Wehn and his son, J. Fred Wehn, of George Wehn & Son, Boyd, Harley & Co.'s Pittsburg agents, were visitors at The Review office while in town last week on a brief trip.

Winters.—Lawrence Winters, manager of the H. B. Claflin Company's carpet department, had as a guest at the St. Nicholas Club dinner to Hon. T. C. Platt, James Dunlap, of Philadelphia. To add tone to the occasion he also invited two prominent Democratic friends.

Woodman.—A. E. Woodman, manager of H. P. Wasson & Co.'s carpet, rug and upholstery department, Indianapolis, has made very extensive preparations for spring business, and is now opening up his new purchases. He returned from the East on the 2d inst.

THE HODGES FIBER CARPETS.

On page 63 of this issue the Hodges Fiber Carpet Company, 50 Essex street, Boston, addresses some pertinent and interesting remarks to the trade in relation to its line of fiber carpets and rugs. These goods have substantial merits which entitle them to the favor of every carpet dealer. They are handsome, durable and salable. They are made in 50 yard rolls, a yard wide, and also in standard size rugs. The assortment of patterns is large and comprises a wide variety of new and handsome effects. Write to the manufacturers for prices, &c.

IMPORTS OF STRAW MATTING.

In accordance with the request of a subscriber we present herewith some figures relating to the importation of straw matting into this country during the past six years. The recent great increase in imports of Japanese goods is clearly shown, and the figures as given are quite sufficient to prove the great and growing importance of the Japanese matting trade, the imports of Japanese mattnig into the United States for the past two years having largely exceeded those of China for same period.

The imports of Chinese matting were as follows :

	Rolls.
From June 1, 1890, to April 27, 1891	231,778
From June 1, 1891, to April 27, 1892	201,050
From June 1, 1892, to April 27, 1893	212,118
From May 1, 1893, to February 8, 1894	285,892
From May 1, 1894, to February 8, 1895	239,030
From May 1, 1895, to February 8, 1896	331,003

The imports of Japanese matting during the past six calendar years were as follows :

	Rolls.		Rolls.
1892	165,907	1895	454,409

The statistics as to values are as follows :

Imports of	Year ending June 30.	Value.	Total for the Year.
Chinese matting	1891	$1,165,153
Japanese "	"	320,330	$1,485,483
Chinese matting	1892	$1,092,848
Japanese "	"	540,714	$1,633,562
Chinese matting	1893	$783,417
Japanese "	"	860,047	$1,663,464
Chinese matting	1894	$856,903
Japanese "	"	1,016,540	$1,873,443
Chinese matting	1895	$620,096
Japanese "	"	1,015,219	$1,635,315

The figures relating to quantities of Chinese matting imported do not cover every month of each year and do not include some shipments of matting by the Northern Pacific steamers, but these omissions are of no practical importance in this connection.

The figures are highly significant, for they show a steady and enormous increase in the consumption of straw matting in this country. The figures for last year make up a total of about 800,000 rolls of Japanese and Chinese matting imported into this country, and the market for domestic carpeting, Ingrains particularly, has doubtless been greatly affected by this competition. As noted in our issue of the 15th ult., the American manufacturers have become aroused to this danger, and are now urging the passage of a bill removing straw matting from the free list and imposing a substantial duty upon it. A strong effort will be made to bring this bill to a vote before the present Congress adjourns.

SANFORD MILLS RUNNING FULL TIME.

Stephen Sanford & Sons desire us to say that a statement published recently in a dry goods trade paper, to the effect that the Sanford mills were running but three days in the week, is absolutely false. The mills are running on full time, six days in every week, on orders, and will be running full through the season. Sanford & Sons are sold up to the end of the season, and will be obliged to work their looms on full time to fill their orders.

AFFAIRS OF THE LATE M. M. TERRY.

E. B. Terry and Elizabeth Terry, executor and executrix respectively of the will of the late M. M. Terry, carpet and furniture dealer, Brooklyn, N. Y., recently issued the following circular :

To the creditors of M. M. Terry, deceased—This estate has been managed as provided by law, with a view to collect the utmost possible from accounts, and to turn into cash the stock on hand. There is evidently very little cash retail trade, and instalment collections decrease in proportion as time goes on. It is a matter of conjecture how much will be realized if we continue to close the estate with attendant expenses. If a settlement with creditors is effected the business could be continued on a conservative instalment plan insuring far better returns than present assets. We therefore offer 25 per cent. cash and 30 per cent. in equal unsecured notes of the estate of 10 per cent. each, payable in four, eight and twelve months from date of securing consent of all creditors. This settlement could not be realized if the estate was closed up. There will be a meeting of the creditors at the office of Foley & Powell, 206 Broadway, New York city, on Thursday, March 12, 1896, at 2 P. M. to consider this offer. If you cannot be present, please notify us at once of your disposition. Edward B. Terry and Elizabeth Terry,
Executor and Executrix.

As a committee appointed by the creditors to confer with the executor and executrix, we have kept informed as to their progress, and after giving their proposition careful consideration would advise acceptance. This would give Mrs. Terry an opportunity to save a little from the estate.

[Signed] O. M. Beach, chairman creditors' meeting ; M. C. Warner and Geo. W. Cann, committee of creditors.

We, as attorneys for the estate of M. M. Terry, approve of the above proposition, and believe the estate will be able to carry it out.
Foley & Powell.

The meeting of creditors on the 12th inst. resulted in a practically unanimous agreement to accept the offer as outlined in the foregoing circular.

THE LOWELL CARPET COMPANY.

The Lowell (Mass.) Mail of the 21st ult. refers to the carpet mills of the Lowell Company as follows :

In a little more than a year the Lowell Carpet Company has paid two dividends and has also improved its plant at a cost of about $320,000, by which the output of the company has been considerably increased. This is a good record when the fact is taken into consideration that the mills are practically beginning on the real period of recovery from the depression of 1892 to 1894.

The company operated in 1895 thirty-nine sets of cards, twenty-two combs and 22,750 worsted spindles. Negotiations in 1895 with the Crompton Loom Works resulted in October last in a transaction which gave to the Lowell Manufacturing Company the sole American rights to the use of the perfected loom for weaving double pile fabrics.

The Crompton Axminster loom is controlled exclusively by the Lowell Company.

Here's one from Harper's Bazar which will doubtless be appreciated by the traveling men : "Owing to your not having screens in your car windows," said the traveler, "I got a cinder in my eye the other day, and it has cost me $10 to get it out. I want to know what you propose to do about it."

"Nothing, my dear sir," said the railroad official. "We have no use for the cinder, and you are perfectly welcome to it. On a strict construction of facts, you did go off with our property—the cinder, of course, was not yours—but we do not care to make trouble for you in so small a matter. Pray do not give the incident a moment's thought."

IN THE UPHOLSTERY MARKET.

EARBY trade has been a large factor during the fortnight in keeping up the volume of business in upholstery goods and draperies to a normal February amount. The traveling men are getting their samples ready and will soon be out on their respective routes.

The tendency continues toward higher grades of goods.

A large business has been done in lace piece goods. Furniture coverings also have been in good demand.

Bad weather has interfered materially with the local retail trade and the season bids fair to open late.

The window shade jobbers seem to be well satisfied with the workings of the combination, especially those who had good sized stocks bought at old prices. By next season, however, these stocks will be exhausted and we will hear less of the jobber underselling the manufacturers.

DUTY ON SOUTACHE BRAID.—In the case of H. Wolff & Co. against the collector at New York the Board of General Appraisers decided as follows :

"The article in question is made by winding a strand of metal around a cotton thread, forming what is known as metal thread. The latter is then braided over a cotton core, and the product is soutache braid.

"Duty was assessed upon the goods under the provision in paragraph 215, act of October 1, 1890, for manufactures of metal not otherwise provided for. The importers claim the same to be dutiable under paragraphs 737 or 196, same act, either directly or by similitude to the tinsel wire, lahn or lame or the bullions and metal thread mentioned therein, or that they are unenumerated manufactured articles or come under many other provisions of the tariff act.

"In G. A. 2,439 it was held that the article in question was a manufacture of which metal thread was the component material of chief value, and this decision has recently been affirmed by the Circuit Court of Appeals.

"The board makes the same finding of facts in this case, and overrules the various claims set out in the protest."

DURING the past two weeks the following buyers have registered in this market: Messrs. H. Choate, of H. Choate & Co., Winona, Minn.; Ralph Sachs, for S. Kann, Sons & Co., Baltimore; J. R. Johnston, of Elder & Johnston, Dayton, Ohio; W. H. Gates, for Hower & Higbee, Cleveland, Ohio; John R. Coppin, Covington, Ky.; W. F. Davidson, of J. A. Davidson & Co., Port Huron, Mich.; C. L. Snyder, for John A. Roberts & Co., Utica, N. Y.; John E. Frash, Huntington, Ind.; C. S. Sanborn, of Burrows & Sanborn, Lynn, Mass.; C. L. Scott, for Campbell & Smith, Pittsburg; J. A. Herring, of Herring, Jenkins & Co., Georgetown, Ky.; A. E. Wood, for Reid & Hughes, Waterbury, Conn.; Charles Shupp, Plymouth, Pa.; Aaron Levy, of Levy Brothers, Tallahassee, Fla.; C. L. Stone, for Stone & Thomas, Wheeling, W. Va.; H. Arnold, of Arnold Brothers, Clarion, Pa.; W. L. Bickmore, Ironton, Ohio; E. S. Brown, of E. S. Brown & Co., Fall River, Mass.; D. B. Longwill, for the Callender, McAuslan & Troup Company, Providence, R. I.; William Barie, Jr., of William Barie & Son, Saginaw, Mich.; C. F. Sisson, of Sisson Brothers & Welden, Binghamton, N. Y.; Alexander Grant, Zanesville, Ohio; J. Williamson, for La Salle & Koch, Toledo, Ohio; W. H. Wright, for Woodward & Lothrop, Washington, D. C.; J. Meiklejohns, for Posner Brothers, Baltimore; G. Rosenheim, of the Rosenheim Company, Nashville, Tenn.; Thos. Irwin, for Wm. Taylor, Son & Co., Cleveland, Ohio; T. H. Reeves, of the Reeves-Veeder Company, Schenectady, N. Y.; W. H. Parcher, for the John Shillito Company, Cincinnati; J. Frank McDermond, Attica, Ind.; Peter Bartholomey and W. K. Morgan, of the D. E. Morgan,

The upholstery manager of a large uptown house says he was long ago forcibly struck with the immense possibilities of bed ticking for upholstery purposes, and has tried the use of the fabric with admirable results. He made a set of portières out of ticking of modest, subdued colors, such tones as are usually found on the mattresses sold in the instalment stores. The original material cost but a few cents a yard. He took a few yards of silk velvet and had it stamped in handsome arabesque figures, which were then cut out and appliqued on the ticking. These were outlined with narrow gold cord, and the result was as beautiful a hanging as ever came from the loom. A frieze and dado of the black velvet embroidered with gold added to the effect. The portières, marked $46.99, are still to be seen in the warerooms of the firm, where they attract great attention from the feminine journalists of the daily papers.

THE NEW SHADE CLOTH COMPANY.

The Columbia Shade Cloth Company, whose incorporation was noted in our issue of the 1st inst., will act as the distributing medium for the machine-made shade cloth manufactured in this country.

These goods are now made by three concerns, namely, the Minetto Shade Cloth Company, Minetto, N. Y.; the Meriden Curtain Fixture Company, Meriden, Conn., and the Opaque Shade Cloth Company, of West Pullman, Ill. The factories of these companies will continue operations as usual, but the Columbia Company will attend to the marketing of the product, and will have a central office at 44 Lafayette place, New York city, with branch offices at other centres to be later determined.

The directors of the Columbia Shade Cloth Company are: A. S. Page, J. H. Ware, Chas. E. Parker, T. D. McChesney, Chas. Tremain, D. W. Parker, D. P. Page, D. G. Wilkins and J. C. Perkins. The officers are: President, A. S. Page; vice-president, Chas. Tremain; treasurer, Chas. E. Parker; assistant treasurer, J. C. Perkins. There will be an executive board composed of T. D. McChesney, Charles Tremain and J. C. Perkins.

The Behrmann & Barkhowe Upholstery Company's factory at 2315 North Fifteenth street, St. Louis, was damaged to the extent of $3,000 by fire on the 3d inst. The building owned by H. W. Peters sustained a loss of $300. Both fully insured.

Buckle & Sons' lace factory at Port Hope, Ont., Canada, with its contents, was burned on the 10th inst. Loss, $6,000. The building was insured for $800 and the stock and machinery for $1,500. The fire was caused by the explosion of a coal oil stove.

On the 10th inst. fire started in the building 17 and 19 Kington street, Boston, on the third floor, occupied by the Glasgow Manufacturing Company, makers of lace curtains, as a storeroom, and burned to the fourth floor. Loss on building and contents, $3,000. The building is owned by the Atkins estate.

MOUND CITY MATTERS.

B. E. Bushnell, representing the Stewart Hartshorn Company, was in town on the 2d inst.

Matthews & Kinney are a new house in upholstery jobbing at 908 North Sixth street, and are making a specialty of piece goods. Both gentlemen were formerly in the upholstery department of S. C. Davis & Co.

Mr. Wilson, of the Trorlicht, Duncker & Renard Company's department, returned from the East about the 1st inst., and Mr. O'Halloran, of the Barr Dry Goods Company's department, also arrived home the first week of the month.

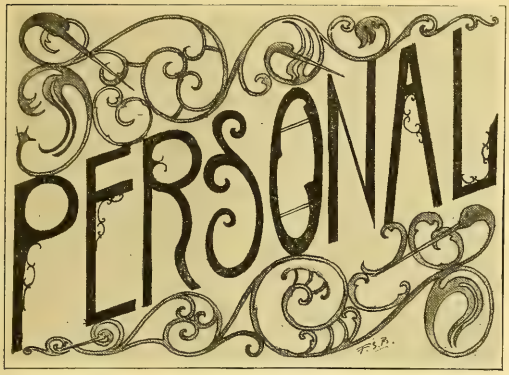
Manager Georgia, of the J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company's upholstery department, says their wholesale business shows a substantial increase over last year and that the retail trade throughout the winter has been quite satisfactory. They have gone into piece goods for furniture coverings more extensively than heretofore, owing to the closing out of S. C. Davis & Co.'s business. This latter firm did a large business in upholstery piece goods, and the Kennard Company are obtaining a goodly share of Davis & Co.'s old trade. Mr. Georgia states that he has had the best lace curtain season in his experience and was 3,000 pairs ahead of last season on March 1. He is also selling more tapestry curtains than in former seasons. Four travelers are engaged in the wholesale department. The private showroom for upholsteries has been newly decorated with ornamented burlap on walls and appropriate artistic appointments throughout and is delighting the St. Louis ladies.

J. M. C.

C. Knapp & Son, of Brookline, Mass., will open a branch of their upholstering business at Newton, in charge of Alfred C. Knapp.

The "Curvelette" is a new kind of curtain pole or cornice recently placed on the market by the Ed. Roos Manufacturing Company, of Chicago. It is the invention of C. W. Smith, of that company, and a patent has been allowed on it. The "Curvelette" is intended for lace or other light weight curtains, and can be put up in arched or bowed shape, or straight across. The best effect is obtained by shirring the curtain on the slat. The Roos Company are working on large orders for the "Curvelette," which has sold wherever shown. Buyers should inquire about it in order to have the latest novelty for hanging lightweight curtains.

Assignee Elmer F. Williams sold by auction on the 26th ult. the plant of the John Hanley Manufacturing Company, at Terre Haute, Ind., to John Hanley for $6,000. Mr. Hanley will continue the manufacture of tents, awnings, &c., and make a specialty of upholstered goods. The orders have accumulated during the time the factory has been shut down and the purchaser says the prospects are good for an enormous year's business. He has employed William I. Bickley, late of John Wanamaker's, at Philadelphia, to look after the furniture department. The Louisville plant, also a part of the John Hanley Company's property, which was appraised at between $6,000 and $7,000, was recently sold, but brought only $1,247. The amount paid by Mr. Hanley is for the local plant alone and does not include the accounts.



GAGE.—F. S. Gage, manager of Arnold, Constable & Co.'s upholstery department, sailed for Europe on the Teutonic February 26.

GRAY.—Niel Gray, of the Oswego Shade Cloth Company, was in St. Louis the 6th inst. The buyers say Mr. Gray is an ideal salesman from their standpoint. He makes periodical calls just to see the trade, and doesn't press for orders on the spot. He tells them to send the orders in, and that they do send them in is a well established fact.

GRAYHURST.—The upholstery fabric made by Harrison, Townsend & Co., Norristown, Pa. will hereafter be sold by John Grayhurst, at 110 Worth street.

HANKINS.—L. T. Hankins, upholstery buyer for J. B. Wells, Son & Co., Utica, N. Y., was in town last week. E. D. Teague, of W. H. Fletcher & Co., had the sublime cheek to challenge him to a game of pool just for exercise. Mr. Teague's exercise consisted in sitting down while Hankins pocketed the balls.

HARTSHORN.—Stewart Hartshorn, president of the Stewart Hartshorn Company, was registered at the Auditorium, Chicago, on the 1st inst.

HASTINGS.—J. S. Hastings, upholstery manager for O'Donnell & Gilbride, Lowell, Mass., came in for large praise at the hands of the Boston press for his decorations of the Lowell City Hall on the occasion of the late Governor Greenhalge's funeral. They were said to be the finest ever seen in the State.

MCVEIGH.—Mr. McVeigh, Cincinnati agent for Rieser & Co., the lace curtain importers, has received many compliments and good orders on his firm's spring novelties.

O'NEILL.—Charles E. O'Neil, formerly with S. J. Tellery & Co., is now with F. P. Bhumgara & Co., 524 Broadway, New York. Mr. O'Neill started out on a Western trip on the 10th inst. with a full line of Oriental wares.

SCHENK.—C. G. B. Schenk, upholstery buyer for Baumann Brothers, Fourteenth street, who retired from business on May 1, is now buyer for S. Baumann & Brother, 235 Sixth avenue.

SELTSAM.—J. G. Seltsam, who was formerly with Sterling, Welch & Co., and for five years past with Hertle Brothers, takes charge of the new drapery department just opened by Crow & Whitmarsh, Cleveland, Ohio.

SMITH.—C. W. Smith, of the Ed. Roos Manufacturing Company, Chicago, returned to Chicago recently from a six weeks' trip through Canada and the Eastern States.

SMITH.—Geo. Drake Smith, the well-known lace curtain man, is slated for appointment as pension clerk in the fire department at a salary of $3,000.

STRAUS.—Nathan Straus, of R. H. Macy & Co., New York, and his family, were passengers on the Werra, which sailed hence on the 29th ult. for Genoa and other Mediterranean ports.

WELLS.—Samuel Wells, the Cincinnati feather wholesaler, sailed on the Fulda February 12 for the Mediterranean. He met his daughter at Cairo, Egypt, on her way back from a tour of the world and will return home with her through Europe, arriving on this side early in May.

WOODMAN.—A. E. Woodman, manager of the drapery department of H. P. Wasson & Co., Indianapolis, has just returned from a trip East. He has one of the best stocks to be found in any house in Indianapolis and has the exclusive sale of a great many articles.

THE GEO. S. STEWART COMPANY'S SPECIALTIES.

ATTENTION is called to the advertisement of the George S. Stewart Company on page 75 of this issue.

This company manufactures large and attractive line of screens, curtain poles, rings and fixtures, tabourets, frets, umbrella racks, foot stools, &c., comprising a great variety of novel and attractive designs which cannot be found elsewhere.

These goods will make a desirable addition to the stock of any carpet dealer, for they are salable and return a good profit to the retailer.

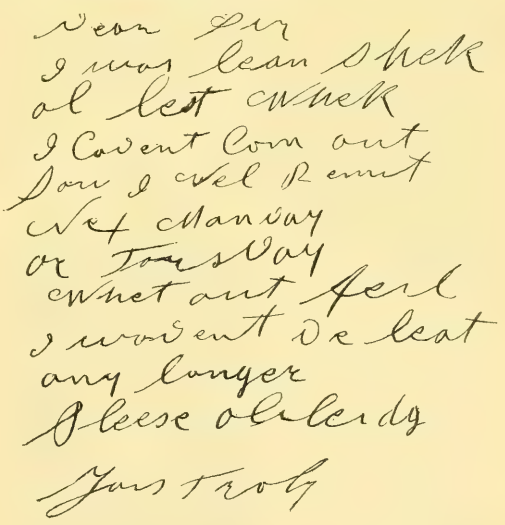
Write to the manufacturers for catalogues, price lists, &c. The company has salesrooms at Chicago, Cleveland and New York. At the New York office, 6 West Fifteenth street, a complete line of its goods is carried.

Schlingerman & Walsh have opened a dry goods store at Winona, Minn.

CUSTOMER—I like that umbrella stand, but I don't think it is worth $3.

SALESMAN—Why, madam, the very first umbrella that is left in it may be worth more than that.—Puck.

Here is a curious letter received by a large upholstery house from a Pennsylvania customer :



Dear Sir

al leat a week
I Cowent Com out
Dow I wel Remit
Wet Manday or Tuesday
whet aut Jeel
I wowent De leat

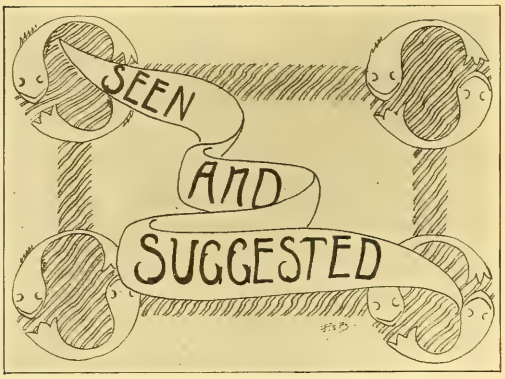
The man who can spell "delay it" "de leat" is the coming lexicographer. The house was able to make it out and wrote the honest old German that they regretted to hear of his illness, and that he need not worry about his indebtedness.



The fame of the optical illusion cabinet invented by Edward P. Ryan, of Haverhill, Mass., and showing the living mystery, is spreading. When the illusion was first shown last summer at F. W. Jacobs & Sons' carpet store in that town it was seen by several traveling salesmen, who reported its drawing qualities to different merchants throughout New England, and inquiries about it have been received almost weekly since.

The "mystery" is the upper half of the body of a live young woman resting on ribbon covered bars. Last week cabinets were shipped to Portland, Biddeford and Waterville, Me., and Concord, N. H., and recently one has been put into B. F. Larrabee & Co.'s, Boston, for two weeks' rental.

The trick is usually done with mirrors, but Mr. Ryan discovered a way to work it without the use of mirrors or reflected lights of any kind, making it all the more mysterious.

The mystery as shown at a dime museum in New York was produced by the aid of a few mirrors and fittings placed as hereafter described. First, two boards are set up in an upright position, and surmounted by a third one, with an intervening space of convenient dimensions. A glance at the smaller sketch will assist the brief explanation. Within the space are fitted, at right angles to each other, two upright mirrors, their front edges being beveled from the back, each being sloped at the top to permit a third mirror, having a large central hole, to rest upon them. The top glass is a thin one, and upon its top face are laid the two longitudinal halves of one brass rod, the reflections of which provide two apparently solid rails for the head to rest upon. A young woman occupies a seat behind the mirrors, and pops her head through the opening. Her neck is surrounded by a very wide lace collar, which conceals the opening referred to.

By using a floor covering having a neat geometrical pattern upon it, the mirrors may be so fixed in relation to each other as to reflect the pattern, and thus convey the idea that between the head and the floor nothing but space exists. Judicious drapery completes the illusion.

Those who go down to the sea in ships to purchase upholstery goods on the other side of the Atlantic have been having hard times of late. Even the veteranest of all the veteran buyers has been compelled to miss a few meals and all hands have been badly shaken up.

A couple of years ago when Robert Sharpe was crossing the ocean to buy goods for the upholstery department of E. S. Jaffray & Co. he found a buyer for a prominent retail house in town suffering the worst agonies of sea sickness. He wanted to see no one or speak to no one. He only wanted to die.

"My dear fellow, I can give you a perfect cure for seasickness."

"What is it, in heaven's name?"

"Stay home and buy your goods of me. It'll only cost you 5 per cent., and you'll never be seasick again."

On one of the Government reservations in Minnesota Miss Sibyl Carter has been teaching Indian women to make pillow lace. Her pupils were of all ages from eighteen to seventy, and some of the most proficient workers are among those who have passed the meridian. These women have learned to make a variety of beautiful lace, even needle lace, English point being made at three of the lace making schools. The women are paid the highest price the profits warrant, and besides their patience have the other fitness of a strong native taste for the work. The work has been introduced so far among the Sioux and the Chippewas in Minnesota and Shoshones in Wyoming. Sustained interest has been developed at every point where it has been introduced. There are schools now at White Earth, Leech Lake, Red Lake, Wild Rice River, Birch Cooley, Mendota and Shoshone. In these schools the lacemaking is taught either by Miss Carter in person or by an assistant.

HE WILL AFTER THIS.

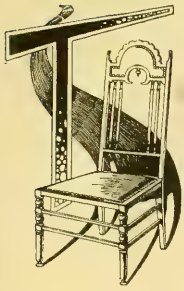
"Oh, Henry," said she, blithely,
As he sat him down to dine,
"I have bought the sweetest cushion
For a dollar ninety-nine.

"It was bargain day at Skilton's,
And they advertised it so
That the store was fairly crowded,
For the prices were so low."

"H'm," he coughed, and looked askewly;
"As sure as I'm alive,
We are selling that same cushion
At a dollar twenty-five."

Not a word then broke the silence,
Till his wife, with many sighs,
Softly said, in accents tearful,
"And why don't you advertise?"—Ex.

A HANDSOME WESTERN STORE.



The Badger Furniture Company's new store at Indianapolis, Ind., was formally opened March 3. This city prides itself on being one of the handsomest inland cities in the country, with its wide streets and handsome stores, and this company prides itself on having the handsomest furniture store in the West, or in fact anywhere. As mentioned in our January issue, it extends from Washington street to Virginia avenue, forming as it does an arcade. These two streets are two of the most prominent in the city; the show windows fronting on each street are 40 feet wide by 12 feet deep, with beveled plate windows on the end which can be viewed for quite a distance. The ground floor is the main room in which is shown a great variety of furniture, both ends of the room being hung with draperies, grilles and portières.

The elevator lands the visitor in the Turkish room, which is beautifully fitted up. On this same floor are five other rooms, all handsomely arranged and beautifully decorated, one of them being devoted to a full line of marquetry goods. The two front rooms facing on Washington street are the pink room, in which is shown a line of gilt and other handsome pieces of furniture, and in the other the walls are hung with green Oriental striped fabric, and an antique bedroom suite covered with white antique laces is shown. In the halls of this floor the company carries its upholstered leather furniture. In the end of one of the halls I noticed a beautiful piece of painted tapestry representing "The Hunter's Dream." On the third floor a line of bedroom suites, chiffoniers, spring beds, &c., is displayed. The company also does its upholstering on this floor. In the basement is carried the line of folding desks, chairs, extension tables, &c., and the shipping room is also there. The store was beautifully decked with palms on the opening day and a band of music was much in evidence all day long.

There is an opening for a good window shade traveler who can cover the Western and Pacific Coast territory and who is acquainted with the trade in those sections. See our want columns.

Something of an idea of what sort of a town Johannesburg is can be gained from the fact that the loss by the destruction of Store Brothers' drapery establishment on February 23 was $375,000.

George Thatcher, the minstrel, says that at a dry goods store where he was employed as a "firer" he discharged one of the clerks who sold a lady a yard of cheese cloth which did not prove good to eat, as represented.

An example of Delft blue run mad is exhibited in a room devoted especially and almost exclusively to that color. The spaces between the rafters that cross the ceiling are filled with tiles of that color, as are also several panels upon the walls. A brown wainscoting separates the panels from the floor, but the blue appears again in the carpet and also extends to the table covering and furniture. The lady seated at the table is arrayed in Delft blue, as is also the waiting maid, who wears a Delft blue gown. The room is in the colonial style of architecture.

CHICAGO'S SHADE FACTORY.

The pioneer and to-day, as it has been for many years, the only hand made window shade cloth factory in Chicago is that of the C. Schotte Company, incorporated, located at 14 to 20 North Canal street. Mr. Schotte, the founder, died a few years ago, and the business was then merged into a corporation, with his estate retaining his interest. August Abele is the secretary, treasurer and general manager, and Mr. Schotte, Jr., takes an active part in the business.

The C. Schotte Company manufacture solely hand made shade cloths and mounted shades. Their brands are Garden City opaques, made in all widths up to 120 inches, and Columbia transparent and opaque cambrics, made in widths up to 72 inches. They also manufacture mounted shades in their opaques and cambrics and in Opacate or water color shading.

It is obvious that they enjoy special advantages in location for catering to the larger part of the country, and as their prices are as low as those of any manufacturer in the country it will interest discerning buyers to communicate with them, and also welcome their traveling men.

A NEW WOOD POLE FACTORY.

Heuer & Johnston have recently commenced the manufacture of wood curtain poles and trimmings at 112 to 122 Weed street, Chicago. They are experienced men in the wood turning business, and have already made valuable connections in the trade through the great merit of their work. They manufacture wood poles in imitation mahogany, ebony, walnut, ash, cherry and printed ash and oak in 1 inch by 5 feet, 1x12, 1 3/8x5 and 1 3/8x8, 10 and 12.

In natural woods they have oak, Georgia pine, walnut, solid mahogany, birch and cherry, in all sizes, from 1 inch to 1 7/8 inches in diameter.

They are prepared to quote prices that will secure orders, and will guarantee the quality equal to any in the market. They seek jobbing and large trade especially, and write contracts for large quantities. Besides poles they make wood ends, rings and brackets, and also towel rings. They now show seven different styles in ends, and are constantly adding new patterns. They will send samples and prices of wood poles and trimmings on application, an offer that should be accepted by all buyers who want to keep well posted.

The schedules in the assignment of Robert Adams, who did business as R. & H. Adams, manufacturer of cotton goods, mosquito netting, crinoline and linings, with offices at No. 16 Greene street, were filed on the 28th ult. in the Supreme Court. They show liabilities, $452,527; nominal assets, $380,022; actual assets, $72,394. He has mills in Paterson, N. J.; Shelton, Conn., and North Scituate, R. I. His mills in Paterson are known as the Harmony, Industry and Essex mills.

SPECKER & CO.'S AFFAIRS.

The report of A. A. Kramer, assignee of John B. Specker & Co., has been filed, and it shows that the total receipts were $494,864.45. The total payments were $32,780.23, leaving a balance of cash on hand of $462,084.22. The uncollected claims, exclusive of the profit and loss account and real estate, amount to $17,255.97. There have been efforts to sell the real estate at private sale, but they have been unsuccessful, and now efforts will be made to sell at public sale. A large amount of the uncollected accounts are probably uncollectible. The liabilities of Specker were about $660,000 in his business, exclusive of the liability that may accrue because of the Commercial Bank failure. There will be a handsome dividend declared for the creditors when all the claims are proved.

THE NEW YORK FURNITURE EXCHANGE.

The constant addition of fancy furniture and odd pieces to the upholstery departments of leading houses makes the opening of the new Furniture Exchange on March 2 and 3 a matter of interest to our readers. The new permanent exhibition starts out with every augury of success. Forty well-known firms are already represented and applications are coming in for additional space. The building, which is known as the Industrial Palace, an illustration of which is presented below, is conveniently located at the corner of Lexington avenue and Forty-third street, in immediate proximity to the Grand Central Depot. The number of dealers who registered for the first week exceeded ninety.

INDIAN LACE MAKING.

An exhibition of lace made by American Indians was given recently at the house of a lady in New York and the fineness of the work was a surprise to those who saw for the first time examples of this new industry among the Indians. Lace making by Indians is the result of the efforts of one of the missionaries of the Protestant Episcopal Church, who four years ago gave the first lesson in lace making to an Indian woman. Since that time the industry has grown, and now nine teachers are employed. The lace which Indians make has already begun to sell on its own merits, and dealers' orders much exceed the supply.

A lace bedspread made for Mrs. Pierpont Morgan employed twenty women during three months.

The necessity of keeping the lace clean has led to a great change in the manner in which the Indian women keep their own huts. Formerly when the children left the schools and went home they returned to a life which made it seem almost a shame to have taught them anything about civilization, so great was the contrast. Now when they go home from school they find their mothers at work in a hut which shows the effect of efforts to keep the lace clean. A number of boys have tried to learn the work and succeeded very well with the simpler patterns. During the winter months a number of the men took it up, and also learned how to make the easy patterns. But it was only intended to keep them from complete idleness when there was no work to be had on the farms.

C. B. Ratterman & Brother are finely located in their new building at 432 Race street, Cincinnati, between Fourth and Fifth streets. They have seven floors and basement. The street floor contains the upholstery yard goods and offices; the second floor is the curtain room; third floor the Oriental rug room; fourth floor the carpet showroom, the goods being carried by sample exclusively; fifth floor the contract and special order room with designing room in rear, and the sixth and seventh floors are for stock and drapery workrooms. The establishment is a model one in every way and the Messrs. Ratterman deserve great success.

Rosenbaum's patent folding sham pillow is winning favor with the upholstery trade. Illustrations will be found in the advertisement on page 60. It has the exact shape of a pillow when in use and takes up but little space when folded. The patent has just been granted at Washington, as will be seen by reference to our Patent Office reports elsewhere.

Pantasote, the best known substitute for leather, is now admitted to be an invaluable material for upholstering purposes. It is waterproof, durable, not affected by moisture, age or sunlight, and will not smell, crack, peel or become sticky. Write to Clarence Whitman & Co., New York, for particulars. See their advertisement on page 87 of this issue.

The three ply grille work made by Albert Gall, Jr., of Indianapolis, Ind., is composed of three solid pieces and is not veneered. The great strength and durability of Mr. Gall's grilles are thoroughly appreciated by those who carry the goods, and we advise all upholstery managers who want to build up a trade in grilles to write to Albert Gall, Jr.

Deputy Sheriff Lipsky has closed up the store of Sachs Brothers, dealers in curtains, rugs and peddlers' supplies, at No. 125 East Broadway, New York, on a claim for $523 in favor of Rosie Goldman. They have been in business several years, and claimed an investment of $5,500.

BALTIMORE, MARCH 12.

M. Lehmayer, acting for Albert A. Brager, dry goods and upholstery, has concluded negotiations whereby Mr. Brager will acquire three pieces of property fronting on Saratoga street and in the rear of the stores now occupied by him. Mr. Brager will erect a large warehouse on the newly acquired ground, and will connect the same with his present quarters. He expects to commence building in the next thirty days, and to have the improvement finished in October. When completed it will be one of the largest department stores in the city.

William Bernard and J. M. Bernard, Fredericksburg, Va., will erect a factory for making excelsior.

F. Bernei, of Bernei Brothers, dry goods and upholstery, was elected president of the Mercantile Club at the annual meeting the 2d inst.

John Waidner, aged forty-six years, salesman with C. H. Lears & Co., mattresses and upholstery, died suddenly of apoplexy in his firm's place of business on West Baltimore street the 5th inst.

I. G. Johnson & Co., furniture and upholstery, No. 318 East Broad street, Richmond, Va., made an assignment for the benefit of creditors the 6th inst. to A. E. Chalmers, trustee. The liabilities are estimated at about $2,000.

The store of E. M. Bass & Co., dry goods and upholstery, Atlanta, Ga., was damaged by fire the 28th ult. Loss covered by insurance. J. L. Bass, of this firm, is now on a visit to the Northern cities for the purpose of purchasing an entire stock of new goods.

Benjamin F. Grove, aged seventy-three, died the 8th inst. He was a native of Virginia. Early in life he went to New York and was employed by A. T. Stewart & Co. After the war he came to Baltimore, and for nearly twenty years was in the employ of Hamilton, Easter & Co. A widow and three children survive him.

The twelfth annual banquet of the Old Town Merchants and Manufacturers' Association was held at the Carrollton Hotel the 4th inst., and toasts were responded to by Governor Lowndes, Mayor Hooper and ex-Mayor Latrobe. Among those present were Fred. Walpert, of Fred. Walpert & Co., manufacturers of curled hair; R. Laupheimer, of Laupheimer Brothers, furniture and upholstery, and W. H. B. Fusselbaugh, window shades and paper hangings.

Geo. W. Hanley, San Francisco, has closed out his drapery business.

FEATHERS THAT ARE CLEAN.

Some feathers are clean and others are cleaner, but for the cleanest feathers send to the Sanitary Feather Company, 249 and 251 South Canal street, Chicago. This company quotes its latest price list on page 87, and dealers who are posted will recognize the prices as being right. A slight advance has been made on some grades, owing to the great scarcity of feathers, and the prices quoted will doubtless have to be advanced again very shortly, as the present stock cannot be replaced at the same prices. Orders for 50 or 100 pound bags should be sent to the Sanitary Company to test the merits of their goods, and we can assure buyers that the company will substantiate their statements as to the purity, quality and value of their feathers.

ORIENTAL ART AT F. P. BHUMGARA & CO.'S.

There is an air of luxury and beauty about the establishment of F. P. Bhumgara & Co., at 524 Broadway, that cannot fail to strike instantly the visitor, who will be equally surprised at the prices, which are so low as to bring many of these artistic and sumptuous ornaments within the limits of a moderate purse. The collection covers the entire range of East India productions for decorative purposes. The business of this house has grown so rapidly that it has been compelled to use the entire first floor as showrooms. The variety of exquisite wares of all kinds is surpassed nowhere else in the city, and dealers should keep constantly by them to show customers the illustrated catalogue which will be sent on application. See the advertisement on page 89. The resident partner, Mr. S. Maneck, is always on hand to give callers a cordial welcome and the benefit of his very great knowledge of Oriental fabrics and furniture.

The Howland Dry Goods Company succeeds the Howland-Stark Company, Bridgeport, Conn.

Warner & King, manufacturers of bedding, brass and iron bedsteads, &c., New York, have removed from 404 to 399 Sixth avenue.

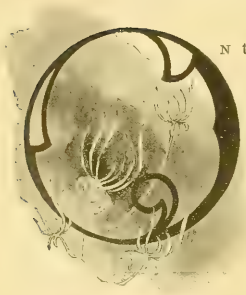
An explosion of benzine in the window shade factory of Master, Eldridge & McHugh, Philadelphia, on the 22d ult. caused damage to the extent of $1,000.

Bernard Uhlmann & Co., manufacturers of embroideries, 7 York street, New York, were burned out on the morning of March 6. The building belonged to the estate of J. W. Dimick.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Keystone Shade Roller Company, Saginaw, Mich., will be held in the office of that company on the 16th inst. for the purpose of reducing the capital stock and number of shares of the corporation to the sum of $54,000, or to the number of 5,400 shares, and to the calling in and cancelling of 5,600 shares recently issued.

One of the special notices in this issue of The Review will prove of much interest to John Kraser, who was formerly an upholsterer at Fourth avenue and Twenty-ninth street, New York, if it should happen to meet his eye. Fred Ascher, of 309 Broadway (Room 1,005), has something to impart to him that will be to his advantage, and he is anxious to hear as to his whereabouts.

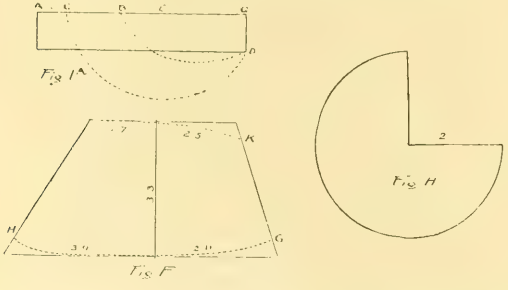
SOME NOVEL DRAPERIES.



On the next page will be found some suggestions by a prominent English designer for window and portière decorations of a character somewhat off the beaten track. We also give the working drawings, which will render the method of making up clear.

The first example, which might be described as the "Fan" drapery, should be carried out as follows: Set off the size of grille, as Figure 1A, letting the distance from A to B be 2 feet (the size of fan), and from B to C 1 foot 3 inches. Apply the drapery rule as indicated by dotted lines, allowing it to festoon under the grille 18 inches. Find the point E, equidistant from C to G, and on swag F set off this distance on each side of the perpendicular, as given. At points H, G and K round off slightly, and the swag will be complete. The fan should be made from a circular piece of material, such as is indicated in Fig. H. Its fullness can easily be added to or lessened by taking more or less of the circle. The tail is an ordinary one, with bonnet to give the idea of gathering at the point of contact of swag and tail. To connect the various parts, draw the swag on the left into a space of 1 foot 3 inches, on the right to a point, and having pleated the fan onto a quadrant of a circle of stiff lining, connect the two at the top, and then add the tail and bonnet. The trimming may be put on when the drapery is being fixed to the window. The embroidered or brocaded curtain on the left represents a style to be found in some French draperies, and affords an opportunity for the display of skillful needlework, which, so applied, would help to raise the whole scheme from the commonplace.

Design No. 2 is simply a pair of curtains of different sizes, with an arrangement of drapery fringe, festoons of cords and tassels and a shaped valance showing from underneath. The left-hand curtain must be full for crossing and draping, which may be affected by looping up a full curtain by sewing rings to an opaque line behind, or by cutting the upper part in the form of a swag and drawing to size, then joining to the lower or tail part of the curtain.



The third suggestion shows a combination of festooned drapery and pelmet. The pelmet should be made up to the width of the window, the bottom line divided into five arcs of a circle, with perpendicular cords and fringed at the bottom. This must be cut so low as not to show at the top. Take the width as 5 feet 6 inches, dividing it into two festoons, each 2 feet 9 inches in width, with a drop of 22 inches. The swag will be as Fig. 3A, and the tail as Fig. 3B. The circular part at the top of the pipes should be grounded with buckram, to allow the loops to stand out when arranged behind.

The next design is an adaptation of the stone drapery, and the formation is as follows: Take the window as being 6 feet wide, the right-hand festoon 2 feet 6 inches and the left hand 3 feet 6 inches in width, with a finished drop of 2 feet. For the two festoons and two tails—ignoring for a moment the tail at the left-hand corner—there will be required a piece of material 10 feet 6 inches long, by from 3 feet to 4 feet wide, according to fullness desired. Let Fig. 4A be the flat drapery. When applying the drapery rule allow the top line of swags to festoon slightly. On Fig. 4A begin by finding the point A, 4 feet from the right-hand top corner. As the pipe is to have a finished width of 6 inches, set off D and E 9 inches to each side of A; that is to say, three times the width of the pipe when finished. Let from B to C be 18 inches, the finished depth of the pipe. Now find point F, 2 feet 8 inches from A, the distance between these points being the top line of swag, and let J K, on each side of F, equal D E. From A to G should measure 3 feet 8 inches, point H being extended 12 inches outward. In like manner L should be extended 6 inches outward from K. Draw lines H G and K L, cutting through and leaving half an inch turning. Draw dotted lines at the top of pipes. Having raised the bottom line slightly at H and sewn the embroidery along the lower edge, the drapery will be ready for drawing up. Run a linen thread through dotted lines, drawing tightly, and the drapery will at once fall into shape, with festoon, pipe and bonnet. Draw the line G H to a point, fix the tail given at Fig. 4B, placing a rosette in front of a shape to correspond with the other two. The addition of cords and tassels and the fringed and embroidered panels will complete a simple but most effective design.

An entirely novel method of throwing a drapery over a pole is set forth in the next study. It will be observed that the idea is to make it appear as if a piece of material were thrown over with the corner hanging down in the centre and caught up under the bonnet, exposing the back or lining of the drapery, which must of course be embellished with an appropriate design. This might be carried out with one piece of material, but it would hang more gracefully if cut as two swags, the centrepiece being joined on. Take a 5 foot 6 inch pole, raise the centre point 9 inches and apply the drapery rule, allowing it to festoon 18 inches under the pole. From the end of the pole to the inside line of the drapery the distance should be 14 inches. The line of gathering between the two swags behind the embroidered centre should drop 10 inches. The drapery rule should festoon as Fig. 5A, and the swag would be as Fig. 5B. The shape of the central piece would be as Fig. 5C, the shaped fringe showing from behind. In fixing this drapery, line A B should be plaited over the pole into the space 1 foot 2 inches, line C D drawn into 10 inches and joined to the corresponding line of the other swag. The centre piece should be cut and fixed in such a way as to form a continuous line, the bonnet being added afterward. The tails or curtains should be drawn into the space 1 foot 2 inches and fastened to that part of the swag going over the pole. The bottom of the left hand one should be formed as Fig. 3B, and the other one cut square to reach the floor. The small band holding in the curtain might be festooned behind with a hook and eye, which would permit of its being easily adjusted or removed.

No. 6 of the selection—which might be styled the "Palm" drapery—would make a charming scheme if carefully carried out. Let the trellis fringe be 9 inches deep in the centre, graduating to 2 inches at the ends. On a 5 foot 6 inch window the centre pipe should be about 2 inches wide at the bottom, tapering to 18 inches at the top with a drop of 20 inches in the centre. This should be lined with some stiff material—say very strong canvas—or the curtains would pull it out of shape. The construction of this may easily be followed from the design. There should be a slight hollowing of the bottom line, with a return on each side of 3 or 4 inches. The curtain or drapery, with tail for each side, should be made in two parts, have double fullness in width and be half more in depth than it is intended to finish. The upper part of the curtain would take the form of Fig. 5E, the line A B being the top to be drawn in to fit the space between the pipe and the wall. The part B C, which joins to the pipe, must be drawn to suit. The bottom line C D must be fringed, while A D is the back of the curtain, and should be cut to where it is joined by the tail. The tail may be connected under the fringe, the point of contact being covered by a piece of tape or lining. The upper swag should be constructed as those already described and fixed with tacks over the cornice. The background of this design is a festooned blind, and it may be advisable to remind those who have possibly forgotten, that the average amount of fullness here is about double to the length, or a third more than the finished size to width.

Schroth & Potter, the Columbus, Ohio, shade wholesalers, have increased their capacity for manufacturing mounted shades 250 dozen per day by the addition of a new cutting room and two new Singer machines. They will also be able to fill special orders more promptly. They carry a heavy stock of wide opaques and Hollenas, and say they are the largest distributers of Hollenas in the country. The different kinds of shades are put up in differently colored paper.

David C. Beggs & Co., of Columbus, Ohio, have been making special sales in lace curtains, and have had more than the usual winter trade in their upholstery and drapery department.

ST. PAUL'S WINDOW SHADE FACTORY.

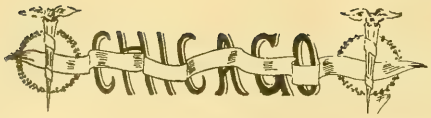
An extensively and modernly equipped window shade factory is operated by the Northern Shade Cloth Company at St. Paul, Minn.

Their factory is 220 feet long by 40 feet wide, three stories, and is filled with frames for making hand made oil opaque shading from 30 to 126 inches wide. They also make cambric shading and mounted shades in oil opaques, cambrics, water colors, glazed hollands, felts, &c. They are obviously well located to cater to the trade from the Mississippi to the Pacific Coast, and can also interest buyers east of that line. Send to them for quotations and sample books.

The annual meeting of the Wyoming Valley Lace Mills was held recently at Wilkesbarre, Pa. The former directors were re-elected and a dividend of 6 per cent. was declared.

David Straus, of Broad street, Newark, N. J., will be compelled to move by Hahne & Co.'s extension. He will occupy a much larger place at the corner of Broad and West Park, where Mr. Fitzgerald, his upholstery manager, will have greatly improved facilities.

We have received a circular stating that the St. Louis National Bank has withdrawn the action it instituted against Daniel B. Ely, and admits that the grounds on which an attachment was obtained are not true, the bank having been erroneously informed on the matter in question.



The Chicago Loop and Portière Company is now known as the M. Becker Fringe Works.

Marshall Field & Co.'s upholstery department shows rather astonishing activity for this season of the year.

Mr. Herr is now in charge of Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co.'s retail upholstery department. He came recently from Peoria.

H. C. Heineman will soon remove to much larger quarters in the new block on Halsted street, near Blue Island avenue.

C. B. Young & Co. have reopened a Chicago office, having located in the same office with J. A. Brittain & Co., in the American Express Building, 76 and 78 Monroe street. Mr. Allen is in charge.

The C. W. Jackson Fringe Company, Chicago, has confessed judgment for $3,000. C. W. Jackson, president of the company, was formerly in business at New York and came to Chicago fourteen years ago.

The salesmen of the Phœnix Trimming Company are Charles Hulsman, West, Southwest and Northwest; Thos. Mitchell, east of Chicago; Louis Hoffmeister, Cincinnati; W. J. Nixon, Chicago and local trade.

A new concern in the manufacture of wood screens and easels is Heuer & Johnston, 112 to 122 Weed street. They say they can quote prices that will secure orders, which ought to be a sufficient inducement to call out inquiries from buyers.

J. L. McAfee, for eight years designer of draperies for the Chicago Carpet Company, is now with the Tobey Furniture Company. Geo. Treyser and Fred Seaman have also left the upholstery department of the Chicago Carpet Company. Mr. Treyser has gone to Peoria.

Geo. Rehm, representing J. A. Brittain & Co., in the American Express Building on Monroe street, returned from a three weeks' sojourn in New York the 29th ult. He has no complaints to make about his spring orders on lace curtains from Chicago and his outside territory.

C. T. Burbridge, Chicago and Western salesman for Arnold, Constable & Co.'s upholstery department, keeps after the trade actively and is apparently obtaining a good portion of the spring business. He has been away from his office in the Champlain Building recently on an outside trip.

Chas. Emmerich & Co.'s new store on Fifth avenue, is unquestionably the finest fitted feather, pillow and cushion salesroom in the country. The firm show only samples in their handsome new salesroom, and do all manufacturing and stock carrying at the new factory, Randolph and Union streets.

A. M. Langwill, who represents Stead & Miller at their Chicago salesrooms in the Champlain Building, gives very good reports of his trade this season in their general line of upholstery piece goods, draperies and table covers. He says the piece goods business was all right up to the time of the opening of the upholsterers' strike, but that the stoppage of the factories has affected the trade during the past few weeks. Mr. Langwill covers the general Western territory as well as the Chicago trade.

Chas. H. Prescott, manager of the Jay C. Wemple Company's Chicago store, presides over a fully equipped window shade establishment in itself. He has not only stock of all the Wemple Company's lines, but operates also a mounting and special order factory in the rear of the store. The floor occupied is 50x180 feet, and even this large space is overcrowded.

The Minetto Shade Cloth Company have everything required by the window shade trade at their store, 285 Madison street. Besides the ground floor they have a factory and stock room on the second floor, 100x125 feet. All orders can be filled promptly for any of the Minetto Company's goods. J. L. Gordon is in charge, and Charles D. Cook, of the selling force, makes his headquarters here.

Special Agent Charles Crain, of the Treasury Department, received yesterday a consignment of Nottingham laces from the special agent at New York for the purpose of fixing their valuation. The laces are being examined by experts in the houses of leading Chicago importers. This is considered a tribute to the Chicago trade, as ordinarily all valuations on laces are made at New York.

Rosenthal & Brownlie, the Chicago selling agents, report that they have sold more tapestry curtains than chenilles this season and have had a good run on Hyndman & Moore's tapestries. Trade was very fair up to February 1 with them, since which it is somewhat lagging. Mr. Brownlie went out on the road again last week, and S. C. Hodgman, of the force, returned recently from an extended trip. Fred Grutter, whose father was formerly in the trade in Lincoln, Neb., is a new office man with them. They are now showing the latest novelties of the Hensel Silk Manufacturing Company in insertions, borders and laces. Their salesroom is in the Lees Building, 147 Fifth avenue.

The Sanitary Feather Company are fitting up the building 249 and 251 South Canal street with the latest improved machinery for cleaning feathers and manufacturing feather pillows and down cushions. These new quarters, to which they will remove in May, are 47 feet front by 140 feet deep, three stories and basement, and will double their present producing capacity and give them three times the present floor space. P. M. Heron and John F. Turner, of the company, are long experienced feather merchants, and know all the requirements of the business. Mr. Heron is now on the road visiting the trade.

F. G. King, representing Barnes & Beyer, and J. A. Meek, with the Brussels Tapestry Company, have adjoining showrooms in the Palmer House, and are getting a good share of the curtain and upholstery trade from both city and out of town buyers. The lines are two of the most important in the trade, and Mr. King and Mr. Meek see to it that no visiting buyers get away from them. This maintaining of regular offices in the Palmer House seems to be a happy idea. Mr. King says he is taking orders on chenilles every day, but the bites are too small to brag about. If the trade would only take full course dinners instead of sandwich lunches on the goods he would be contented.

J. M. C.

Hubbard & Pinkham are about to open a dry goods store at Hornellsville, N. Y. Mr. Pinkham, of the new firm, was formerly a general salesman with Lee, Tweedy & Co., New York.

WALL PAPER TALK AND TATTLE.

Judge Gaynor has made permanent the temporary injunction secured by Geo. Russell, president of the Consolidated Wall Paper Company, in his suit against Mrs. I. M. Grenfel, W. B. Whiting and H. E. Ashmore to restrain foreclosure of mortgage on the machinery. The receivership of Chris. Abele is also made permanent, and the plant is in operation again.

..A fire which started in the building 47 and 49 Randolph street, Chicago, on the 10th inst. did damage to the extent of $40,000, principally to the stock of the Lartz Wall Paper Company. The stock was insured for $63,500.

..G. R. Parsons has started in the wall paper business at Unionville, Conn.

..Joshua Sweet has bought the business of G. B. Wood, West Gardner, Mass.

..Beggs & Carnright are a new firm in the wall paper trade at Newburgh, N. Y.

..W. A. Matthews, Illiopolis, Ill., has sold his stock of wall paper to W. G. McNier.

..F. R. Stone & Co. have bought the wall paper stock of Jay Bennett, Dolgeville, N. Y.

..Graham & Wilson have bought the wall paper stock of John Troup at Mishawaka, Ind.

..Fire in the store of A. H. Lohiker, St. Paul, Minn., on the 25th ult. caused a loss of $1,000.

..Pape, Bremer & Co. have started in the wall paper and shade business at Fort Wayne, Ind.

..The stock of J. O. McFadden, Boston, was damaged by fire to the extent of $4,000 on the 4th inst.

..W. T. Pitts, Westfield, Mass., has added a wall paper department by buying the stock of W. G. Peglar.

..The Weeks Furniture Company, Woonsocket, R. I., have opened another store, which is devoted exclusively to wall paper.

..Richard E. Thibaut will soon take possession of the store 56 East Thirteenth street. The building is 50x100 feet, four stories and basement.

..Spiteinik & Goldstein have bought out Paul Gantert & Son, 482 Third avenue, New York, and will conduct this store, as well as their other one at 2357 Third avenue.

..W. D. B. Stewart, Geo. F. Motter & Sons, John Allen and John McCoy have organized the York (Pa.) Clay Company, for the purpose of furnishing the clay used in the manufacture of wall paper.

H. H. Price, of New Castle, Del., has removed his upholstery department to the store formerly occupied by Max Gross.

M. L. Doyle, who dealt in dry goods and lace curtains on Grand street for many years and failed about two years ago, settling at 25 cents on the dollar, has recently surprised his former creditors, who had given a release in full, by paying to them the 75 per cent. of his indebtedness which they had not received. Mr. Doyle performed this rare and admirable action at no small cost to himself, for he paid out in this manner over $40,000.

John H. Pray, Sons & Co.,

Commission and Wholesale Carpetings,

. . . . . Boston.

Three Vital Points . . .

Are necessary to insure a perfect roller such as . . . .

The Improved Hartshorn Wood Roller.

FIRST—No Tacks Are to Be Used.

The patent shade holders furnished free with Improved Hartshorn Wood Rollers eliminate the use of tacks in the most satisfactory manner possible.

SECOND—Provision for Mounting Shade Cloth Absolutely True.

The groove in this roller is the only place where the shade can be fastened to the roller. As the groove is as straight as machinery can make it, the cloth must be fastened in a straight line.

THIRD—Prevention Against Tearing Cloth from Rolls.

Owing to the scientific construction of the new roller, when the shade cloth is fastened upon the roller in the groove with our shade holders, the resistance which it offers is so strong that when shade and roller are hung it is almost impossible to tear the cloth off.

This Roller received specific indorsement in our award of a Gold Medal and Special Diploma of Honor by the Judges of the Atlanta Exposition.

Our new Descriptive Catalogue for 1896 is now ready. Free on application.

THE NEWEST STYLES

. . IN . .

ARE SHOWN BY

A. NAUMANN,

AT HIS NEW SALESROOM:

Spring and Mercer Streets,

NEW YORK.

One eminent and popular house that has tried all makes announces them to be

"The Best Window Hollands Made."

Another equally large Importer of great experience states:

"The goods have always been and are now fast colors."

Another firm in the very front rank of the business describes them as

"Unequalled in quality, unshrinkable and of finest dyes."

While another firm of Importers, probably one of the largest shade goods houses in the world, characterizes them in these terms:

"JOHN KING & SON'S Famous Scotch Hollands."

JOHN KING & SON'S

ESTABLISHED IN THE YEAR 1775

Celebrated

Scotch Window HOLLANDS

ILLUSTRATING the high consideration these popular goods hold in the estimation of the most experienced importers of shade goods in the country, the attention of the trade is invited to the above opinions, published in the columns of this and other journals, over the signatures of the respective firms.

Enterprising but unscrupulous parties unable to reach the exalted standard of these celebrated goods, pay them the flattery of imitating the wrappings. It is the Goods, not the wrappings, the trade is after. See that Bands, Tickets and Tabs of every piece are marked

Wholesaled from every Shade Goods Importer and Leading Carpet and Upholstery Importer in the Country.

Price, $9.50 per dozen pairs; f. o. b., New York. No extra charge for packing. Terms, 2 per cent. off 10 days

ROSENBAUM'S

Patent Folding Sham Pillow.

Superior to all other devices in use. Ornamental, practical, light, durable and not bulky. It has the exact shape of a pillow when in use, takes up but little space when folded, and is not an encumbrance to a department, as has been the excelsior or old style box pillow. Can easily be covered with colored materials, or by sewing a lining onto the lace sham and fastening same to the braid on frame, makes a handsome Dress Pillow, and shows the lace work off to excellent advantage.

THE LARGEST LACE CURTAIN HOUSE IN THE WORLD.

All we ask is a call—the prices and styles will do the rest. We have about 300 patterns in Brussels, from the lowest to the highest. Likewise over 750 designs in Irish Points, in white and ecru. In Fancy Fish or Scotch Nets we have 125 styles—stripes, figures, &c., and they begin at 7½c. a yard. Bed Sets Start at 75c. and end at $150. They are in Nottinghams, Antiques, Irish Points, Renaissance, &c. But what's the use of specifying—everybody knows that we have Everything Known to the Lace Curtain Trade. If you don't believe it try us.

Pantasote Upholstery.

PANTASOTE

PANTASOTE IS THOROUGHLY WATERPROOF.
ANYONE WOULD TAKE IT FOR LEATHER. 'TIS JUST AS DURABLE.
NO RUBBER IN IT. WILL STAND ANY CLIMATE.
TEST IT. IT WILL NOT SMELL, CRACK, PEEL, OR GET STICKY.
AGE DOES NOT AFFECT IT IN THE LEAST AS IT DOES RUBBER.
SUN WILL NOT FADE IT, NOR WILL DAMPNESS ACT ON IT.
OTHER MATERIALS ABSORB MOISTURE AND WILL SHRINK OR LOSE SHAPE.
THIS DOES NOT. LONG SERVICE ON THE BEST RAILROADS PROVES IT.
EVERY ONE ADMITS IT IS THE BEST SUBSTITUTE FOR LEATHER EVER KNOWN.

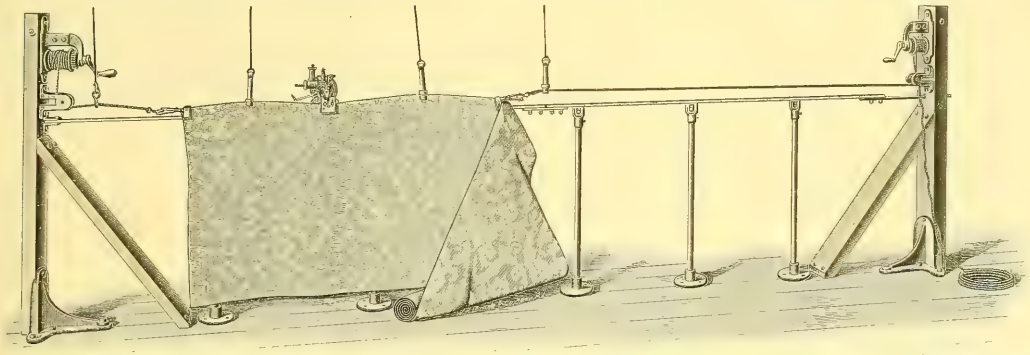
The Taft Universal Carpet Sewing Machine.



The first and only all round Carpet Sewing Machine ever invented. Sews carpets for less than ½c. per yard. A mechanical device of the highest type; complete in every detail. Requires the least possible space. Run by Hand or Power, electric motor if preferred.

TESTED TO SEW AT RATE OF 4 YARDS PER MINUTE. PUT UP TANDEM TO SEW 8 YARDS PER MINUTE OR 480 YARDS PER HOUR CARPET SEAM,

This machine will sew Ingrain Carpets over-stitch, practically a perfect imitation of hand sewn work. Being more even and stronger, will stand any amount of strain. Can be laid either side up. Will not rip. Will give perfect satisfaction. One inexperienced girl can, with this machine, sew more yards of Ingrain Carpet in one day than eight experienced hand sewers, and 20 per cent. better. With one of these machines you can deliver a carpet within one hour from time of receiving order for same. It is a well-known fact that 70 per cent. of the carpets made are Ingrain and no machine ever made to sew them, while dealers buy a machine to sew Tapestries, Brussels, &c., doing only 30 per cent. of their work. If 30 per cent. is worth one machine, 70 per cent. must be worth two, and a Taft machine which does 100 per cent. three. You must have the Ingrain Sewer to be up to date.

This machine is not confined to Ingrain work; but is equally good on all other carpets—Tapestries, Brussels, Wiltons and Straw Matting, &c. The machine can be changed in five seconds from over-stitch to straight stitch, and vice versa.

Will, without any change, overcast all raw edges, sew together two raw edges and overcast them. In fact, does all the work in its different branches with one operator, and is so arranged that a girl weighing one hundred pounds can handle any carpet with ease, and sew several hundred yards per day. The machine is simple, durable, light running and a rapid sewer. No carpet house can afford to be without one. Write for samples, terms, information and trial conditions to

CROMPTON NEW INGRAIN CARPET LOOMS.

THE attention of manufacturers of Ingrain Carpets is called to the consideration of a new Carpet Loom just put on the market. It carries four (4) shuttle boxes at each end of the lathe; any one of the series at each end can be brought into line with the shuttle race at any pick, under the dictation of the Jacquard cards. The Jacquard is of the most approved construction and moves the warps kindly. The let off and take up motions bring out perfectly matched goods. On two ply work it makes sixty (60) yards per day. The apparatus for moving the boxes cannot be surpassed for its simplicity and efficiency. This Loom has no equal in speed and simplicity from four (4) to seven (7) colors.

CROMPTON ART SQUARE LOOM, for 3, 3½ and 4 yard goods, produces the best results and has no rival.

CROMPTON'S UPHOLSTERY LOOM, with Improved "1886" Box Motion, is capable of high speed and nice adjustment for its special line of goods.

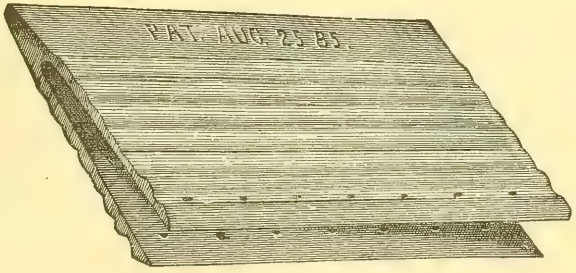
No. 2 Double Width and No. 2 for
CARPETS, RUGS, OIL CLOTHS, Etc.

Sample and Price List forwarded on application.

Frames for holding the Fabric and Thread and Needles, specially prepared, for sale.



PATENTED AUGUST 25, 1885.

This Patent Rubber Binding holds the ends of Matting, Carpets, etc., down in place, does not curl up like other flexible bindings, is not affected by dampness, will not break when shaken and thrown about, and is very durable and easily adjusted.

The Many Advantages of this Patent Rubber Binding give it the preference over any other heretofore used on Matting and Carpet runners for Hotels, Stores, Steamboats, Offices, Elevators, Street Cars, Railroad Cars, etc., etc.

It is Made in ¾, ⅞, 1, 1¼, 1½, 1¾ and 2 lengths and is perforated to facilitate the sewing. The most inexperienced person can sew it on perfectly.

This PATENT RUBBER BINDING can be obtained from all the Leading Carpet and Upholstery Dealers.

LOWELL CARPETS have been justly celebrated for more than half a century. For the guidance of buyers the word "Lowell" is woven in white capital letters in the back of our Wiltons and Brussels at each repeat of the pattern. The fabrics are of the best quality, designs and coloring.

Our Middlesex Wiltons have the word "Middlesex" woven in the back. The word is registered as our Trade Mark in the United States Patent Office.

The popular Lowell Ingrains are wound on a hollow stick made in two solid pieces, with the words "Lowell Man'g. Co." stamped within, a patented United States Trade Mark.

CARPETS.

The Carpets made by this Company have received the highest award wherever exhibited, including Gold Medals at the Paris Exposition, 1878, and at the Centennial, 1876.

Their deserved reputation for excellence of fabric, richness and durability of color, novelty and beauty of design, has led to frequent infringements, and inferior goods have often been palmed off in their stead. For the protection of the public the Company has adopted as a trade-mark the word "BIGELOW," which will be woven (at every repeat of the pattern) in white capitals into the back of the fabric. Customers will therefore have merely to examine the back of a carpet to be certain that they are getting the genuine Bigelow Wiltons or Body Brussels.

UPHOLSTERY DEPARTMENT, PAGE 45.

☞ Our readers are urged to remember that we are always desirous to receive communications of interest to the carpet or upholstery trades, such as changes in firms or managers, the building or opening of new stores, improvements in old ones, the adding of new departments, improved methods of doing business, new inventions, suggestions as to the cutting, making and laying of carpets, the designing and fitting of draperies, or inquiries and dissertations relating to the technical or commercial details of the trades to which this periodical is devoted.

STATE OF TRADE.

SINCE our issue of the 15th ult. some travelers have started on their second trips, but duplicate orders have not been received in any considerable volume, the bad weather having, of course, exercised a depressing effect on retail trade. March has been a cold and rainy month throughout the entire country, but on those rare days when the weather was pleasant the carpet trade showed a marked improvement, and there is every reason to believe that the present month will be a busy one for the retail dealers.

We present on this page and the next full details regarding the movement among manufacturers for a reform in the matter of dating ahead. The present practice in this respect certainly needs amendment, and we are glad to say that an agreement among manufacturers to date no farther ahead than March 1 or September 1 seems practically assured. Such is the impression we have derived from the tenor of all advices received up to the time of our going to press.

TO RESTRICT DATING AHEAD.

THE following paper was circulated among the Ingrain manufacturers of Philadelphia last week :

Realizing that the custom of dating bills ahead from season to season is becoming more and more abused, and that it is not only advisable, but extremely necessary that we correct this growing evil,

We, the undersigned carpet manufacturers and jobbers, do hereby agree (and our word is our bond) to restrict all such datings to March 1 and September 1 (our terms not in any instance exceeding four months open account), beginning will the fall season of 1896.

This to become operative only on the condition that the signatures of all the manufacturers are secured. Progress will be reported in due time to all.

Regarding the movement Thomas Bromley, Jr., of the Bromley Brothers Carpet Company, who is acting for the manufacturers, said :

"The paper now bears the signatures of fifty-eight manufacturers doing business in Philadelphia. Owing to lack of time, the signatures of the other five of the manufacturers, and of the manufacturers outside of Philadelphia, have not yet been secured, but the paper is now being circulated among them and the jobbing houses, and we have no doubt that the signatures of every manufacturer and jobber will be secured. The long dating now existing in the carpet trade is so unjust and so uncalled for, and is subject to so many abuses, that we are sure the consummation of this project will be welcome to all. As soon as the list is complete we shall take great pleasure in submitting same to you for publication."

The move is certainly in the right direction. March 1 and September 1 datings are far enough ahead for any fair minded merchant, but the buyer cannot be blamed for obtaining further dating if he can find any manufacturer who will give it; therefore, the best way to prevent it is an agreement such as the one above presented. This agreement can be kept, and we think the jobbers will adopt it just as readily as the manufacturers, for the evil of too far dating ahead has reached their business likewise. An agreement similar to the above has existed among the upholstery and curtain manufacturers for some years past and is noted as one arrangement that is positively adhered to among competitors.

FREE COINAGE AND THE TARIFF.

INTERESTING LETTERS FROM THOMAS POTTER AND ROBERT DORNAN.

Robert Dornan, president of the Manufacturers' Club, has forwarded to us for publication a letter addressed to William Potter, of Thomas Potter, Sons & Co., in reply to a letter from Mr. Potter which was published in the Philadelphia Ledger of the 20th ult. These communications deal with the question of free silver coinage and its relations to protection. On this point the views of the writers are directly opposed to each other, and a divergence of opinion so marked among two such prominent members of the trade is likely to excite considerable interest in the arguments advanced by them. We therefore present the letters herewith.

Mr. Potter writes as follows:

To the Editor of the Public Ledger: An eminent American has stated that we must deal with facts as we find them and not as we wish them. While it would be our wish to find it otherwise, it is surprising that in the Manufacturers' Club of this city there are men, usually conservative, who are willing to enter into an alliance with the advocates of free silver, and the official paper of this organization, The Manufacturer, is permitted to advocate a policy of protection and free coinage of silver, a Siamese combination in which a cherished principle of the Republican party is entwined with inflation and repudiation. To these misguided gentlemen, in a friendly spirit, I wish particularly to address myself.

Protection to American industry is a benefit to every individual in this country. If it were not so it should not be incorporated in our legislation. Your policy is imperilling the future of protection by making it assume the form of class legislation, for which, in order to possess, you are willing to barter the Republican birthright of sound money. The agitation concerning the money question, and the evil resulting from the Wilson tariff bill, which, according to The Manufacturer of last week, caused our imports in 1895 from the United Kingdom to increase $60,000,000 over 1894, while our exports decreased $6,000,000, are together paralyzing the business interests of this country. Yet, strange to say, while distrust of Democracy, both as to its economic and financial policy, makes it certain that the next President will be a Republican, and we shall be in a position to have the present tariff bill corrected in the interests of proper protection, business is still stagnated, values are uncertain, and losses beyond calculation are being entailed on this and future generations of our compatriots. This is certain to continue if the Democratic policy of free trade and free silver is adopted; this will continue if the Cleveland policy of free trade and sound money is adopted; and this will continue if protection and free silver (The Manufacturer's policy) is adopted. If we are to be guided by the light of recent experience, safety lies only in the Republican alliance of sound money and protection to American industry.

This is the combination of principles that made this country so prosperous in the past that President Harrison in his message in December, 1889, reported to Congress that the excess of receipts over expenditures was $57,000,000, the estimated surplus for the coming year $44,000,000, and recommended a reduction of taxation to the amount of $100,000,000. This period marked the high tide of American prosperity. Then expediency stepped in, and in order to prevent the passage of a free coinage bill, in order not to alienate the silver vote at the succeeding Presidential election, a sop was thrown to the white metal Cerberus (a very small monster then), and in July, 1890, the Sherman bill became a law, compelling the Government to purchase the enormous aggregate of 54,000,000 ounces of silver each year, causing the price of silver to fall, and entailing an annual loss to the American taxpayers of more than $10,000,000.

Then followed the victory of the Democratic party, the repeal (by the aid of Republican votes) of the Sherman bill, and the passage in December, 1893, of the Wilson tariff bill. Since that time, owing to the election of a number of members from the far Western States, the silver majority in the Senate has greatly increased, and a few of these Republican Senators, after refusing to pass a protective tariff bill unless amended by a free coinage rider, are now seeking to form an alliance with the members of the Manufacturers' Club on a platform calling for free silver and protection.

It will be useless to expect prosperity from even the next Republican Administration if this great financial question is to continue to be the football of theorists, manufacturers' alliances, designing demagogues and expedient vote procuring politicians.

It is a lamentable fact that concerning it candidates for the Presidential nomination are dumb, declarations are made by Republican State conventions that are an insult to our intelligence, and a cloud of doubt and uncertainty is still permitted to envelop the business interests of this country.

Trifling should cease with a question that touches every pocketbook in the land, and the Republican voters and newspapers ought to make it clear to their political representatives that the Republican National Convention must in emphatic language declare for a sound financial policy.

Sweeping away all sophistry and prejudice, guided by experience and reason, we know that prosperity for this country alone lies in the true Republican alliance of protection to American industry and the maintenance of the present gold standard of value, with the use of silver as a subsidiary coin.

William Potter.

Philadelphia, March 20, 1896.

Mr. Dornan's reply is as follows:

My Dear Mr. Potter—Your letter of the 20th published in the Public Ledger is in some respects unfair, and statements so far as The Manufacturer are concerned I believe without foundation. I am persuaded you have taken the position of the newspapers as the basis of your criticism. To say that such a basis must be misleading goes without saying when I inform you I am told it is not possible to get a letter published in any of our dailies, (outside of the Item) which has for its object opposition to the single gold standard.

Quoting, you say, "The Manufacturer is permitted to advocate a policy of protection and free coinage of silver, &c."

Now this is not the fact, because the board of directors took special action by resolution confining the discussion to advocacy of international bimetallism (which is totally different from free silver coinage), and I believe the files of the publication will show nothing carrying out what you allege.

I know you well enough to know you do not intentionally misrepresent, and yet when you characterize The Manufacturer's policy as that of "protection and free silver" you are absolutely at variance with fact.

I have no desire to enter into an extended reply to your letter, and accordingly pass over much of your general statement. In the next to the last paragraph you state "Republican newspapers and voters ought to make it clear to their political representatives that the Republican National Convention must in emphatic language declare for a sound financial policy."

In this I agree with you thoroughly. But when you say that "the prosperity of this country lies alone in the true Republican alliance of protection to American industry and the maintenance of the present gold standard of value" I take issue with you.

In the first place the doctrines of all parties are those enunciated in their national platforms, and "the gold standard alone" is not even referred to in the last national platform of the Republican party.

Again, a proper standard must be stable in its effects. Is this true of the gold standard? Clearly no; and I will prove it to you by an illustration of its effects in an industry nearly related to the one you formerly were interested in and my own. I refer to that of straw matting manufacture as carried on in China and Japan.

Now during the operation of the legislation for the purchase of silver by this country the value of the exchanges were kept nearly on a par, so that in 1890 straw mattings imported from those countries amounted to about 300,000 rolls, 40 yards each, 12,000,000 yards total, costing $1,485,000, average cost per yard 12⅜ cents, in either gold or silver.

Whereas in 1895, by reason of their free importation and the divergence in the value of the exchanges (the country being solely on a gold standard after the repeal of the silver purchasing clause in September, 1893), the quantity imported increased to nearly 800,000 rolls, aggregating 31,500,000 yards, and the average cost per yard was only 5 1-5 cents gold, total cost being $1,635,000. So you will agree with me that it is not stable with respect to those commodities.

The McKinley act of 1890 made mattings free of duty; but suppose they had continued dutiable at the former rate of 20 per cent. ad valorem, of what avail would that rate or any other short of 100 per cent. have been to afford any protection whatever to carpet manufacturers, whose goods are being displaced by the Japanese goods on account of their good appearance, excellent wearing qualities and exceedingly low cost, made possible almost entirely by the increased value of gold exchange.

The gold standard in fact vitiates and utterly destroys every vestige of protection to products which are forced into competition with the products of silver standard countries, and how you or any other good Republican can advocate that standard as the only one to bring prosperity to the country when I show you clearly that it destroys protection on all articles which enter into such competition is more than I am able to understand, unless for the reason that you are not as closely in touch with business as you formerly were, and therefore unaware of how it works out practically.

If you want further illustration of the effect quoted get your brother to inquire of the silk manufacturers of Paterson, N. J.

On all India rugs imported owing to the increased value in gold exchange the price is cut in two, and by reason of this the duty is absolutely nullified, and they are then put in competition with high grade American carpets upon much better than a free trade basis for the importer.

In fact it will require a duty of 100 per cent. on such products to restore normal cost, consequently there is no protection in any duty on such products which is not in excess of 100 per cent.

Can we therefore as intelligent business men afford longer to advocate the gold standard, when I have shown you what its effects are in forcing our producers into actual competition with the civilization of China, Japan and India at rates of wages in those countries which are not a tithe of what are paid here.

The same effect precisely obtains when our agriculturists sell their wheat to England.

That country gets part of her supply from India, the cost of which is cut in two, being paid for in gold, and you will doubtless agree with me in my belief that it fixes the price also that England pays for what she buys of us of the same products.

Clearly on every hand the tendency then is toward the impoverishment of the producing classes, and it requires no argument to prove that prosperity in full cannot exist where the producing classes do not receive full and commensurate prices for what they produce.

You cannot be any more strongly opposed to free silver coinage than am I, because I see clearly if that were made effective independently (while it would stimulate domestic productions by the additional protection a gold premium would afford) the certain result would be financial disaster, brought about by our forms of indebtedness held abroad being forced back on us like a tidal wave at such sacrifice that all similar forms held at home would share a similar fate, and thus bring temporary destruction upon the country, which could not be recovered from probably in a generation.

As good, honest Republicans, desiring only the welfare of our whole country, what then shall we stand for in order to promote its full prosperity?

My answer is bimetallism at an agreed ratio to be fixed internationally.

How shall we bring it about? Surely it cannot be done by inaction. And yet it is entirely possible for our country to accomplish it by moving for the appointment of a commission and asking the leading European nations to appoint similar commissions, instructing our representatives to do everything possible to effect success. You will say this plan was tried in the Brussels conference and failed. So it was, but if we should fail again I would not stop. I would then legislate so that the products of any country which had failed to co-operate and vote in favor of bimetallism should be discriminated against by having additional duties put upon their exports here, thus depriving them of the favorable opportunity to do business with us.

Would it take long, do you think, to make conversions if this method was resorted to?

Surely not. I believe within the year overtures would be made which would accomplish what we all desire, i. e., a sound currency available the world over, and entirely devoid of evils which I show are associated with the single gold standard.

I hope this will not weary you. I did not intend it to be so lengthy when I started, but knowing your influence and ability in helping to shape sentiment in favor of the right for the good of the whole country, I am anxious for your assistance and co-operation in helping to lead the sentiment of the country right.

Free silver is craziness.

The gold standard alone does not operate for the prosperity of the whole people. I have given examples where it injures.

Bimetallism by international agreement is what will restore the equilibrium, and when added to proper protective duties will give the country as a whole a full measure of prosperity. Let us work and pray for it.

ROBERT DORNAN.

PHILADELPHIA, March 24, 1896.

A FAST TIME RECORD IN MANUFACTURE AND DELIVERY.

IN these days of record breaking time in railway traveling, the following incident in making a new record for weaving, and delivering a roll of Ingrain carpet nearly a thousand miles away will be found interesting:

On February 15 C. H. Masland & Sons, Philadelphia, received an order from a Chicago house for 600 yards of Pattern 223—3 Sevellan patent Ingrain, to be delivered in Chicago on February 28, in time to be laid in a church for services on Sunday March 1. They delivered the goods in five rolls on time very readily.

On February 27 they received a telegram from Chicago, stating the job would require 700 instead of 600 yards, and that it was absolutely necessary to lay the goods by Sunday, March 1.

The Messrs. Masland immediately wired back that they would supply the extra quantity in time. They started up three looms on the pattern at 12:30 P. M. of the 27th, and cut the 96 yards out of the looms at 10:15 A. M. on the 28th; had the goods burled, finished, sheared, rolled, baled and delivered to Adams Express Company at 11:07 A. M.

Previous arrangements had been made with the express company to forward the bale on the limited express leaving Philadelphia at 12:10 P. M. the 28th, and to make a special delivery on arrival in Chicago. The bale reached the Broad street station in Philadelphia, some 5 miles from the Amber Mills, in time to catch the limited express, and was delivered into the hands of the Chicago house at 9:30 A. M., Central time, on February 29. The church had its new carpet for the Sunday morning service.

C. H. Masland & Sons produced and shipped this roll of 96 yards in nine hours, thirty-seven minutes working time. The total time elapsed from the receipt of the order at their mill at Philadelphia to the delivery at the Chicago firm's store was forty-six and a half hours. Here is a record worthy to compare with the recent speed trials on the New York Central and Lake Shore railroads.

Abe. Solomon has started in the carpet and furniture business at 164 Clinton street.

The stock of John Ehrlich, 188 First avenne, was sold by auction on the 16th ult. Mr. Ehrlich intends to move up town.

The assignee of Griffin & Sullivan, Brooklyn, has sold the stock for $1,050. It is thought that creditors will get from 20 to 30 per cent.

Olds & King, dealers in dry goods, carpets, curtains, &c., Portland, Ore., have removed their office in New York from 447 to 544 Broadway.

Bernard H. De Boes & Co., carpet and furniture dealers, 1382 Third avenue, have dissolved partnership. The business is continued by A. Kane and J. Jauss without change of style.

Joseph B. Bloomingdale, of the firm of Bloomingdale Brothers, is to erect a ten story Indiana limestone, terra cotta and iron front store, loft and office building, costing $125,000, at No. 78 Fifth avenue.

The Empire Electric Carpet Sewing Company has been incorporated with a capital of $10,000. The directors are O. Fred. Spate, New York ; Samuel White, Philadelphia, and James Shea, of Port Chester.

L. Baumann & Co., the carpet and furniture dealers, are to make extensive alterations in their store property at 258 to 262 Sixth avenue and 60 and 62 West Seventeenth street. The plans are now being made by the architect.

Hudson & Symington, Detroit, Mich., and Julius Meyer & Sons, Richmond, Va., are now represented in this market by John A. O'Connor, who has organized the Dry Goods Co-operative Association, with offices at 45 Lispenard street.

Julius M. Steele, carpet dealer, 492 Grand street, has assigned to Isaac Hoffman without preferences. Mr. Steele has been in the carpet business in that neighborhood for over thirty years, has had several partners in that time, and has been alone for the past ten years.

Martin Kairer, manager of Sol Heyman's carpet department, Third avenue and Fifty-ninth street, has arranged a matting display which, considering the space at his disposal, is the cleverest in town. The floor is covered with Japanese inlaid matting, while overhead are two enormous Chinese umbrellas. Numbers of large lanterns are hung here and there and lighted by electricity. Various Oriental bits are scattered around, and rattan armchairs provide for customers. The whole place is very attractive, and the stock shows off to great advantage.

The sheriff has received an attachment for $9,586 against John W. Priestley, of Philadelphia, in favor of Charles A. Furbush on an assigned claim of the M. A. Furbush & Son Machine Company, of Philadelphia. It was served on a life insurance company to attach any interest Mr. Priestley may have in a policy of insurance.

Some notable improvements and alterations have been made on the street floor of W. & J. Sloane's establishment. Platforms have been built back of all the windows of this floor looking on both Broadway and Nineteenth street, so as to permit every window to be used for the showing of goods. The displays of fine rugs and upholstery goods in these windows attract a great deal of attention. Among the goods shown is the $5,000 pair of portières which were exhibited by W. & J. Sloane at the last Paris Exhibition.

The following buyers have been in town since the publication of our last bulletin : Messrs. F. P. Burlingame, for the Callender, McAuslan & Troup Company, and E. E. Arnold, of Arnold, Miller & Co., Providence, R. I.; C. R. Hawley, of C. R. Hawley & Co., Bay City, Mich.; George W. Cox, Gallipolis, Ohio ; C. L. Engels, of C. L. Wald, of Wald Brothers, Louisiana, Mo.; J. M. Welker, of J. M. Welker & Son, Bryan, Ohio.

The Farr & Bailey Manufacturing Company have a good stock of floor oil cloth for immediate delivery, at their Chicago store, 224 Market street, where J. O. Cook and W. A. Gilbert are always happy to welcome the trade. Mail orders also receive careful and prompt attention.

....J. Wesley Johnson has established a cut order department at his mill on Allegheny avenue.

....Harry Titus, of Titus Brothers, Eleventh and Market streets, is spending a few weeks in Florida.

....Geo. D. Fleming, formerly with Dornan Brothers, is now with Thos. Develon's Sons, and will have charge of their room at the Bourse.

....Arthur B. Lovejoy, manager of John Wanamaker's carpet department, has been spending a few days among his old friends in Boston.

....D. Jamieson's Sons report their sales up to date as far in excess of last year. Duplicates are not coming in as fast as they should, but they expect them later.

....A. C. Holmes, son of Henry Holmes, of the Sherman Carpet Mills, Trenton avenue, Philadelphia, will hereafter have charge of the firm's rooms in the Bourse.

....L. Leictenberger, 1927 Clearfield street, manufacturer of rag carpets, has recently added four power looms to his plant, and will add Ingrain carpets to his production.

....Carson & Irwin, Ingrains, Hancock street above Lehigh avenue, and 590 Bourse, are all sold up for this season, and their samples are about ready for the coming season.

....Wm. Henderson, Ingrain carpets, Fifth and Columbia avenue and Room 670 Bourse, reports his new weave "Acme" Ingrains as meeting with ready sale and demand increasing.

....Wm. Lockhart, Ingrains, Howard and Lehigh avenues and 676 Bourse, is running on full time and will keep on doing so indefinitely. He is turning out a very attractive line of goods.

....Watt & Brother, Ingrain carpets, Howard and Berks streets, have been moving goods freely and are still very busy, with all looms active. Watt & Brother make a very handsome class of goods.

....Biswanger & Sons, Ingrain carpets, Emerald and Wishart streets, have been running full for the past four months, and are still busy with orders enough to last a month or six weeks longer.

....Joseph Taylor & Son, Howard and Montgomery avenues extra Ingrains, have had a very good business, but are now approaching the new design season and are running only part of their looms.

....David McDowell, 1811 Howard street, has had a big run on all of the grades of Ingrain carpets he produces, and has orders enough recorded to last until May 1. His new offerings will be ready in good time.

....One of the oldest weavers in Kensington is Leopold Seckinger. He began with the elder John Bromley at Fifth street and Germantown avenue, many years ago, when the crude old hand looms were in vogue. He eventually started in business for himself, and is doing now a prosperous business in weaving rag and list carpets and cotton Ingrains at 1216 Dey street, under the firm name of Leopold Seckinger & Son.

....James Pollock & Son, Damask carpets, 2226 Dauphin street, are running steadily on filling orders that have accumulated during the season. The new fall designs and colorings will be out in good time, and will be fully up to date.

....Geo. L. C. Drovin, of Drovin & Clery, selling agents for the Geo. W. Blabon Company, returned this week from his trip to the Pacific Coast. Mr. Drovin was accompanied by his wife and son, and the party have been absent since February 10.

....The new styles issued by Thomas Huston & Co., Trenton avenue and Dauphin street, last season met with splendid success, and they are busy now on their offerings for the coming season. These are expected to eclipse all former efforts.

....Weber & Petzold, Ingrains, Howard and Berks streets, manufacture extra Ingrains and all the lower grades. They have all their looms running and orders enough to last well on toward May 1. Their new samples will soon be out.

....Thos. Boggs & Son, Ingrain carpets, Trenton avenue and Seargent street, report a good season on all their lines of goods, and are now preparing their new designs and colorings. Some very striking novelties may be looked for in their fall output.

....The Bromley Brothers Carpet Company have instituted a new feature in their Smyrna rugs. They are now manufacturing some entirely new designs and colorings in Oriental style. These goods are intended for first-class trade, and particular attention has been paid to the shading of the colors.

....David Jackson, Coral and Adams streets, had a good season with his last issue of Ingrain carpets, and he is endeavoring to improve upon them in the output for the approaching season. Some new treatments in the grounds of the new styles will be noticed by the trade. Tefft, Weller & Co. are the agents.

....An artist is busy upon a picture of the main hall of the Bourse Building. The 117 charter members of the Bourse Association will be represented as standing upon the floor of the immense hall, while the directors will be grouped by themselves. Among them will appear Wm. H. McCallum, who was among those earliest interested in the Bourse movement.

....Walker & Linde, who have been engaged in the carpet and furniture business in the vicinity of Ridge and Columbia avenues for some time, have purchased a large lot in their immediate neighborhood, upon which they propose to erect a commodious building for the accommodation of their increasing business. But a few years ago both members of the firm were salesmen in carpet stores, Mr. Walker with the old Second street house of Sonneborn & Co., and Mr. Linde with Ivins, Dietz & Magee.

....Jacob V. Dietz, of the firm of Ivins, Dietz & Magee, has given $5,000 for the building of an addition to the Allentown College for Women at Allentown, Pa. Mr. Dietz, besides paying for the construction of the building, equipped the gymnasium and furnished the pulpit, stage, matting, shades, electric and gas lights. He is a prominent member of the Reformed Church and also a member of the board of trustees of Franklin and Marshall College Theological Seminary and Foreign Missionary Society.

....Among the recent visitors at the Bourse were Samuel Shott, of Cincinnati, Ohio; buyer for H. Josephs & Son, carpets, Fremont, Ohio; Mr. Zerby, for Kline, Eppihimer & Co., Reading, Pa.; Alex. Grant, Zanesville, Ohio; Mr. Haggerdorn, West Point, Ga.; John Lawfer, of Lawfer & Co., Allentown, Pa.; Huchcock, of Huchcock & Son, Hickory, N. Va., and the J. C. Bishop Carpet Company, Staunton, Va.

MITRES IN PILE CARPETS.

Pawtucket, R. I., March 10, 1896.

The Carpet and Upholstery Trade Review:

I should like to ask two questions: 1. What is the proper way to cut and sew mitres in pile carpets, such as Moquettes, Axminsters, &c. Should I cut to a raw edge and then seam with binding, or is it better to allow in cutting and turn under and pluck?

2. What is the proper pronunciation of the word Savonnerie? X.

Ans.—1. Cut to a raw edge, then overcast the edges and strap or bind.

2. The exact pronunciation can be acquired only by hearing the word spoken. It is somewhat like Sa-vo-n-re, the o being sounded long.—Ed.

WHAT THE GOSHEN COMPANY ARE DOING.

The Goshen Sweeper Company are still manufacturing carpet sweepers, a very evident fact, especially to anyone who visits their factory in Grand Rapids. They are turning out over twenty different styles, covering an ample variety of designs and finishes, and guarantee practical and clean sweeping.

In regard to the Bissell-Goshen litigation F. Letellier, secretary and treasurer of the company, says his company by no means considers the case as settled, and will continue to contest the claims of the Bissell company to the extreme ends of the courts. The hearings before the master are being held, and the absolute final decision of the matter, in their estimation, is yet open to a different decision from that recently given in the United States Court of Appeals.

A new announcement from the Goshen Company appears on page 106.

The Fries-Breslin Company, Camden, N. J., has taken out a permit to erect another three story factory, 100x50 feet in dimensions.

Adams.—W. J. Adams, head of the firm of W. J. Adams & Son, carpet and furniture dealers, Harrisburg, Pa., was stricken with paralysis on the 14th ult., the stroke affecting his left side and speech. At last accounts he was improving slowly.

Bishop.—J. H. Bishop, president of the J. H. Bishop Company, Wyandotte, Mich., was at their New York office for several days last month. Mr. Bishop said to a Review man that "the company's business during 1895 was eminently satisfactory, and that 1896 bid fair to eclipse it."

Davis.—C. H. R. Davis, formerly manager of J. H. Walker & Co.'s retail carpet and upholstery department, Chicago, has been engaged by the Chicago Carpet Company.

Dittman.—C. W. Dittman, of Harbour & Dittman, Wheeling, W. Va., was in New York last week purchasing spring stock and favored The Review with a call.

Fitzsimmons.—Michael J. Fitzsimmons, who was formerly carpet and furniture buyer for B. M. Cowperthwait & Co., and has recently had charge of Malley, Nealy & Co.'s furniture department at New Haven, Conn., has come into a fortune through his wife. He resigned his position on the 16th ult. and will retire from active business to enjoy the otium cum dig. for the rest of his days.

Holder.—Frank T. Holder, president of the Alexander Smith & Sons Carpet Company, is having a steam yacht built which he will call Wachusett. It is to be 90 feet long, with a dining room 15 feet long and a saloon 14 feet long.

Lains.—We announced in our last the failure of the Lains & Lord Furniture Company at San José, Cal. The Lains of the company is George H. Lains, formerly of St. Paul, Minn.

Law.—Walter W. Law, of W. & J. Sloane, returned from his trip to the Mediterranean Coast on the steamer Normannia the 24th ult.

Plimpton.—Herbert Plimpton, agent for the Kirkcaldy Linoleum Company, visited Boston and Philadelphia in the early fortnight of last month.

Schreiver.—J. C. Schreiver, who has been for many years connected with leading carpet houses of Omaha, and who is well known in New York, is a keen sportsman and owns the English pointer dog Ten Sleep, probably the most valuable hunting dog in Nebraska. Mr. Schreiver entered Ten Sleep in the Mascoutah Kennel bench show, at Chicago, and valued the blue blooded canine at $1,000.

Searing.—L. B. Searing, manager of W. & J. Sloane's Oriental rug department, returned from his trip to the carpet marts of the Orient on the 25th ult.

Shimer.—Hon. E. S. Shimer, who has been actively engaged in the carpet business at Allentown, Pa., for forty-nine years, has closed out, as has been previously announced in these columns, and contemplates opening a real estate, loan and insurance agency. Mr. Shimer was mayor of Allentown from 1884 to 1886.

Sloane.—Henry T. Sloane, of W. & J. Sloane, is in San Francisco.

Sloane.—W. D. Sloane, of W. & J. Sloane, sailed for Europe on the steamer Teutonic the 25th ult.

Voigt, Herpolsheimer & Co., Grand Rapids, Mich., have just carpeted the Second Reformed Church of that city with 600 yards of the Worcester Carpet Company's best Body Brussels.

A NEW FEATURE IN CARPET SWEEPERS.

KATIE—What kind of a machine is that?
LENA—A carpet sweeper.
KATIE—I have one home and must use it.

KATIE—Who would have thought how easily this works!
HER MISTRESS—Good heavens! What are you doing with that lawn mower?

in small towns, and it is said this branch will be resumed in the near future.

H. Spangenthal & Co., Indianapolis, Ind., doing business as "The People's Outfitting Company," have dissolved, and the business is continued by Ida Wineman under the old name.

Markert & Schoenlaub, Marion, Ohio, have dissolved. Mr. Schoenlaub has retired, and Mr. Markert has closed out the dry goods and carpet stock and will deal only in groceries and crockery.

On March 10 fire started in S. R. Corbin & Son's dry goods and carpet store at Campbellsburg, Ky., and spread to the carpet, furniture and hardware store of Scott & Chilton, destroying both.

A. M. Welder's "Enterprise Furniture and Carpet House," Savannah, Mo., is expanding its business, a floor in an adjoining building having been acquired to accommodate the carpet, curtain and upholstered furniture stock.

Lawrence & Ennist, dealers in dry goods and carpets, Kingston, N. Y., have dissolved partnership, Mr. Ennist withdrawing on account of poor health. Mr. Lawrence has purchased his interest and will continue the business.

A. S. Fassett, whose store at Great Barrington, Mass., was burned recently, is nicely located in his new quarters in the second story of the City store building. He has a large stock of carpets, wall paper and window shades.

Hager & Brother, Lancaster, Pa., have just completed what they believe to be the best equipped carpet cleaning works in the city, as an important branch of their big carpet business. A large and improved electric motor runs the machinery.

R. E. Burger's new Hudson River Furniture Store at Newburgh, N. Y., was opened for business on the 14th ult. The first, third and fourth floors are occupied by the furniture stocks, and carpets, rugs and parlor furniture are shown on the second floor.

The firm of Lunt, Rogers & Chase, Beverly, Mass., will be dissolved about April 1. A. C. Lunt will continue the business at the old stand, while Messrs. Rogers and Chase will renew their old partnership. The new firm of Rogers & Chase have secured one store and the two upper floors of the new Stopford Building for their quarters, and will put in a big line of furniture, house furnishings, wall papers and upholstery goods and carpets.

J. C. Edward, Elmira, N. Y., is succeeded by Edward & Simpson. John A. Simpson, the new member, has been connected with the firm of James A. Cantlie & Co., Montreal and Toronto, for the past eighteen years, where he was held in high esteem.

Walsh, Sweeney & Hoffman, dry goods and carpet dealers, Lockport, N. Y., are to remove to Buffalo on May 15, and they have sold their business to Olsen Brothers, of Le Roy, N. Y., who are engaged in the same business. Olsen Brothers will continue the business at both places, two members of the firm devoting their attention to the Lockport store.

On March 17 fire started in the store of N. S. Sodekson & Co., Mineola, Tex., and the entire stock of general merchandise and the building were destroyed. The stock was insured for $16,500 and the building and fixtures for $4,350. On the same date the carpet and furniture warehouse of T. J. Phillips & Co. at Krebs, Ind. Ter., was burned. Loss, $4,000 ; insurance, $2,000.

The C. E. Crawford Furniture Company, Middletown, N. Y., has rented the three rooms on the second floor of the Exchange Building which were formerly occupied as offices. As soon as a few necessary alterations are made the Furniture Company will take possession of the rooms, and it will then use the whole building for the display of its large and varied stock.

A. J. Wild's new carpet and furniture store at McKeesport, Pa., is to be formally opened about the current date. Handsome and elegant presents will be given to the visitors, as usual, to those holding the lucky tickets, and every visitor will get a ticket. A band of music will be present, and the opening will be the grandest ever attempted in McKeesport.

Furniture dealers of Cleveland, Ohio, have formed the Cleveland Furniture Dealers' Protective Association and elected the following officers : President, J. H. McArdle ; vice-president, H. Leopold ; treasurer, L. W. Lederer. The constitution provides for the selection of a secretary, an attorney at law, who shall receive not less than $700 annually. The dues will be $60 yearly.

A few days before the fire at Stockton, Ill., which occurred on the 3d ult., when Smith & Warne's carpet and furniture stock was destroyed, as announced in the last issue of THE REVIEW, Smith & Warne sold their business to Chas. Hermann, who also bought E. R. Smith's building, which the firm occupied. Before the deal could be closed, however, and while the invoice was being made the fire occurred and swept away building and stock. The plans of all concerned were of course upset, and they were at last accounts undecided as to what to do.

A deed of assignment was filed on the 23d ult. by Wm. P. Caudle and W. E. Roane, carpet and furniture dealers, doing business under the firm name of Caudle & Roane, on West Broad street, Richmond, Va. J. E. Bland, Jr., is named as trustee, and the liabilities are estimated at $19,000, while the value of the assets is not given. The property conveyed to the trustee consists of the entire stock of goods now in the storehouse at Foushee and Broad streets, and also the entire stock of goods in the warerooms occupied by Caudle & Roane at 420 West Broad street. The property so conveyed, which comprises furniture and household goods of every description, is to be sold either by public or private sale for the benefit of the creditors of the firm. The proceeds of such sale are to be used in paying the creditors, who are divided into six classes.

Weakly & Mumma, Harrisburg, Pa., have a well stocked furniture and carpet establishment, and are active, enterprising merchants. They are getting a goodly share of Harrisburg and tributary trade.

The dry goods and carpet firm of A. Bushnell & Co., Watertown, N. Y., was incorporated on the 17th ult. The capital stock is $100,000, and the directors are Albert Bushnell, Loren Bushnell, Fred George and Karl George, all of Watertown. Messrs. Albert Bushnell and Fred George were in New York purchasing goods about ten days ago.

McManus Brothers, carpet and furniture dealers at Newark, Elizabeth and Asbury Park, N. J., have taken E. W. Price as a partner in their Asbury Park store, which will hereafter be conducted under the style of McManus Brothers & Price. Mr. Price contributes both capital and experience. McManus Brothers still control the largest interest in the Asbury Park store.

The activity in Sterling, Welch & Co.'s carpet department, Cleveland, on the fine days during the past two weeks augurs well for a good spring business. W. R. Havens says his jobbing trade has not been as good as was expected, and he, like many other buyers, thinks a great mistake was made in not advancing carpets for the spring season after everyone was led to expect an advance.

T. D. Turritt is now in charge of James Moriarty's carpet and upholstery department, Cleveland, Ohio. He succeeded S. S. Kerr, who went to Pittsburg in January to take charge of Kauffman Brothers' department. Mr. Moriarty speaks favorably of business, and his handsome establishment has many customers on every fine day. He carries a very fine selection of carpets, upholsteries and curtains.

Gately & Gray, who have recently succeeded E. Gately & Co., dealers in carpets, furniture and housefurnishing goods generally, Elmira, N. Y., have removed to new quarters at Nos. 242 to 246 West Water street, where they occupy three floors, comprising over 4,000 square feet each, and claim to have the best building in Elmira devoted to their business. The junior member of the firm, Richard C. Gray, has only been connected with this establishment since last September, although he has been in the employ of Mr. Gately since early boyhood. He is a native of Philadelphia. The firm's principal method of doing business is on the credit system, and it can be safely said that they do the bulk of the furniture trade in their town. They report that business has been rather quiet for the last two months, but the indications are very promising for a good spring.

The old and well-known firm of James Nall & Co., of Detroit, Mich., which had been in the carpet trade for over forty years, and whose members retired about three years since, reopened last year with furniture. They have this season added carpets, which they have placed on the ground floor, and are going to push for their old trade. They have a fine store on the best business street of the city. Mr. Nall has done this largely for the purpose of placing his two sons in business.

Lowry & Goebel's renovated establishment, Cincinnati, Ohio, shows notable improvement over the old store. The first floor is devoted to Ingrain carpets and upholstery, with offices in the rear; the second floor to Tapestries, Body Brussels and Moquettes; third floor to linoleum, floor oil cloth, mattings and rugs; fourth floor to wholesale department; fifth floor to cut order department; the basement contains the shipping and receiving rooms. The firm will evidently make a stronger bid for retail trade through the improved appearance of their establishment.

To a Review representative, F. A. McReynolds, manager of the Root & McBride Company's wholesale carpet department, Cleveland, said: "Business this season is not inclined to be up to last year, but by extra work we are keeping up our sales to those of 1895. In our cut order department we have two sets of samples out to one last year, but are not doing any more business. Collections are slow, and the difficulty of moving goods causes a weakness in prices." Mr. McReynolds' department was exceedingly busy, however, the day the Review man called, and gave signs of the late business being better than anticipated.

The New Jersey Court of Errors and Appeals has confirmed the judgments of the Circuit Court in the suits brought by the Lewis-Porter Cabinet Company, the Elliott Furniture Company and Samuel P. Porter against the H. B. Claflin Company to recover the value of goods consigned to F. E. Crane, of Paterson, N. J., prior to his failure. The Claflin Company had, it was claimed, a blanket mortgage on Crane's stock, and being aware of this the concerns named above declined to sell him goods, but allowed him to have them on consignment. When the Claflin Company foreclosed their mortgage they seized all the goods in Crane's store and refused to give up any of them. Suit was begun against the Claflin Company by the three concerns whose consigned goods had been seized, and the case was decided in their favor. The Claflin Company appealed to the Court of Errors and Appeals, and have now been defeated there also.

One of the largest transactions in carpets and furniture ever made in St. Louis was consummated the early part of last month, when May, Stern & Co., of Eleventh and Olive streets, bought out the entire stock of the Olive Street Furniture Company, of 1007 Olive street. The price paid is not known, but a conservative estimate of the stock which filled every floor of the four story building places the value of it at $75,000. The Olive Street Furniture Company has retired from business. The past season has been a very dull one in this line and competition was very keen all winter. It first thought of selling by public auction, but May, Stern & Co., hearing of the intention made, a cash offer of a little over 50 cents on the dollar, and it was accepted. The stock was turned over to this enterprising firm, "lock, stock and barrel," and has been removed to May, Stern & Co.'s mammoth six story warerooms on Eleventh and Olive streets, where it is being sold by special sale.

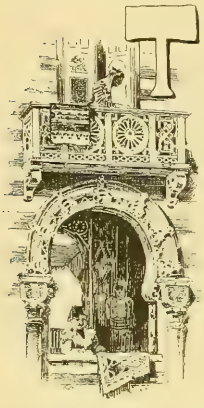
INVESTIGATING THE RUG AUCTIONS.

CHARGES OF FRAUD BROUGHT AGAINST TWO PROMINENT AUCTIONEERS.



The Society for the Suppression of Fraudulent Auctions, whose organization and objects were referred to in our issue of the 15th ult., has recently brought formal complaints, before the mayor and in the courts, against certain local auctioneers whose methods of disposing of rugs by auction were alleged to be illegitimate and contrary to the law governing auction sales in this State.

On the 23d ult. the first complaint made by the society was heard before the mayor, the defendant being David Lindenborn, an auctioneer on West Twentieth street. The complaint was made through James T. Robinson, a clerk in the employ of W. & J. Sloane, who acted as agent for the society.

The first witness called was Henry White, of the firm of Smith & White, the attorneys for the association. Mr. White stated that on March 6 he attended a sale of Oriental rugs at Lindenborn's rooms. A large Sumatra cashmere rug was hung up, and the first bid was about $10, and the bids were raised to $20. Mr. White said he held up his index finger and bid $1 more orally, but immediately the rug was knocked down to him at $25. Another rug, a small Daghestan, was put up, and without any apparent bids the auctioneer rattled off "1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9 dollars I am bid," in rapid succession, and Mr. White bid $10, and it was immediately knocked down to him.

The mayor reserved his decision, seeming inclined to wait until the criminal charge brought against Lindenborn should come before the court. This took place on the following day in the Jefferson Market Court before Magistrate Crane, Lindenborn and also another auctioneer, Samuel Kreiser, doing business on Twenty-eighth street, being brought to court to show cause why they should not be punished for committing a misdemeanor in having exaggerated the value of the goods they offered for sale.

The association was represented by Allbridge C. Smith, with whom was associated J. M. Scribner. Mr. Lindenborn was defended by Morris J. Hirsch, and Mr. Kreiser by Isaac Fromme.

The section under which the proceedings were taken says, in part:

Any auctioneer in the cities of New York and Brooklyn who shall hereafter make or cause to be made any false or fradulent representation or statement in respect to the character of such sale * * * shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding one year or by fine not exceeding $1,000.

James T. Robinson testified that on March 6, 1896, he attended a sale of rugs at the auction rooms of Mr. Lindenborn.

"I went to buy rugs if necessary," he said, in answer to questions put by Mr. Hirsch, on cross-examination, "to prove our case. I did not buy rugs for my own use. I went there for the purpose of obtaining evidence against Mr. Lindenborn. I went with Mr. White."

Mr. Robinson testified that Mr. Lindenborn, when he put up a cashmere rug, stated that it was worth $100, but he, the witness, knew it was not worth that. In response to an objection of Mr. Hirsch that there was no case, inasmuch as the witness had testified that he had not been defrauded, Mr. Scribner said:

"The statement of witness that the auctioneer made a false statement in disposing of these rugs brings the auctioneer within the meaning of the section of the Consolidation Act relating to auctioneers. If he were induced to buy by reason of false representations—that the rug was worth $100 when it was worth only $35—then it was a violation of the statutes."

In the case of Kreiser Mr. Robinson said that Mr. Kreiser had represented a certain rug to be worth $50, while in the witness' judgment it was worth only $25. Witness bought it for $20. Another rug represented to be worth $60 was bought for $18.50.

John F. Smock, an employee of Mr. Lindenborn, was called by the prosecutor to show that more than half of the consignments of rugs to Mr. Lindenborn were returned to the consignors. Mr. Hirsch objected, and the witness left the stand.

A stenographer who had been employed to take down the words of the auctioneers when certain lots were offered for sale was put on the stand to testify as to the exact language used. The lots were those upon which the charge is based. Several detectives also testified as to the language used—that is, the "puffing."

Magistrate Crane said that he would receive briefs from both sides, and would not render a decision until after he had perused them.

A MACHINE FOR MAKING STRAW MATTING.

Shewan & Co. in their circular dated Kobe, Japan, February 15, say that an American inventor is in Kobe trying to introduce a machine for making straw matting and it is intended to give the device a trial. It is said that it will make all grades except double dyes, and that overlacings and similar decorations need only the application of an attachment. If the machine is a success it may affect the matting trade of Japan seriously, unless the native manufacturers make some counter move. Machines for making matting were tried at Canton some years ago, but the Chinese opposed them with boycotts and in other ways, and finally drove them out.

Geo. Staples, of Geo. P. Staples & Co., 739 Washington street, Boston, says that he would like to find a manufacturer of Smyrna rugs who will make a net price, thereby saving much ink, writing paper and arithmetic, as nobody is fooled by a list that is subject to a reduction of one-half or two-thirds in the shape of discount.

MILWAUKEE CARPET AND UPHOLSTERY NEWS.

GREAT improvements and enlargements have been going on in Gimbel Brothers' carpet department, and as now completed it is one of the largest and best arranged departments west of Chicago. The main carpet floor is 80x175 feet; there is a separate rug room 40x100 feet, a workroom of the same size, and another separate room for oil cloth, linoleum, matting, &c. The department has been in charge of A. C. Krause since February 1, an active, pushing manager, who has been in the department for five years past. Every grade of carpeting up to the finest is carried, and the array of Ingrains is exceptionally large. A generous stock has been laid in for the spring business, and with good general trade conditions Mr. Krause expects to largely increase the sales over last year. The upholstery department of Gimbel Brothers is on the same floor as the carpet department, in another room, and is in charge of F. G. Everts.

Mr. Fox, formerly with C. R. Hawley & Co., Bay City, Mich., is now with the Stark Brothers Company.

A. L. Curtis, of the Stark Brothers Company, says the winter trade was quite up to that of last year.

Geo. F. Gormley, formerly with Schlesinger & Mayer, Chicago, and Chas. H. Fry, formerly with the Espenhain Company and B. Goldsmith, are now with Gimbell Brothers.

There is some talk of a department house opening up in the Goldsmith Building, and of continuing the carpet and upholstery business of Goldsmith & Co., as a part of the establishment. Meantime Mr. Goldsmith is closing out his stock and is awaiting developments. He is occupying the spacious second floor of the new Goldsmith Building, but in case it is rented or a new department house does not take his remaining stock, he will remove to his former old quarters next door.

The Stark Brothers Company have their usual choice selections of carpetings and upholstery on view for spring trade. The first floor of their establishment is mainly used for upholstery, the department being in the skilled hands of Charles Salomon; the second floor is given over to Brussels, Tapestries and Ingrains, the third floor to the finest goods, shown by sample, and to Oriental rugs, and the fourth floor to workrooms for carpets and upholstery. Hartford Saxony rugs and yard wide hall strips are spoken of highly in this house, and they carry a good assortment of English carpetings. A. L. Curtis is in charge of the carpets.

The carpet department of the Espenhain Dry Goods Company, which was first opened last September, has made an excellent start. Business last fall was exceedingly encouraging, and the usual winter dullness has been broken up by carpeting three churches and two halls. The carpet and upholstery department occupies an entire floor 80x150 feet, and is in charge of F. G. Kohler, who was formerly in the business for himself. A good assortment of all grades is carried up to Body Brussels and Axminsters, and Wiltons are sold from cut order samples. Everything is bright and new about the department and it ought to get a proper share of Milwaukee's trade.

DETROIT GLEANINGS.

THE carpet department of W. H. Elliott, Detroit, has been a success since its opening a year ago. It occupies a floor 60x100 feet, with another floor of same size for workroom and stock. T. H. Bowen, the manager, says the fall trade was very good, and he is ready with a finely assorted stock for spring trade in every grade of carpeting up to Wiltons. The finer goods are shown by sample. Mr. Bowen has sold sold fifty pieces of one pattern of the Worcester Company's Body Brussels and is waiting for more of it to arrive.

Some handsome, high grade Japanese rugs in delft blue are shown in the delft blue room now fitted up at Newcomb, Endicott & Co.'s. They came from Z. Horikoshi & Co., New York.

Newcomb, Endicott & Co. will furnish the carpets for the new steamer City of Buffalo, which goes into commission between Cleveland and Buffalo next month. They have for years carpeted the steamers that ply between Detroit and Mackinaw.

Mr. Symington, of Hudson & Symington, returned from his visit to the Eastern markets early in March. He says the winter trade has been quiet, but he has hopes for a good spring business. The people seem to want more for their money in floor coverings every year, and rugs especially are retailed at short margins. Mr. Symington has an exceptionally spacious carpet floor and a superb array of goods, and utilizes the most modern conveniences in displaying the stock.

Manager Phillips, of Newcomb, Endicott & Co.'s carpet department, has received the bulk of his spring purchases and as usual they include the pick of the market. His department occupies a floor 120x100 feet and includes the upholstery stock, the immediate direction of which is in the hands of F. T. Buchanan. Mr. Phillips shows the different grades of floor coverings in different sections and exhibits the best goods in samples. Stock is carried of everything shown, and Newcomb, Endicott & Co. always secure a liberal share of the best trade. Mr. Phillips has been in charge of the department uninterruptedly for the fifteen years of its existence and is one of the few prominet carpet buyers of the country who has made no change in his position during that period. He carries nothing lower in Ingrains than an all wool Extra Super.

NOW MAKES SMYRNA CARPET SIZES.

THOS. HIRST, the Vineland Smyrna rug manufacturer, is now making all sizes of Smyrna rugs and carpets up to 9x12 feet, and shows entirely new patterns in the carpet sizes. The new large sizes are made in a popular priced grade and will be found free sellers. You should obtain Mr. Hirst's prices on these large sized carpets, addressing Vineland, N. J., or 337 Broadway, New York.

LOCK your stable before the horse is stolen. Rate your customer before you sell him.

OBITUARY.

William Cochran Sanford.

William C. Sanford died at Waverley, Mass., on March 17, at the age of forty-two. After an attack of the grip in the fall of 1893 he was overcome with nervous prostration and was taken to a sanitarium in Central Valley, N. Y. Last July he returned to his home much improved, and went to Waverly in January under the care of a specialist in nervous diseases. On the evening of March 10 he was seized with a convulsion and was unconscious until his death on the 17th ult. His mother, and his brother John were with him at the end.

Mr. Sanford was born at Amsterdam, N. Y., July 14, 1854, and was educated at the Russell Military School, in New Haven, and at Andover (Mass.) Academy. In 1838 his grandfather, the Hon. John Sanford, established at Amsterdam, N. Y., what is now the great carpet industry of Stephen Sanford & Sons. The elder Sanford represented the district in Congress, as did his son, Hon. Stephen Sanford, and his grandson, Hon. John Sanford, the present junior member of the firm. William elected to represent the mercantile side of the family, and for a dozen years served his apprenticeship in the factory, learning every detail of the business. In the spinning mill, the dye house, the weave shed or the design room he was equally at home when at the age of thirty-five he came to New York to assume charge of the selling and pattern department of the great concern, to a partnership in which he and his brother John had been admitted.

He immediately instituted a radical change in the method of distributing the products of the mills, which were then handled mainly through eighteen houses in various parts of the United States. He popularized the fabrics and wonderfully advanced the attractions of the patterns and colorings, and soon had the satisfaction of seeing the Sanford goods in the hands of all the leading houses in the country. Up to the time of his illness he managed the business with unquestioned ability—an ability which showed itself in no way more clearly than in the selection of the men with whom he surrounded himself.

Socially Mr. Sanford was very popular. He was a club man, a dashing cross-country rider, a good shot and a crack polo player. Among the clubs to which he belonged were the New York, Racquet, Country, Vaudeville, Rockaway Hunting and Meadowbrook.

A new epoch in the history of the Sanford goods may be said to have commenced with the advent of William C. Sanford in 1888 as selling manager. The present great favor in which S. Sanford & Sons' fabrics, styles and business methods are held by the trade is primarily due to changes of system inaugurated by the decedent, and the notable success that followed his efforts in managing the sale of the goods fulfilled one of his most earnest ambitions. Mr. Sanford was sincerely esteemed by the entire force under his charge. He was uniformly courteous and eminently fair in the treatment of his men as well as of all others, and that he was not forgotten during his long absence from business can be well substantiated by the writer. During his two months' stay at Waverley, Mass., prior to his death, he was visited frequently by H. B. Richmond, of S. Sanford & Sons' Boston office, and to him and others expressed great pleasure at what he considered his steady physical improvement.

The funeral took place from the Sanford homestead, located on an elevation adjoining the mills at Amsterdam, on the afternoon of the 19th ult. The works had been closed from the time of receiving the news of his death, and for some hours prior to the funeral services the remains were viewed by the employees of the mills and by the people of Amsterdam, who had known Mr. Sanford from boyhood and warmly regarded him. The cemetery in which the family plot is located is but a short distance from the homestead, and the remains were borne to their last resting place on the shoulders of twelve men, followed by the family and friends. Mr. Sanford was a bachelor, and is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Sanford, and his brother, Hon. John Sanford.

G. B. Treloar and H. B. Richmond represented the firm's selling staff at the funeral, and among the mourners was William F. Cochran, uncle of the decedent and after whom he was named, and who is a member of the Alex. Smith & Sons Carpet Company.

Andrew Sloane.

Andrew Sloane, a brother of the late William Sloane, founder of the house of W. & J. Sloane, and who up to eighteen years ago was employed in the Hartford Carpet Company's mills at Thompsonville, died at that place on March 17 within ten days of being eighty-one years old. He was born in Kilmarnock, Scotland, and came to this country when about twenty-one years of age. He brought over with him the wife of his brother William and her infant son John. For over fifty years Mr. Sloane had lived in Thompsonville. He leaves ten children, twenty-two grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Four of his sons served in the Civil War. The funeral services were held on the 20th ult.

Geo. T. Crane, formerly in the carpet business at Baltimore, died in Philadelphia recently.

Henry W. Perine, who carried on the dry goods and carpet business at Bath, N. Y., under the firm name of Perine & Davidson, died on the 12th ult.

Henry C. Noyes, formerly a well-known member of the Boston carpet trade, died at Revere, Mass., on the 12th ult. at the age of seventy-five years. He leaves a widow, two daughters and a son.

Christopher A. Walrath, of the firm of Walrath & Girvin, Syracuse, N. Y., died suddenly in that city on the 20th ult. Mr. Walrath was sixty-seven years old and had been engaged in the carpet and furniture business at Syracuse for the last fourteen years, in partnership with his son-in-law, J. E. Girvin. He leaves a widow and three daughters.

MATTING FOR IMMEDIATE DELIVERY.

In their new advertisement on the inside of cover of this issue Arnold, Constable & Co. call attention to the fact that they have ready for immediate delivery a great variety of Japanese and Chinese matting in all grades, including 50 to 55 pound China fancy, and some exceptionally desirable offerings in medium and fine grade cotton warp Japan.

Among other prominent attractions in the firm's rug department are a line of Japanese rugs and carpets in blue and white, olive and white and gold and white, also extra quality jute rugs in all sizes, and a big assortment of standard grade goods at greatly reduced prices.

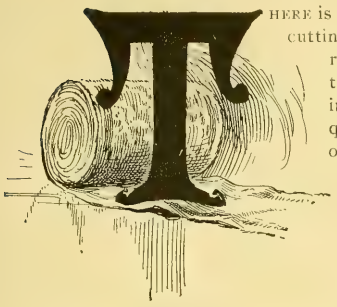
The Carpet and Upholstery Trade Review, April 1, 1896.

ETAIL PRICE CUTTING IN CINCINNATI.



HERE is doubtless more price cutting among the carpet retailers in Cincinnati than in any other city in the country. The quoting of a price by one house in the daily paper advertisements seems to be accepted as a challenge by some other house, which comes out next day with a "go you one better" announcement. The compliment is returned by a lower cut from the first house, and so on until the price gets down to actual cost or even below. The carpet trade has been noted for years for friendly feeling among competitors, but the trade of Cincinnati seems to be a woful exception. Our readers will remember the remarkable language used in the advertisements of two Cincinnati houses reproduced in these columns last fall. We are glad to know that such style of advertising has not been repeated, and we do not believe it is looked back to with pride by either of the houses. We believe one of the concerns sold 25,000 yards of Smith Taps at cost or even below cost. A stipulation with the purchaser was that all goods should be made and laid, and the name of the house was stamped in large letters on the back of every made-up carpet. This method was employed to prevent competing retailers from obtaining the goods.

During the latter part of February a Cincinnati firm advertised Roxbury Taps made and laid at 75 cents. Another house challenged this price with a 2½ cent cut, and in a few days both houses were quoting Roxburys made and laid at 55 cents. When one house is apparently tired of beating a competitor's advertised price, another takes it up, and so this unpleasant and unprofitable manner of doing business has continued through several years. F Palisade Taps made and laid at 44 cents and B Palisades at 53 cents were not long since advertised. It would seem a ripe time for some one to endeavor to form a combination among the Cincinnati carpet retailers or to start a carpet club. We don't think there is an actual vendetta among the carpet dealers in that town, but there is abundant room for a missionary to convert them to brotherly love, and re-establish values on a proper paying basis.

The imports of British carpeting into the United States for the two months ending February 29 amounted to 160,500 yards, valued at £26,893.

The Kidderminster Shuttle of the 14th ult. says that the carpet trade of Heckmondwike for February was better than usual in that month. Axminsters, Wiltons and best Brussels are advanced 2d. a yard and the lower Brussels 1d.

Geo. H. White, assignee of M. Lara & Co., Minneapolis, recently addressed a circular to the firm's creditors asking them for advice as to the best method of winding up its affairs. He said that the business was being run at a loss and that he could not obtain an offer of more than $9,000 for the entire assets. The liabilities amount to $32,000.

BALTIMORE BRIEFS.

BALTIMORE, MARCH 25.

Benjamin Schleisner, dealer in carpets and furniture, 307 East Baltimore street, made an assignment the 17th inst. to Martin Lehmeyer and Benjamin Rosenheim, trustees. The trustees gave bond for $15,000, indicating assets of half that amount. It is stated that the liabilities are about equal to the assets. The entire stock is now being closed out at trustee's sale under order of court.

Emanuel Hecht, of Samuel Hecht, Jr., & Sons, visited the North on business the 19th inst.

E. T. Raleigh, with the Goshen Sweeper Company, was booking orders in Baltimore and Washington the 18th inst.

J. Crawford Lyon, of Lyon Brothers & Co., arrived at Yokohama, Japan, the 16th inst. on the steamship Empress of China.

Goldsborough S. Griffith, of G. S. Griffith & Co., was elected president of the Maryland Sunday School Union at the annual meeting last week.

John Rupp, Hanover, Pa., and J. B. Cherry, of J. B. Cherry & Co., carpets and furniture, Greenville, N. C., were purchasing goods here last week.

Walter L. Denny, carpet and furniture dealer, has been elected a member of the board of governors of the South Baltimore Business Men's Association.

F. Caldwell has sold to Margaretta Beck, carpet and furniture dealer, the business property on the west side of Federal street, lot 28x66 feet, for $2,800.

The store of Jacob H. Gibson, Fairbank, Md., was recently destroyed by fire. There was only a small insurance on the property. Mr. Gibson will shortly rebuild.

J. C. Rousdale has opened in the general merchandise and carpeting business in the store on Russell street, Orangeburg, S. C., formerly occupied by W. M. Hughes.

The secretary of the Knoxville (Tenn.) Chamber of Commerce is in correspondence with a Pennsylvania firm that contemplates the removal of a woolen carpet mill to Knoxville.

The Commercial Company, Tampa, Fla., has been incorporated, with a capital stock of $10,000, to carry on the general merchandise and carpeting business. L. R. Thomas is president, S. J. Patterson secretary, and G. E. Ross business manager.

The Ducker & Bultmann Company, Sumter, S. C., have organized by electing a board of directors and officers. The company will conduct a general merchandise and carpeting business, and will be one of the largest firms in South Carolina. The following are the directors: A. N. Freeland, W. A. Brown, R. H. Baker, John T. Green, Jr., and J. W. Du Rant. The officers are: President, A. N. Freeland; vice-president, W. A. Brown; general manager, R. H. Baker.

Joseph Benesch & Son, instalment carpet and furniture dealers, on North Gay street, were declared insolvent by a jury in the Court of Common Pleas the 20th inst. upon the petition of Amon Green & Co. and Heckinger Brothers. Benesch & Son in November last made a deed of trust for the benefit of their creditors to Daniel Greenbaum, and a short time prior thereto, it appeared, had paid some creditors in part or in full. The court held that such payment while insolvent, even although innocently done, was sufficient to set aside the deed of trust, and put the parties into insolvency.

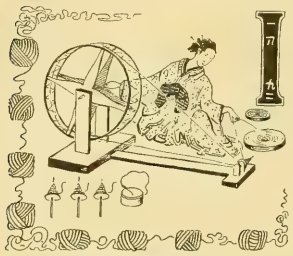
HOW TO MAKE RUGS FROM CARPET CLIPPINGS.



In several carpet stores throughout the West the writer came across rugs that look very much like a hit and miss or mottled Smyrna, but that were made from the cuttings and small pieces that accumulate in every carpet workroom. These rugs are said to be almost indestructible and are even attractive in appearance. They are made by cutting the carpeting into long strips about one-half inch wide and weaving this as a filling on hand looms between a close warp of heavy cotton or jute yarn. The heavy lay or swinging beam of the loom beats this filling tightly into place and throws out the colored wool yarns of the carpeting strips on both sides, forming a close, thick pile chenille. The process is not unlike that of making Smyrna rugs, the half inch strips of carpeting taking the place of the prepared fur in the Smyrna. In one factory the writer saw the women weavers drawing the filling strips through the warp yarns and placing it in position to receive the blow of the loom beam, thus doing away with a shuttle.

In Marshall Field & Co.'s wholesale department Manager Ames displayed a carpet about 10x12 feet of this character, made from the cuttings of their cut order workroom, and Manager Phillips, of Newcomb, Endicott & Co.'s department, Detroit, also shows some sightly looking, large sized rugs of the same description.

In Minneapolis, Minn., there is a factory that makes a specialty of weaving these rugs for the carpet dealers in that city and St. Paul. It is operated by H. H. Taylor, 617 Bryant avenue, North. Mr. Taylor takes the cuttings of the dealers and returns them a completed rug or carpet, as he can weave any size up to 12 feet wide.

Here is a suggestion for carpet dealers to use up fractional yard pieces of all grades of carpeting. You can ship these pieces to Mr. Taylor, and he will send back a rug that can be retailed for $1.50 or $1.75 per square yard, and that will be a novelty in your stock, as the supply will be obviously limited.

Why not send a line to H. H. Taylor to the address above given, and get his prices for weaving these rugs.

The rotary carpet cleaning machine made by F. H. Good, 942 and 944 North Ninth street, Philadelphia, will afford carpet and upholstery dealers an opportunity to add a most profitable branch to their business at little cost. Write to Mr. Good for particulars.

If one wishes to see the finest results possible in high-class carpet manufacture it is only necessary to call at the salesrooms of the Persian Rug Manufactory, northwest corner of Broadway and Twentieth street, New York. This concern makes to order all sizes of hand made rugs and chenille Axminster carpets in special designs and colorings, particularly adapted for the fine trade. There are always on view in the salesrooms a number of remarkably fine specimens of Axminster and Oriental weaves, which will well repay the inspection of anyone interested in high-class rugs and carpeting.

CHICAGO CARPET NOTES.

CHICAGO, MARCH 25, 1896.

Walter H. Judson, of T. B. Shoaff & Co., is in town renewing old acquaintance and looking into trade conditions.

M. J. Whittall, the well-known carpet manufacturer, is expected here in a few days.

Samuel White, of White & Spate, New York, is in town.

C. G. Pettibone, recently with the Philadelphia Carpet Company, is now with Frank Brothers.

W. E. Burgess, who represents the Ivins, Dietz & Metzger Company, was quite ill last week, but has fully recovered.

O. W. Richardson & Co. suffered a slight damage from smoke and water last night from a fire in a building adjoining them.

Fred G. Kohler, buyer for the Espenhain Dry Goods Company, Milwaukee, placed several orders for carpeting here this week.

W. H. Daley, representing Thos. Potter, Sons & Co., was here the middle of the month. He said he found the trade "spotty" on his way out. It had been good in some cities and especially poor in others.

C. A. Hoag, for eight years head cutter for O. W. Richardson, during that time managed to study medicine, recently resigned his position and went to practicing. John Rehoe succeeded him as head cutter.

Noes & Mooney, cut carpets, who began business February 1, report that they have obtained a number of good accounts, and that the outlook is encouraging. They occupy an entire floor at the corner of Market and Monroe streets.

Thomas Huston, of Thos. Huston & Co., proprietors of the Globe Mills, Philadelphia, has been in this city recently. Their account here is handled by Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co. He is in the West for ideas on styles, prices and trade generally.

R. H. H.

Exports of matting from Japan from January 1 to February 1 of the present year amounted to 37,070 rolls. In the same period of 1895 the exports were 14,786 rolls.

Jordan, Marsh & Co., Boston, are giving special attention to their extensive Oriental rug department, which is under the efficient management of B. L. McCallum and C. M. Dickerman.

Exports of carpeting and kindred goods during the past two weeks were as follows: Carpeting—Southampton, 132 bs., $4,112; Glasgow, 39 bs., $1,230; Antwerp, 31 bs., $921; Liverpool, 32 bs., $914; Brazil, 3 bs., $350; Rotterdam, 11 bs., $346; London, 10 bs., $300; Bremen, 12 bs., $398. Carpet Sweepers—London, 25 cs., $1,250; Antwerp, 10 cs., $145; British Australia, 5 cs., $73.

Herbert Plimpton, sole agent for the Kirkcaldy Linoleum Company's cork carpeting, shows the goods at his office, 100 Worth street, New York, and they will well repay imspection. Cork carpet is warm, soft, elastic and durable, in a word a model floor covering and one likely to find a great demand. Mr. Plimpton shows also new and highly attractive lines of linoleum and floor oil cloth, being agent for the celebrated goods of Shepherd & Beveridge, Kirkcaldy, as well as for the Kirkcaldy Linoleum Company.

BOSTON BUDGET.

BOSTON, MARCH 26.

The Lowell Manufacturing Company will shut down its Brussels department this week, and after that until further orders will run it every alternate week. The Ingrain department will be kept running steadily. The company is planning to build a new dye house, and is endeavoring to have the city release certain rights on land in order to allow it to do so.

Business is dull all over town in the carpet trade.

Walter Purinton, of Thos. O'Callaghan & Co., is on the sick list.

This week's visitors include J. M. Judson, representing a Philadelphia carpet mill.

A representative of J. H. Bishop, the animal skin rug manufacturer, has been here the past two days.

Herbert Plimpton, American agent of the Kirkcaldy Linoleum Company, was in Boston last week. He reports a growing trade here for the excellent floor coverings of this firm.

Mr. John Stetson's $600,000 new Hotel Savoy, on the site of the burned out Globe Theatre, opens its doors this week. All the carpets, upholstery and furniture were put in by R. H. White & Co.

The Plymouth Foundry Company, of Plymouth, a concern that has been in business many years, and has of late been interested more or less in carpet firms in this city, has failed. A meeting of creditors will be held next week.

John Hopewell, Jr., treasurer of the Sanford Manufacturing Company, is named as a delegate to the St. Louis National Republican Convention from the Eighth District. Mr. Hopewell is a man whose experience, tact and rare personal qualities give him commanding influence in any body of his fellow citizens. He is a successful manufacturer, accustomed to deal with large interests, and is thoroughly acquainted with the character and relations of the nation's industries.

FAILURE OF L. & H. BLUM.

Leon & H. Blum, dry goods jobbers, Galveston, Tex., assigned to B. Adone on the 24th ult. It is said that the liabilities are about $2,000,000, and the assets $2,500,000. No creditors are preferred. The immediate cause of the failure was bad collections, and the cause of bad collections was largely the speculation by interior merchants in cotton futures, such merchants paying their losses to brokers and failing to pay their jobbers.

The assignment filed gives the firm as Leon Blum and Sylvan Blum, of Galveston, and Hyman Blum, of New York. The firm was established in 1853 and has done a large business in Texas, Louisiana and Mexico. In addition to dry goods, for a number of years the firm has successfully engaged in the cotton factorage business and was also largely interested in lands throughout the State, as well as in many enterprises in Galveston. The firm maintained an office in New York in charge of Mr. Hyman Blum, as well as offices in Boston.

The Firth Carpet Mills, at West Cornwall, N. Y., are still closed. They employ about 500 hands, but because some of them were discharged about half of them left work and the mill then shut down.

IMPROVED JAPANESE RUGS.

On page 3 of the cover of this issue E. T. Mason & Co., the noted importers of Japanese and Chinese goods, have some interesting things to say regarding their offerings of Kairio rugs in delft blue and white, and bamboo portières, printed cotton crêpes, printed silks, and glass bead portières in blue and white. In these fashionable colorings Mason & Co. show an immense assortment of novel and attractive goods. Blue and white will be the correct thing for summer decorations, and the trade will find that Mason & Co. are thoroughly up to date in this as in all other departments of their extensive business. Their New York store is at 28 to 30 Greene street.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT ON CARPET LININGS.

On page 95 is an announcement from the R. T. Palmer Company regarding carpet linings and stair pads that will interest buyers. The Palmer Company say:

"We offer prices never before reached, with better terms and discounts. We believe we have facilities for supplying the entire market at a saving of 20 per cent. Before placing orders with others send for samples and quotations."

The Palmer Company are doubtless the largest manufacturers of bed comfortables in the country, and every handler of those goods knows the strong position they maintain in supplying comfortables at close prices.

They have been manufacturing carpet linings for over two years past and have every facility and resource for prosecuting the business. Their extensive works are located at New London, Conn., and an idea of their size can be gained from the illustration on page 95. Full particulars can be obtained by addressing the R. T. Palmer Company, 113 Worth street, New York.

STAIR PLATES, NOSINGS AND ENDS.

As manufacturers and jobbers of upholstery and carpet hardware, the Henry Reubel Company, 269 Canal street, New York, are entitled to the special attention of buyers. Among their most notable specialties is their line of zinc goods, such as stair plates, nosings and matting ends. They carry a big assortment of these goods and offer them at prices as low as any quoted on the market. Another prominent feature in their offerings is a straw matting exhibitor. This device has been greatly improved and strengthened of late, and is now perfect in every respect.

Write to the Henry Reubel Company for catalogue, prices, &c.

A Ferris wheel with Bissell sweepers as the cars was a recent attraction in the show window of Sterling, Welch & Co., Cleveland. When lighted with varicolored electric lights and revolving it was the window attraction of the city.

The Southern Railway—"Piedmont Air Line"—is now enjoying an unusually large excursion traffic between New York and Asheville, N. C., and New York and Hot Springs. The train service has been raised to a high plane of excellence, and excursion tickets are sold at reduced rates.

No. 25,258.

No. 25,256. Carpet Stretcher.—Harry M. Bridges, Ottumwa, Ia., assignor of one-half to William Klee, same place. Filed February 7, 1896. Term of patent, 7 years. Issued March 17, 1896.

Inventions.

No. 556,454. Carpet Stretcher.—Philip W. Berridge, Sturgis, Mich. Filed October 28, 1895. Issued March 18, 1896.

Patented in England.

No. 18,469. September 29, 1894. Linoleum.—J. Ingleby, 12 Bainbridge road, Headingley, Leeds. Issued February 26, 1896. Relates to machinery for making "through and through" linoleum.

No. 19,009. October 6, 1894. Floor Cloth.—W. Mather, Salford Iron Works, Manchester. Issued March 4, 1896.

Relates to the manufacture of mosaic or "through and through" floor cloth. The drum C, supported by rollers, C^8, at its ends and driven by suitable gearing, is divided by thin blades, c, Fig. 7, into spaces which form the pattern. In each space is a piston, c^1, normally held back by a spring surrounding the stem c^2. Colored material, B, is pressed by the roller C^1 against the drum, and all the spaces filled with it. As the drum revolves, cam bars, H^1, act on some of the stems c^2 and press out all the tesseræ of material which are not required to form the pattern. The material pressed out is removed by the blade C^4 and carried away by the worm conveyor C^7 for re-use. Material of a second color is forced by the roller C^2 into all the spaces in the drum, including those already filled by pieces of the previous color. The cam bars H^2 cause the portions not required to be extended, including those which overlie the previous color. When all the colors necessary to complete the pattern have been deposited on the drum, the cam H^4 causes the tesseræ to be transferred to the backing G. The backing is carried by chains, F, having projecting pins. The backing is stretched before reaching the drum C and, after the material has been deposited, is allowed to contract so that the tesseræ are moved closer together. To effect this stretching and subsequent contraction, the chains pass through diverging guides, F^4, and converging guides, F^5. The tesseræ are united to one another and to the backing by passing them between the drum D and rollers, D^1, D^2, D^3, D^4, which may be heated, and the completed fabric is dried, seasoned, &c. In the modification illustrated in Fig. 15. the tesseræ are punched from the sheets of material by blocks, c^4, on the rollers c^1, c^2. In this case the cam bars H^1, H^2 are dispensed with, only the cam H^4 being retained to deposit the tesseræ on the backing.

EDWARD MUEHSAM, the popular manufacturer of hassocks, ottomans, &c., is a man whose acquaintance should be sought by every buyer who wishes to be up to date in this line of trade. Mr. Muehsam has had a long experience as a manufacturer and has facilities which enable him to meet any competition as regards either quality or prices. He shows a big assortment of styles and his goods are exceptionally attractive as well as carefully made. Call at his factory, 127 West Broadway, New York.

SILVER SENATORS AND MANUFACTURERS.

THEIR MEETING AT WASHINGTON AND ITS RESULTS.

The conference held at Washington on the 19th ult. between certain "free silver" Republican senators and a number of Philadelphia manufacturers has naturally excited much comment and speculation in and out of the trade.

Among the manufacturers who attended the conference were several prominent members of the carpet and upholstery trades, namely: James Dobson, Joseph Bromley, Robert Dornan, Henry Holmes, Alexander Crow, James Pollock and Theodore R. Miller, and the presence of such representative men at the meeting was at first regarded as highly significant. There was evidently also a studied attempt to heighten this impression, the earlier accounts of the proceedings of the conference being so worded as to give the idea that all the manufacturers engaged in it were in favor of free silver, and anxious to grant any demand—even free coinage itself—if by such a concession the silver Senators could be induced to cast their votes for protection.

But it appeared later that the conference had been by no means so harmonious as had been at first represented, and that nearly all the manufacturers present were absolutely opposed to any alliance which would commit them in favor of the free coinage of silver.

Alexander Crow, Jr., who was one of the carpet manufacturers at the conference, in answer to the questions of a reporter for a Philadelphia paper, expressed himself as follows:

"We went to Washington," he said, "hardly knowing what to expect. We knew that the men who had asked us to come had the power to put a stop to tariff legislation at this session of Congress, and we hoped that by presenting our views as manufacturers we might be able to induce them to yield a little."

"You didn't go prepared to give allegiance to the free silver cause, then?"

"Not much," was Mr. Crow's emphatic reply. "If that had been one of the conditions of the trip, four-fifths of the party would have stayed at home. When the time for the conference came, Senators Teller, Cannon, Jones, Carter, Dubois and Mantle were present. They sailed right in without loss of time to tell us that we need expect no tariff legislation from this Congress unless silver legislation accompanied it. The gist of their talk was that we, as the largest manufacturers in the country, owed it to ourselves to use our influence toward securing support for a silver coinage measure, thereby gaining their help in putting through a tariff bill."

"Did the suggestion meet with approval?"

"Yes; from just four members of our party. James Dobson spoke in favor of it, as did Henry A. Frye, Richard Campion and Charles Heber Clark. They are all silver men, you know."

"Was there any opposition from your party?"

"I should say there was. Some pretty vigorous opposition, too. Let me see. There were thirteen in the Philadelphia delegation who spoke at the conference. The four I have mentioned favored the idea advanced by the silver Senators, and the remaining nine sat down upon it. Howland Croft was one who didn't mince matters. He told Senator Teller and his associates that their silver ideas deserved and should have no consideration, and characterized the proposition made to us as 'nonsense.' He concluded his talk by turning to Senator Teller and remarking, with added emphasis, 'I say to you, that you will get nothing.'

"The remainder of us, while just as emphatic, were perhaps not so vigorous in our language. I aroused Senator Teller's ire to a considerable extent by what I said, and the words of the others were sufficiently plain to leave no doubt in the minds of the Western statesmen that we were unalterably opposed to their views. Those who did not speak felt the same as those who did, and so expressed themselves after the conference was over."

One result of the conference was a special meeting of the Manufacturers' Club, of Philadelphia, which was held on Monday evening, the 30th ult., in response to a call signed by over 100 members. The meeting was largely attended, over 600 members being present, and resulted in an overwhelming victory for the opponents of free silver coinage, the following resolutions offered by Rudolph Blankenburg being adopted by a practically unanimous vote:

Resolved, That the Manufacturers' Club, speaking for its member, emphatically denounces as false the statement made by the friends of free silver and echoed by those of free trade, that our Philadelphia manufacturers are willing to barter with the silver Senators for the free coinage of silver in exchange for additional protection.

Resolved, That the question of bimetallism can be permanently settled only through an international agreement, and that the Manufacturers' Club declares its unalterable opposition to the free coinage of silver by the United States alone, firmly believing that such a policy will result in disaster at home and dishonor abroad, and would only operate to place this country upon the basis of silver monometallism.

HECHT & SONS WILL CONFINE THEMSELVES EXCLUSIVELY TO IMPORTING MATTING AND JOBBING CARPETING.

The large increase in the wholesale business of Samuel Hecht, Jr., & Sons, Baltimore, within the past few years has influenced them to retire from the retail trade and devote themselves exclusively to the jobbing and importing business. A cut order department will also be a feature. The firm intend to remove to a location better adapted for the jobbing trade, as soon as they have rented the premises at 310 West Lexington street, now occupied by them.

The firm have won the confidence of the dealers throughout the country by their prompt, energetic and straightforward way of doing business, and while comparatively new in the importing matting trade they now rank among the largest importing houses in the country, and are showing a line of goods second to none as regards patterns and prices. Their deliveries have been exceedingly prompt, considering the difficulties met with this season in unloading and delivering goods from New York, and for the season of 1897 they will have their own fleet of vessels sailing direct to Baltimore, thereby greatly facilitating their shipments and securing also a large saving in Southern and Western freights.

The Messrs. Hecht are also very extensive jobbers in carpeting, oil cloths, linoleums and rugs of all grades. Their lines are shown on the road by sixteen salesmen, who cover the country from the Atlantic Ocean to the Missouri River and the British possessions to the Gulf of Mexico. Buyers who visit the market will find it well worth while to call on the Messrs. Hecht.

For the spring trade the Bissell Carpet Company will repeat their special offer to give thirteen carpet sweepers for every dozen. This very liberal offer does not apply to any sweeper listing at less than $24 a dozen. All the company's high grade goods listed at $24 a dozen and over will be furnished for the spring trade in the following popular varieties of finish: Antique oak, natural oak, sixteenth century oak, English oak, sycamore and birch. A few of the famous vermilion wood sweepers are left, and while they last at least one of these will be included in every dozen. See the Bissell Company's advertisement on page 94 of this issue.

A PROSPEROUS NEWARK FIRM.

W. V. Snyder & Co., Broad and Cedar streets, Newark, N. J., intend to enlarge the spacious store now occupied by them, and we present herewith a view of the new building to be added. It will have four stories and will add 33 feet to the front of the firm's store, making altogether a frontage of 80 feet on Broad street. The building now occupied by Snyder & Co. runs back 250 feet on Cedar street, taking in also an L at the rear 60x80 feet and another building used for manufacturing.

The business of the firm was established forty years ago and has grown to very extensive proportions. The store ranks now among the largest department establishments in New Jersey. The carpet, upholstery and furniture departments are especially conspicuous features of the establishment. The completion of the new building will enable the firm to give much more space to the upholstery department, which now occupies the third floor. The carpet, rug and furniture departments will be removed to the new building, where they will have accommodations in keeping with the extensive business transacted by the firm in these lines.

SELLING AGENTS FOR HODGES FIBER CARPETS.

Sperry & Beale, 81 White street, New York, have become selling agents for the Hodges Fiber Carpet Company, and are showing their full line of carpets and rugs. Carpet dealers are realizing that the Hodges fiber carpets abound in merits and selling qualities, as the great increase in the list of customers shows. The move in placing the goods in the hands of a New York selling agent is a wise one, and must result in bringing them before the trade more prominently than before. The Boston headquarters and store at 50 Essex street are continued, Frank F. Hodges, the treasurer and founder of the company, giving it his entire attention as heretofore.

The Sweeperette Company, of Grand Rapids, are making a child's carpet sweeper as a regular part of their line.

Elsewhere A. A. Vantine & Co. announce that their Oriental rug buyers have returned from the East, and that their stock of Turkish, Persian and India rugs and carpets is larger, finer and better assorted than ever before.

The matting exhibitor and the oil cloth exhibitor manufactured by the Henry Reubel Company are two useful fixtures in any carpet store. Both are labor and space saving devices, and the cost is nominal. Write to the Henry Reubel Company, 269 Canal street, New York, about them.

THE ADVENT OF LOW PRICE LINOLEUM.

Referring to linoleum prices recently J. Crawford Lyon, of Lyon Brothers & Co., Baltimore, the importers and shipping merchants, said :

"In the history of linoleum floor cloth production it is claimed for the Lancaster (English) make, so widely distributed in this country during the past ten years by Lyon Brothers & Co., that the management of this large and important mill was the first to furnish the best quality of pulverized cork, oxidized linseed oil, and print colors on a standard jute foundation, known to the trade as 'linoleum,' at a cost far below the higher prices demanded by all other makers at the time this now noted brand made its appearance.

"It was made a feature of this product from the start, that precisely the same highest grade materials should appear in all their thicknesses known as Super B, C, D and E.

"Thickness—consequently weight and price—is the only difference. Print and foundation fabric are uniform.

"In these and in many other respects, including the very important one of price, Lancaster linoleum is entitled to consideration by those looking for the best at the lowest price."

CUT WILTONS.

It must be admitted by anyone who comes in contact with retail carpet dealers that the selling of Wiltons from samples and buying cut quantities is a growing attraction. It doesn't follow that a dealer need give up the carrying of any Wilton stock in the roll, for if desired he can work his stock and cut order business together harmoniously, while to those dealers who do not wish to invest any capital in stock the plan offers an opportunity to retail Wiltons and profit thereby, whereas otherwise they could not show Wiltons at all. The J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company, of St. Louis, are located very advantageously to supply cut Wiltons, and it will be wise to send for the samples that represent stock always on hand in their new cut Wilton department.

It is stated that the carpet mills at Worcester, Mass., are not only running full time, but with the prospect that they will so continue through the season.

The Inter-State Casualty Company, of which Geo. E. Hamlin is president, continues to increase its clientèle among the carpet and upholstery men with whom Mr. Hamlin was so widely known and respected for many years. Almost every gentleman prominent in the business holds a policy.

M. H. Marcus & Brother, manufacturers of the patent round nose "Adjustable" stair pad, are very much gratified at the constant addition of leading houses to their list of customers. They point to these new accounts as convincing proof of the quality, utility and unbeaten value of their pads, for these houses have decided to handle the goods as the result of deliberate and careful consideration and test of the "Adjustable" pads. Marcus & Brother will be pleased to submit samples and prices on application, and invite the closest comparison of quality, adaptability and price with and other pads on the market. Their factory and office are at 154 West Twenty-seventh street, New York.

THE BARBOUR CARPET THREADS.

THE handsome colored insert in this issue relating to the Barbour Brothers Company's offering in carpet threads is in full keeping with the high-class character of the company's products, which are known wherever sewn carpets are used as the best threads ever made for hand or machine sewing. In carpet threads for machine sewing strength, lustre and finish are the essential qualities, and all these are found in the Barbour thread, which also feeds easily and without knots. Being made of the best grade of flax, these threads are invariably even and strong.

The Barbour threads are the result of 112 years' experience in this line of manufacture. During this time the company's plant has grown to immense proportions. Its factories at Lisburn, Ireland; Paterson, N. J.; Ottensen, Germany, employ 5,000 hands and are equipped with special machinery and exclusive facilities possessed by no other thread manufacturing concern in the world.

The company's New York store is at 218 Church street, and its Philadelphia salesroom is at 400 Arch street. It has also distributing depots at Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati and San Francisco.

THE BURLINGTON CARPET COMPANY'S BONDS.

THE Burlington Carpet Company, with factories at Mt. Holly and Stanwick, N. J., about a year ago issued 400 $1,000 bonds and gave to the Camden Safe Deposit Trust Company a mortgage to secure them. W. & J. Sloane, of New York, took $335,000 of the bonds, and the Mt. Holly Bank took $65,000 worth. Some time after that the unsecured creditors of the carpet company had it declared insolvent. Judge Joseph H. Gaskill, of Mt. Holly, was appointed receiver. He sold the company's two factories to W. & J. Sloane. At the same time he declared the mortgage which had been given to the Camden Safe Deposit and Trust Company invalid. But Vice-Chancellor Emery, at Jersey City on the 24th ult., ruled that the mortgage was valid, and that the issue of bonds was perfectly legal. This leaves W. & J. Sloane in possession of the property.

T. JEFFREY & CO.'s carpet and furniture stock, Minneapolis, Minn., was damaged to the extent of from $25,000 to $30,000 by fire on the 28th ult. Insurance on stock, $37,500; on fixtures, $1,250.

LOVEMAN, JOSEPH & LOEB, Birmingham, Ala., have a big lot of short lengths of carpet which they will dispose of very cheap. The goods are in ¼, ⅜, ½, ¾ and 1 yard lengths, suitable for hassock or blackboard eraser manufacturers.

THE "Ajaxena" carpeting is a new product now being manufactured by E. H. Berg, whose factory is at Baudinot and Somerset streets, Philadelphia. The "Ajaxena" has a rag filling covered almost entirely by colored warp yarns, and is made in figured patterns produced by the warp threads. It is heavy and durable, and sells to the trade in yard widths at 35 cents. Mr. Berg will send samples on application.

FLORIDA NOTES.

THERE is a great deal of carpeting sold at Jacksonville. It is the distributing point for the entire State. And the hotel consumption of carpetings and draperies in this city alone is no small item. There are four first-class houses here which deal in carpets, besides a half dozen smaller places that handle mattings, &c.

The furniture and carpet house of E. F. Clark would do honor to any city, and reminds one of the Brooklyn Furniture Company. The Cleveland Furniture Company does a big business. And H. E. Clark has a whack, too, at many of the hotels. But the house that is to Jacksonville what W. & J. Sloane's is to New York is Kohn, Furchgott & Co., an old firm of twenty years' standing. They had the contract for the entire new custom house here, have just finished the custom house at Fernandina, and are now doing work at Key West for the United States Government.

To show you that Jacksonville prices must be as low as even New York's, the Furchgott people have just furnished for the Flagler people carpeting for a lot of Pullman cars. Since Leopold Furchgott has bought out the entire interests of the old concern new life and enterprise are in evidence on all sides.

Hugh Bowes & Co., the Liverpool, England, wool brokers, in a letter dated the 12th ult., say:

> The general position of the wool market remains satisfactory and a large consumption is going on, while values for almost all descriptions are well maintained on the basis of recent rates. At the auctions of colonial wools now in progress at London an advance has been established—compared with January—of fully 10 per cent. in merino descriptions, all other kinds selling freely at unchanged prices.
> For the auctions of East Indian wool to open here on the 16th inst., 25,950 bales have been declared, this quantity, including 23,750 bales of new arrivals and 1,600 bales withdrawn from last auctions. It is not expected that any change in prices will be shown as against January level, as consumers are well employed and but lightly stocked, and in addition to this good support is looked for from both American and Continental users.

THOMAS L. LEEDOM & CO. have every reason to be satisfied with their business to date. They showed a remarkably fine line of carpeting for the spring trade, and buyers have evidently appreciated this fact promptly and liberally. Mr. Thomas, of the firm, has been kept very busy at the New York salesroom, where a stock is always carried for immediate delivery.

AROUND AND ABOUT.

Capt. John L. Brewer, the world famous pigeon shot, is in jail, charged with selling mortgaged property. Several years ago he settled in Bridgeton, N. J., and after stating to John McPherson, the carpet and furniture dealer, that he had bought a house for cash, had it furnished at a cost of $800, promising to pay cash. When the money was demanded none was forthcoming, and when McPherson asked for a chattel mortgage it was found that everything was covered by a $2,000 mortgage held by J. W. Westcott, of Camden. Brewer explained that if he could borrow $600 he could get an assignment of this claim, and would go on raising pigeons, by which he could soon settle his indebtedness. McPherson loaned him the money. Soon after the great pigeon shot sold off his goods and left the State. The Westcott mortgage was found to be of no value, and McPherson is out both the amount of the sale and the loan.

In one case at least the high building craze in New York has compelled the removal of a house prominent in the carpet business and has caused changes in the arrangement of another. But no one has yet sued for damages on this ground. In Paris, on the other hand, an advertising agent who painted the front of his building a brilliant scarlet has been sued by a milliner, a jeweler and a silk merchant having stores opposite, on the ground that the reflection of color makes it impossible for their customers to distinguish the colors of the goods they wish to buy.

A few weeks ago a fashionably dressed woman drove up in a stylish carriage before a large New York dry goods establishment, and, entering it, selected a seal wrap at $300, tendering in payment a check for $1,000 drawn on an uptown bank. The customer was detained while a boy was sent to the bank to ascertain the genuineness of the check, and became highly indignant when she learned the cause of the delay. In fact, on the boy's return she demanded her check back, and left the store saying she would purchase elsewhere. Fifteen minutes later, however, she returned, expressing regret for her impatience, and, tendering the check said she would take the wrap. The garment was accordingly placed in the carriage and the customer departed, carrying her change of $700 with her. When the check, was again presented at the bank it was found that immediately after the boy's first visit to the bank the $1,000 which the woman had on special deposit had been withdrawn and there was no balance with which to meet the check.

"I know of no business in which so much useless advertising is paid for as in the retail carpet trade, and feel certain if some person could suggest a remedy for this evil he would not only receive thanks from the trade at large, but a pecuniary reward also," says T. J. Ryley, of Sheppard Knapp & Co., in Fame. "By this I do not mean the legitimate advertising used in the daily papers and magazines. But the retail carpet seller seems especially at the mercy of all sorts and conditions of advertising solicitors, upon whom he is compelled to waste valuable time and money in fear lest by passing one by he may offend some one, and thus hurt his business, for he has only about two months' trade in the spring and three of fall in which to do enough trade to pay rent, salaries and expenses for the year. First and foremost are the church people. No matter what their denomination, they drop in with the modest request that he take the front page of their concert programme. The price ranges from $5 to $25, according to where the church is located. The favorite story is the congregation will see it and be duly impressed, and of course purchase from him. It makes no difference to the solicitor, male or female, that the church is situated in a little town probably 100 miles from New York, and that a carpet would be a luxury unheard of by the majority of the townfolks. We are expected to give up, and, alas! have not the courage to refuse, although knowing perfectly well we will never get any return for the outlay. 'We cast our bread upon the water,' so to speak, but it fails to 'return after many days.'

"Next in line is the college youth—he of the blanket necktie and patronizing air—(who has a programme or graduating list of his college), who tells you all you know, and an extraordinary amount which you do not know, about advertising, until you begin to believe this knowing (?) youth has mistaken his head covering for his larynx. (And right here I should like to state that personally I have never heard of a carpet being sold through these mediums.) Still you purchase a space at $2 to $25 for the pleasure of having him think you are not wholly an ass, and heave a sigh of relief as he takes his departure. Then there is the gentleman with the Milesian cast of countenance, from the extreme east or west side of town, who has a journal of a 'Social Club Ball,' and addresses you thusly: 'Say, mister, won't you take a space in dis journal? It's a dead winner, and only $3.' You know from long experience its defunct qualities, but take a space, hoping, by some unexplained miracle, you may obtain an order, but your hope is never realized. I will not enumerate all the other types, but there are plenty, and every carpet dealer has met them to his sorrow."

William B. Kendall, of the Bigelow Carpet Company, will return from his California trip this week.

The Callender, McAuslan & Troup Company and the Anthony, Cowell Company, Providence, R. I., have added Taft electric sewing machines to their workrooms. They have had the Taft hand machines heretofore.

Jordan, Marsh & Co. have placed one of the new Taft tandem electric sewing machines in their workroom. They have used the Taft hand machine for the past year and are well pleased with it.

Chadurjian Brothers, manufacturers and importers of Oriental rugs, carpets and portières, have on view at their New York salesroom, 369 Broadway, a big assortment of grades, sizes and patterns in these goods. They are constantly receiving shipments from their Constantinople house, and are in a position to strongly interest any buyer. They make a specialty of Bagdad portières, keeping a large line always on hand. Mr. N. B. Chadurjian, the resident partner of the firm in New York, gives his personal attention to visitors at the Broadway salesroom.

THE UPHOLSTERY MARKET.

BUSINESS has been quiet throughout the fortnight just ending. The travelers, who ordinarily would all have been off on their second spring trips two weeks ago, have been held back by reports of delayed trade, and have just left or are on the point of leaving. Reports from the other side say that English makers of heavy, high priced goods are very busy, while the French manufacturers are eager for orders. Things at Nottingham are dull, but manufacturers who supply Continental curtain makers with nets find difficulty in filling their orders.

RUDOLPH DEIMEL, of the old firm of Deimel Brothers, Chicago, who failed five years ago, was on the 13th ult. taken to the jail at Joliet, Ill., where he will reside for the next six months. Julius Stroheim's Son, of this city, will pay his board at the rate of 40 cents a day. On his failure to pay their judgment for $8,500 he might have been imprisoned without day, but at the end of six months he can secure his release on an application in insolvency. Mr. Stroheim also proposes to pay the same board for Joseph Deimel as soon as he surrenders himself. There has never been a case in the mercantile history of this country where punishment was more richly deserved, and Mr. Stroheim is entitled to the thanks of his fellow merchants for his persistent and expensive pursuit of the Deimels, even to the United States Supreme Court.

The French merchants of this city have decided to organize a French chamber of commerce to promote and facilitate commercial intercourse between France and this country. The number of members is limited, but it is intended that every branch of trade engaged in by French merchants here shall be represented.

TAMBOURED SHAMS, SASH CURTAINS, &C.—In the case of Lahey & Duncan against the collector at New York, the Board of General Appraisers decided as follows :

The merchandise here in question consists :

(1) Of pillow shams, bedspreads, bureau sets, toilet sets and tidies, consisting of a foundation of lace, net or other fabric, composed of cotton or other vegetable fibre, with ornamental figures tamboured thereon.

(2) Of cotton cambric, muslin and net or netting in pieces, with ornamental figures tamboured thereon, the same being designed for use as sash curtains or sash curtain material.

(3) Of scalloped edgings and insertings having a cotton lace net foundation and cotton appliqué tamboured, being intended and adapted for use as parts of window curtains or similar articles.

The merchandise was assessed for duty at 60 per cent. ad valorem under the provision in paragraph 373, act of October 1, 1890, for "lace window curtains and other similar tamboured articles," and is claimed by the protestants to be dutiable at 40 per cent. ad valorem under paragraph 355, or otherwise under paragraphs 344 to 348 inclusive of said act at the rates therein provided, according to count of threads, value, &c.

The board held in G. A. 2,303 (following G. A. 469) that merchandise of the same general character as that here in question was dutiable at the rates assessed in these cases.

This decision was affirmed by the United States Circuit Court for the Southern District of New York, and recently by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, in the case of Lahey & Duncan v. the United States.

The protests are accordingly overruled on all grounds and the collector's decision affirmed in each case.

Exports of shade rollers during the past two weeks were as follows : Hamburg, 155 cs., $900 ; British Australia, 24 cs., $497 ; Liverpool, 19 cs., $376.

AMONG the buyers in town during the past two weeks were : Messrs. Russell Maxwell, for R. B. Maxwell, Mansfield, Ohio ; Charles Trankla, of Trankla, Jamieson & Co., Grand Rapids, Mich. ; J. R. Johnston, of Elder & Johnston, Dayton, Ohio ; H. Koesting, of Koesting & Myers, Newark, Ohio ; A. B. Lovejoy, for John Wanamaker, Philadelphia; A. H. Dean, for Haskell & Tripp, New Bedford, Mass.; E. S. Brown, of E. S. Brown & Co., Fall River, Mass.; J. P. Johnston, of Johnston & Shurts, New London, Conn.; George J. Carter, for R. H. White & Co., Boston; C. W. Patterson, of J. S. Patterson & Sons, Findlay, Ohio; Nixon Moore, of Goldsmith, Moore & Co., Lynn, Mass.; E. W. Matthews, for the John Gilbert Dry Goods Company, Evansville, Ind.; Morris Benson, of the Adam, Meldrum & Anderson Company, Buffalo, N. Y.; J. W. Penny, for Hunter, Glenn & Hunter, Detroit; W. B. Bradford, of Hulse, Bradford & Co., San Francisco; C. W. Dittman, of Harbour & Dittman, Wheeling, W. Va.; Charles Sterns, of C. Sterns & Co., Rutland, Vt.; F. W. Wurzburg, Grand Rapids, Mich.; C. A. Winsor, for the Hartwell, Richards Company, Providence, R. I.; S. Stein of the S. G. & P. Stein Furniture Company, Muscatine, Ia.; H. B. Strong, of Brown, Thomson & Co., Hartford, Conn.; C. H. Demson, for the Saginaw (Mich.) Dry Goods and Carpet Co.

Trimmings for Curtains.—In the case of C. E. Leach against the collector at New York the Board of General Appraisers decided as follows:

The merchandise in this case consists of pieces of white cotton cloth designed for use in trimming curtains.

It was assessed at 60 per cent. ad valorem, under paragraph 373 of the act of October 1, 1890, but claimed to be entitled to entry at 40 per cent ad valorem, under paragraph 355 of said act.

Paragragh 373 provides for "cotton trimmings," eo nomine, and the testimony of appellant's witness shows that the goods in question are chiefly used as trimmings for curtains.

Protest overruled.

THE HAND MADE SHADE MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION.

The quarterly meeting of the Association of Hand Made Shade Cloth Manufacturers will be held at the association's office in New York on the 13th inst. Every member should positively be present, as the meeting will doubtless discuss important changes in the association's operation and rules for the fall season. After a thorough canvass of the manufacturers the writer can say that there is no dissenting voice among them as to the benefits and even necessity of such an organization. We do not mean that every manufacturer is fully satisfied with his experience, but he has felt its benefits sufficiently to know that with some alterations in its code of prices and rules, and the eradication of some evils that experience has developed, the association can be made a satisfactory institution to every one of its members and to the buying trade as well.

George Snavely has opened a window shade store at 530 Manor street, Columbia, Pa.

The American Bedstead Company, of Westborough, Mass., carry a full line of their enameled steel beds in stock at their New York store, 260 Canal street, which is in charge of Will R. Pitman.

Marsh, Ayres & Co., who have been located at 141 East Front street, Plainfield, N. J., for some years past, have rented the store on Park avenue formerly occupied by G. Q. Packer, the furniture dealer, and will make extensive additions to their stock, which will consist of fabrics for decorations in Cario lattice, yacht canvas and plain, tinted and figured burlaps.

FIRST LESSON IN BUSINESS.

(From Harper's Weekly.)

"Now, my son," said the old merchant, "while you are applying yourself to the details of this business, learning how to buy and how to sell, how to gauge the taste and needs of the great public, how to avoid mistakes, how to seize opportunities—while you study these things keep always before you the fact that the basis of all true business success is absolute, uncompromising honesty."

"Father," said the young man, "your business has always been one of large sales and small profits, has it not?"

"You know what I advertise, my son; I buy everything directly from the manufacturer and I sell to the consumer at exactly 7½ per cent. advance from cost. Such a business I believe to be as beneficial to the public as any philanthropic institution. The people should purchase the necessaries of life at a margin above the first cost sufficient only to pay for the actual handling of the goods. That is a fixed principle of mine."

"But," said the boy, in a puzzled, hesitating way, "you had an invoice of lace curtains to-day at $3 a pair, and I heard you give instructions to mark them $4.69."

The old man leaned back in his leather cushioned swivel chair, smiled blandly and told the boy to take pencil and paper.

"The expenses of this business last year," he said, "were 10 per cent. of the sales. Add 10 per cent. to your $3."

"Three thirty."

"There is always possible a shrinkage in value of stock, always a percentage of bad debts, always a hazard of unforeseen contingencies. Add 10 per cent more."

"Three sixty-three."

"Do you know how much it costs your father to maintain himself and his family? Have you any idea of the expense of educating and dressing three boys and three girls, paying their way in society, providing them and their mother with a country home and a city home, with servants and carriages and everything they desire?"

"I am afraid I have no idea, father."

"Well, it's simply frightful. It is, in fact, 20 per cent. of the entire sales of the house. Add 20 per cent. Never mind fractions."

"Four thirty-six."

"There. You have arrived, by a process clear and open as day, and by the use of simple business rules, at the cost of those curtains billed at $3. Now add 7½ per cent. profit."

"Four sixty-nine."

"That's what I'm going to advertise them at; and you will see a great run on them to-morrow, for the public has learned that all my announcements are absolutely reliable."

THE WEMPLE COMPANY ARE MAKING MACHINE OIL OPAQUES.

The Jay C. Wemple Company have just put on the market a line of machine made oil opaque shadings, manufactured in their own factory in Brooklyn, N. Y. The company have been perfecting their machine for some time past, and in their offering of the "Liberty" opaques, as the goods have been named, present a shade cloth that they are prepared to compare with any other machine product of the market. The quality and finish of the Liberty oil opaques are first class, and they are made in widths from 38 to 45 inches, inclusive. Send for their sample books and prices.

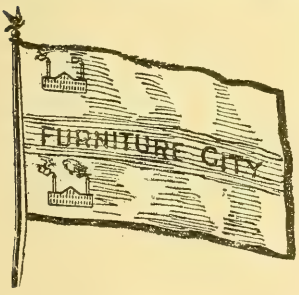
C. W. LAWRENCE RESIGNS.

Charles W. Lawrence, treasurer and manager of the Gould-Mersereau Company, resigned his office and position in that company on the 28th ult., to take effect immediately. What Mr. Lawrence's future plans are we cannot positively state as we go to press, but the trade can rely on finding him shortly in a new connection in the upholstery and carpet hardware and brass goods business, doubtless in business on his own account.

Mr. Lawrence has been the treasurer and manager of the Gould-Mersereau Company and its predecessor, the Robert S. Gould Company, since the formation of the latter in December, 1887, and his first connection with Robert S. Gould dates back to 1884. Mr. Lawrence is widely and favorably known to the buyers of brass goods throughout the country, and deserves a liberal patronage in his new departure, which will be announced in our next issue.

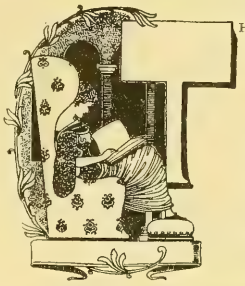
The extensive importing house of E. T. Mason & Co., 28 and 30 Greene street, New York, are offering very large and attractive lines of bamboo portières, printed cotton crepes, glass bead portières and printed silk in blue and white. Blue and white is the correct thing for summer decorations, and dealers will find that in these blue and white portières, crepes and silks they will have quick sellers beyond a doubt.

Grand Rapids has adopted the accompanying design for a municipal flag from 600 suggestions offered a citizens' committee appointed for the purpose. It is to be used by the people of the town for banners and badges. The cuts of the factories are in gold and on a red background; through the centre is a strip of blue upon which are the words "Furniture City" in gold. The rest of the flag is white, with a fringe of gold.



The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Keystone Shade Roller Company will be held at the office of the corporation in Saginaw, Mich., April 6, for the election of directors and such other business as may come before the meeting.

THE BIG WINDOW SHADE SELLING AGENCY.



The store of the new Columbia Shade Cloth Company, 22–24 Lafayette place, New York, is being rapidly placed in shape for the official opening of the company's business on May 1. It is in a new building with a frontage of 50 feet and a depth of 200 feet, and has been fitted up with all modern conveniences and in a manner becoming the importance of the company in the shade business. The concern will be managed by an executive board, composed of Charles Tremain, of the Minetto Company, J. C. Perkins, of the Meriden Company, and T. D. McChesney, of the Opaque Company, and these gentlemen will make their headquarters at the Lafayette place store and have full charge of the conduct of the business.

The Columbia Shade Cloth Company is not a consolidation of the Minetto, Meriden and Opaque companies as far as their factory plants are concerned. Each of the three companies retains its identity in the operation of its plant, but the Columbia Shade Cloth Company will be the sole selling agents of the entire window shade products of the three concerns, will bill all goods and conduct the selling organization. The new company will also have a branch store in Chicago, as on May 1 the Chicago store of the Minetto Company, at 285 Madison street, will pass into their control. This will be the case likewise with the Philadelphia store of the Meriden Company, at 1006 Filbert street, which from May 1 will be the Philadelphia branch of the Columbia Company. The present New York store of the Meriden Company, at 343 Canal street, will be discontinued, as also the New York office of the Minetto Company at 111 Franklin street. The managers of the branch establishments and the force of salesmen have not yet been decided upon, but will be announced in our next issue.

The Columbia Company is in no sense a trust, because each of the three manufacturing concerns represented by it retains control of its plants. Obviously, however, its organization will result in stable prices, and the three companies will benefit by the greatly reduced expenses of selling their product, as one selling organization will take the place of the former three separate distributing forces.

For the benefit of those who are unacquainted with the location of Lafayette place in New York, we will say that the store of the Columbia Shade Cloth Company is just as convenient of access as if it were immediately upon Broadway. Lafayette place is a short street running from East Third street to Astor place, or Eighth street, and is only half a block east of Broadway. It runs parallel with the numbers 700 on Broadway and is only a stone's throw from the Broadway Central Hotel, not far from Grace Church and the big Stewart store now operated by Hilton, Hughes & Co. To reach the store of the Columbia Shade Cloth Company leave Broadway at East Fourth street or Astor place and you are within 200 feet of Lafayette place. The new company will show benefits to the buyers of their goods as well as to themselves under the new selling arrangements.

Thomas H. Watson, head of Mills & Gibb's upholstery department, sailed for Europe March 28.

Illustrations of the new brackets that, combined with a pole or slat, form the "Curvelette" curtain pole referred to in our last issue are given in our Patent column elsewhere. Patents on these brackets have been granted to C. W. Smith, of the Ed. Roos Manufacturing Company, Chicago.

The new addition to the store of Altman & Co., Sixth avenue, Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets, New York, will make that establishment one of the largest of its kind in the country. The new building will have a frontage of 150 feet on Sixth avenue, 300 feet on Nineteenth street, 275 feet on Eighteenth and a width of 184 feet through between the streets. The present commodious quarters are 150x184x125, and four stories in height. The new addition is being constructed of granite and Lake Superior sandstone, and is fireproof throughout. The total floor space in the completed building will be 318,000 square feet. The capacity of every department will be trebled, and 3,500 people will be employed.

GREAT COMPLIMENT TO CHOUAGUEN OPAQUES.

The estimation in which Chouaguen oil opaque shadings are held by one retail house is demonstrated in the statements made by the Fisher-Eaton Company, of Toledo, Ohio, in one of their recent advertisements in the Toledo Daily News. These statements are reproduced on page 78. In them they say: "We never yet have had a complaint about our Chouaguen shades. They won't fade. They always work, and we do not hesitate to guarantee every one of them. If you want your shades to look like the old fury next summer then we advise you to buy the cheap oil shades; but if you want shades that the sun cannot phase and that will always look the same then pay 5 cents a shade more and get the best shade cloth, and that is the Chouaguen. That is our kind; that is the only kind of oil shades that we keep."

It is well worth the time of every dealer in window shades to carefully read this announcement, for they can doubtless obtain points to use advantageously in selling their own stock of Chouaguens. The statements are sincere and the result of the actual experience of the Fisher-Eaton Company.

Statements appear from time to time as to the improvements in the quality and finish of Chouaguens, and it may appear strange that opportunities can be found for such improvement in the manufacture of such staple goods. The writer, however, recently visited the factory of the Oswego Company at Oswego, N. Y., and was personally shown some of the methods employed for these improvements, which methods were a great revelation to him, and would certainly surprise anyone outside of the Oswego Company's establishment. If anyone doubts the improvement in the evenness of finish and smoothness of Chouaguen goods let him compare a piece of fresh goods with any made by the Oswego Company six months ago and the difference will be at once noticeable. Dealers who do not care to handle Chouaguens by the piece can always obtain them in mounted shades from the wholesale window shade and upholstery jobbers.

The stock of J. M. Bostwick & Sons, Janesville, Wis., was considerably damaged by fire and water on the 12th ult.

The upholstery department of Voigt, Herpolsheimer & Co., Grand Rapids, Mich., is in charge of W. F. Fiebig. A new feature this season is a line of grilles and screens, and the window shade business is reported as especially satisfactory.

Arthur G. Graham, Grand Rapids, Mich., who makes a specialty of wholesaling upholsterers' supplies, personally visited the trade in New York and Pennsylvania in February, and will shortly make a trip to Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

William Hunter, 874 Broadway, New York, the agent for Alex. Morton & Co., has also become American agent for Newman, Smith & Newman, the large English manufacturers of cretonnes and art muslins. He is now showing their full line of samples.

A RETAIL OPENING.

The spring opening in Wm. Donaldson & Co.'s upholstery department, Minneapolis, occurred on the 25th ult. Manager Bonney exerted himself to make a handsome and unique showing, and succeeded to a marked degree. Each window in the "Glass Block" in his department was fitted with lace curtains and light draperies, with a different idea in draping for every window, just as the draping would be done for a residence. A show window on the street floor was arranged as a chamber, with the latest ideas in furniture, draperies, wall hangings and decorations. Mr. Bonney's spring selections in all grades of curtains, draperies and upholstery yard goods were displayed conspicuously around the department, and a Turkish cosey corner was an attractive feature. The floor space of 40x160 feet is divided off very effectively into separate show sections for the different kinds of goods. Mr. Bonney reports their January and February business as an increase over last year.

A window shade salesman is wanted for the Western and Pacific Coast trade. See our "Want" ads.

The Columbia Shade Cloth Company have taken possession of their salesrooms and offices at 22 and 24 Lafayette place, this city.

A lace curtain traveler who is open for a new position can be seen or communicated with by addressing J. M. C., care of The Review.

The New York office of the Scruggs, Vandervoort & Barney Dry Goods Company, St. Louis, has been removed from Mercer street to the Silk Exchange Building, 487 Broadway.

Schroth & Potter, Columbus, Ohio, inform us that they will want three or four good window shade salesmen after May 1, as they intend to cover their territory more thoroughly and systematically.

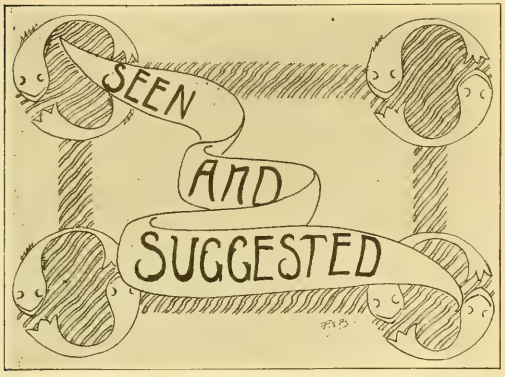
Manix, Dresser & Ahrens, 45 Lispenard street, have been appointed resident buyers in New York for Seilbach, McLaren, Sweeney & Co., who recently started in the general dry goods business at Buffalo, N. Y.

F. P. Bhumgara & Co., 524 Broadway, find the enlargement of their warerooms has tended to increase their business through the additional facilities for displaying their goods. The floor certainly presents a very attractive sight.

The Karcher & Rhen Company, furniture and upholstery, Sixteenth and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia, is making extensive alterations in the front of its store. Among other improvements will be a furnished showroom in the Gothic style.

A good side line for window shade or upholstery travelers is Sundberg's new adjustable and reversible window shade bracket. Territory can be obtained by applying to John Sundberg, 50 Granger street, Buffalo, N. Y., or Francis McFarlan, 56 Worth street, New York.

The Hayden Furniture Company, of Rochester, N. Y. are opening an upholstery department. Oliver G. Davis is the head man in the department and Mr. Frear is the general manager. Mr. Davis was formerly with Johnson & Faulkner, of New York.



A prominent shade cloth house writes: "We note in your last the case of the man who spells 'delay it' 'deleat,' but here are a couple of up to date examples of English as she is wrote. They may please your readers as samples that we hope are 'alvis ben very skars so far'":

Dear Sir

I cand send aney money at presand but I will send som the 22 of this mont please give me time until that date. Money alvis ben very skars so far. Respectful yours.

The second is like unto it:

Dear Sir

Enclose fine check for fifteen dollars. for witch please give me credit.

I shel send more as sun as possible. Collection are very slow

Yours truly.

Both letters are typewritten, but signed in ink. It is possible that the machine and not the writer is to be credited with the novel and ingenious spelling employed.

It was half past 2 on Saturday afternoon at Hilton, Hughes & Co.'s when Colonel Hilton came into the upholstery department and asked Edward Bell:

"Would you like to move downstairs?"

"Well, just give me the chance."

"When can you begin?"

"This minute."

"How long will it take?"

"I'll be ready for business Monday morning."

Every man in the department worked like a beaver through Sunday, and when the doors swung open on Monday morning the department had been transferred bodily to the second floor. The only mistake was in not putting it back on the ground floor, where it formerly was.

French "Renaissance" coverlets are sold in Brazil from 20 cents to 50 cents apiece. Their manufacture, in the neighborhood of Roanne, occupies some 1,600 workmen. The receipt of sales from the factories amounts to $1,600,000 annually. This industry is especially suited to those habits of minute economy which govern wholesale operations in France quite as much as they guide the business of ordinary life. It has for its material the waste of other textile industries.

"Renaissance" technically is the name given to the lint from cotton and woolen rags. To this are added hair from the establishments where calf and kid skins are "tawed" or dressed for white leather to be used in glove making; the refuse of silk, the sweepings of spinning and weaving mills, and the loose threads from trimming rooms, and finally all that dust of silk, cotton, linen, hemp and jute which gathers where these materials are in use, like the down under beds and other furniture in ill kept living rooms. All these different products are skillfully mixed in proportions according to need with raw East India cotton and wool from Verviers, in Belgium. The whole is then carded and spun and woven with cotton woof. It is made into coverlets, travelers' rugs, counterpanes, printed or dyed "swanskin" flannels, curtains and portières, table spreads and furniture covering.

"The shades of night were falling fast." They probably got off the rollers.—Puck.

Jas. McDowell, manufacturer of chenille table covers, has moved to Clementon, N. J., and has ten looms running.

It will be pleasant news for the many friends of N. W. ("Billy") Jacobs to learn that he is to fill the important position of upholstery buyer for Siegel, Cooper & Co.'s New York store.

The Eden Manufacturing Company are increasing their plant by the addition of more Jacquard looms. C. B. Young & Co., their selling agents, are well satisfied with business to this date.

The American Bedstead Company, of Westborough, Mass., have opened a branch store at 199 Portland street, Boston, where they will carry a full stock of their enameled iron beds. H. M. Butler, formerly treasurer of the Herbert Bradley Company, is in charge.

The large shade cloth factory of Hunninghaus & Lindemann has run very steadily since the opening of the spring season, and on the whole Mr. Lindemann says they cannot speak disparagingly of the season. The orders at the opening of the season were larger than usual and have made up for the backwardness of the past month or more. P. J. Luth, their senior traveler, came in from the road on the 23d ult., and will do home work for a fortnight before again taking up the grip.

The Pinney, Casse & Lackey Company, the window shade manufacturers and Scotch holland importers, will doubtless have no cause for complaint in the round-up of their spring season's business. They are eminently a general window shade house, as besides the shade cloths of their own manufacture they carry practically every other kind of window holland or shade fabric in general use, and have been prominent factors in popularizing shade laces. The personnel of the house, as well as their goods, are well liked throughout the country, and their position in the trade is bound to advance steadily.

Some time last fall Henry A. Ostermoor and E. A. Ames, partners in the manufacture of church cushions and stair pads in Elizabeth street, New York, took out each for the benefit of the other $10,000 policies in the Manhattan Life. In December Mr. Ostermoor died. Now, on the ground that the agent and the doctor were not authorized, the company refuses to pay the policy, but tenders the premiums, $695, which had been paid. Mr. Ames says that he knew Oscar Zimmerman, the agent, and that he had been with the company five years. Moreover, he wants to know, if he was not authorized, why the company took the premiums and kept them until now. He has begun suit.

HIGH PRAISE FOR PANTASOTE.

On page 79 of this issue Clarence Whitman & Co. make an interesting announcement relating to Pantasote, for which they are agents, and which has just been awarded the Edward Lonstreth Medal of Merit by the Franklin Institute of Pennsylvania as the best substitute for leather which has ever been placed on the market. The investigating committee of the institute have embodied in their report the results of an extensive correspondence, carried on during the past two years, with manufacturers of furniture, cars and carriages, boat and ship builders, and others having the Pantasote products in use. Their investigations have fully substantiated the claims of the manufacturers, not only that Pantasote is an admirable substitute for all the uses to which leather is adapted, but also that it possesses qualities which leather does not possess—notably, its durable pliability under the continued influence of extreme heat and cold; its indifference to water, fresh and salt, and the fact that it may be scrubbed to remove dirt or grease or stains of any kind, thus permitting the use of the most delicate shades of color, which in leather soon soil. The uses to which Pantasote has been applied are too varied to enumerate. Its application to lap robes is its latest development, and it has already been successfully adopted by the manufacturers of farmers', miners' and sportsmen's coats. However, the committee of the Franklin Institute lay most stress on the adaptability of Pantasote to general upholstery and carriage upholstery work.

THE BURLINGTON COMPANY'S BLINDS.

The Burlington Venetian Blind Company, Burlington, Vt., have just issued a new illustrated catalogue of their improved inside sliding, and Venetian blinds, window screens and screen doors. These blinds have already become very popular, the present demand for them being so great as to require the productive capacities of two large factories. Every dealer in house furnishing goods, such as carpets, furniture, upholstery goods, &c., should be interested in the Burlington blinds, and should find time to write to the manufacturers for their catalogue and other particulars.

Hyndman & Moore intend to increase their tapestry curtain and cover plant and make their product of these goods even more conspicuous than ever in the market.

Eben Sugden, 69 Worth street, New York, manufactures a very attractive line of fancy curtains in tussore, art muslins and crepe effects, also piano scarfs, lambrequins, &c. Mr. Sugden's offerings in summer curtains comprise a great variety of novel and handsome styles for popular trade in medium and low price goods.

The Utica Bed and Bedding Supply Company have opened a store at 29 and 31 Devereaux street, Utica. They will wholesale and retail the full line of iron beds, cots, springs, mattresses, &c., manufactured by the Comstock Manufacturing Company, of Utica, and will be practically a branch of that company. They are considering adding curtains and draperies to their lines.

MONUMENTAL CITY MATTERS.

BALTIMORE, MARCH 25.

A fire in the store of Schwarzburger & Co., dry goods and upholstery, the 23d inst. caused a damage of $100; loss covered by insurance.

Caudle & Roane, dealers in furniture and upholstery, Richmond, Va., made an assignment the 23d inst. to J. E. Bland, Jr., trustee. Liabilities, $19,000; assets not stated in the deed. The property conveyed consists of the entire stock of goods in the store on the north side of Broad street, and also of the stock in the warerooms of the firm at No. 420 West Broad street. The trustee is empowered to sell either by private sale or public auction. There is a large number of preferred creditors.

Julius Gutman, of Julius Gutman & Co., is at Atlantic City.

Louis Kann, of S. Kann, Sons & Co., and L. A. Gusdorff, of Gusdorff & Sons, dry goods and upholstery, were registered in the metropolis the 19th inst.

Charles P. Edwards, a well-known merchant of Portsmouth, Va., died at his residence in that city the 19th inst. after a long illness. He was in the fifty-first year of his age.

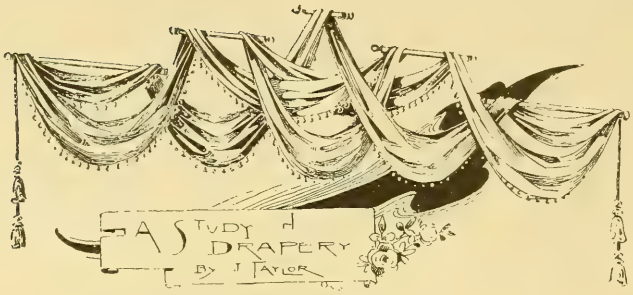
W. I. Schwarzman, with W. H. Horstman & Co., upholstery goods, Philadelphia, and a representative of the Gould-Mersereau Company, brass goods, New York, were in town the 18th inst.

Albert R. Mettee, formerly in the upholstery, wall paper and window shade business on South Broadway, died at his residence, No. 920 North Carrollton avenue, the 13th inst., in the sixty-third year of his age.

E. J. Sweeting has brought suit in the Court of Common Pleas against Samuel Posner, of Posner Brothers, dry goods and upholstery, claiming $5,000 damages for alleged injuries sustained by falling down a stairway in the firm's store on West Lexington street.

The store of Lawrence Allnutt, dry goods and upholstery, Dawsonville, Md., was destroyed by fire the 22d inst., with all its contents. Loss, $6,000; insurance, $3,750. Mr. Allnutt had just laid in a new stock of goods. He intends rebuilding at once. R. L. E.

Few dealers outside of Minneapolis and St. Paul have a proper idea of the extensive factory and up-to-date facilities of the Northern Shade Cloth Company, of St. Anthony's Park. Their factory is 220 feet long by 40 feet wide, three stories, and can turn out about 600,000 yards of opaque shade cloth per year. They make all widths from 30 inches to 126 inches and we believe are the only concern in the country making 30 inch wide oil opaques. All mounted shades and piece goods are wrapped in yellow paper and all stationery is of same color, so that yellow is a trade mark with them. The officers of the Northern Shade Cloth Company are Geo. R. Whitcomb, president; S. E. Brace, vice-president; Vernon O. Whitcomb, secretary and treasurer. The directors are the above, with W. H. S. Whitcomb, of Burlington, Vt.; C. N. Smith, Geo. A. Dole and R. H. Reck. Their travelers are H. G. Huntington, Iowa; John C. Kelly, Northern Minnesota and North Dakota; C. W. Gorham, Montana and west to Spokane.



The sketch for a drapery by J. Taylor, illustrated here, makes an interesting study. Beginning at any point and following the coils you come back to the starting point. Mr. Taylor suggests that in place of rods a thick rope with large knots could be used. The suggestion is taken from an English magazine.

SOME DETROIT DEPARTMENTS.

At Newcomb, Endicott & Co.'s the attraction of the spring opening in the upholstery department is the Delft blue room, everything in it in draperies, coverings, hangings, &c., being in Delft blue. The dark room display is in light weight goods, the showing of cretonnes being especially attractive. The display was arranged by F. T. Buchanan, head of the department.

Manager Thomson, of W. H. Elliott's upholstery department, has his house in order for spring activity, and says the fine days bring out shoppers in an encouraging manner. He has a remarkably fresh stock, well varied through all qualities. The firm's first year in upholstery has been very satisfactory and more room will doubtless be given to the department by another season.

Goldberg Brothers' drapery department is roomy and well lighted and everything about it is neat and attractive. It is in charge of R. S. Gregory, the inventor of the Gregory curtain pole socket.

D. D. Doyle, head of the Taylor, Woolfenden Company's upholstery department, returned from New York the middle of last month, and is showing his newly arrived goods. Mr. Doyle is increasing his sales of Japanese rugs and hopes to obtain more room for carrying and displaying these goods.

J. M. C.

The annual meeting of the Vermont Shade Roller Company was held on the 9th ult. and directors were elected as follows : Willard Crane, D. G. Crane, A. G. Crane, C. W. Woodhouse, B. B. Smalley, D. W. Robinson and Horatio Hickok. The officers elected are : President, Willard Crane ; vice-president and secretary, A. G. Crane ; treasurer, G. E. Davis.

Shortly before midnight on the 14th ult. a fire broke out in Edward F. Cooney's mattress factory at No. 98 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn. Owing to the inflammable nature of the goods the flames spread rapidly, and the firemen had considerable difficulty in checking them. Mr. Cooney estimates his loss on stock at about $2,000, which is fully covered by insurance.

We are unofficially informed that the assignee of Craig & Harding, Washington, D. C., has sold the firm's stock for $15,000.

The Tucker Furniture Company, Peoria, Ill., was closed by the sheriff on the 6th ult. on confessions of judgment in favor of the Merchants' National Bank, of Peoria, aggregating $20,000. The firm, which is composed of young men, had been in business for several years and did a big trade until recently. The members attribute their failure to poor collections and hard times generally. The assets are estimated at $65,000, and the liabilities at $32,000. An effort will be made to resume business.

The Oswego Shade Cloth Company, Oswego, N. Y., are now making a new width of shade cloth, namely, 48 inches, in both plain and duplex goods. They now show the following widths : 38, 40, 42, 45 and 48 inches. They carry full lines in stock and ship goods on the day the order is received. Write to them for sample books, &c.

The Jay C. Wemple Company have fitted up the second floor of their building, 537 Broadway, as a stock room. The floor is 40x200 feet, and this additional space is necessary in order to enable the company to carry in stock for immediate delivery everything required in the window shade trade. Improvements and alterations are being made also on the main floor for the same purpose.

Arthur G. Graham, Grand Rapids, Mich., deals in furniture and mattress manufacturers' and upholsterers' supplies, and is well known in these trades throughout the country. Mr. Graham can offer the strongest possible inducements to buyers and will be glad to send samples, &c., in response to applications from the trade.

The New York Produce Exchange have addressed a memorial to Congress setting forth that they are a body of 3,000 merchants handling the surplus products of the country and advocate the Bowling Green site for a new custom house.

JOSEPH and Rudolph Deimel, of Chicago, will have to pay a judgment of $8,500 in the United States courts or go to jail for as long a time as their creditors, Stroheim & Co., of New York, are willing to pay 40 cents a day for each of them. The United States Supreme Court has refused to release them on the application of a writ of habeas corpus. A few years ago the Deimels were in the furniture business in Chicago. They failed, and Stroheim & Co. filed a bill in the Federal Court charging them with obtaining goods under fraudulent representations as to their commercial credit. After a trial before Judge Bunn in July, 1893, a judgment for $8,500 was rendered against them.

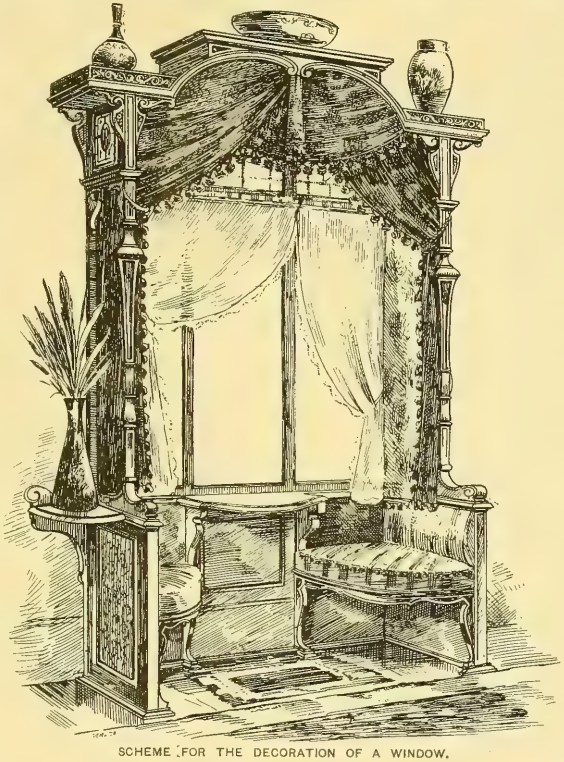
Robert S. Warner and William W. King, composing the firm of Warner & King, manufacturers and jobbers of bedsteads and bedding, at Nos. 404 Sixth avenue, and Nos. 151 and 153 West Twenty-fifth street, this city, also under the style of the International Bedstead and Bedding Company, at No. 35 West Fourteenth street, made an assignment on the 21st ult. to George B. Bryant, giving a preference to Lizzie R. King for $1,500. They have been in business since May, 1888. Denman & Denman, their attorneys, said that the assignment was the result of poor business and poor collections, and it would probably be only temporary, as they intended to call a meeting of creditors and ask an extension. The liabilities are about $25,000.

HYNDMAN & MOORE, Coral and Adams streets, and Room 592 Bourse, Philadelphia, manufacturers of upholstery piece goods and draperies, are running looms upon silk tapestry curtains, there seeming to be a demand for that quality of goods just now. Chenille curtains form a conspicuous part of their output, and the demand is good for them. New lines for fall season will be ready in good time and will be on show at the Bourse.

Mr. Welch, of Sterling, Welch & Co., Cleveland, says he has had some very busy days in the upholstery department during the past few weeks, giving the firm a pleasant surprise. He is inclined to believe that, with fine weather permanently installed, goods will move freely.

Oliver Brothers, Lockport, N. Y., manufacturers of brass and iron beds, have opened a branch wareroom at 1433 Wabash avenue, Chicago. They will hereafter carry a stock of their full line at this address and ship goods from Chicago.

THE Buffalo Fringe Works have been running fully all season and have orders ahead yet for some few weeks. The new "Decorative" rope portière has figured largely in the season's business and is evidently taking the lead in the trade's consumption of rope portières. Samples of these favorite portières and the color line can be seen at the salesroom of T. I. Birkin & Co., Broadway and Grand street, New York, and orders can be placed there or sent to the factory at Buffalo, N. Y. Morris Bernhard, the proprietor, is back at the Buffalo office after several weeks' absence in New York and the East.



SCHEME FOR THE DECORATION OF A WINDOW.

A good advertisement for the spring openings of upholstery or furniture departments is to give away one of the metal souvenirs made by the American Pin Company. They have a great variety of small fancy articles that are sold at nominal prices. Send for an illustrated sheet and prices to 441 Broadway, New York.

A REVIEW representative was curious enough to ask Chas. W. Breneman, the Cincinnati window shade manufacturer, the reason for his firm's adopting the title "Camargo" as a brand for hand made opaque shade cloth and unexpectedly disclosed a historical episode. During the war with Mexico H. H. Breneman, father of Chas. W. Breneman, kept a wall paper store in Eaton, Pa., and was also postmaster of the town. He one day received a letter postmarked Camargo, Mexico, among the mail, and took a great fancy to the name, so much so that he finally succeeded in having the town's name changed from Eaton to Camargo. Mr. Breneman, Sr., manufactured wall paper in Camargo, Pa., and adopted the word Camargo and the Mexican rider as his trade mark. He moved to Cincinnati in 1861, and when he went into shade manufacturing also adopted the same trade mark for his shade cloth. Hence the brand "Camargo" and the Mexican horseman on all Chas. W. Breneman & Co.'s goods.

This firm manufactures an always reliable quality of opaque shade cloth and carries a general line of shade goods.

Personal

Becker.—August Becker, with J. A. Brittain & Co., was married on March 4. He will start out on his regular trip among his customers about April 1. Mr. Becker began his experience with the curtain trade eleven years ago with W. H. Fletcher and afterward traveled for A. Naumann and Staheli, O'Connor & Co. For two years past he has been with J. A. Brittain & Co., whom he has ably represented in parts of the West.

Dawson.—Edwin Dawson, manager of Arnold, Constable & Co.'s retail upholstery department, returned from Europe on the 21st ult. The Campania, always a wet boat, was more than ever disposed to try submarine navigation, and Mr. Dawson and his fellow voyagers had an uncomfortable trip.

Hees.—Geo. H. Hees, of Hees, Macfarlane & Co , the Detroit window shade manufacturers, will leave shortly for a trip to Europe.

Horikoshi —Z. Horikoshi, of Z. Horikoshi & Co., the Japanese firm, of 57 Greene street, New York, arrived from Yokohama on his annual visit to this country. He will remain for a couple of months.

Hoyt.—Wm. B. Hoyt, "Serious Bill," of W. H. Fletcher & Co., who is one of the kind of gentlemen a merchant always likes to see, even when his shelves are full, left on his trip March 24.

Monroe.—James Monroe, of Arnold, Constable & Co.'s retail upholstery department, has been confined to his house at Bayonne, N. J., for a couple of weeks by severe injuries resulting from being knocked down on the 17th ult. by a runaway horse at the corner of White street and Broadway. He was badly cut about the head and suffered from shock. He is back at business again.

Nutley.—J. J. Nutley, of W. H. Fletcher & Co., left on March 28 for his second spring trip. Fletcher's boys continue to "play in luck," heavy shipments of French Renaissance and Arabian and some big invoices of white Irish points, Brussels and muslins having arrived just before the travelers left.

Smith.—H. Smith, for eight years past with R. H. Macy & Co., is now buyer for the upholstery department of McPartland & O'Flaherty, of Eighth avenue. Mr. Smith has had a long experience in the upholstery business, which will tell in his new department.

Stewart.—Geo. S. Stewart, of the Geo. S. Stewart Manfacturing Company, Cleveland and Norwalk, Ohio, is back from a fortnight's fishing on the Gulf Coast. He created envy among his office staff by writing that his face was badly sunburned, while they were fighting a March blizzard.

Umbstaetter.—R. J. Umbstaetter, who has been on an extended tour through China, Japan and India, sails for home from London on the 25th inst.

M. H. Haase has opened an upholstering establishment in the Warner Block, Newton, Mass.

On the 24th ult. seven judgments, aggregating $20,243, were entered against Howard S. Jaffray personally, of the firm of E. S. Jaffray & Co., dry goods merchants, by Blumenstiel & Hirsch, in favor of various creditors, the largest being C. A. Auffmordt & Co., $11,122, and Bossut Père & Fils, $2,968. The claims are all for goods sold to the firm of E. S. Jaffray & Co.

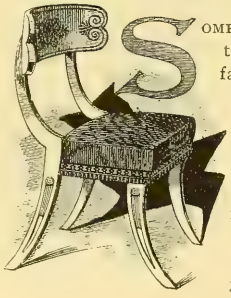
AN IRON FOLDING BED.

Since the cumbersome and vermin breeding cabinet folding bed has waned in popularity and the enameled iron bed has come so largely into use, there has arisen a demand for an iron folding bed that would be compact, easy of adjustment and of a presentable appearance. Such a bed has been produced in the "Royal," made by the Comstock Manufacturing Company, and the invention of E. M. Antisdel, vice-president and general manager of the company.

The "Royal" iron folding bed is radically different in construction from any other folding bed yet seen, and seems to us to fill every requirement. The adjustment of balance weights is extremely ingenious and the minimum of such weight is employed. The canopy bar for the drapery is easily removed so that the drapery rings are readily adjusted. In addition to taking up but little room when folded the base is provided with a seat forming an appropriate place for pillow cushions. The ventilation of the bedding when the bed is closed is even better than in a stationary bed, and as the construction is of iron throughout there is no opportunity for breeding vermin. Expense and trouble are also saved in moving, for the "Royal" iron folding bed will be found one of the easiest articles to handle. The price is extremely moderate, in fact only nominal when compared with the cost of a heavy wood cabinet bed.

A cut of the "Royal" will be found on page 73 and prices will be sent on application to the Comstock Manufacturing Company, Utica, N. Y.

NOVELTIES IN CURTAIN POLE ENDS.



Some of the many attractive novelties in curtain pole ends manufactured by the American Pin Company are shown on page 69 of this issue. Dealers who are looking for quick sellers in this line should note the company's No. 305 in brass at 12½ cents a pair ; their Nos. 219 in white and gold, and 319 in brass at 15 cents a pair ; No. 315 in white and gold at 20 cents a pair ; No. 311 in brass at 22½ cents a pair, and No. 313 in white and gold at the same price. All of these styles are illustrated in the company's new advertisement.

The complete lines are on view at the New York store, 441 Broadway ; at 274 Wabash avenue, Chicago, and at 78 Chauncey street, Boston. They will repay the inspection of buyers who desire handsome, salable goods.

Frederick C. Lorenz, who on March 3 was appointed receiver of the upholstery and furniture firm of Menz & Ohl, Milwaukee, Wis., was discharged by Judge Austin and his bond cancelled on the 16th ult. It is the shortest receivership on record in that county, as during the thirteen days of its continuance the stock and accounts were closed out, the debts of the firm settled in full and the residue satisfactorily divided between the partners.

THE TRADE OF THE UPHOLSTERER.*

The Theory of Colors.

In order to provide the decorator with the means of avoiding bad effects in the choice and combination of colors, I present here the rudiments of the theory of color.

The sensation of color in the eye is the effect of vibrations of the light ether. If the eye is struck by 439,000,000,000 of vibrations per second, i. e., by waves, each of which is .0007 mm. long, the sensation of red color is produced; with 697,000,000 vibrations of per minute waves .0007 mm. long we have the sensation of violet. If ether waves of different velocity and length strike the retina at the same time and in the same place, we have the sensation of mixed colors. The impact at the same moment of all the vibrations differing from each other in velocity and wave length causes the sensation of white. Without light no color can be perceived. The colors of exterior objects are perceived by the eye in consequence of varying reflections of light. Light absolute, as a whole, is white ; dispersed (in the case of sunlight most simply by means of a glass prism or a white bottle filled with water), it is separated into colored rays. In the sky we perceive this phenomenon in the rainbow, which shows the following series of colors : red, orange, yellow, green, blue, purple, violet. From all this it follows that light, or white, the representative of light, is the sum of all the colors; while black, the absolute contrary of light, is total absence of color.

If white, which is nearest to absolute light, or blue, which is nearest to black, is condensed or intensified it attains a reddish gleam, while yellow becomes orange and blue violet. The mixture of the two, if it could be produced absolutely pure, would produce red, which in its intensity would balance the blue and yellow. Now, these three colors, yellow, blue and red, are called simple, cardinal or primary colors. If they could be mixed in absolute purity and in even chromatic proportion the result would be white, but it is not possible to produce them pure from colored bodies. When we mix them in the highest degree of purity attainable, as chrome yellow, cinnabar and cobalt, they give a light, whitish gray. If these three colors are concentrated into one ray the result is white, or at least a whitish gray ; when they are absorbed, however, the result is black.

The following phenomena are yet to be considered in connection with color. The colors when steadily gazed at produce subsequent sensations in the eye. The sensations are of larger duration in the case of white and yellow than in that of red and blue, but never last longer than one-half second. Moreover, in consequence of some independent action of the visual organs, there occur other after effects, based on the tendency of the organ to regain its equipoise.

For instance, if we gaze steadily on a black cross on a white ground there will appear the subsequent sensation of a white cross on black ground. If we gaze at the sun and then on a white surface, we shall see first a black, then a blue, green or yellow reproduction of the sun ; if we look on a black surface, however, the image will be white at first, then yellow, orange, violet, blue and black. White affects the eye with the greatest, black with the least violence.

* Copyright, 1896, by Review Publishing Company.

After steadily gazing on a red object the subsequent image on a white or black surface will appear green, and vice versa the after image of a green object red. After alternately looking on a red and on a green object of the same shape and size the after image will appear gray, somewhat lighter on a black than on a white ground. After gazing on a blue object the after image will appear orange on a white ground, brown on a black surface ; after alternately gazing on a red and on a blue object the after image is violet. On gazing steadily on a red disk on a white or black ground we see a green margin. Intelligent consideration of these phenomena, which may easily be supplemented by means of individual observation, will enable us to produce without difficulty harmonious combinations of colors.

Just as in music the simultaneous sounding of several different tones affects the ear pleasantly or unpleasantly, just as we speak in music of chords, dissonances, harmony and melody, does the combination of different colors affect the eye pleasantly or disagreeably, and in the realm of color we speak also of harmony, harmony of contrasts, and harmonious combinations of chords as color melody.

We obtain a harmony of contrast by combining a color with one directly opposite to it. One of these will invariably be light, the other dark ; on account of this bold difference we use the name "harmony of contrast." To find the direct opposite of a color it is only necessary to notice that a body of the light color, when a ray of white light is projected on it, will throw on a white surface a reflection of the color opposite to it, e. g., a red body a green reflection, or a white body illuminated by a ray of red light also a green reflection ; thus the depths of the folds in a red garment appear greenish ; a face surrounded by a hood with green lining looks healthy ; surrounded by red color it appears sickly, careworn. Such colors, the opposite of each other, are called secondary or complementary colors.

As I have already stated, red, yellow and blue are the three primary colors ; all those colors resulting from this combination are secondary colors and are produced by combinations of the primary colors in different proportions ; e. g., red and yellow in equal proportions give orange, yellow and red with red in the ascendant give scarlet, &c., red and blue in equal proportions give purplish crimson.

Now, one is inclined to imagine that out of two secondary colors the primary color between them might be produced, e. g., red out of orange and purple, or out of scarlet and flesh color ; this is not the case, however, and the results of such combinations are nothing but obscure reminiscences of the primary colors expected. These colors all fall between the primary color and black. Thus the combination of orange and purple gives a muddy, dark red, such as is generally chosen for the walls of picture galleries. Such color would properly be named tertiary red, the blue gray resulting from the combination of green and purplish red, tertiary blue, &c. To these tertiary colors may be reckoned the different varieties of brown, from Isabelle color to chestnut brown, the reddish gray colors from the lightest to cinnamon brown, the various gray greens from May green to the darkest bronze green, various grays, slate color, &c.

The tertiary colors are also called broken colors in ordinary practice. Since they are composed of parts of all the primary colors they are capable of endless variety in tone, such variety being caused by one or the other primary color predominating. A tint is the shading of any color toward white, shading its graduation toward black. A color becomes warm by approaching red ; cold, by distance from red ; pure yellow and pure blue are neither cold nor warm.

It is possible to put two colors that form a dissonance close together without forming a disagreeable effect. This may be done by interposing another color, e. g., yellow and blue side by side form a dissonance ; but we may efface the disagreeable sensation caused by this juxtaposition by interposing a narrow green or red stripe. The same result may be attained by interposing some metal or a white or black stripe, or, finally, if, instead of one of the conflicting colors we take its tertiary, e. g., if we combine blue with brown instead of yellow. Of course this ability of tertiary colors to alleviate dissonances makes the choice of colors to be combined much easier and by this means the tertiary colors have become much more popular than they deserve to be on account of their impurity and muddiness.

Anyone may easily avoid bad taste in choice and distribution of colors by observing the rules already given ; still a few additional hints may not be amiss. In the application of several colors to a white ground, in frescoing ceilings for instance, consonances of contrast have generally a better effect than consonances of chord ; on walls the reverse is true. Wall colors and those in furniture stuffs should either form contrasts or be gradations of the same color. Two vivid colors side by side easily dazzle the eye and cause a feeling of discomfort. Two undecided colors in juxtaposition are weak. Dissonances without a mediating color are apt to give a painful impression ; contrasts without mediation have the effect of too many colors, which is not invariably unpleasant, however. But these contrasts with the effect of a great number of varied colors must not occur on very large surfaces.

O. R. Ahlstrom & Co., upholsterers, 1546 Broadway, New York, were burned out on the 20th ult., and claim that their stock was damaged to the extent of $5,000 ; said to be covered by insurance.

Hoyle, Harrison & Kaye have had marked success with their finer grades of Chenille curtains this season—in fact, their line of the better goods is so handsome and novel that a buyer cannot well afford to pass it. If the trade had held out as good as it was up to February 1 the firm would have congratulated themselves on the results. However, there is yet a chance to get some of their big sellers for spring business from Chas. B. Young & Co., the selling agents.

The Eastern Metallic Cushion Company filed articles of incorporation with the County Clerk at Trenton, N. J., on the 23d ult. The incorporators are Thomas A. Stoll, proprietor of the spring mattress factory on East State street, Wilbur ; Joseph H. Cole, formerly of the firm of Stoll & Cole, and Augustus F. Stoll, a stationer. The former has four shares and the others each three. The capital stock of the company is $100,000, divided into 100 shares of $100 each. It will commence business with $1,000. The objects of the company are to make and sell metallic cushions, bed bottoms, springs, wire and all other goods of metal or wood, or both ; to buy and sell letters patent, and to receive and grant territorial rights. The company will operate a factory in Trenton.

DOINGS AT DETROIT'S SHADE FACTORY.

WINDOW shade factory of Hees, Macfarlane & Co., Detroit, Mich., has been working to full capacity throughout the season, and, excepting on some special order work, they think they have served the trade on deliveries as well as any other manufacturer. They have arranged for better facilities on special orders and will hereafter show all possible alacrity in taking care of this end. J. S. F. Macfarlane returned to Detroit on the 16th ult. from a three weeks' road trip and a visit to the firm's Chicago store. He says they have reason to be very well satisfied with the business done there and have started a line of customers who will hereafter call regularly on their Chicago stock.

W. R. Hees, of the firm, also makes road trips, but has been too busy managing the factory of late to go out very much. He will attend the meeting of the Shade Cloth Manufacturers' Association in New York this month.

G. F. Bingham and H. P. Torrance, of the road force, are home and J. D. Bennett and J. B. Walker are still out.

The item that originally appeared in a Detroit daily paper that Hees, Macfarlane & Co. had started the erection of another factory is premature. The firm have all preparations made for building another and larger factory, but have not yet positively decided to do so. They will come to some decision in the matter, however, in the near future.

Send for the Burlington Venetian Blind Company's new 1896 catalogue. These blinds or shades are particularly desirable for warm weather, and can be sold by every window shade dealer.

A new advertisement from H. C. Kroh & Co. will be found on page 90. The reference therein to the high quality of their Manhattan opaque shading has been verified by long experience of many dealers in handling these goods. Mr. Kroh can justly claim to follow every detail of manufacture, as no one in the trade surpasses him in close attention to business. The result is as near evenness of perfection in goods as is obtainable. H. C. Kroh & Co. are now receiving large invoices of John King & Son's Scotch hollands every week, and can fill any sized order promptly. You should have their price lists and color books of Manhattan opaques and Scotch hollands.

Pillow sham holders are used now more largely than ever and can be handled by upholstery departments very advantageously. One that has doubtless had a wider distribution than any other made and that fills the requirements fully is manufactured by W. W. Jones, 1180 West avenue, Buffalo, N. Y. Mr. Jones also makes a curtain stretcher or frame for drying and stretching lace curtains after being washed, and mosquito canopy frames or the canopy with netting complete. Why not keep everything in your upholstery department that you have a call for and a pillow sham holder, a curtain frame or a mosquito canopy frame are things that belong to your stock. Address Mr. Jones, for circular and prices.

A. Hess, of Dean, Godfrey & Co., wall paper and shades, Detroit, has been in the city this week.

O. W. Richardson & Co. are selling wall paper by sample in connection with their carpet sample business.

CHICAGO, MARCH 25.

The Henry Bosch Company, jobbers of wall paper and window shades, were burned out last night. They occupied the first and second floors and the basement of the building at 307 and 309 Wabash avenue. The loss is estimated at $25,000. Mr. Bosch said it would be impossible for several days to arrive at a correct estimate. Temporary offices have been opened at 327 Wabash avenue. The same fire burned out the office of Mr. Goodwin, agent for Hees, Macfarlane & Co., Detroit, manufacturers of shade cloth. Mr. Goodwin has also opened a temporary office at 327 Wabash avenue. He was about putting in a full stock of his firm's goods, but fortunately only a portion of them had arrived. Both of the firms referred to are insured.

John S. O'Connor, representing Emden, Gerstlé & Co., New York, lace curtains, was among the trade the second week of the month.

A. M. Langwill, who represents Stead & Miller, the upholstery and drapery manufacturers, left for a short trip to Milwaukee Tuesday.

Chas. Bosworth has been engaged by Wm. Simpson, Sons & Co. and will show their lines of Gobelin art draperies to the Western trade. The firm's Chicago office is at 228 and 230 Fifth avenue.

L. Hall, for eleven years at the head of the Chicago Carpet Company's upholstery department, resigned his position, and is now with Marshall Field & Co.'s retail department. Mr. Stillwell is temporarily in Mr. Hall's old place.

It is well to remember that C. Schotte, the window shade manufacturer, 18 North Canal street, can often save time in supplying opaque shade cloth, transparent and cambric shading, these goods being manufactured in their factory at the above address. They also make mounted shades in the various grades, including opacate, or water color shade cloth. The city buyers and trade tributary to Chicago should remember them.

The employees of the E. L. Mansure Company experienced a fire scare on the 10th inst. Fire broke out on the floor below them and the two floors occupied by the company filled with smoke. The employees, however, left the building in good order and no one was injured. There was some damage done to stock by water and smoke. The company is doing an active business and finds its lines of draperies and trimmings good sellers.

E. E. Shauer, manager of Mandel Brothers' department, is always hunting around for a chance to improve his department. He has fitted up a corner for the window shade samples, and has his window shade sample rack hung before a Wabash avenue window. By this method he can show the effect of any color or decoration when the shade is hung. Mr. Shauer says business has kept up very well during the winter, and that his imported stuffs are proving good sellers. He has livened up the department in a number of ways, including a new carpet, and is all ready to handle a brisk spring business.

C. H. R. Davis has given up the accounts of D. H. Stroud, chenille curtains and table covers; E. Ries & Co. and W. E. Meats, lace curtains; Eben J. Sugden, mantel draperies, and E. V. Pike, chenille curtains, which he has been carrying for some time. He has gone with the Chicago Carpet Company.

Dwight C. Pinney and Wm. J. Lackey, of the Pinney, Casse & Lackey Company, New York window shade manufacturers, were in the city together around the 10th inst. Mr. Pinney made only a short stay and then returned East, while Mr. Lackey continued on his road trip. This firm have an attractive office at 250 Wabash avenue, in charge of O. W. Ellis.

The stretch of curtain pole space in the J. V. Farwell Company's wholesale upholstery department is doubtless the longest in the country. Think of a continuous pole 280 feet long! That is the length, and it is filled with all kinds of curtains. The goods are kept hanging over the pole, and a buyer can "go down the line" and pick out the winners in very fast time. The whole department occupies a floor 75x280 feet, and is finely stocked. Mr. Macpherson is in charge, and Mr. Brownlie is one of his efficient assistants.

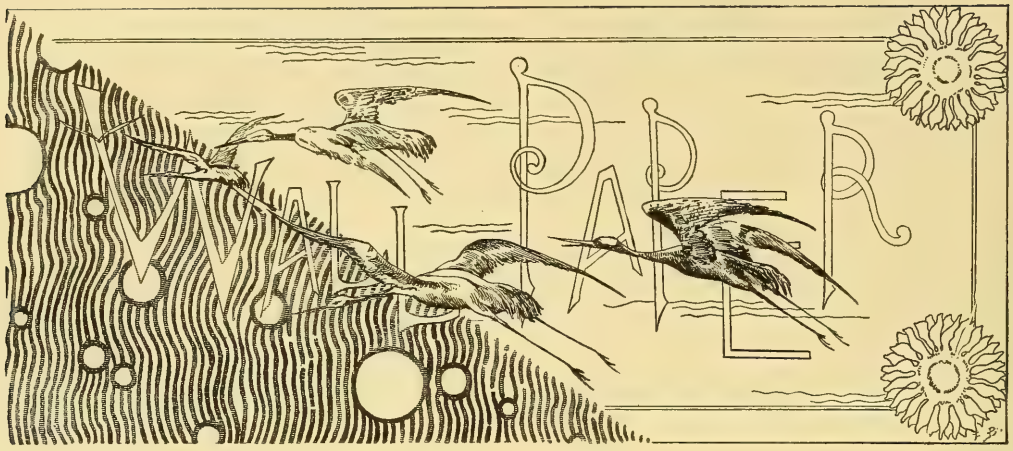
Business is beginning to open in good style with the Stewart Hartshorn Company's branch here. Manager Haley says the improved shade roller recently put on the market by his company is meeting with great favor from the trade. It is going to be in great demand. He is also pushing a roller and device designed for awnings. Buyers for several large houses have looked over the new device and have placed orders. It is an application of the common shade roller principle to the awning. The Hartshorn Company's new showrooms at 205 Jackson street, which were opened January 1, are more commodious than those formerly occupied on Monroe street.

R. H. H.

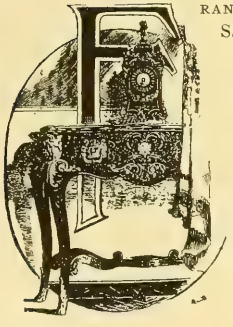
George T. Attenborough, the popular representative of Mills & Gibb, started on his second regular trip for the house on the 24th ult.

The Sanitary Feather Company, of Chicago, report that feathers are scarcer now than in any time in ten years. The recent slight advance in their prices does not cover the advanced cost. One prime reason for the scarcity is that geese ponds have been used for other purposes, and consequently there has been a decrease in the raising of geese. It is wise to buy feathers now and save further advances.

The Mersereau Metal Bed Company has succeeded the New York Bent Steel Furniture Company, and continue the operation of the plant of the latter at 278 to 284 Johnston avenue, Jersey City, N. J. Julius Chmelniker is president and W. T. Mersereau treasurer of the new company. Mr. Mersereau is well known to the trade as a member of the old brass goods firm of W. T. Mersereau & Co. and of the Gould Mersereau Company, from which he recently withdrew. The latter company have discontinued the manufacture of brass beds and Mr. Mersereau solicits the continuation of their old trade for the new Mersereau Metal Bed Company.



MURAL MEMORANDA.



FRANK & FITHIAN are a new firm at Salem, N. J., who have bought the wall paper stock of William Wander, of that city. Mr. Wander is selling out his furniture stock also.

..The stock of the Sheasby & Smith Wall Paper Company, Madison, Wis., was sold by auction recently by the assignee and was bought by Hecht & Zumach, Milwaukee, for $3,350. Mr. Sheasby will be manager of a new company which will continue business at the old stand.

..Samuel T. Young has opened a wall paper store at Duquesne, Pa.

..W. A. Kemp has started in the wall paper business at Springfield, Mass.

..Frank W. Fouracre has opened a wall paper store at 2026 Pine street, Philadelphia.

..Moses Marchessault & Co. have opened a wall paper and paint store at Southbridge, Mass.

..The American Wall Paper and Paint Company, Newark, N. J., has been incorporated with a capital of $20,000.

..Chas. Brokaw has retired from the firm of Brokaw Brothers, Terre Haute, Ind., and will open a wall paper store at 122 Main street, that city.

..H. W. Mann & Co. is the name of a new firm in the wall paper business at Corunna, Mich. The firm is composed of H. W. Mann and T. Van Duesen.

..The stock of the Bosch Wall Paper Company, 307 and 309 Wabash avenue, Chicago, was heavily damaged by fire on the 24th ult. It was insured for $28,500.

..George M. Miller, Aurelia, Ia., is putting in a new stock of furniture, wall paper, paints, &c. He carries nothing but first-class goods and will sell at Chicago prices.

..The receiver of the W. H. Van Tine, Jr., Company, Cleveland, has sold its stock of wall papers to the Interior Decorating Company, who will do a general decorating and drapery business. W. H. Van Tine has been engaged by them.

..The total insurance on the stock of the Lartz Wall Paper Company's stock, which was badly damaged by fire, smoke and water on the 10th ult., amounts to $117,500. The company's store is at 45 to 49 East Randolph street, Chicago.

..Upon the application of attorneys for Hiram A. Mullen, the firm of Weibling & Mullen, of Westerville, Ohio, went into the hands of Henry T. Sible as receiver. The business consisted of running a general furniture and wall paper store at Westerville. Mullen claimed that his partner, Charles E. Weibling, left the store about March 14, and went to Columbus, spending the partnership money in high living. It is said that his whereabouts at present is unknown. Mullen alleges that since Weibling absconded he has been sending in checks signed in the firm's name, and has been squandering and wasting the partnership money thus obtained. Shortly before the application for receivership was filed two cognovit judgments were taken against the firm by the Bank of Westerville on two notes of $200.15 and $811.70. The execution was put into the hands of a deputy sheriff, who levied upon the goods of the firm, and the property is still in charge of the sheriff, being in the hands of E. Weibling as custodian.

Three Vital Points . . .

Are necessary to insure a perfect roller such as . . . .

The Improved Hartshorn Wood Roller.

FIRST—No Tacks Are to Be Used.

The patent shade holders furnished free with Improved Hartshorn Wood Rollers eliminate the use of tacks in the most satisfactory manner possible.

SECOND—Provision for Mounting Shade Cloth Absolutely True.

The groove in this roller is the only place where the shade can be fastened to the roller. As the groove is as straight as machinery can make it, the cloth must be fastened in a straight line.

THIRD—Prevention Against Tearing Cloth from Rolls.

Owing to the scientific construction of the new roller, when the shade cloth is fastened upon the roller in the groove with our shade holders, the resistance which it offers is so strong that when shade and roller are hung it is almost impossible to tear the cloth off.

This Roller received specific indorsement in our award of a Gold Medal and Special Diploma of Honor by the Judges of the Atlanta Exposition.

Our new Descriptive Catalogue for 1896 is now ready. Free on application.

Lace Curtains

ARE SHOWN BY

A. NAUMANN,

AT HIS NEW SALESROOM:

Spring and Mercer Streets,

NEW YORK.

One eminent and popular house that has tried all makes announces them to be

"The Best Window Hollands Made."

Another equally large Importer of great experience states:

"The goods have always been and are now fast colors."

Another firm in the very front rank of the business describes them as

"Unequalled in quality, unshrinkable and of finest dyes."

While another firm of Importers, probably one of the largest shade goods houses in the world, characterizes them in these terms:

"JOHN KING & SON'S Famous Scotch Hollands."

JOHN KING & SON'S

ESTABLISHED IN THE YEAR 1775

Celebrated

Scotch Window HOLLANDS

ILLUSTRATING the high consideration these popular goods hold in the estimation of the most experienced importers of shade goods in the country, the attention of the trade is invited to the above opinions, published in the columns of this and other journals, over the signatures of the respective firms.

Enterprising but unscrupulous parties unable to reach the exalted standard of these celebrated goods, pay them the flattery of imitating the wrappings. It is the Goods, not the wrappings, the trade is after. See that Bands, Tickets and Tabs of every piece are marked

Wholesaled from every Shade Goods Importer and Leading Carpet and Upholstery Importer in the Country.

What a Retail House Thinks of "Chouaguens."

Window Shades.

Ever since the ready made window shade was "discovered" we have kept them and sold thousands of them every year. We know something about what are called "oil shades." We handle only two qualities of shades. Our low-priced shades are what are called "water colors," or "American Opaque." They are the best of their kind and we sell them at 25c. each. They are mounted on spring rollers that are guaranteed to work, and these shades are

FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT.

We do not keep any "seconds" in stock Our other or best shades are all made of the celebrated

"CHOUAGUEN"

Shade cloth, which is the best, and the ONLY BEST shade cloth in the country. That "there are others" we do not deny. We have tried them all, and we have had trouble with them all; but we never yet have had a complaint about our "Chouaguen" shades. They WON'T FADE, THEY ALWAYS WORK, and we do not hesitate to GUARANTEE EVERY ONE OF THEM. WE can buy "oil shades" that WE can sell for 33c.; we can buy them to sell for less than 33c., but for when the hot summer sun strikes them they will FADE. If you want your shades to look like the old fury next summer, then we advise you to buy the cheap oil shades; but if you want shades that the sun can't phaze and that will always look the same, that will always work, then pay 5c. a shade more and get the best shade cloth, and that is the "Chouaguen." That's our kind. That's the only kind of oil shades we keep.

We don't want them, We won't have them,

We open this week 200 dozen of these "Chouaguen" never-fade shades. We have a sample of the cheaper oil shades, and will show you the difference, or you can see the difference quick enough without any assistance. We say to you, INSIST on having the Chouaguen shade cloth. Look out for the "just as good" kinds, for they are not as good.

Our Chouaguen shades are 38 inches wide; the cheaper kinds are 36 inches wide. The difference in width is worth the difference in price, to say nothing about the difference in quality.

Pantasote Upholstery.

PANTASOTE

PANTASOTE IS THOROUGHLY WATERPROOF.
ANYONE WOULD TAKE IT FOR LEATHER. 'TIS JUST AS DURABLE.
NO RUBBER IN IT. WILL STAND ANY CLIMATE.
TEST IT. IT WILL NOT SMELL, CRACK, PEEL, OR GET STICKY.
AGE DOES NOT AFFECT IT IN THE LEAST AS IT DOES RUBBER.
SUN WILL NOT FADE IT, NOR WILL DAMPNESS ACT ON IT.
OTHER MATERIALS ABSORB MOISTURE AND WILL SHRINK OR LOSE SHAPE.
THIS DOES NOT. LONG SERVICE ON THE BEST RAILROADS PROVES IT.
EVERY ONE ADMITS IT IS THE BEST SUBSTITUTE FOR LEATHER EVER KNOWN.

THE LARGEST LACE CURTAIN HOUSE IN THE WORLD.

Call It A Job If You Like.

We start this week to clean up our Embroidered Muslins and Swiss and Scotch piece goods, ranging from 7½c. up — 25, 27, 30, 36, 40, 45 and 50 inches wide. Goods we have sold in quantities at 80c. we will now sell at 45c. There are still among them many choice patterns and extraordinarily fine qualities. They cannot be landed to-day within 25 per cent. of the prices asked. Our Kaiser Cloth — 36 inches — is the only goods of the kind manufactured in America. This is the same as that made in Scotland, with raised figures in imitation of hand-made Swiss goods. We are also making some goods that measure 30 inches — not 24, 25 or 27, but 30 inches absolutely.

The Kaisers at from 9c. to 13½c. in 30 in. wide are cheaper than anything of the kind that can be purchased anywhere else in the world. Stock on hand for immediate delivery.

To close out our Madras piece goods, we will sell those which formerly brought 25c. at 15c.; those from 40c. to 52½c. at 25c. We cannot fill any large orders in these.

"Aye, There's the Rub."

Wet Weather Wisdom.

"Aye, There's the Rub."

WHEN the rains descend and the floods come the prudent man begins to meditate on the nature and consistency of mud. He finds that it sticketh closer than a brother and hath a strong affinity for carpets, rugs and stained or polished floors. Then is he reminded of the Rubber Mat that shuts out this unwelcome visitor. He buys one, his peace of mind is restored and the tranquility of his home assured, "come rain, come shine, come fair or foul weather." Rubber Mats are neat, durable and clean, noiseless, soft to the tread, firm in place and impervious to moisture—i. e. DOUBLE DIAMOND RUBBER MATS.

Mats and Matting, Corrugated and Perforated, for stairs, steps, hallways, elevators, bars, floors, etc., in doors and out. Pitcher and Table Mats, Coin Mats, Mats galore. Made to order of any size required, not exceeding 6x30 feet.
Lettering, 25 cents extra for each letter. Red or White Letters, 50 cents each.

Carpet Sewing Machine.

The original and most perfect machine for sewing carpets on a stationary track. Will sew perfectly every grade of carpet, from the finest Axminster and Wilton to the cheapest Ingrain. Easy to start, easy to run. Sews borders and mitres. Makes a lap seam of raw edge and selvage. Will make a seam of any depth; will match the figure perfectly; will not drop stitches; will earn its cost in a short time.

New Attachment, Just Out,

exactly like hand work. By this new attachment the Gowing Machine can now be adjusted to sew over-stitch by a simple change of parts. It can also be attached to old machines at small cost, thus making them up to date in every way. The machine will do everything that any other kind of carpet sewing machine can do and execute the work more perfectly than any other machine. Price, with over-stitch attachment, ... $150.00.

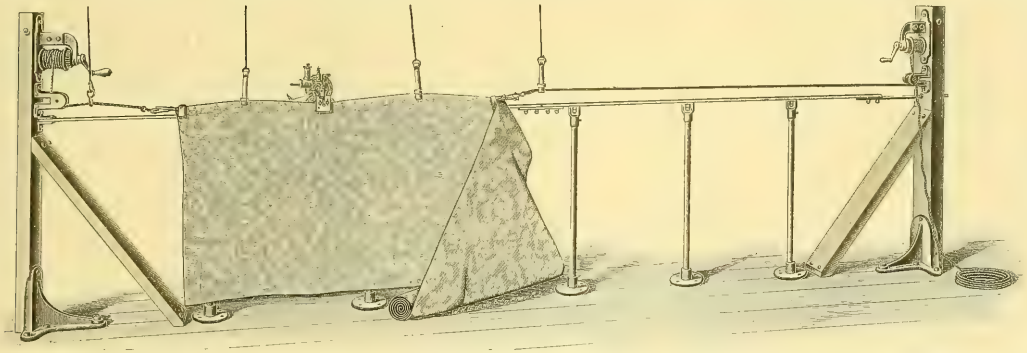
The Taft Universal Carpet Sewing Machine.



The first and only all round Carpet Sewing Machine ever invented. Sews carpets for less than ½c. per yard. A mechanical device of the highest type; complete in every detail. Requires the least possible space. Run by Hand or Power, electric motor if preferred.

TESTED TO SEW AT RATE OF 4 YARDS PER MINUTE. PUT UP TANDEM TO SEW 8 YARDS PER MINUTE OR 480 YARDS PER HOUR CARPET SEAM,

This machine will sew Ingrain Carpets over-stitch, practically a perfect imitation of hand sewn work. Being more even and stronger, will stand any amount of strain. Can be laid either side up. Will not rip. Will give perfect satisfaction. One inexperienced girl can, with this machine, sew more yards of Ingrain Carpet in one day than eight experienced hand sewers, and 20 per cent. better. With one of these machines you can deliver a carpet within one hour from time of receiving order for same. It is a well-known fact that 70 per cent. of the carpets made are Ingrain and no machine ever made to sew them, while dealers buy a machine to sew Tapestries, Brussels, &c., doing only 30 per cent. of their work. If 30 per cent. is worth one machine, 70 per cent. must be worth two, and a Taft machine which does 100 per cent. three. You must have the Ingrain Sewer to be up to date.

This machine is not confined to Ingrain work; but is equally good on all other carpets—Tapestries, Brussels, Wiltons and Straw Matting, &c. The machine can be changed in five seconds from over-stitch to straight stitch, and vice versa.

Will, without any change, overcast all raw edges, sew together two raw edges and overcast them. In fact, does all the work in its different branches with one operator, and is so arranged that a girl weighing one hundred pounds can handle any carpet with ease, and sew several hundred yards per day. The machine is simple, durable, light running and a rapid sewer. No carpet house can afford to be without one. Write for samples, terms, information and trial conditions to

This machine is sold direct only; no agents.

J. C. TAFT, Inventor and Sole Manufacturer, 40 Friendship St., Providence, R. I.

Crompton's New Ingrain Carpet Loom.

CROMPTON NEW INGRAIN CARPET LOOMS.

THE attention of manufacturers of Ingrain Carpets is called to the consideration of a new Carpet Loom just put on the market. It carries four (4) shuttle boxes at each end of the lathe; any one of the series at each end can be brought into line with the shuttle race at any pick, under the dictation of the Jacquard cards. The Jacquard is of the most approved construction and moves the warps kindly. The let off and take up motions bring out perfectly matched goods. On two ply work it makes sixty (60) yards per day. The apparatus for moving the boxes cannot be surpassed for its simplicity and efficiency. This Loom has no equal in speed and simplicity from four (4) to seven (7) colors.

CROMPTON ART SQUARE LOOM, for 3, 3½ and 4 yard goods, produces the best results and has no rival.

CROMPTON'S UPHOLSTERY LOOM, with Improved "1886" Box Motion, is capable of high speed and nice adjustment for its special line of goods.

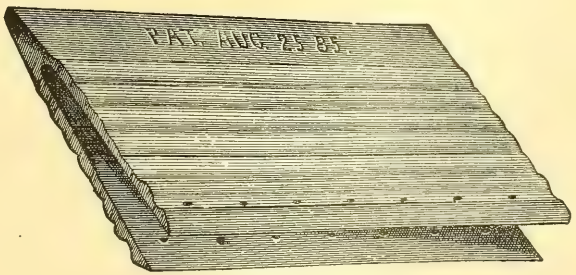
CARPETS, RUGS, OIL CLOTHS, Etc.

Sample and Price List forwarded on application.

Frames for holding the Fabric and Thread and Needles, specially prepared, for sale.



PATENTED AUGUST 25, 1885.

This Patent Rubber Binding holds the ends of Matting, Carpets, etc., down in place, does not curl up like other flexible bindings, is not affected by dampness, will not break when shaken and thrown about, and is very durable and easily adjusted.

The Many Advantages of this Patent Rubber Binding give it the preference over any other heretofore used on Matting and Carpet runners for Hotels, Stores, Steamboats, Offices, Elevators, Street Cars, Railroad Cars, etc., etc.

It is Made in ¾, ⅞, 1, 1¼, 1½ and 1¾ lengths and is perforated to facilitate the sewing. The most inexperienced person can sew it on perfectly.

This PATENT RUBBER BINDING can be obtained from all the Leading Carpet and Upholstery Dealers.

Wiltons, Brussels, Ingrains.

LOWELL CARPETS have been justly celebrated for more than half a century. For the guidance of buyers the word "Lowell" is woven in white capital letters in the back of our Wiltons and Brussels at each repeat of the pattern. The fabrics are of the best quality, designs and coloring.

Our Middlesex Wiltons have the word "Middlesex" woven in the back. The word is registered as our Trade Mark in the United States Patent Office.

The popular Lowell Ingrains are wound on a hollow stick made in two solid pieces, with the words "Lowell Man'g. Co." stamped within, a patented United States Trade Mark.

Bigelow Carpet Company,

ORIGINAL POWER-LOOM MANUFACTURERS OF

WILTON AND BRUSSELS

CARPETS.

The Carpets made by this Company have received the highest award wherever exhibited, including Gold Medals at the Paris Exposition, 1878, and at the Centennial, 1876.

Their deserved reputation for excellence of fabric, richness and durability of color, novelty and beauty of design, has led to frequent infringements, and inferior goods have often been palmed off in their stead. For the protection of the public the Company has adopted as a trade-mark the word "BIGELOW," which will be woven (at every repeat of the pattern) in white capitals into the back of the fabric. Customers will therefore have merely to examine the back of a carpet to be certain that they are getting the genuine Bigelow Wiltons or Body Brussels.

These Goods can be obtained from all first-class dealers.

UPHOLSTERY DEPARTMENT, PAGE 45.

☞ Our readers are urged to remember that we are always desirous to receive communications of interest to the carpet or upholstery trades, such as changes in firms or managers, the building or opening of new stores, improvements in old ones, the adding of new departments, improved methods of doing business, new inventions, suggestions as to the cutting, making and laying of carpets, the designing and fitting of draperies, or inquiries and dissertations relating to the technical or commercial details of the trades to which this periodical is devoted.

RETAIL BUSINESS.

A FEW travelers are making second trips, but wholesale trade is exceedingly dull, retail dealers having been in no mood for buying under the recent weather conditions. All branches of retail trade have suffered seriously through the cold and storms of the past four weeks, and the country dealers have special reason for complaint on account of the bad condition of the roads. The warm weather of the present week if continued is likely to have a favorable effect on retail business. It is generally believed that this seasonable weather is all that is needed to insure an active trade which will keep the retail dealers busy from now well into June.

THE DATING AGREEMENT.

THE movement referred to in our April 1 number as having started among the Ingrain makers of Philadelphia to restrict dating ahead to March 1 and September 1 has extended to Brussels, Tapestry and about all kinds of carpet fabric. About every carpet manufacturer in Philadelphia, and the majority of those in other sections, has signed the agreement, making eighty names on the list altogether. Even if a few concerns do not eventually sign, the consensus of opinion among those who have signed is to put the agreement into force for the fall season.

It is considered that the jobbers throughout the country will naturally fall into line on the matter, as if they do not receive further dating than March 1 or September 1 they obviously cannot give any further dating to their customers. We shall probably be able to publish the complete list of manufacturers who have signed the dating agreement in our May 1 issue.

THE NEW GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENT.

THE New York Chamber of Commerce adopted on the 2d inst. a resolution approving of Senator Frye's bill to create a department of commerce and manufactures. The National Association of Manufacturers has appointed a committee to take action upon the same matter, and among its members are Col. William Barbour, of the Barbour Brothers Company, and Benjamin Atha, of Atha & Hughes.

THE NEW BANKRUPTCY BILL.

The amended Torrey national bankruptcy bill, which will soon be reported to the House, is a compromise between those who demand a law for voluntary bankruptcy only and those who demand the involuntary feature.

Involuntary bankruptcy may be forced only when a debtor absconds or conceals himself for four months with intent to defraud, or has failed if his property is levied on for $500 or more, he being insolvent, to release the property, or has made a transfer of some of his property for the purpose of defrauding his creditors, and not regained the same within ten days, or made an assignment, or while insolvent permitted a preference operating for ten days, or permitted a fraudulent judgment, or has for ten days secreted his property with intent to defraud, or suffered executions for $500 to be returned "No property found," or while insolvent has suspended and not resumed for thirty days, and until a petition is filed, the payment of his commercial paper for $500 or more. Discharges will be good except for tax debts, debts negligently left unscheduled, debts created by fraud or wrong or fiduciary debts. The act does not apply to persons engaged chiefly in farming, or to wage workers who do not earn more than $1,500 per annum.

A radical change from the old law is made, in that title to the property of the bankrupt does not pass from him until actual adjudication.

SUPPRESSING FRAUDULENT AUCTIONS.

In speaking recently of the progress made by the Association for the Suppression of Fraudulent Auctions, S. P. Morse, its associate manager, said :

The best houses in all the leading cities have taken up the matter. particularly in Boston, Cleveland, Detroit, St. Louis and Buffalo, Letters have been received from prominent houses all over the country east of Denver, and merchants generally seem to be alive to the importance of the movement. There have been many additions to the list of membership, and several who did not care to join because they were not interested in rugs have written letters indorsing the plan of the association. Among those who have recently joined the association are Torrey, Bright & Capen, Thos. O'Callaghan and Joel Goldthwaite & Co., of Boston ; Adam, Meldrum & Anderson, of Buffalo ; Trorlicht, Duncker & Renard, of St. Louis ; the John Shillito Company, of Cincinnati, and McCallum & McCallum, of Philadelphia.

Mr. Morse further said that good results had already been accomplished in this city. "The Easter season," said he, "is usually a harvest period for the 'fake' auctioneers, but there has been no auction sale of Oriental rugs in this city for two weeks, which is a state of affairs that has not existed here at this season for several years. There have been no new prosecutions as yet, but we have evidence in cases against three other auctioners. We are awaiting decision in the cases already pending before taking up these new cases. There have been no prosecutions in other cities as yet.

R. H. & B. C. Reeve are building an additional warehouse for manufactured goods, 55x40 feet, at their floor oil cloth works, Camden, N. J.

H. H. Taylor, 617 Bryant avenue, North, Minneapolis, is prepared to make hassocks for the trade from remnants and clippings of carpeting supplied by the dealers or to execute any special orders for hassocks. He is well situated to cater to a large part of the Western trade and will give attractive prices. His advertisement appears on page 107.

H. W. Hammond & Co. and Hughes & Isherwood, the Liverpool wool brokers, in their circulars dated March 26 say that the result of the auction sales of East India wool which closed on the 20th ult. was very satisfactory, but that American orders were on a smaller scale than usual.

EXTRA QUALITY JAPANESE RUGS.

To keep abreast of the desires of the trade J. R. Simon & Co. have arranged for supplies of the extra improved quality Japanese rugs and have just received a large new invoice of these goods, which they offer at prices that they say are lower than are quoted by any other house for the extra quality. The goods include the very desirable and stylish delft blue rugs and several patterns in blue and white. Simon & Co. can interest all buyers of rugs in their new lines, and say they will prove this to any buyer who will write to them for quotations.

They have also just received a large assignment of porch blinds, which they are closing out for the account of the manufacturer at prices very much below the real value. These porch blinds can be handled with profit by carpet and upholstery dealers and it is just the season to move them. Quotations on this special lot will be furnished on application.

Every rug buyer should make it a point, if possible, to call at the salesroom of J. R. Simon & Co., 15 to 21 Greene street, New York, or at least write to them.

INSURANCE AGAINST BAD DEBTS.

The Supreme Court of Massachusetts decided on the 1st inst. that insurance against bad debts is not valid in that State. The case which brought the question before the court is the suit of the assignees of the firm of E. Thompson & Co. against the United States Credit System Company to recover $3,500 in bad debts insured in 1891. Thompson & Co. sold goods to the above amount to Tennessee parties and were unable to collect, although insured, and by the refusal of the credit company to pay the firm failed. The assignee, Charles L. Claflin, brought suit and the jury found in favor of the plaintiff for $3,363.47. The defendant's exceptions were carried to the full court and sustained. The court declares that no authority is given by the statute of 1887 to any insurer, domestic or foreign, to insure mercantile credits or accounts. There is a bill before the Massachusetts Legislature to amend this act so that companies may engage in this insurance.

Gleanings in Gotham

G. Iskiyan has removed from 113 Elm street to 481 Canal street, and now occupies two floors.

Ludwig Baumann will erect a ten story brick business building at 260 to 266 West Thirty-sixth street.

Seftenberg Brothers & Co., dealers in dry goods, carpets, &c., Columbus, Tex., have opened an office in this city at 394 Broadway.

The H. B. Claflin Company has declared a quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent. on the common stock for the quarter ending March 31 last.

The Cowperthwait Company has added two adjoining stores to its establishment on Chatham square, which now comprises nine connecting stores.

The stock and fixtures of Julius M. Steele, 492 Grand street, were sold by auction on the 10th inst. The liabilities of Mr. Steele are $2,698.06.

John W. Greene, selling agent for the East India Manufacturing Company's cocoa mats and matting, has removed from 26 South William street to 88 Wall street.

The J. W. Dimick Company's extensive offerings in Wiltons, Velvets, Body Brussels, Tapestries, Ingrains and Wilton rugs have found great favor among buyers. The line is the best the company has ever shown and the demand has been correspondingly great.

Robert Beattie & Sons' high grade Velvet carpets are always sure of a large demand, and the present season has proved no exception to this rule. A fine line of new and original patterns was offered at the opening of the season, and the great merits of the line have been quickly recognized in the trade.

Arnold, Constable & Co. have been very busy in both their carpet and rug departments, while their straw matting trade has surpassed the records of all previous seasons. Mr. Hockridge's immense and exclusive offerings in Chinese and Japanese mattings have evidently been promptly appreciated by buyers.

Pearson & Emmott, the matting and wool importers, will remove May 1 from 64 White street to offices in the Wool Exchange Building, West Broadway and Beach street. In their new quarters they will also have warehouse room, which will enable them to show their extensive stock of straw mattings to much better advantage than is possible in their present premises.

Wm. F. Carroll, treasurer and manager of the New York and Amsterdam Carpet Company, will leave for China and Japan next month. He goes to arrange for large matting importations for next season and to purchase directly from the native manufacturers. Mr. Carroll intends to make hereafter a specialty of importing matting.

The machinery in the cocoa matting and mat works of the East India Manufacturing Company, Piqua, Ohio, has been removed to a large factory at 130 to 140 North Eleventh street, Brooklyn, N. Y., where the manufacture of matting and mats will be continued under the management of Mr. Miller, and on a more extensive scale than ever before.

The tenants of the Central National Bank have been ordered to vacate their premises May 1, when the bank will begin the erection of a new fifteen story office building. This will necessitate the removal of the carpet department of Tefft, Weiler & Co. As there is no room in their present quarters for Mr. Miller's department, it will be removed to E. S. Jaffray & Co.'s old annex, 109 and 111 Leonard street, about May 10.

Among the buyers who have been sheltered in Gotham's numerous hotels during the past fortnight were: C. E. Bennett, of Bennett, Morgan & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.; C. A. Rex, Mauch Chunk, Pa.; W. A. Boyd, of the Julius Lansburgh Furniture and Carpet Company, Washington, D. C.; J. B. Schaefer, of J. B. Schaefer & Sons, Buffalo, N. Y.; J. Jorgensen, of the Jorgensen-Blesch Company, Green Bay, Wis.; Charles F. Bacon, for R. H. White & Co., Boston; Lewis Putt, Renovo, Pa.; H. E. Taylor, of Taylor Brothers, Pittsburg, Pa.; O. H. Hart, of the Hart Carpet Company, Denver Col.; C. W. Berry, of Berry & Son, Akron, Ohio; Bennett Pike (rugs), for Jordan, Marsh & Co., Boston; A. Brunner, Portsmouth, Ohio; C. E. Marsh, of Marsh & Bloxham, Norwalk, Ohio; W. H. Hann, of the Thompson Dry Goods Company, Mansfield, Ohio; L. M. Wright, Dover, Del.; James A. Anderson, Seneca Falls, N. Y.; G. J. Mager, of G. J. Mager & Co., Cortland, N. Y.; Max Heller, for Julius Meyer & Sons, Richmond, Va.; S. T. McCornac, for Edson, Moore & Co., Detroit; T. B. Anderson, of Anderson & McLaughlin, Latrobe, Pa.; C. L. Upham, of Ives, Upham & Rand, Meriden, Conn.; Frank A. Ray, for Wm. M. Whitney & Co., Albany, N. Y.; Geo. B. Adams, of Geo. B. Adams & Co., of Olean, Newburgh and Middletown, N. Y.; C. F. Sisson, of Sisson Brothers & Welden, Binghamton, N. Y.; F. P. Burlingame, for the Callender, McAuslan & Troup Company, Providence, R. I.; W. H. H. Neal, of Neal & Hyde, Syracuse, N. Y.; J. J. Halligan, of Halligan & Meagher, Oswego, N. Y.; S. and F. L. Smith, of S. & F. L. Smith, Hazleton, Pa.;

....Thomas Depuy, the Second street carpet dealer, is on a visit to Atlantic City.

....Walter Saville, for many years head dyer in J. & J. Dobson's mill, died on the 5th inst.

....H. Tashgian, of New York, has opened an Oriental rug and carpet store at 1342 Chestnut street.

....Alex. Crow, Jr., has recently recorded several good orders for Ingrain carpets at his room, 654 Bourse.

....The Geo. W. Blabon Company are building a two story machine shop, 40x50 feet, at their works in Nicetown.

....Alex. Crow, Jr., has two-thirds of his 200 looms in full operation filling orders. A very good record for the season.

....John & James Dobson are putting in an oil cloth exhibitor constructed upon an altogether new principle, the motion being of the revolving order.

....F. B. Bru-Baker, agent for Koch & te Kock, visited Philadelphia a few days ago with a fine line of the elegant mohair, worsted and wool rugs they are producing.

....A grand exhibition of all kinds of manufactured goods will be inaugurated April 27 in the exhibition rooms on the seventh floor of the Bourse, to continue one week.

....Robert Dornan 2d, nephew of Robert Dornan, and Walter S. Humphreys, of Dornan Brothers' office force, are making their maiden efforts as road salesmen through Pennsylvania.

....A fire on the 10th inst. in the building at Firth and Emerald streets caused damage to the extent of $4,000 in the premises of John Kuestner, Ingrain manufacturer, who occupied the second floor.

....Some people thought that the new weaves in Ingrains would make Three Ply carpets take a back seat, but the old fabric dies hard ; in fact, it does not propose to die at all, but is now coming to the front.

....Daniel Sheard's rug mill at York and Waterloo streets was damaged to the extent of $800 by fire on the 2d inst. The cause is thought to have been spontaneous combustion. Loss covered by insurance.

....Joseph Whitely, formerly with Henry Holmes, now has charge of Carson & Irwin's room, No. 590 Bourse. He will also show a line of Dickey & McMaster's Venetians and Wm. T. Smith & Sons' Smyrna rugs.

....Among recent visitors at the Bourse were : Buyer for Brown & Hamilton, New Castle, Pa.; Bennett Pike, of Jordan, Marsh & Co., Boston, Mass.; Mr. Peacock, buyer for Megarg & Co., Wilmington, Del.; Mr. Litchenstein, of Litchenstein & Hart, Wilmington, Del.; J. M. Grimley, Allentown, Pa.; Edward Able, Easton, Pa.; C. W. Snyder, Toledo, Ohio ; John Lawfer, of W. R. Lawfer & Co., Allentown, Pa.; buyer for the J. P. Bishop Cash Company, Staunton, Va.; L. W. Miller, Milford, N. J.; F. J. Tower (new firm), Vineland, N. J.; buyer for Wm. Murray, Sons & Co., Altoona, Pa.

....L. E. Herring, with Swire & Scott, has been taking several good orders at their room, 682 Bourse. Mr. Herring is in charge of the room when he is not on the road.

....The territory to be covered by Geo. D. Fleming for Thos. Develon's Sons, the Ingrain manufacturers, comprises Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia, New Jersey, Delaware and the South, with headquarters at the firm's Bourse office.

....Fred Senior, representing Sperry & Beale, 81 White street, New York, visited the trade in Philadelphia during the past fortnight. In addition to the regular line of goods sold by that firm, he carried some fine samples of the patent Hodges fiber carpets and rugs.

....Trade continues dull among the retail carpet men of Philadelphia, but they put on a cheerful aspect, looking for an improvement as spring advances. Mattings are at the front in all the stores and are beginning to move. A few days of warm weather will put a new face upon the situation.

....Geo. Van Dyne recently took a special run through the larger cities of Eastern Pennsylvania, and surprised the Bromley Brothers Company with the acceptable orders he brought back. Nothing under the sun can evidently stale or wither Mr. Van Dyne's infinite variety or faculty for selling Ingrains.

....Frank Osborne, with John & James Dobson, is ill at a hospital in Detroit, Mich. Mr. Osborne left Philadelphia a few days ago to transact some very important business at the West for his house, and took a severe cold while in the cars, which resulted in pneumonia. For a time he was critically ill, but we are happy to say he is now recovering.

....Dornan Brothers were running only about one-third their plant last week, but had run full since early in November until along in March ; hence they obtained a fair share of the trade going during the season. Their traveling men went out on second trips the 6th instant, but so far have secured but few orders. Robert Dornan says they are adhering strictly to running on orders only.

....At a meeting of the stockholders of the James Lees & Sons Company, held at their office at Bridgeport, Pa., April 1, the following officers and directors were elected for the ensuing year : President, Wm. Ivins ; vice-president, C. F. Williams ; secretary, W. L. Stauffer, and treasurer, A. T. Eastwick. Directors, Wm. Ivins, C. F. Williams, A. T. Eastwick, W. L. Stauffer and J. Renwick Hogg. The Lees Company are manufacturers of worsted and woolen carpet yarns, blankets, cassimeres and dress goods. President Ivins and Director J. Renwick Hogg are also members of the Ivins, Dietz & Metzger Company.

....Philip Doerr & Sons are running as fully in proportion to their number of looms as any other mill in Philadelphia, or two-thirds of their plant. One of the best evidences that trade since March 1 has not been up to the mark is that the Doerr mill had some looms idle during that month, for it is a more unusual happening with this concern than with the average of Ingrain manufacturers.

....Daniel Currie is running his Norris Ingrain Mills very nearly to full capacity. Better duplicates have come in than were expected, hence the renewed activity of the mills. This season has advanced the widening distribution of Norris Mills Ingrains, and the increased line of customers is noticeable through the incoming duplicates. Samuel Currie made a round of the large Western cities a few weeks ago.

....The Press of the 4th inst. published the portrait of and referred in very complimentary terms to Dr. Robert B. Judge, who is a visiting surgeon of the Jefferson Hospital and has served terms as resident surgeon at the Episcopal, Jefferson, St. Mary's and Jewish hospitals. Dr. Judge has also an interest in the carpet business, as he is a son of the deceased James Judge, whose estate retains the latter's interest in the firm of Wm. Judge & Brothers.

....J. & J. Dobson have a new fabric on exhibition in their show window which they have christened under the name of "Hejaz," the "j" having the sound of "y." It is of the velvet order in quality, and is made in 3-4 and 6-4 widths. The peculiarity of the production is that instead of being in plain and solid colors, it is mottled in such a manner as to produce a brilliant and glossy effect. A very handsome contrasting ⅝ border is made to go with it.

....John Gay's Sons report about one-half of their plant as now in operation. They ran full, however, longer than most other mills, and taking the season altogether have nothing to complain of. The remarkable attractiveness and sterling quality of the Park Mill Extras is strongly demonstrated by the satisfactory aggregate in what has been a very short season. They will fill all duplicates for the remainder of the season with exceptional promptness.

....One of the very best reports from Ingrain mills is that received from the Bromley Brothers Carpet Company. They have certainly been favored with far more than the average business this season, for they had only some twenty-five looms stopped last week. The demand for their Ingrains and Art Squares has been remarkable in view of general conditions, and their senior salesman, George Van Dyne, has equaled his record of number of pieces sold of last spring's season, a feat of salesmanship well worth noting, and which is verified by Thos. Bromley, Jr. Doubtless one reason for the Bromley Brothers Company's exceptional condition is the great variety of goods offered this season, including exclusive novelties in weaves and styles. One taking novelty in their line is stair or hall runners in Ingrain, showing a solid colored centre and a beautifully colored border in light, graceful effect. This effect in Ingrain runners is not shown by any other manufacturer. With any kind of a movement in retail trade the company are bound to receive good duplicates.

The newest shadings and latest designs are used in Hope Mills Ingrains, manufactured by D. Jamieson's Sons, Philadelphia, Pa.

A BIG PHILADELPHIA STORE.

Geo. Kelly, who for many years has occupied the store 810 Market street, Philadelphia, has been obliged, by increase of business, to remove to new and more commodious quarters which he has secured in the elegant iron front building on the same street, a few doors east of the old stand. The new store, an illustration of which is presented herewith, is 57 feet wide by 118 feet deep. The entrance is through an arch two stories in height, the approach to the door being a floor of mosaic pavement. The basement is occupied exclusively for china and glassware, with the exception of the space used for the offices. The first floor is devoted to dry goods generally, upholstery goods and millinery, together with an extensive shoe department. The second story is given up to men's ready made clothing, also furnishing goods, shoes and hats. The third story is devoted exclusively to carpets and oil cloths and is under the management of John Eberbach. The department is one of the finest in the city for the display of carpets, as it has a high ceiling and is lighted from large windows in the front and rear.

The fourth story is occupied by a portion of the furniture stock, consisting of parlor work and fancy cabinet goods. The fifth floor is also used for furniture, the display consisting of chamber suites, chiffoniers, hat racks, tables, desks, &c.

Broadbeck Brothers, Portsmouth, Ohio, have dissolved.

Hall & Bede have opened a carpet store at Lynn, Mass.

Stearn & Co. have started in the rug business at York, Pa.

Bolger Brothers succeed T. J. Laughlin, Minocqua, Wis.

Kerker & Wiles succeed H. N. Wiles & Co. at Ripley, Ohio.

M. Kineon has bought out William Beal, Westerville, Ohio.

J. E. Doherty has opened a carpet store at Belding, Mich.

Huntress & Rogers, Breckenridge, Col., succeed Harry Rogers.

J. A. & A. C. Douglas, Delhi, N. J., succeed J. A. Douglas.

W. H. Smith & Co., Hopedale, Ill., have closed out their business.

Waller & Co. have started in the carpet business at Neoga, Ill.

W. H. Martin succeeds J. S. Manners & Co., Frenchtown, N. J.

H. W. Atwater succeeds C. O. Longnecker Company, Rochelle, Ill.

Yingling & Middlekauf are a new firm in carpets at Hagerstown, Md.

The Boston Store, North Adams, Mass., has added a carpet department.

Roenke & Rogers, Geneva, N. Y., have enlarged their carpet department.

B. L. Dewey, Dowagiac, Mich., has moved into a new and handsome store.

Ruddy Brothers, Canton, Ohio, have assigned. They have been in business ten years.

J. S. Mann & Co. succeed W. H. Martin, dealer in dry goods, carpets, &c., Frenchtown, N. J.

L. Green & Son, Bowling Green, Ky., have added carpets and matting to their furniture stock.

McKay & Eppinger, Baker City, Ore., are succeeded by the McKay & Eppinger Furniture Company.

The St. Ouge & D. G. O'Neil Company have succeeded the A. J. St. Ouge Company, Providence, R. I.

Mortimer C. Drake, of New York, has bought the stock and good will of Hubbard & Foshay, Kingston, N. Y.

W. H. Fernald and Wm. Martin have started in the carpet, curtain, grate and mantel business at Topeka, Kan.

Prudden Brothers, carpet and furniture dealers, Lockport, N. Y., have thoroughly renovated their store and have acquired additional space by the removal of the Sharp Crockery Company.

Castlen & Kilin have opened a carpet and furniture store at New Richmond, Ohio.

Winner & Carver, Sparta, Ky., have dissolved partnership, Mr. Carver having retired.

The plant of the Victor Rug Company has been removed from Amsterdam to Fort Hunter, N. Y.

James J. Coakley will build a new store for dry goods and carpets in the Burns Building, Shenandoah, Pa.

The capital stock of the Swofford Brothers Dry Goods Company, Kansas City, has been increased from $300,000 to $600,000.

The Cordes, Feldhauser & Loftus Carpet Company, Denver, Col., have changed their firm style to the Cordes & Feldhauser Company.

W. L. Roebuck & Co., Delphos, Ohio, have dissolved, and the business is continued by Mrs. A. Moore, who was a member of the old firm.

The contract for furnishing carpets and curtains for the Southern Hotel, Chattanooga, Tenn., has been awarded to the Timothy Dry Goods and Carpet Company.

House & Herrmann, the Washington, D. C., carpet and furniture dealers, have removed to their new building, which has already been described in these columns.

The carpet department of the Rissers' store at Des Moines, Ia., has been leased by L. E. Sheldahi, who has been one of Risser & Brother's salesmen for many years.

The bursting of a steam pipe in the C. F. Adams Company's store at Syracuse, N. Y., on the 1st inst., caused several thousand dollars' worth of damage to the stock.

The Montgomery Block at Dayton, Ohio, was destroyed by fire on the 3d inst. One of the occupants was the C. F. Adams Home Furnishing Company, whose loss was $2,500.

The Gately & Donovan Company has moved into its new store at Saginaw (E. S.), Mich., and it is one of the best and handsomest in the city, the company having built it especially for its business.

Water overflowed from a radiator at the carpet and furniture warerooms of the Pinkham & Willis Company, Worcester, Mass., on the 26th ult., and damaged much expensive furniture, causing a loss of $3,000 to $4,000.

House & Herrmann, Washington, D. C., had their opening in their new store the evening of April 6, and a pleasant time was afforded to all visitors. The firm secured the services of the Marine Band, and popular music was one of the enjoyable features.

W. E. Wilcox and his son, H. E. Wilcox, Highland, N. Y., who have been occupying adjoining stores, have become partners, and have connected the two stores by cutting a door between them. A carpet and a wall paper department will be added.

The Steelton (Pa.) Store Company is putting a second story on the furniture department of that large establishment. More room was needed, and it was found necessary to put the addition in place. When completed it will add largely to the appearance of the building, and also give the company ample room for storage.

The assignee of L. & H. Blum, Galveston, Tex., reports that that firm's assets as shown on the books are $2,880,497 and the liabilities $2,283,917. He has called a meeting of creditors for to-day, the 15th inst., and notified them that to bring the assets to a cash basis will create a very large shrinkage. The statement counts $1,052,347.63 of book assets as entirely worthless. To New York creditors is due $1,217,018.

Martin Brothers, Port Huron, Mich., filed two chattel mortgages on the 6th inst., aggregating $50,000. The first mortgage is for $25,000, and is in favor of Hood, Foulkrod & Co., Philadelphia, and the First National Bank of Port Huron. The mortgages cover the store at Port Huron, and also one at Memphis, Mich.

William Gercke, doing business as the Gercke Furniture Company, San Francisco, assigned his assets to James S. Greig recently for the benefit of his creditors. His principal liabilities are as follows: Hibernia Bank, $2,000; London and San Francisco Bank, $2,000; W. & J. Sloane & Co., $2,550; William Shields' estate, $600.

The new addition to the store of Meekins, Packard & Wheat, Springfield, Mass., will soon be ready for occupancy. Every department of the establishment will be enlarged and made more complete. The firm's carpet, upholstery and furniture departments will be even more conspicuous features of their business than they have been heretofore.

At a meeting of the creditors of H. Kuhne, Newark, N. J., on the 30th ult., Mr. Kuhne stated that the actual assets of the firm were $30,699.29, and the liabilities about $27,200. Mr. Kuhne offered 25 cents on the dollar, and after some further discussion raised the offer to 30 cents. It is probable that this will be accepted by the creditors and that Mr. Kuhne will resume business.

The balance of the stock of Wood & Hall, carpet and furniture dealers, Fall River, Mass., who failed recently, has been disposed of. The dividend which the creditors of Wood & Hall will receive depends largely on the settlement of the claim for rent. It is said that points of law are involved, and that it will be necessary to determine whether the transaction by which the stock in trade was held for rent was valid. If that claim, which is for $1,500, must be paid in full, there will not be much left of the assets.

It is alleged that J. E. Conway, of Great Barrington, Mass., whose financial difficulties were reported in our issue of the 1st inst., made in February of this year a statement showing that he had a surplus of $18,000, the only liabilities acknowledged being a mortgage of $1,000 on real estate and merchandise indebtedness of $200. But it is now alleged that on January 29 one Peter Cassidy was given a mortgage of $3,000 on Conway's stock. A. C. Collins has been made assignee. The liabilities are estimated at $4,300.

D. Wilson, receiver of the D. W. Hyman Company, Cincinnati, has brought suit against that company, D. Hyman, Fannie Berges, Harry Sterne, Max Lanfer, A. L. Browne, Sophy Sterne, Anna Franks, Moses Ruskin, Bischoff's Sons, Kuhn & Sons and Lena and Hannah Hyman. The receiver alleges that all of these defendants have been paid money which belongs to the creditors of the company. Referring to particular cases, he alleges that $24,000 paid by Klein to Hyman was a fraudulent payment; that an alleged indebtedness to Fannie Berges of $7,000 was secured by an assignment amounting to $17,000, and an alleged claim of the Bischoffs against the company for $15,700 was secured by an assignment to Sterne of good accounts amounting to $37,000.

HAVE you had the catalogue of the Interior Hardwood Company, of Indianapolis, telling how to sell parquet floors along with rugs? If not, send for one.

THE WOOL CLUB.

AMONG the downtown clubs which have become so popular of late days, very few started out under better auspices or have made greater progress than the Wool Club, of which Mayor Strong is president. It occupies the top floor of the new Wool Exchange Building on the corner of West Broadway and Beach street, and has one of the most tastefully fitted up establishments in the city. The location is admirably adapted for the convenience of the carpet and upholstery trade, and recently there has been a movement to extend the membership among this class of merchants. Among those well known to our readers are Robert Dornan, Sheppard Knapp, S. B. Chittenden, F. L. Hunninghaus, E. T. Hillyer, Edward Pearson, J. M. Fourquereau, J. M. Emmott, E. O. Lancaster, E. W. Tingue, O. Passavant and E. H. Bailey.

Among those who have hired offices in the new Exchange Building are Pearson & Emmott, importers of China mattings and brokers in wool. They are removing from White street to Rooms 411 and 412 Wool Exchange Building, where they will have space to show wool in bales and matting in rolls.

S. J. TELLERY & Co. have booked larger and more numerous orders on their India rugs and carpets for the coming fall and spring trade than ever before, and the fact that about everyone who bought the goods previously is not only anxious to repeat but to enlarge his business with the house shows how well the goods have sold. A. J. Blumberg is back in New York after his round for import orders, and did so well that he had to stop selling on some goods before the trip was completed. Mr. S. J. Tellery, the senior of the firm, who makes his headquarters in Bombay, will visit Van Gaasbeek & Arkell, the American agents, in June.

OBITUARY.

Thomas D. Whitaker.

Thomas Drake Whitaker, youngest son of the late William Whitaker, died of heart disease on the 7th ult. at the age of thirty-six years. Mr. Whitaker was graduated at the University of Pennsylvania as a mechanical engineer, and soon afterward entered the firm of William Whittaker & Sons, Philadelphia. For several years he took an active part in the business of the firm, but retained his interest in engineering studies, and became a frequent contributor to scientific and engineering publications. He was a prominent member of the American Institute of Mining Engineers, the Franklin Institute and the Engineers' Club. He was the first president of the Philadelphia and Bustleton Railroad Company, and a member of the Corinthian Yacht Club. He leaves a widow and one son.

Thomas H. Bowen.

Thomas H. Bowen, manager of W. H. Elliott's carpet department, Detroit, died of typhoid pneumonia on the 29th ult. at the Harper Hospital in that city. He was stricken with the disease a week previously, up to which time he was in usual health and attending to business. Mr. Bowen was born in Ireland about thirty-five years ago, and went to Detroit in 1884, securing employment with the Metcalf Brothers Company. Subsequently he went with Hunter, Glenn & Hunter, and was in their carpet department up to a year ago, when he took charge of the new carpet department of W. H. Elliott. He had made a notable success of the department and bid fair to assume a prominent place in the carpet trade. He was universally popular with the wholesale carpet trade and was highly esteemed by his employer and coworkers in the house. The remains were taken to New Haven after the impressive and largely attended funeral services in Detroit.

James Stritwater, head of the firm of Stritwater Brothers, New Castle, Pa., died in that city on the 30th ult.

Carl Philips, traveling representative of the Carpet Manufacturing Company, Kidderminster, England, died at Berlin, Germany, recently.

James Kydd, of the firm of J. & T. Kydd, Fernandina, Fla., died of heart disease in New York on the 31st ult. Mr. Kydd had lived in this city for six years past, acting as resident buyer for his firm. He was an elder in the Fourth Presbyterian Church, superintendent of its Sunday school, and a member of the board of managers of the New York Bible Society.

Capt. William Steinbuhler, who died at Capitola, Cal., on the 21st ult. at the age of seventy-five years, was for some years a successful carpet dealer in San Francisco. He retired from business about fifteen years ago. He was born in Vienna, Austria, and before coming to the United States he served as a captain in the Austrian army. During our civil war he entered the Union army as a captain and made an excellent record as a soldier, serving through the war. He leaves a widow.

Mrs. Sarah C. Elliott, who died at her home in Newark on Saturday, was of an old and almost extinct generation of Newarkers. She was born in New York city on May 18, 1819, of Connecticut stock, and moved to Newark in 1853. Her first husband was William D. Bruen, and eighteen years after his death she married John Elliott, of New York. She leaves four sons and one daughter, the latter being the widow of Ambassador Theodore Runyon. Of the sons, Wm. D. and James Bruen will be remembered as formerly of Virolet & Bruen and Bruen Brothers, agents for Geo. W. Blabon & Co.

AFFAIRS OF BOVARD, LIPPHART & CO.

THE Union Trust Company has been appointed receiver of the firm of Bovard, Lipphart & Co., Pittsburg, Pa., an application for the receivership having been made by Jas. H. Irons, who purchased an interest in the firm on May 15, 1895, for $10,500 in cash and a further sum of $5,500. The capital of the firm at that time was said to be $72,000, of which Jas. Bovard was said to have $32,000, Chas. Lipphart $24,000 and J. H. Irons $16,000. It is reported that they have notes outstanding of about $18,000. At the time of partnership it was claimed that fixtures were worth $12,000, accounts receivable $41,232.35, stock $71,357.63; total, $124,589.98, with liabilities of $32,077.25, leaving a surplus of $92,512.73. Mr. Irons now states that accounts receivable were $69,941.25 and stock accounts $78,066.53, while liabilities were $42,077.25, which, without fixtures, aggregate $148,007.77, showing a nominal surplus of over $100,000.

A. J. WILKINSON, 564 Washington street, Boston, has become the New England agent for W. T. Smith & Son's Smyrna rugs.

BENJ. MCCABE, 80 White street, New York, is now showing a new jute Velvet carpeting of improved quality and in up to date patterns. They are called Bengal Velvets and are very sightly and bound to be good sellers. Mr. McCabe says the sales of his jute Brussels and some jute rugs continue ahead of the supply.

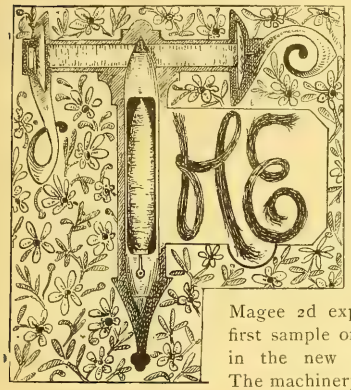
THE new Japanese rug made by the Lamond & Robertson Company, Paterson, N. J., is selling up to the fullest production. It is made in 30x60 and 36x72 inch sizes, and is particularly suitable for summer use and in connection with matting. If you haven't seen it order a sample, after which you will surely carry them in stock.

JOSEPH N. DAMON, treasurer of the Union Carpet Lining Company, reports a most curious state of affairs in the wool business. The foreign wool stocks are very much higher in Europe than in America. Every pound of wool stock imported this spring by the Union Carpet Lining Company has been sold and cannot be replaced at prices formerly purchased at. Mr. Damon thinks that this will probably lead to considerable exportation.

F. G. ROGERS, 24 North Ninth street, Philadelphia, offers attractive prices on Art Squares in his advertisement on page 92. Other drives with him are floor oil cloths, No. 1's at 27½ cents, 2's at 22½ cents, and 3's at 20 cents, less 12½ per cent. trade discount; hassocks are quoted at $4.50, $6 and $7 per dozen. In mattings Mr. Rogers has a variety of desirable goods at as low prices as can be obtained in the market. The prices are from 8½ cents upward, with fine cotton warp at 15 cents, and extremely fine pliable Japanese matting with inserted figures at 20 cents. His stock of rugs made from carpet samples is kept in good shape for filling orders.

A NEW TAPESTRY MILL.

THE MAGEE CARPET WORKS READY TO MAKE TAPESTRIES AT BLOOMSBURG, PA.



NEW Tapestry plant at Bloomsburg, Pa., which has been in preparation for several months past, is very nearly completed and will be in operation by the opening of the fall season. James Magee 2d expects to show the first sample of goods produced in the new plant this week. The machinery equipment is of the latest improved type, and every advantage has been secured for quick and economical manufacture. The trade would have heard a great deal more about this new Tapestry plant were it located in some of the carpet producing centres, but its situation in Bloomsburg is so aside from any general line of travel that reports of its progress have been only obtained infrequently and without much detail. A Review representative was therefore very much surprised on visiting Bloomsburg, at the size, superior character and advanced condition of the new plant. It has been established by an incorporated stock company, entitled the Magee Carpet Works, with James Magee 2d treasurer and general manager. Mr. Magee also established the Bloomsburg Carpet Works in 1890, which manufacture Ingrain carpets in the same town and which company will doubtless be merged with the Magee Carpet Works very shortly. The new Tapestry plant comprises a weaving shed 80x140 feet, with north skylights, and erected on the most improved plans. Underneath it is a half basement room of the same area, containing the drums, starching, steaming and other machinery. This two story structure is solidly built of brick and stone, and the natural light is so superbly distributed that only when night approaches will it be necessary to use artificial light.

There are now fifty-two new high speed Tapestry looms in the weave shed, and it has capacity for ninety looms altogether, which will be the ultimate equipment. The color room is 40x79 feet, and other separate apartments are the dye house, engine room, drying rooms, engine and boiler rooms, machine and carpenter shops, &c.

One of the best evidences of the thoroughness which Mr. Magee and his associates have gone into the manufacture of Tapestries is the new spinning mill contained in a finely and substantially built brick structure 50x160 feet, four stories. This building is being fitted with the best machinery for spinning worsted and woolen yarns, so that all the yarns used in both Tapestries and Ingrains will be spun by the company itself. A spur track of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad runs into the grounds of the plant, and materials are unloaded and finished goods shipped right at the doors of the mills.

The Magee Carpet Works will at first confine their output to eight and a half and ten wire Tapestries, and state that the quality of the goods will be equal to any similar grades on the market. They certainly have every facility for turning out goods of best quality and style, and have the largest and best Tapestry plant established since Stinson Brothers & Kurlbaum went into the business in the early eighties. The line of patterns for fall will be shown next month, and due notice will be given buyers as to where the samples will be displayed.

The Ingrain plant of the Bloomsburg Carpet Works adjoins the new Tapestry plant, and like the latter is a model of modern equipment. The main structure is 50x100 feet, four stories, and contains ninety-four power Ingrain looms, the Murkland, Crompton and Knowles makes being very evenly represented. Two 3 yard wide Art Square looms have just been added, and Art Squares will be shown in the fall line. Every grade of Ingrain, from the best all wool Extra Supers to an 8 pair cotton, is turned out besides hall and stair Ingrains, and the "Cathedrals," a superior grade of all wool church Ingrains.

The superintendent of the Tapestry mill is Geo. F. Tolley, formerly with Stinson Brothers, and the completion of the plant is a great tribute to the enterprise, practical mill knowledge and business ability of James Magee, 2d, who, as is generally known, is the son of Francis Magee, of the Ivins, Dietz & Metzger Company and Ivins, Dietz & Magee.

FROM THE FAR WEST AND THE PACIFIC COAST.

SANTA MONICA, Cal., April 1, 1896.

I feel sorry for you frozen up Eastern fellows, and only wish you could enjoy the delightful winter climate of Southern California, as it is my privilege to do, and as long as I have lived in California I never have realized till now what its many advantages are. I moved down here to Santa Monica-by-the-Sea on March 1, and nearly every morning I rise at 6:30, put on my bathing suit and am in the ocean in five minutes enjoying a most refreshing bath. I tell you it is great, and when I came out of the water this morning it would have been a case of six months in the hospital to the fellow who said his line of carpets was better than mine.

I found business fair all along the line this season. Ben Rosenthal, of the People's Furniture and Carpet Company, Omaha, has been on an extended tour to Europe, China, Australia, and is now in California. I met in Los Angeles Samuel Orchard, of the Wilhelm-Orchard Carpet Company, Omaha.

Trade in Colorado holds its own. There are no special changes to note, except at Pueblo, where the Crews-Beggs Dry Goods Company have taken their carpet department out of their old store, and have put it, with G. W. Perkins & Co.'s furniture stock, in a fine new store. N. O. Johnson & Sons, of Colorado Springs, have the old store of the Paul Wilson Dry Goods Company at Pueblo, and are doing a nice business.

At Salt Lake City trade remains about the same. The sad and sudden death of Walter Dinwoody, already reported in your journal, falls like a blow upon his many friends. He was a true friend to all the traveling men, for his courteous and gentlemanly ways made us all like him.

Trade in Butte, Mon., is always good, and the boys all like to go there. In Helena the fine, large, new store and warehouse of Arthur P. Curtin commands the attention of everyone, for I can truthfully tell you there is not a larger or finer carpet and furniture store in the United States.

There are few, if any, other changes to note along the route. H. C. Breedon has moved into his fine store in Portland, and his well selected stock makes a fine display.

In San Francisco trade is improving, and everyone is feeling better. The Pattosien Carpet Company will take the carpet department in the great Emporium building, and will move in this month. This is probably the largest building devoted to different branches of business in the country.

C. A. Judd, Los Angeles, was burned out recently, and the stock was destroyed, but the loss is covered by insurance, and Mr. Judd will resume business when his store is rebuilt.

The Review is taken by all the trade at Los Angeles, and is a welcome visitor everywhere. P. J. K.

THE CUSTOMS ADMINISTRATIVE BILL.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OPPOSES SOME OF ITS PROVISIONS.

At a meeting of the New York Chamber of Commerce held on the 2d inst. the committee on Foreign Commerce and the Revenue Laws presented on behalf of importers a report outlining the objections of the importers to some features of the Customs Administrative Bill, which is now under consideration by the Senate Finance Committee. The chamber adopted the report of its committee by a unanimous vote. The report is in part as follows :

The first proposed amendment that your committee desires to call the chamber's attention to is the amendment to Section 7, in which it is proposed, "And if the appraised value of any article of imported merchandise subject to an ad valorem duty, or to a duty based upon or regulated in any manner by the value thereof, shall exceed the value declared in the entry, there thall be levied, collected and paid, in addition to the duties imposed by law on such merchandise, an additional duty of 1 per centum of the total appraised value thereof for each 1 per centum that such appraised value exceeds the value declared in the entry." The effect of this amendment would be to punish any importer who might succeed in buying his goods 2 per cent. or 3 per cent. less than his competitors.

Heretofore the law has always allowed for an honest difference of opinion as to value between the appraising officers and the importer, making such difference 10 per cent. before any fine or penalty could accrue, and in the opinion of your committee, as well as of the importers, some latitude should be allowed, not less than 6 per cent., hence your committee recommends that after the words "shall exceed" there shall be added the words "by 6 per cent." so that it will read "shall exceed by 6 per cent. the value declared in the entry," and your committee further recommends a provision, "that when the General Appraisers are satisfied as to the integrity of the invoice, and that the invoiced price is the actual price at which the goods were purchased, although in their opinion the market value should be higher, then no fine or penalty should accrue."

It is also proposed to amend Section 14 of the act by providing "that a sample of the merchandise should be attached to the notice of protest filed with the collector," protesting against the excessive exaction of duties ; this, in the opinion of your committee, would be impracticable, and oppressive in many instances.

It is proposed to amend Section 15 of the act by making the decisions of the General Appraisers as to questions of rates of duty final, on the fact, and allow the importer to appeal to the courts only on questions of law. In other words, if the General Appraisers decide that a "manufacture of flax" was a "manufacture of cotton," then their decision would be final, although their decision would be contrary to all the evidence taken, and the only question for the court to say would be what "manufactures of cotton" paid. In the original bill passed by the House of Representatives in January, 1890, this was proposed, but the Senate Finance Committee, seeing the injustice of it, amended the act and gave the importers the right of appeal to the courts on questions of fact as well as questions of law.

Since the act was passed in 1890, efforts were made at least twice to have this obnoxious law restored, and in both instances the chamber opposed it, and appointed two committees to present the chamber's views to Congress, with success.

Hence your committee recommends that the proposed Section 15 be stricken out, and the present Section 15 retained.

The New York Board of Trade and Transportation has also made a formal protest against the passage of the bill in its present form.

The latest advices from Washington indicate that the bill will not come up in the Senate until next winter.

BOSTON BUDGET.

BOSTON, APRIL 10.

"Andy" Neeson, who has been sick for a fortnight, has recovered and is again on the hustle after business.

Edward T. Lamb, heretofore doing business as the Lamb Furniture Company, has gone into insolvency.

Mr. Wellington, for some time carpet salesman with Jordan, Marsh & Co., has left the business.

Morton D. Barrell, for twenty years at Paine's, died March 30.

B. E. Bushnell, representing the Stewart Hartshorn Company, was here this week.

William G. Harris & Co. are to furnish the carpets for the new Tremont Temple.

I. W. Chick, of John H. Pray, Sons & Co., has gone to Lakewood for a short rest.

Thos. L. Leedom, the well-known Pennsylvania manufacturer, was in Boston this week.

An improvement in the carpet trade, especially in the retail stores, has been noticed the past week.

John Miller is again with Shoaff & Co., having returned from England, whither he was called by the death of his father.

I called on A. J. Wilkinson, selling agent for Thos. Develon's Sons and other firms, and found him full of business.

Frank Ferdinand's handsome new five-story building for his carpet and furniture business is rapidly approaching completion.

The carpets and all the other furnishings of the new Savoy Hotel were furnished by R. H. White & Co. Exquisite taste is displayed in the woman's parlor, the draperies having been designed and woven to order. On one of the walls hangs a magnificent Gobelin tapestry, valued at $1,800. It was a prize winner at the last Paris Exposition, and was presented by Mr. R. H. White to Mr. Stetson.

Mr. Judson, of the firm of T. B. Shoaff & Co., has been calling on the Boston trade the past few days. As he entered one of the large retail stores an ambitious salesman tackled him and attempted to sell him some carpeting. The New Yorker jokingly led the salesman on to considerable length and looked over a number of pieces of goods, but finally declared he could make no decision until he had consulted his wife in the matter ! And the salesman is still waiting, while his better posted companions are having a quiet laugh at his expense.

F. J. B.

It now seems almost certain that New York will have a new custom house building, Representative Quigg's bill providing $4,000,000 for this purpose having been favorably reported in the House.

THE SINGER MANUFACTURING COMPANY.

A NOTABLE feature of modern methods is the tendency to specialization, whether it be in the professions, in commerce or in the arts.

In these days of close competition nothing short of the best results can achieve success, and to attain the best requires the finest concentration of mind and matter.

A notable exhibit of most effective mechanical specialties, covering all stitching processes used by manufacturers can, be seen at the Singer Manufacturing Company's new showrooms, 561 and 563 Broadway, one floor of which is illustrated herewith.

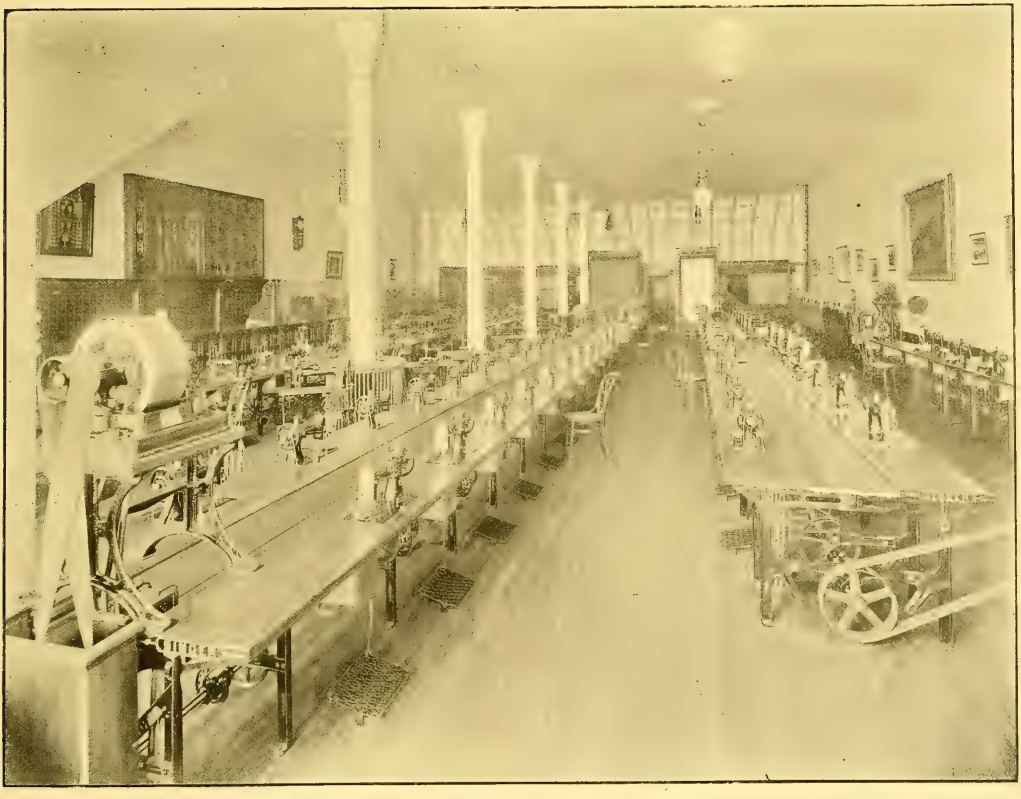
The Singer Manufacturing Company make nothing but sewing machines, and they have by far the largest and most complete plant in the world for this purpose. They are constantly receiving suggestions and deriving the benefit of experience in the use all over the world of their special devices for every kind of stitching process. Although continually adding to the great variety of their devices, they put nothing on the market until it has been thoroughly tested by practical use for its purpose.

Their new showrooms for manufacturers are centrally located on Broadway, between Spring and Prince streets, where they occupy the ground floor and basement, each 50x100 feet. Here can be seen in practical operation about fifty distinct types of sewing machines, each type having many varieties, adapted for special purposes. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to examine this exposition of the highest mechanical and inventive skill, whether prospective purchasers or not. It is especially interesting and instructive to any manufacturer on whose product any kind of stitching process can profitable be employed.

Our space will not permit a detailed description of the myriad devices shown here, but it is recommended to all manufacturers to avail themselves of every opportunity to examine them. Hardly a day passes that some new labor saving device is not added to the collection. It is only by keeping right up to date in the use of the most effective and novel appliances for the workroom that success can be won in manufacturing. To be thoroughly posted as to the latest and best you have only to keep in touch with what is brought out here, for the Singer machines cover the whole field.

The exhibit not only comprises several hundred different sewing machines for special work, each of which can be seen in operation, but here can also be seen the latest forms of power tables, driving appliances, and many other devices for effecting economy in the factory.

The Diehl electric motors are used, their application being made in various ways, either through a line of countershafting or by direct application to the head of the sewing machine.



SHOWROOM OF THE SINGER MANUFACTURING COMPANY, 561-563 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

This is the ideal motor for sewing machine propulsion, because of its economy, convenience, cleanliness and effectiveness. In its smallest form, for driving individual machines, the field magnet is secured to the arm of the machine, the armature being carried inside a brass balance wheel. The rheostat is attached to the table and connected by a pitman to the treadle, so that the machine may be started and stopped, or the speed exactly regulated as desired, simply by foot pressure on the treadle. In this manner the highest economy is attained, because all objects intervening between the source and the subject of power are dispensed with, and the electric current is only used when the machine is running. For operation of a countershaft the motors are belted directly to the shaft in various ways, as shown in the illustration. Much economy is gained by this method over the old system of successive countershafting and belting, with its dangers, its expense and the loss of efficiency.

A complete line of sewing machine parts, accessories and supplies is constantly kept in stock. The basement floor contains a well equipped machine shop, and competent machinists are always at hand for the installation of machines, the instruction of operators, or for making repairs. Everybody is invited to visit this interesting exhibit. They will be sure of a cordial welcome and courteous treatment; everything will be cheerfully shown and explained without involving the slightest obligation to purchase.

The use of the store is freely offered to all manufacturers, who may find it a convenience for arranging interviews, writing letters, &c., and all facilities are provided with a special view to its use for this purpose.

William Hunter, agent for Alex. Morton & Co., of Darvel, Scotland, started on his Western trip the 30th ult. for fall orders on Morton & Co.'s highly desirable Axminster rugs and whole carpets. He also shows two new Art Squares, the "Caledon" and "Celtic," both heavy, double faced fabrics that are sure to sell.

If you do not sell Wiltons by the cut order plan we advise you to consult at once other dealers who have been handling Wiltons in this manner, and you can rely upon receiving advice that the method has proved entirely satisfactory in the profits obtained and the promptness in receiving goods. Boyd, Harley & Co., Philadelphia, have made a special feature of this business for the past two years and will be pleased to supply you with all details.

Baer, Stix & Fuller, Fort Smith, Ark., have been succeeded by the Boston Store. The capital stock of the concern is $25,000, and the officers are : Otto Buehrman, president ; A. Fuller, vice-president, and Rudolph Ney, secretary and treasurer.

In the Emporium, the new department store at San Francisco, Cal., the furniture department will be conducted by Cole & Rochet ; the Pattosien Carpet Company will have the carpet and matting department. Field & McNaughton will carry on the lace curtain and portière department, and A. Quadt & Co. will put in a stock of wall paper and shades.

David Schurtz, manager of the carpet department of Voigt, Herpolsheimer & Co., Grand Rapids, Mich., reports a fair trade through the fall and winter, although the dullness of the furniture manufacturing industry of that city has doubtless kept them out of considerable business. The department occupies a floor 50x120 feet, with another room for Ingrains.

Mullen & Buckley, Far Rockaway, N. Y., will celebrate the seventh anniversary of their start in business on May 1. They are doing a very satisfactory trade in carpets, furniture and wall paper, also in crockery, glassware and house furnishing goods, which were added last spring. They occupy a three story and basement building 60 feet wide and 90 feet long, which has only recently been thoroughly renovated.

Williams Brothers, of Lockport, N. Y., are comparatively new in the carpet and upholstery business, having only added these goods to their dry goods stock within a year or two past. They carry an assortment of all grades up to Body Brussels, and keep an especially good selection of Ingrain carpets, handling Lowells principally. They have one of the largest and best appointed stores in the city and speak very favorably of their experience in carpets and upholstery goods so far.

The "Ladies' Home," a new department store at 11 and 13 East Washington street, Indianapolis, was formally opened the 30th of last month. It is five stories and basement, 30x195 feet. The carpet department is on the second floor, in charge of G. W. Sisk, who is an old carpet man, and who will keep this department up to a high standard. The furniture department occupies the third, fourth and fifth floors. J. C. Barnhardt is the buyer and has a well selected stock. The store has one of the best locations in that city.

W. L. Harris, the indefatigable, of the New England Furniture and Carpet Company, Minneapolis, reports trade as fair through the winter, and he looks for a brisk movement of his stock during the spring. They have fitted up a floor in the Cyclorama annex as a bicycle riding school and are pushing the sale of bicycles with successful results. Their establishment is one of the housefurnishing wonders of the country. It has 4 acres of floor space and one-eighth of a mile street front, facing on three streets, Fifth and Sixth streets and First avenue. One room is especially devoted to a big stock of made up Ingrain carpets and the regular carpet room has spacious quarters in another part of the house.

F. A. Norway, manager of Wm. Donaldson & Co.'s carpet department, Minneapolis, Minn., has one of the model carpet departments of the West, and the volume of business has grown steadily since his advent there four years ago. The department occupies a space 115x135 feet, divided off into three separate large show sections, and all grades are carried. A considerable business is done on cut Wiltons by samples, and Mr. Norway says his experience in deliveries and all other features of the cut Wilton business is entirely satisfactory. Like almost every buyer in other sections of the country, he says the sales of straw mattings keep on increasing. When he first took the position they sold about fifty rolls of matting a year, while now they sell nearly 500 rolls.

Ransom & Co. are among the oldest carpet dealers in Lockport, N. Y. They do a general dry goods, carpet and upholstery business, but always maintain carpets as a leading feature of their stock. They have a floor 25x100 feet devoted to the carpet and upholstery departments on the most prominent corner of the city and keep their stock in a modern manner. The bulk of their carpet business is done in the spring, through the months of April and May. They carry a general assortment of curtains, draperies, window shades and upholstery goods, and make up a great many shades to order. Mr. Ransom is well satisfied with his experience in the carpet business, but, as in many other places, since he entered it competition has grown very keen. He evidently, however, secures his share of the business. Mr. Manning is the salesman in charge of the carpet room.

Rosengard & Co. opened their new store at 171 and 173 Merrimack street, Haverhill, Mass., on the 14th ult., where they occupy the building from cellar to roof, besides the whole of the old bowling alley in the rear, which has been turned into one large room for their use. In the basement is located the kitchen department, containing stoves, wooden ware, refrigerators, straw mattings and oil cloths, &c. On the street floor are found the baby carriages, sideboards, desks, a large assortment of chinaware and paintings. On the next floor is the carpet department, which also contains a fine line of easy chairs and parlor furnishings. On the next floor are the lounges, couches, willow furniture, rockers and chamber ware. Then in the big room back of the main building are the general storeroom and the receiving and shipping departments. This firm, now one of the largest retail concerns in the city, was started on a small scale in 1887 by Eli Rosengard, of the present firm, and continued growing larger each year till it has reached its present magnitude. At that time the rent of the Winter street store was but $15 per month.

A strip of hard sheet brass is stamped and bent in suitable dies to the shape shown in Figure 1, and fixed to the stair by screws or nails passing through holes punched at h. In a modification a longer strip is bent to the form shown in Fig. 4. The rod can be inserted by pushing it into the circle c while parallel to the riser of the stair; if the circle c is bent in the opposite direction the rod must be inserted endwise as usual.

BUSINESS IN BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, APRIL 10.

William H. Minch, of Minch & Eisenbrey, carpets and furniture, has returned from a sojourn of two months in Colorado.

D. H. Barnett has been appointed temporary receiver for the firm of J. T. Miller & Co., general merchandise and carpeting, Waresboro, Ga. Three mortgages aggregating $1,600 have been filed in favor of the Bank of Waycross, J. M. Spence, Jr., and D. H. Bennett. The liabilities are estimated at $4,000 and the assets will probably net about $11,000. The unsecured creditors will not receive anything.

House & Hermann, carpets and furniture, Washington, D. C., selected Easter Monday as the day of the opening of their handsome new five story building, because it is the anniversary of the commencement of the partnership.

John L. Rogers, with Joseph Wild & Co., interviewed the trade here the 2d inst.

S. R. Read will expend about $10,000 in improving and furnishing his hotel at Chattanooga, Tenn.

A. Hitchins, of Hitchins Brothers, dry goods and carpeting, Frostburg, Md., is visiting our city this week.

Louis S. Clayton, dealer in dry goods and carpeting, has been appointed collector of customs at Annapolis, Md.

Edward Phelps, of Phelps & Shaffer, carpets and furniture, Laurel, Md., was re-elected mayor of that town the 6th inst.

Grotjan, Lobe & Co. held an extra large trade sale of carpets, mattings, &c., at their warerooms on West Baltimore street the 2d inst.

John A. Renwick, formerly with Minch & Eisenbrey, has taken charge of the furniture and upholstery department of Imwold, Kaiser & Co.

Charles Carter, salesman with W. P. Burnett, general merchandise and carpeting, Lancaster, Va., was murdered by unknown parties the 1st inst.

The store of Daniel Keller, general merchandise and carpeting, St. Luke's, Va., was destroyed by fire the 2d inst. Loss, $3,000; insurance, $2,000.

S. F. Spillman and H. I. Strickland, general merchandise and carpeting, Luray, Va., have removed their stock to Madison, a growing North Carolina town.

John T. Hill, of Parker & Hill, Ahoskie, N. C., general merchandise and carpeting, was overcome by gas in his room at the Carrollton Hotel the 26th ult., and died the following day.

M. Rosenthal & Sons disposed of their stock of carpets, furniture and upholstery by public auction at their warerooms on Pennsylvania avenue the 2d inst., for the purpose of closing out business.

Minch & Eisenbrey have added a new department to their stores on West Lexington street. It is that of paper hanging and interior decorating. They have taken in the three story building at No. 216 West Lexington street, immediately adjoining their other stores at Nos. 218 and 222. This makes an immense establishment, carrying the four departments of carpets, furniture, draperies, wall paper and interior decorations. The addition of the new building has enabled the firm to increase largely the space devoted to the other departments. The space given to the department of upholstered furniture has been doubled.

Having obtained the new charter for which application was made some time ago, the dry goods, carpet and furniture concern called the Chamberlin-Johnson-Du Bose Company, Atlanta, Ga., has elected officers as follows: E. P. Chamberlin, president and treasurer; Henry S. Johnson and E. R. Du Bose, vice-presidents; Leon Walker, secretary. Each member of the company is well known. R. L. E.

CARPET dealers are advised to write to the Bissell Carpet Sweeper Company, Grand Rapids, Mich., for particulars relating to a special offer made by the company to the trade during the months of April and May. Ask the company for some of their new booklets, prepared in order to present the advantages of a carpet sweeper in an interesting, concise and convincing manner.

Blum.—Julius Blum, carpet and furniture dealer, Oyster Bay, N. Y., will attend the session of the Grand Council, Royal Arcanum, at Watertown, N. Y., the last two days of this month. He will go as a delegate from Arbutus Council, No. 1362. Mr. Blum's business is growing, and he has recently added the second floor in his building. He is also a musician and is a member of the local band, in which he plays the clarionet.

Callahan.—We are indebted to the publisher, E. E. Lester, for a copy of "In Memoriam," a patriotic song dedicated to the Grand Army of the Republic. The words and music are by James J. A. Callahan, manager of the carpet department of the Brooklyn Furniture Company. A speaking portrait of Mr. Callahan appears in the frontispiece.

Creighton.—J. B. Creighton will succeed the late John Miller as representative in the United States and Canada of Cook, Sons & Co., London. Mr. Creighton arrived here on the Majestic last week on his first trip for the house.

Daunt.—Joseph H. Daunt, formerly of Chicago, is now in charge of the carpet department of the New England Furniture and Carpet Company, of St. Paul, Minn.

The gift was accompanied by a letter from the employees, expressing their esteem for their employer and wishing him health and prosperity.

Wilson.—Charles H. Wilson, who has been for years with Cincinnati and St. Louis jobbing houses, has given up the carpet business. He says he parts with his old friends with regret.

CHICAGO CARPET NOTES.

CHICAGO, APRIL 10.

M. Boyle, of the Boyle Furniture Company, carpet and furniture, Ogden, Utah, has been in town this week buying goods.

N. S. Clark, head of W. & J. Sloane's oil cloth department, is in the city.

The news of the week is the presence of F. L. Hardcastle with a letter from W. & J. Sloane placing him temporarily in charge of their branch here in the place of M. H. Jordan. Mr. Hardcastle traveled for ten years for J. V. Farwell & Co., and last fall went to New York and covered the principal towns in Pennsylvania and New Jersey for W. & J. Sloane. There have been rumors that the office would be closed shortly, but Mr. Hardcastle says there is no truth in these rumors, but that things will continue as usual and that the same force of road men will be retained.

W. B. Cunningham, for a time manager of Siegel, Cooper & Co.'s carpet department, is now with the Chicago Carpet Company.

Mr. Lippincott, of Albert Graff & Co., was in the city a few days ago. He reports trade as very quiet east of here. He left for St. Louis.

A. J. Arnson, formerly manager of Siegel, Cooper & Co.'s carpet department, is now with "The Fair" after an experience in the carpet cleaning business.

A. V. Kline, of Arnold, Constable & Co., and W. G. Hockridge, manager of that firm's rugs and matting departments, have been in the city recently.

Diedrich Thiele, of Thiele & Fuhrmann, carpets and furniture, Milwaukee, was elected to the city council of Milwaukee from the Ninth Ward at the recent election.

Advices received from Theo. H. Steenson, who has the Dobson and the Gay accounts here, are to the effect that he has given up the accounts, and his connection with them will cease May 1. Mr. Steenson is now in Philadelphia. What disposition will be made of the accounts is not known, though there are many rumors.

B. Collins, manager of the carpet and the upholstery departments of the John M. Smyth Company, is proud of the new location of his departments. For several years he has occupied quarters on the first floor. His department outgrew them and recently he moved to the fourth floor and increased his stock, so that he now occupies the entire floor, the space being 205 feet front, with the main part 120 in depth and a wing at either end 40x180 feet.

Charles Hafkemeyer, who is in charge of J. & J. Dobson's office in the absence in Philadelphia of Mr. Steenson, received a letter recently from his brother William announcing that the latter will take the management in a few weeks of the city trade of the Trorlicht, Duncker & Renard Carpet Company, of St. Louis. Mr. Hafkemeyer has been twenty-five years with the St. Louis house, and left a few days ago on his last trip on the road prior to taking his new position.

A NEW SMYRNA RUG PLANT.

The Lamond & Robertson Company now have their new Smyrna rug plant in the Central Mills, Ellison street, Paterson, N. J., in good running order, and are turning out twelve patterns in sizes 2 feet 2 inches by 4 feet 6 inches, 2 feet 6 inches by 5 feet, and 3 feet by 6 feet, and will have every size from a single door mat up to 4x7 feet, ready for delivery within the next thirty days. The Ellison street mill contains fifty-six power looms and is fitted up for the most speedy and economical manufacture of Smyrna rugs possible. Mr. Lamond and Mr. Robertson are practical mill men and have made a great success of their Crescent Mills hemp carpets, Napier mattings and rug specialties, and it is certain that they will obtain a gratifying success in their new field of Smyrna rug manufacture. They are already producing twelve different patterns in rugs in the best quality, and guarantee full standard size and quality. The colorings of the rugs now turned out will compare with any similar grade goods produced, and the company state that they propose to maintain their quality and size up to the best standard.

Samples are shown by Walter Scott, at 339 Broadway, New York; by Rosenthal & Brownlie, 147 Fifth avenue, Chicago; and W. W. Zapp & Co., 82 Jackson avenue, Jersey City, N. J., and Atlanta, Ga., are the Southern agents for the company. It behooves all buyers of Smyrna rugs to examine the samples and obtain the quotations of the Lamond & Robertson Company's goods, full facilities for doing which are provided by their agents and through addressing the concern.

The oil cloth works of Thomas Potter, Sons & Co., Philadelphia, are to be enlarged by the building of a four story wing, 51x116 feet, and an extension from this measuring 73x61 feet.

The April number of the Inter-State, the monthly paper published by the Inter-State Casualty Company, 62 and 64 William street, New York, is at hand, and is replete as usual with interesting reading. George E. Hamlin, president of the company, needs no introduction to carpet dealers, having been a prominent figure in the jobbing trade for many years.

The Lord High Executioner in Chicago is continuing his application of Lord Salisbury's ideas to the Western carpet trade. He has taken upon himself the task of maintaining a Schomburg line between the East and West and will have just as arduous a task in doing it as the other lord on the other side of the water. Despite the multiplication of postal circulars quoting reduced prices, rebates, &c., the Eastern manufacturers and the wholesalers have obtained their usual share of the Western trade, and the Western dealers continue to pay more money for the larger part of their Ingrains than is asked by the self appointed defender of Western business autonomy. This gentleman's sincerity must be questioned, however, as some months ago he commenced to send his emissaries east of the Schomburg line to sell uncut Wiltons, and is evidently quite willing to accept tribute from the effete cities in the East. We welcome his invasion and suggest that he might find a very profitable field in establishing a large branch house in New York and applying some of his "enterprising" methods to its operation.

LOOK AT THE NEW REEVE RUG.

A superb specimen of color printing will be found on the handsome insert page of R. H. & B. C. Reeve in the front part of this number of The Review. It exactly reproduces the new pattern No. 1114 of R. H. & B. C. Reeve's oil cloth rugs, a Persian effect executed on oil cloth in a manner never before attained. In fact the rug is a revelation of advanced art and perfection in oil cloth printing, and ought to be the means of enlarging the use of these goods, even to finding other locations in the household for them beyond the hearthstone.

This strikingly handsome rug is supplemented by another in the new and fashionable delft colorings; and these two are not the only handsome rugs either to be found in the Messrs. Reeve's full line, for the general array is particularly strong in emphatically new patterns and colorings and the range of assortment.

The firm's new fall rug line, as well as the complete new fall line of floor oil cloths, is now exhibited by W. & J. Sloane, the sole selling agents.

A handsome book of floor oil cloth patterns printed in the exact colorings of the goods will be forwarded to buyers on application.

Imports of straw matting from Hongkong and Canton into New York from May 1, 1895, to March 3, 1896, amounted to 362,942 rolls. In the corresponding period of 1894–5 the imports were 239,030 rolls.

J. M. Allen, the Cincinnati agent for Thos. Develon's Sons, has distributed the Victoria Extra Supers very thoroughly over his territory, and reports his trade as very highly pleased with the quality and styles of the goods. Mr. Allen's office is in the Bradford Block, Cincinnati.

G. Gulbenkian & Co., 55 Cedar street, New York, have long been known as a reliable house to deal with on Oriental rugs. They have exceptional facilities for purchasing rugs in the Orient through the large and wealthy Gulbenkian house in Constantinople, and consequently can in turn give inside prices to American buyers.

A fourth edition of the Canadian Textile Directory is now in preparation, and the book should be in the possession of everyone who is in any way interested in the textile or kindred trades of Canada. The third edition made a volume of 486 pages, and the coming one will be still larger. It will have some new features which will make it even more valuable than ever in its special field. Inquiries relating to subscriptions or advertisements should be addressed to the publishers, Biggar, Samuel & Co., Montreal, Canada.

The new freight and passenger steamship Atlanta, built for the Southern Railway Company for use between Baltimore and Norfolk, was successfully launched on March 20 at Cramps' shipyard, Philadelphia, in the presence of a large crowd of visitors, among whom were many distinguished persons from Atlanta and Baltimore. Miss Ida Glenn, daughter of ex-Mayor Glenn, of Atlanta, christened the new vessel. The Atlanta is a single screw steamship 240 feet long, 42 feet beam and 15 feet draught. There are accommodations aboard for 200 passengers, and the vessel cost $250,000. The new boat is in every respect the equal of any steamship in the Atlantic coastwise trade.

LYON BROTHERS & CO.'S STRAW MATTINGS.

As importers and distributers of straw mattings, Lyon Brothers & Co., of Baltimore, rank among the most conspicuous firms in the country in this branch of trade.

They import direct from China and Japan to their warehouses at Baltimore, the goods being shipped in their own line of vessels, thereby effecting an important saving in freight charges, &c. Their offerings of Chinese and Japanese mattings for the season of 1895–6 are especially extensive and attractive, embracing an immense variety of grades and patterns and a number of exclusive novelties prepared expressly for Lyon Brothers & Co. J. Crawford Lyon, of the firm, is now in Japan looking after the matting interests of his house. The present season has been an especially active one with this firm, for the trade throughout the United States are now aware of the enterprising character of the house of Lyon Brothers & Co., and the special and important facilities and connections it possesses in the matting business of China and Japan, enabling the firm to offer exceptional inducements in prices as well as in styles, and to make early deliveries from the large stock always carried in warehouses and from cargoes afloat.

Lyon Brothers & Co.'s complete line is shown at their headquarters, Baltimore, and at their branch salesrooms, 339 Broadway, New York; 51 Flood Building, San Francisco; 221 Fifth avenue, Chicago; 24 Bedford street, Boston; 442 Washington avenue, St. Louis; Bradford Block, Cincinnati, and 122 Exchange place, New Orleans.

WILL CONTINUE IN THE JOBBING BUSINESS.

A rumor has been circulating among the trade that Boyd, Harley & Co. were to retire from the carpet jobbing business and would confine their attention to their cut carpet business.

The firm authorize us to state that this report is entirely untrue, and that they will be found in the carpet jobbing business next season and thereafter as usual. They intend to make some changes, however, in the prosecution of their business, among which will be the abolition of their branch offices in New York, Pittsburg and Indianapolis at the end of this season. The Boston office will be continued to the end of this year at least. Messrs. Weimer, Jarman, McKelvey and Neall will continue to travel for the house and make their headquarters in Philadelphia.

Bennett & Brickett, 26 Chauncy street, Boston, offer some special drives in Cotton and Union Ingrains on page 92, and also a lot of standard Smyrna rugs, 30x60 inch, at $1.45. Their announcement will interest buyers.

Have you accepted the invitation of the R. T. Palmer Company to send for their prices and samples of carpet lining? If not, read what they say about prices and values on page 95 and consider if it is not wise to test the accuracy of these statements.

Exports of carpeting and kindred goods during the past two weeks were as follows: Carpeting—Southampton, 70 bls., $2,780; Nova Scotia, 75 pkgs., $1,988; Glasgow, 33 bls., $1,758; Liverpool, 24 rolls, $653; Antwerp, 27 rolls, $772. Carpet Sweepers—Rotterdam, 11 cs., $185; Hamburg, 5 cs., $87; Barcelona, 2 cs., $30.

FAILURE OF HARRISON TOWNSEND & CO.

Harrison Townsend & Co., Norristown, Pa., manufacturers of Brussels carpets and rugs and furniture coverings, assigned on the 8th inst. to E. P. Townsend, of Philadelphia, a brother of Harrison Townsend. The firm consisted of the latter and James W. Barker, who was the practical mill manager and who originally came from Kidderminster, England. Mr. Townsend has been in the business since 1885, but Mr. Barker has only been a member of the firm during a few years past. The failure was a great surprise to the trade, as it was generally presumed that Mr. Townsend was a man of large means or was able to command abundant resources.

Mr. Townsend said that they had been in financial straits for three years; that they struggled heroically to avert the present crisis, but were finally forced into liquidation, seeing no possible way of escape.

No statement of the assets and liabilities has yet been made. Much of the assets comprise machinery. The members of the firm say that the cause of the assignment is the depressed condition of trade, probably aggravated by the late spring. The firm have a number of outstanding accounts which in other times would be good, but to-day are uncollectible. The failure is a blow to Norristown, for 200 hands were employed and $60,000 was annually paid out in wages.

There are no preferences, although the firm is heavily indebted to relatives of Mr. Townsend for advanced loans. The firm occupied the old Farnum cotton mill, which was purchased for $3,500, subject to a mortgage of $14,000, which is still unsatisfied.

The firm largely manufactured Wilton rugs for furniture coverings while those goods were in favor, but returned to making Brussels carpets and Wilton rugs during the past year or two. They also made some special fabrics for furniture coverings. No statement of assets or liabilities has yet been made, and none will be given out until the appraisement is completed.

Mr. Townsend said there would be a meeting of the firm with its creditors in a few days, when it is possible some arrangement may be made whereby the firm will be able to resume business under the present firm title.

THE "HUSTLER" SMYRNA RUGS.

Thos. Hirst, Vineland, N. J., the manufacturer of the standard Regal Smyrna rugs, has just put on the market a new grade of Smyrnas designated as the "Hustlers." This grade has been introduced with a view of meeting the demand for a low priced rug—something cheaper than the Regals, the standard quality of which has always been maintained by Mr. Hirst. The "Hustlers" are made in 26, 30 and 36 inch sizes only, and to buyers who can use a quantity of rugs and are looking for an inducement in price Mr. Hirst extends an invitation to communicate with him or his New York agent, C. W. Bogert, 337 Broadway. He believes that he can now fully satisfy them on the "Hustlers" in style, colorings and price.

Christian Gayman, head of the firm of C. Gayman & Son, Canal Winchester, Ohio, died on the 8th ult. He was sixty-eight years of age and one of the oldest merchants in Ohio. He leaves a widow, two sons and two daughters.

WM. F. COCHRAN'S LATEST GIFT.

William F. Cochran's liberality and public spirit have been again demonstrated in a very notable manner by his recent gift to the institution at Yonkers, N. Y., known as the Hollywood Inn. The Inn was opened about two years ago as a workingman's club, and has proved a great success, the attendance reaching about 5,000 a month. Mr. Cochran will erect and equip a five story building for the use of the club. The outlay on building and fittings will be about $120,000. Mr. Cochran's only stipulation is that the trustees shall procure for the next three years annual subscriptions amounting to $3,000 to insure the running expenses.

The building will be 40x200 feet. The basement will contain a kitchen, baths, bowling alleys and billiard room; first floor, office, free reading room, smoking room, free circulating library, lunch room and club room; second floor, gymnasium, shower and needle bath rooms and two large club rooms; third floor, hall with gallery, seating capacity 500, class rooms and dressing rooms; fourth floor, board of trustees room and class rooms; fifth floor, boys' club, with gymnasium, bath, reading and game rooms and janitor's rooms.

Mr. Cochran is well known in the carpet trade from his prominent connection with the Alexander Smith & Sons Carpet Company, in which he is one of the largest stockholders.

Elsewhere A. A. Vantine & Co. make some remarkable quotations on Japanese jute rugs. Dantsu rugs 3x3 are offered at 5½ cents a foot and 3x6 at 6 cents.

Fire in the six story building occupied by Louis Harbach, carpet and furniture dealer, Des Moines, Ia., on the 27th ult., damaged the building and stock to the extent of $65,000.

Andrews & Conkling, of Olean, N. Y., think they have discovered a new name for Moquette. One of their salesmen was showing a customer Ingrains. As she was leaving after making her selection she said: "Say, mister, let me see that carpet they call Mulberry. I have seen it advertised in the papers."

The Bissell Carpet Sweeper Company are just issuing a very neat booklet, the handsomest they have ever yet issued, covering a neat digest on the comparative advantages possessed by the Bissell sweepers over those of any other make, as well as over brooms. The booklet is entitled "Only Thirty-five Cents Per Year," and any quantity, with such matter for imprint inserted on the back cover as may be desired, can be obtained by addressing the Grand Rapids or New York office of the Bissell Company.

The Dolphin Jute Mills have long been conspicuous in the manufacture of hemp carpets and Napier mattings, and their line now shown at their New York salesroom, 115 Worth street, is the best they have ever produced, comprising a wide variety of handsome effects, which have proved very attractive to buyers. The mills also manufacture upholsterers' webbing in various grades, and likewise carpet yarns and rug yarns of all descriptions. Call at their New York salesroom.

LIEBMANN BROTHERS & CO.

The receivers of Liebmann Brothers & Co., Brooklyn, have rendered their report to the court. They state that they found that there were attached creditors to the amount of $150,534.53, and preferred creditors whose claims amounted to $28,374.43. The receivers, by an order of the Supreme Court of New York, sold the stock and fixtures of the firm for $200,000. From other sources they received $22,886.60, making a total of $222,886.80 received. By another order of the New York Supreme Court the receivers paid to the sheriff as fees for his attachments $3,366.50. To the preferred judgment claims they have paid $28,374.43 and to the attached creditors $150,534.53. They have also paid to the State of New York for taxes $750, back rents $8,250, and the pay rolls, aggregating $2,018.84, making a general payment from these assets on hand of $193,294.43.

The court directed that the creditors of the firm be notified to appear before it in Jersey City on the 20th inst. to show cause why the receivers should not be discharged. It is thought that no dividend can be paid to the general creditors.

SPECIAL PRICES ON ORIENTAL RUGS.

An important announcement to Oriental rug buyers is made on page 94 by Yardum Brothers & Co.

They quote therein special prices on a great variety of Oriental rugs, the invoices being just landed, and from the figures named a buyer can obtain a good idea of the attractions.

Mail orders can be sent and care will be taken to give the best selections.

It will be advisable if possible to visit the firm's spacious salesroom at 339 Broadway, where superior facilities are supplied for viewing the firm's entire stock.

H. B. Yardum is on hand to meet the trade.

TWO BUYERS.

Elwin S. Piper, the well-known Brooklyn dealer, celebrated recently the tenth anniversary of the establishment of his business in that city. The Brooklyn Times of the 21st ult. presented portraits of Mr. Piper and the buyers and managers in his employ, and among these portraits were two which are now reproduced herewith, namely, those of James H. McChesney, buyer of carpets, and Harry E. Cooke, who buys upholstery goods and bedding. Messrs. McChesney and Cooke are known in the trade as able men in their respective lines. Mr. Cook took charge of the upholstery department nine years ago and has been very successful as a manager.

JAMES H. MC CHESNEY.

HARRY E. COOKE.

R. H. & B. C. Reeve, the floor oil cloth manufacturers, Camden, N. J., are building a two story brick warehouse, 54x37 feet, for the storage of manufactured goods.

THE UPHOLSTERY MARKET.

PLEASANT weather during the last few days has had the effect of filling the retail shops with customers, and an active trade has been done in the drapery departments of the leading concerns. The effect has not yet been felt down town and the wholesalers are doing very little in the way of city or nearby trade. The men on the road, on the contrary, are finding some improvement over the business of the earlier portions of their trips, and many of them will on their return revisit the towns in which they met with "turn downs" at the outset of the second spring journeys.

In the case of the China and Japan Trading Company v. the Collector at New York, certain scrolls and blinds composed either of bamboo strips or decorated pieces of bamboo and glass beads, bamboo being the article of chief value, were assessed at 35 per cent., under paragraph 230, act of 1890, and the importers protested, claiming that the duty should be 30 per cent. under paragraph 460, or 15 per cent. under paragraph 465 for "paintings." The Board of General Appraisers overruled the protest.

THE journals which represent the leading departments of trade or the professions are, as a rule, of the highest repute. They have character and capital and carry out their contracts to the letter. But there are a number of irresponsible concerns publishing ephemeral sheets, directories and the like, which are gotten up simply for the purpose of swindling merchants and others.

Not long ago the newspapers told the story of a business man who signed an advertising contract for $5. Soon after the contract was presented to his cashier, who, seeing that the signature was all right, paid the $500 for which it called. The order had simply been raised by the addition of the word "hundred."

Still more recently a well-known upholstery house signed a contract for $2, for which their name was to appear in large type in some trade directory to be published in a Western city. Then a claim agency wrote saying that a bill for $10 had been placed in their hands for collection. The upholstery house wrote its agent in the Western town to examine into the matter, and he reported that the contract, which was in pencil, had evidently been tampered with. Next the claim agency announced that they would draw through an express company for $5. If the draft was paid, all right; if not, they would sue.

The answer was: "Sue and be——blessed!" Very few of these directories have the slightest value, but if you will waste your money, see that the chances of fraud are minimized by filling in the blank spaces, writing in the amounts in red ink or by other preventive methods. Then charge the amount up to charity.

And when your wife calls you a fool, simply say, "That's no news, my dear."

ATTORNEY-GENERAL HARMON has rendered an opinion that penalty duties cannot be refunded. This is contrary to the view of the Solicitor of the Treasury, which was delivered to the executive officers of the department some weeks ago, and will operate as a hardship upon importers who have paid the penalties in the belief that they would be refunded upon remission. The distinction in the case is between remission and refunding. The power of the Secretary of the Treasury to remit accrued penalties which have not been paid into the Treasury is not disputed, but the Attorney-General now holds that when actually paid in the money cannot be withdrawn from the Treasury.

DURING the past fortnight the following buyers have visited the market: Messrs. George J. Carter, for R. H. White & Co., Boston; J. McKee, for the J. L. Hudson Company, Detroit; C. E. Bennett, of Bennett, Morgan & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.; H. B. Strong, of Brown, Thomson & Co., Hartford, Conn.; J. B. Schaefer, of J. Schaefer & Sons, Buffalo, N. Y.; John O'Callaghan, Ogdensburg, N. Y.; J. S. Capron, for J. B. Wells, Son & Co., Utica, N. Y.; M. H. Alrich, Philadelphia; A. Brunner, Portsmouth, Ohio; E. S. Brown, of E. S. Brown & Co., Fall River, Mass.; A. W. McLean (lace curtains), for Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., Chicago; S. T. McCornac, for Edson, Moore & Co., Detroit; C. C. Caler, for Owen, Moore & Co., Portland, Me.; Max Heller, for Julius Meyer & Sons, Richmond, Va.; T. G. Peck, for Wm. H. Frear & Co., Troy, N. Y.; C. F. Sisson, of Sisson Brothers & Welden, Binghamton, N. Y.; J. P. Johnston, of Johnston & Shurts, New London, Conn.; N. N. Brooks, for Siegel, Cooper & Co. and E. E. Shauer, for Mandel Brothers, Chicago; J. C. Dougherty (awning goods), of Dougherty Brothers, St. Louis; S. & F. L. Smith, of S. & F. L. Smith, Hazleton, Pa.

MEETING OF THE HAND MADE SHADE CLOTH MANUFACTURERS.

The quarterly meeting of the Association of Hand Made Shade Cloth Manufacturers was called on the 13th nst. at the office of the association in the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Building, Broadway and Canal street, New York. The following members of the association were present: W. T. Hayward, of the Jay C. Wemple Company; H. C. Kroh, of H. C. Kroh & Co.; Pinney, Casse & Lackey Company; F. L. Hunninghaus, of Hunninghaus & Lindemann; the Closter Shading Company, New York; Henry W. Green, of Henry W. Green & Co.; Mr. McMaster, of McMaster, Eldridge & Maugle; Mr. Danehl, of the Imperial Window Shade Company; Geo. Pabst, of Pabst & Co., Philadelphia; A. Abele, of C. Schotte, Chicago; Chas. W. Breneman, of Chas. W. Breneman & Co., Cincinnati; Geo. H. Hees, W. R. Hees and J. S. F. Macfarlane, of Hees, Macfarlane & Co., Detroit; Geo. R. Whitcomb, of the Northern Shade Cloth, Company, St. Paul. The chairman of the meeting is E. P. Saltsman, commissioner of the association. The meeting was in session on the 13th and 14th inst., and is still in session as we go to press. The results of its deliberations regarding any changes in the operation of the association will be announced in our May 1 number.

E. V. Pike, chenille curtain and cover manufacturer, has removed from Third and Cumberland streets to Second street and Columbia avenue, Philadelphia.

W. D. Comstock, dealer in furniture, and upholstery goods, Sacramento, Cal., has filed a petition in insolvency. His liabilities amount to $9,784.08.

Henry V. Bisgood, assignee for Plante & Plante, manufacturers of brass bedsteads, Buffalo, N. Y., who made a general assignment a few days ago, filed with the county clerk an inventory and schedule of the assignment on the 30th ult. The assets amount to $7,448.32, and liabilities $4,864.86. County Judge Emery has approved Mr. Bisgood's report. He ordered him to give a bond of $8,000 for the faithful discharge of his duties in settling up the affairs of the firm, and has also authorized him to work up the material on hand.

THE GOULD-MERSEREAU COMPANY.

The Gould-Mersereau Company, the well-known manufacturers of upholstery and carpet hardware and brass goods, continue in business in their old lines, excepting brass beds, at the old location, 259 Canal street, New York. The present officers of the company are: James Jackson, president; H. W. Le Roy, vice-president; Samuel Nathan, treasurer and general manager. C. W. Lawrence and W. T. Mersereau have retired from their offices and positions in the company, as heretofore announced.

The new treasurer and general manager, Mr. Nathan, has been a successful merchant in another line of trade for the past thirty years, from which he retired with an ample competence. He is a lifelong friend of Mr. Jackson, the president of the company, and through him has become interested in the Gould-Mersereau Company. Mr. Nathan will be assisted in the practical management of the business by Fred S. Judd, who has been in the upholstery brass goods business for over twenty years and was for seventeen years with H. L. Judd & Co. Mr. Judd is very thoroughly posted upon all the details of the business and will give his entire time to the store.

The Gould-Mersereau Company will continue to manufacture the staple lines of curtain poles and trimmings and general upholstery and carpet brass goods and hardware which have hitherto been so popular with the trade, and will maintain their old-time reputation for reliable quality goods. They will also largely increase the assortment with many new styles and will issue an entirely new catalogue in June, containing their full assortment up to that date. Their traveling men are now out on the road, and they propose to increase their force of travelers very shortly.

All orders and duplicates mailed to their old address, 259 Canal street, will receive prompt attention, and the company desire the trade to understand that they will seek business with increased energy and improved facilities.

Treasurer James Bromley, of the Robert J. & R. Ritchie Company, is making many important improvements in the manufacturing plant, and will have it in fine shape for the fall business.

The firm of Baker, Holt & Co., Manayunk, Philadelphia manufacturers, of plushes, corduroys and velvets, has been dissolved, and the business will be continued by Alfred T. Baker under the firm name of A. T. Baker & Co.

The Morse Dry Goods Company, of Grand Rapids, Mich., have been getting a good deal of advertising by means of an alleged divine healer named Reuben Buck. He gave lectures before hundreds in their store, and attempted cures. Morse advertised it was necessary to have faith in two things—(1) that Reuben Buck could cure you; (2) that Morse sold for less money than anybody else in the city.

Personal

Ahrens.—F. W. Ahrens, who was with Henry Batterman for eleven years and has recently been in charge of the upholstery department of C. S. Cutter, Broadway, Brooklyn, has resigned his position.

Bell.—Alexander Bell, who was for years with the upholstery department of Marshall Field & Co. and Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., Chicago, has determined to join the swelling ranks of Greater New York's inhabitants. His large knowledge of Western trade will make him a valuable acquisition to the force of any first-class house.

Bradbury.—Geo. T. Bradbury, upholstery manager for M. C. Spencer & Co., regards himself as a blooming idiot, which he is not by a long shot. He writes to a friend from Saranac Lake, in the Adirondacks: "I came down here March 20, as I understood spring had come with bock beer during the night. I found the thermometer 25° below zero and the snow falling blizzardly. I have been laid up ever since, but that other old detestable gibbering idiot, the 'oldest inhab.', says it doesn't generally snow much here after May, when they have got in their d—ashed uneatable, nasty maple sugar crop." From other sources we learn that George is improving and will soon be back in good shape. The photograph shows him as one of a group waiting to shoot anybody who comes up the valley saying anything about beautiful spring.

Brown.—John Brown, for eight years past upholstery buyer for McPartland & O'Flaherty, of Eighth avenue, has started in business for himself at 294 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn.

Cross.—W. F. Cross, formerly with Woodward & Lothrop, of Washington, is now at the head of the upholstery department of Malley, Neely & Co., New Haven.

Hartshorn.—The auxiliary yacht built for William Hartshorn, nephew of Stewart Hartshorn, the famous shade roller manufacturer, was launched on the 30th ult. It is a centreboard craft of the latest model, with a long overhang fore and aft, short bowsprit and trunk cabin.

Hutchings.—C. R. Hutchings has been buyer for the upholstery department of H. Batterman, Brooklyn, since March 1. He was formerly with Abraham & Straus, of Brooklyn.

Mathuson.—Mr. Mathuson, recently with Aitken, Son & Co., New York, is the new manager of the Dry Goods Union.

Miller—Taylor.—W. F. Miller, formerly with the C. M. Plum Upholstery Company, San Francisco, is now in the curtain department of the California Furniture Company, in that city, succeeding J. F. Taylor, who has returned to Ratterman Brothers, Cincinnati.

Rieser.—H. J. Rieser, of Rieser & Co., returned from his visit to the lace curtain manufacturers abroad on the 11th inst.

Schneider.—It is not often one hears of trout being caught within the city limits of Brooklyn. Yet Louis A. Schneider, of W. H. Fletcher & Co., recently took four from a stream within half an hour's walk from Canarsie.

Tobin.—Sam C. Tobin, whom everybody in the upholstery trade remembers, recently sent to a prominent upholstery merchant of this city a letter introducing a personal friend. The New York man replied that he would do everything he could for the Chicago man's friend, and wound up in these reminiscent verses:

How well do I remember,
In the happy days gone by,
When we used to go to Pontin's
A bird and bot. to buy!
But now it's beer and pretzels,
And very scarce at that;
Oh, Tobin! my dear Tobin,
I wonder where we're at!

Umbstaetter.—R. J. Umbstaetter returned on the 8th inst. from an extended tour to China, Japan and India.

C. W. LAWRENCE IN BUSINESS HARNESS.

As stated in our last issue C. W. Lawrence, recently treasurer and manager of the Gould-Mersereau Company, proposes to go into the brass goods business on his own account, and as a preliminary step has taken temporary quarters at 275 Canal street, New York, with Ferguson Brothers. He is opening up business with the "New" traverse curtain pole ring, sold by him for some time past in his old connection, and the merits of which are now firmly established. Mr. Lawrence is progressing in his plans for opening a general brass goods establishment, but until further announcement can he be found at 275 Canal street, where he will welcome orders for the "New" traverse ring. See announcement on page 68.

W. M. Cathrall, 212 Church street, Philadelphia, is showing several new and handsome color combinations in awning stripes. These new patterns are designated as the Lenox, De Soto, Red Cross, Golden Rod, Sorrento, Chippendale and Celeste. He shows over 300 different styles altogether, and has a big stock to serve the makers of awnings promptly. Send for his prices and samples.

The patent awarded to A. S. Rosenbaum, 67 Grand street, New York, was alluded to at some length in our issue of March 15. Mr. Rosenbaum's patent embraces a sham pillow that is one of the best things ever shown the retail trade, and which serves to keep the pillows on a bed tidy and neat under all circumstances. The advertisement of the Rosenbaum pillow cannot fail to be of interest to readers, and will be found in this issue.

Rieser & Co., the lace curtain importers, say on page 83: "Tone up your stock. Why buy the tail end of old stocks when new and desirable goods can be had at the same low prices? This refers to our line of lace curtains from a Nottingham to a real hand-made lace. No job lot stocks." This statement has no uncertain sound and the chance to buy the fresh goods and new styles in Rieser & Co.'s stock at the present quotations should not be missed.

There will be no interruption at the works of the Washburn & Moen Manufacturing Campany, Worcester, Mass., in the spring department on account of the fire of Easter Sunday. The spring building was fortunately isolated, and the firm, with its usual energy, made the first shipment two days after the fire. All samples were lost, however, and the company requests its patrons to send in at once a full line of their samples with designating marks, dimensions and names. The work of rebuilding will commence at once.

THE GOBELINS TAPESTRIES.

In France, and in some other Continental countries, the state maintains one or two factories for the manufacture of articles in which great scientific skill is conjoined with artistic ability of the highest order. Of this kind are the celebrated porcelain manufactory of Sèvres and the equally celebrated tapestry factory of the "Gobelins." In this country the idea of the state meddling in trade is considered repugnant to all laws of political economy, an opinion which admits of some exceptions. If a Government undertakes to make shoes or any other article of common use, which could be equally well made by any trader, we should naturally condemn such a proceeding. But if, on the other hand, we could find some manufactures in which the articles were of so expensive and peculiar a nature that it would be hopeless to expect that they would become articles of general consumption, and therefore not likely to be produced by private enterprise, and which, on the other hand, would require for their production a considerable development of mechanical, chemical and artistic skill, which would be available for the use of the nation in many other branches of manufacture, the case would be different. Such are the manufactures of the Gobelins, for no person who examines the beautiful products of that establishment will come to any other conclusion than that, except as curiosities, they are of little use. How, then, it may be asked, can the manufacture of curiosities become a proper application of the funds of the nation? Simply thus: to produce a piece of tapestry requires, in the first place, the highest possible skill in the preparation of the wool, in its purification, bleaching, and, above all, its dyeing; and, in the next place, an equally high degree of artistic education in adapting the materials to the reproduction of the pictures to be copied. The Gobelins must, therefore, be a school of design and chemistry applied to dyeing, and that France has benefited by this school is evident by the immense superiority which she has attained in these branches of industry over every other nation. It is from this point of view that we specially value the Gobelins, and judged on this ground we believe the enormous sums spent in France in its support for more than two centuries are now being repaid with interest to the nation.

The building called the Gobelins is situated in a quarter of Paris celebrated in the annals of the first revolution as the Faubourg St. Marceau. Through this district flows—or rather used to flow, for it is now inclosed in a canal of stone and shut up by sluices—the small river Bievre, which in former times enjoyed a reputation for dyeing scarlet, which it certainly does not now deserve, being generally considered a nuisance at present from the exhalations of its stagnant water. This traditional reputation, however, brought to its banks a family of dyers from Rheims, the chief of whom was Jean Gobelin. This was about the end of the fifteenth century, for Jean and his son Philibert lived there in the time of Rabelais, who says, "and it is this brook which from here passes to St. Victor on which Gobelin dyes the scarlet." Gradually their descendants became wealthy, and at length renounced trade, purchased patents of nobility and intermarried with the families of the magistracy. One of these, Antoine Gobelin, Marquis de Brinvilliers, married in 1651 Marie Marguerite d'Aubrai, daughter of the civil lieutenant of Paris, who became so notorious afterward in the annals of crime by the poisoning of her whole family.

When the Gobelins retired from business they sold their establishment to the Sieurs Canaye, who in addition to the trade of dyeing set up a manufactory of tapestry of haute lisse or high warp. At that time Flanders was celebrated for its tapestry. To the family of Canaye succeeded a dyer named Gluck, whose family continued in possession until the time of Colbert, minister of Louis XIV., who purchased the house property called the Gobelins, while the family of Gluck, in conjunction with another named Julienne, carried on the trade of dyer in the adjoining buildings down to the commencement of the present century.

The manufacture of tapestry was carried on at first by private enterprise, and continued to be so until the reign of Francis I. That monarch brought together the best workmen in tapestry to be found at that time in France, in Italy or Flanders, the countries where the trade was best understood, and established them at Fontainebleau, under the direction of one Salomon de Herbaines. Here he provided them with abundance of the richest materials, such as gold, silver and silk threads, and a number of admirable pieces were executed after designs by an Italian artist named Francesco Primaticcio, pupil of Guilio Romano. Francis I. also purchased the best pieces of tapestry made by private manufacturers, so that this kind of manufacture was in a most flourishing condition during his reign. His successor, Henry II., continued to maintain the establishment at Fontainebleau, which was placed under the direction of the distinguished artist Philibert de Lorme. Then came the wars of the League, during which, as in all civil and religious struggles, the trade of the country languished, and that of tapestry altogether ceased, for neither the court nor the nobles could afford to devote money to any other purposes than the payment of troops. As soon, however, as Henry IV. was firmly seated upon the throne, and peace was established (toward the year 1600), he set about the organization of factories for the manufacture of furniture and of all kinds of ornaments for his palaces.

James Barker, furniture and upholstery, Kewanee, Ill., has recently moved into a new store.

C. B. Stern, manager of the Philadelphia branch of the Meriden Curtain Fixture Company, No. 1006 Filbert street, says that the "Carpet and Upholstery Trade Review is the best paper of the kind extant."

The Swofford Brothers Dry Goods Company, of Kansas City, Mo., purchased the entire stock of dry goods carried by S. C. Davis & Co., of St. Louis, on the 4th inst. The value of the stock amounts to nearly $225,000, but the purchaser acquires it at a liberal discount, and S. C. Davis & Co. take in part payment $100,000 of the capital stock of the Swofford Brothers Dry Goods Company. The stock will be removed to Kansas City as soon as the inventory is completed.

DIRECT OFFERS IN CHENILLES.

On the inside back cover of this issue of The Review W. T. Smith & Son show cuts and quote specially low prices on chenille curtains and table covers. One curtain illustrated is priced at $1.85 per pair, and another one at $2.50 per pair, and we can assure buyers that the values offered are unsurpassed.

A 6-4 chenille cover is quoted at $7.50 per dozen, and another 6-4 chenille cover in the bicycle girl pattern is offered at $10.50 per dozen. Smith & Son also quote reduced prices on a special drive of figured Smyrna mats and wool mottled mats.

The firm will cheerfully fill sample orders for chenille curtains and covers and will send assorted patterns if desired, as the patterns illustrated in their advertisement are only a few of their large line. They invite mail orders from all parts of the country and will furnish complete price lists of chenille curtains and covers, tapestry curtains and covers, lace curtains, Smyrna rugs and goat skin rugs. Address W. T. Smith & Son, Philadelphia, and mention The Review when communicating with them.

The superb piece of teakwood carving illustrated herewith has been purchased from F. P. Bhumgara & Co., of 524 Broadway, New York, who imported it from India, by the Paine Furniture Company, of Boston. It is to be used as the portal of an Oriental department the great Boston house is about to fit up.

M. Gould's Sons, brass goods and hardware, will remove from their old quarters on Duane street to 64 Reade street on May 1.

The new store built for Eastman, Schleicher & Lee, Nos. 7 and 9 East Washington street, Indianapolis, has been rented to W. H. Block, of New York, who will open a department store about August 1 and carry a full stock.

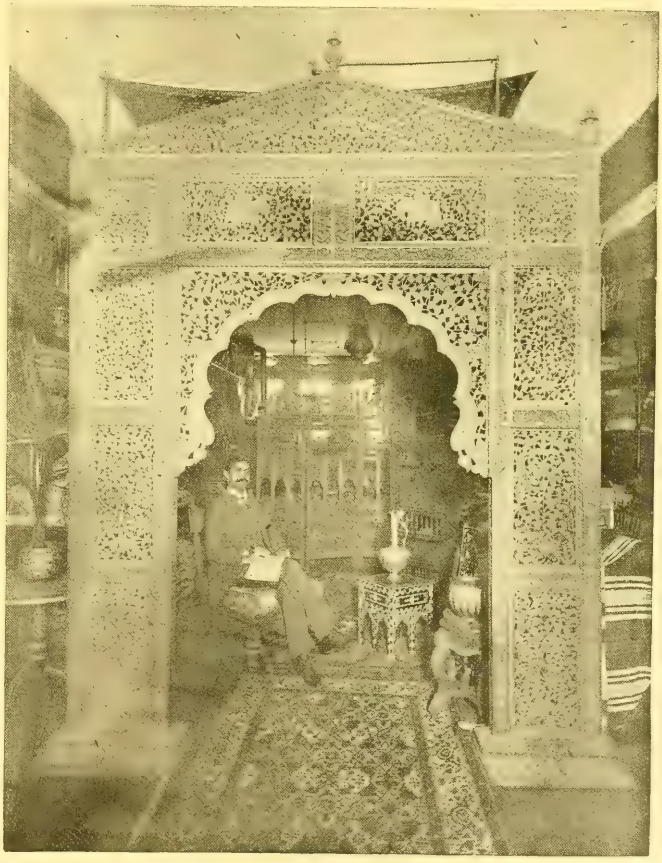
There is believed to be some foundation for the rumor current to the effect that a new jobbing house is to be established in which interests formerly identified with the late firm of E. S. Jaffray & Co. will be prominently represented.

The Northern Shade Cloth Company announce that in our May 1 issue they will give an illustration of commercial geography particularly interesting to buyers of shade cloth located in the West, Northwest and Southwest. The trade should be on the lookout for this very interesting announcement in our May 1 number.

The Henry Reubel Company have issued a sheet showing zinc matting ends, zinc stair nosings, brass stair nosings and zinc and brass stair plates, which will be sent to any address upon application. They are making a material concession in price on their No. 2 brass socket and pin with extra strong head, which is noted in their advertisement on page 101. On the same page will also be found cuts of two very popular and good selling wood pole sets. When desirous of any special article in carpet or upholstery hardware write to the Henry Reubel Company, 269 Canal street, New York, and you will surely obtain it.

The Mersereau Metal Bed Company are very busy on their enameled iron and brass mounted bedsteads and cribs. They make a good assortment of patterns, ranging from the low end to the highest quality goods. W. T. Mersereau, the treasurer of the company, who was formerly a member of the Gould-Mersereau Company, will be pleased to hear from the old bedstead customers of the latter concern, as that concern has discontinued the manufacture of beds. For quotations on iron beds and cribs address the Mersereau Metal Bed Company, 278 to 284 Johnston avenue, Jersey City, N. J.

The spring road business of McMaster, Eldridge & Maugle, Philadelphia, has been very satisfactory and they have made every preparation to care for the active city and local business now due. Their factory has been kept constantly working on hand-made opaques and cambrics, so that their stock is now in splendid shape to fill immediate requirements. The stock of shade laces is also especially strong. They carry ten patterns of imported laces with six to eight colors of each pattern, in addition to a large and attractive line of domestic laces. All the leading goods of the window shade market can be found at their store, 600 Arch street, Philadelphia.

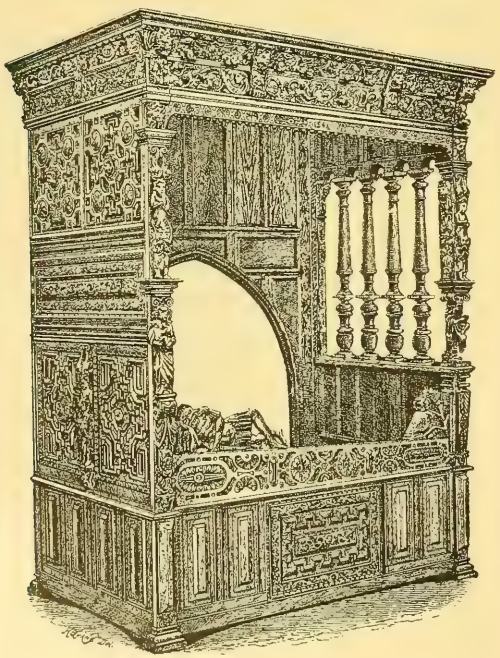


DOORWAY DECORATION. F. P. BHUMGARA & CO.

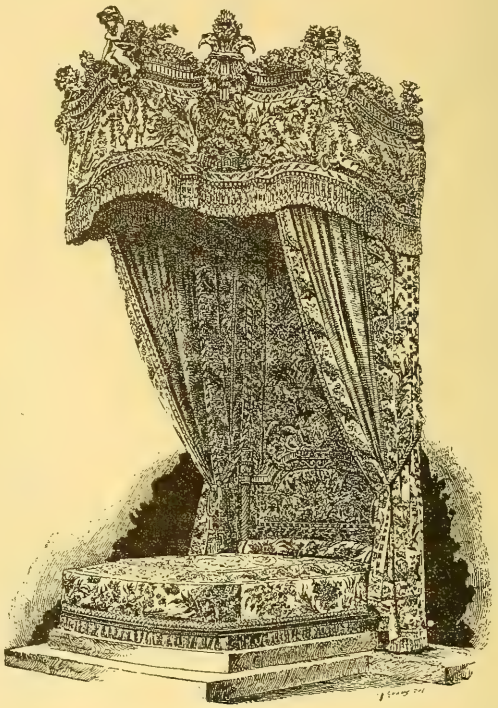
BEDSTEADS, PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE.

The sleeping arrangements of various nations form an interesting subject for contemplation. The hammock of the tropics, the mat or rug and wooden head rest of Japan and China, the cupboard bed of old Scotland and Southern Germany, the funereal, stuffy old English four poster, the ornate and embroidered beds of Spain, and the deceptive folding beds of America, one and all invite most interesting comment.

It is curious that the majority of the metal beds now manufactured resemble very closely in shape those made in Italy more than 2,000 years ago. In the Etruscan Museum at the Vatican there is an ancient bronze bed on six feet, and across it are strips of metal exactly like those put on brass and iron bedsteads at the present day to support the mattresses. The luxurious beds of the Cæsars in those days, who had mattresses stuffed with the soft down of swans, woolen blankets, and embroidered sheets, were strongly in contrast with those of the plebeians of Rome, and still more so with those of the Anglo-Saxons whom they came over to conquer. The earliest beds of our ancestors, according to a writer in London Furniture and Decoration, were little better than raised wooden boxes with sacks of straw placed inside, and up to the tenth century there was very little change in the style of furnishing adopted by our hardy progenitors. Not until the thirteenth century were beds equipped somewhat in the same manner as now—with quilt, bolster, pillows, sheets and coverlets—and it was only at the beginning of the sixteenth century that elaborate beds with splendid hangings came into use. The illustration, Figure 1, which we show, and for which we are indebted to Mr. Litchfield's "Illustrated History of Furniture," is a fine example of this period (1562), and it is peculiarly interesting as marking the transition from the inclosed bedsteads of an earlier date and the four poster of renaissance times.



CARVED OAK BEDSTEAD (1562).



BEDSTEAD OF MARIE ANTOINETTE.

A little later than this came in the fashion for alcoves, and these over-draped and dolefully majestic disease traps reigned supreme right into the early years of the present century, till air, more air, became the fashion, and they went out of fashion for ever—at least we hope so.

Our second illustration, which we have also borrowed from the "Illustrated History of Furniture," is a splendid example of a French bed of the period of Louis Seize, representing as it does the very zenith of restrained grandeur and most gorgeous and expensive simplicity.

The English contemporary of this grand bed, though much, very much, more humble, was none the less a sumptuous affair when looked at with nineteenth and nearly twentieth century eyes. Chippendale's and Heppelwhite's bedsteads were usually of the four post kind, and the variety between one pattern and another was marked by the ornamentation of the pillars, the cornice, or the draped and bedecked dome which occasionally surmounted the beds of that period. They were draped in a variety of ways and with all kinds of material, such as white dimity (plain or corded), printed cottons, brocaded silk, and even "dove colored satin curtains with a lining of green silk." Petticoat vallances and stuffed headboards were also added to give an elegant and high finish to the appearance of beds. During this time, and from then until almost recent years, the wooden bedstead seems to have had it all its own way, and it might reasonably have been thought to have completely won the permanent favor of human beings. Sheraton's beds, however (an example of which we show), and the subsequent vagaries of Smith and the early Victorian designers gradually degraded the appearance of the wooden bedstead until all its wonted grandeur and dignity was entirely lost in a chaos of ugliness.

FIELD BED (1826).

The "Field Bed" (designed by Smith, 1826), which we illustrate, is a pitiable example of depraved taste. It is remarkable that any human being could ever be induced to like and sleep in such a dreadful thing, let alone pay for it. Yet despite our indignation the author of this outrage calmly surveys his labor, and thus describes this particular design in the letterpress that accompanies the drawing: "A design is here given for a four post bedstead and footboard, from the tester of which rise three semicircular cornices. This bedstead has likewise an additional tester rising from each angle. The whole effect of this design in execution would no doubt look light and airy; it is suitable for the principal sleeping apartments in the mansions of our opulent gentry."

The "French Dome Bed," which we have also reproduced from the work of this sanguine author, is interesting as marking the introduction (1826) of the type of bed which remained with us until the metal bed kindly usurped its place.

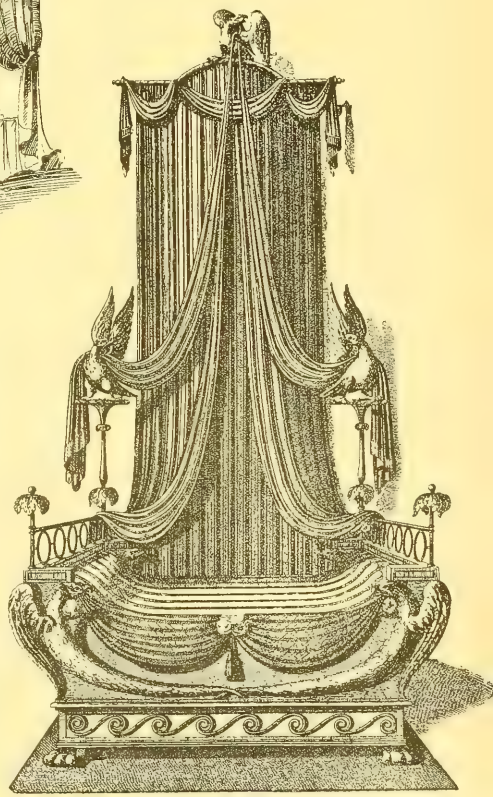
The "Canopy Bed" of Sheraton, which is shown herewith, will be interesting as an example of the wooden bed decorated with metal work.

ANOTHER BIG JOB IN THE MARKET.

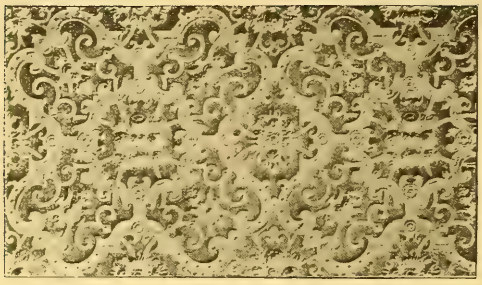
WHEN E. S. Jaffray last spring decided to go into liquidation W. H. Fletcher & Co. startled the trade with the announcement that they had bought for cash the entire stock of foreign curtains and had also closed out the drapery stock of another large jobbing house. Just a year later they announce an "Anniversary" sale and offer the entire stock of Charles T. Strauss & Brother, who are retiring from business, as well as several large import orders delayed in delivery, and sold to Fletcher for account of the foreign manufacturers. The house is thus enabled to offer its customers some extraordinary bargains. The stocks are too large to permit of any enumeration of prices, but a few are quoted in the advertisement on another page.

The import orders include Irish points in white and écru, with Brussels and piece goods of different kinds, which Fletcher & Co. can sell at very much less than they cost to land. They are all new, fresh goods.

Brussels curtains, which C. T. Strauss & Brother sold at $25 to $30, Fletcher offers at $13.50 and $16.50, and they will sell Nottinghams for $1.50 per pair, on which Strauss & Brothers' price was $3 to $3.50. Those marked $4.50 to $5.50 will be closed out at $2 and $2.50. The details in the advertisement afford interesting reading to careful curtain buyers.



CANOPY BED DESIGNED BY SHERATON.



DESIGN IN TYNECASTLE TAPESTY.

TYNECASTLE TAPESTRY:
A NEW MATERIAL FOR WALL HANGINGS.

A new kind of wall hanging manufactured at Edinburgh, Scotland, under the name of Tynecastle tapestry, is the subject of an illustrated article in a London magazine. The new hanging is made of canvas, and the method of embossing the material is as follows :

Large sheets of metal, many bigger than a good sized door, are laid flat upon specially prepared steam chests, which are heated and cooled at the operator's pleasure. On this heated plate of metal, with the design cut deeply into its substance, the operators spread canvas which has been boiled so that it forms a limp, pliant fabric which can be accommodated to the various planes of an intaglio mold. As the relief is frequently an inch or even more in height, it is clear that the canvas cannot be stretched from the flat piece sufficiently to cover the whole surface of the corresponding depression in the mold. Therefore the operator lays a wet cloth loosely on the matrix, and pats it with a brush so that it fills the cavities easily and leaves no noticeable pleats on the plain surfaces of the design.

When this molding of the canvas is finished it is backed up by layers of paper, added in a similar way. This paper, of reddish color and peculiar fibrous texture, is specially made for the purpose. When it is duly pressed into place—with a certain cement on its surface—the mold is allowed to cool, and the panel, afterward detached, is seen to be a perfect cast, with a fine quality of surface ; for the canvas, being merely coaxed into the interstices of the mold by hand, still preserves its texture. One has but to compare the result with that of any material embossed in the ordinary way to realize the striking difference in effect, although the detail which causes it is so subtle. For in the usual embossed paper or other fabric the heavy pressure required to produce the designs smooths away whatever texture the natural material possessed, and leaves a shiny surface that possesses no facets at different angles to impart broken color and richness to the pigment that is afterward applied upon it. Above all, this quality is of the utmost value when gold leaf is used. Nothing is more mean and tinsel-like when laid on a flat, unbroken surface ; but if the surface has a canvas or grained texture the poverty stricken effect vanishes, and the richness of the actual metal is imparted to the infinitely thin layer of gold. Although the "quality" of color thus gained is such an important factor in all decorative effect, and chances to be more obvious in the case of gold, it is but a question of degree. We all know how different is the effect of the same dye on silk and wood, and the difference of the same pigment on a greasy, slippery surface and one with a fine tooth ; and in this central fact the great artistic merit of the tapestry is to be found. The designs and the applied decoration would be effective in any material, but the peculiar quality they possess may be safely referred to texture, and their claims to individuality advanced solely on this point. Illustrations of some of the designs are presented on this page and the next.

Wm. O'Hanlon & Co.'s corded stripe and self-colored window hollands are in increasing demand, as testified to by F. J. McCosker, the American agent. It is not surprising that it should be so, for there is nothing in the market more applicable for artistic window shading than the O'Hanlon goods. While but a step away from plain hollands, they yet amply fill the desire of those who want a fine shade with a little ornamentation. If you don't carry the corded stripes or Florentine figures of O'Hanlon & Co. write to F. J. McCosker, 486 Broadway, New York, for full information and samples.

In view of the backward trade since March 1, Emden, Gerstlé & Co. have considerably reduced prices, in order to move their very large stock of Irish point, tambour and Brussels curtains. The stock is new and of latest patterns, and the values offered are sufficient to tempt even a buyer who feels his stock is already sufficient. The firm have a large assortment of nets, with edgings to match, including fish nets, which are quoted at special prices.

Chas. W. Clark & Son, the Philadelphia window shade manufacturers, have had a very good spring business on the shade cloths of their own manufacture, shade laces, Scotch hollands, upholstery hardware and their entire general lines. The firm have an unsurpassed reputation for first quality goods and fair dealing, and can always command a fair share of the trade on an equitable basis of price.

A new line with McMaster, Eldridge & Maugle, Philadelphia, comprises curtain poles and trimmings, stair rods and buttons and general upholstery and carpet hardware. They have a complete stock of these goods, and are already doing a good business in them. Price lists will be furnished on application.

J. A. Brittain & Co. have had a goodly share of the spring business on Swiss and Nottingham lace curtains, but are ready and able to take care of considerably more orders for quick delivery. Shipments have been arriving steadily from abroad, so that the stock in their spacious wareroom at 434 to 438 Broadway is much larger and better assorted than if the trade had been normally active during the past month or more. There is a big range of novelty nets in white, ecru and ivory, 30 and 50 inches wide, from 12½ cents up; also of Irish points in white, ecru and ivory, and of the best sellers in Nottingham curtains. If you want to push trade by a special sale in your curtain department it will be advisable to consult J. A. Brittain & Co. for immediate supplies.

Morris Bernhard, of the Buffalo Fringe Works, is a man of many enterprising parts, as the trade well know. He has recently formed the Buffalo Web Strap Company to manufacture a patent woven strap that is as durable as leather and costs much less. It has many advantages as a strap for sample trunks.

Eben Sugden, manufacturer of fancy curtains in Tussore, art muslin and crêpe effects, lambrequins, piano scarfs, &c., can offer strong inducements to buyers of such goods, and shows an especially attractive line of summer curtains for popular trade in low priced goods, and in a wide range of designs and colorings. Call at Mr. Sugden's salesrooms, 69 Worth street, New York, or write to him for samples and prices.

The upholstery department of Bossut Père & Fils, 47 and 49 White street, New York, has many attractions for buyers of upholstery and drapery fabrics, curtains, covers, &c. Messrs. Weidner and Rigney, managers of the department, invite particular attention to their offerings in novel and exclusive effects, and among other specialties show some notably attractive lines of tapestry, silk, and silk and cotton curtains. Their offerings in furniture covers are also especially interesting, and should be seen by every buyer of such goods.

It is rumored that Henry W. Green & Co., Philadelphia, are preparing to make oil opaque shade cloth by machinery, and will also put in machinery for manufacturing water color shading.

John Black, agent for Hyndman & Moore, curtain and cover manufacturers, is showing at his salesroom, 115 Worth street, New York, a big assortment of attractive things in chenille curtains and table covers, tapestry curtains and piece goods. Among Mr. Black's notable specialties is a line of tapestry curtains for $2, and in this connection it is well to remember that there will probably be a scarcity of cheap curtains for next season.

Executions aggregating $51,000 were issued on the 13th inst. against E. M. McGillen & Co., Pittsburg, Pa. The firm has branch stores in a number of Western cities.

Ryan & McGahan, agents for the Westphalia Mills chenille and tapestry curtains and Hood, Morton & Co.'s lace and Madras curtains and piece goods, have abundant attractions for buyers at their salesrooms, 57 Leonard street, New York. The tapestry and chenille curtains of the Westphalia Mills are notable for exclusive original effects, and the lines now on view are the finest ever produced by the mills. In Hood, Morton & Co.'s lace and Madras curtains and piece goods Messrs. Ryan & McGahan show an especially wide range of novel and staple styles, which must be seen to be appreciated.

MOSAIC DESIGNS IN TYNECASTLE TAPESTRY.

CHICAGO CHAFF.

CHICAGO, APRIL 10.

The drapery men have taken to bowling. The Textile Club is a recent organization. Every Friday night at Kinsley's the club meets to bowl. The president is Charles Birkle of "The Fair." Among the members are James McLaren, Edw. Heylin, of W. & J. Sloane, and Messrs. Vent, Rudhart, Abele, Shaw, Benbridge, Brockman and Miller. The rivalry as to who shall become king bowler is keen.

J. A. Brittain, of J. A. Brittain & Co., lace curtains and nets, is in the city.

Edw. Heylin, of W. & J. Sloane's upholstery department, is visiting the trade in the West.

W. C. Moulton, who was second man in Schlesinger & Mayer's upholstery department, has resigned and gone into business for himself.

The death of George W. Vail, long identified with the local dry goods trade, is announced from Chemnitz, Germany, where he was in charge of Marshall Field & Co.'s branch.

Robert Hasselgreen left a few days ago to spend several months in Sweden and Europe for his health. In his absence Paul Scharff will be in charge of Schlesinger & Mayer's upholstery department.

C. H. R. Davis, who recently gave up several small accounts here, has gone to Boston, where he will enter the upholstery department of R. H. White & Co. Mr. Davis was for several years in charge of the upholstery and carpet department of J. H. Walker & Co.

The Chicago office of the Opaque Shade Cloth Company will be removed May 1 from the Lees Building to 285 Madison street, where it will be united with the Meriden and Minetto Shade Cloth companies as the local branch of the Columbia Shade Cloth Company. Supt. E. A. Hall, of the Opaque Company's Mills at West Pullman, says trade is good and that the mills are running on full time.

The accounts of Eben J. Sugden, mantel draperies, and E. V. Pike, chenille coverings, formerly carried by C. H. R. Davis, are now carried by F. F. Fazzie. The accounts of E. Ries & Co., lace curtains, and of D. H. Stroud, chenille curtains and covers, have been transferred to H. J. Mallernee, of 808 Medina Temple Building, and that of W. E. Meats & Co., lace curtains, to Mr. Pillman, ninth floor Lees Building.

E. L. Mansure & Co. have purchased the plant of the C. W. Jackson Fringe Company, which failed recently. Mr. Mansure is now up to his eyes in work arranging the transfer and getting the office force in working order. The two plants will not be consolidated, as there is not room for that in the building now occupied by the Mansure Company on Randolph street, near State. The purchased plant will be run as the Jackson Company, and will continue making the same stock goods as before. Mr. Jackson will be retained as manager, and George W. Mason and S. J. Chadwick as traveling salesmen. The location of the plant is at 264 to 270 Fifth avenue.

R. H. H.

The new store of J. Baumann & Brother, 1479 to 1483 Third avenue, New York, was formally opened on the 21st ult. Over 5,000 people inspected the premises and each visitor received a souvenir. The building is 58x100 feet and has five stories and a basement.

MONUMENTAL CITY MEMS.

BALTIMORE, APRIL 10.

Isaac Gans, manager for Lansburgh & Brother, Washington, D. C., received the prize of $25 in gold offered by a New York paper for the best essay on "How to Conduct Business."

The receivership proceedings recently instituted in the Circuit Court by David Karll against Joseph J. Hubner, furniture and upholstery, have been dismissed. Messrs. Karll and Hubner were partners in business on North Howard street, and the proceedings were begun because they could not agree. Mr. Hubner bought the interest of Mr. Karll and the proceedings were then withdrawn.

Edward Hollander, of Charles Hollander & Sons, furniture and upholstery, is at Atlantic City.

Thomas C. McLaughlin, of the American Pin Company, New York, was selling goods here the 2d inst.

Louis A. Dieter, window shades and paper hangings, visited the metropolis on business the 1st inst.

Arthur Connell, Lynchburg, Va., will establish a factory for making cushions and mattresses from cocoanut fibre.

The store of Cohen & Co., dry goods and upholstery, Brunswick, Ga., was destroyed by fire the 2d inst. Insured.

R. C. Orr and L. D. Sledge have purchased the dry goods and upholstery business of John Crawford at Athens, Ga.

D. M. Fernandes, for the Bromley Manufacturing Company, lace curtains, Philadelphia, called on the Baltimore trade the 1st inst.

Frederick Nassarier, of Joel Gutman & Co., dry goods and upholstery, was a guest at the Hotel Islesworth, Atlantic City, the 6th inst.

The stock of dry goods and upholstery of George D. Thaxton & Co., Richmond, Va., was disposed of at trustee's sale the 7th inst.

John F. Sommerlock, for many years engaged in the paper hanging and window shade business, was stricken with paralysis the 27th ult., and is seriously ill.

The store of W. O. Appensollar, dry goods and upholstery, Chambersburg, Pa., was gutted by fire the 26th ult. Loss, $15,000; insurance, $12,000.

Henry Beck has opened in the furniture and upholstery business in the large five story double warehouse, Nos. 205 North Howard street and 232 West Lexington street.

James F. Redding and others, Charleston, S. C., have incorporated the Charleston Mattress Company, with a capital of $2,000, for the manufacture of mattresses, cushions, &c.

Frederick W. Klipper, of Klipper, Webster & Co., furniture and upholstery, has purchased two lots of ground on the north side of Walbrook avenue, near Ninth street, for $4,939.14.

Simon Wolf, assignee for Stumph & Brother, upholstery and mattresses, Washington, D. C., sold the entire plant and good will of the factory to Leonard R. Vinton for $7,000 the 26th ult.

William P. B. Schmidt, manufacturer of chamber suites and lounges, made an assignment the 7th inst. to Charles J. Bouchet, who gave bond for $70,000. The assets are estimated at about $35,000, and the liabilities at about $45,000. A settlement is expected to be made and the business continued.

EMDEN, GERSTLE & CO.'S REAL LACE CURTAINS.

While it is only within the past six months or more that Emden, Gerstlé & Co. have been importing the real French and Saxony lace curtains, their present stock and assortment will compare favorably with the houses of long standing in these goods. As with their Swiss goods, they aim to carry a good stock of everything shown which can be well demonstrated by a visit to their roomy quarters at 451 and 453 Broadway, New York. Some of their special attractions in real laces are Renaissance insertion and border patterns on fine net; a new French idea, showing silk ribbon inserted in the lace; a number of exclusive Saxony Brussels curtains; a superb Arabian lace curtain sold at $125 per pair. Bedspreads are displayed in real Renaissance and Saxony Brussels, some goods being quoted at $80 per set. Remember you can get the very finest real laces as well as Swiss curtains from Emden, Gerstlé & Co.

ENLARGED WINDOW SHADE ESTABLISHMENT.

The Pinney, Casse & Lackey Company have enlarged their showrooms and special order department at 273 Canal street, New York, by the addition of the second floor of the building, 30x200 feet. This makes three floors of the latter size now occupied by the firm in the Canal street building, or 18,000 square feet of floor space, an exceptionally large area for a city store. The firm's spacious factory is in Jersey City.

The entire street floor is devoted to salesroom and offices, and a great improvement has been made by doubling the size of the show window and having but one entrance to the building instead of two, as heretofore. Four new sewing machines have been added to the special order department, and the firm will be better able to serve the trade in this direction. A cutting table 19x24 feet is a feature of this department.

The wall paper and window shade stock of the Henry Borsch Company, 307 Wabash avenue, Chicago, was damaged by fire on the 24th ult. to the extent of $8,000.

The right to manufacture and sell Spicer's patent window shade holders in New England has been bought by Blanchard & Ogren, and they propose to form a stock company to make the goods at Pittsfield, Mass.

The stock of the Tucker Furniture Company, Peoria, Ill., which was taken possession of by the sheriff on the 6th ult. on confessions of judgment in favor of the Merchants' National Bank of Peoria, aggregating $20,000, was sold by auction on the 19th to Conrad Luppen, banker, of Pekin, for $13,800. Schipper & Block, the dry goods dealers, have purchased the stock and will conduct the Schipper & Block Furniture Company. A new company with a capital stock of $35,000 has been organized, with Schipper & Block, Conrad Luppen and Albert H. Albertsen, of Pekin, as the owners of the stock. The concern will be operated on the lines of the past, and there will be added to it a wall paper department. This is in direct line with the progressiveness of Schipper & Block, one of the most enterprising firms in the West, and a firm that has steadily climbed the hill until it stands at the top.

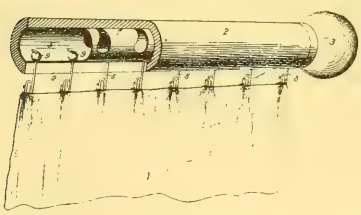
In a curtain pole, the combination of a semicircular front part, C, a back part, B, hinged thereto and provided with a convex outer rear side and a flat inner front side, a strip of textile material secured to said flat inner front side and provided with a filling of soft material, substantially as described.

No. 557,331. Curtain Pole.—Mary Lansing, Albany, N. Y. Filed April 9, 1895. Serial No. 545,051. (No model.) Issued March 14. 1896.

Claim.—1. A curtain fixture or support comprising a tubular pole having a slot opening through the periphery thereof, a tubular casing arranged in said tubular pole and having a slot to correspond with the slot in the pole, a spring, 7, formed by cutting away a portion of the casing on irregular lines and adapted to hold the casing in place, and suspension devices arranged in the casing, substantially as described. ——2. A tubular curtain pole having a slot, 4, therein, in combination with a tubular casing arranged in said tubular pole and having a slot, 6, corresponding with the slot in the pole, and a spring, 7, adapted to secure said casing in the pole, substantially as described.



No. 557,543. Adjustable Fixture for Window Shades.—Richard C. Bird, Chicago, Ill. Filed August 18, 1894. Issued April 7, 1896.

No. 557,932. Curtain Pole.—John F. Yarnall, Altoona, Pa. Filed September 26, 1895. Issued April 7, 1896.

No. 20,749. October 30, 1894. Tufting Apparatus.—O. E. Wollert, 5 Banérgatun, Stockholm, Sweden. Issued March 25.

An eye pointed needle, f, and a loop holding spring, i, are secured adjustably by screws, h, in grooves and slots in bars, c, c., These are provided with handles, b, on pivots, a, each of which passes through a slot in one bar and is carried by the other. The bars are guided longitudinally on each other by grooves and pins, or by a clip on each enclosing the other. The needle f is grooved inside to guide the spring i.

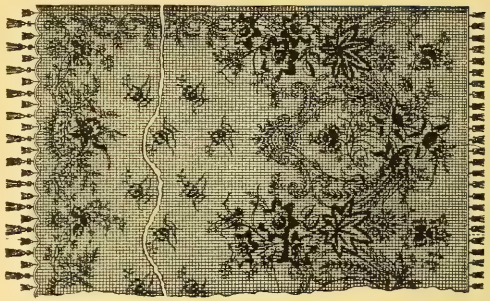
Designs.



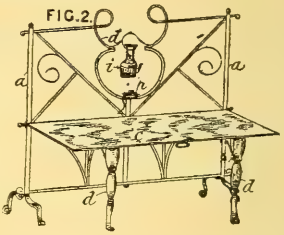
No. 25,344. ROWLAND & SCHMIDT.

No. 25,344. Lace Curtains.—Henry Horsefield, Philadelphia, Pa., assignor to William O. Rowland and Albert E. Schmidt, same place. Application filed August 14, 1894; patent issued March 31, 1896. Term of patent, 7 years.

Patented in England.

No. 20,111. October 24, 1894. Fire Screen and Table.—F. W. Reckitt, Fairlight, Headstone road, Harrow. Issued March 18, 1896.

To the screen a carrying the kettle i and spirit lamp h is hinged the table c with folding legs d. The table is turned up when not in use.



No. 20,720. October 30, 1894. Curtains, &c., Suspending.—F. W. Perry, Deer Park, Castleknock, Dublin. Issued March 25, 1896.

The curtain, &c, is suspended by a double hook, d, d, which engages with the pole, &c., e.

No 20,906. November 1, 1894. Portière Rods.—J. F. Hall-Edwards, The Limes, Woodstock road, Moseley, Worcester. Issued March 25, 1896.

The axis on which the rod A, Figure 1, turns bears in two brackets, B^1, B^2, Figs. 4 and 5, fixed to the door frame, and is inclined in a plane at right angles to the door frame, as shown in Fig. 5. A fork or link, C, engages the rod, and is fixed to the door. When the door is shut the rod is horizontal; on opening the door the outer end of the rod is raised owing to the inclination of the pivot. Fig. 6 shows a pair of rods, one longer than the other, pivoted as above on opposite jambs of the frame. The left hand one, D, is opened by a projection, E, on the door, and as its pivot is not only inclined, as in Fig. 5, but also outward as shown in Fig. 8, after the door has opened a little the rod D falls over until arrested by a spring or other stop, F; on closing the door the projection E acts on a lug and re-closes the shorter rod D. The brackets B^1, B^2 may be cast or formed in one, and the pivot may be integral with or separate from the bracket or brackets.

B. Friedenberg, the Southern traveler for Emden, Gerstlé & Co., is sending in very good orders from his territory and promises to maintain his successful record on the trip. M. E. Wormser, with the same house, has recently returned from a trip up New York State and found more business for his house than was expected.

One of the cleverest things in the way of a chenille curtain turned out in late days is a blue and cream of Barnes & Beyer just shown by Robert Sharp, the agent. One of the most critical buyers of high-class goods in New York city gave an order at first sight, after suggesting a slight change in the fringe, which it happened had already been made by the colorist at the mill.

A cut of the Gould-Mersereau Company's "Hirola" traverse curtain pole ring is shown on page 69. This new traverse ring is simple in its construction and covers all the requisites for perfect traveling. The single roller is operated on ball bearings, an especially advantageous feature. The "Hirola" is made in 1¼ and 1¾ inch sizes and is offered at a popular price. Samples and prices will be sent on application.

F. J. McCosker, American agent for John King & Son, expresses himself as eminently well satisfied with his new position and the very kindly treatment accorded him by the importers of King's Scotch hollands. He has been kept busy alone by the "hurry up" requests for shipments, which have continued throughout the season despite the fact that about every importer largely increased his orders last fall when arranging for spring supplies. Advices from Glasgow state that the increased manufacturing facilities have been coming gradually into use, and the way recent shipments are arriving shows that King & Son are catching up with the demand for their highly popular hollands, and will soon attain the long desired condition of being able to satisfy their American customers.

Commission and Wholesale Carpetings,

. . . . . Boston.

Three Vital Points . . .

Are necessary to insure a perfect roller such as . . . .

The Improved Hartshorn Wood Roller.

FIRST—No Tacks Are to Be Used.

The patent shade holders furnished free with Improved Hartshorn Wood Rollers eliminate the use of tacks in the most satisfactory manner possible.

SECOND—Provision for Mounting Shade Cloth Absolutely True.

The groove in this roller is the only place where the shade can be fastened to the roller. As the groove is as straight as machinery can make it, the cloth must be fastened in a straight line.

THIRD—Prevention Against Tearing Cloth from Rolls.

Owing to the scientific construction of the new roller, when the shade cloth is fastened upon the roller in the groove with our shade holders, the resistance which it offers is so strong that when shade and roller are hung it is almost impossible to tear the cloth off.

This Roller received specific indorsement in our award of a Gold Medal and Special Diploma of Honor by the Judges of the Atlanta Exposition.

Our new Descriptive Catalogue for 1896 is now ready. Free on application.

The above cut represents our latest improved Traverse Ring, "THE HIROLA," which in comparison with other Rings on the market has proved pre-eminently the best, having as its essential feature a BALL BEARING ROLLER, reducing the friction to a minimum. This, in combination with the fine finish, improved eye attachment and graceful appearance makes it the best Ring yet introduced.

ARE SHOWN BY

AT HIS NEW SALESROOM:

Spring and Mercer Streets,

NEW YORK.

One eminent and popular house that has tried all makes announces them to be

"The Best Window Hollands Made."

Another equally large Importer of great experience states:

"The goods have always been and are now fast colors."

Another firm in the very front rank of the business describes them as

"Unequalled in quality, unshrinkable and of finest dyes."

While another firm of Importers, probably one of the largest shade goods houses in the world, characterizes them in these terms:

"JOHN KING & SON'S Famous Scotch Hollands."

JOHN KING & SON'S

ESTABLISHED IN THE YEAR 1775

Celebrated

Scotch Window HOLLANDS

ILLUSTRATING the high consideration these popular goods hold in the estimation of the most experienced importers of shade goods in the country, the attention of the trade is invited to the above opinions, published in the columns of this and other journals, over the signatures of the respective firms.

Enterprising but unscrupulous parties unable to reach the exalted standard of these celebrated goods, pay them the flattery of imitating the wrappings. It is the Goods, not the wrappings, the trade is after. See that Bands, Tickets and Tabs of every piece are marked

What a Retail House Thinks of "Chouaguens."

Window Shades.

Ever since the ready made window shade was "discovered" we have kept them and sold thousands of them every year. We know something about what are called "oil shades.' We handle only two qualities of shades. Our low-priced shades are what are called "water colors," or "American Opaque." They are the best of their kind and we sell them at 25c. each. They are mounted on spring rollers that are guaranteed to work, and these shades are

FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT.

We do not keep any "seconds" in stock Our other or best shades are all made of the celebrated

"CHOUAGUEN"

Shade cloth, which is the best, and the ONLY BEST shade cloth in the country. That "there are others" we do not deny. We have tried them all, and we have had trouble with them all; but we never yet have had a complaint about our "Chouaguen" shades. They WON'T FADE, THEY ALWAYS WORK, and we do not hesitate to GUARANTEE EVERY ONE OF THEM. WE can buy "oil shades" that WE can sell for 38c.; we can buy them to sell for less than 38c., but

We don't want them, We won't have them,

for when the hot summer sun strikes them they will FADE. If you want your shades to look like the old fury next summer, then we advise you to buy the cheap oil shades; but if you want shades that the sun can't phaze and that will always look the same, that will always work, then pay 5c. a shade more and get the best shade cloth, and that is the "Chouaguen." That's our kind. That's the only kind of oil shades we keep.

We open this week 200 dozen of these "Chouaguen" never-fade shades. We have a sample of the cheaper oil shades, and will show you the difference, or you can see the difference quick enough without any assistance. We say to you, INSIST on having the Chouaguen shade cloth. Look out for the "just as good" kinds, for they are not as good.

Our Chouaguen shades are 38 inches wide; the cheaper kinds are 36 inches wide. The difference in width is worth the difference in price, to say nothing about the difference in quality.

Anniversary Sale.
.. .. 1895-1896.

In 1895 we gave you the entire foreign stock of E. S. JAFFRAY & CO., retiring from business, together with that of another large importing house.

This Year we offer the stock of CHARLES T. STRAUSS & BRO., retiring from business, as well as three very large orders late in delivery, and sold to us for account of the foreign manufacturers. People who purchased goods of us last season have since acknowledged that they did not buy one-half the quantity they should have bought, as the goods proved to be cheaper than any they had ever owned.

Do not make the same mistake this year.

We can sell you elegant Brussels Curtains, in exquisite designs, which have been sold by C. T. STRAUSS & BRO. at $85.00 for $40.00, those from $25.00 to $30.00 at $13.50 to $16.50. The stock is too large to enumerate prices. We can also sell you Irish Point, Swiss and other lines of hand-made Curtains, with sashes of all kinds, at similarly low prices.

This does not apply to the upper end of the line alone.

The import orders purchased from the makers abroad we are able to sell at less than they can be landed for. They are all new and fresh goods, and include Irish Point, in white and ecru, Brussels and piece goods of different kinds.

Note the figures on Nottinghams.

We can sell and will sell Nottingham Curtains at $1.50 per pair which C. T. STRAUSS & BRO. were selling at from $3.00 to $3.50; those marked $4.50 and $5.50 we offer at $2.00 and $2.50. With these will also go a large line of odds and ends from several factories, which together make an extraordinary lot of Nottinghams at a tremendously low price.

We have also a line of Brussels and Irish Points from the lowest up, the majority of the patterns being in moderate-sized lots, which we are anxious to close out, and offer on terms which will command attention.

Piece Goods.

Brussels, hand-made Swiss Muslins and Embroidered Muslins at extraordinary low prices. Brussels which were sold by C. T. STRAUSS & BRO. at $1.75 we offer at 80 cents; hand-made Swiss Dots which sold at 25 to 50 cents are now 12 to 20 cents. Embroidered goods equally cheap.

Price sells goods. We have the goods and will make the price do its duty.

345 & 347 Broadway, New York.

We have forty or fifty cases assorted Nottinghams, which we are requested by the owner to sell at considerably less than $1.00 per pair. They range from 45 to 60 inches wide, and will be sold in case lots of one hundred pairs only.

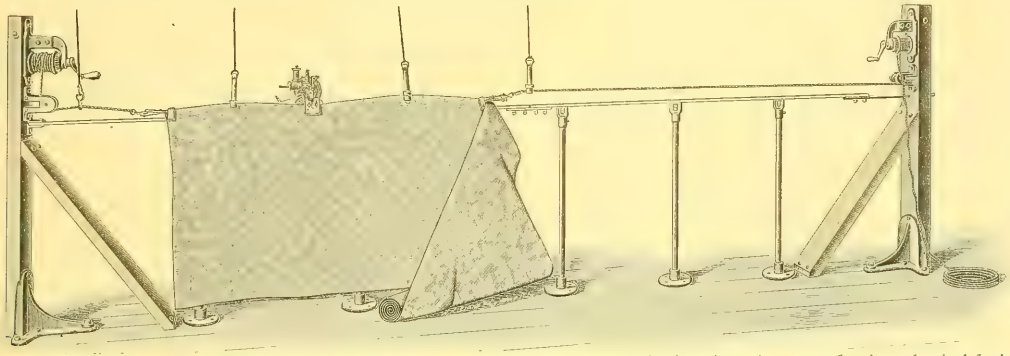
The Taft Universal Carpet Sewing Machine.



The first and only all round Carpet Sewing Machine ever invented. Sews carpets for less than ½c. per yard. A mechanical device of the highest type; complete in every detail. Requires the least possible space. Run by Hand or Power, electric motor if preferred.

TESTED TO SEW AT RATE OF 4 YARDS PER MINUTE. PUT UP TANDEM TO SEW 8 YARDS PER MINUTE OR 480 YARDS PER HOUR CARPET SEAM,

This machine will sew Ingrain Carpets over-stitch, practically a perfect imitation of hand sewn work. Being more even and stronger, will stand any amount of strain. Can be laid either side up. Will not rip. Will give perfect satisfaction. One inexperienced girl can, with this machine, sew more yards of Ingrain Carpet in one day than eight experienced hand sewers, and 20 per cent. better. With one of these machines you can deliver a carpet within one hour from time of receiving order for same. It is a well-known fact that 70 per cent. of the carpets made are Ingrain and no machine ever made to sew them, while dealers buy a machine to sew Tapestries, Brussels, &c., doing only 30 per cent. of their work. If 30 per cent. is worth one machine, 70 per cent. must be worth two, and a Taft machine which does 100 per cent. three. You must have the Ingrain Sewer to be up to date.

This machine is not confined to Ingrain work; but is equally good on all other carpets—Tapestries, Brussels, Wiltons and Straw Matting, &c. The machine can be changed in five seconds from over-stitch to straight stitch, and vice versa.

Will, without any change, overcast all raw edges, sew together two raw edges and overcast them. In fact, does all the work in its different branches with one operator, and is so arranged that a girl weighing one hundred pounds can handle any carpet with ease, and sew several hundred yards per day. The machine is simple, durable, light running and a rapid sewer. No carpet house can afford to be without one. Write for samples, terms, information and trial conditions to

This machine is sold direct only; no agents.

J. C. TAFT, Inventor and Sole Manufacturer, 40 Friendship St., Providence, R. I.

Crompton's New Ingrain Carpet Loom.

CROMPTON NEW INGRAIN CARPET LOOMS.

THE attention of manufacturers of Ingrain Carpets is called to the consideration of a new Carpet Loom just put on the market. It carries four (4) shuttle boxes at each end of the lathe; any one of the series at each end can be brought into line with the shuttle race at any pick, under the dictation of the Jacquard cards. The Jacquard is of the most approved construction and moves the warps kindly. The let off and take up motions bring out perfectly matched goods. On two ply work it makes sixty (60) yards per day. The apparatus for moving the boxes cannot be surpassed for its simplicity and efficiency. This Loom has no equal in speed and simplicity from four (4) to seven (7) colors.

CROMPTON ART SQUARE LOOM, for 3, 3½ and 4 yard goods, produces the best results and has no rival.

CROMPTON'S UPHOLSTERY LOOM, with Improved "1886" Box Motion, is capable of high speed and nice adjustment for its special line of goods.

No. 2 Double Width and No. 2 for
CARPETS, RUGS, OIL CLOTHS, Etc.

Sample and Price List forwarded on application.

Frames for holding the Fabric and Thread and Needles, specially prepared, for sale.

PATENTED AUGUST 25, 1885.

This Patent Rubber Binding holds the ends of Matting, Carpets, etc., down in place, does not curl up like other flexible bindings, is not affected by dampness, will not break when shaken and thrown about, and is very durable and easily adjusted.

The Many Advantages of this Patent Rubber Binding give it the preference over any other heretofore used on Matting and Carpet runners for Hotels, Stores, Steamboats, Offices, Elevators, Street Cars, Railroad Cars, etc., etc.

It is Made in ¾, ⅞, 1, 1¼, 1½, 1¾ and 2 lengths and is perforated to facilitate the sewing. The most inexperienced person can sew it on perfectly.

This PATENT RUBBER BINDING can be obtained from all the Leading Carpet and Upholstery Dealers.

LOWELL CARPETS have been justly celebrated for more than half a century. For the guidance of buyers the word "Lowell" is woven in white capital letters in the back of our Wiltons and Brussels at each repeat of the pattern. The fabrics are of the best quality, designs and coloring.

Our Middlesex Wiltons have the word "Middlesex" woven in the back. The word is registered as our Trade Mark in the United States Patent Office.

The popular Lowell Ingrains are wound on a hollow stick made in two solid pieces, with the words "Lowell Man'g. Co." stamped within, a patented United States Trade Mark.

Bigelow Carpet Company,

ORIGINAL POWER-LOOM MANUFACTURERS OF

WILTON AND BRUSSELS

CARPETS.

The Carpets made by this Company have received the highest award wherever exhibited, including Gold Medals at the Paris Exposition, 1878, and at the Centennial, 1876.

Their deserved reputation for excellence of fabric, richness and durability of color, novelty and beauty of design, has led to frequent infringements, and inferior goods have often been palmed off in their stead. For the protection of the public the Company has adopted as a trade-mark the word "BIGELOW," which will be woven (at every repeat of the pattern) in white capitals into the back of the fabric. Customers will therefore have merely to examine the back of a carpet to be certain that they are getting the genuine Bigelow Wiltons or Body Brussels.

These Goods can be obtained from all first-class dealers.

UPHOLSTERY DEPARTMENT, PAGE 49.

☞Our readers are urged to remember that we are always desirous to receive communications of interest to the carpet or upholstery trades, such as changes in firms or managers, the building or opening of new stores, improvements in old ones, the adding of new departments, improved methods of doing business, new inventions, suggestions as to the cutting, making and laying of carpets, the designing and fitting of draperies, or inquiries and dissertations relating to the technical or commercial details of the trades to which this periodical is devoted.

BUSINESS AND PRICES.

THE more favorable weather of the past two weeks has stimulated retail trade and duplicate orders have been given so freely that a number of idle looms have been put at work again to fill orders. The present month is likely to be a busy one for retail dealers, and the season will probably last much later than usual.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found a circular of the Alexander Smith & Sons Carpet Company announcing an advance of 2½ cents a yard in the price of their B Palisade Tapestries, and the E. S. Higgins Carpet Company announce the same advance in the price of their Two Star Tapestries. These changes take effect July 1. Their significance will be obvious to those dealers who have been holding back orders and awaiting further developments in the situation.

THE DATING AGREEMENT.

THE agreement not to date bills further ahead than March 1 and September 1, for the spring and fall season respectively, has met with remarkable success in the number of signatures received. The manufacturers and jobbers who have not signed it in most instances emphatically state that they will adhere strictly to the dating set forth, but as a matter of principle object to signing agreements. Others say they have never given the extreme advance dating and therefore do not need to put themselves on record against it.

The trade should receive this new dating agreement in an acceptable spirit. It is eminently fair, and moreover in these times of narrow margins and restricted financial accommodations it is positively necessary.

The following manufacturers and jobbers have signed the agreement, to begin with the fall season of 1896 :

The Bromley Brothers Carpet Company.

ADVANCE IN TAPESTRIES.

THE Alexander Smith & Sons Carpet Company will advanced the price of their B Palisade Tapestries 2½ cents a yard, and the E. S. Higgins Carpet Company will make the same advance in the price of their Two Star Tapestries. These changes are announced by circulars as follows :

E. S. HIGGINS CARPET COMPANY, }
NEW YORK, April 23, 1896. }

GENTLEMEN—We beg to advise you that on July 1, 1896, we shall advance the price of our "Two Star" Tapestries 2½ cents per yard.

E. S. HIGGINS CARPET COMPANY.

ALEX. SMITH & SONS CARPET COMPANY, }
NEW YORK, April 23, 1896. }

GENTLEMEN—We beg to advise you that the price of B Palisade Tapestries is this day advanced 2½ cents per yard, to take effect, on all orders on our books, on the first day of July next.

The prices now current will continue until that time.

W. & J. SLOANE.

AROUND AND ABOUT.

THINGS appear to have settled down after the throes of revolution at Hilton, Hughes & Co.'s. J. W. Monahan left at the beginning of the month. Chas. Hogan, who also resigned, is to be the manager for Siegel, Cooper & Co.'s new store on Sixth avenue. Manly Gillam is now the general manager of the Hilton establishment, with George Johnson as first assistant.

The carpet department has been removed to the Fourth avenue floor, formerly occupied by the upholstery, while the old carpet floor on Broadway has been added to the furniture department.

THE Textile Mercury, Manchester, England, says that the carpet industry of Armenia has been paralyzed in some districts by the recent disturbances. A report from Constantinople states that the rug market has been fairly active, and prices have been well maintained, especially in Anatolian lines. Stocks from the Caucasus for the moment are low, owing to the serious break-down on the Poti-Tiflis line, which will take some months to repair. Arrangements have already been made to transport goods via Odessa, and the first lots by that route are now on the way; so there will be no stoppage of the various lines that come from the Daghestan. Arrivals of carpets from Anatolia have been interrupted by the massacres in Cæsaria, and this has hardened prices, but consignments are again on the way. In antique Persians, Feraghans, Hamedans and Heriz stocks are large.

THE advertising of the Cowperthwait Company in the street cars, newspapers and elsewhere has come to be regarded as the most ingenious that has yet been employed in the carpet business. If we except the illustrated advertisements of J. & J. Dobson hardly an approach has been made to it. But the latest effort of the Cowperthwait ad. smith elevates him to the sublimest pinnacle of gall. Here it is :

ARMENIAN RUGS.

IT'S AN OPPORTUNE MOMENT

Just now to secure genuine hand woven Armenian rugs of the choicest patterns in subdued colorings. The persecuted inhabitants of Armenia have collected them and shipped them in bulk to us, in order to obtain money for bare living expenses. We have a large and varied lot, which we are selling at "quick money prices" to still assist the survivors. Shirvans, Daghestans, Kurdestans, &c. These will improve in appearance with age, and never wear out, as they have not been doctored with acids to make them appear old. They are selling fast, so make your choice soon.

SANDS & MAXWELL, of Pentwater, Mich., operate a big store in which they sell carpets and wall papers with almost everything else, two furniture factories and a saw mill. A Grand Rapids paper says of them : "It is claimed that they make more money than any other mercantile concern in Michigan. Everybody has some of it. It avoids committing itself on the silver issue like an adroit Presidential candidate, as it is made payable 'in merchandise at our store,' where it is redeemed on the idea of the Scriptural declaration, 'silver and gold have I none, but such as I have, give I unto thee.' Like all financial systems it has its opponents ; but the makers claim, and the public generally admit, that Sands & Maxwell sell as cheap as any store in the country and pay higher wages than any other manufacturers in Michigan. The firm's factories show a line of very handsome furniture in their Grand Rapids salesrooms, produced mainly from oak, maple, ash, elm and store orders."

REFERRING to the rumor quoted in our last that Bloomingdale Brothers were about to establish a branch establishment in Philadelphia, Store News, the clever little sheet published in Bloomingdale's, says under the heading "New York is Big Enough for Us" :

Some people appear to think that Philadelphia is in need of rejuvenation, and that to accomplish that process no more effective tonic could be applied to her than "Greater New York's Greatest Store." This is the only theory upon which we can explain the persistent rumors circulating in that staid old town that we contemplate the establishment of a branch store there. One enterprising paper has gone so far as to publish upon its front page an illustration of the building we intend to erect, and real estate values in that neighborhood began to boom in consequence, the people believing that the story was true. Our frequent denials seem to have had no effect whatever, as letters are being continually received inquiring after various matters in connection with the supposed enterprise. We are very sorry indeed that we cannot oblige our good Philadelphian friends—though we confess to feeling flattered by their attention.

At the present time, however, we are satisfied to serve the New York public to the best of our abilities and we do not believe that we shall ever cultivate any other ambition.

A trio of Boston carpet salesmen arrived in town on the 28th ult.—W. D. Marshall, F. H. Hubbard and Leslie Tyler.

George Brand, carpet and furniture dealer, 515 Fifth avenue, Brooklyn, has opened a branch store on Bath avenue, Bath Beach.

P. J. Donovan, New York agent for the Ivins, Dietz & Metzger Company, commencing with the fall season will also represent that account in the South. Joseph P. Donovan will make the Southern trip, starting at Richmond.

The creditors of S. E. Adams, carpet and furniture dealer, Jersey City, have accepted his offer of 33⅓ per cent. within three months. The nominal assets of Adams are $4,038.54, and his liabilities $2,372.56.

The assignee of Edmund Driscoll, Brooklyn, has informed the creditors that they will probably get about 20 per cent. Creditors are requested to send their bills at once to H. H. Baker, assignee, 99 Broadway, Brooklyn.

The South Brooklyn Board of Trade, which was organized on the 16th ult., is composed of the leading retail dealers in that section of Brooklyn. Among the members are John McCormick, H. Kraus, Daniel Monahan and John Coyne.

Frank Aichen, who calls himself Baron Franz von Aichen, was held for examination on the 13th ult., in the Yorkville Police Court, on a charge of dishonesty in connection with his work as collector for Siegfried Kraft, furniture and carpet dealer, 597 Tenth avenue.

At the second annual meeting of the Manufacturers' Association of Kings and Queens counties, New York, held at Brooklyn on the 20th ult., Frank L. Babbott and John H. Schumann were among the directors elected. Mr. Babbott is treasurer of the Chelsea Jute Mills, and Mr. Schumann is a member of the firm of Moller & Schumann, varnish manufacturers.

A large auction sale of Chinese and Japanese matting was held by Wilmerding, Morris & Mitchell, in the stores 350 and 352 Broadway, on the 22d ult. Good prices were realized for most of the lots offered, but some of the Japanese goods brought less than had been expected. Among the firms represented at the sale were Imwold, Kaiser & Co., Baltimore ; R. H. White & Co., Boston; A. C. Titus & Co., Newport, R. I.; H. P. Williams, Ludwig Brothers, J. N. Collins and Sperry & Beale, of New York city ; W. R. Laufer, Allentown, Pa.; H. M. Bixby, Salem, Mass.; Malley, Neely & Co., New Haven, and A. Graff, F. G. Rogers and H. Wonderlich, of Philadelphia.

The office and salesrooms of the Persian Rug Manufactory, formerly at 935 Broadway, are now at 111 Fifth avenue, corner of Eighteenth street. The removal of this concern to larger and more elegant quarters is an indication of the steady increase in the demand for the choice hand made rugs and chenille Axminster carpets manufactured to order in its factory in special designs and colorings. Dealers who have a market for high grade floor coverings are advised to call at the Persian Rug Manufactory's new salesrooms and get an idea of the character of the product of this concern.

The property of the Central National Bank, at the corner of Broadway and Pearl street, has been sold to a syndicate for $1,250,000. The bank has obtained quarters in the old Tradesmen's National Bank building at Broadway and Reade street. The building at Broadway and Pearl street, will be demolished and a new structure will be erected. When it is completed the Central National Bank will occupy the main floor. The Central Bank is known as the carpet men's bank, the carpet trade being strongly represented in its stockholders and depositors.

Mrs. Thomas C. Sloane and Mr. James L. Barclay were married in this city on the 16th ult. Mrs. Barclay was the widow of the late Thomas C. Sloane, who was a member of the house of W. & J. Sloane. By the will of Mr. Sloane, who died in the autumn of 1890, his widow received, in addition to the family residence, $110,000. Besides this, she received the income of a trust fund of $400,000 for life, or until she married. In either event, $200,000 of the trust fund was to go to Yale University, and the remaining $200,000 was to be divided equally between the testator's sisters, Mrs. Edmund Coffin, of Brooklyn, and Mrs. Henry B. Barnes, of 5 East Forty-fourth street. One of the wedding presents Mrs. Barclay received was an assignment of one of the legacies of $100,000 which her marriage would have given to one of her sisters-in-law.

During the past two weeks the following buyers have visited the market : Messrs. James J. Halligan, of Halligan & Meagher, Oswego, N. Y.; Frank M. Morrow, Altoona, Pa.; E. J. Sylvara, Dushore, Pa.; W. A. Boyd, of the Julius Lansburgh Furniture and Carpet Company, Washington, D. C.; H. J. Sarles, Liberty, N. Y.; G. S. Rodock, of Rodock & Neidig, Frederick, Md.; Max Heller, for Julius Meyer & Sons, Richmond, Va.; Morris Benson, of the Adam, Meldrum & Anderson Company, Buffalo, N. Y.; Jacob G. Cohn, Marysville, Cal.; Charles E. Dietz, Berne, N. Y.; A. N. Arnold, of Arnold, Miller & Co., Providence, R. I.; D. Shaul, of Holzheimer & Shaul, Amsterdam, N. Y.; A. W. Hutchinson, of Hutchinson's Bargain Store, Marietta, Ohio; Charles F. Bacon, for R. H. White & Co., Boston; E. H. Stewart, of the E. H. Stewart Furniture Company, Roanoke, Va.; Charles Neumann, Birmingham, Ala.; S. and E. Hecht, of Samuel Hecht, Jr., & Sons, Baltimore; Julius Waterscott, of J. Waterscott & Co., Clyde, Ohio; R. B. Harris, for the Doggett Dry Goods Company, Kansas City; H. H. Brandeis, of J. L. Brandeis & Sons, Omaha; J. R. Roenke and J. O. Rogers, of Roenke & Rogers, Geneva and Penn Yan, N. Y.; Samuel Katz, of Katz Brothers, Honesdale, Pa.; J. Gleason, for Pardridge & Co., Detroit.

VICTORIA MILLS EXTRA SUPERS.

Those dealers who have handled Victoria Mills Extra Supers this season have fully realized the statement made at the beginning of the season regarding the great desirability of the patterns and standard quality of the goods. We have not heard of a single dissenting opinion on this matter, but on the other hand the firm have received a great many letters from their customers referring in highly complimentary terms to Victorias.

The new fall line as now shown at the mill, Lehigh avenue and Hancock street, Philadelphia, goes still further than the spring line in strict originality of patterns and departures from any previous productions. The Messrs. Develon are young, enterprising manufacturers, who are willing to risk going away from beaten paths in the preparation of their new styles, and the correctness of their judgment is well demonstrated in the progress they have made in the past few years and the notable increase of production caused by the growing demand for their goods.

The remarks regarding Victoria Extra Supers apply likewise to the Alma extra heavy weight Ingrains, the patterns in which are different from those of the Victorias, but present the same degrees of novelty and attractiveness found in the regular Extras.

An idea of the strength and diversity of the Victoria Extras can be gleaned from the fact that there are some sixty distinctively different new designs in the fall collection, each of these designs being made in a number of different shadings.

ENLARGED THEIR BOUNDARIES.

Pearson & Emmott are now comfortably settled in their new and handsome quarters in the Wool Exchange Building, on the corner of West Broadway and Beach street, where they have more adequate accommodation for their increasing business.

They are direct importers of China and Japan mattings and are ready to show full lines of fresh, bright and perfectly regular goods made from their own confined designs. Their facilities now enable them to show their mattings in the roll.

Messrs. Pearson & Emmott are also large importers of carpet wools.

PITTSBURG ITEMS.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 21.

Manager Kerr, of Kaufmann's big carpet and upholstery department, reports a large and successful spring business.

Vincent Lynn, of the H. B. Claflin Company's carpet department, has been in town for several days and reports a very satisfactory second trip.

G. B. Treloar, New York manager for S. Sanford & Sons, called upon the trade here to-day, as did also F. W. Doerr, of Philip Doerr & Sons.

W. G. Hockridge, manager of Arnold, Constable & Co.'s Ingrain, matting and rug department, was here last week renewing old acquaintances and making new ones.

The receiver of Bovard, Lipphart & Co. is holding a special sale of the stock, and I understand the goods are being moved very rapidly. The general opinion is that an arrangement will be consummated with the creditors for continuing the business in some form at the old stand.

C. L. Reno, of C. L. Reno & Co., the carpet and furniture retailers, of this city, met with a very serious accident on the 17th ult. In the absence of the elevator boy Mr. Reno, in attempting to enter the car, was caught between the top of the cage and the floor. His right leg was broken, the left leg terribly torn and bruised, his hip dislocated and left arm fractured. The injuries will doubtless confine him at home for some two months, but despite his fearful condition Mr. Reno is to be congratulated on his escape from instant death. During his absence from business the entire management of the firm's extensive establishment will devolve upon H. L. McElroy, and the manifold duties will keep that gentleman exceedingly busy.

A MONEY WINNER.

An article that is in everyday use.

An article that is staple and never fluctuates in price.

An article that you are absolutely sure you buy at the same price that your competitor does.

An article that is confessedly better than anything known for the same purposes.

An article on which there is a handsome profit and which is constantly in demand.

An article that every customer is satisfied with, and on which you never have faultfinding or claims.

That would seem to be the article you ought to have constantly in stock. It never depreciates in value; there are no remnants, no waste, no loss. It is the patent rubber binding manufactured by the Knapp Rubber Binding Company, 335 Broadway, New York. See their advertisement on page 119.

A Doubtful Recommendation.—Smith—Why not try the man who decorated our house? No one could possibly find fault with his work.

Jones—You think not?

Smith—Decidedly not.

Jones—I 'm afraid he wouldn't suit my wife.—Puck.

....Hugo Preusse, furniture dealer, 2026 Ridge avenue, intends to add carpets to his stock.

....The Pro-Brussels looms of Robertson & Hall are still running to full capacity on spring orders and duplicates.

....McCallum & McCallum are enlarging their front offices to give them greater width, and to allow them to be divided into public and private apartments. The side projecting into the store will have a very imposing effect.

....A glance at the new designs and colorings brought out by Edward C. Read for the fall of 1896 convinces us that he has outdone all former efforts, and will be able to show as clean and tasty a lot of samples as any on the road.

....The firm of MacElroy Brothers & Scholes, Ingrain manufacturers, was dissolved on April 1, and the business is continued by the new firm of MacElroy & Scholes at the same address, the firm being composed of J. S. MacElroy and Wm. Scholes.

....The carpet department of J. B. Van Sciver & Co., Camden, N. J., under the management of Hartley Knight, is in a very flourishing condition. It would be hard to find a better selected or better arranged stock of carpets in the country than that under Mr. Knight's supervision.

....The Farr & Bailey Manufacturing Company, Camden, N. J., are erecting a new brick building 40x150 feet, two stories, for rug printing, carpenter shop, storage, &c. This new structure will replace the similar departments destroyed by the fire of February last, and will supply all the rug printing facilities required.

....D. Jamieson's Sons, 1732 Leib street, have their new line for fall ready for inspection, and it amply fulfills the promises made by the Messrs. Jamieson that the new samples would eclipse any of their previous offerings. Their plant is still running full time on spring duplicates, which proves the free selling qualities of their goods.

....It is safe to say there is not a handsomer show of first-class Ingrain carpets anywhere in the country than those on the fifth and sixth floors of the Bourse Building, Philadelphia, and buyers are beginning to find it out. Among the recent visitors were : Mr. Yerby, of Kline, Eppihimer & Co., Reading, Pa., and Mr. Vondersmith, of Schaub & Vondersmith, Lancaster, Pa.

....N. C. Dunn, 6 and 8 North Sixth street, has never swerved from his allegiance to brass stair rods as the most appropriate and handsomest stair carpet fasteners. He keeps a good assortment of styles and stock on hand at all times, and is pleased to report a better call for stair rods during the past six months.

....If any city or nearby carpet dealers haven't yet consulted F. S. Rogers, of 24 North Ninth street, on the exceptionally good values he offers in Art Squares, they are missing an opportunity of the season. The same remarks might truly be applied to China and Japan mattings, for Mr. Rogers always has special bargains in these goods.

.... The nominating committee of the Manufacturers' Club have announced the following nominations for the annual election, which takes place May 18: For president, John H. Converse ; for vice-presidents, James Dobson and Theo. C. Search. Among the gentlemen nominated for directors are Thomas Bromley, Jr., and Robert Dornan.

....E. C. Read, the Ingrain manufacturer, at Howard street and Lehigh avenue, is ready to show his complete new fall line in the same grades as heretofore produced. He has an abundance of thoroughly new styles in all grades, the line including thirty-five new designs, or 175 new shadings. He is now running about one-half of his looms on spring duplicates.

....The new series of colors for the Aubusson Ingrains manufactured by the Ivins, Dietz & Metzger Company are out, and they compare favorably with the best effects in the higher grades of goods. These Ingrains are in solid colors, and are made in 4-4 and 12-4 widths. The 5-8 borders are in very handsome Brussels designs, and in self-toned colorings, of course. Some notable effects are in salmon bronze, old blue, Nile green, deft blue, &c.

....The phenomenal heat which prevailed in Philadelphia during the two or three weeks past almost completely paralyzed the retail trade in every branch, especially in that of carpets, and the outlook for anything like a spring trade is rather dubious. It is getting to be more and more the custom for those who contribute most to the first-class trade to hie away to their country seats at the coming of the first warm day, and trade is thus largely curtailed. But something will be done yet.

....At the sheriff's sale of the mill property corner of Howard street and Lehigh avenue on the 6th ult. it was knocked down to William Lockhart, the Ingrain manufacturer, for $47,100. The property has a frontage of 200 feet on Howard street and 109 feet on Lehigh avenue, and is almost entirely covered by factory buildings, in which, besides the Ingrain plant of Mr. Lockhart, are the carpet plants of C. P. Cochrane and E. C. Read. The sale was held to settle the affairs of Thomas Taylor, who was formerly a well-known Ingrain manufacturer.

....C. P. Cochrane, Howard street and Lehigh avenue, had a satisfactory spring trade on his Ingrains up to April 1, since which time he, like others, has only operated a portion of his Ingrain looms. He has run the Damask and Venetian looms steadily throughout the season and is still operating this branch of the business to full capacity. His Puritan carpets, which are the extra heavy, double faced Brussels effects, are selling better than any other grade of Ingrains, and the duplicates are still coming in freely for them. Mr. Cochrane's complete fall lines will be ready for inspection next week.

....Joseph Adams, the yarn manufacturer, of Manayunk, has taken out execution upon a judgment note of $2,000 which he holds against Wm. T. Cunningham & Son, Ingrain carpet manufacturers, doing business at the Davenport Mills, York and Mascher streets. John Kitchenman, yarn dyer, has also taken out an execution in a judgment note of $4,655.71 against the same firm. Cunningham & Son have been manufacturing a first-class quality of Ingrain carpets for a number of years, and it was thought they were in a prosperous condition. Their plant and stock were sold out at auction on the 27th to satisfy the judgments.

The H. B. Claflin Company have done this season the largest business in China and Japan mattings in the history of their carpet department.

See the woman.

See the man.

Does the man grow sick at heart and tremble at the approach of the woman?

The man does not do a thing but grow sick at heart and tremble at the approach of the woman.

Is she a woman with a past?

Ah, no. She is a woman with a present, and the man does not know whether it is a box of cigars or a pair of carpet slippers.

Yes.—Ex.

The carpet department of the Barnard, Sumner & Putnam Company, Worcester, Mass., comprises two floors of 125 feet front and about 190 feet deep, besides a large warehouse outside. The different grade goods are shown in separate sections, and one special feature of the establishment is that an entire section is devoted solely to the goods of the Worcester Carpet Company, in which the house does an extensive business. Every grade of carpet, from the cheapest to the finest, is carried. The house also does a cut order and a small jobbing business. Sol Nixon, the manager, is one of the veterans of the trade, and also one of the most popular buyers in the country.

THE WORCESTER BRUSSELS AND WILTONS.

Worcester, Mass., is becoming more renowned every year for its productions of Wilton and Brussels carpets, for it is certain that the manufacturers there have obtained as great if not a greater share of the Brussels and Wilton trade during the past five years than any other manufacturing point in the country. The mill of Wm. Jas. Hogg, proprietor of the Worcester Carpet Company, has made an exceptional record for constant running, and the goods have maintained their reputation for uniform desirability and free selling features.

Mr. Hogg has brought out for the fall trade a new grade of Wiltons, something different from anything heretofore produced by him, and which will certainly be very popular with the trade.

These new "Washington" Wiltons should receive especial attention from buyers. The complete fall line of the Worcester Carpet Company's Wiltons and Brussels is now ready, and can be seen next week at the office of the selling agents, T. J. Keveney & Co., 905 Broadway, New York.

REMOVAL OF TEFFT, WELLER & CO.'S DEPARTMENT.

The carpet department of Tefft, Weller & Co., which has occupied the basement under the Central National Bank, corner of Broadway and Pearl street, will be removed before the 10th inst. to the building Nos. 109 and 111 Leonard street, just east of Broadway. This building was formerly a part of E. S. Jaffray & Co.'s establishment, and is a six story and basement structure, the whole of which will be utilized by Tefft, Weller & Co.'s carpet department. These new quarters will only be occupied pending the erection of a modern new building on the site of the present Central National Bank structure, which operation will doubtless consume a year or more.

Manager John W. Miller announces that pending the removal he will hold a general clearance sale of the stock and will offer special prices on his extensive assortment, especially in Ingrain carpets and rugs. Buyers who cannot visit the department should send in for the reduced quotations at once, as this special sale will only last for a short time.

NEW STAIR PAD OFFICE.

M. H. Marcus & Brother have removed their New York office and salesroom to 115 Worth street, where all orders and communications should be sent hereafter. A full stock of stair pads will be carried in New York, and the firm will also show the Lewis carpet linings, for which they are sole agents. Their line includes the patented adjustable stair pads, long length stair pads, and the flat style of quilted pads. The factory has been removed to Walpole, Mass., where increased facilities have been obtained. Samples will be furnished free of charge on application.

OBITUARY.

Edward Pardridge.

Edward Pardridge, the famous Chicago speculator, who died on the 17th ult., started in his business career as a dry goods dealer in Buffalo, N. Y., in partnership with his brother Charles. In 1876 the brothers went to Chicago and established a department store, the first one opened in that city. Edward began to speculate in stocks about fifteen years ago, but during the past ten years confined his attention to wheat. His speculative transactions were on an immense scale, and he always adhered to the short side of the market. He made and lost several million dollars, but is said to have left property valued at $2,000,000, consisting chiefly of real estate held in his wife's name. In 1891 he lost $500,000 by a sudden rise in wheat. In 1893 he lost $500,000 by the Cudahy corner in wheat, and last spring, when wheat rose from 52 to 82 cents a bushel, his losses amounted to $1,000,000.

His connection with the dry goods and carpet trade ended in 1891, when he retired from the firm of C. W. & E. Pardridge, the business being continued by his brother Charles and Charles Netcher under the style of Pardridge & Netcher.

Alexander D. Buchanan.

Alexander D. Buchanan, superintendent of the oil cloth works of Joseph Wild & Co., died at Astoria, L. I., on the 22d ult., of pneumonia.

Mr. Buchanan was born in Scotland forty-seven years ago, and came to this country with his father, Alexander F. Buchanan. He learned the oil cloth trade in the factory established here by his father, and became its superintendent. About thirteen years ago he entered the employ of Joseph Wild & Co., and took charge of their factory, which he managed successfully until his death. He leaves a widow and five children.

Thomas J. King.

Thomas J. King, for many years truckman for E. S. Higgins & Co. and other carpet houses, died at his home, 544 West Forty-third street, on the 7th ult., in his forty-ninth year. The decedent was for over twenty years a well-known figure around the White street store of Higgins & Co. His uniformly good nature and generous impulses earned for him the friendship and acquaintance of almost everyone in the neighborhood and also of the trade to whom he delivered goods about the city. He succeeded to the trucking business of his father-in-law, John Dugan, the latter having commenced to do work for the late E. S. Higgins over forty years ago. The funeral on the 10th ult. was largely attended, the carpet trade being well represented. Mr. King leaves a widow and three children, and his son, John King, will assume the management of the trucking business.

A. W. Stearns, head of the firm of A. W. Stearns & Co., Lawrence, Mass., and one of the oldest and best known merchants in Massachusetts, is dead.

Claude N. Stumph, senior member of the firm of Stumph & Brother, manufacturers of bedding and proprietors of the Empire Carpet Cleaning Works, Washington, D. C., died on the 14th ult., of tuberculosis of the throat, at his home at Silver Spring, D. C., aged thirty-nine years. He went to Thomasville, Ga., last November, where his physician sent him for the winter, but his continued failing health recently necessitated his return to Washington, and he survived the trip but a few days. He was a member of St. John's Lodge, F. and A. M.; Washington Commandery, K. T., and a prominent member of the Columbia Athletic Club, of which his brother, Edward B. Stumph, is one of the board of governors. Mr. Stumph was formerly a paymaster's clerk in the United States Navy, which he left to engage in business in Washington. He was unmarried.

John F. Chumasero, for many years a member of the J. V. Farwell Company, Chicago, and manager of its credit department, died at his home in Chicago on the 15th ult. He retired from business a year ago on account of ill health.

UNION CARPET LINING COMPANY'S ENLARGEMENT.

The Union Carpet Lining Company have just commenced the erection of a new brick structure at their works, Watertown, Mass. The new building will be 120x50 feet, three stories, and will be completed by the middle of July. A new 250 horse power engine has also just been placed in position, and with the renovation and rearrangement of some older parts of the plant has already greatly improved the works.

Mr. J. N. Damon, treasurer of the company, reports an excellent trade in carpet linings during January and February, with a decided falling off in March and early in April. The demand has improved considerably in the past two weeks, and has made them busy at the mill.

A REMARKABLE CARPET.

The factory of William Jas. Hogg, Worcester, Mass., has recently produced a Wilton carpet which is regarded as the most difficult carpet to weave ever made in Mr. Hogg's mill. The carpet was made for the lodge room of Stellar Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, and was given to the chapter by Mr. Hogg. It is 13 feet 6 inches by 15 feet. The design comprises a five pointed star and various Masonic emblems. The colors used are deep sky blue, canary, carmine, white and green, a background of royal blue with rays of red brown and deep buff setting out from beneath the star the full extent of the carpet. All the emblems are worked in the same colors as the rays.

The carpet was made from domestic wools, spun in the Pakachoag mills, dyed in the firm's dye house and woven with a pile about twice the depth of that which is generally made. The ordinary carpet calls for from 100 to 1,000 cards. The number of cards employed in the Stellar Chapter's carpet was 30,000. The cardboard alone weighed a ton, and 100 pounds of cotton banding or string were required to bind the cards together.

The carpet is on exhibition in the show window of the Barnard, Sumner & Putnam Company's store, Worcester, Mass. It was made up in the workroom of this company.

Imports of straw matting during the year ending June 30, 1895, amounted in value to $1,638,552.70. In the fiscal year 1894 the imports were valued at $1,874,243.83.

Allwood.—John D. Allwood started out April 15 on his trip through New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio with the new Smyrna rugs which the Lamond & Robertson Company, of Paterson, N. J., have just commenced to manufacture.

Bailey.—Melvin J. Bailey, formerly of Hemphill, Hamlin & Co. and afterward agent for the Horner Brothers Carpet Company, goes to the Lowell Company May 1.

Banta.—W. H. Banta, of A. A. Vantine & Co.'s Oriental rug department, returned from the Orient last month.

Beck.—George Beck, the old-time Eighth avenue carpet dealer, has been taking a two weeks' pleasure trip to the West.

Carpenter.—A. L. Carpenter, formerly on the road for the Chicago Carpet Company, is now in charge of the Chicago office of J. & J. Dobson. He will also handle John Dunlap's Ingrains.

Dobson.—James Dobson, of the firm of J. & J. Dobson, Philadelphia, recently contributed to the New York Mail and Express an interesting interview on the silver question. Mr. Dobson's ability as a business man, as proved by his great success as a manufacturer of carpets, lends exceptional interest and importance to his views on financial matters.

Douglass.—C. C. Douglass, treasurer of the J. W. Dimick Company, has just returned from a three weeks' trip to the West, whither he went to pay a friendly visit to the customers of the firm.

Greene.—A. C. Greene, formerly with John Gay's Sons, will on May 15 join the road force of Stephen Sanford & Sons.

Halliday.—Arthur L. Halliday, of 42 West Twenty-second street, has been doing so much clever work in Axminsters and other goods of that class that he is getting anxious to have a little rest by changing to Wiltons and Body Brussels. Mr. Halliday is a pupil of Dr. Dresser, who wrote once that Americans took the most carpet patterns in the world. Mr. Halliday has drawn numerous patterns that Englishmen have appropriated, and has designed some carpets that are better than anything the loud-talking authority ever dreamed of.

Mackay.—Henry Mackay, of Joseph Wild & Co., is president of the board of trustees of the Bay Ridge Presbyterian Church, Bay Ridge, L. I. The new church built by this society was dedicated on the 18th ult.

Sanford.—Mr. Stephen Sanford and Mr. John Sanford, of S. Sanford & Sons, spent several days in New York recently.

Swan.—Frederic Swan, now manager of Fred'k Loeser & Co.'s carpet department, in Brooklyn, will assume charge of the new carpet department of the Siegel, Cooper Company when the house begins business next fall in New York city. Mr. Swan was formerly of the firm of Swan, Basford & Co., of Boston, and afterward buyer for S. Baumann & Brother, New York.

Thatcher.—James B. Thatcher, one of the most experienced and competent men in the carpet business, is open to engagement. He knows all about a carpet, from the loom to the floor, can select patterns with judgment, can handle an account, and is a first-class salesman. He can be addressed in care of this office.

Treloar.—G. B. Treloar, New York manager for S. Sanford & Sons, has been visiting the trade in the large Western cities. He returned to New York on the 29th ult.

Valentine.—E. W. Valentine, a well-known Poughkeepsie, N.Y., carpet man, is now with Luckey, Platt & Co., of that city.

Webb.—W. E. Webb, of Dunham, Buckley & Co., sailed for Europe on the 22d ult.

Wehn.—George Wehn, the Pittsburg agent for Boyd, Harley & Co., was welcomed by some of his old friends in New York last week.

Weimer.—Chas. Weimer, of Boyd, Harley & Co.'s road force, will travel for W. & J. Sloane next season.

THE TAFT ELECTRIC SEWING MACHINE.

The electric carpet sewing machine manufactured by J. C. Taft, of Providence, R. I., is giving excellent satisfaction, and seems to fill every requirement of a power sewing machine. The actual sewing mechanism is just the same as in the Taft hand machine; it runs on the same kind of track, and occupies no more room than the hand machine. In fact one of its particular advantages is its exceptional compactness and freedom from extra and cumbersome fittings. The best demonstration of the utility of the Taft electric machine is obtained in the workroom of Jordan, Marsh & Co., Boston, where two machines are operated on one straight track, starting from either end and meeting at the central point of the track. With this equipment Manager Laubham can sew 4,500 yards of carpet in ten hours if required. The machine is also being used by the Anthony & Cowell Company and the Callender, McAuslan & Troup Company, of Providence, R. I., and John A. Roberts & Co., of Utica, N. Y., besides several other firms heretofore mentioned.

We believe the price is the lowest of any electric carpet sewing machine on the market, and dealers contemplating purchasing a machine will, we believe, serve their interests by obtaining an electric in preference to a hand machine. Write for particulars and trial conditions to J. C. Taft, 40 Friendship street, Providence, R. I.

The J. Davidson Dry Goods Company, of Port Huron, Mich., recently purchased a Taft carpet sewing machine, which is proving highly valuable in making up the carpets on a large hotel contract.

Exports of carpeting and kindred goods for the past fortnight were as follows: Carpeting—Southampton, 139 bs., $3,785; Glasgow, 53 bs., $1,772; Hamburg, 11 rolls, $385; Nova Scotia, 17 rolls, $364; Liverpool, 2 pkgs., $85. Carpet Sweepers—British Australia, 19 cs., $247; Rotterdam, 16 cs., $147; Odessa, 1 cs., $18.

The Royal Carpet Lining Company, of Providence, R. I., have moved into a larger factory at 456 to 464 Potter's avenue. They expect to have twenty machines for manufacturing their patent lining in operation inside of a month, and have room for fifty machines altogether. They state that the goods have been received with favor by the trade, but that their product has been so limited up to date that they have not been able to offer the goods generally. With their increased facilities, however, they expect to have goods for the market within a very short time. The president of the company is Wm. F. Grubb, and the treasurer and general manager is Wm. A. Mauran, who was connected with the carpet lining business several years ago, when Geo. W. Chipman & Co. were manufacturers. Royal carpet lining, which was invented by Mr. Mauran, is a patented fabric made from strips of paper woven on a cotton thread warp, and is taped and bound like the cotton filled lining. F. B. Wentworth is the selling agent, with headquarters in Boston.

CHARACTERISTICS OF CERTAIN PROMINENT MAKES OF ORIENTAL RUGS AND CARPETS.

N texture Turkish carpets are looser than Persians or Indians, but the length of the pile in Turkish goods gives them thickness, solidity and durability. The conventionalized flowers in them are generally tulips, hyacinths and roses. The designs are a mixture of arabesques, moresques, medallions and rosettes. Some of these designs are known as follows: Zarpilek, consisting of foliage or figures of regular or irregular outline; Yapraks, or lozenges with double corners, having the appearance of saddles; Benyooks adjem, large medallions with ogive designs at the corners; Ilans, which are similar medallions with the addition of foliage and small arabesques at the corners; Krotchak adjem, an assemblage of small medallions, and Tourkemens, rosettes filled with arabesques and ogival designs.

At Ushak, which is a great centre of the Turkish rug industry, about 6,000 weavers are employed; at Ghiordes and Koula the number varies from 1,500 to 2,000 in each. The average daily work of each weaver is a piece about 10 inches long and 27 inches wide. To make a carpet 4½ yards square six weavers work at the loom at a distance 27 inches from each other.

The common people of Turkey invest their savings in rugs or carpets, as people in the United States do in savings banks. Turkish carpets and rugs are handed down from father to son and one is often surprised to find in a very poor house a collection of valuable rugs.

In the Ushak goods the favorite colors are old gold, old red and rich cream, mingled with soft blues. Ushak rugs are thick and heavy, with large bold figures as a rule. In Kirmans, which are a fine grade of Ushak, the patterns are in Persian style, and the Ghiordes rugs also resemble Persians in designs and colorings. Koula produces a specialty in all-wool carpets of primitive make, but excellent quality, and also an inferior kind of prayer rug about 2¼ yards long and 1 yard wide, in which are three parts of wool and one of hemp. Soumacs are closely woven and have no pile. The antique Ghiordes rugs were made in mosque designs and rank among the finest Oriental goods. The rugs and carpets now made in Ghiordes are very popular in the European and American markets. They come in all sizes and in Turkish, Indian, Persian or other patterns. The Dimmirdje rugs are similar to Ghiordes, but heavier. Melas rugs come in small sizes only, and are noticeable for a peculiar brownish red effect. They have plain centres with a sort of mosque design and selvage edges like the Bokhara or Shiraz rugs. The pile is velvety and the wool used is very fine. The Youroke rugs have a long pile and come in bright red and blue with well-covered grounds.

In many of the modern Syrian rugs the original Turkish designs are no longer seen. In the patterns now made the prevailing colors are usually red and black, occasionally crimson and black, with black or dark brown figures at both ends, or red and green, with white borders having white circles about 2 inches in diameter with red or green centres.

The fine antique rugs are often very narrow because they were made for the narrow galleries which usually extend around Turkish and Persian houses. The large antique rugs come from the mosques and are very scarce and difficult to obtain. In prayer rugs the pattern always points in one direction, that from which the Mohammedan offers his prayers. He casts his rug on the ground so that its figure will point toward Mecca and kneels so that his face will be turned toward the holy city.

Daghestan rugs have geometrical figures and the pile is somewhat shorter than it is in the Youroke goods. Shiraz rugs are similar to the Daghestans. The Carabaghs have long silky woof with geometrical figures and are closely sheared, the centres are light and camel's hair borders are frequently used in them. Kazaks are like the Carabaghs but square in shape. Neither Daghestans, Shiraz, Carabaghs nor Kazaks ever come in carpet sizes.

Dillwynn Hoopes, general merchandise and carpeting, Bynum, Md., has made application for the benefit of the insolvent laws. Joseph T. Hoopes has been appointed preliminary trustee, furnishing bond for $5,000.

The first annual banquet of the Carpet and Furniture Salesmen's Association was held the evening of the 13th inst. The officers of the association are : President, Samuel Schillinger ; vice-president, Charles H. Korb ; secretary, C. W. Griffith ; treasurer, George V. Peters ; sergeant-at-arms, William A. Griffith.

The following carpet merchants were recently in Baltimore : Bland & Bell, West Point, Va.; R. T. Carothorp, Tappahannock, Va.; C. T. Marston & Co., Harmony, Va.; P. Jennie, Lincoln, Va.; George T. Ford, Round Hill, Va.; E. D. Hartman, Shrewsbury, Pa.; L. W. Lane & Son, Williamsburg, Va.; Wright & Highland, Cockeysville, Md.; Marcus Notes, Washington, D. C.; D. W. Jones, State Hill, Va.; James E. Kirwan, Chester, Md.; M. B. Baker, Shepherdstown, W. Va.; Emmert & Fiery, Martinsburg, W. Va.

Henry Spence has opened a store at 565 Broad street, Newark, N. J., for the exclusive sale of linoleum, oil cloths and rugs, and he makes a very handsome display of these goods.

At Indianapolis W. H. Messenger's trade is on the increase all the time. He carries as large a stock of furniture and carpets as any house in the city and has been in business in Indianapolis for the past fifteen years, moving into his present quarters in 1884 and adding several floors since that time.

J. W. Greene & Co., Newark, N. J., owing to the great increase in their business since their opening under the management of Mr. Dwyer, have been obliged to enlarge their showrooms by adding a building in the rear of their Market street store, and they have also leased a large building in the side street for storage of surplus stock.

The firm of Hoberg, Root & Co., Terre Haute, Ind., has been dissolved by the retirement of Max F. Hoberg, who has been connected with it for thirty-six years. He has not had a vacation for thirty years and proposes to take a good one. The new firm will be L. B. Root & Co., Olville Miller being general manager. It is reported that Root & Co. are contemplating the erection of a new building.

The Anthony & Cowell Company, Providence, R. I., recently sewed 340 yards of Ingrain carpet with overcast stitch on a Taft machine in less than four hours. The carpet was laid in the Masonic Temple in Providence. H. B. Hills, manager of the carpet department, reports that trade is improving every day. His department occupies two rooms, one 40x85 feet and the other 60x135 feet.

F. P. Burlingame, manager of the Callender, McAuslan & Troup Company's carpet department, reports business since the first of the year as ahead of the same months in last year, but notes that the April trade is not up to the general average. Mr. Burlingame has a large job on hand in carpeting the Mathewson, a new hotel at Narragansett Pier. Smith Velvets are prominently represented in this contract.

A very large stock of carpets and draperies is carried by Wicks & Co., Bloomington, Ind. E. S. Brodix, the manager, kindly showed a representative of The Review through the store on a recent visit to that city. The carpet department is on the second floor, a large stock being carried. The building is 35x135, three stories and basement, one of the large show windows always having a carpet display.

John J. Hicks, dealer in carpets and furniture at 85 and 87 Beaver street, Albany, N. Y., has been obliged by increased business to add some 40 feet additional room to his large and well equipped establishment. The new part is neatly fitted up and is to be used exclusively for carpets. His workshops, which were formerly in the rear, have been removed to 120 Beaver street. His new improvement gives him one of the largest and handsomest places of business in the city.

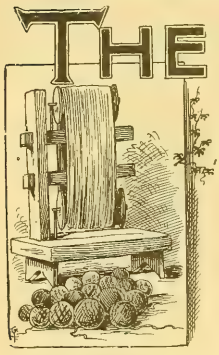
The new store of the Jones Furniture Company, Tyrone, Pa., was formally opened on the 9th ult. The remodeled building which has replaced the structure damaged by fire recently is neatly planned and filled with a large stock of new goods. The stores were brightly illuminated by electric light. Potted flowers everywhere contributed fragrance and beauty to the scene. Handsome curtains, hangings, and pictures added their share to the general effect. On the second floor an orchestra furnished a fine program of music from 7 until 10 o'clock. The opening was a grand success, reflecting credit upon the hustling manager, A. E. Jones. Mr. Jones has been engaged in his present line of business in Tyrone for seven years, and during that time he has had a series of ups and downs, with difficulties that had to be overcome which would have appalled many other men. But he is irrepressible and now appears in the management of a new store better equipped than any of the establishments which he formerly conducted.

Union City, Tenn., is noted for its progressive and prosperous merchants, as well as for its factories and other enterprises. The firm of D. N. Walker & Co. are an example of its advantages in this line. They have a large double store which would do credit to a city five times as large as Union City. The house is arranged in a commodious way and has an air that is attractive and pleasant to customers. The exterior presents a metropolitan appearance and draws attention from everyone. The firm is composed of two energetic and progressive men. They are D. N. Walker and John F. Walker. The latter is not actively engaged in the firm, however, his other interests demanding his attention on the outside. They conduct an extensive business in dry goods, carpets, &c., and carry a large stock. Their carpet department is particularly attractive. The business of the firm is probably more extensive than any house in the State outside of Nashville and Memphis. The firm have been established several years and have been growing continuously. They first began business in a single store, but soon grew to such proportions that more space was required, and the present extensive double building was secured.

The H. B. Claflin Company have done their full average business for the spring in their carpet department, and are making arrangements for the most vigorous fall season in the history of the department. They will have all their old lines and some new things to show the customers of the house.

PARK MILLS PROGRESS.

THE FINE ASSORTMENT OF PATTERNS FOR FALL TRADE.



PROGRESS made by John Gay's Sons in distributing their Park Mills Ingrains direct to the trade has been phenomenal. Two years ago this month, after many years of selling exclusively to the jobbing trade, the firm inaugurated their present system of dealing directly with the retailers, and it is safe to say that no manufacturing firm has to-day more accounts or a larger proportion of the best retail houses on its books than John Gay's Sons. The illustration on their colored insert in this number of The Review is decidedly appropriate in marking the opening of a new season on Park Mills Ingrains. Propelled by beauty, style and durability, they have kept in the van, and an effulgent sun is lighting the path to success. This allegorical picture is well worth while looking at. So much had been heard regarding the notable attractiveness of the new fall line that a Review representative has made a particularly careful inspection of the samples.

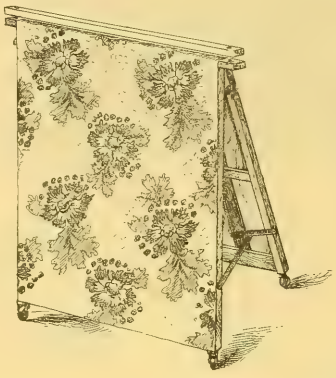
The fall line of Park Mills Extra Supers comprises over 200 different samples, the selections from double that number of trial samples, which illustrates the liberality in expense and care devoted by the Messrs. Gay to preparing a new line. What strongly impressed the writer was the big advance made in getting away from the heretofore accepted Ingrain appearance, in developing new ideas of design drawings and emphatically new coloring effects. With such patterns and shadings as are seen in these goods an all wool Extra Super need not fear annihilation from any grade of carpet produced. The originality of the figures will stand the test of comparison with the new lines of any other manufacturers, and the Messrs. Gay are to be congratulated on their courage in maintaining an individuality in their patterns, one feature, by the way, that we think is accountable for their success.

No line can appeal more strongly to the high-class trade, for there is an exceptional abundance of two toned and soft colored effects in stylish outlines. No field of effect, however, seem to be slighted, and the graduating tones of design and shading are very evenly distributed, from pianissimo to fortissimo. To select any patterns for special mention out of this uniformly grand aggregation seems invidious, but for the sake of comparison of judgment we would ask buyers when looking at the new line to carefully note the following numbers: 2186, 2154, 2181, 2210, 2098, 2241, 2212, 2198, 2221, 2122, 2255, 2140, 2190, 2178, 2183, 2219, 2208, 2225, 2222, 2227, 2232, 2240, 2201, 2182, 2199, 2196, 2230, 2192, 2189, 2218, 2239, 2220, 2211, 2246, 2215, 2169, 2170, 2193, 2176.

In the Rajahs, or 16 pair extra heavy Ingrains, the assortment is large for this grade, and the perfection of producing varicolored figures on a solid ground is noticeable. Some very handsome large figures will certainly be good sellers, and even in the very closely covered grounds the lines of the patterns are clearly and artistically defined. The full force of John Gay's Sons' travelers will be on the road with the fall line before June 1, and meanwhile early buyers can see the new goods at the mill in Philadelphia and at the New York and Boston offices.

A NEW CARPET EXHIBITING STAND.

THE Excelsior carpet exhibiting stand, made by H. Wonderlich, 305 and 307 North Eighth street, Philadelphia, is something which should attract the prompt and favorable attention of every dealer in carpets. It will keep samples clean and smooth, and allow the instant and easy exhibition of any entire pattern. Goods are now shown much more generally by samples than in the roll, and this stand offers the best method of displaying samples. It is handsome in appearance, can be easily moved about, and when not in use can be folded into a very small space. The price is only $5.00 and for full particulars address the manufacturer as above.



THE CHINA MATTING MARKET.

ARNHOLD, KARBERG & Co. in their circular dated Canton, China, March 17, say: "Since our last report of the 4th inst. prices of matting have become, if anything, firmer, as manufacturers have had to grant a petition of the Canton weavers for higher wages, in order to avoid a strike. The former are now threatening to raise their prices accordingly; still we expect to be able to place orders on the basis of our last quotations. Some fresh contracts, amounting to about 10,000 rolls, have been booked in the meantime.

"Manufacturing of matting is very much impeded by the heavy rains, which have fallen during the last seven weeks almost without interruption."

J. D. ALLWOOD represents the Lamond & Robertson Company on the road in New York State and Pennsylvania.

THE appraisers of the assigned estate of Harrison Townsend & Co., Brussels carpet manufacturers, of Norristown, Pa., filed their report the 20th ult. The appraisement places the total assets at $29,194.99. The mill property and machinery is appraised at $8,087.27 over and above incumbrances; manufactured goods and raw material at $10,804.24, and outstanding accounts at $7,160.81. The individual property of James W. Barker, junior member of the firm, which was included in the assignment, is valued at $100 above incumbrances. The appraisers were James Kenworthy and J. Morton Bunn, of Norristown, and Isaac W. Smith, of Bridgeport. The assignee is running the mill and filling the orders on hand.

THE WOOL TRADE.

SIGNIFICANCE OF RECENT EXPORTS OF AMERICAN WOOL.

In our issue of April 15 Jos. N. Damon, treasurer of the Union Carpet Lining Company, expressed the opinion that wool would soon be exported from this country, and during the week ending April 18 there was exported the largest quantity of wool ever sent out of the United States in one lot, and it was also the largest sale of one lot of wool ever made in this country.

In regard to the actual significance of these exportations the wool trade are not in agreement. Some dealers believe that our domestic wools can be easily adapted to foreign requirements and that the demand for them abroad will soon be an important factor in the market prices. The decrease in the Australasian clip, owing chiefly to drought, is very great, amounting to at least 150,000 bales, or 60,000,000 pounds, and some wool men predict that the shipments of domestic wool and reshipments of foreign wool from the United States during the present year will amount to 40,000,000 pounds. The wool exported comes chiefly from Texas, and the shipments included also a quantity of China wool, which was sent abroad because the market for it here had been so seriously affected by the depression in the carpet industry.

But many well informed members of the wool trade attach but little importance to these exports. They argue that under normal conditions of the foreign market there would be no profit in exporting our wool to Europe, and that the sole reason for these recent exports is the bad condition of our woolen manufacturing industry, which ordinarily requires the entire product of our domestic growers and much more besides from other countries.

The shortage in the Australasian wool clip is, of course, an important matter, but it affects directly only the market for high grade wools. Australasian wools are the finest grown and are never used in the carpet trade, but are in considerable demand among makers of high grade upholstery fabrics. The Australasian wool clip has been falling off for several years past. In 1891, when the down grade commenced, the number of sheep in New South Wales, for example, was 61,531,416, while last year they numbered 47,433,332 only. Between 1894 and 1895 alone the decrease was 9,500,000 sheep, a greater number than in any previous year. The decrease during the drought of 1892 was less than 4,000,000, and even the great drought of 1884 left New South Wales with only 6,250,000 fewer sheep. The decrease during 1895 resulted from two causes: a disastrous drought in many districts and the fact that the clip of 1894 was unduly augmented by the great shearing strike of that year, which by delaying shearing gave the clips of many stations too much growth.

The depression in our own wool manufacturing industry is in strong contrast with the flourishing condition of the European woolen manufacturers, on the Continent as well as in Great Britain. It would be a mistake to assume that it is the American demand for foreign woolens which has made the looms abroad so busy. The activity in the British mills is due principally to the largely increased demand from British colonies and to the general improvement in business not only in these colonies, but also in Europe and certain Asiatic countries.

With proper legislation at Washington our own country would doubtless experience a similar revival of business, but no material change for the better can be expected here until the Presidential election has been held and the tariff and currency questions have been definitely settled.

"EMPRESS OF INDIA" DESIGN. WOVEN BY DEBENHAM & FREEBODY FOR THE QUEEN OF ENGLAND.

While the Delft craze is on dealers will find it to their advantage to call on A. A. Vantine & Co., who are offering something new in the shape of blue and white Wariato rugs, made from fine Japanese fibre with pretty Delft blue and white colorings and fancy Jappanese designs. They are 3x6 feet in size and sell at $1.10.

A number of prominent business men of the City of Mexico gave a dinner on the 21st ult. to T. C. Searcy, president of the Manufacturers' Association of the United States. The banquet hall was decorated with American and Mexican colors, and the speeches indicated a desire on the part of the Mexican business men to enter into more intimate trade relations with the United States. The prediction was made that the Grant-Romero reciprocity treaty would be revived.

The most complete tariff text book ever published is the new edition of "Tariff Facts for Speakers and Students," Defender Document No. 9, 260 pages, just out. Publishers, the American Protective Tariff League. Campaign text books issued just before the election are of little value. The Tariff League is to be congratulated on its foresight in getting out its hand book so early in the year. Order by number only. Sent to any address for 25 cents. Address W. F. Wakeman, general secretary, 135 West Twenty-third street, New York.

During the past ten days the New York Belting and Packing Company have taken orders for installing their interlocking rubber tiling on four steamers and one entire train of cars. The interlocking feature, by making it absolutely impossible to displace the tiling, peculiarly adapts it for use in all places where there is vibration, such as on steamers and railroad trains. On land, its durability, beauty and noiselessness recommend it for vestibules, aisles, corridors, hospitals, court rooms and numberless other places where such features are desirable.

CARPET IMPORTS AND EXPORTS.

The Treasury Department's report of carpet imports and exports for the year ending June 30, 1895, shows that we imported Oriental rugs and carpets from the following countries :

	Square Yards.	Value.
Imported from Turkey in Europe,	261,306	$634,668
" " Turkey in Asia,	61,739	143,659
" " Japan,	11,748	6,642
" " China,	1,081	2,072
Totals.....	335,874	$787,041

The imports from Great Britain amounted to 323,913 square yards, valued at $496,969, and a considerable proportion of these goods came from the Orient, London being a large market for Oriental rugs and carpets.

Our exports of carpeting to Great Britain amounted to 204,648 yards, valued at $125,926. The exports to Canada were 25,099 yards, valued at $13,060, and Germany took 7,134 yards, valued at $7,629.

SAMUEL WHITE'S NEW OFFERINGS.

The spring season has added largely to the reputation of the Gladstone Extra Supers made by Samuel White, and the fall line will not only maintain but increase the favorable opinion in which the goods are held by the trade. Mr. White's production now includes worsted and wool Extra Supers, cotton chain Extra Supers, wool fillings, half wool Unions, 12 pair cotton Supers, 10 pair cottons and 8 pair cottons, as well as Smyrna rugs, of which the new styles are now ready in every grade. White & Spate, 31 and 33 West Twenty-third street, New York, are the selling agents. W. H. Reid, 611 Washington street, represents the goods in Boston, and the downtown office of the mills in Philadelphia is conveniently located in the new Bourse.

A book that should be in the possession of everyone connected with the dry goods trade, from the head of the firm to the youngest salesman, is "A Pocket Dictionary of the Dry Goods and Allied Trades," by G. W. & D. P. Bible, 335 Broadway, New York. In concise and exact terms it defines every article used in the business. It is convenient in shape, legibly printed and published at the moderate price of $2, $3 and $4, according to the binding. Such houses as Sweetser, Pembrook & Co., Dunham, Buckley & Co., A. D. Juilliard & Co., Tefft, Weller & Co., Lee, Tweedy & Co., &c., have indorsed it very heartily.

ALDEN SAMPSON & SONS CONTRADICT A FALSE REPORT.

A report circulated recently to the effect that Alden Sampson & Sons intended to retire from the floor oil cloth trade has caused much comment, on account of the conspicuous position which the house has so long held in the oil cloth industry. The retirement of a firm so old established and of such high standing would be a matter for great regret, and we therefore take much pleasure in presenting herewith a letter from the firm, in which the report alluded to is contradicted in emphatic but very appropriate terms. The letter is as follows :

New York, April 23, 1896.

The Carpet and Upholstery Trade Review :

Will you extend the courtesy of your columns to us to deny an industriously circulated and equally malicious rumor that we are to retire from the oil cloth business?

We have never for one moment contemplated such a step, and those most actively engaged in circulating the story are the ones most fully apprised of the fact. As this is not intended for an advertising card, we will simply say, "We are in the manufacturing of floor oil cloths to stay." Yours very truly,

Alden Sampson & Sons.

EAST INDIAN RUGS.

It is often said that most of the East Indian rugs and carpets seen in the United States are the product of prison labor, but this is a mistake. Carpets have not been manufactured in Indian jails to any considerable extent in recent years. The quantity now produced by prison labor is only so much as is required to provide the convicts with regular employment.

The Indian carpets and rugs imported into other countries are the product of three factories situated in the Punjab. The Turkish practice of making rugs by household labor is unknown in India. S. J. Tellery & Co., whose New York store is at 935 Broadway, have the largest factory in India, and import rugs and other Indian goods on a very extensive scale. The rugs and carpets are of especially fine quality, and the designs and colorings represent the best results attainable in Oriental looms. The coloring is done with vegetable dyes, no aniline colors being used under any circumstances.

The rug industry was introduced into India by weavers from Persia, and dates back no further than the fifteenth century. Persian ideas are still prominent in the patterns of many Indian rugs, but the characteristics of other Oriental countries are also well represented in the product of the Indian factories.

The Worcester Carpet Company (Wm. Jas. Hogg) has recently exported to Amsterdam, Holland, a quantity of Burmah rugs. The latter are double faced Brussels patented fabrics made exclusively by the Worcester Company, and we believe are the first Brussels rugs to be exported to the European continent from this country.

A new law in Pennsylvania provides that all typewriting heretofore executed, and all which may hereafter be done, for any purpose whatever, shall have the same legal force and effect as ordinary writing, and that the word "writing" occuring in the laws of the State shall be held to include typewriting. This is the first State that has thus far legalized the work of the typewriter.

RETAIL DEALERS ORGANIZING.

A NUMBER of prominent furniture dealers in this city recently issued a circular to the retail trade calling attention to the success which had attended the organization of retail furniture dealers in several Western cities, suggesting the necessity for a similar organization of the trade in New York, and requesting dealers to attend a meeting at the New York Furniture Exchange, on the 16th ult., for the purpose of forming an association.

The meeting took place as announced, about thirty-six dealers from this and adjacent cities being present. A. Thompson, of the Brooklyn Furniture Company, was chosen as chairman, and Chas. E. Spratt was elected secretary pro tem. Alexander H. Revell, of Chicago, then addressed the meeting, describing the benefits which had accrued to the trade in his city through the formation of an organization. Mr. Revell urged those present to follow the lead of the Chicago trade in this respect. Letters were read from the secretaries of the Chicago and Cleveland organizations explaining their methods, and a motion to form an association was then adopted, Mr. Thompson being made temporary chairman and Mr. Spratt temporary secretary. A committee was also chosen to act with the chairman and secretary. The committee consists of Geo. Shellas, of Shellas & Chesnutt, Brooklyn (chairman); R. H. Kingsbury, of the Geo. C. Flint Company; John W. Park, of A. H. Van Horn, Newark, N. J.; Mr. Friel, of Friel & Hand; Mr. Manges, of Manges Brothers, and John F. Doherty. The meeting then adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman.

NATIONAL COMMERCIAL TARIFF CONVENTION.

A CONVENTION of various commercial, manufacturing, labor and agricultural organizations of the United States will be held at Detroit, Mich., opening on June 2 and continuing from day to day until the business brought before it is completed. The chief object of the gathering is to discuss ways and means for taking the tariff question out of partisan politics, and making it strictly a business question. The improvement of the consular service and the creation of a new Government department devoted to commerce, manufactures and labor are matters which will also receive attention. The committee having charge of the arrangements for the convention have secured special rates of fare from the different railroad associations, and persons who are interested in the objects of the gathering are advised to write S. B. Archer, Chamber of Commerce, Detroit. Mr. Archer will furnish full particulars regarding railway fares, hotel accommodations, &c.

THREE additional combing machines have recently been added to the Worcester Carpet Company's worsted spinning plant, two in the Pakachoag mill and one in the Stoneville mill.

LUDWIG BAUMANN & CO.'S NEW BUILDING.

ON May 1 work will begin on the construction of the new building which Ludwig Baumann & Co. will put up. It will occupy the Thirty-sixth street front of their present site on Eighth avenue, between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth streets, will be 75x100 feet, and eleven stories in height.

This will be the first step in the remodeling of Ludwig Baumann & Co.'s great establishment, and as soon as it is finished reconstruction will go on in some other part of the store. A year from now will probably see it one of the largest and handsomest buildings in this city.

HARDENBERGH & CO.'S ASSIGNMENT VOID.

THE Appellate Court of this State has recently confirmed the decree of the lower court, declaring the assignment of Hardenbergh & Co., of Brooklyn, fraudulent, and setting it aside. The firm assigned to Hugo Hirsch in July last. The debts amounted to $70,000. Two years previous to the date of the assignment Arnold, Constable & Co. obtained a judgment for $1,376.18 and filed it with the Kings County sheriff. W. & J. Sloane, to whom the Hardenbergh firm owed $41,000, came in as joint defendants at their own request. Justice Davy decided that the assignments should be set aside and the Appellate Court sustains his finding.

A PATTERN SUIT.

SUIT has been instituted in Boston by M. J. Whittall against the Lowell Manufacturing Company for alleged infringement of the former's patented pattern No. 1387 Victoria Brussels. The claim is that the Lowell Company's No. 4772 Brussels is copied from the Whittall pattern. The Lowell pattern is made for Arnold, Constable & Co., exclusively for their private line, and was patented October 1, Lowell's No. 4772.

THE LOWELL PATTERN.

Whittall's No. 1387.
THE WHITTALL PATTERN.

1895. The Whittall pattern was patented February 12, 1895. The Lowell Company deny infringement and refuse to stop making their pattern and settle with Mr. Whittall, hence the suit. It is the first suit or claim ever made against them for alleged infringement of a patented pattern. The suit is on the body pattern alone and does not include the border.

BY-BIDDERS IN THE AUCTION ROOM.

H. M. Daghistanlian, an Armenian, said to belong in Washington, D. C., a couple weeks ago went to Pittsburg and hired Danzigaer's old store and advertised a "Grand Auction Sale" of Oriental carpets and rugs ranging in price from $25 to $5.000. S. P. Morse, associate manager of the National Association for the Suppression of Fraudulent Auctions, immediately began to investigate charges of fraud made by purchasers, with the result that Daghistanlian was arrested and held in $1,000 bail for hearing before Judge Kirker. The following dispatch from Mr. Morse shows the result :

Pittsburg, Pa., April 23, 1896.

L. Andrews, Manager of the Association for the Suppression of Fraudulent Auctions, New York :

Won my case. Daghistanlian bound over for grand jury.

S. P. Morse.

At the hearing of the case Mr. Morse testified that the auctioneer employed by Daghistanlian had placed a rug, No. 600 Royal Iran, up for auction, and that he (Morse) bid $50 on it, Mr. Orth bid $200, and the first bid was accepted. A blond woman in the audience, whom Morse designated as a "puffer," bid $350, and it was knocked down to her. He claimed that he attended every sale, and that the rug was not sold for $350, but was offered at private sale afterward by Mr. Daghistanlian's assistant.

Rug No. 558 was put up on April 9. Mr. Morse claims he bid on it, and it was not sold for $7. It was put up again on April 10 by auctioneer Westcott, and Morse called his attention to the fact that he had sold the same rug the day previous. Daghistanlian, he claimed, said that the lady who purchased it did not come after it. No. 458 was offered during the sale; Daghistanlian, he stated, was present. Morse bid $75 for it, but Westcott sold it to the same blond lady for $130. Morse says he saw it there afterward, but that, so far as he knew, it was not offered for sale again. He claimed that the rug No. 600, sold for $360, was still on the wall on Saturday of last week.

On cross-examination he corroborated his testimony, save in one detail. He said the auctioneer did not hear the bid of $350 for the Royal Iran, but pointed to a woman in front of him and acknowledged that she had made the bid, afterward selling it to her. He made an effort to find both Westcott and the woman, but both had disappeared. Detective Hesser was with him at the time.

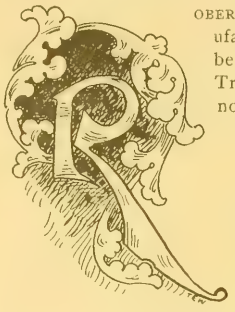
John Gibson, of the D. F. Henry Auction Company, was placed on the stand and acknowledged that Daghistanlian was selling under his flag or as an agent. He said that he had asked Daghistanlian what he would sell the Royal Iran for, and it was offered for $375. Daghistanlian told him, he said, that it was worth $450. He also said he had had an offer of $350 for that rug. Gibson did not buy it.

Attorney Scandrett asked that the defendant be held for court. Attorney E. G. Furgeson, of the firm of J. S. & E. G. Furgeson, who represented the defendant, made a plea to have his client discharged. He claimed that Morse had not made out his case. The justice thought differently, however, and Daghistanlian was held.

On the other hand, this is what Daghestlian says in his own defense. He claims that he has been conducting a legitimate sale and did not have a "puffer" in his place.

"Several gentlemen," he adds, "have been in this store and have tried to buy goods on a second bid. It was a case of conspiracy against me. One would bid a few dollars on a very valuable rug and the other would raise him dollar or two. Of course we would not sell under that system, and I maintain that the auctioneer has a right to pass the first bid. It is the same with reference to sheriff sales. Suppose a house worth $5,000 was to be sold and one man bid $10 and another $15, would it be right for the sheriff to sell it at that price because it was the second bid? No, nor would he sell it. At the hearing these facts will come out, and we will see whether or not I am conducting a legitimate sale. I can prove I have had no 'puffers' and don't care a fig for the case."

ROBERTSON & HALL'S NEW MILL.



Robertson & Hall, the Ingrain manufacturers, who have heretofore been located at Tioga street and Trenton avenue, Philadelphia, are now settled and have their machinery in active running order in their new mill on the northwest corner of Lehigh avenue and Front street. They have made wonderful improvements in this structure, which is well known to carpet buyers as the old location of Geo. W. Ennis & Co.'s Smyrna rug plant. Robertson & Hall's old location was so far away from the centre of the Kensington district that doubtless many buyers were estopped from looking them up, but in their new quarters they are so conveniently and prominently situated that no buyer should miss calling and inspecting their lines.

Their productions consist of all wool and C. C. Extra Supers, 12 pair, 10 pair and Union Ingrains, together with Persians, Aubussons, Granite Ingrains and the popular and free selling Pro-Brussels. In these latter goods the firm have secured very flattering success. The Pro-Brussels is a double faced fabric made in patterns and colorings faithfully reproducing the regular Brussels effect. Both sides of the fabric are wool and it is made much heavier and firmer than a regular Ingrain by an extra heavy warp filling. Stair carpets to match the body patterns are also shown. The firm will have a production one-third larger than formerly and invite inspection from all visiting buyers of their new fall line, which is now ready.

It is reported at Glasgow that the thread manufacturing companies of Coats and Clark in Paisley and the United States will amalgamate and form a central agency in the United States.

Some items have appeared in the New England local papers stating that the Ingrain plant of the Lowell Manufacturing Co. was being reduced to make room for the new Axminster looms. While it is true that the setting up of the new Axminster plant necessitates taking out some of the old style Ingrain looms, it is not intended to permanently reduce the production of Ingrains. With the alterations at the Lowell Company's mills completed, the Ingrain output will be as large as and probably larger than heretofore.

CHICAGO CARPET NOTES.

CHICAGO, APRIL 25.

W. B. Baldwin, treasurer of the Chicago Carpet Company, has returned from a trip to New York, where he visited relatives and looked into matters of business connected with his firm.

A. L. Carpenter will leave his position as salesman in the wholesale department of the Chicago Carpet Company May 1 to take charge of the Dobson and Dunlap accounts in this market. The Gay account, which was formerly associated with the Dobson account, will be represented from the East, it is said. Mr. Carpenter will make his headquarters in the offices formerly occupied by Theo. A. Steenson in the Champlain Building. He will have an assistant.

Mr. Pillman, of Pillman, Smuck & Co., has been in St. Louis for a week.

Frank Tinelli has been in the city this week. He reports trade extremely quiet.

The store of Gainer & Kohler, 855 Milwaukee avenue, is to be enlarged and improved at a cost of $16,000.

Mr. Jones, of Marshall Field & Co.'s wholesale department, is expected back soon from a short vacation.

Louis Besselman, of S. Sanford & Sons' local office, was at his home, Richmond, Ind., attending the marriage of his sister April 22.

John T. Chumasero, secretary and financial manager of the J. V. Farwell Company, died April 13. He was born in 1839, and had been with the Farwells since 1871.

Charles Hafkemeyer, who has been associated with Theo. A. Steenson in handling the Dobson and Gay accounts here, expects to be with the John M. Smythe Company after May 1.

There have been few second trips made from this market this season. One traveler went to Milwaukee this week. He reports that of goods sold to dealers there last December not 5 per cent. had been cut up.

Joseph Moore, of T. B. Shoaff & Co.'s local office, says the rug trade has been good, and that Bromley's Smyrnas are selling better than ever. He says they are more than holding their own in spite of the cheap "Jap" rugs.

Mr. Scarrett, of Marshall Field & Co.'s wholesale department, says the last ten days have been productive of more country orders than he has ever known before in a similar period. His force has been kept on the jump attending to them.

Manager Ames, of Marshall Field & Co.'s wholesale department, left this morning for the East. He is recovering from a painful accident. While at Hot Springs recently, just about an hour before he intended starting for home, his horse threw him and he was severely bruised on the face and hands and his right wrist was sprained. It was a narrow escape from a serious injury.

A. A. Vantine & Co. have removed their Chicago branch to 80 and 82 Wabash avenue, where, with more commodious premises and a larger stock of samples, prices will be found lower than ever. The firm's advertisement will be found on another page of this issue, where it will be seen that they are offering special values in jute rugs and blue and white Wariato rugs for immediate delivery.

M. H. Jordan's headquarters are now with Rich & Allen on the seventh floor of the Champlain Building. He is considering several offers, but has reached no conclusion. He will probably go East about the middle of May. After sixteen years' experience in the carpet business in the Northwest and West, Mr. Jordan does not expect to be without an account or two for any great length of time.

Daniel W. Gale, of 3845 Ellis avenue, died a few days ago at his residence, of apoplexy. He was seventy-three years old, and was one of the pioneers in the dry goods and carpet business in Chicago. His firm was Harmon, Aiken & Gale, then Harmon, Gale & Co. and later Gale & Van Wycke. It was located at 51 and 53 Lake street, and was dissolved shortly after the fire of 1871. R. H. H.

MOTHS AND CARPET BEETLES.

Among the methods available for protecting carpets from moths, one is to steep one-quarter of a pound of cayenne pepper in 1 gallon of water, then adding 2 drachms of strychnia powder. Strain and pour this into a shallow vessel, such as a large tinned iron milk pan. Roll the carpet up and set each end, alternately, in this mixture for ten minutes, or long enough to insure the saturation of its edges for about an inch. Do this after beating the carpet. The ends should be likewise treated. Be sure the carpet is dry before tacking down, as the wet poison might injure the fingers while tacking. When done with the liquid throw where it cannot possibly harm anybody, or bottle and label for future use, marking it "Carpet Moth Poison." This preparation will not stain the carpet nor corrode metals in contact with the carpet.

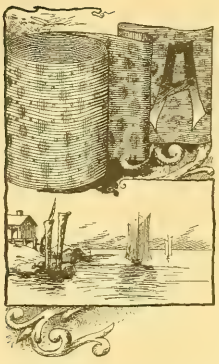
Another mixture calls for 1 pound of quassia chips, one-quarter of a pound of cayenne pepper steeped in 2 gallons of water, strained and used as above.

When the carpet to be treated is not to be taken up, spray ends, edges, margins and corners with an atomizer. Perhaps two or three applications might be better than one with the atomizer.

The carpet moth loves the bindings and margins of a carpet. Ingrains or Three Plys may be treated successfully while down by wringing a cloth out of hot water, laying it over the bindings and edges, and ironing it with a hot iron. This will destroy both moth and eggs. This method is not effectual with Moquettes or other heavy carpets, as the heat will not sufficiently penetrate them, besides which ironing injures the pile of Velvets; still the tacks can be drawn occasionally, and the carpet laid over on its edge, one side at a time, and steamed on the wrong side. Then wipe the floor under the carpet as far as the arm can reach with hot cayenne tea. Also wipe the edge and bindings of carpet with the hot rag, rubbing hard before renailing. Some recommend sprinkling salt around the sides of the room before nailing down the carpet, but this seems wrong, because the salt will surely attract too much moisture.

Be on the lookout for the Buffalo carpet beetle as early in the year as February and March. Look for them on the windows and window sills, and over all woolen clothing not in frequent use. The moth has a special liking for red carpet. But the pest comes also later in the year, being sometimes brought into the house in flowers; it has a particular love for the blossoms of the spirea. It is a good plan, where the moths are unusually numerous, to saturate the floor with benzine, or preferably, we think, with spirits of turpentine, which is not so inflammable or volatile, and then lay newspapers down under the carpet. This prevents an attack from the under side. It is important to remember that the moths always abhors the light, which is death to the eggs and larvæ, and is really the best thing with which to circumvent them.

DOINGS IN CARPETDOM.



At a recent meeting of the creditors of L. & H. Blum, Galveston, Tex., the report of the committee recommending the proposition of reorganization as proposed by the friends of the firm was adopted. The plan is to pay 50 cents on the dollar, the idea being to form a company to continue the business, the stockholders being the creditors. There will be preferred and common stock, the first maturing in three years, the latter remaining. The friends of the firm will place sufficient security to keep the common stock at par if necessary. If two-thirds of the creditors agree to the plan it will be carried out.

Cook & Holland, Clay City, Ind., have dissolved.

Mayer & Degroote succeed A. Mayer, Bellaire, Ohio.

F. S. Kelly, Duluth, Minn., is retiring from business.

It is reported that R. C. Reynolds, proprietor of the Troy (N. Y.) Furniture Company, will open a branch store at Greenbush, N. Y.

W. C. Gray, Utica, N. Y., will open a branch of his carpet and feather cleaning business at Ilion, N. Y. It will be in charge of W. H. Ingalls.

Williams & McAnulty, Scranton, Pa., furnished all the carpets, draperies and window shades for the new and elegant Hotel Jermyn in that city.

C. H. D. Summers, the receiver appointed last week for C. A. Smith & Brother, Gallipolis, Ohio, who had confessed judgments for $7,593, immediately reopened the store with the old clerical force, and it is now running as before. A quarrel between members of the firm is said to be the cause of the trouble.

C. G. Manning is about to open a housefurnishing goods store at Fort Plain, N. Y.

J. H. Wetherbee succeeds the W. F. Sanders Furniture Company, Hinsdale, N. H.

A. P. Bigelow's stock at St. Albans, Me., is reported to have been destroyed by fire.

It is reported that Harry Dickson will start a carpet factory at Reed City, Mich.

Mrs. F. Bertram has sold out her carpet and furniture business at Rogers City, Mich.

Frank S. Kelley, carpet and furniture dealer, Duluth, Minn., is going out of business.

The Worcester (Mass.) Furniture Company has opened a branch store at Westboro, Mass.

L. B. Root & Co. succeed Hoberg, Root & Co., dry goods and carpet dealers, Terre Haute, Ind.

N. Thompson & Co., dealers in dry goods, carpets, &c., Nunda, Ill., are succeeded by R. W. Crane & Co.

Gately & O'Gorman, Worcester, Mass., have opened a bicycle department, which is in charge of F. S. Mills.

W. R. Smith has retired from the firm of Smith, Solenksy & Co., dry goods and carpets, Pulaski, Tenn.

H. H. Sturtevant, of Zanesville, Ohio, is said to be contemplating the opening of another store at Columbus, Ohio.

John Dry, carpet and furniture dealer, Boyertown, Pa., is to retire on account of failing health, and offers his business for sale.

O. W. Cotton, dealer in carpets, curtains and furniture, Shelbyville, Ind., is succeeded by the Cotton Home Furniture Company.

Burnham, Stoepel & Co., Detroit, who have been in their present location for fifteen years, are contemplating the lease of a block further up town.

In the affairs of H. E. Wachslager, proprietor of the Popular Furniture Company, Holliston, Mass., the liabilities are $1,404.33; assets, $681.29.

McDonald & Means, Belton, Tex., have filed a deed of trust conveying their stock and fixtures for the benefit of their preferred creditors. The liabilities are $139,975.

The A. Metzger Agency have bought the art glass and parquet floor departments of Eastman, Schleicher & Lee, Indianapolis, and H. E. Hamilton, formerly with the latter firm, is manager.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Nye & Wait Carpet Company, Auburn, N. Y., on the 21st ult., George H. Nye was re-elected president, and all of the other officers were re-elected.

J. B. Foshay, the well-known Sing Sing merchant, has leased the large store in the new McDermott Building at Peekskill, N. Y., and opened it on the 22d ult. with a new stock of carpets, mattings, paints and wall paper. William L. Wyatt and Frank L. Rickey, two well-known Peekskill young men, have charge of the new store.

D. C. Wilbur's carpet and furniture store at Marshalltown, Ia., has been undergoing a general cleaning, papering and painting, and now presents a clean, fresh appearance for the opening of the spring trade.

Frederick C. Bowers, manager of the store of the Rhodes-Haverty Furniture Company, Little Rock, Ark., has been arrested on a charge of appropriating several hundred dollars of the company's money.

The Lains & Lord Furniture Company, San José, Cal., which was forced into insolvency a short while ago, has filed a schedule showing its debts to be $5,663. The assets consist of a stock of furniture valued at $6,000, and $300 worth of fixtures.

Alex. Parker & Sons, Etna, Cal., a very old concern, established in 1855, and formerly claiming a capital of $150,000, have asked for an extension, and the sheriff is in possession. They were large dealers in carpets and furniture.

Frank F. Crane, carpet and furniture dealer, Quincy, Mass., has doubled his floor space, taking the first floor and basement formerly occupied by the Quincy café. He contemplates extensive improvements, and will open in connection with his other business a real estate office.

R. Becker, doing business as a carpet and furniture dealer at San Antonio, Tex., filed a chattel mortgage on the 8th ult. transferring all his goods in his stores and warehouse, open accounts, notes and claims to H. O. Engelke for the benefit of creditors. It is provided that the expenses and a salary of $100 per month to the trustee be paid first, and then the accounts be paid in the order named.

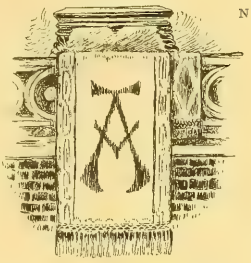
Cripple Creek, Col., was the scene of a big conflagration on the 25th ult. The fire department was unable to cope with the flames, and dynamite was resorted to to check their progress. Among the losses are: Golden Eagle Dry Goods Company, $15,000; Boston Store, $18,000; Fairly Brothers, carpet and furniture dealers, $40,000. It is reported that outlaws started the fire with the intention of looting the town.

The Ogilvie Dry Goods Company, formerly R. B. Ogilvie & Co., of Madison, Wis., who handle carpets and upholstery goods, are in the hands of the sheriff, under attachment for $300. In January last they showed assets of $49,826 against liabilities of $9,468. R. B. Ogilvie, who started the concern, failed in January, 1894, and the new company was organized, with $20,000 capital, in December, 1894, Mr. Ogilvie being the president.

The Atkinson Furnishing Company, Boston, have a number of strips of carpets made the exact width and length of the sidewalk in front of their store, and they are laid over the flagging each clear day, and as they are kept clean and fresh no one can pass without noting at least that carpets are a feature of this store.

A. F. Buchanan & Sons, manufacturers of table, stair, shelf and enameled oil cloth, show at their New York store, 50 Leonard street, a highly attractive assortment of patterns in these goods; and as sole agents for the Crown Smyrna rugs they offer a variety of sizes and handsome styles certain to attract the favorable attention of buyers. In both oil cloths and rugs their offerings will well repay inspection.

TRICKY RUG PEDDLERS.



A new method of swindling is being carried on in the country districts of New Jersey. The mode of operation is this: A man calls at the house and offers for sale a half dozen rugs similar to those he carries as samples. The rugs are handsome ones, and the six are offered for $21. They sell for $4 apiece in the stores here. The women of the household are taken with the reduction in price, and the canvasser insists that nothing less than the half dozen be taken. He must have the head of the household sign the contract to take the rugs. Read the contract as one may, it appears all right. A day or two later a wagon drives up and has the six rugs in it. They are delivered, and $126 is asked in payment.

There is a dispute, of course, and the driver produces the contract. It plainly reads that the signer agrees to pay $21 apiece for the rugs. The dispute continues, and usually ends with the driver accepting $75 for the lot. At the compromise the purchaser pays $51 more than would be asked for the same rugs here. Several swindles of this kind have been perpetrated. The men working it are supposed to have Trenton as their base.

MR. SMAIL RETURNS TO NEW YORK.

Henry Smail, head of the firm of Darragh & Smail, arrived in New York on the 16th ult. from India, via London, and will hereafter make his headquarters at the firm's New York establishment, 177 Water street. Mr. Smail has spent a number of years in India, overlooking the factories and exporting business of his firm. He was also formerly in charge of the New York business, but five years ago, on the death of James Darragh, then the senior partner, he returned to India and has made his headquarters in Alipee up to February last. On the death of Thos. F. Bryce, the New York partner, in November last, Mr. Smail decided to leave India and make his home and headquarters in New York.

Darragh & Smail are the most extensive manufacturers of cocoa mats and matting in India and also have one of the largest factories of the same goods in this country, located in Brooklyn. They are extensive exporters from India of coir fibre and yarns and other India products.

S. C. Wilber will continue to be the selling representative for the cocoa goods at the warehouse and also on the road.

Any color you want in carpet thread can be supplied by John C. Meyer & Co., 87 Summer street, Boston.

The experience of the trade during the past year with the whole piece "New Axminsters," made by Alex. Morton & Co., of Darvel, Scotland, has placed those goods in permanent favor. Wm. Hunter, the agent, and his associate, H. A. Whitcomb, are now on the road with the new fall patterns. They are also showing the Caledon and Celtic Art Squares exhibited for the first time.

THE INFANCY OF THE CARPET TRADE.

Carpets were first used as coverings for tables. They were first utilized as floor coverings in the year 1255, but not to any great extent, as it is recorded that as late as 1596 they were still used as table covers.

During the fifteenth century checked mattings were used upon the floors of the wealthy. An ancient sketch of the room in which it is supposed St. Edmund was born shows a checked matting upon the floor, with a fringed rug lying in front of the fireplace. The fifteenth century has also the honor of originating what is now known as "list" or "rag" carpeting. It was not woven then as now, with a heavy cotton warp, but warp and filling were of the same size and were composed of leather strips cut to proper width. The fabric was not so much woven in its construction, as it was interlaced by hand. It was made in short pieces and used as rugs.

The carpet industry in England was established by French weavers who emigrated from their native land in the year 1700 and settled at Wilton. The carpets they produced were what we term now Wilton and Brussels, but were of a coarse and inferior quality, as we are informed by ancient chroniclers. At a later date we find the Earl of Pembroke visiting France, where he discovered a company of artisans at work producing a much superior quality of the same goods. He prevailed upon them to accompany him to England, establishing a factory for them at Wiltshire. From that factory grew the great industry which subsequently spread over all England.

Axminster carpets derive their name from the river Axe, in England, upon whose banks they were first produced.

THE LOWELL AXMINSTERS.

W. H. Sheehy has received at the New York salesroom of the Lowell Company a few advance samples of the new Lowell Axminsters, and will have a line ready to show when the new fall goods of the company are placed on view the latter part of this month. The few samples so far seen bear out all the encomiums that have heretofore been showered on the quality and advanced scope of pattern and coloring effects of these goods.

Their advent in the market will be an important event in the trade, and every carpet merchant who desires to be up to date should see the new Lowell Axminsters.

Mrs. Kingley—My two servant girls fight like cats and dogs.

Mrs. Bingo—And yet you say that they went shopping together yesterday.

Mrs. Kingley—Yes, I told them to go down to some dry goods store where they wouldn't be noticed and have it out.—Life.

COSTIKYAN FRERES.

Costikyan Frères, the firm consisting of Nazar and Harutune Costikyan, whose headquarters are at Constantinople, with a branch in London, are located in New York at 49 Liberty street. The house was the first to begin an exclusive commission business between this country and the Ottoman empire. Their experience in the Oriental rug and carpet trade covers a period of nearly twenty years. They import carpets and rugs from the Orient and export various American manufactures from this country. The house in Constantinople represents such firms as the W. W. Kimball Company, pianos and organs; the A. H. Andrews Company, of Chicago, and others of similar importance; and the New York house ship large quantities of their products. At the Liberty street warerooms there have just been received over 100 bales, consisting of Feraghan, Extra Persian, Hamaden and Heriz carpets, large and small Kiz Kelims and Bagdads for portières and lounge covers in great variety, Karabagh, Ghenje and Kazak rugs, Mousoul rugs and carpets, and Anatolian and Bokkhara hall strips. There is also in the stock a large line of antique rugs in all sizes, notably many small and large Shiraz rugs, small Hamaden rugs and Derkut rugs. The firm's announcement will be found on page 71.

A NOTABLE OIL CLOTH CATALOGUE.

When you can obtain such a valuable and artistic trade book as the colored catalogue of the Farr & Bailey Manufacturing Company for the asking, no time should be lost in obtaining it. In this book are shown thirty-two patterns of floor oil cloth that are always carried in stock, the patterns being the exact reproductions in colors and figures of the manufactured goods. These thirty-two patterns are carried in stock at the company's Chicago store, 234 Market street, as well as at the works in Camden, N. J., and the Western dealers who want to buy directly of the manufacturer and have the goods shipped from Chicago should take advantage of the Farr & Bailey Company's Western stock.

"Now, I want the room painted a very delicate color—a sort of pale grayish pinky rose tint—in fact, a maiden's blush color."

"Yes, miss ; about what age, miss ?"

OUR BOSTON BUDGET.

BOSTON, APRIL 27.

The Boston Carpet Company has collapsed, and the handsome store heretofore occupied by it, and formerly by H. A. Hartley & Co., at the corner of Elm and Washington streets, is now to rent, being temporarily used by a bicycle firm.

J. R. Gilmore, Lord & Taylor's carpet buyer, has been in Boston the past few days.

Andrew L. Bryan, for many years with Torrey, Bright & Capen, is now at O'Callaghan's.

John H. Pray, Sons & Co. have just completed a big job in carpeting the new insane hospital at Medfield.

Among recent notable visitors was Mr. Campbell, of the rug department of T. B. Shoaff & Co.

Trade is reported not so good as it was at this time last year, and it takes harder work to get what there is.

Herbert Constable & Co., dealers in instalment goods, have removed from Kneeland street to 81 Union street.

The notice of an advance of 2½ cents per yard in B Palisade Tapestries was a good deal of a surprise to carpet men here.

William Kelly and Fred Weston, heretofore with the Boston Carpet Company, have gone into the manufacturing of tint cloth shades.

Dave Tarbell, from W. & J. Sloane, was in town last week with some special offerings in carpets. He found trade generally quiet over the New England route.

M. Melchers, of Melchers & Co., Canton, was here this week trying to arrange for direct importations of straw mattings with a number of Boston firms. He is on his way to Germany.

W. H. Reid, 611 Washington street, is well maintaining his ground as a seller of Smyrna rugs. He is New England agent for Samuel White, and does business with some of the largest handlers of rugs in this section. He also represents Samuel White's complete lines of Ingrains.

The order book of W. W. Corson & Co., 564 Washington street, shows what a liberal share of the New England and New York State Ingrain trade this firm have been receiving. Their sales of Park Mills Ingrains this season are 20 per cent. ahead of a year ago and 33⅓ per cent. ahead of the fall business. A fair volume of duplicates is also coming in.

A. J. Wilkinson, the manufacturers' agent, of 564 Washington street, is well satisfied with his first season's experience as New England agent for Thos. Develon's Sons' highly desirable Ingrains; W. T. Smith & Son's Smyrna, Angora and goatskin rugs, and Samuel Hecht, Jr., & Sons' mattings. On his newest account—the Smith rugs—he says he can interest any buyer.

When everybody agrees upon any one man's worth and uniformly pleasant disposition, such unanimity of judgment must be correct, and it certainly is as applied to Bennett Pike, manager of Jordan, Marsh & Co.'s rug department. He has made a big success of his department, as is evident by comparing the space occupied and great stock carried, with the size of the department when he first assumed charge. The Oriental rug stock alone is one of the largest retail collections in the country, and it would be hard to find any assortment of domestic rugs to beat Mr. Pike's aggregation. He reports trade for the last half of April as much better than during the first half. F. J. B.

BOYD, HARLEY & CO.'S PLANS.

A great many rumors have been circulated during the past fortnight relating to radical changes in the business of Boyd, Harley & Co., the Philadelphia carpet wholesalers. In response to The Review's request for some authoritative information on the subject, Boyd, Harley & Co. on the 29th ult. very kindly made the following statement:

"The plans regarding changes in our business have not been fully consummated, but we will continue the cut order department, possibly add a retail department to it, and in connection will continue the jobbing business in a more restricted territory. If we attempted to deny or confirm all the rumors brought to our attention within the past thirty days we would have our hands full."

M. LARA & CO. TO REORGANIZE.

The assignee of M. Lara is sending to each creditor 25 per cent. of the face of his claim. A number of Mr. Lara's friends have come to the conclusion that his failure was the result of giving too much credit to parties whom he believed able to pay, but who under the pressure of the times have been unable to do so. They have concluded to give him a helping hand in the matter of his reorganization, and to that end he has set about to incorporate a stock company to do business under the same name, at the same place, and so far as possible with the same dealers, if it be their pleasure.

So far as we can learn the creditors are accepting the composition, and giving assignments of their claim to Frank S. Tenney, to be used in the interest of the reorganization.

YARDUM BROTHERS & CO.

The extensive connections and exceptional facilities possessed by the importing firm of Yardum Brothers & Co. render their offerings of Oriental rugs and carpets especially interesting to the trade. They are continually receiving new lots of goods from the Orient, the latest being a large assortment of choice Persians. On page 102 of this issue they call attention to some special lots which will wel repay examination. Yardum Brothers & Co. make a specialty of fine goods, and are in a position to strongly interest every buyer of Oriental rugs. Their offerings are on view in their New York salesroom, 339 Broadway.

It is said that the Lowell Company has expended over $200,000 within a short time in improving its carpet manufacturing plant.

"To what base uses." The thread which is made specially for fastening Knapp rubber binding is now being used for lacing bicycle tires.

The Western trade will have an opportunity during the next few weeks to inspect the carpet linings made by the R. T. Palmer Company, of 113 Worth street, New York, and New London, Conn. F. E. Bancroft is now out on the road with their samples and the attractive prices referred to in their advertisement.

LOVE AND THE INSTALMENT PLAN.

"CHASER," as the man is known who follows up and finds people who move or in other ways endeavor to defraud the instalment dealer, relates this little romance of his business: "Many suspicious cases of secret attempts at moving are not meant to defraud us, and customers sometimes call to tell about it before we have located them. Reasons given for this queer course are many and varied.

"One case which was giving me considerable trouble was solved in that way. A young woman's husband had died, leaving her considerable money in life insurance. A friend of the husband at once laid violent siege to the heart of the widow, who felt too badly to listen to his protestations of love. The man's conduct became unbearable and he grew violent in his demonstrations, threatening murder and suicide. Her aversion to him increased and she suddenly concluded to move secretly and thus escape his unwelcome attentions.

"The widow got a truckman to move her effects to Brooklyn, and he did the job so well that she has not been discovered, so far as I know. The widow explained that she had not notified us of her intention to move because she feared her annoyer might come to us to get her address, as he knew that she owed us money. The widow was able with her insurance money to settle her indebtedness in full, and she went away without giving us her new address."

As to some of the means used to follow up the frauds he said: "Janitors frequently tip us off on tenants who intend moving secretly, and, of course, they are rewarded. Truckmen, too, understand that we are willing to treat them in a proper spirit, and, taking it altogether, the rogue who defrauds an up-to-date instalment house must arise early in the morning and be very slick. He must get a good start and take the property far enough away so as to make it not worth while to send for it. Our total losses are small."

A HINT TO ADVERTISERS.

There was a man in our town
And he was wondrous wise;
He used to say it always paid
A man to advertise.

He wrote a little "ad" one day—
"Boy wanted," so it said—
And put it in the papers where
He knew it would be read.

That very night when he went home,
His face suffused with grins,
A trained nurse met him at the door
And told him it was twins.—Exchange.

HUSBAND—Are you going to spread those new rugs in the hall to-night?

WIFE—Yes, dear. Why?

HUSBAND—I may be out late.—Ex.

THOS. L. LEEDOM & CO., the Bristol, Pa., carpet and rug manufacturers, enjoy the special distinction of having run their plant full throughout the spring season. The duplicates received have been notably good in view of general conditions, while the firm's first orders maintained their usual average. The firm will bring out a new grade of Smyrna rugs for the fall season, which will be quoted at different prices from their regular standard grade. The quality and extensive assortment of the latter will be maintained.

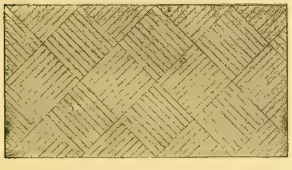
THE opening of the monster new Hotel Chamberlin at Old Point Comfort occurred last month, and among the large and notable gathering at the opening was James R. Gilmore, manager of Lord & Taylor's carpet department. The latter firm supplied the entire furnishings of the hotel, the work being done under the general supervision of Mr. Gilmore. The contract amounted to about $175,000. In the carpeting, 34,000 yards of the various grades of goods were used. The hotel is said to have cost $1,200,000 in construction and appointments.

KERMAN CARPETS.

The British consul at Kerman says that the carpets made there are exported to Constantinople and other parts of Turkey, and mainly pass through Tabriz. Only the nomad carpets find a sale in India. Both classes are infinitely superior to the so-called Persian carpets sold in England. A good many beautiful silk carpets are made for the Constantinople market. The carpets of Kerman are, in the opinion of many experts, the finest in the world. No aniline dyes are now used; but some crude designs, such as an armed Frankish warrior, with a French and Persian inscription, for a time ruined the native taste. Such attempts at mingling Eastern and Western art have, however, been abandoned, and now the most lovely designs, dating from centuries past, are represented upon the finest of carpets, which are woven in silk or wool. The only opening for capital that would certainly prove remunerative is to be found in the establishment of a carpet manufactory. The splendid quality of Kerman wool is confined to the province, the same sheep in other districts having failed to produce wool of the superlative excellence possessed by the home-grown article. Added to this, the scale of wages is low, even for Persia, while the inhabitants of Kerman are already adepts at the trade. The shawl and carpet industries have doubled their output during the last few years, although during 1895 there was a temporary check, owing to troubles in Turkey, where most of the shawls and a large percentage of the carpets are bought.

Samuel White, the Ingrain and rug manufacturer, reports that trade fell off in the first half of April, but after that duplicate orders came in so fast that he was obliged to start up all his looms and is now running on full time, with prospects of continuing so on duplicates until June 1. The new fall samples will be shown at the mill in Philadelphia, and at the New York store, 31 and 33 West Twenty-third street, on and after the 4th inst.

The advantages of hardwood floors are particularly enjoyed in the warm summer months, hence this is the best time of year to push their sale. A very interesting illustrated catalogue, telling all about the handling and sale of parquet floors, will be sent on application to the Interior Hardwood Company, Indianapolis, Ind. Write to them, for they can interest any dealer.



A HARDWOOD FLOOR PATTERN

The Emblematic Rug Company, 1193 Broadway, New York, have every reason to be satisfied with their business to this date in their exclusive patterns in rugs for Masonic, Odd Fellows and other societies. The company make special designs for lodges, societies, &c., and their Mentone Art Squares are another specialty of interest to every buyer who is looking for new, striking and salable color effects. Write to the company for samples and descriptive circulars.

AS GOOD AS DEAD.

The following new story comes from the West: Mr. L., a good-natured German, was the prosperous proprietor of a considerable clothing business in a country town. He had in his employ one John S., whom he had advanced from cash boy to head clerk, and who had for many years been an attaché of the store. Since his promotion John had several times asked for a raise in his salary, and each time his request had been granted. One morning John again appeared at the old merchant's desk with another request for an increase of $10 per month. "Vy, Shon," said Mr. L., "I dink I bays you pooty vell alretty; vat for I bays you any more?"

"Well," replied John confidently, "I am your principal help here; I have worked you up a large trade; I know every detail of the business, and, indeed, I think you could not get along without me."

"Is that so!" exclaimed the German. "Mein Gott! Shon, vot vood I do suppose you vas to die?"

"Well," hesitated John, "I suppose you would have to get along without me then."

The "old man" took several whiffs from his big pipe and said nothing. At last he gravely remarked: "Vell, Shon, I guess you petter gonsider yourself dead."

GET UP AND SCRATCH.

Said one little chick, with a funny little squirm,
"I wish I could find a nice fat worm."
Said another little chicken, with a queer little shrug,
"I wish I could find a nice fat bug."
Said a third little chick, with a strange little squeal,
"I wish I could find some nice yellow meal."
"Now, look here," said the mother, from the green garden patch,
"If you want any breakfast you must get up and scratch."

The No. 5033 Crown Axminster border made by J. & J. Dobson is pronounced by everyone who has seen it the most beautiful harmonization of color effects ever seen in that grade of goods. It is intended as a border for solid colored centres, and will match a number of shadings.

The cut order business of White & Spate, 31 and 33 West Twenty-third street, New York, has been steadily increasing, and they will cut up double the amount of goods they did last season. The fine weather of the past few weeks has brought in large orders, and they are very busy, and will continue to be so during the whole month of May in that department.

The Kidderminster Shuttle of the 4th inst. says:

We understand a company is being formed to acquire and carry on the Long Meadow Carpet Mills, New road (late Henry Jecks Dixon & Sons, Limited), Kidderminster, with a capital of £35,000 divided into 1,000 6 per cent. cumulative preference shares of £10 each, and 2,500 ordinary shares of £10 each. Among the directors, it is said, are two Members of Parliament. Mr. John Bennie, besides being a director is to be the manager, and Mr. Charles Dixon, the London agent of the projected company. There are, it appears, eighty-one Brussels power looms and twenty-three Axminster looms, with all necessary machinery and plant. The company are offered the lease of the mills on advantageous terms, with the option of purchase at £15,000.

JOSEPH H. ORR, Wilkesbarre, Pa., is doing a rushing business in his new stores, which give him much needed space for the steadily increasing trade. The stores are 50x175 feet, with basements. The carpet department has recently taken several large contracts for carpeting churches and hotels.

THE train rushed through Albany at the rate of 70 miles an hour. As the conductor came through the "smoker" collecting tickets, he announced that there would be no stop until they reached New York. A young man offered his ticket and asked if he could not get off at Poughkeepsie. "Yes," answered the conductor, "you can, but God knows where you'll land."—EX.

THE Goshen Sweeper Company, of Grand Rapids, are introducing four new grades of carpet sweepers. Three of them, the "Common Sense," "Majestic" and "Best Sweeper," are high grades, and the "Champion" is a superior popular priced sweeper. A special feature of these new sweepers is the adjustment of the action, so that the case will not touch the carpet. This is to obviate many instances of "sprouting" caused by the edges of a carpet sweeper case or roller catching in the pile of carpet, and the Goshen Company deserve commendation for thus aiding carpet dealers to do away with sprouting complaints. E. H. Taylor, of the Goshen Company, recently visited the trade in New York, Boston and other Eastern points and secured fair orders.

IN THE UPHOLSTERY MARKET.

THERE has been little improvement in local trade during the fortnight and the travelers on the road are not sending in large orders on their second trips. As one of them writes, the only things that are selling well just at present are bicycles and shirt waists.

In some Western cities a fair business is being done. Trade in Chicago is very quiet. Eastern retailers are having an average season. Some idea of the extent to which domestic lace curtain makers have cut into English competition in the market may be gained from the fact that the largest curtain house in the city has withdrawn its resident Nottingham buyer and will rely upon his semi-annual trips and occasional visits to England by its Continental buyer to secure such novelties as it may need from Great Britain.

Exports of window shade goods during the past fortnight were as follows: British Australia, 24 cs., $322; British Guiana, 8 cs., $320; London, 1 cs., $143; Liverpool, 5 cs., $125.

DUTY ON BAMBOO GOODS.—In the case of A. A. Vantine & Co. against the collector at New York the Board of General Appraisers decided as follows:

The merchandise covered by these protests consists of scrolls, blinds and similar articles made of bamboo and imported from Japan. They were classified by the collector as manufactures of wood under paragraph 230 of the tariff act of October 1, 1890, and are claimed to be duitable as manufactures of grass under paragraph 460 of the same act.

In G. A. 820 we held that bamboo was wood within the meaning of the statute, and that ruling has been affirmed recently by the Circuit Court of Appeals. The court says that although bamboo is a plant of the family of grasses growing in tropical countries, it is wood when of such size as to be sufficiently hard and durable for use as wood is used.

The claims in the protests are accordingly overruled.

Within the fortnight just passed the following buyers have visited the market: Messrs. W. B. Hedge, of Hedge & Shepard, Lafayette, Ind.; B. Peck, of the B. Peck Dry Goods Company, Lewiston, Me.; James J. Halligan, of Halligan & Meagher, Oswego, N. Y.; Frank M. Morrow, Altoona, Pa.; H. B. THE SHADE MANUFACTURERS' MEETING.

The quarterly meeting of the Association of Hand Made Shade Cloth Manufacturers, which was opened at the office of the association in New York on the 13th ult., continued until the 16th ult. After an extended discussion and exchange of opinion among the members from different parts of the country, the meeting resolved to make no changes in prices or the general operations of the association, and authorized the executive committee to confer with the machine makers and to promulgate any changes deemed expedient for the fall trade. The executive committee and the machine makers held a conference on the 28th ult., and an harmonious arrangement between the machine and hand makers will doubtless be effected for the fall season.

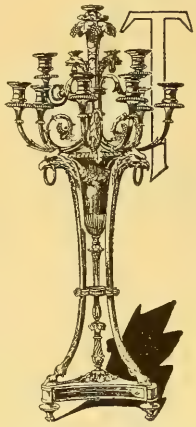
EFFECT OF NATURAL GAS UPON WINDOW SHADES.

Almost all window shade manufacturers have suffered from the frequent and exorbitant claims made upon them by dealers located in the sections where natural gas is used. These claims usually are based upon alleged rapid fading or changing of color of window shades. For the benefit of both manufacturers and dealers, we can state that it has been proved that natural gas will change the color of any window shade in which chrome yellow is used, and there are but few colors of window shades in which this ingredient is not employed. The sulphureted hydrogen in natural gas that comes in contact with the window shades containing chrome yellow will usually turn the original color into purple.

Not long since a dealer in an Indiana town refused to pay for shades bought from the Opaque Shade Cloth Company, of Chicago, on the ground that the colors had turned while in his store. The Opaque Company investigated the case and found that the change of color was due to escaping natural gas in the dealer's store, and on his persisting in his refusal to pay their account they sued him, and readily obtained a verdict for the full amount of the claim with costs. Part of the evidence introduced at the trial was an actual demonstration of the effect of natural gas upon window shades, by exposing a piece of shade cloth to the natural gas emanating from an open fireplace in the court room of the Indiana town. Inside of two hours the original color had almost totally disappeared from the cloth, leaving it a purplish tint. Since then the Opaque Company have not allowed any claims for this cause, as it is clearly not due to any defect in their shades, and other manufacturers and dealers should be guided by this precedent.

The stock of N. Carman Dunn, 6 and 8 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, is rounded to fill all needs in carpet and upholstery hardware, curtain poles and trimmings and general brass goods. Through a score or more of years Mr. Dunn has adhered to his position as a specialist in these lines, and has served the trade with reliable goods and through always straightforward methods. He has well earned a liberal share of patronage, and should be remembered on stock goods as well as on special orders.

UTILIZING THE RAMIE PLANT.



The preparation of the ramie fibre for use in the mill has hitherto been surrounded by many difficulties, but an English firm now claim that they have completely solved the problem by machinery and processes controlled by them. The processes are as follows: The rhea or China grass ribbons are subjected to a chemical bath which is, very naturally, a secret of the inventors. The fibre is then treated to a boiling in open tanks, the fibres being kept in motion by a very simple and ingenious mechanical arrangement attached to the boiler. On leaving this boiler they are placed in a solution for bleaching, or, where whiteness is no object, it is taken immediately to a drawer separator; this machine does its work rapidly and effectively, drawing it into a lap of disentangled and parallelized fibres. Another process—and this depends greatly on the quality and softness of the fibre on leaving the boilers—is to dry the material and draw it in a dry stage; both processes give good results, but as a question of economy the wet process is preferable. The lap is now dried, and is ready for use for all rough purposes, such as rope, sail cloth, belting, &c. For finer uses it is subjected to a softener, a machine which simply reduces it to a soft and silky texture. It is then ready for the gill box, and when drawn into a sliver is ready for the manufacturer, as it is then in a condition to be treated by existing methods as either flax, silk or wool.

George Bailey and Malcolm Gayley, of A. Naumann's traveling force, are out on the road, and Joseph Fox has just started out on a New England trip.

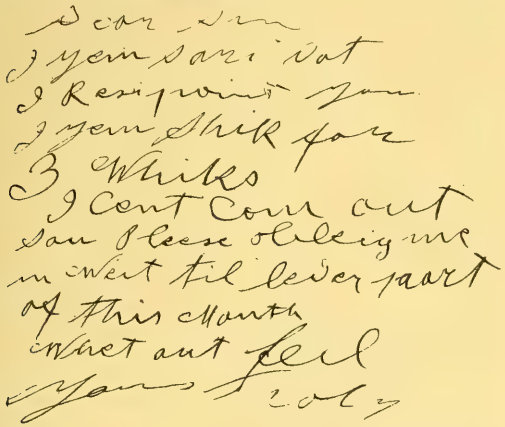
A young man took his watch to a jeweler and asked the reason of its stopping. "Well," said the jeweler, "there is a bedbug in it." "Why, how could a bedbug get in a watch?" "Easily enough," said the jeweler; "it went in between the ticks."

The Winsted Metalliform Company manufacture a great variety of drapery brass goods, such as curtain poles and sets, brackets, extension rods and upholstery hardware, &c. The trade are advised to inspect the offerings of this company at their New York salesroom, 343 Broadway, for their line comprises a great variety of attractive specialties and novelties.

Wide awake business men always consider it a good investment to treat the commercial traveler as a gentleman and to greet him as such. The drummer is a man after business, and if a merchant does not want to do business with him the matter can be easily adjusted without making a fellow feel uncomfortable and as though he were unfit for all pleasant intercourse with business men. Business is business and should be conducted in a manner that is agreeable. This the successful, wide awake and pushing merchant is aware of and always gives the traveling man a hearing.—Ex.

SEEN AND SUGGESTED.

The old gentleman whose unique letter we published recently has been having another try at spelling and has managed to get up an ingenious variation in the word "disappoint." Here is the way he expresses his regrets at not being able to meet his obligation :



An uptown up-to-date New York girl has been making a collection of sofa cushions which are stuffed with the hair of her friends on the various football teams. They are covered with silk of the hues of the different college colors—the blue of Yale, the crimson of Harvard or the orange and black of Princeton. She says when it comes to the non-collegiate clubs it takes the hair of a half back and two guards to stuff a pillow, as the members of such associations as the Crescent or Orange athletic clubs do not have to wear their hair as long as the thoroughbred players of the university teams.

C. E. Dryden, the well-known Grand Rapids designer, says of brass and iron beds : "They have come to stay and more and more of them will be sold. They are nice, and I think the time is coming when only the very cheap and the very expensive chamber suites will be made in wood. The very cheap will be purchased by persons who cannot afford good furniture or else are not educated up to the brass and iron idea. The very high grade furniture in wood will be purchased by the man who has a large number of rooms to furnish, has the money to do it, and does not want his rooms all alike. But the great bulk of the chamber furniture will be brass and iron beds, with the odd pieces to go with them. Two great causes have led up to the use of brass and iron. One is that people living on the seaboard have been able to go to Europe, for a short time at least, for about as much as it would cost one of us here to go to one of the summer or winter resorts. While over there these people have seen the metal beds, and have seen how sensible they are. Then, again, the hard times had something to do with educating the people. Take the man with a moderate income. He feels in the hard times that he cannot pay $150 for a chamber suite, as he has been accustomed to. He sees a brass bed at $35 and $40, and buys it. His wife, if she has the usual taste of a woman, will take some boxes and draperies, or perhaps buy some cretonne and fix up a washstand. After a time this gets soiled, and they look about them and find an old dresser or washstand. They do not have to match, and in this way the suite is finished out. These causes have led to the large use of brass and iron beds, and in my opinion they will continue to be used more and more. The effect of them is already greatly felt on the makers of chamber furniture. Mr. C. A. Brockway told me that one season his house sold 10,000 metal beds. That meant the sale of 10,000 less chamber suites than formerly, and what is true of the firm represented by Mr. Brockway is true of other institutions. They are certainly a very nice article of furniture."

The tintometre is a new invention which makes it possible to determine the color of a sample of any substance, and record it in terms of an arbitrary unit. It consists of two equal tubes placed side by side. The material to be examined is put at the end of one tube, while in the other tinted glasses are inserted until the colors seen by the observer down the two tubes exactly match each other. These tinted glasses are graduated on a scale of color density, so that it becomes possible to register numerically the exact combination of tints required to produce any given color. In practice the apparatus has been found useful for estimating the intrinsic color value of dyes, the turbidity of water, &c.

"A few years ago," said a well-known upholstery salesman in Worth street, "when the typewriter was just beginning to come into general use, the jobbing house I was with had a customer in some backwoods town in Georgia. He was, I believe, an Italian, but was very proud of his attainments as an English scholar. On one occasion we sent him a typewritten letter explaining some matter of business. The return mail brought an answer to the effect that although he was a foreigner he didn't wish us to understand that he was so ignorant he could not understand written English. He informed us that hereafter it would not be necessary for us to go to the trouble of having our letters to him printed."

Here is a drapery advertisement published in a daily paper. It was written by A. B. Cogswell :

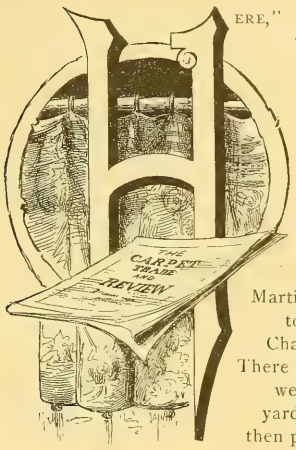
A REVOLUTION IN COLOR PRINTING.

ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FIVE TINTS IN A CRETONNE DESIGN PRINTED AT THE RATE OF SIXTY YARDS A MINUTE—THE PERFECTED RESULT OF TWENTY YEARS OF EXPERIMENT.



"Here," said Mr. C. G. White, of the Deptford (England) Color Printing Syndicate, to a correspondent, "are some cretonnes we have printed. They are mostly designed in France, where such things are done better than in England. These chrysanthemums, for instance, are drawn by Martin from the flowers which took the first prize at the Champs Elysées last year. There are 165 tints in that, and we print it at the rate of 60 yards to the minute." He then produced similar designs on silk, satin, calico, sackcloth, mohair—curled and otherwise—silk velvet, cotton velvet, silk plush, and lace. In all of these, even with the thickest mohair, the design was printed through the thickness of the material. One of the loveliest bits of color shown at all was a common cotton square printed in color after a Javanese design, and intended for use as a praying square by people of that nationality. "All these things," said the inventor, "may be washed and scrubbed in boiling water. The colors are absolutely fast.

"Our process is patented wherever patents can be taken out, and there are also a great many secrets which we have not had to disclose. The whole thing has taken nearly twenty years to perfect."

Solid Color in Slabs.

The little party thereupon ascended to a room where the tints in a design are matched. On the way thither they passed through the store where colors are kept. These are prepared by Mr. White's own process, and in the store you see big slabs of waxy looking stuff, whose colors are not at all what they will have imparted to the printed fabrics when the whole of the necessary operations have been gone through. The colors as thus prepared contain a great deal of china clay, which serves as the necessary diluent. In the matching room one saw how the designs are matched. They are traced on thin sheets of mica, and on these are scratched numbers corresponding to the tints there required. It is these slips of mica that go to the girls in the next room.

Drawing Designs on Mica.

Each girl has before her a slate bed. When she gets her bit of mica she builds up on this bed a thick slab of color to be used in the background. This, perhaps, is 8 inches thick. When she has leveled the top surface of her mass of background she presses the scratched side of the mica upon it, and so gets on the color a faint tracing of the design, which she makes clearer with an ordinary penknife.

She now takes a knife which falls perpendicularly from an arm of many hinges to the slate bed. She can move it quite freely, but the arm and the slate bed keep its blade perfectly true, so that if she brings it toward the mass of background she knows that exactly as much will be cut out of the slab all through as she cuts from the top surface. What she does is to cut out a part of the design, leaving it hollow from top to bottom of the slab. Then she consults her mica tracing, and notes the number indicated on this part of the design. She draws away some of the corresponding color from the steam-jacketed copper vessel which keeps it molten, and pours it into the cutting she has made, where it immediately solidifies. Then she puts on more of the ground color, once more presses down the mica, cuts out a thickness of the slab of the shape the design directs, and once more pours in the molten color. In this way you finally get a mosaic of solid color, 5 or 6 inches thick, whose surface shows you the completed designs, as it would continue to do if you sliced away a million infinitesimally thin sections.

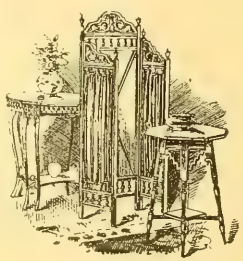
A Mosaic of Color.

The completed mosaic is now placed on a bed and a knife runs forward and cuts it into, say, half a dozen slabs, all of the same thickness. These are placed in a line and joined by means of molten color. You have then a long strip in which the same mosaic occurs half a dozen times. This is run over heated tubes and grows soft and elastic, and then it falls upon a revolving cylinder and is rolled round it. It is from this cylinder that the printing is done, and as the mosaic is six times repeated, six copies of the design are produced at each revolution. Printing goes on until the whole of the color has been worn away, the pressure of the cloth on the cylinder being kept uniform by means of an ingenious arrangement which need not be described. The interviewer saw six table covers on the machine, but it is also possible to print piece goods in which the length of the "repeat" is anything up to six yards.

After printing, the color is not fully developed, but an hour in a chamber containing steam at a pressure of 5 pounds to the square inch does that, and then the fabric goes to the bath, where it is scrubbed in a strong and boiling lather of soap and water. Then it is dried and folded into bolts. Its colors are developed and fixed; the thing is finished.

No Limit to Tints.

"The preliminaries are expensive, but we can produce things vastly more quickly than they are produced elsewhere, and we are absolutely careless as to the number of tints. The Manchester printers stop at eighteen, and though the block printers can go so far as twenty it means a great increase in the expense. The best block printing is done in Germany, and it is the block printers who have to compete against us. Even the French cretonnes are printed in Germany; but you have seen what we can do in that way, and will believe me when I say that we are in a position to compete on more than equal terms with the best Continental block printers."



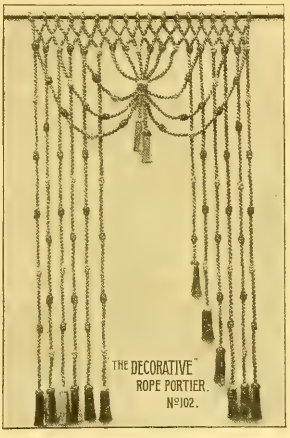
GEOGRAPHY AND SHADE CLOTHS.

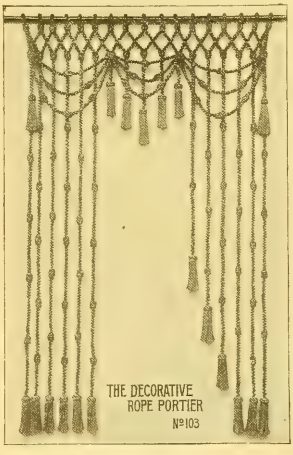
On page 75 of this issue the Northern Shade Cloth Company make some interesting statements in regard to their offerings in opaque shadings and window shades, shade rollers and trimmings. The company manufacture these goods on a very extensive scale and are in a position to offer especially strong inducements to buyers.

In their advertisement they call attention to the location of their factory, which is at St. Anthony Park, Minn., midway between the cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul, a situation which enables them to offer important advantages to the trade of the Mississippi Valley and west to the Pacific Coast. This point is brought out very clearly by the map and table of distances presented with their advertisement, which tells its own story as regards the saving in time and freight rates which can be secured by buyers in the territory shown in the map. We think that the Western and Pacific Coast trade will appreciate the geographical lesson comprised in the company's advertisement and will be prompt to see its bearing upon their interests as buyers.

Write to the company for samples, price lists, &c.

The Henry Reubel Company will issue early this month supplement A-S to appendix A1 of their catalogue. This supplement will illustrate all their new goods, and the company will quote the lowest ruling market prices on all their productions. A new announcement showing their exclusively controlled traverse ring will be found on page 109.





ROPE PORTIERES MADE BY THE BUFFALO FRINGE WORKS.

Alonzo Flint, assignee of the Providence Shade Roller Company, has declared a first and final dividend of 10 per cent. to the creditors. The liabilities amount to about $80,000, and the total realization of the assets was about $13,000. The real estate only brought $1,800 above the mortgage of $20,000, and the machinery and factory equipment brought $7,200.

H. J. Wilkes, receiver of the Buffalo Brass and Iron Bedstead Company, Buffalo, N. Y., says that although he had orders to operate the plant, the January orders and some of those for February were lost on account of the uncertainty of affairs, but he is now making arrangements for the fall business and expects to be able to care for the customers better than ever before. The company's line is the best ever brought out by them, and they hope to get their full share of the fall trade.

Robertson & Hall, manufacturers of chenille curtains and table covers, are turning out their usual product in these goods at their new mill, Lehigh avenue and Front street, Philadelphia. They are keeping up their interest in chenilles and will have new patterns for the fall trade. Their new mill is one of the most centrally and conveniently located curtain plants in Philadelphia, and visiting buyers should not fail to call upon them.

The large dry goods stock of S. C. Davis & Co., St. Louis, was bought in one lot by the Swofford Brothers Dry Goods Company, of Kansas City, and was forwarded to that city on a special train of thirty-two railroad cars. The railway officials say this was the largest and most valuable load of merchandise that ever left St. Louis by one train and consigned to one firm. The weight of the consignment was 557,000 pounds and its value between $225,000 and $245,000.

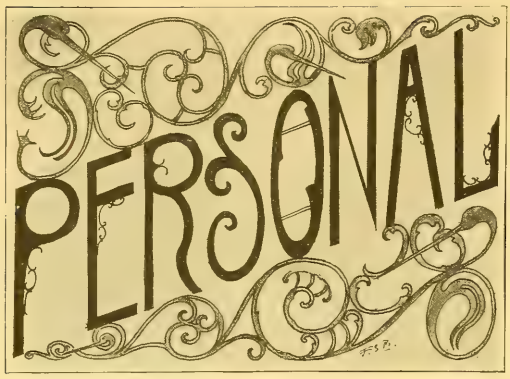
The King & McLeod Company succeed King & McLeod at Newport, R. I., and at Portland, Me., Rines Brothers are succeeded by the Rines Brothers Company.

The Jay C. Wemple Company are bringing out a machine made opaque shade cloth which will be known as the "Liberty." It will be of the best quality and will be made in all the standard colors. Dealers are advised to send for sample books.

A. E. Mylod & Son, Providence, R. I., take possession on the 1st inst. of the store adjoining their present establishment, thus doubling the space now occupied. The new store will be devoted to their drapery and upholstery departments, while the old store will be hereafter used exclusively for their rug department. The enlargement was necessary to meet the demands of their growing business, and the trade will doubtless be pleased to hear of this evidence of the firm's continued success. The firm are exclusive dealers in draperies, upholsteries and rugs of both foreign and domestic make.

S. A. Goldsmith, Simon Hess and Leon Hess have organized the S. A. Goldsmith Company, with $20,000 capital, to do a general dry goods business at New London, Conn.

Boutwell & Russell, the Boston commission merchants, have secured a remarkably good share of New England spring orders on chenille, tapestry, silk and lace curtains and draperies. The season generally has been far from satisfactory, and with a return to anything like former trade conditions Boutwell & Russell are bound to figure even more prominently than at present as sellers. They have the right kind of goods and are popular with the trade.



Akoss.—E. T. Akoss, for twelve years buyer for the upholstery department of Albert Gall, Indianapolis, has taken charge of the new department which has been opened by L. S. Ayers.

Birkin.—The Nottingham Guardian of recent date states that at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held in the Shire Hall, Nottingham, the oath of qualification was administered to Mr. Thomas Stanley Birkin as Justice of the Peace for the county of Nottinghamshire. Mr. Birkin is the junior member of the firm of T. I. Birkin & Co., the lace curtain manufacturers, and the honorary office conferred upon him is a mark of high esteem from his county neighbors.

Blatter.—Titus Blatter, of Titus Blatter & Co., the lace curtain manufacturers and importers, is due back from Europe this week.

Bradbury.—George T. Bradbury, manager of M. C. Spencer & Co.'s upholstery department, returned from the Adirondacks on the 20th ult. The weather was seriously against him during his entire visit, but he is nevertheless feeling much better.

Brown.—John Brown, who was for many years with McPartland & Flaherty, is now second floor manager for B. Trainor, Sixty-second street and Amsterdam avenue.

Darling.—John Darling, of Hartmann & Darling, the upholstery and linen slip cover importers, sailed for Europe on the 29th ult.

Fletcher.—No two of the Fletchers ever cross the ocean together, not, as William H. remarks, for the same reason that prevents two Vanderbilts from risking the fortune of the family on the same ship, but because business exigencies have always interfered for the past fifteen years. They pass and repass each other in mid-ocean, or chase one another across the pond several times a year, but never have been able to sail together. E. B. left Liverpool on the Britannic April 15, and arrived on the 24th. Frank N. left Southampton on the St. Paul April 19, and reached New York on the 25th, thus gaining three days over his brother.

Gage.—F. S. Gage, manager of Arnold, Constable & Co.'s wholesale upholstery department, has just returned from his trip to Europe.

Hester—Gibb.—Miss Ada Louise Gibb, daughter of John Gibb, of the firm of Mills & Gibb, New York, was married on the 28th ult. to William Van Anden Hester. The wedding took place in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn.

Hitzelberger.—Fred. C. Hitzelberger, who has been for many years with H. Barnard's Sons, has taken charge of the upholstery and wall paper department in Coventry & Evans' new furniture store at 119 and 121 Genesee street, Utica, N. Y.

Hurd.—George A. Hurd, formerly upholstery buyer for Wechsler & Abraham, and of the firm of Hurd, Waite & Co., Brooklyn, but more recently proprietor of the Thomas street café, so popular with the carpet and upholstery trade, is now superintendent of Bloomingdale Brothers' upholstery department, New York.

Loomis.—E. E. Loomis, New England and New York representative for F. P. Bhumgara & Co., the Oriental merchants, is en route through his territory and is doing an excellent business.

McNeil.—Matthew McNeil, for eight years upholstery manager for J. J. Gorman, Grand street, Brooklyn, will have a greatly enlarged space when the extensive alterations now in progress are completed. In addition to his three stores Mr. Gorman is taking in the building 235 Grand street.

Rice.—Jonathan Rice, of the firm of Rice, Stix & Co., St. Louis, sailed from New York for Europe per steamship Havel on the 20th ult. He is accompanied by his wife and son, and will be absent two or three months.

Stewart.—Geo. S. Stewart, of the Geo. S. Stewart Manufacturing Company, Cleveland, Ohio, was a visitor to the company's New York office last week.

Vallois.—L. F. Vallois, St. Gall representative of A. Naumann, the lace curtain manufacturer, will arrive in New York on the 2d inst.

Walsh.—John Walsh, formerly with H. C. F. Koch & Co. and recently with M. C. Spencer & Co., of 125th street, is now upholstery buyer for McPartland & O'Flaherty, of Eighth avenue.

Wechsler.—Aaron Wechsler, of Joseph Wechsler's Sons, Brooklyn, is planning a European trip that will consume much of the time between now and the middle of September. Mr. Wechsler's health has not been good for several months past, and he will take with him the best wishes of many friends for his complete recovery.

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS IN LACE CURTAINS.

The stock of A. Naumann, 106 to 112 Spring street, New York, is in better shape to-day than at any time during the spring season. New goods have been coming in constantly, and the assortment contains many novelties not shown early in the season.

A very attractive novelty is the Tarare curtain, a new French product that is sold at about the prices of Irish points.

Mr. Naumann also desires to inform the trade that he carries a large assortment of Nottingham curtains in special patterns, reproducing the fine French curtain effects, and that he has an extra large and choice line of lace and muslin bed sets, scarfs, tidies, &c. About everything in his line can now be shipped immediately.

GLASS YARNS FOR FABRICS.

The Textile Mercury says that the Mulhouse Industrial Society has received from Victor Schlumberger a sample of what he claims to be a new tissue, composed of a weft mixture of spun glass and silk, traversing a silk warp. M. Schlumberger states that about twenty workpeople are engaged in this industry in Paris, and that the idea is patented. The glass is originally in rods, and is held by supports over a blowpipe frame, which heats them to 1,200° C. An excessively fine thread is then drawn out, which is thrown over a wooden wheel 4 metres in diameter, turning at the rate of 400 revolutions a minute. A yarn, round, perfectly equal, very supple and brilliant, is spun at the rate of 1,500 metres a minute—if M. Schlumberger's arithmetic has not gone a little wrong. The weaving is done in a jacquard loom, the warps being silk or cotton, a weft shuttle of silk alternating with a weft shuttle of glass. The goods manufactured are such things as lamp shades, sachets, cushions and curtains.

"Have those people in the other flat been married long?" "I think not; he takes naps on her best silk pillows." —Ex.

OBITUARY.

John Hillborn.

John Hillborn, junior member of the firm of Amos Hillborn & Co., dealers in furniture, bedding and curtains, 1027 Market street, Philadelphia, died suddenly on the 12th ult. at his home, 847 North Forty-first street, of apoplexy. Mr. Hillborn had been confined to his bed about two weeks, a sufferer from the grippe. His condition was not regarded as serious and his death was very unexpected.

Mr. Hillborn was the son of a Bucks County farmer. He went to Philadelphia when a boy and entered the store of his uncle, Amos Hillborn. In 1881 he was made a partner in the firm. Although the junior member he had, since his uncle's death, five years ago, been better known in the trade than any other member of the firm. He had a genial manner and was very popular with his business associates.

A widow and three children survive him. The funeral occurred on the 16th and the interment was at Hulmeville, Bucks County, Pa.

William Simpson, Jr.

William Simpson, Jr., of the firms of William Simpson, Sons & Co., Philadelphia and New York, and Wm. Simpson & Sons, Philadelphia, died on the 24th ult. at his home in Overbrook, Pa. Mr. Simpson was about fifty years of age. He inherited from his father, the late William Simpson, mercantile ability of a high order, and his business career was a notably successful and honorable one from beginning to end. He leaves one son, William Percy Simpson, a member of the firm of William Simpson, Sons & Co.

Henry Offerman.

Henry Offerman, the well-known dry goods dealer of Brooklyn, N. Y., died at his home in that city on the 28th ult. at the age of seventy-four years. He was born in Germany, and came to Brooklyn when a boy. He made a large fortune as a sugar refiner, and invested extensively in real estate in Brooklyn. Among the buildings he owned were those which were occupied by the Wechsler brothers, and when they retired from the dry goods trade about a year ago Mr. Offerman succeeded them. He leaves three sons and two daughters.

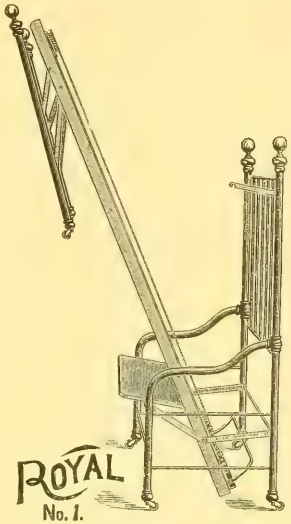
John T. Chumasero, a member of the firm of J. V. Farwell & Co., Chicago, died on April 15, after an illness of three months. He was born in Rochester, N. Y., in 1839, and after the war, in which he served, was in business in Wall street till 1868, when he went to Chicago and acquired a large fortune.

George Klauder, Sr., a retired upholsterer and farmer, died on April 18, in upper Roxborough, of a complication of ailments. Mr. Klauder was born in Hesse-Darmstadt, Germany, January 25, 1818, and, after learning bookkeeping, came to America and settled in Philadelphia, where he learned the upholstering trade with his brother, David Klauder. He subsequently went into partnership with a Mr. De Ginther, and carried on the upholstering business under the firm name of Klauder & De Ginther, on Chestnut street, above Tenth. When the firm was dissolved in 1859 Mr. Klauder removed to Upper Roxborough, where he devoted himself to farming until 1880, when he removed to Green lane and lived in retirement. In 1847 Mr. Klauder was married to Catherine Darr, who, with their eight children and ten grandchildren, survives.

Harry W. Allen, well known as a salesman in the window shade and upholstery trade, died at Los Angeles, Cal., on the 6th ult., at the age of thirty-three years. Mr. Allen was born in Indianapolis, Ind., and began his business career in the employ of A. L. Wright & Co., of that city, Mr. Wright being his uncle. In 1886 he was engaged by H. C. Kroh & Co., and represented them on the road for several years. His last engagement was with W. & J. Sloane in their upholstery department. He was obliged to resign this position about three years ago, on account of illness, and go to Los Angeles, where he remained until his death.

THE "ROYAL" IRON FOLDING BED.

The cut herewith illustrates the new "Royal" iron folding bed in process of lowering or partially opened. Its compactness can be readily realized, and also its sanitary features and absolute cleanliness. Besides it is remarkably low in prices, the cost being only about one-fourth the price of a moderate cost wood upright folding bed. This is an excellent time of year to sell iron folding beds, and we advise dealers to send in orders at once for the "Royal," the latest and best device of that kind. It is made exclusively by the Comstock Manufacturing Company, Utica, N. Y.



A great variety of attractive novelties and specialties in Nottingham lace curtains will be found in the offerings of W. E. Meats & Co., the extensive Nottingham manufacturers, whose New York salesroom is at 33 Howard street, where Mr. Wallis is in charge. The line is shown at Boston by Boutwell & Russell, at Chicago by Pillman, Smuck & Co., and at Philadelphia by W. S. Abbott. Buyers will find that it will well repay examination.

RIESER & CO.

H. J. Rieser, whose return from Europe was noted in our last issue, is showing a great number of choice things in lace curtains. Rieser & Co. offer clean stock, with no job lots, all goods being new, and their numerous and notable novelties are selling as fast as they can be shipped. Mr. Rieser says that orders are coming in very well, and he looks forward to a further improvement in the present month. In standard goods, as well as in specialties and novelties, Rieser & Co. offer the strongest possible inducements to buyers in their line at their salesrooms, 478 Broadway, New York.

CHICAGO ITEMS.

CHICAGO, APRIL 25.

Lace curtain manufacturers are making their appearance in this market. E. W. Knapp, of the Lehigh Manufacturing Company, is now at the Great Northern. W. J. Rayman, of the American Pin Company, left last night for a month's trip through the West for his house. He will show his line of fancy goods for the holiday trade to dealers as far West as Denver. Mr. Rayman says the upholstery hardware trade at the present time is dead, but he looks for a revival soon.

Marshall Field & Co.'s wholesale upholstery travelers are now absent on their sorting up trips. Manager Bodman says trade is fair.

Charles H. Prescott, of the Jay C. Wemple Company, says inquiries for his firm's new Liberty goods are brisk and he expects to have a hard time filling orders. Mr. Prescott is recovering from a painful accident. He is an enthusiastic cyclist. The driver of a wagon which he was following pulled up suddenly, and Mr. Prescott was thrown from his wheel. He was painfully bruised on the face and hands, but was not kept from his duties.

The Sanitary Feather Company is now comfortably situated at 249 and 251 Canal street, occupying three floors and the basement of a building 50x140 feet. The first floor has the offices and salesroom, while the second and third are occupied by the factory, and the basement by the shipping rooms. R. H. H.

HEAD of the firm to commercial traveler just returned from a trip—"How came you to quote such low prices to Schmidt who is well known to be a shaky customer?"

Traveler—"I thought to myself, if the man happens to fail we shouldn't lose so much by him."

IN THE ART GALLERY.—LAD OF TEN—I say, pa, what is the meaning of these numbers at the bottom of every picture? Look at this one, "Shakespeare, 153."

PERPLEXED FATHER (who has never been in a gallery before)—Oh!—ah!—I expect that is his telephone number. —EX.

AN INTERESTING INSURANCE CASE.

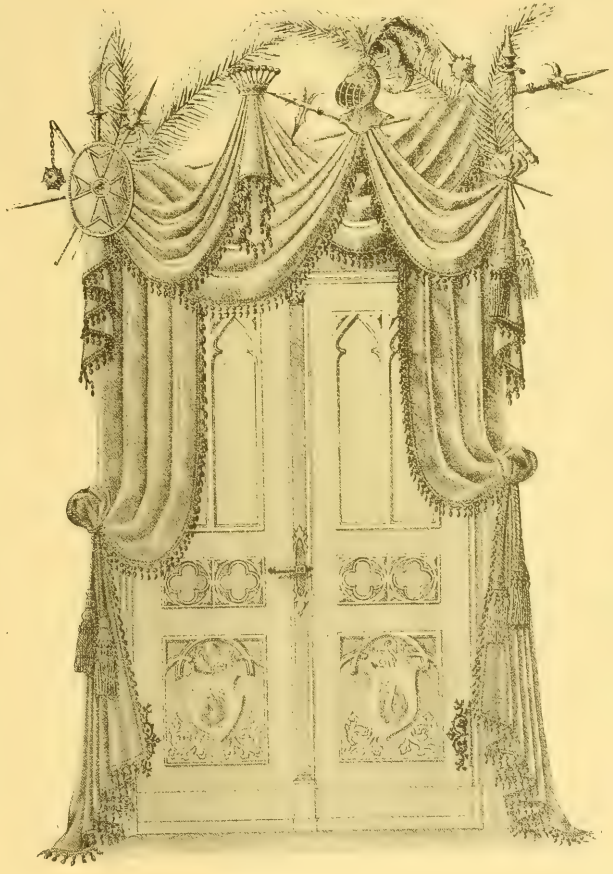
Insurance men who are interested in the recent fire in the warehouses of C. A. Auffmordt & Co., this city, are much disturbed by a communication from that firm announcing the withdrawal of their claim of $294,433.07 for loss on the stock in Nos. 31 and 33 Greene street by the fire of April 14, and that they had decided to take the stand that all of the goods in the building were damaged and unmerchantable. They feared to put in new goods in the building on account of the smoky smell, and claimed a total loss on the goods, the insurance upon which amounted to $1,035,500. The total value of the goods is stated by C. A. Auffmordt & Co. to have been $1,220,867.11. The loss at No. 78 Grand street is an entirely separate matter and is not included in these figures, nor is there any dispute about it.

The case may become one of the most famous in the insurance business, for the claim of Auffmordt & Co. will doubtless be contested by the underwriters. Insurance men argue that if goods are liable to be damaged so seriously by smoke there should be a big advance in the rates on such merchandise.

Brown, Durrell & Co. have secured larger quarters for their New York offices. They are now in the handsome Howard Building, 434 to 438 Broadway.

A committee representing the creditors of Warner & King, the Sixth avenue, New York, bedding manufacturers, has recommended the acceptance of the firm's offer of 25 per cent. cash in settlement of their indebtedness.

We stated in our last that a new firm would occupy the new building which was to have been used by Eastman, Schleicher & Lee, of Indianapolis. The style is Block, Trexler & Weslow. W. H. Block was formerly of Block & Thalman, Kokomo, Ind., while L. Trexler and A. Weslow are the White House Dry Goods Company, of Anderson, Ind.



DOOR DRAPERY.

THIS scheme would look well done in double faced flax velour in either capote blue or royal pomegranate. Armor of steel, with palms, ornaments, &c.

COLUMBIA COMPANY READY FOR BUSINESS.

On page 77 of this issue the Columbia Shade Cloth Company call the attention of the trade to the fact that they are now the exclusive selling agents for the products manufactured by the Minetto Shade Cloth Company, the Meriden Curtain Fixture Company and the Opaque Shade Cloth Company.

The lines of these concerns will be shown at the store of the Columbia Shade Cloth Company, 22 and 24 Lafayette place, New York, and at the branch salesrooms in Chicago and Philadelphia. The company's travelers will show the lines on the road for the fall trade. The lines will include the Minetto, Meriden and Tuscarora oil opaques, Minetto hand finish and Meriden soft finish oil opaques; Tioga, Iroquois and Meriden hand made oil opaques; Penn cambrics; Columbia and Meriden tints; Seminole, Seneca and Lion oil opaques; Yale, Ontario and Superior opaques; imported and domestic hollands, mounted window shades, felts; Minetto, Meriden and Keystone shade rollers in both wood and tin, Meriden fringes, laces, &c.

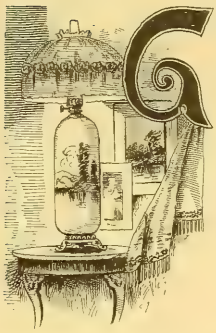
Under the new régime the trade will find everything ready for business and will have every reason to be satisfied with the new method of distributing the popular products of the three companies concerned in the plan.

The Dry Goods Trading Company is a new purchasing syndicate in this city. Fessenden & Nachbour are the representatives, and among its members is the firm of E. C. Tower & Co., Troy, N. Y.

Arthur G. Graham, manufacturer and importer of furniture and upholstery supplies, Grand Rapids, Mich., will furnish promptly quotations on tow, moss, burlap, &c. The trade are advised to write to Mr. Graham, for he can offer strong inducements to any buyer.

C. Knaff & Son, of Brookline, Mass., have opened a branch store at Newtonville, Mass.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN IN STORES.



Governor Morton has signed Assemblyman Andrews' bill regulating the employment of women and children in mercantile establishments.

The bill provides that no male under sixteen years of age, and no female under twenty-one years of age, employed in any mercantile establishment of this State, shall be required, permitted or suffered to work therein more than sixty hours in any one week ; nor more than ten hours in any one day, unless for the purpose of making a shorter workday on any one day of the week ; and in no case shall any male under sixteen years of age nor any female under twenty-one years of age work in any mercantile establishment after 10 o'clock in the evening or before 7 o'clock in the morning of any day. The foregoing provision of this section shall not be so construed as to apply to the employment of any person in any mercantile establishment on any Saturday of the year, except that the total number of hours of labor per week of a male under sixteen or a female under twenty-one shall not exceed sixty hours. None of the provisions of this section shall apply to the employment of any persons between December 15 of any year and January 1 of the year next following. No child under fourteen years of age shall be employed in any mercantile establishment in this State.

The bill also compels employers of women and girls to provide suitable washrooms and water closets for them separate from those assigned to males, and likewise to provide chairs or stools, and permit the use of them by female employees at reasonable times.

H. K. White is now on the road through New York State and Pennsylvania for Fowler & Co., manufacturers of the "Perfection" and "Little Giant" sash rod fasteners, and the Perfection extension rod.

The judgments entered and executions issued against J. Strasburger & Co., Pittsburg, Pa., amounted to $18,000, and the sheriff is now in possession of their store. They owe some large bills to New York drapery houses.

Under an attachment for $22,000, obtained by Murphy, Grant & Co., San Francisco, the store of A. Lippman, trading as A. Lippman & Co., Los Angeles, Cal., has been seized by the sheriff. Other attachments have been issued.

Jane Macfarlane and William W. Macfarlane, who compose the firm of William Macfarlane & Co., silk manufacturers, at 81 Grand street, made an assignment on the 27th ult. to Briton Richardson, with preferences for $32,200.

The new traverse ring, sold only by C. W. Lawrence & Co., 275 Canal street, New York, has exceptional merits which have quickly commended it to the favor of the trade. It is thoroughly practical and is made in the best possible manner to insure free, noiseless action. Write to Lawrence & Co. for prices, &c.

BEDDING MANUFACTURER ASSIGNS.

Benjamin Fitch, doing business as B. Fitch & Co., manufacturers of bedding, at 59 and 61 Fourth avenue, 27 West Forty-second street and 158 West 125th street, New York, made an assignment on the 15th ult. to James Cowden Meyers, of 108 Fulton street, giving preferences for $17,284. The business was established many years ago by John H. Wilcox & Co. Mr. Fitch became a partner in 1873 and took the business in 1880.

A meeting of the creditors was held on the 23d ult. Mr. Parsons, attorney for the assignee, called the meeting to order and submitted the following statement: Nominal assets, $80,948.84 (including the three stores); merchandise, cost price, $58,861.29 ; machinery, fixtures, horses, trucks, &c., $3,850 ; accounts receivable, $19,227.55 ; cash on hand, $1,000. Liabilities, $53,571.06, for merchandise only, besides which there are preferred debts of $17,000. Mr. Parsons further explained matters regarding Mr. Fitch's affairs ; Mr. Fitch also gave details as to reasons for making the assignment. Mr. Miller, representing Miller & Van Winkle, at this point asked to have the meeting organized, and S. J. Stroheim was appointed chairman.

Matters were discussed, different offers were made, and a motion was made to accept an offer of 60 per cent., payable in four, six, nine and twelve months' unsecured notes, to those of the creditors whose amounts are over $100, and those of the creditors whose amounts are less than $100 to be paid 50 per cent. cash. It was further agreed that Mr. Fitch's relatives, who are preferred for $14,000, are not to receive any money until all other creditors are paid. This motion was unanimously carried. Composition papers were drawn to have those of the creditors present sign off at once, and a number of the principal creditors have already accepted and signed composition agreement. It was further agreed that the assignee be permitted to operate the factory for sixty days, deeming that sufficient time to allow Mr. Fitch to get his settlement. About thirty of the principal creditors were present, representing $26,000 of the merchandise liabilities.

The sheriff has received a writ of replevin from Goldsmith & Doherty for $2,500 against B. Fitch & Co., for bed ticking, &c., sold to the firm by the H. B. Claflin Company.

Any color you want in thread for shade, drapery or upholstery work can be supplied by John C. Meyer & Co., 87 Summer street, Boston.

The buildings 33 and 35 Greene street and 78 Grand street, this city, occupied by C. A. Auffmordt & Co., were damaged by fire on the 14th ult. The Grand street building was almost destroyed. The loss is estimated at $300,000, and is fully covered by insurance.

Messrs. Weidner and Rigney, who have charge of the upholstery department of Bossut Père & Fils, 47 and 49 White street, New York, are showing a great variety of novel and attractive styles in upholstery and drapery fabrics, curtains, couch covers, &c. They make a specialty of novel and exclusive effects in foreign goods. In tapestry curtains and covers they show a great number of choice things, and their line of silk and cotton curtains in Oriental effects is also particularly attractive. No buyer should fail to see these goods.

MONUMENTAL CITY MEMS.

BALTIMORE, APRIL 25, 1896.

Elias Wolf, dry goods and upholstery, Hanover, Pa., was robbed in Baltimore, the 20th inst., of $250 and a check for $2,400.

V. G. Stubbs, Delta, Md., is putting a new glass front in his furniture and upholstery store and is making other improvements.

Chumbley & Co. have opened in the dry goods and upholstery business in Pulaski, Va.

Jacob Lewit, dry goods and upholstery, Richmond, Va., will open for business in his new store on East Main street the 27th inst.

Solomon Kann, of S. Kann, Sons & Co., dry goods and upholstery, sailed from New York for Europe the 21st inst. on the North German Lloyd Steamship Havel.

George Barber, with the George S. Stewart Company, wood curtain poles, screens and novelties, Cleveland, Ohio, interviewed the trade in Baltimore and Washington the 20th inst.

A. Volkman, for many years with Habliston Brothers, furniture and upholstery, Richmond, Va., has started in the upholstery business on his own account at No. 209 West Marshall street, same city.

George S. Donn, wall papers and window shades, Washington, D. C., made an assignment the 13th inst. to Samuel H. Walker, trustee. The assets are listed at $3,863.38 and the liabilities at $4,323.

August Schuster, manufacturer of mattresses and cushions, No. 208 West Lexington street, made an assignment the 20th inst. Harry C. Gaither, trustee, bonded for $10,000, indicating assets of half that amount.

Lewis Lauer died suddenly at his home on Eutaw place the 9th inst. of heart trouble. He was in the forty-eighth year of his age and was unmarried. Mr. Lauer succeeded his father, Henry Lauer, in the dry goods and upholstery business.

John Hodes died the 22d inst. at his home on West Baltimore street, in the seventy-sixth year of his age. He conducted the mattress and upholstery business for about forty years, thirty-five of which were spent in the same building in which he died.

Walter H. Ralston died the 13th inst. at his residence on West Fayette street, in the seventieth year of his age. He was born in this city, but for a number of years carried on the dry goods and upholstery business in Wilmington, Del. He retired several years ago.

John F. Sommerlock, who was striken with apoplexy several weeks ago, died at his home on West Saratoga street the 11th inst. He was born in Baltimore in 1832. When young he learned the paper hanging and window shade business, and later on went into the business for himself and conducted it for a number of years. R. L. E.

A number of New York merchants went to Albany on the 14th ult. to urge before the Assembly Cities Committee, as an amendment to the Rapid Transit bill, a provision exempting Broadway below Fourteenth street from an underground railroad. Among the party were Messrs. J. H. Sweetser, of Sweetser, Pembrook & Co.; Geo. C. Clark, of Tefft, Weller & Co.; John Gibb, of Mills & Gibb, and members of the firms of Arnold, Constable & Co., Lord & Taylor, Herts Brothers and John Daniell & Son.

MURAL MEMORANDA.

JUDGMENT for $13,087 was entered on the 24th ult. against Millie Sommers, dealer in wall paper, late of No. 294½ Grand street, New York, in favor of the National Wall Paper Company, for wall paper. She is the wife of Jacob Sommers, who has been in this line for seven years. She alleged that she was induced to purchase large quantities of paper under an agreement that the company would discontinue the sale of surplus paper as job lots to persons who were not legitimate dealers, but that the company violated the agreement, and the stock she had on hand was thereby depreciated to the extent of $15,000. She went out of business a few months ago.

..R. T. Leonard has started in the wall paper business at Moline, Ill.

..Charles Mansfield has opened a wall paper store at Scranton, Pa.

..George G. Scott has started in the wall paper business at Ridgefield, Conn.

..A. J. Humberger & Son, dry goods dealers, Massillon, Ohio, have recently opened a wall paper and window shade department.

..The Pennsylvania Wall Paper Company, Limited, is the name of a new company that will manufacture wall paper at York, Pa.

..Watt & Brother, York, Pa., have been succeeded by the Watt & Brother Company, an incorporated concern with an authorized capital of $30,000.

..The stock of wall paper and paints of Peck & Yates, 431 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn, was damaged to the extent of $1,000 by fire on the 27th inst. The loss is covered by insurance.

..Faris Brothers, Bloomington, Ind., carry the largest stock of wall paper in that city, and both being young and progressive, with up-to-date ideas, are doing a very large business in interior decoration, not only in their own city, but in adjoining counties.

The new machine made Liberty opaques are now to be seen in the stock of the Jay C. Wemple Company, and sample books will be sent on application. The greatly increased room secured by the addition of another floor at 537 and 539 Broadway, New York, has enabled the Wemple Company to enlarge their stock in all shade goods, and buyers should remember this house particularly when they want goods quickly.

T. I. Birkin & Co., the Nottingham lace curtain manufacturers, are now taking import orders for fall delivery. Harry Bosler, their selling representative, is on the road with the new patterns and is securing his usually good share of the trade. The firm have given very satisfactory deliveries on spring goods, and have fulfilled their promises that, with alterations completed at their mills, there would be no room for complaint about retarded deliveries.

UPHOLSTERY BUTTONS.

A machine that is of great value to every upholstery dealer who makes up upholstered furniture is one that will produce buttons to match any covering. No matter whether your business in upholstered furniture be large or small, you can advantageously use the new Defiance button machine, which, with tools for twenty-two line buttons, can be purchased for $5. The machine is sold by the leading upholstery supply jobbers or by the manufacturers, the Defiance Button Machine Company, 266 Greene street, New York. See illustration of this very useful device on page 88.

Three Vital Points . . .

Are necessary to insure a perfect roller such as . . . .

The Improved Hartshorn Wood Roller.

FIRST—No Tacks Are to Be Used.

The patent shade holders furnished free with Improved Hartshorn Wood Rollers eliminate the use of tacks in the most satisfactory manner possible.

SECOND—Provision for Mounting Shade Cloth Absolutely True.

The groove in this roller is the only place where the shade can be fastened to the roller. As the groove is as straight as machinery can make it, the cloth must be fastened in a straight line.

THIRD—Prevention Against Tearing Cloth from Rolls.

Owing to the scientific construction of the new roller, when the shade cloth is fastened upon the roller in the groove with our shade holders, the resistance which it offers is so strong that when shade and roller are hung it is almost impossible to tear the cloth off.

This Roller received specific indorsement in our award of a Gold Medal and Special Diploma of Honor by the Judges of the Atlanta Exposition.

Our new Descriptive Catalogue for 1896 is now ready. Free on application.

Anniversary Sale.
.. .. 1895-1896.

In 1895 we gave you the entire foreign stock of E. S. JAFFRAY & CO., retiring from business, together with that of another large importing house.

This Year we offer the stock of CHARLES T. STRAUSS & BRO., retiring from business, as well as three very large orders late in delivery, and sold to us for account of the foreign manufacturers. People who purchased goods of us last season have since acknowledged that they did not buy one-half the quantity they should have bought, as the goods proved to be cheaper than any they had ever owned.

Do not make the same mistake this year.

We can sell you elegant Brussels Curtains, in exquisite designs, which have been sold by C. T. STRAUSS & BRO. at $85.00 for $40.00, those from $25.00 to $30.00 at $13.50 to $16.50. The stock is too large to enumerate prices. We can also sell you Irish Point, Swiss and other lines of hand-made Curtains, with sashes of all kinds, at similarly low prices.

This does not apply to the upper end of the line alone.

The import orders purchased from the makers abroad we are able to sell at less than they can be landed for. They are all new and fresh goods, and include Irish Point, in white and ecru, Brussels and piece goods of different kinds.

Note the figures on Nottinghams.

We can sell and will sell Nottingham Curtains at $1.50 per pair which C. T. STRAUSS & BRO. were selling at from $3.00 to $3.50; those marked $4.50 and $5.50 we offer at $2.00 and $2.50. With these will also go a large line of odds and ends from several factories, which together make an extraordinary lot of Nottinghams at a tremendously low price.

We have also a line of Brussels and Irish Points from the lowest up, the majority of the patterns being in moderate-sized lots, which we are anxious to close out, and offer on terms which will command attention.

Piece Goods.

Brussels, hand-made Swiss Muslins and Embroidered Muslins at extraordinary low prices. Brussels which were sold by C. T. STRAUSS & BRO. at $1.75 we offer at 80 cents; hand-made Swiss Dots which sold at 25 to 50 cents are now 12 to 20 cents. Embroidered goods equally cheap.

Price sells goods. We have the goods and will make the price do its duty.

W. H. FLETCHER & CO.,

345 & 347 Broadway, New York.

We have forty or fifty cases assorted Nottinghams, which we are requested by the owner to sell at considerably less than $1.00 per pair. They range from 45 to 60 inches wide, and will be sold in case lots of one hundred pairs only.

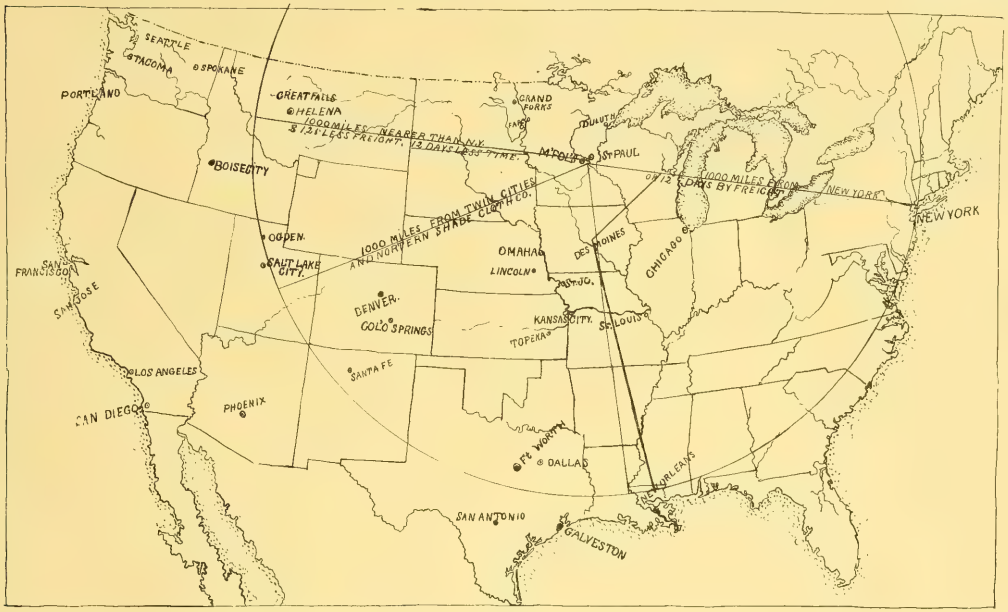
Commercial Geography as Related to Window Shades



THE NORTHERN SHADE CLOTH CO. is located on the "midway" between two of the most thriving cities in the United States, Minneapolis and St. Paul, and buyers in the Mississippi Valley and west to the Pacific Coast can see by this map how much nearer they are to our factory than to New York and Philadelphia, where practically all the other manufacturers of Opaques are located. At least a week nearer by mail and twelve to fifteen days nearer by freight. You remember the old adage about time and money. Besides that here you get Northern Shading, which, like Northern wheat, is the best in the world. Below we give comparative distances from some of the principal cities in our territory to our point and to New York:

One eminent and popular house that has tried all makes announces them to be

"The Best Window Hollands Made."

Another equally large Importer of great experience states:

"The goods have always been and are now fast colors."

Another firm in the very front rank of the business describes them as

"Unequalled in quality, unshrinkable and of finest dyes."

While another firm of Importers, probably one of the largest shade goods houses in the world, characterizes them in these terms:

"JOHN KING & SON'S Famous Scotch Hollands."

JOHN KING & SON'S

ESTABLISHED IN THE YEAR 1775

Celebrated

Scotch Window HOLLANDS

ILLUSTRATING the high consideration these popular goods hold in the estimation of the most experienced importers of shade goods in the country, the attention of the trade is invited to the above opinions, published in the columns of this and other journals, over the signatures of the respective firms.

Enterprising but unscrupulous parties unable to reach the exalted standard of these celebrated goods, pay them the flattery of imitating the wrappings. It is the Goods, not the wrappings, the trade is after. See that Bands, Tickets and Tabs of every piece are marked

What a Retail House Thinks of "Chouaguens."

Window Shades.

Ever since the ready made window shade was "discovered" we have kept them and sold thousands of them every year. We know something about what are called "oil shades." We handle only two qualities of shades. Our low-priced shades are what are called "water colors," or "American Opaque." They are the best of their kind and we sell them at 25c. each. They are mounted on spring rollers that are guaranteed to work, and these shades are

FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT.

We do not keep any "seconds" in stock Our other or best shades are all made of the celebrated

"CHOUAGUEN"

Shade cloth, which is the best, and the ONLY BEST shade cloth in the country. That "there are others" we do not deny. We have tried them all, and we have had trouble with them all; but we never yet have had a complaint about our "Chouaguen" shades. They WON'T FADE, THEY ALWAYS WORK, and we do not hesitate to GUARANTEE EVERY ONE OF THEM. WE can buy "oil shades" that WE can sell for 33c.; we can buy them to sell for less than 33c., but

We don't want them, We won't have them,

for when the hot summer sun strikes them they will FADE. If you want your shades to look like the old fury next summer, then we advise you to buy the cheap oil shades; but if you want shades that the sun can't phaze and that will always look the same, that will always work, then pay 5c. a shade more and get the best shade cloth, and that is the "Chouaguen." That's our kind. That's the only kind of oil shades we keep.

We open this week 200 dozen of these "Chouaguen" never-fade shades. We have a sample of the cheaper oil shades, and will show you the difference, or you can see the difference quick enough without any assistance. We say to you, INSIST on having the Chouaguen shade cloth. Look out for the "just as good" kinds, for they are not as good.

Our Chouaguen shades are 38 inches wide; the cheaper kinds are 36 inches wide. The difference in width is worth the difference in price, to say nothing about the difference in quality.

Pantasote Upholstery.

PANTASOTE

PANTASOTE IS THOROUGHLY WATERPROOF.
ANYONE WOULD TAKE IT FOR LEATHER. 'TIS JUST AS DURABLE.
NO RUBBER IN IT. WILL STAND ANY CLIMATE.
TEST IT. IT WILL NOT SMELL, CRACK, PEEL, OR GET STICKY.
AGE DOES NOT AFFECT IT IN THE LEAST AS IT DOES RUBBER.
SUN WILL NOT FADE IT, NOR WILL DAMPNESS ACT ON IT.
OTHER MATERIALS ABSORB MOISTURE AND WILL SHRINK OR LOSE SHAPE.
THIS DOES NOT. LONG SERVICE ON THE BEST RAILROADS PROVES IT.
EVERY ONE ADMITS IT IS THE BEST SUBSTITUTE FOR LEATHER EVER KNOWN.

Save Your Stock

BY USING THE

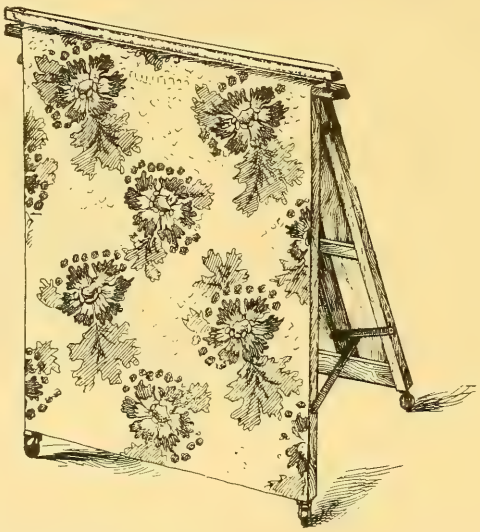
EXCELSIOR CARPET EXHIBITING STAND.

CARPET DEALERS everywhere are now showing goods by samples instead of in the roll. The Excelsior Carpet Exhibiting Stand offers the best method of displaying samples and will save money for every Carpet Merchant. The Excelsior Carpet Exhibitor will keep samples clean and smooth. Will give you an opportunity to test whether the customer is a buyer or shopper. Is invaluable in the rush season. In order to make money you should save money by using the Excelsior Carpet Exhibitor, already used by a number of the leading Carpet Dealers throughout the country.

SUBSTANTIAL,

HANDSOME,

HANDY.



DURABLE,

COMPACT,

CHEAP.

PRICE, $5.00. PRICE, $5.00.

Any pattern can be instantly and easily exposed entirely to view.

4/4 and 3/4 goods can be displayed on this stand at the same time. This is an important advantage.

The Excelsior stands are light and very elegant in appearance; they are made of hardwood sides, stained and finished in oak; the tops are made with a hand screw and will easily hold from seventy-five to one hundred samples. Size of stand, 36 inches wide and 4 feet high. Patent rollers on the bottom, and no matter how many samples are on them they can be moved to any part of the room. When not in use they can be folded into very small space. These many advantages make them invaluable for every Carpet store. The Excelsior stands should be in possession of every Carpet Merchant in the country. For further particulars address

Crompton's New Ingrain Carpet Loom.

CROMPTON NEW INGRAIN CARPET LOOMS.

THE attention of manufacturers of Ingrain Carpets is called to the consideration of a new Carpet Loom just put on the market. It carries four (4) shuttle boxes at each end of the lathe; any one of the series at each end can be brought into line with the shuttle race at any pick, under the dictation of the Jacquard cards. The Jacquard is of the most approved construction and moves the warps kindly. The let off and take up motions bring out perfectly matched goods. On two ply work it makes sixty (60) yards per day. The apparatus for moving the boxes cannot be surpassed for its simplicity and efficiency. This Loom has no equal in speed and simplicity from four (4) to seven (7) colors.

CROMPTON ART SQUARE LOOM, for 3, 3½ and 4 yard goods, produces the best results and has no rival.

CROMPTON'S UPHOLSTERY LOOM, with Improved "1886" Box Motion, is capable of high speed and nice adjustment for its special line of goods.

CROMPTON LOOMS for Fancy Cassimeres, Worsteds, Flannels, Blankets, Jeans, Silks, Tapes, Ginghams, Fancy Cottons, &c., &c. Crompton "1888" and Noble Wool Comb.

Sample and Price List forwarded on application.

Frames for holding the Fabric and Thread and Needles, specially prepared, for sale.

PATENTED AUGUST 25, 1885.

This Patent Rubber Binding holds the ends of Matting, Carpets, etc., down in place, does not curl up like other flexible bindings, is not affected by dampness, will not break when shaken and thrown about, and is very durable and easily adjusted.

The Many Advantages of this Patent Rubber Binding give it the preference over any other heretofore used on Matting and Carpet runners for Hotels, Stores, Steamboats, Offices, Elevators, Street Cars, Railroad Cars, etc., etc.

It is Made in ¾, ⅞, 1, 1¼, 1½, 1¾ and 2 lengths and is perforated to facilitate the sewing. The most inexperienced person can sew it on perfectly.

This PATENT RUBBER BINDING can be obtained from all the Leading Carpet and Upholstery Dealers.

LOWELL CARPETS have been justly celebrated for more than half a century. For the guidance of buyers the word "Lowell" is woven in white capital letters in the back of our Wiltons and Brussels at each repeat of the pattern. The fabrics are of the best quality, designs and coloring.

Our Middlesex Wiltons have the word "Middlesex" woven in the back. The word is registered as our Trade Mark in the United States Patent Office.

The popular Lowell Ingrains are wound on a hollow stick made in two solid pieces, with the words "Lowell Man'g. Co." stamped within, a patented United States Trade Mark.

Bigelow Carpet Company,

ORIGINAL POWER-LOOM MANUFACTURERS OF

WILTON AND BRUSSELS

CARPETS.

The Carpets made by this Company have received the highest award wherever exhibited, including Gold Medals at the Paris Exposition, 1878, and at the Centennial, 1876.

Their deserved reputation for excellence of fabric, richness and durability of color, novelty and beauty of design, has led to frequent infringements, and inferior goods have often been palmed off in their stead. For the protection of the public the Company has adopted as a trade-mark the word "BIGELOW," which will be woven (at every repeat of the pattern) in white capitals into the back of the fabric. Customers will therefore have merely to examine the back of a carpet to be certain that they are getting the genuine Bigelow Wiltons or Body Brussels.

These Goods can be obtained from all first-class dealers.

UPHOLSTERY DEPARTMENT, PAGE 49.

TRADE AND PRICES.

As compared with the spring season, the fall trade opens with the situation much improved as regards prices. The marking down of stock will happily be avoided, and if the satisfaction expressed by the jobbing buyers, who are now in the market, has any effect on the manufacturers prices will be firmly held.

Prices of Tapestries and Velvets are virtually settled for the fall season. They will remain as on February 1 last, with the exception of the advance of 2½ cents on eight wire Tapestries, which takes effect July 1. The reason for this advance is that the price of these goods has been disproportionately low as compared with other grades, and as the sales of eight wire goods are doubtless larger than those of any other grades of Tapestries, the manufacturers have realized that they were getting too low a price for their most popular grade. The seven wire goods are also too cheap to make their manufacture profitable, and in some mills the product of this grade has been gradually decreased, the looms formerly used for them being adapted for Velvet weaving instead, to meet the growing demand in this direction.

The limited quantities of jobs or dropped patterns that have been opened up this week, and the very slight reduction in the prices on them, have been an agreeable surprise to buyers. The difference between these figures and the regular prices is much less than it was six months ago, and the tendency to restrict dating is noted in the quoting of lower prices on new goods for July 1 than for September 1 dating. Job goods date from the time of shipment, with 4 per cent. off, cash in ten days.

Prices of Ingrains will be but slightly changed, if at all. The new price list of the Lowell Company has not been issued up to the time of our going to press. Brussels and Wiltons will doubtless be sold at the spring quotations.

Large quantities of goods have been moved during the past fortnight, the jobbers having started the season with confidence in the stability of prices. The situation is very encouraging for a rousing fall trade, and more particularly as the great majority of consumers have of late years been gradually deferring their furnishing until fall. The new patterns and colorings now on view display the highest skill of both the designer and dyer.

Oil cloths and linoleums are in large demand, with prices held firmly.

CONTRACT PRISON LABOR.

Governor Morton has signed the two bills of Senator Wilcox which are designed to carry out the provision of the new State constitution abolishing contract labor in the prisons, penitentiaries and reformatories of the State. This provision goes into effect on January 1 next. The main bill provides that the convicts in these institutions, after January 1 next, shall be employed in manufacturing all articles needed by the inmates of the various hospitals, almshouses and other public institutions owned, managed or controlled by the State or any political division. The bill also provides that the prisoners shall work but eight hours a day.

INVESTIGATE FOREIGN ORDERS.

A Philadelphia Ingrain manufacturer informs us that a short time since he received a sample order from a firm in Amsterdam, Holland, but upon investigating the standing of the firm through the commercial agencies he was informed that they were on the police black list of Holland, and hence he did not ship the goods. It would be advisable for manufacturers or wholesalers receiving orders from unknown firms abroad to investigate their responsibility fully before shipping any goods, and the safest plan in doing any export business is through exporting houses on this side, who pay for the goods and then collect from the foreign houses. There are, of course, many responsible foreign houses who desire to purchase directly, and reports as to their standing can easily be obtained through the leading commercial agencies.

THE CHINA MATTING MARKET.

Arnhold, Karberg & Co., in their circular dated Canton, March 31, say that prices of matting show no change and that manufacturers are more determined to maintain the present high rates, as the contracts they have booked so far at full prices will keep them busy for the next few months. A dispatch by cable, dated May 2, to Messrs. Winter & Smillie, the New York agents of the firm, states that there is a brisk demand for matting and that prices are rising.

Shewan & Co., in their circular dated Canton, April 6, say that settlements to date for late autumn delivery are put at 50,000 rolls, and that the exports from Hong Kong and Canton to New York and Baltimore from May 1, 1895, to March 27, 1896, amounted to 373,025 rolls.

AROUND AND ABOUT.

The Dingley tariff bill will probably play a very minor part in the politics of the immediate future, so the friends of the chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means are bringing up new reasons why he should be re-elected to Congress. Speaker Reed says: "Congressman Dingley, when a boy, would rather take a stubby old lead pencil and figure out on the back of an envelope what rate of duty the Romans imposed on Persian wool than sit on a narrow sofa in a dark room with a pretty girl."

To which a Maine paper replies: "The Congressman when a boy was certainly a political student, but a matron, who was a schoolgirl with him, remarks that in her judgment the narrow sofa would have been a very considerable temptation."

In those days, however, Mr. Dingley had never heard of any such thing as a free silver attachment.

A glib tongued swindler has been imposing on the women of Flushing, L. I., by going from house to house pretending to be a repairer of carpet sweepers. He would mend them apparently, but return in a little while and secure possession of them again on the plea that they required washers, and it would be necessary for him to take it to a blacksmith shop to have the washers adjusted. They were never returned. It is said that not less than fifty people were swindled in this way.

A prominent Eastern carpet and furniture dealer recently received by mail a statement with a request for a check. On examination he found to his surprise that he had never bought goods from the writer and of course owed him nothing. All the same he tore out a blank check and sent it with a note saying he would be pleased to send his correspondent a check at any time if he would inclose a two-cent stamp for postage.

A London paper tells a story which may or may not be true, but is amusing enough to be believed. It concerns a trick played on the Chicago newspapers by a firm designated as P. F. R. & Co. some years ago. One of the partners went into court and asked for an injunction to restrain the other partner from sacrificing the goods in their store at figures far below first cost. The plaintiff said his partner had, with some insane desire, marked all the goods in the store down below cost. Then he went into details and showed how different articles were being sacrificed, notwithstanding his protest, and asked the court to issue an injunction and restrain the fractious partner. It was a strange fight, and the newspapers took it up and devoted columns to the novel case. The result was that people on the lookout for bargains flocked to the store and purchased goods. Day after day the hearing for an injunction was delayed, and, finally, when the free advertisement had been worked to its end, the suit was dismissed without prosecution, the whole cost to the firm for hundreds of dollars worth of advertising being about $25.

Here are some recent advertisements which may be of use to trade seekers:

The only way to beat our rugs is to dust them.
Do as we do; get the most for your money.
Here is where the retailer undersells the maker.
There are no "ifs" or "ands" about these values.

To a Brooklyn carpet and furniture dealer is reserved the honor of putting out the most original ad. of the season, thus:

Fine oak bedroom suites in rosewood and cherry.

Are we not indebted largely to the interior decorative firms for the craze for Japanese floor coverings now prevailing and making such large inroads upon the Ingrain carpet industry? Some of them are possessed of considerable conceit and assume to be the very embodiment of taste and culture, utterly ignoring all American manufactured goods. They succeed in making Japanese museums of private dwellings, which seems to be the height of their ambition.

Cahn & Weil are a new firm in the furniture line at 502 Columbus avenue.

T. P. Wharton, 256 Church street, is now resident buyer for McKean, Eilers & Co., of Austin, Tex.

B. Feeney, the old-time Third avenue carpet and furniture dealer, has removed from 478 to 346 on that street.

J. T. Browne & Co., carpet and furniture dealers, Brooklyn, have removed from Court street to 203 Smith street.

Jonas Long's Sons, Wilkesbarre, Pa., have removed their office in this city from Thomas street to 274 Church street.

The stock of carpets and furniture at 127 Greenpoint avenue, Brooklyn, belonging to Mary Bird was sold by auction on the 23d ult.

George Margraf, owing to increase of business, has added the next door store to his old stand, Nos. 6 and 8 Avenue A, corner of First street.

The D. J. Hennessey Mercantile Company, Butte, Mon., has opened an office in this city in Room 810 Cable Building, Broadway and Houston street.

Ehrich Brothers, of Twenty-third street and Sixth avenue, have filed with the building department plans for a $60,000 addition to their present premises.

J. Lewin has removed from 239 West 125th street to a double store, Nos. 267 and 269, on the same block, and now has a very handsome place, with elegant displays.

On account of the removal of the carpet department of Tefft, Weller & Co. to Nos. 109 and 111 Leonard street, Manager Miller sold through Field, Chapman & Fenner, the auctioneers, on the 14th inst. about 250 bales of Japanese rugs and also some lots of carpeting and Smyrna rugs.

On application by J. Fred Hobart, manager of the New York branch of the Atlas Tack Company, and a creditor for $2,200, Thos. J. Lothrop and James P. Stearns, of Brookline, Mass., have been appointed receivers for the property of the corporation in New York and Massachusetts. The concern is a consolidation of the six principal tack companies of Massachusetts, and was incorporated in March, 1891, with a capital of $700,000. The last annual report showed assets $1,657,000; liabilities, $887,000.

Hobson Brothers, dealers in carpets and furniture at 308 and 310 West 125th street, moved on May 1 to 239 West 125th street, the premises formerly occupied by J. Lewin.

Until the completion of its new building the Central National, which is pre-eminently the carpet men's bank, will occupy the premises 291 Broadway, corner Reade street, formerly the Tradesmen's National.

Julius Meyer & Sons, Richmond, Va.; John A. Roberts & Co., Utica, N. Y., and Siegrist & Fraley, Buffalo, N.Y., are now represented in this city by John A. O'Connor, with offices at 47 Lispenard street.

John Menahan, assignee of Griffin & Sullivan, Brooklyn, has notified creditors of this firm to present their claims, with vouchers, at the office of J. T. Canavan, 373 Fulton street, Brooklyn, on or before June 18, 1896.

C. W. Bogert, agent for Thomas Hirst, Vineland, N. J., is showing some very beautiful rugs in Delft colors to meet the present craze for blue and white. They come in all the sizes made by the mills, and are very admirable in design and tone.

John W. Dibble, late with the E. S. Higgins Carpet Company, has opened an office at 337 Broadway, New York, and will act as representative and buyer for out of town houses. Mr. Dibble's long experience in the carpet trade will make his services especially valuable.

The annual election of the New York Chamber of Commerce took place on the 7th inst., and among the committee members elected were Charles S. Smith as chairman of the executive committee, and James McCreery as a member of the committee on foreign commerce and the revenue laws.

For the convenience of its New York trade the Bissell Carpet Sweeper Company has established at its New York store a well equipped repair shop, where all brands of Bissell carpet sweepers that have ever been made can be repaired by experienced hands at nominal prices. A full line of extra parts of Bissell sweepers is also carried at the New York store.

David Linderborn, the auctioneer, has brought suit against W. & J. Sloane, A. A. Vantine & Co., Leroy Andrews and James Robinson to recover $75,000 damages. Linderborn, whose auction rooms are at 7 and 9 East Twentieth street, this city, alleges that the defendants on March 13 last appeared, acting in concert, before Mayor Strong, through the defendant Robinson, who charged the plaintiff with committing certain violations of Section 1992 of the consolidation act, and caused the mayor to issue and have served upon him a summons, requiring him to appear before the mayor to answer their charges and show cause why there should not be a revocation of his license. The mayor, the plaintiff alleges, held that he was not guilty and dismissed the charge. The suit is one of the results of the proceedings instituted by the newly formed Society for the Suppression of Fraudulent Auctions. The association made charges against several auctioneers in this city, Linderborn being one of the number.

Major M. J. Bailey handles the samples in the Lowell carpet department with all his old-time grace and skill, and the warm greetings he receives from the customers show the pleasure it is to his many friends in the trade to again find him in carpet harness.

Edward D. Clery, of Drovin & Clery, has made an excellent start on fall sales of the Blabon linoleum and floor oil cloth, and between customers has been writing some very catchy verses on the Presidential nomination. If you want to have the political situation described in verse you should call on Mr. Clery. He has an autograph letter from Major McKinley acknowledging receipt of one of his compositions.

Tefft, Weller & Co.'s carpet department is now settled in the new quarters, 109 and 111 Leonard street, just east of Broadway. The new location is very easy of access, and as the entire building is devoted to carpets and all kinds of floor coverings, Manager J. W. Miller will have every opportunity for expanding the business.

The East India Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of cocoa mats and matting, Nos. 130 to 140 North Eleventh street, Brooklyn, assigned on the 4th inst. to Miron Winslow. By consent of creditors the assignee is carrying on the business with the understanding that the net proceeds are to be applied to the equal pro rata payment of the company's debts.

The Johnston Building, one of the notable business structures of Brooklyn, has been purchased by the Flatbush Avenue Realty Company, controlled by A. Abraham and his associates in the firm of Abraham & Straus, Brooklyn. The building has a frontage of 113 feet on Flatbush avenue and 212 on Nevins street. The price paid was $375,000. The store of the Cowperthwait Company, carpet and furniture dealers, is situated in the building.

Walter Scott, so long known to the trade as a manufacturers' agent, is increasing his lines and organization, and will bid for a greater share of trade for the fall season. He has added the accounts of D. Jamieson's Sons, Ingrains, and the Trenton Oil Cloth Company, table oil cloths, and has two new men on the selling force—A. C. Sweeten, the long time carpet traveler, and W. A. Shirley, recently with C. B. Rouss. Mr. Scott has also enlarged his salesroom at 339 Broadway. He continues as New York agent for Lyon Brothers & Co., Baltimore, and the Lamond & Robertson Company, of Paterson, N. J.

Among the buyers in town during the past two weeks were : Messrs. W. A. Boyd, for the Julius Lansburgh Furniture and Carpet Company, Washington, D. C.; Captain Henri and Charles Duncker, of the Trorlicht, Duncker & Renard Carpet Company, St. Louis ; J. Stone, of J. E. Stone & Son, Oneida, N. Y.; Thomas O'Callaghan, of Thomas O'Callaghan & Co., Boston ; T. Long, of Long Brothers, Jasper, Ala.; S. Goldsmith, of Goldsmith Brothers & Co., Scranton, Pa., Franklin Ames (wholesale) for Marshall Field & Co., Chicago ; F. L. Tuttle and F. L. Tuttle, Jr., Hawley, Pa.; H. Quarrier, for the Deleplain Dry Goods Company, Wheeling, W. Va.; Peter Murray, of Smith & Murray, Springfield, Mass.; E. Rosenwald, Las Vegas, N. Mex.; Ed. Wren, Springfield, Ohio ; Morris Benson, of the Adam, Meldrum & Anderson Company, Buffalo, N. Y.; P. Bennett, Monticello, Ind.; S. T. McCornac, for Edson, Keith & Co., Detroit ; W. H. H. Neal, of Neal & Hyde, and D. M. Edwards, of E. W. Edwards & Sons, Syracuse, N. Y.; J. C. Putnam, of Allman & Putnam, Massillon, Ohio ; D. F. and A. A. McMullen, of D. F. McMullen & Co., Frostburgh, Md.; E. D. Garratt, Galveston, Tex.; L. Furchgott, of Kohn, Furchgott & Co., Jacksonville, Fla.; J. D. Hosking, of Hosking & Co., Calumet, Mich.; W. B. Reddon, for the J. V. Farwell Company, Chicago ; E. Hecht, of Samuel Hecht, Jr., & Sons, Baltimore ; Thos. A. Evoy, for Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., Chicago ; F. C. Krueger, for Tootle, Wheeler & Motter, St. Joseph, Mo.; H. Higgins, for the Williams & Rodgers Company, Cleveland, Ohio ; S. Nixon, for the Barnard, Sumner & Putnam Company, Worcester, Mass.; A. A. Graff, of A. A. Graff & Co., Syracuse, N. Y.; Charles R. Hart, of C. R. Hart & Co., Hartford, Conn.; A. M. Kerr, of S. G. Kerr, Son & Co., Scranton, Pa.; Samuel Kennard and Alexander Primm, of the J. Kennard & Sons, Carpet Company, St. Louis ; F. H. Miller, for D. P. Erwin & Co., Indianapolis ; M. Heller, for Julius Meyer & Sons, Richmond, Va.; David F. Read, of the D. M. Read Company, Bridgeport, Conn.; C. C. Bailey, of C. C. Bailey & Co., Ham, of Sanborn, Ham & Co., W. H. Chipman, of Wm. H. Chipman & Co., and Charles F. Bacon, for R. H. White & Co., Boston; W. H. Keech, of the W. H. Keech Company, Pittsburg ; C. W. Schwartz, of C. W. Schwartz & Co., H. Fricke, for McCallum & McCallum, and Albert Graff, of A. Graff & Co., Philadelphia.

THE DOERR INGRAINS.

The fall line of Philip Doerr & Sons, the Ingrain manufacturers, is particularly noticeable for the new ground effect introduced for the first time. This ground is a handsome mottle, that will in most cases take the place of solid grounds and is a positive novelty in Ingrain carpets.

Another striking feature of the new line is the number of two color and self tone effects, mostly in rich dark colorings, including Delft blue, and also a new combination composed of Delft blue and white in combination with a dark blue. A very handsome carpet can be made from the solid mottle effects with a border having a ground to match and a handsome large sized open figure. These mottle effects are shown in the ground of figured patterns, as well as in solid mottle throughout. The line has a number of bold, large figures—something more pronounced than heretofore seen in Ingrains, which will take the eye of the trade. Some of the especially fine patterns are the "Feather Circle," "Dragon Scroll," "Lily and Vine," "Escutcheon," and an abundance of new and beautiful scrolls. The line is on view at the mill, Columbia avenue and Fifth street, Philadelphia, and will be shown on the road in due season.

Dornan Brothers are ready with their entire line of new fall patterns in the celebrated Monitor Mills Ingrains. The new goods are on show at the mill, Howard and Mascher streets, and at the Bourse Building, Philadelphia.

....The Geo. W. Blabon Company are putting in an electric light plant at their works at Nicetown.

....D. Murphy, of Arnold, Constable & Co.'s rug department, called on the trade in Philadelphia the first of the month.

....Strawbridge & Clothier have secured the contract for carpeting the United States Hotel, Atlantic City. It will require about 2,000 yards of Velvet and Axminster carpeting.

....Mr. Ringgold, of the Hartford Carpet Company, called on the trade in Philadelphia during the early part of the month, as did also Fred. Senior, of Sperry & Beale, New York.

....Reeve L. Knight, formerly of the old carpet firm of Reeve L. Knight & Son, frequently promenades Chestnut street with his old-time sprightly step. He appears to be good for twenty years more of life.

....The following carpet dealers have visited the Bourse during the past week: Messrs. Yingling, of Yingling & Middlekauff, Hagerstown, Md.; F. McCrea, Scranton, Pa.; S. Bickel, of F. Bickel & Son, Coatesville, Pa.

....The stock in the store of William Davis, Thirteenth and South streets, was sold by a constable's sale on the 4th inst. Davis has disappeared. The E. R. Artman-Treichler Company have obtained an attachment for $800.

....M. D. Neece, who was formerly manager of Hood, Bonbright & Co.'s carpet department, is now managing a new wholesale carpet department with A. H. Love & Co., of 219 Chestnut street, where he would be pleased to receive his old friends and customers.

....Strawbridge & Clothier have captured the furnishing of the steamer Reina de los Angeles now building at Neafie & Leavy's shipyard on the Delaware. Inlaid linoleum will be used in all saloons and staterooms. The contract calls for furniture, bedding and draperies.

....Henry Dickel & Son, 2012 Ella street, have ready for the fall trade a superior assortment of patterns in C. C. Extra Supers, Union Extra Supers and 8 and 9 pair cotton Ingrains. Their ability to produce good selling patterns, as well as reliable quality goods, has long been an established fact, and in the offering of their new effects they are equipped to remain in the front rank in the matter of handsome and desirable patterns.

....Dickey & McMaster have been one of the exceptions regarding running full throughout the spring season. They have operated their entire plant from the beginning of the season up to the present time and are still running on spring business. The trade has been well distributed over their lines of Damasks, Venetians, Granite Ingrains, dometic carpets and rugs. The new fall samples are completed and ready for inspection at the mill, Second and Huntingdon streets.

....V. E. Archambault & Son, Eleventh and Market streets, have their first floor decorated in Chinese high art and stocked to overflowing with mattings. They report a business up to May 1 fully equal to that of last year, and are now obliged to put on extra help in all the departments. Judicious advertising does it.

....Hirst & Roger, the Tapestry manufacturers, are closing a busy season, as their plant has run steadily on orders since the first of the year. The new fall patterns will be completed in a few days, and as the market is short of 7 and 8 wire Taps buyers will find it wise to place early orders with Hirst & Roger, Kensington avenue and Huntingdon street.

....The annual election of officers and directors of the Manufacturers' Club will take place on the 18th inst. John H. Converse has been nominated for president and James Dobson is named as one of the two vice-presidents to be elected. Among the nominations for the board of directors the carpet trade is represented by Thomas Bromley, Jr. Robert Dornan and John Hamilton.

....Henry Rath's Cotton Chain Extras, half wool Extras, Unions and Cottons are favorite goods with the jobbing trade, and rightly so, for there is no more conscientious manufacturer in Philadelphia. Mr. Rath aims to supply goods on which the jobber can make a profit and hold his trade. He does it by giving unbeatable quality and up to date styles. This can be proved by viewing his fall line at Fifth street and Columbia avenue.

....The great attractions of the fall line of Swire & Scott's Ingrains and Art Squares can be judged from the fact that the first buyer who saw them selected twenty-five different styles. The purchasing of this number of patterns by a buyer, who doubtless distributes his business among more manufacturers than any other jobber in the market, is the highest compliment to the firm's new line.

....Manager J. R. Thompson, of Gimbel Brothers' carpet department, reports their April business as 50 per cent. ahead of last year, and that May has also kept up a good advance over last year. The department is especially busy on orders from Atlantic City hotels, including the new St. Charles, for 8,000 yards of Wiltons and Wilton Velvets, and the Grand Atlantic, consuming nearly as many yards as the former. They are carpeting six of these Atlantic City hotels altogether.

....The fall line of Ingrains shown by Edward C. Read, Lehigh avenue and Howard street, is by far the finest collection of samples he has ever exhibited. A glance through the line shows conclusively that the producing of fine effects is not confined to the larger mills, as Mr. Read's collection will compare favorably with any assortment on the market, and considering the size of his plant the number of samples shown is exceptionally large. A noticeable feature in the new line is the production of the effects heretofore only seen in the patented extra heavy Ingrains, in the regular Extra Super grade. Several patterns show very perfect reproduction of these patented effects in solid ground and differently colored figures, and throughout the whole line there is not a pattern seen that does not show a satisfactory reverse side. It will repay anyone who has not been purchasing these goods at least to look them over this season.

THE mills of Thomas L. Leedom & Co. have been running on full time through the season, a fact which clearly shows the great popularity of the firm's lines.

CHICAGO CARPET NOTES.

W. H. Howlett, W. & J. Sloane's representative at Kansas City, passed through the city this week en route to New York.

CHICAGO, MAY 9.

James Rafferty has severed his connection with Pillman, Smuck & Co. He traveled through Texas and the South, and had headquarters at St. Louis.

Mr. Carpenter, of Dobson's branch here, intends to go East May 16.

J. H. Osborne, of Jacksonville, Ill., carpets and upholstery, was in the city recently.

Henry T. Sloane spent a day here recently. He was on his way East from the Pacific slope.

C. G. Pettibone, of Frank Brothers, is now with the Philadelphia Carpet Company, corner of Peoria and Madison streets.

Mr. Williams, of Williams & Breeze, of Racine, Wis., carpets and furniture, placed several generous orders among the jobbers here this week.

W. E. Burgess, who travels on the Pacific Slope for the Ivins, Dietz & Metzger Company, has purchased a home at 125 Clark avenue, Austin. He took possession May 1.

T. Dorion, of Kankakee, Ill., who deals in carpets and furniture, and who placed several duplicate orders here this week, says trade is late but good in his section of Illinois.

J. J. Marshall, proprietor of the Golden Rule store, at 384 West Madison street, dry goods, carpets, laces, &c., was shot and killed by three desperadoes who were trying to "hold up" his cashier last Thursday night.

Mr. Kilgore, formerly with the J. V. Farwell Company, is now assistant to Charles Birkle, manager of "The Fair's" carpet department. Mr. McCormick, who formerly held that position, is now with Schlesinger & Mayer.

G. B. Treloar, Sanford & Sons' New York manager, visited his firm's branch here a few days ago and called on his many friends in the city. He had come from a visit to the trade in St. Louis and other points, and continued on his way East.

To-night will see the usual spring exodus of carpet men to the East in preparation for the summer trips among the retailers. Among those who will join the procession are Manager Reddon, of Farwell's; Hardcastle, of Sloane's; W. K. Smith, of Dornan's, and M. H. Jordan.

Henry A. Hoerlein, 3104 Cottage Grove avenue, is succeeded by the Hoerlein Carpet Cleaning and Upholstery Company, a corporation, the capital stock of which is $2,500. The company will carry on the carpet cleaning and upholstering business. The incorporators are Henry A. and Benjamin A. Hoerlein and Charles J. Schmidt.

For the first time in many weeks the retailer has a smile on his face. Trade for two weeks has been booming. Many carpet forces are working nights to keep up with orders. The jobbers and roadmen are busy taking care of duplicate orders. O. W. Richardson & Co., the John M. Smyth Company, "The Fair" and Mandel Brothers have busy carpet showrooms these days.

Walter H. Treloar has engaged with Thos. Develon's Sons and will hereafter represent them in this city and on the road. Mr. Treloar was formerly with S. Sanford & Sons and T. J. Keveney & Co., and is a brother of G. B. Treloar, manager of Sanford & Sons' selling department. He went East last week to obtain the new fall line of Develon's Sons.

A week ago to-night the Chicago Carpet Company went out of the jobbing business; at least its operations will not be so extensive as they have been in the last few months. Its salesmen have been taken from the road and whatever wholesale business is done in the future will be done with buyers who present themselves at the house. W. B. Baldwin, who for the last few months has been treasurer of the company, severs his active connection with it and will leave Chicago for his home in the East next Saturday. Mr. Sanderson and Mr. Whitford, who have been on the road for the house, are still in its employ. George McNeir, secretary of W. & J. Sloane, was in the city recently and attended to the details of the change in the character of the carpet company. Mr. McNeir also came to a settlement with M. H. Jordan, whose place as manager for W. & J. Sloane's branch here was taken by J. L. Hardcastle. The settlement was satisfactory to both parties, I am told, Mr. Jordan receiving his salary and commissions up to November.

R. H. H.

THE FINEST TAPESTRY MADE.

J. & J. Dobson are introducing for the fall trade a higher grade of Tapestry than has heretofore been produced by any manufacturer in the country. It will count accurately thirty-one wires to 3 inches, therefore being more closely woven than a ten wire Tapestry, heretofore known as the best grade made. It has the full standard of 216 cords and a fine linen back, similar to the old Crossley XXX Tapestries. Manager Coloney emphatically asserts that it is the best piece of Tapestry carpet ever produced. This new grade will be known as the "Crown" Tapestry, and will be shown in entirely new patterns, ready for inspection within a few days.

Besides the attraction of this new high grade Tapestry, the fall lines of J. & J. Dobson will command broad attention through the remarkable beauty of their new styles in Axminsters, Wiltons, Brussels, Velvets and other grade Tapestries.

THE CROMPTON LOOM WORKS WIN.

Reference was recently made by us to a suit brought by the Crompton Loom Works to render void a levy on and sale of certain of their looms which had been leased by the Globe Tapestry Company, Philadelphia. The Crompton Loom Works contested the legality of the sale because there had been no appraisement of the value of the looms before they were sold, and a verdict for the plaintiff was rendered to the amount of $3,700, subject to the decision of the court on this point. Judge Butler subsequently decided the point in favor of the Crompton Works, and from this an appeal was taken, which has lately been dismissed by Judge Acheson, who confirms the decision of the lower court.

The Wilmington Mills Manufacturing Company, Wilmington, Del., are extensive manufacturers of jute carpet and rug yarns, carpet filling and backing yarns, twines, cords, ropes, packing, &c. Write to them for samples and prices.

BOSTON OFFICE OF ARNOLD, CONSTABLE & CO.

BOSTON BUDGET.

BOSTON, MAY 11.

C. C. Bailey, of the firm of C. C. Bailey & Co., went over to New York to-day for a week's sojourn. A very good trade, both wholesale and retail, is reported by this house.

D. Tebbetts, formerly with H. A. Hartley & Co., has returned from England and taken a position with Thos. O'Callaghan & Co.

Hugh Keveney was in Boston this week, pushing his English linoleums.

The Messrs. Corson and Nichols returned Saturday from a trip to Philadelphia.

J. H. Robinson has received his discharge from the Suffolk County Insolvency Court.

John H. Pray, Sons & Co. have received an order to carpet the Fall River line steamer Plymouth.

Vice-President FitzGerald, of the E. S. Higgins Carpet Company, was among the week's notable visitors here.

Geo. M. Lincoln, who has been in charge of T. B. Shoaff & Co.'s Boston office, will retire from that position on June 1.

The sympathy of friends is extended to Thomas O'Callaghan for the loss of a daughter of nineteen months a few days since.

William H. Sheehy, of the firm of Smith, Hogg & Gardner, and manager of its Lowell carpet account, has been here the past few days.

T. B. Fisher, Boston representative of the Saranac Mills and the Hensel Silk Manufacturing Company, will in a few days show a lot of new patterns in decorative and upholstery fabrics, curtains, &c., at his rooms, 76 Chauncy street.

M. Muns, with R. H. White & Co., the past two years in the rug department, has gone to California, where he has a farm, and will engage in the fruit business.

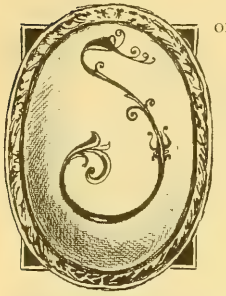
A hunting and fishing outing of some three or four days was recently enjoyed by Messrs. Scanlan, Sullivan, Clark and De Lurey, of O'Callaghan's. They stopped at the Winepoyken House in Hamilton, Essex County.

Joseph O'Callaghan, superintendendent of the cut-order department of Thos. O'Callaghan & Co., was married on the 22d ult. to Miss Agnes Maguire, of Cambridge. Among the wedding gifts was a piano from the firm and the employees.

Swire & Scott are to change their representation of Ingrain carpets in New England, their connection with Bennett & Brickett, who represented them during the past year, ending on May 1. Their new representative will be announced in my next letter. F. J. B.

Rosenthal & Brownlie, 147 to 153 Fifth avenue, Chicago, as selling agents for the Saranac Mills, the Hensel Silk Manufacturing Company, Hyndman & Moore, T. I. Birkin & Co., Fritz, La Rue & Sinn, and the Lamond & Robertson Company, show an immense variety of curtains, covers, fringes, matting, rugs, &c., and the character of the firms whom they represent is a sufficient guarantee that their offerings for the fall trade are certain to deserve the early attention of every shrewd buyer.

BLABON'S LINOLEUM AND OIL CLOTH.



Some good reasons why dealers should handle Blabon's linoleum and floor oil cloth are given on the colored page insert of the company in this issue. The Blabon Company long since passed the goal of established reputation on quality and style, since which each succeeding season has added further laurels. The company can well be complimented on their new showing for the fall of 1896. The lines fill every demand of amplitude and diversity, along with originality, and the styles show every progress of the day in floor cloth patterning. A new Delft blue pattern in D linoleum is not only handsome and appropriate for a bathroom floor, but is also well adapted for decorating the walls, taking the place on both floor and walls of the expensive tiles.

Jobbers, who are the direct customers of the Geo. W. Blabon Company, give well deserved praise to the goods and patterns, and express high satisfaction with their business treatment likewise. If you are not a customer yet, don't let the fall season pass without becoming one.

JOHN CROSSLEY & SONS.

Henry Beuttell, American agent for John Crossley & Sons, arrived from England per the Etruria on the 9th inst. His complete new fall line of the Crossley goods has been received, and is open for inspection at the salesroom, 109 and 111 Worth street, New York. There is an abundance of new effects in every grade and fabric of the line, which were gotten up under Mr. Beuttell's personal direction, and will be found eminently suited for American trade.

SANFORD'S NEW LINE.

The fall patterns of S. Sanford & Sons' Tapestries and Velvets are now ready for inspection at their salesroom, 29 Union square, New York, and also at the offices in Boston and Chicago. It need hardly be said that they represent the most advanced improvements in Tapestry and Velvet ornamentation of the day, and a special feature is the very faithful resemblance of many of the effects to Wiltons, Axminsters and Brussels. In the Wilton Velvets the patterns approach more nearly the patterns of regular Wilton effects than anything heretofore seen, the offerings in this line alone being sufficient to attract any buyer. Jobbing buyers who have already seen the line are unanimous in their praise of its great beauty and novelty and are substantiating this opinion by liberal orders. The Messrs. Sanford will be able to retain the benefit of their efforts and expense in getting up these novelties, as they have patented fifty-two of the designs shown in the fall line. We advise an early inspection of the goods at their salesrooms in New York, Boston and Chicago, and the firm's travelers will be on the road in due season.

BINGO AND BUNGO MATTING.

Baltimore, May 8, 1896.

The Carpet and Upholstery Trade Review:

Will you please explain what is meant by the terms Bingo and Bungo as used in the straw matting trade? Constant Reader.

Ans.—Bingo and Bungo are the names of two districts in Japan. The straw grown in Bingo is much finer than the Bungo product, but the larger proportion of Japanese matting imported is made of Bungo straw.—Ed.

CAMBRIA MILLS INGRAINS.

The fall offerings in John Dunlap & Son's Cambria Mills Ingrains are on view at the mills, Eleventh and Cambria streets, Philadelphia, and will also be shown on the road in proper season. The grades are the same as last season, with the addition of the Khorassan carpet, a new heavy grade Ingrain in Brussels effects. The assortment ranges from Three Plys and Khorassans, through the all wool Extra Supers, Cotton Chains, medium Extras, Unions and Cottons.

The assortment of patterns in Three Plys, Khorassans and high grade all wool Extra Supers is not surpassed by any other collection of Ingrains in the market. The line was gotten up under the personal direction of John Dunlap, Jr., who doubtless gives as much as, if not more, time to the study of patterns as any other Ingrain manufacturer in Philadelphia. He apparently also possesses the faculty of selecting big sellers, as the trade who have handled Cambria Mills Ingrains will testify to the superior selling attractions, as well as the sterling quality of the goods. Each succeeding season is opening up a widening distribution of the goods, and the Western trade should remember that John Dunlap & Son now have an office in the Champlain Building, Chicago.

P. J. Keeler will continue to represent the line in the territory from Denver west to the Pacific Coast. He has been remarkably successful with the line since he became its agent, a year or more ago, and will start on his fall trip from Denver at about the usual time. The trade in his territory should certainly reserve a goodly portion of their Ingrain orders for the Dunlap line.

C. M. BAILEY'S SONS & CO.

In the new line of floor oil cloths shown for the fall season by C. M. Bailey's Sons & Co. the demands of every class of trade are perfectly satisfied. The offerings include all the well-known and popular grades manufactured by this firm's famous works, the assortment of patterns covering all the favorite standard styles and a great number of entirely new designs and colorings. The extensive plant, superior facilities and long experience of C. M. Bailey's Sons & Co. in floor oil cloth manufacture enable them to present the strongest possible inducements to buyers, and their sales are always in accordance with this fact.

The fall line is shown at the New York office, 81 Walker street, where Messrs. Wilson Schwartz and Willard Hawk will be found. Mr. John Bailey, the veteran traveler for the firm, is now on his regular Western trip, but will return to New York shortly. At the Philadelphia salesroom of the firm, No. 419 Arch street, the trade will find Mr. White in charge as usual.

AN EX-KIDDERMINSTER MAN'S OBSERVATIONS.

HIS VIEWS ON THE TRADE HERE.

N the Kidderminster Shuttle of the 25th ult. a correspondent who says that he has been in the carpet trade for thirty-three years, and for most of that time resident in the United States, makes some interesting statements in regard to the trade of this country. We present herewith some extracts from his letter :

Having been away from Kidderminster so long it is, of course, unlikely that I should have any special interest in any particular individuals now living there beyond my own relatives, but I cannot help feeling a lively interest in the welfare of the town generally.

I see from the papers that there has been for some time a movement in Kidderminster for starting some new industry in order to find work for the unemployed weavers and young men who have been so long idle. Of course it does not necessarily follow that a new industry would be a failure, but the chances are against it. Of course it would be folly to risk a lot of money in best Brussels until the demand warrants it. It may be years before the demand warrants the starting up of all the looms now idle.

My object in writing is to suggest an industry in a measure new, but in a measure only, as the machinery, looms, &c., for an ordinary five frame Brussels could all be utilized. My suggestion is that some of the manufacturers having at heart the interests of the old town should introduce the weaving of jute Body Brussels into Kidderminster, and also the spinning of the jute yarns used in the manufacture of the same—an industry which up to now has been confined to Scotland. I know personally all the importers of such carpets here : Wilmerding, Morris & Mitchell, 64 White street ; J. Whiteside, 31 Wooster street ; B. McCabe, White street near Broadway ; New York and Amsterdam Carpet Company, Canal street near Broadway. The last named and McCabe have fairly good patterns, and sell at 32½ cents. Wilmerding and Whiteside have been running the same old patterns for years, and sell, Whiteside's three frames at 27 cents ; four frames, 30 cents ; Wilmerding, four frames, 27 cents ; five frames, 30 cents. Wilmerding, I believe, sells for "Coates" ; but who he is, and where he is, I don't know. Whiteside, I believe, sells for Stewart ; McCabe, for Grimond.

McCabe's patterns and colorings are the best imported, and I know he is always sold ahead. Then, again, look at the price he gets ! Further, he says his manufacturer has such a big trade with the colonies and France and Germany that he can not keep up with his orders. All of which convinces me that if Kidderminster were to take up the manufacture of jute Body Brussels it could very quickly take the trade away from the Scotchmen and find ample work for its unemployed.

Light grounds and chintzes—bright effects—are wanted ; but any new bright designs would find a ready market here, in preference to the old, played out patterns which have been coming here so long. Brussels only ; don't try Velvet, as Velvet does not "go" so well ; soils too quickly. Rugs also in Brussels have sold well here, in two-thirds and three-quarter width, but they don't sell here so well now. Still there is some demand for them here, and maybe a greater one in other markets. The houses I buy for use from 500 to 1,000 rolls a year of these goods. Yours truly, T. W.

P. S.—Kidderminster is not the only place suffering from invasion by foreign fabrics. The United States to day feels very keenly the effects of the enormous quantity of floor coverings which come from China and Japan. Nearly three-quarters of a million rolls of straw matting was the quantity imported here during last year. Another great antagonist to the Philadelphia Ingrain manufacture and makers of cheap oil cloth is the Japanese jute rug. Unknown a few years ago, his name here is now legion, in sizes from 1 foot 6 inches by 3 feet to 12 feet by 15 feet. Three years ago the price was $1.25 a square yard, now a better quality, with better designs—mostly imitation of choice Orientals—is 45 cents a square yard by the bale ! Can you wonder that the Philadelphia Ingrain manufacturers are eagerly praying for a change to a Republican administration, when they can have a chance to choke these persistent and terrible invaders by a heavy duty ?

DEVON MILLS CARPETS.

Charles P. Cochrane, Howard street and Lehigh avenue, Philadelphia, calls attention on page 19 of this issue to his popular specialties in Ingrains, including the Braemar, an extra heavy, all wool fabric ; the Rosslyn, which is similar to the Braemar, but lighter in weight ; the Khivans, which are extra heavy and half wool, and the Puritan, a tapestry weave Ingrain exceedingly heavy. These goods are well calculated to maintain and enhance the high reputation of the Devon Carpet Mills. In their preparations for the fall trade buyers will find it good policy to remember Mr. Cochrane's offerings in the above mentioned goods and also in Damasks and Venetians.

WHITTALL'S BRUSSELS.

John H. Pray, Sons & Co. announce that they can supply the trade with Whittall's Brussels from their stock at regular prices and without delay. See Messrs. Pray & Co.'s advertisement on page 72 of this issue, giving the numbers of patterns in Whittall and Edgeworth Brussels which they can supply at once. Quick deliveries are so important at this time that the announcement of Pray, Sons & Co. will doubtless prove very welcome to many dealers.

Bennett & Brickett, manufacturers' agents and commission merchants, 26 Chauncy street, Boston, show for the fall trade large and attractive lines of carpets, matting, oil cloths, rugs and sundries, in which the wants of every class of trade have been kept carefully in view. Buyers will find that the offerings of this firm will well repay attention.

Patients who have been successfully treated in the Keeley Institute at North Conway, N. H., say that it is the finest place of its kind in the world. It has an able and energetic manager, and is situated in one of the most healthful and attractive spots in the United States, the scenery, air and general surroundings being excellently adapted for sanitarium purposes. Write to the manager, Clifton J. Bailey, for particulars.

Chadurjian Brothers, 369 Broadway, New York, are very extensive importers of Turkish rugs, carpets and portières, and make a specialty of Bagdad portières. They show for the fall trade a great variety of sizes and patterns received direct from their Constantinople house. They are continually receiving new goods, and Mr. N. B. Chadurjian, the resident partner in New York, can always be found at the firm's Broadway salesroom. Buyers will find that he can offer strong inducements to all handlers of Oriental goods.

THE FRIES-BRESLIN COMPANY.

The extensive Smyrna plant of the Fries-Breslin Company, Camden, N. J., is perfectly equipped for meeting every possible demand of the trade in its particular field, and the offerings of the mills for the coming season will be even more important and interesting than ever before.

The company will show their famous Empress rugs in all sizes up to 12x18 feet, and their Monarchs, a new grade, will be offered in all sizes up to 9x12 feet, while the popular Oriental will be shown in all sizes up to 4x7 feet. The Monarchs will doubtless be in especially great demand, being a very attractive line at a popular price.

The company's main salesroom is at Camden, N. J., and their new line is shown by T. J. Keveney & Co., 907 Broadway, New York, who are its sole agents outside of New England. W. W. Corson & Co., 564 Washington street, Boston, are the New England agents.

The Lamond & Robertson Company, of Paterson, N. J., are surprising the trade with the fine and heavy quality of Smyrna rugs turned out. The quality runs even better than the samples, and the colorings are brighter and clearer with every new reeding made. All sizes, from single door mats up to sofas, in ten different patterns are ready for delivery. Samples are shown in New York by Walter Scott and in Chicago by Rosenthal & Brownlie.

SOME REPRESENTATIVE MERCHANTS.

JOHN SLOANE.

The signing of the Jay Treaty 100 years ago gave to the United States the first great impetus in its national growth, for in this treaty England, then the leader among commercial nations, made the first acknowledgment of our commercial liberty, thus giving the enterprise of our merchants free scope throughout the world. Many ways of worthily celebrating this event were suggested, from the erecting of a monument to Chief Justice Jay in the metropolis of America, which was his home, to setting apart a special day each year, which should be known as "Commercial Day." The plan finally decided upon combined both the ideas of a memorial and an anniversary day. It was decided to have prepared a history of American commerce, which should contain in practical form the story of the growth of this country, with both the facts and the lessons of its life presented in compact and interesting form. Chauncey M. Depew was chosen as the editor, and under his direction the plan of the work progressed, the original purpose of making the work a memorial to commerce, a tribute to the past, and a prophecy of the future being kept constantly in mind. To further impress the centennial idea, the work was divided into 100 chapters, each chapter devoted to some great trade, industry or interest, and all contributed by men who to-day represent the success and the magnitude of business in their various lines.

JOHN CLAFLIN.

EDWARD P. HATCH

The preparatory work upon this history was completed in the fall of the centennial year, 1895, and on December 19, 1895, a memorial banquet in celebration of the centennial of American liberty and in honor of Chief Justice Jay was given in Delmonico's, New York, under the auspices of the men who had first proposed and had carried through the Jay memorial project. Three hundred guests were present, and among them were many representatives of the carpet, upholstery goods, furniture and kindred trades, some of these gentlemen having also acted as the historians of their trades through their contributions to the pages of "One Hundred Years of American Commerce." John N. Beach, of Tefft, Weller & Co., who contributed the history of the American dry goods trade; George W. Gay, of the Berkey & Gay Furniture Company, who performed the same service for the furniture trade; Sheppard Knapp, who acted as the chronicler of the carpet trade, and Charles B. Flint, whose contribution dealt with the subject of our foreign trade, were included in the guests of the evening, and among others present were John Sloane, of W. & J. Sloane; John Claflin, of the H. B. Claflin Company; A. Swan Brown, of the Syndicate Trading Company; Wm. G. Hitchcock, of Wm. G. Hitchcock & Co.; Edward P. Hatch, of Lord & Taylor; Isidor Straus, of R. H. Macy & Co., and Louis Windmuller, the wool importer. Portraits of these gentlemen are presented herewith, through the courtesy of D. O. Haynes & Co., publishers of "One Hundred Years of American Commerce."

AN INGRAIN GUARANTEE.

The plain statement made by Thomas Develon's Sons in this issue, wherein they positively guarantee their Ingrains to be satisfactory and just as represented, deserves careful attention from all buyers. There is no equivocation about it, and the trade should appreciate its openness by ordering Victoria Mills Ingrains liberally. In substance the guarantee states that when you receive any of the Develon goods and do not find them satisfactory or as represented you can return them and the Messrs. Develon will pay all carriage expenses both ways. There is certainly no risk in placing orders on a line backed up by such a strong warrant.

WM. G. HITCHCOCK.

The goods offered by Thos. Develon's Sons for the fall season comprise Akola carpets, a patent all wool Ingrain; Victoria Extra Supers, a standard top grade of all wool Extras; Victoria C. C. Extra Supers; Imperial Extra Supers, an all wool Extra of popular selling grade; Alma carpets, extra heavy one-half wool Ingrains in Brussels effects; half wool Unions, quarter wool Unions and halls and stairs to match all grades.

LOUIS WINDMULLER.

The goods will be represented on the road by a competent force of salesmen, and when you receive a visit from one of them you should not lose the opportunity of seeing the remarkably handsome styles and examining the standard quality of the goods.

SHEPPARD KNAPP.

Referring to the line Thos. Develon said: "I think we have the largest line produced by any Ingrain manufacturer in the country and the largest variety of styles. The fall line of Victoria Mills Extra Supers comprises 562 samples, from which we have selected a road line of 212 samples. The road line contains an assortment of church carpets of extraordinary strength and effect, particularly adapted for this purpose."

One demonstration of the desirability of the Victoria Mills goods is the exceptionally good orders received for them during the spring season, as their record for running full will compare with that of any other mill in Philadelphia.

The firm have made special efforts in enlarging and improving their line of Akola carpets, a patented Ingrain fabric in Brussels effects. In quality it is equal to any heavy Ingrain on the market.

ALBION MILLS.

James & George D. Bromley's Ingrains, art squares, terries, &c., will form an especially conspicuous feature in the offerings for the fall trade, the firm having made even more elaborate preparations than ever before for the coming season.

The offerings will comprise the Agra carpets and art squares, Anglo carpets and art squares, Extra Super Ingrains and art squares, terries, Calmucs, &c. The Ayrshire Extra Supers in all wool and in C. C.'s and the Aleppo carpets and art squares, will be noticeable in the new offerings, which taken altogether will prove the finest ever made in the Albion Mills, and no higher praise could be given to the product of any Ingrain or art square factory.

The line is shown by the manufacturers at their mill, Adams and Jasper streets, Philadelphia, and by T. J. Keveney & Co., sole agents, 903 to 907 Broadway, New York, and 237 Fifth avenue, Chicago; also at 601 Bourse, Philadelphia.

THE GOWING CARPET SEWING MACHINE.

The merits of the Gowing carpet sewing machine have made it especially popular in the carpet workrooms of a great number of dealers. It will sew perfectly every grade of carpet, from the finest Axminster and Wilton to the cheapest Ingrain. It is easy to start and to run. It sews borders and mitres, makes a lap seam of raw edge and selvage, and will make a seam of any depth. It will match the figure perfectly, and will not drop stitches. The new attachment just added will sew Ingrains with overstitch exactly like handwork, and this attachment can be placed on the older machines also.

Write to the Gowing Carpet Sewing Machine Company, 118 South street, Boston, for further particulars.

E. A. Hale, Springfield, Mass., has been appointed New England agent for supplying the wholesale trade with carbolized paper (moth paper). Mr. Hale will carry a large stock and fill orders without delay.

C. B. Ashbridge, manufacturer of Cotton Chain Extra Supers and Unions, 2413 Howard street, Philadelphia, has his new lines ready for the fall trade. His offerings include half wool Union Extras and 10 pair, 8 pair and 6 pair double cottons, and the lines are in all respects the most attractive and important he has ever shown.

PASSAGE OF THE BANKRUPTCY BILL IN THE HOUSE.

OPPOSITION TO IT AMONG SOMF CHICAGO JOBBERS.

The National Bankrupcy bill passed the House of Representatives on the 2d inst., the vote being 187 in favor and 81 against it.

Some of the large jobbing houses at Chicago are endeavoring to defeat the bill and about 100 signatures have been obtained to a petition to the Senate against its passage. The objections to the law as stated by its opponents are : Delay and expense of administration ; tendency to restrict credit and retard prosperity ; non-uniformity because of existing State laws ; no necessity or demand for such legislation by the debtor class, for whose benefit ostensibly the law is framed.

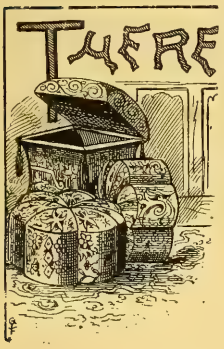
Among the signers of the petition are Marshall Field & Co. and Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co.

On the other hand nearly all the smaller jobbing houses in every line of trade are in favor of the bill. Thomas Davis, credit manager for L. C. Wachsmuth & Co., expresses the intention of circulating a petition favorable to bankruptcy legislation, as he did before when a similar bill was pending in Congress. "In three days," he said, "we will have over 1,000 names on our petition, and I guarantee that for every signature Mr. Higinbotham gets for his petition I will get ten for mine. We will wait until the Senate takes up the bill before going to work, because we want our material fresh and it doesn't take long to get it. Nine out of every ten of the bankers, merchants and manufacturers of this city are in favor of a bankruptcy law. To show what tremendous loss trade is suffering from the absence of a bankruptcy law, I will say that my firm has refused $30,000 in orders this spring which we could have accepted safely under a good bankruptcy law. The reason was that a possibility of preferred creditors made it unsafe for us to risk anything with the firms. The curse of the present conditions is the State laws permitting judgment notes, chattel mortgages, bills of sale and other preferential methods. These things sap the life blood out of commercial confidence."

But there is little probability that the bill will become a law in the present session of Congress. Already the Senate Committee on Judiciary, to whom it was referred, have reported the measure to the Senate, with an amendment striking out all after the enacting clause and substituting the bill heretofore reported to the Senate. The House bill provides for both voluntary and involuntary bankruptcy, and the Senate bill for voluntary bankruptcy only. Business men will regard the Senate bill as simply farcical.

Daniel Currie, proprietor of the Norris Carpet Mills, has long been a conspicuous factor in the Ingrain trade of the country, and his offerings in Extra Supers, Extra Super C. C.'s and Union Ingrains for the coming season are in full keeping with the high reputation of the Norris Mills. The new line embraces a remarkable range of standard and new patterns in every grade, and the designs and colorings are certain to make a very favorable impression on every buyer who sees them. They are on view at the mill and office, Lawrence street and Lehigh avenue, Philadelphia.

CARPETING FOR A MASONIC TEMPLE.



is probably no building in the world devoted exclusively to Masonic purposes that surpasses that which belongs to the order in Philadelphia. The attention paid to the different styles of architecture in which the various rooms are constructed is one of the characteristics of the building, and this feature is carried out in every detail, even down to the color tints on walls and ceilings, so that an Egyptian room or a Moorish room is most emphatically what its name calls for in every particular. The Philadelphia Masonic Temple is built and decorated in the Moorish order of architecture, and the old authorities were consulted thoroughly for every form of design or color used in decorating the walls and ceilings, so that it is a complete and perfect reproduction. The great wonder of the whole work is that such an immense assembly of shades, hues and tints as appears on the walls and ceiling of some of the rooms could be made to harmonize so perfectly.

It was for such a room that McCallum & McCallum were called upon to furnish a carpet that should be in full harmony with the general order of decoration, and they proved themselves competent for the emergency. The floor of the room is constructed after the usual form of Masonic architecture, with a spacious centre and platforms raised one above another surrounding it. This centre space is covered with a magnificent carpet bearing a plain crimson centre with a border 1½ yards wide. The border is of the best quality of Wilton carpet, made at the new Glen Echo Mills, and is a marvel in design and shading. The pattern was specially drawn for the purpose, and the tints are in perfect harmony with those employed on the walls. The centre of the carpet is of mosaic velvet in one piece, the colors being a rare shade of crimson, dyed by John Crossley & Sons from a sample sent out to them by McCallum & McCallum. The upholstering is done in the superior style characteristic of the firm, and is one of the best examples of artistic workmanship of that order in the temple or out of it. The whole affair was under the immediate supervision of Mr. Harry Fricke, manager of the retail department of McCallum & McCallum.

Good's rotary carpet cleaning machine is a device which should receive attention from every dealer who desires to add a profitable branch to his business. The machine does its work perfectly, and is sold at a very reasonable price. Write to the owner, F. H. Good, 942 and 944 North Ninth street, Philadelphia for further particulars.

The Dolphin Jute Mills, Paterson, N. J., are noted for their product of hemp carpets and Napier matting, and the line offered for the fall trade is especially desirable. The mills manufacture also carpet and rug yarns of every description and upholsterers' webbing, of the best quality, at very low prices. Call at the New York office of the mills, 115 Worth street, where the complete line is on view.

A CONVICT LABOR BILL IN CONGRESS.

The House Committee on Labor has ordered a favorable report on the bill of Mr. Southwick, of New York, to restrict the sale of convict made goods to the States in which they are produced. In the course of their report the committee say :

It is not designed by this bill to attempt to interfere in the slightest degree with the right of each State to employ its convicts and to dispose of the products of their labor in any manner or by any system or plan that may appear wisest and best to its citizens. All it seeks to accomplish is to confine the results of the operation of such system, so far as possible, within State lines, and to prevent resulting evils, whether necessary or otherwise, from extending to and injuriously affecting the citizens of those other States which elect to make different disposition of the time and labor of their prisoners.

A COMMERCIAL TOUR TO SOUTH AMERICA.

The National Association of Manufacturers proposes to organize a party of our representative business men for the purpose of visiting the Argentine Republic, Uruguay and Brazil. The object of the tour is to establish more intimate trade relations between the United States and the most important South American nations. Arrangements for the trip are now being made. It will cover the months of July, August and September, which constitute the most comfortable and most pleasant period of the year for such a journey. These months form the southern winter season, when the temperature remains steady around 60° in the Argentine and in Uruguay, and when there is no yellow fever in Brazil. The social season is then in full swing in Rio de Janeiro, Buenos Ayres and Montevideo, and the people can be seen at their best.

It is intended that the party shall sail from New York for Southampton on July 1 at 10 o'clock A. M. by the American Line steamer St. Paul.

Two days after reaching Southampton the party will take the steamer Danube for South America, landing first at Pernambuco, Brazil, proceeding thence to Rio de Janeiro, and from there to Buenos Ayres and thence to Uruguay, returning to New York September 30. Manufacturers or others who desire to join the party can secure further information by addresssing the Bureau of Publicity of the National Association of Manufacturers, 1748 North Fourth street, Philadelphia.

The new 30x60 Japanese rug made by the Lamond & Robertson Company, of Paterson, N. J., is already rivaling the 36x72 size in sales, and the company continue very busy on both sizes. It is an ideal summer rug, closely imitating Japanese matting and particularly adapted to throw on a matting floor. The price is equally attractive and we strongly urge all carpet dealers who have not seen this rug to send for a sample dozen and get prices.

James Furfey, manufacturer of cocoa mats and matting, Cambridgeport, Mass., can offer strong inducements to buyers of such goods, as he shows a large line, and his prices are attractive. W. W. Corson & Co., 564 Washington street, Boston, are New England selling agents for Mr. Furfey. The factory of Mr. Furfey was established in 1848, and his long experience in the trade enables the proprietor to meet its wants in a manner always satisfactory to buyers.

ALEXANDER CROW, JR.

The fall line of Alexander Crow, Jr., is now ready for inspection. It covers all the popular grades made by this experienced manufacturer, and is replete with attractive novelties. Among the grades shown are the Fairmount Extra Supers and Three Plys, including a fine line of halls and stairs, plain terries, half wools and the Caledonia Extra Supers.

The samples are on view at the mills, Twenty-second and Callowhill streets, and at 654 Bourse Building, Philadelphia.

J. W. DIMICK COMPANY.

In the offerings for the fall trade the J. W. Dimick Company will be as usual especially prominent through their extensive plant and long experience in meeting successfully the demands of every class of trade.

They show their well-known grades, embracing Wiltons, Velvets, the patented reversible Brussels Ingrains and a fine assortment of Wilton rugs. In all these grades buyers will find a notable range of new and attractive patterns, and the offerings altogether are the most extensive and desirable ever produced in the company's mills.

They are shown at the New York salesrooms, Constable Building, Fifth avenue and Eighteenth street, and no buyer should fail to see them.

WOOL MERCHANTS FAIL.

George, Austin W., Wm. J., Edgar A. and Albert G. Follett, composing the firm of George Follett & Co., wool merchants, whose offices are in the new Wool Exchange Building on West Broadway, with a branch in Boston, made an assignment on the 4th inst. to Milton I. Southard without preference. The assignment includes their interest in an undivided half of the Windemere Mill property, in the town of Ellington, Mass., which comprises a woolen mill, twenty acres of land and twenty-eight tenement houses. W. J. Follett resides at Newton, Mass., Albert G. in this city, and the other three partners in Brooklyn. The business was established thirty years ago by G. & A. W. Follett, who went through bankruptcy, it is said, in 1874, afterward built up a large business, and claimed a capital of $100,000.

Elsewhere A. A. Vantine & Co. make some very attractive offerings in Japanese jute rugs, running as low as 5½ cents in bale lots.

BROOMS CAUSE SPROUTING.

Geo. B. Hegan, manager of a carpet department in St. John, N. B., relates the following test of the action of a carpet sweeper and an ordinary broom on a Tapestry carpet. Mr. Hegan says :

"I took an end of Tapestry carpet, cut it in two and tacked it on separate boards. One was marked 'Broom' and the other 'Bissell Carpet Sweeper.' For eight days I swept them three times a day (an equal length of time), with the following result : The piece on which I used the 'Bissell' was as fresh and clean as ever, while the one swept by a 'broom' was covered with a 'fluff' and had a hairy appearance, and threads of the carpet were pulled up in many places. It also had a blurred look, and would require a miniature lawn mower to cut it down. Many people have complained of 'sprouting carpets,' and I think at last I have discovered the cause. I have also made a similar test with Brussels carpet, and the result is the same."

SMYRNA RUGS FROM VINELAND.

The fall offerings of Thos. Hirst, manufacturer of Smyrna carpets and rugs at Vineland, N. J., are ready for inspection, and comprise several new patterns of a character to greatly enhance the reputation of Mr. Hirst as a producer of good sellers. It should be remembered that he now offers two grades, the "Regal" brand, his original standard quality, which he has always adhered to, and the new "Hustler" brand, a grade brought out to meet the demand for a low priced Smyrna ; and that Mr. Hirst has succeeded in satisfying this demand can be easily proved by inspecting the patterns and quality and obtaining quotations. The "Regal" brand is made in all sizes of rugs and carpets up to 9x12 feet, the production of carpet sizes being a new feature with Mr. Hirst this spring. The complete line of new samples is shown at the New York office, 337 Broadway, in charge of C. W. Bogert, and mail inquiries to either the New York or Vineland address will bring the fall quotations—figures that will interest all careful buyers.

SCHOFIELD, MASON & CO.

The fall offerings of the Delaware Carpet Mills, Schofield, Mason & Co., proprietors, are now shown at the mills, Cumberland street, near Fifth street, Philadelphia ; at their New York office, 108 Worth street, and by Arnold, Constable & Co., New York ; by W. W. Corson & Co., Boston, who are the New England agents ; by W. K. Smith, who represents the firm at Chicago and in the Northwest, and at San Francisco by Field & Mackie, as agents for Arnold, Constable & Co.

The new line comprises Wiltons and Body Brussels, and the offerings are well calculated to maintain and even enhance the enviable reputation which Messrs. Schofield, Mason & Co. have so long held in these departments of the carpet trade. Buyers expect to find the lines of Delaware Mills Wiltons and Brussels replete with choice original novelties in designs and colorings, and these expectations will be most fully justified in the new lines now on view.

William Morris' floor oil cloth works at Salem, N. J., were started again on the 11th inst. and are running with a full force of hands.

OBITUARY NOTES.

William Hunter, petty cashier in Sheppard Knapp & Co.'s, New York, died of consumption on the 8th inst.

James Luther, formerly a traveling salesman for the J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company, died on the 18th ult. He was the father of John S. Luther, of the firm of Drake & Co., Keokuk, Ia.

Peter J. Keegan, who had been employed in the office of Darragh & Smail, New York, for the past fifteen years, died on the 1st inst. Mr. Keegan was a nephew of the late James Darragh.

James Rodman, of J. L. Rodman & Sons, dry goods and carpet dealers, Frankfort, Ky., died suddenly on the 2d inst. of heart trouble. He was forty-five years old and prominent in business and social circles.

James S. Rice, dealer in carpets and furniture, at 406 Eighth avenue, New York, died on May 1 at the age of thirty-nine. He was widely known in Irish circles, having until recently been treasurer of the Irish Independent Parliamentary fund, one of the founders of the National Club, and connected with many benevolent and religious societies.

August Hoffman, who had for years been identified with the dry goods business in New Orleans, died there on the 28th ult., aged seventy-five years. He was born in New Orleans, and entered the dry goods business at the age of sixteen. He connected himself with D. H. Holmes in 1854. Devoted to his family and his business, Mr. Hoffman had little or no connection with social or public organizations. He was, however, of a very charitable disposition, constantly seeking to aid the unfortunate in as unostentatious a manner as possible. He was a widower and leaves eight children.

It is our sad duty to announce to the trade the death of Harry E. Oliver, so well and favorably known as the president and treasurer of the New York Law and Collection Company and manager of the National Furniture Association. This announcement will come as a severe shock to those who have had the privilege of business intercourse with Mr. Oliver, which invariably meant sincere friendship and admiration for him as a man and deep appreciation of his pre-eminent business ability. His untimely death is keenly mourned by his associates and subordinates in the office, who were the daily recipients of many kindnesses which only a man of Mr. Oliver's kindly heart and generous mind could dispense. On April 27 the decedent was stricken with pneumonia, and after five days of acute suffering he expired May 3. He leaves a widow and five small children, who lose, by his death, an unusually devoted husband and father.—Daily Furniture Bulletin.

Warner Weiland, manufacturer of Extra Supers and lower grades of Ingrains, at Kensington avenue and Old Front street (near Frankford), Philadelphia, will be ready for the coming season with a full line of new and desirable styles.

George Haller, manufacturer of Smyrna rugs, mats and carpets, shows his new line for the fall trade at his office, 2216 Holman street, Philadelphia, and it is one notable for handsome, novel patterns, which are certain to prove quick sellers. Mr. Haller knows what the trade wants, and has every facility for supplying it.

KIDDERMINSTER NEWS.

THE Kidderminster Shuttle of the 2d inst. has the following items relating to carpet men :

M. B. Nairn, the well-known linoleum manufacturer and donor of the Kirkcaldy Institution, is about to enlarge the Cottage Hospital at his own expense.

Charles Lowe, of James Humphries & Sons, Limited, started on his spring journey to the United States and Canada on Saturday last by the Lucania, Cunard line, from Liverpool to New York.

Bernard Eck, representative of T. Bond Worth & Son, Stourport, sails for the United States and Canada on Wednesday next from Liverpool to New York, by the Teutonic, White Star line.

R. M. Ransom, representative of the Carpet Manufacturing Company (E. Morton & Son), leaves England to-day for the United States and Canada by the Etruria, Cunard line, from Liverpool to New York.

J. B. Creighton has been appointed to succeed the late John Miller as representative in the United States and Canada of Cook, Sons & Co., 12 Friday street, London. Mr. Creighton made the first trip for the house by the Majestic about a fortnight since.

Thomas Bond Worth & Son, of the Severn Valley Mills, Stourport, have converted their firm into a private limited company, under the style of "Thomas Bond Worth & Sons, Limited." Mr. H. Perrin and Mr. B. Eck, who have been with them for many years, are admitted to the directorate. The change is made entirely for family reasons, and makes no difference in the manner of carrying on the business.

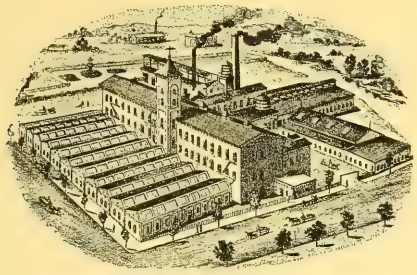
THE Chicago Hassock Company, 47 West Van Buren street, Chicago, can offer strong inducements to Western buyers, and call particular attention to the extent of their line and the lowness of their prices. The trade can secure the company's catalogue for 1896 by writing for it.

MOUNT HOLLY MILLS DESTROYED BY FIRE.

A disastrous fire broke out in the large Brussels mills at Mount Holly, N. J., operated by C. H. Masland & Sons, at 1:30 p. m. on the 11th inst. It took four hours' hard work by the Mount Holly fire department, aided by additional apparatus and firemen from Camden and Burlington, N. J., to obtain control of the flames, which destroyed the main mill, a large weave shed and part of the dry and dye house buildings. The stock house, a small weave shed and part of the dye house were saved.

The flames started in the drying room, and in a few minutes the fiery elements had full control. There were over 200 employees in the mills, all of whom escaped safely. Special efforts were made to save the storeroom, which were successful.

The property was owned by W. & J. Sloane, who had insurance of $125,000 on the buildings and machinery. C. H. Masland & Sons operated the plant under some arrangement with W. & J. Sloane, and had an insurance of $49,500 upon the stock.



THE MOUNT HOLLY MILLS DESTROYED BY FIRE MAY 11.

The fire occurred at a most inopportune time for both the Messrs. Masland and the Messrs. Sloane, as the new fall lines were about completed and all preparations made for commencing the fall business.

The Mount Holly mills have had a most unfortunate career in the carpet business. The original plant had been erected for another textile business, which was finally closed up, and the buildings remained unoccupied for a long time. Wm. E. Montague, previously an Ingrain manufacturer in Philadelphia, organized the Mount Holly Mills Company, purchased the buildings and started an Ingrain and spinning plant therein in 1889. This venture did not prove a success, and the concern was wound up by a receiver in 1891. After this the property was purchased by a new concern organized by James Dunlap and known as the Burlington Carpet Company, the larger part of the capital being supplied by W. & J. Sloane. The Burlington Carpet Company bought the Brussels plants of John Bromley & Sons, Rowland & Schmidt and others, and commenced the manufacture of Wiltons, Brussels and printed Tapestry carpets. The troubles which eventually wound up the Burlington Carpet Company are well known to our readers and the Burlington Company went into the hands of a receiver in September, 1894. At the receiver's sale the property was purchased by W. & J. Sloane for $100,100 and after remaining idle for some months the latter firm leased the mills to C. H. Masland & Sons, who started up the Brussels looms early last fall. The productions were known as "Amber" and "Masland" Brussels and were sold through W. & J. Sloane during the past season.

The cost of the property to W. & J. Sloane was a great many thousands of dollars more than the $100,100 paid for it at the receiver's sale, as they held $335,000 of the $400,000 in bonds issued by the Burlington Carpet Company.

To the inquiries of a Review reporter on the 13th ult., W. & J. Sloane answered that they had not had time since the fire to arrive at any conclusion regarding the future of the plant.

They thought, however, that they would have a line of Brussels for the fall trade. The loss, they said, was considerably larger than the insurance.

ADVANCE ON SANFORD'S EXTRA TAPESTRIES.

The following circular has been issued and is in unison with the previous advances made by the Alex. Smith & Sons Carpet Company and the E. S. Higgins Carpet Company:

Amsterdam, N. Y., May 1, 1896.

We beg to advise you that the price of Extra Tapestries is this day advanced 2½ cents per yard, to take effect on all orders on our books on July 1 next.

The prices now current will continue until that time.

S. Sanford & Sons.

LOWELL PRICE LIST UNCHANGED.

As we go to press the Lowell Company announce that their new price list will be the same as the old one, prices of Lowell Wiltons, Brussels and Ingrains remaining unchanged.

Several parcels of valuable real estate will be sold at the New York Real Estate Salesroom, 111 Broadway, on the 27th inst., to settle the estate of the late J. W. Dimick. The sale will include the building at 268 and 270 Canal street, formerly occupied by J. W. Dimick's carpet business.

The M. A. Furbush & Son Machine Company show on page 103 a cut of their latest improved Smyrna rug loom for weft weaving. This loom is supplied with a needle motion and is used by the leading rug manufacturers. They also make a loom for weaving the patterns of Smyrna rugs and will be pleased to send full information on these looms, as well as on their fast running Murkland Ingrain loom, on application to 224 Market street, Philadelphia.

The specialties in low price carpets made by Robert Cleeland's Sons are attractions to interest all buyers. Besides the Cleeland rag carpets, which are unsurpassed for quality and appearance, the Messrs. Cleeland are now making several exclusive fabrics at low prices. Among these are the Rovecot Brussels, a 3-4 wide carpeting in printed Brussels effects; Art Carpet, a somewhat similar fabric, is 4-4 width; novelties imitating rag carpets and straw matting, and Dundee carpets. Some of these are goods at 20 cents and under per yard, and will find a ready sale throughout the country, while any dealer handling rag carpet should not be without the Cleeland make. The office and mill of Robert Cleeland's Sons are at 1107 to 1111 Ohio street, south of Pine street, Philadelphia.

Pate & Willis, Hawkinsville, Ga., say that they intend to close out their business in that city and also in their branch stores at Valdosta and Vienna.

Kohn Brothers, Fostoria, Ohio, whose store was closed by their creditors a short time ago, have effected a settlement and will probably resume business.

Gately & Hurley, Camden, N. J., gave a reception to their thirty employees on the night of the 29th ult. The floor of the carpet department was utilized for dancing.

White Brothers, dry goods and carpet dealers, Greenfield, Mass., have "agreed to disagree," and have applied for the appointment of a receiver. The firm is perfectly solvent.

J. Noonan, San Francisco, Cal., will have a new building to replace the one recently destroyed by fire. The new structure will have a frontage of 100 feet, and will be three stories in height.

George F. Taylor succeeds Taylor & McGrau in the carpet and furniture business at Sandy Hook, Conn., and Fuller & Co. succeed F. C. Nutter in dry goods and carpets at Bridgewater, Mass.

N. O. Johnson & Sons, dry goods and carpet dealers, Colorado Springs, Col., who have a big branch store at Cripple Creek, were sufferers by the recent conflagration in that well-known mining town.

J. Frank Puffer, doing business under the name of J. F. Puffer & Son, carpets and furniture, Lowell, Mass., has filed a petition in insolvency. The liabilities are stated at $60,000, and an offer is made of 20 per cent.

F. Schneider & Son, of Bergline avenue, Union Hill, N. J., an old-established housefurnishing, hardware and carpet business, are having erected a new building on the same street, to be ready for occupancy next September.

The Talbot, Cockroft & Harvey Carpet Company is a new carpet manufacturing concern at Ontario, Canada, with a capital of $99,000. The incorporators are W. Talbot, E. Cockroft, James Harvey, C. H. Riches and John Hamilton.

The Austin (Minn.) Furniture Company has had prepared plans for the erection of a substantial new brick building facing on Mill street, on the vacant lot just west of the West Block. It will be 21 feet wide, two stories high, and will run the full depth of the lot, the rear connecting with the present quarters of the Austin Furniture Company. The building will, it is understood, be erected for the purpose of rental, though the company may decide to occupy the first floor or a portion of it.

Two four story brick buildings on Pearl street, Buffalo, N. Y., were gutted by fire on the night of the 4th inst. Loss, $150,000; fully covered by insurance. One of the buildings was occupied by the William Hengerer Company as its bicycle department.

L. McF. Scott has retired from the dry goods and carpet firm of B. C. Taber & Co., Norwalk, Ohio, of which he has been the junior partner for the past nine years. He is succeeded by T. C. and W. P. Taber, sons of the head of the firm.

W. A. McNaughton, who recently bought the O. A. Johnson dry goods and carpet stock at Muncie, Ind., has leased a portion of a large new building now in course of construction there, and will stock it with a large line of new goods. It is expected that the formal opening of the new store will take place about July 1.

E. Klein & Co., dealers in dry goods, carpets, &c., Buffalo, N. Y., have recently taken possession of a new addition to their store. It is 100 feet in length, giving the firm a continuous store 200 feet long, extending directly through from Main to Washington street. The new addition is fitted up in an attractive style, with all modern improvements.

T. Denelsky, carpet and furniture dealer at Des Moines, Ia., gave a chattel mortgage on April 29 for $800 to M. Rubens. This was followed shortly afterward by another chattel mortgage for $450 to C. Cohen. Subsequently another chattel mortgage for $227 was given to the Schmidt & Henry Manufacturing Company. L. Harbach got out an attachment to secure payment of $100 due him for goods furnished Denelsky.

The stores at 24 and 26 Fairfield avenue, Bridgeport, Conn., now occupied by George B. Clark & Co., who only recently started in business, have been occupied by furniture firms for many years. But there are many changes in the store since it was occupied by the predecessors of the present firm. It formerly had a double door in the centre, but a new front gives the store a larger display window and only one door at the side. The new firm occupies the entire building, or four floors and a basement. The first floor is the carpet, oil cloth and drapery department. The second floor is devoted to chamber furniture, chairs, sideboards, &c. The third floor contains the parlor furniture, desks, bookcases, &c., and the fourth floor is for the display of bedding.

At a meeting of the creditors of Wm. E. Carpenter, carpets, furniture, &c., Gardner, Mass., held recently, a majority of the creditors were either present or represented. Mr. Carpenter made a statement of his assets and liabilities, in which he claimed that he had taken recent account of stock and placed a value upon it which he thought he could realize if allowed to close it out or to continue: Business, $7,365; farm, $600; leases and accounts, $6,311; cash, $600; total, $14,342. Liabilities secured, $6,673; unsecured, $7,854; total, $14,527. Mr. Carpenter made a proposition to pay 25 cents on the dollar, but the creditors present were not ready to accept such a proposition, and while they expressed themselves as believing fully in Mr. Carpenter's honesty and integrity, they thought he ought to be able to pay 50 cents on the dollar. They appointed a committee of three to investigate and report at a subsequent meeting of the creditors.

FOUR THINGS YOU NEED.

FOUR good things in any carpet dealer's stock are Potter's inlaid linoleum, linoleum, cork carpet and floor oil cloth. They are a part of a carpet dealer's stock that is always good, because the patterns and quality make them quick sellers, and therefore the kind of goods that always give a profit. The fall assortment of patterns contains more than the usual portion of entirely new effects, treatments in design and coloring that originated with this firm and that will keep their line in the front for marked individuality and beauty. The success of their inlaid linoleum since its first introduction in the market only a few months ago has been remarkable, and we can call to mind few instances in the trade where a new make of goods has established a successful reputation in so short a time. Complete fall lines are on view at the Philadelphia, New York and Boston salesrooms, and will shortly be shown on the road.

N. Y. B. AND P. CO.'S NEW STORE.

THE New York Belting and Packing Company, Limited, has removed from No. 15 Park row to No. 25 Park place and No. 22 Murray street. The new store is located in the centre of the business district, only two blocks away from the old building. Extending entirely through from Park place to Murray street, the building is spacious, well lighted and systematically arranged. The entrance is on Park place, the Murray street side being reserved entirely for shipping purposes.

The company are widely known in the carpet trade as manufacturers of an extensive line of rubber mats and matting in desirable styles which are quick sellers and always give satisfaction. The line for the fall season is now on view in the company's new quarters, and should be seen by every dealer who handles rubber mats and matting.

COLUMBIA MILLS INGRAINS.

WM. HENDERSON, of Fifth street and Columbia avenue, Philadelphia, has long since established himself as one of the most progressive and reliable manufacturers in Philadelphia. He is thoroughly up to date in the styles of his goods, as well as in his business methods, and in any condition of trade his productions will be found moving as freely as those of any other manufacturer. He shows an unusually strong collection of new patterns in Acme Ingrains, which are made from pure stock and are extra heavy weight; Columbia Extra Supers, an always standard and reliable make of all wool Extras; Columbia C. C. Extra Supers, Columbia Brussels, Unions and ten pair cottons. Every grade is in complete readiness for fall and the Columbia Mills assortment is a line that it should be the duty of every buyer to inspect.

"OUR BEST," the new carpet sweeper brought out by the Goshen Sweeper Company, is a great success. The salient feature of this sweeper is that when the handle is raised the brush is lowered, and at the same time a broom action is obtained through the pressure of the rubber brush roll. Write to the Goshen Company, Grand Rapids, Mich., for further particulars.

HARRISON MILLS INGRAINS.

Wm. Judge & Brothers, Columbia avenue and Leib street, Philadelphia, are big manufacturers of Ingrains from Three Plys down to Unions, and during their long career as manufacturers they have always supplied goods as represented and given best values. This is the feature of their offerings to-day, only to an even greater extent in the matter of value. Their fall line is up to the most exacting mark in novelty and latest effects, and as the styles are their own, buyers can find something different in the line from that seen elsewhere.

In another column the Southern Railway "Piedmont Air Line" invites the attention of the business public to its two fast limited trains from New York to the South, Southeast and Southwest, which run to New York in 39 hours, Jacksonville 28, Birmingham 31, and Atlanta 23.

Exports of carpeting and kindred goods during the past fortnight were as follows : Carpeting—Southampton, 86 bls., $2,578 ; Glasgow, 128 rolls, $1,405 ; Hamburg, 57 bls., $1,626 ; Liverpool, 38 bls., $,031 ; Nova Scotia, 22 rolls, $673 ; Manchester, 20 rolls, $372 ; Rotterdam, 6 bls., $205 ; Dutch West Indies, 4 bls., $145. Carpet Sweepers —Hamburg, 47 cs., $717 ; Brussels, 12 cs., $192 ; British Africa, 1 cs., $21 ; New Zealand, 2 cs., $32 ; British Australia, 1 cs., $21.

R. C. Haskell & Co.'s reputation as manufacturers of floor oil cloths is a guarantee that their semi-annual offerings will meet the demands of the most fastidious buyers, and the new line shown by this firm for the coming season will more than justify such expectations. The goods are made as usual in sheets 9, 12, 15 and 18 feet wide and the wide range of patterns embraces the choicest effects possible in floor oil cloth manufacture. The line will be shown on the road by Mr. Chas. S. Holmes, of the firm.

Henry Holmes, the Ingrain and Art Square manufacturer, has fortified himself with an assortment of fall patterns that should cause a repetition of the large orders received on his spring line. His goods have demonstrated their great selling and profit bringing qualities for the handlers, and that he has retained some of the profit himself is all the better evidence that he is in a position to give the best values to his customers. His new line is on view at the mill, Trenton avenue and Auburn street, Philadelphia ; at the Philadelphia Bourse, and is shown by Blake Brothers, 108 Worth street, New York.

GLOBE MILLS EXTRAS.

Thos. Huston & Co., manufacturers of the Globe Mills Extra Supers, are believers in a single standard and their goods are a proper exemplification of sound money. They have adhered to the single and best standard in Extra Super carpets so long, and as everyone admits their Extras are top grade, it seems like attesting to the virtue of Caesar's wife to remind the trade of the superior qualities of Globe Mills products. If the quality doesn't change the styles do, and hence it is in place to call attention to the fact that buyers will find a pleasing difference in the new fall patterns as compared with last season's showing. Good stock means the best colorings, so the new line brings out to perfection the latest shades, and the designs are original and of a particularly novel character. You can see them at Trenton avenue and Dauphin street, Philadelphia.

Wm. F. Carroll, treasurer of the New York and Amsterdam Carpet Company, will sail from San Francisco on the 20th or 28th inst. for China and Japan, to purchase mattings for next season.

P. J. Murphy & Co., Camden, N. J., the floor oil cloth manufacturers, are out with their new fall line of oil cloths and rugs, and as usual have paid particular attention to producing effects that will be popular sellers. The standard quality of Murphy & Co.'s oil cloths will be maintained as in the past.

The D. Walker Manufacturing Company, 236 Bank street, Newark, N. J.. offer for the fall trade their noted stair carpet grips, stair rods and stair buttons, which have already won wide popularity, and should be represented in the stock of every retail dealer. Write to the company for their catalogue and price list.

The New York Belting and Packing Company, 25 Park place, New York, are extensive manufacturers of rubber mats and matting, rubber hose and other rubber goods. Their mats and matting have a high reputation in the carpet trade, being especially salable and attractive. Write to them for price lists and other particulars.

The Bissell Carpet Sweeper Company has just completed its line of small sweepers, which seems to fill the bill for anything wanted in the line of toy sweepers or a hearth brush. The new brand styled "Bissell's Little Jewel" is not only intended for a dollar toy, but is a practical hearth brush, and is sold quite generally in the housefurnishing departments. "Bissell's Child's" sweeper is a practical toy in every respect, well made, nicely finished and intended for a 75 cent article. "Bissell's Baby" sweeper is a trifle smaller, but of the same construction as the "Child's," and is intended for a 50 cent article. Dealers are advised to write to the Bissell Carpet Sweeper Company for prices on this new line.

BEUTTELL.—Henry Beuttell, American representative of John Crossley & Sons, Limited, Halifax, arrived from Europe on the Etruria May 9.

BONIFACE.—L. J. Boniface, who has been associated with the late H. E. Oliver in the management of the New York end of the National Furniture Association (M. D. Talcott) for the past ten years, has been appointed manager of the local business, succeeding Mr. Oliver.

BOYD.—John Boyd, matting buyer for Joseph Wild & Co., arrived at Yokohama, Japan, on the 11th inst.

CLARK.—Geo. C. Clark, of the firm of Tefft, Weller & Co., has recovered from his recent illness.

EWALD.—J. G. Ewald, late with John Mullins & Sons, has started out for himself in carpets and furniture at 541 Newark avenue, Jersey City.

FITZGERALD.—J. B. FitzGerald, vice-president of the E. S. Higgins Carpet Company, while attempting to board a street car on the night of the 12th inst. was struck by a passing butcher's cart and narrowly escaped serious injury, the bones of his right hand being broken. We are glad to learn that he is now able to be at his desk as usual.

GARRETT.—E. D. Garrett, of Galveston, Tex., in a recent competition secured the order to furnish the big Beach Hotel with all its Velvet and Body Brussels carpets, matting, table linen, &c. It will be one of the handsomest hotels in the South located on the beach of the Gulf of Mexico. Mr. Garrett was in the market buying goods early in the month.

GRAHAM.—T. L. Graham, formerly with the old Central Table Oil Cloth Company, of Plainfield, N. J., has been appointed superintendent of Joseph Wild & Co.'s table oil cloth works at Astoria, New York city, in place of Alexander D. Buchanan, deceased.

GRASMANN.—Frederick Grasmann, of 1065 Broadway, Brooklyn, has the sympathy of his friends in his bereavement by the death of his wife, which occurred May 6.

HAWKINS—LESTER.—Walter S. Hawkins, president and general manager of the Worcester (Mass.) Furniture Company, and Miss Jennie P. Lester were married on the 29th ult.

HECHT—HINTON.—E. Hecht, of Samuel Hecht, Jr., & Sons, Baltimore, and Mr. Hinton were busy among the Philadelphia mills this week, making fall selections for their enlarged wholesale business.

ISAACS.—Marks Isaacs, of the firm of Kaufman & Isaacs, dealers in dry goods, carpets, mattings, &c., New Orleans, sailed for Europe on the 5th inst. per steamship Columbia.

JORDAN.—M. H. Jordan, recently Chicago representative for W. & J. Sloane, arrived in New York on the 11th inst., and has consummated an engagement with Reune Martin & Sons, agents for the Hartford Carpet Company, to represent them in Chicago, the West and Southwest. He will have an office in Chicago, the location of which will be announced in our next number; meanwhile, he can be found at Room 704 Champlain Building. Both parties in this new connection are to be congratulated, as the Messrs. Martin have secured one of the very best carpet sellers, and Mr. Jordan has one of the most important lines in the country. He will show the complete line of fall samples about June 1.

KEELER.—P. J. Keeler, the Pacific Coast carpet commission merchant, has been in Philadelphia for the past fortnight, arranging his samples for the fall season. Mr. Keeler will commence his fall trip from Denver at about the usual time and will have stronger attractions in carpetings than ever before.

KENNARD.—Samuel M. Kennard, of the J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company, St. Louis, was in town this week, and left Wednesday, 13th, for a few days' visit to Philadelphia. In THE REVIEW of December 15 the following item appeared:

"We never have hot weather in St. Louis."
—S. M. KENNARD.

The Republican National Committee met at Washington, D. C., on the 10th inst. and selected St. Louis as the place for the convention for nominating the Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates, and the time June 16, 1896. "Sam" M. Kennard, of the J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company, was a member of the delegation representing that city, and gave his word to the committee that the stories about the hot weather in St. Louis were political canards. "I have lived there forty years," he said, "and never knew a real hot summer." This was received with a shout of laughter, which grew louder when he assured the committee that all the hot weather passed St. Louis and went North. This statement of Mr. Kennard's is probably due to the fact that he spends the best portion of the summer in and about New York buying carpets and listening to Sousa's Band on Manhattan Beach.

From present appearances Mr. Kennard will probably find in St. Louis next month the hottest weather known there since 1862.

LINCOLN.—Geo. M. Lincoln has resigned his position with T. B. Shoaff & Co. and will leave June 1.

MATTHEWS.—The eighty-seventh birthday of Axel D. Matthews, senior member of the firm of A. D. Matthews & Sons, Brooklyn, was celebrated on the 29th ult. by a family reunion at the home of Mr. Matthews.

MCELWEE.—William McElwee, carpet and furniture dealer, Wilmington, Del., who has been confined to his home for some time by illness, is reported improving.

PEARSON.—James Pearson, a brother of Charles Pearson, of Joseph Wild & Co., is in the wool business in Halifax, England. He visited this country in the centennial year of 1876, and is now on a business and pleasure trip through the States and Canada, accompanied by his wife and son.

ROUSS.—Chas. Broadway Rouss, the Broadway dry goods and carpet jobber, who became blind recently, offers to give $1,000,000 to any man who will restore his sight.

SANFORD.—Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Sanford and Mr. and Mrs. John Sanford sail for Europe on the 20th inst.

SMITH.—Clifford Smith, of S. Sanford & Son's selling force, can draw a violin bow with grace and most tuneful results. He is president and first violinist of the Amicitia Orchestral Club, an amateur organization that has attained a high standing in the musical world of New York. The club gave an invitation concert at Chickering Hall on the evening of the 12th inst., and Mr. Smith made his many friends present proud of him through his artistic rendition of his part. The Amicitia is the only amateur society in the country comprising all the instruments requisite for a symphonic orchestra.

TRELOAR.—Walter H. Treloar has been in Philadelphia this week arranging his samples of Thos. Develon's Sons Ingrains, which firm he will represent in Chicago and tributary territory.

WETHERBEE.—Mr. E. H. Wetherbee, of Arnold, Constable & Co., says that present appearances indicate that the spring retail trade throughout the country will be much more satisfactory than was expected a fortnight ago.

WILLIAMS.—H. P. Williams has been having a severe wrestle with an obstinate attack of rheumatism, and has been confined to the house for a couple of weeks past.

THE jobbing buyers in the market will find it worth while to call upon the R. T. Palmer Company, 113 Worth street, and obtain their quotations on carpet linings. The company say they are ready to prove to any buyer the correctness of their statements that they are in a position to supply the market with carpet linings at a saving of 20 per cent., through better terms and discounts than have been offered heretofore. The company is a large and responsible concern, and its statements call for consideration by all buyers.

BROMLEY BROTHERS CARPET COMPANY.

A line that has assumed a commanding position in the eyes of discerning buyers is that of the Bromley Brothers Carpet Company. Among those manufacturers selling directly to the trade none have done so more successfully than this company, because they have carefully and conscientiously catered to the wants of the dealers who come in contact with the consumer. That their line so well suits the retailer is all the more in its favor toward suiting the jobber, and the Bromley Company are happy to retain with mutual satisfaction a list of valued jobbing customers.

The introduction of exclusive novelties in Ingrains, Art Squares and rugs is a leading feature of the fall line, which is completed and ready for inspection at the mill, York and Jasper streets, Philadelphia, and at the New York office, 110 Worth street.

Promptness is one of the virtues adhered to by Ivins, Dietz & Magee in their cut order department. If you don't carry any of the fine goods samples from this house, grades up to the best Wiltons and Axminsters, write to them at 1220 Market street, Philadelphia.

The D. Walker Manufacturing Company, 236 Bank street, Newark, N. J., are continually getting out new patterns in stair carpet grips, stair rods and stair buttons. As they manufacture only special goods not produced by anyone else, it behooves the trade to always consult them on stair carpet fastenings.

H. H. Taylor, 617 Bryant avenue, North, Minneapolis, Minn., manufactures very attractive lines of rugs, carpets, hassocks and silk curtains, and can offer very strong inducements to the trade. Mr. Taylor will open the fall season with new and well varied lines, which are certain to make a favorable impression on the trade.

The Excelsior Carpet Exhibiting Stand for displaying carpets by samples, which was referred to in our last issue, has brought forth orders and numerous inquiries from the trade throughout the country. This is not surprising in view of the purely nominal cost of a fixture that is valuable in any carpet store. It provides a most convenient method for both the seller and buyer for displaying carpets, besides keeping samples clean and smooth and saving stock from damage. The price is only $5, and we strongly recommend every carpet dealer to order one or more of these stands from the manufacturer, H. Wonderlich, 305 and 307 North Eighth street, Philadelphia.

Yardum Brothers & Co., 339 Broadway, New York, the Oriental rug importers, report an improving trade in their goods. New importations, especially in the smaller rugs, will arrive shortly, and the firm desire to emphasize the fact that their quotations cannot be beaten on even quality. A trial of their goods will convince buyers of their reliable dealings and representations. Armen Yardum, who has been looking after the Pittsburg store, will be at the New York salesroom next week, and it is probable that H. B. Yardum will leave for Constantinople very shortly.

REEVE'S FLOOR OIL CLOTHS.

For something new in floor oil cloth patterns and standard of quality and finish the goods of R. H. & B. C. Reeve will interest buyers for the fall season to a greater extent than ever. This firm's output has made big strides in the trade's favor, during the past few years especially, primarily because Mr. A. H. Reeve is enthusiastic in his business and is giving to the manufacturing end his whole attention and daily care.

The firm's patterns are firmly established as free sellers and as examples of the modern idea in floor cloth effects.

The showing in fall styles is another big step forward, and a keeping up with the times on the part of a buyer certainly means an inspection of the line at the salesrooms of W. & J. Sloane, the sole agents.

Some idea of the perfection attained in the coloring of oil cloth rugs can be obtained from the colored plate in this number of The Review showing one of the firm's new rug patterns.

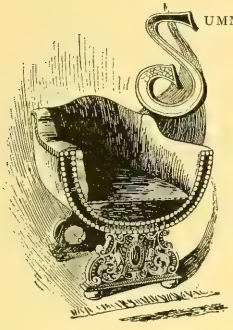
Keefer & Coon, Philadelphia, have an elegant assortment of Ingrains from the heavy patent Migre and Angora weaves down to 7 and 8 pair Cottons. Their fall line will certainly command their usual share of trade, and it is worth while for buyers who are not handling the goods to see the assortment before placing fall orders.

As sole agents for the Hamilton Mills, J. H. Hamilton & Co. show at their New York office, 275 Church street, their usual large line of carpet bindings, mattress, Petersham and oil cloth bindings, mitre bindings, webbings, braided shade cords, bale cords, worsted and wire picture cords, rug fringes, shade fringes, &c. Every demand of the trade in such goods can be met satisfactorily by Hamilton & Co.

The statement made in our last issue regarding the changes in Boyd, Harley & Co.'s business covers all the positive information that can be given regarding the matter up to date. The firm are carrying out their decision to largely reduce their jobbing business and confine it to a restricted territory. Their cut order department, which has been eminently successful, will be continued and enlarged, and it is doubtless settled that they will also do retailing at their present quarters, 1122 Market street, Philadelphia. The report that Milton Harley, of the firm, will connect himself with a New York commission house is not confirmed, and that gentleman states that he is not ready to announce his future plans.

Chas. B. Fritz, of the firm of Fritz, La Rue & Sinn, Philadelphia, arrived home from Turkey the first week in the month. He secured the largest and finest stock of Oriental rugs the house has ever offered, which goods will shortly be on view at the firm's handsome and spacious warerooms, 1128 and 1130 Market street, Philadelphia. It will be remembered that the firm moved into these new quarters about the first of the year, with a view of enlarging their business, and Mr. Fritz's trip abroad was to obtain a stock of size and assortment in keeping with the large space they devote to the Oriental rug business. As their specialty is selling to the trade, it will be advisable for every buyer of Oriental rugs to inspect their new goods and also their lines of goatskin rugs.

IN THE UPHOLSTERY MARKET.



SUMMER vacation is on in the drapery trade and dullness will reign supreme from now till the 1st of June, when the advance guard of buyers will put in its appearance. Stock taking will fill up the time till the opening of the season.

Among local retailers business has been very good during the fortnight, but it has been confined mainly to cotton goods, slip covers, cretonnes, chintzes and such articles as go to make up what are known as country house furnishings. There is no longer any heavy spring trade in New York. Retail business in the East generally has been good, the extremely hot weather of last week having pushed trade ahead further than usual at this season.

The lace curtain importers and manufacturers are considering the subject of restricting datings, which evil is becoming too great a burden with them as well as with wholesalers in other branches. The carpet, upholstery and window shade manufacturers have already adopted uniform rules on dating.

A RECENT decision of the Acting Attorney General seems to give to importers the right to abandon their goods to the Government when abandonment is less costly than the payment of charges, whether the goods are damaged or not. This is the opinion rendered by the Department of Justice in response to a request from the Secretary of the Treasury, in a case where a firm receiving a miscellaneous invoice desired to abandon a quantity of cigarettes because of the high duty levied upon them under existing law. The proposition to abandon the goods was made under Section 23 of the Administrative Tariff act of 1890, which relates chiefly to damaged goods and requires action within ten days after entry. The Acting Attorney General, in passing upon the inquiry, said: "You ask me whether an importer of a lot of goods, no part of which is damaged, may be relieved from the payment of the duties on any portion (not less than 10 per centum in value or quantity) of this invoice, by abandoning it to the United States. In my opinion the operation of this section is not confined to damaged goods. Your question is therefore answered in the affirmative."

DUTY ON MADRAS MUSLINS.—In the case of Young, Smyth & Field against the collector at Philadelphia the Board of General Appraisers decided as follows:

The merchandise consists of open and fancy cotton cloths, known variously as Madras muslin, figured muslin and spot muslin, some of which are bleached and ornamented with figures of various designs produced in the process of weaving, and composed of threads of different colors; and some are tinted and colored, and have white or bleached figures woven therein.

They were classified as colored cotton cloths and assessed for duty respectively at 3½ cents and 4½ cents per square yard under the appropriate provisions therefor in paragraphs 253 and 254 of the act of August 28, 1894, according to count of threads, value, &c. The protestants claim them to be dutiable at 2¼ cents and 3¾ cents per square yard respectively, or at 35 per cent. ad valorem, under the provisions of the same paragraphs for bleached cotton cloths, their contention being that as the foundation or groundwork of the fabric is bleached that fact should control the classification.

The board has uniformly held that goods of the above description were dutiable under tariff provisions for colored cotton cloths, and these decisions accord with the action of classifying officers of customs duties at the several ports and the rulings of the Treasury Department, covering a period of many years and under different tariff acts containing provisions for cotton cloths similar to those of the present act.

Protest accordingly overruled.

French Dimities.—In the case of W. & J. Sloane against the collector at New York the Board of General Appraisers decided as follows :

It appears from the exhibits and papers in this case, and we find as facts :

(1) That the merchandise subject of protest consists of bleached cotton cloths, woven with raised figures produced by means of the Jacquard or other automatic attachment, and further ornamented with colored stripes or figures, either yarn dyed or printed.

(2) That the threads thereof are easily countable by unraveling or other practicable means, and that they contain over 150 and not exceeding 200 threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling.

(3) That these goods are and have been for many years known commercially as "French dimities," and are not the articles known commercially as "cotton damask."

Following the board's decision of even date herewith in the case of Alexander Murphy & Co. and numerous other decisions, we hold that these goods are dutiable as assessed, at 45 per cent. ad valorem, under paragraph 347, act of October 1, 1890, and overrule the protest, which claims that they are dutiable at 40 per cent. ad valorem, under the provision for "cotton damask" in paragraph 355 of said act.

Duty on Dotted Swisses.—In the appeal of Einstein, Wolff & Co. from the decision of the Board of General Appraisers, Judge Townsend, of the United States Circuit Court, decided as follows :

The merchandise in controversy, commonly known as dotted Swisses, is cotton cloth on which after it has been woven dots have been embroidered by machinery. The single question is whether they are dutiable as cotton cloth under the countable thread clauses of the act of August 28, 1894, as was claimed by the importer, or as articles embroidered by machinery composed of cotton not specially provided for under paragraph 276 of said act, as classified for duty by the collector. From the decision of the Board of General Appraisers affirming said classification the importer appeals.

It is stipulated that on and prior to August 27, 1894, the term embroideries did not apply to said merchandise, and that on and prior to said date merchandise was commercially known and dealt in similar to that in controvery on which such designs were placed in the process of weaving.

If this were an original question I should be inclined to adopt the construction contended for by the United States attorney. But I have been unable to so distinguish the case as to relieve it from the operation of the rule laid down in Hedden v. Robertson, 151 U. S. 520, and followed by the Circuit Court of Appeals in U. S. v. Albert, 60 Fed. Rep. 1012.

The decision of the Board of General Appraisers is therefore reversed.

In the case of B. Isaacs & Brother against the collector of New York the Board of General Appraisers decided as follows :

The goods in this case were assessed for duty at 50 per cent. ad valorem under paragraph 301, act of August 28, 1894, but were claimed to be entitled to entry at 45 per cent. ad valorem as manufactures of silk not specially provided for and not embroidered.

An inspection of the samples shows that the articles contain both appliqué and embroidery work.

Protest overruled.

Chenille curtains are a little off just now, but not to stay. They are considered warm for the season, but there will be a revival in the fall, when they will establish their old reputation as the handsomest draperies made.

Within the past fortnight the following buyers have visited this market : Messrs. J. Stone, of J. E. Stone & Son, Oneida, N. Y.; D. V. Einstein, of Einstein Brothers, Harrisburg, Pa.; S. Goldsmith, of Goldsmith Brothers & Co., Scranton, Pa.; Peter Murray, of Smith & Murray, Springfield, Mass.; Morris Benson, of the Adam, Meldrum & Anderson Company, Buffalo, N. Y.; J. Rothschild, of Rothschild Brothers, Ithaca, N. Y.; S. T. McCormac, for Edson, Keith & Co., Detroit ; D. M. Edwards, of E. W. Edwards & Sons, Syracuse, N. Y.; E. S. Brown, of E. S. Brown & Co., Fall River, Mass.; E. D. Garratt, Galveston, Tex.; L. Furchgott, of Kohn, Furchgott & Co., Jacksonville, Fla.; F. V. Lincoln, for G. V. S. Quackenbush & Co., Troy, N. Y.; George J. Carter, for R. H. White & Co., and E. C. Cole, for Shepard, Norwell & Co., Boston ; C. R. Hawley, of C. R. Hawley & Co., Bay City, Mich.; J. C. McNamara (awning goods), Troy, N. Y.; E. Edsall, for the Pittsburg (Pa.) Dry Goods Company ; L. E. Schwartz, of Schwartz Brothers & Co., New Orleans ; F. C. Krueger, for Tootle, Wheeler & Motter, St. Joseph, Mo.; H. Higgins, for the Williams & Rodgers Company, Cleveland, Ohio ; F. P. Brown, for C. F. Hovey & Co., Boston ; J. Duffey, for Homer, Le Boutillier & Co., Philadelphia ; P. E. Henchey, for J. M. Robinson, Norton & Co., Louisville ; A. M. Kerr, of S. G. Kerr, Son & Co., Scranton, Pa.; F. H. Miller, for D. P. Erwin & Co., Indianapolis ; E. Mullen, for Houghton & Dutton, Boston ; M. Heller, for Julius Meyer & Sons, Richmond, Va.; Harrison and Dalley, of Harrison & Dalley, Nyack, N. Y.; Salem Hyde, of Neal & Hyde, Syracuse, N. Y.; B. Peck, of the B. Peck Dry Goods Company, Lewiston, Me.

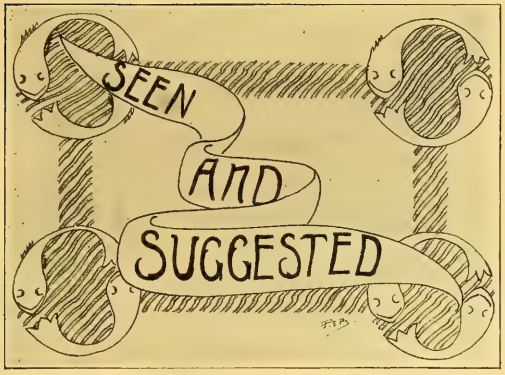
PRICES OF THE WINDOW SHADE MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION.

The fall schedule of prices of the Association of Hand Made Window Shade Manufacturers went into effect on May 1. There are only a few changes in prices as compared with the spring schedule, but an important change has been made in cutting down the classes from four to two. As before, the quantity ordered makes the distinction between the two classes.

The prices of the Columbia Shade Cloth Company on the goods in their lines similar to those sold by the hand makers are the same as the latter's.

Price lists of May 1 can be obtained on application to any manufacturer of the association.

The Sanford Mills, Sanford, Me., manufacturing plush fabrics, robes, &c., closed on the 12th inst. for ten days, when they will start again, as there are plenty of orders for June and July delivery.



A New York drummer on his second Western trip for the spring received the following dispatch: "We don't get any orders from you; what's the matter? Answer."

He immediately telegraphed: "I don't get any orders either."

The universal weakness for bargains was never better illustrated than in the following story told by an old peddler: Once upon a time a man in Maine started out to sell table covers at 50 cents apiece. After one day's traveling an idea struck him. He would charge double that amount and take the other half dollar in cast-off shoes. People imagined they were securing marvelous returns on their investments, and there was consequently a general ransacking of attics and out of the way places for cast-off footgear, with the result that the dealer in table covers had a rushing trade in that article. But the old shoes? Well, whenever he found a convenient hole in the road out of sight he would dump the old shoes into it.

Among the new cushions to be seen in fashionable upholstery showrooms a very pretty one is heart shaped, having an arrow and an unstrung bow worked upon it. A foundation is formed by cutting two heart-shaped pieces, about 15 inches long at the longest part, from several thicknesses of crinoline, and covering them with muslin. Two pieces are cut from any desired shade of dark satin large enough to allow for seams. An arrow is outlined in the satin long enough to cross it diagonally and worked in gold colored silk. The unstrung bow seems to cross under the arrow diagonally, and is worked in stem stitch. Put the cushion together with a full puffing of gold silk 5 inches wide.

Jade green, says Furniture and Decoration, is produced from the mineral and is a peculiarly light and transparent shade. It is often found in Oriental porcelains, and with them can be used as Delft blue is used in the scheme of decoration. These porcelains come in various shapes and sizes of vases, bowls and other decorative pieces, many of them with raised figures. They are inexpensive and remarkably effective, both for their clear and attractive colors and for their graceful shapes. This porcelain ware, taken as a scheme, will suggest many decorative ideas for tapestries, paper hangings and metal ornaments, preferably those of silver, which may be cleverly and agreeably associated with them.

The furniture for a jade green room may be of white enamel, decorated with green leaves; palms, furnishing some of the most graceful forms, are favorites, or sprigs of the grape vine, including bunches of the fruit itself in natural colors at intervals. A bedroom in jade green should be furnished with a brass bedstead and with a dressing table or bureau and other pieces in white enamel. The cushions may be of pale green silk or of Liberty velveteen, which is especially pretty in this color. A little green and gold Japanese crêpe may be used for the frieze of the room, while the main body of the wall is papered in cartridge paper in a slightly darker tint of the same color.

An English paper says that a notable dining room of a country house has the walls wainscoted with decorators' canvas. This is capped with a broad molding, and both have been stained a dull forest green—one of the new "art" colorings. The side walls, all the way to the narrow white picture molding that serves as well for a cornice, have been papered with a French paper, in Delft blue on a white background, and, curiously enough, the blue and green harmonize exceedingly well. The floor has been carpeted with dull green Ingrain and thickly covered with small Oriental rugs, in red and green colorings. The tables and chairs, Sheraton in shape, are of old Honduras mahogany, trimmed with brass mountings. Against the wall stands a Dutch style sideboard, in white and blue enamel, with glazed doors in diamond shaped panes. A side table is also in blue and white, with pictures upon it, strikingly in keeping with the old Delft plates that hang upon the wall or stand upon the narrow wainscot cap. By way of a picture Delft tiles are framed in black oak and hang over the tall chimneypiece of white enameled wood that incloses a broad facing of blue picture tiles. It seems in keeping that the lighting of this apartment should be done with tiny silver Princess lamps, set in old blue porcelain candlesticks.

H. C. Kroh & Co., the window shade manufacturers, with usual promptness, were one of the first houses to issue the new fall price list, and any dealer who has not received one should send a request for same to the firm, at 678 Broadway, New York. The firm's aggregate spring business shows a considerable increase over last season, although they experienced exceptionally dull periods in the latter part of the season, the same as others. Their five traveling men are now out on the road for fall orders, and with such a reliable line of goods and prices as low as can be obtained from anyone they should secure a liberal portion of the fall trade.

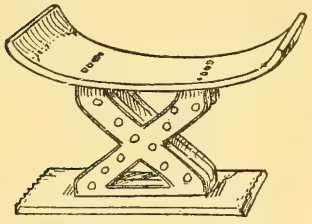
C. Schotte, the exclusive Chicago window shade manufacturer, has issued a new price list under date of May 1, and will furnish the same on application. Western buyers should realize that they can purchase hand made opaque cloth, transparent and opaque cambrics, mounted shades and all shade trimmings from C. Schotte as low as from any house in the country, with the advantage of saving time and freight expenses. The shade cloths are made in their factory at 14 to 20 North Canal street, and with the situation as described above the firm should receive a liberal share of the business of Chicago and tributary sections. Write to or call upon them for sample books and quotations.

BOSTON OFFICE FOR THE REUBEL COMPANY.

The Henry Reubel Company, manufacturers of carpet and upholstery hardware and curtain poles, will open an office in Room 321, Phillips Building, Tremont street, Boston, on or about June 1. It will be in charge of Chas. W. Ellis, who will make his headquarters in Boston hereafter and cover the New England territory in addition to his route in New York State, upper Ohio, Michigan and Canada. Through this new arrangement the Reubel Company will doubtless obtain a share of the Boston and New England trade in proportion to the business done by them in other sections of the country.

AN AFRICAN STOOL.

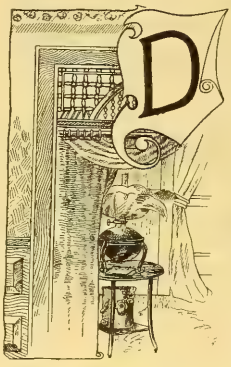
A singular piece of furniture, which is used by the natives along the Gold Coast of Africa, is a stool made from a wood peculiar to that section. Aside from its practicality a special point of interest about this stool is that it is hewn or carved with the commonest tools from a solid block, the whole thing being in one piece. The seat is about 2½ feet long and in width varies from 7 inches across the centre to 8 or 9 inches at the ends. Two rows of holes are cut through this seat, presumably for ornament. The supports are separated by a 3 inch space, and the circles on their sides are burnt in. The grain of the wood is lengthwise, so that the upper outer edges of the seat are apt to chip, although care will prevent them from doing so. The whole thing is, of course, rather crude, and not always perfectly proportioned, but it is ingenious and serviceable. The natives make them for their own use and carry them about from place to place. In Salt Pond and other towns on the southwest coast, where missions are established, one of the sights which impresses the stranger is the procession of natives on their way to church, carrying these tools.



The new fall line of Stead & Miller, upholstery and curtains, will be shown about June 1 at the Philadelphia, New York and Chicago offices.

Activity is the rule at the store of the Columbia Shade Cloth Company, 22 and 24 Lafayette place, New York. Everybody is busy just now and the store and stock will soon be in perfectly complete order. The fall lines of the Minetto, Meriden and Opaque companies are ready for inspection and the aggregation of goods is one that no buyer can afford to miss. The wholesale buyers who come to the market within the next few weeks will always find Messrs. Tremain, Perkins and McChesney on hand to meet them, while the trade who have been accustomed to dealing with the Canal street store of the Meriden Company will find W. M. Waite on hand here with the same goods as formerly, together with the lines of the Minetto and Opaque companies.

A. NAUMANN WILL REMAIN IN BUSINESS.



During the past fortnight various rumors have been circulating in the trade that A. Naumann, the lace curtain manufacturer and importer, was to dispose of his stock and retire from the lace curtain business. This report is erroneous, which fact we are glad to note, as his retirement would be a source of regret to his numerous customers and friends throughout the trade, who will doubtless be glad to find herein that it is untrue. The report emanated from the fact that a decision had been reached to change the arrangements between Mr. Naumann and Greeff & Co., as it was through the latter firm that Mr. Naumann had been doing the financial end of his business. This change has culminated in the sale of Mr. Naumann's entire stock of Swiss lace curtains, together with some other makes, to W. & J. Sloane, who are now transferring the stock to their warerooms at Broadway and Nineteenth street, New York, and will open up a special sale of it on June 1. Mr. Naumann will remain in the lace curtain business, with some alterations in his lines. He will continue to show French curtains, muslins, piece goods, Nottingham curtains, the Tarare curtains, tidies and bureau sets, in which goods he will display special novelties, confining himself to the medium and finer grades and to exclusive specialties. He will carry French goods to a larger extent than heretofore. His salesroom will continue to be at 106 to 112 Spring street, New York, until further notice.

WHEN TO STOP ADVERTISING.

"When population ceases to multiply and the generations that crowd on after you and never heard of you, stop coming on."

"When you have convinced everybody whose life will touch yours that you have better goods and lower prices than they can ever get anywhere else."

"When you perceive it to be the rule that men who never advertise are outstripping their neighbors in the same line of business."

"When men stop making fortunes right in your very sight solely through the discreet use of this mighty agent."

"When you can forget the words of the shrewdest and most successful business men concerning the main cause of their prosperity."

"Whenever man has become so thoroughly a creature of habit that he will certainly buy this year where he bought last year."

"When younger and fresher houses in your line cease starting up and using the newspapers to tell how much better they can do for them than you can."

"When you would rather have your own way and fail than take advice and win."

"When nobody else thinks 'it pays to advertise.'"—Exchange.

STOCK TAKING.

In so large and varied a stock as that carried by W. H. Fletcher & Co. there must necessarily accumulate each season many short lots, patterns which will not be put in loom again, &c. The approach of the semi-annual stock-taking in June affords an opportunity to cull out these odds and ends, which has just been done, and they are now offered at prices which make them extraordinary bargains. Close buyers will find many new and handsome draperies in short lots at much below their actual landing cost.

STEAD & MILLER'S OFFERINGS.

On page 97 of this issue Stead & Miller have some interesting things to say in regard to the fall offerings of the Nepaul Mills. Among the novelties shown in the new line will be found upholstery and drapery fabrics, curtains, table covers, &c., in immense variety.

In silk damasks, brocatelles, silk tapestries, Imperial damasks, Empress damasks, lambelles, cotton Nepauls, cotton Derbys and satin reuss a remarkably wide range of entirely new patterns will be offered. The lines of tapestry and chenille curtains and chenille table covers are also especially novel and attractive.

Stead & Miller show the goods at their Philadelphia headquarters, Fourth and Cambria streets, and at their salesrooms, 502 and 503 Bourse, Philadelphia; 115 Worth street, New York, and 704 Champlain Building, Chicago.

LAKE CITY UPHOLSTERY NOTES.

CHICAGO, MAY 9.

E. L. Heylin, of W. & J. Sloane's, leaves for Detroit tonight on a business trip. He reports trade fair in the upholstery line.

Thos. Dolan, representing the Bromley lace curtain account, has been in the city.

Manager A. C. Bodman, of Marshall Field & Co.'s wholesale upholstery department, is recovering from a painful accident. While "scorching" a bit on his bicycle recently he was thrown and one of his arms was broken.

Schlesinger & Mayer have opened a curtain and upholstery department in their basement. Mr. McCormick, formerly with Mr. Birkle at "The Fair," is in charge. The new department was opened yesterday.

C. D. Lunceford, formerly with Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., is now with Schlesinger & Mayer as special drapery man.

The Textile Bowling Club, composed of drapery and upholstery men, proposes to keep its organization intact during the summer. A picnic is talked of as a means of doing this. The officers of the club are Charles Birkle, of "The Fair," president; Frank Miller, of Mills & Gibb's office here, secretary. Other members are James McLaren, of the Bromley Manufacturing Company; Mr. Shaw, of Revell's; P. Hardcastle, of Mills & Gibb's; David Smith, of Schumacher's; Phil. Rudhardt, of the E. L. Mansure Company, and E. C. Lines, of Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co.

R. H. H.

The schedules of Benjamin Fitch, doing business as B. Fitch & Co., manufacturers of bedding, at Nos. 59 and 61 Fourth avenue, 27 West Forty-second street and 158 West 125th street, New York, show liabilities, $61,191; nominal assets, $86,623; actual assets, $46,216.

Owing to the early dropping off of trade this spring Rieser & Co., the lace curtain importers, have a well assorted stock of their best spring sellers on hand, and will be pleased to submit quotations to buyers looking for special drives. The goods are all new and fresh, and at the specially attractive prices offer an exceptional opportunity for obtaining rare values. If you cannot call write to Rieser & Co., 480 Broadway, New York, for quotations.

The Lambson-Rothery Furniture Company at Westfield, Mass., has succeeded C. K. Lambson. On the 24th and 25th ult. the company had a formal opening of its store. The interior has been thoroughly remodeled and all the partitions taken out. The first floor in the main store will be occupied for parlor tables, bookcases and dining room furniture, while the drapery department will also be located there. The office will be situated in the rear of the first floor. On the second and third floors is a general stock of furniture. A large plate glass front has been put in, with a corner window on the Thomas street side. In the rear is a hydraulic elevator. The building is heated throughout with steam, and electricity lights the whole block. The new concern is a corporation organized as follows: President, C. K. Lambson; clerk, A. F. Lilley; treasurer and manager, Albert Rothery. These three constitute the board of directors. Albert Rothery, the new manager, has been in the furniture business for fifteen years, and for the past seven years has had charge of the furniture department of Meekins & Packard in Springfield.

Bailey.—George Bailey, who has made an exceptional record with A. Naumann as a curtain traveler, will remain with Mr. Naumann and show the latter's newly arranged lines for fall.

Blatter.—Titus Blatter, of Titus Blatter & Co., 85 Leonard street, returned to New York April 30 on the steamship Columbia from Switzerland, where he has been visiting the European factory operated by the firm and attending to the fall importations of Irish point, Brussels and Swiss tambour muslins.

Bodman.—A. C. Bodman, of Marshall Field & Co., is confined to the house with a broken arm, the result of a header from his bicycle.

Buchanan.—Fred. Buchanan, of Newcomb, Endicott & Co.'s upholstery department, has an establishment such as one would expect to find in the biggest New York concern The traveling men speak of it as a thoroughly up to date, fin de siècle, and twenty-first century show.

Crew.—John C. Crew, of Sterling, Welch & Co., Cleveland, has been having a new suit built with which to set the pace for the New York upholstery crew when he comes here Decoration Day. In order to break in his russet shoes he recently took George Attenborough, J. J. Nutley, J. A. Brittain and John O'Connor for a little walk out to the Garfield Monument. The shoes were broken in and the rest of the crowd were broken up after the 10 mile tramp.

Everts.—Fred Everts, of Gimbel Brothers, Milwaukee, is the champion pedro player of the town. On the last trip of the curtain men he entertained several of them at his house, and now Heylin, Nutley and several others are around trying to steer tenderfoot friends into a little game.

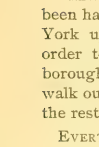
Fletcher.—W. H. Fletcher left on the 12th inst. for a two weeks' pleasure visit to his old home in Richmond, Ind.

Greer.—J. A. Greer, formerly upholstery buyer for Arnold, Constable & Co., is about to go into business for himself. He has the agency for Jules Wellens, of Philadelphia, manufacturer of tapestry covers, snow flake curtains, &c.

Hayward.—W. T. Hayward, president of the Jay C. Wemple Company, was in Chicago recently.

Henson.—J. W. Henson, manager of the Patchogue Manufacturing Company, sails for Europe on the Etruria May 16.

Longmire—Brevoort.—Walter C. Longmire, who has for many years been known to his friends under the sobriquet of "Cupid," was married on May 12 to Mrs. Gertrude, widow of Geo. L. Brevoort, at the house of her brother, Robert Lefferts, 597 Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn. Thus begins a new chapter in a romance which started years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Longmire sailed for Europe on the Germanic May 13. Among those who were at the pier to wish them a happy voyage were Lorenzo Duncan, of T. B. Shoaff & Co.; George T. Attenborough, of Mills & Gibb; Charles Wall, of the H. B. Claflin Company; Joseph P. Callahan, with James A. Hearn & Son, and a host of personal and family friends.



McNab.—Samuel McNab, for some years in the Meriden office of the Meriden Curtain Fixture Company, has been transferred to the New York office of the Columbia Shade Cloth Company.

Maples.—E. W. Maples, of the traveling staff of the Jay C. Wemple Company, has recovered from a rheumatic attack which confined him to his home for several weeks.

Pinney.—D. C. Pinney, of the Pinney, Casse & Lackey Company, sailed for Europe on the Paris the 13th inst.

Spranger.—J. F. Spranger, who for sixteen years has been upholstery buyer for Lindikes, Warner & Schurmier, St. Paul, will on July 1 go to Levi Strauss & Co., San Francisco.

Thomson.—The following dispatch was received by George Bailey, of A. Naumann, May 8: "Ten pound boy. Everything out of sight, Chas. E. Thomson, W. H. Elliott & Co., Detroit.' Bailey says it is Thomson's first offense.

Wanamaker.—Ex-Postmaster General Wanamaker, who is now on his way to America, gave, it is said, during his present trip abroad an order to the Royal Aubusson atelier for four superb pieces of tapestry for the hall of his town mansion in Walnut street, above Twelfth, Philadelphia. It is said that two years will be required to complete them.

Waite.—Wm. M. Waite, recently manager of the Meriden Curtain Fixture Company's New York store, is now manager of the Lafayette place store of the Columbia Shade Cloth Company.

Warren.—William Warren, of Sterling, Welch & Co.'s drapery department, is one of the workers of the trade. He is a member of the Cleveland Grays, but when night comes he neglects the pleasures of the armory for the delights of a folding bed.

Watkins.—Alfred Watkins, head of the H. B. Claflin Company's lace department, sailed for Europe on the 9th inst.

Whitman.—Clarence Whitman, of Clarence Whitman & Co., has been elected a director of the Tradesmen's National Bank, which has its headquarters in the Wool Exchange Building.

GOULD-MERSEREAU COMPANY'S BRASS GOODS.

The Gould-Mersereau Company's fall offerings will comprise all its famous specialties in upholstery and carpet hardware, such as curtain poles, ends, sets, rings, brackets and sockets, tassel hooks, stair rods and buttons, brass and zinc stair plates and nosings, drugget pins, &c. As usual the company's latest improved traverse ring will be a prominent feature. This ring has a ball bearing roller, which reduces friction to a minimum.

Write to the Gould-Mersereau Company's New York store, 259 Canal street, for their new catalogue, which goes to press June 1.

SPECIAL VALUES IN CHENILLE CURTAINS AND COVERS.

On page 99 W. T. Smith & Son show a cut of their No. 430 chenille curtain, which is 45 inches wide by 3¼ yards long, and made in several popular colorings. They offer this full size, deep dado and frieze curtain at the attractive price of $2.50 per pair. On the same page they show a cut of their No. 70 chenille table cover in their "Royal" grade in 6-4 size. This cover is quoted at $7.50 per dozen. Both of these offerings are exceedingly good value and afford a chance for buyers to test the attractions in quality, styles and price of W. T. Smith & Son's chenille goods. The firm solicit sample orders by mail, and will send an illustrated catalogue, with prices of several other productions, on application. Address them at Lehigh avenue and Third street, Philadelphia.

In laying in window shade supplies for the fall trade buyers throughout the country should not fail to write to Cushman Brothers & Co., 121 Kingston street, Boston, Mass., for quotations on their Cushman balance and spring rollers and mounted shades. They are big manufacturers of these goods and propose to interest any buyer in any part of the country.

HEADQUARTERS FOR CURTAIN POLES.

Buyers who handle wood curtain poles and trimmings to any large extent should not fail to communicate with Heuer & Johnston, manufacturers, at 112 Weed street, Chicago. This concern make different sized poles in natural and imitation woods, including all the different woods used for pole purposes. They can quote prices that will not be beaten by any other manufacturer in the country, and can interest buyers in any section, which fact will be verified by sending for their samples and prices.

The Kings County Furniture Company, Brooklyn, has removed to Jay and Fulton streets.

Black, Kalt & Co. succeed W. M. Black & Co., dealers in general dry goods, Springfield, Ohio.

F. X. Singer, upholsterer, 2228 Second avenue, New York, is selling out and will retire from business.

The Oscar R. Fries Dry Goods Company succeeds the Feldman, Schaaf & Fries Dry Goods Company, St. Louis.

The C. A. Schmidt Company, upholstery trimmings, fringes, &c., New York, is now located at 48 and 50 Walker street.

W. R. Smith & Co., Meriden, Conn., have sold the remainder of their stock and fixtures to the New Haven Window Shade Company.

The new traverse ring, sold only by C. W. Lawrence & Co., 275 Canal street, New York, is a device which has already found a great demand. It is noiseless in action and answers its purpose in the most perfect manner possible. Write to Lawrence & Co. for further particulars.

April was a very quiet month with J. A. Brittain & Co., the lace curtain importers and agents, but March was the the biggest month of their record in shipments. John A. Brittain has done a very satisfactory business on the road taking import orders for fall, and is expected back in New York on the 16th inst. The firm will have an important departure to announce on opening up their fall line of stock goods next month. Just now their stock is in shape to meet all demands on late spring business.

In their offerings for the coming season the Henry Reubel Company, 269 Canal street, New York, include everything in the upholstery and carpet hardware line, at prices which must prove attractive to close buyers. The Reubel improved Leslie traverse pole ring, which is controlled by this company, is one of their most important specialties, and its popularity is steadily increasing as its merits become more widely known. Write to the company for samples, prices, &c.

The will of the late Henry Offerman, of Brooklyn, directs his executors to carry on the store, 503 to 513 Fulton street, that city, during the period of their administration of his estate. If they see fit they are authorized to sell the business at private sale, and if it cannot be sold otherwise the will directs that it shall be bought by the children of the testator, who shall carry it on as equal partners. If one refuses to enter into such an arrangement, then the other children are requested to carry on the business. The residuary estate is to be divided equally among the three sons and two daughters of Mr. Offerman.

OBITUARY NOTES.

William E. McCoy, manager of the pillow case and sheet manufacturing department of the H. B. Claflin Company, died suddenly at the Hotel Lafayette, this city, on the 10th inst., at the age of thirty-one years.

Thomas C. M. Paton, who as senior partner in the firm of Paton & Co., 342 Broadway, this city, was once a prominent figure in the upholstery goods trade, died in Boston last month. For the past six years he had been in the employ of Braman & Co.

Charles H. Pennel, cashier for the auction firm of Townsend & Montant, this city, died at his home in Roselle, N. J., on the 13th inst., at the age of fifty-five years. He had been connected with the house of Townsend & Montant for the last thirty years.

MAIMED BY A TRAIN.

Reginald H. Jaffray, son of Howard Jaffray and grandson of the late E. S. Jaffray, while running to catch a train on the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad at Irvington, May 14, fell beneath the car. His right leg was cut off below the knee. Mr. Jaffray is twenty-five years old and was recently married, returning from his bridal trip only a few days ago.

The Chicago Lace Importing Company, Chicago, has assigned.

The C. M. Plum & Co. Upholstery Company, San Francisco, supplied the bedding, furniture and about 4,000 square heads of cork carpet for the United States cruiser Oregon.

The schedules of Warner & King, manufacturers of bedding, at No. 404 Sixth avenue, New York, show liabilities, $24,929 ; nominal assets, $8,279 ; actual assets, $7,718.

The removal of the Shipper & Block Carpet Company's Peoria carpet and upholstery departments to the basement of their new dry goods store has resulted in a very large increase in the business.

Theodore Graham, of the firm of Young, Smyth, Field & Co., Philadelphia, has disappeared. The firm say that they are perfectly solvent and will meet all obligations when they mature.

The Columbia Shade Cloth Company's Philadelphia branch is at 1006 Filbert street. Two more stories are to be added to the building, and the plant at Tioga, Philadelphia, will also be materially enlarged.

Albert Feigl, manufacturer of lamp shades and metal goods, at No. 22 Park place and No. 255 Centre street, New York, assigned on the 30th ult. to David J. L. Lees. The liabilities are about $9,000. The failure is ascribed to dull business.

F. P. Bhumgara & Co., 524 Broadway, New York city, continue to receive from Bombay and other India sources importations of Oriental fabrics and fancies. Their warerooms, since the alterations and enlargement, permit of a much more adequate display of their large and beautiful stock. Visitors always find some new and attractive features. S. Maneck, the resident partner, is a gentleman of wide acquaintance with Oriental art goods.

MONUMENTAL CITY MEMS.

BALTIMORE, MAY 11.

An order signed by Judge Dennis the 6th inst. requires cause to be shown by May 16 why August Gassinger, Jr., Gerhard Gassinger and Martin Heyman, formerly trading as Gassinger, Heyman & Co., should not be declared insolvent debtors. The application was filed in the Court of Common Pleas by Cumberland, Dugan & Co. and others. It is based on an alleged indebtedness of $902.66. The firm manufactured store and office furniture, and was succeeded by Gassinger Brothers & Co.

Albert A. Brager, dry goods and upholstery, was at Atlantic City the 6th inst.

Louis Gutman, of Joel Gutman & Co., dry goods and upholstery, will sail for Europe next month.

E. B. Sydnor, of Sydnor & Hundley, furniture and upholstery, Richmond, Va., visited the Northern cities last week.

The large store building of J. Edward Bird & Co., dry goods and upholstery, is to be extensively remodeled and improved.

Frank H. Lapsley, of F. H. Lapsley & Brother, window shades, when last heard from was enjoying the scenery and climate of old Mexico.

S. Salomon & Co., dry goods and upholstery, will erect a handsome new four story building on the site of their present store on West Lexington street.

Haskell & Hatton, furniture and upholstery, Richmond, Va., made an assignment the 27th ult. to Harvey Williams, trustee. Their liabilities are estimated at $7,000.

A. G. Braxton, wall papers and window shades, Richmond, Va., made an assignment the 27th ult. to A. M. Braxton. The liabilities are placed at $1,700.

Proposals are invited by the superintendent of the City Hall for supplying furniture and upholstery for the new city offices in the Zion school building. R. L. E.

Pantasote is finding its way into high quarters. The German Emperor's new yacht Meteor has been largely upholstered with this material, and a trial order has been given from Her British Majesty's royal residence, Windsor Castle. Clarence Whitman & Co., New York, are agents for Pantasote.

McMaster, Eldridge & Maugle, of 635 Arch street, Philadelphia, are satisfied that they have obtained a fair share of the spring trade, but complain of a falling off during the latter part of the season, in company with other shade manufacturers. However, they have made preparations to fill all orders promptly that are yet to come for the spring season in hand made opaque shadings, mounted shades, imported and domestic shade laces, curtain poles and trimmings, and upholstery brass goods.

Davis & Hancock, Bridesburg, Philadelphia, Pa., are rapidly building up an enviable reputation on their three yard Derby curtain, fringed top and bottom, with a throw-over, at $2 and $2.10. These goods are all refinished after the process of knotting has been completed, and rolled on a heavy strawboard, so that they in all cases retain the sheen and desirable appearance so pleasing to the consumer. By the process used the curtains are proof against wrinkling through being handled. Davis & Hancock have the latest appliances in their plant and the quality and styles of their curtains are fast gaining them the favor of the trade.

WALL PAPER GOSSIP.

Wiley T. Johnson and John White have started in the wall paper and upholstery business at 21 Market street, Wilmington, N. C.

..Mary Elizabeth, wife of George Halbert, the well-known decorator, doing business at 455 Fulton street, Brooklyn, died at the family residence, 63 Columbia Heights, on May 1. Her death resulted from an operation for the removal of a tumor, which was performed about ten weeks ago. Since that time Mrs. Halbert had been in a precarious condition, and finally heart failure ensued, which resulted in death. The decedent had resided in Brooklyn for about a quarter of a century.

..Montgomery & Hayes have opened in wall paper and picture frames at Sherman, Tex.

..A. Worthlake has started in the wall paper trade at West Somerville, Mass.

..James A. Wilson, Springfield, Mass., is insolvent. The liabilities are about $4,000.

..Body & Mather, Philadelphia, have removed from 21 North Second street to 303 Market street.

..The stock of L. C. Schnee & Co.'s store at Williamsport, Pa., was sold by auction on the 23d ult.

..Henry A. Neilson, New York manager for Thos. Strahan & Co., has removed his office to 156 Fifth avenue.

..The Conowingo Wall Paper Company will be represented in Michigan after June 30 by Williams & Dean, Detroit.

..James J. Mote wants the people of Greenville, Ohio, to contribute $3,000 toward the establishment of a window shade factory there, to be conducted by him.

..E. P. Martini, a dealer in wall paper at Austin, Ill., is reported to have been killed by an explosion on the 1st inst.

..The new styles in wall papers will hardly be adopted by carpet manufacturers as they have been heretofore. The loud floral designs upon white grounds have had their day in floor coverings and will scarcely be recalled.

..George Dean, of the firm of Dean & Van Eseltine, Syracuse, N. Y., shot and killed himself on the 2d inst. He had been in bad health for some time.

..The American Wall Paper and Paint Company, Milwaukee, is a new incorporated concern with a capital of $5,000. The incorporators are : A. N. Eggers, E. H. Steller and Henry Microw.

..Ferdinand R. Hilger, at one time a prominent figure in the wall paper business of Chicago, died in that city on the 27th ult. at the age of seventy-four years. Mr. Hilger retired from business some years ago.

..The stock of Lewis A. Cole, Appleton, Wis., has been seized on a chattel mortgage held by the Union Oil and Paint Company, Milwaukee, but it is said that Mr. Cole's assets exceed his liabilities, and that he will soon resume business.

M. G. Davis is no longer with Schroth & Potter, the Columbus, Ohio, shade manufacturers and lace curtain importers. The territory formerly covered by Mr. Davis will be hereafter traveled by Harry Aaron, who will call upon the trade in Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin in ample time for fall deliveries.

W. T. Hayward, of the Jay C. Wemple Company, has just returned from a visit to the company's Chicago store. He thinks trade is a little better, if anything, in Chicago than it is New York just at present, and would like to see a spurt in the Eastern trade before the spring season ends.

Masten & Hund, the window shade manufacturers, have built up a very enviable reputation both in town and on the road for reliable goods and straightforward dealings. They manufacture mounted shades with about all kinds of shade cloths and hollands and quote prices competing with any concern in the trade. In their enlarged quarters at 35 Clinton place, New York, they are in much better shape this season to fill orders than in the past.

The Robt. J. & R. Ritchie Company are preparing an exceptionally strong line of chenille curtains and table covers for the coming fall season. The manufacturing plant has been entirely overhauled, and at the new mill in Frankford every equipment has been obtained for producing chenilles rapidly and economically. New and handsome patterns are being added, and the complete fall line will soon be on show at the mill and also at the New York salesroom, 110 Worth street.

Henry W. Green & Co., the Philadelphia window shade manufacturers, have well maintained their stand among the leading manufacturers of the trade during the spring season, and can be relied upon to continue to do so for the fall season. Their fall lines are all ready and include about everything called for in a window shade stock. This comprehensive nature of Green & Co.'s assortment is one of the strongest reasons for dealing with them, for they carry a big stock and can supply wants with unsurpassed promptness.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO., 646-58 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

Three Vital Points . . .

Are necessary to insure a perfect roller such as . . . .

The Improved Hartshorn Wood Roller.

FIRST—No Tacks Are to Be Used.

The patent shade holders furnished free with Improved Hartshorn Wood Rollers eliminate the use of tacks in the most satisfactory manner possible.

SECOND—Provision for Mounting Shade Cloth Absolutely True.

The groove in this roller is the only place where the shade can be fastened to the roller. As the groove is as straight as machinery can make it, the cloth must be fastened in a straight line.

THIRD—Prevention Against Tearing Cloth from Rolls.

Owing to the scientific construction of the new roller, when the shade cloth is fastened upon the roller in the groove with our shade holders, the resistance which it offers is so strong that when shade and roller are hung it is almost impossible to tear the cloth off.

This Roller received specific indorsement in our award of a Gold Medal and Special Diploma of Honor by the Judges of the Atlanta Exposition.

Our new Descriptive Catalogue for 1896 is now ready. Free on application.

One eminent and popular house that has tried all makes announces them to be

"The Best Window Hollands Made."

Another equally large Importer of great experience states:

"The goods have always been and are now fast colors."

Another firm in the very front rank of the business describes them as

"Unequalled in quality, unshrinkable and of finest dyes."

While another firm of Importers, probably one of the largest shade goods houses in the world, characterizes them in these terms:

"JOHN KING & SON'S Famous Scotch Hollands."

JOHN KING & SON'S

ESTABLISHED IN THE YEAR 1775

Celebrated

Scotch Window HOLLANDS

ILLUSTRATING the high consideration these popular goods hold in the estimation of the most experienced importers of shade goods in the country, the attention of the trade is invited to the above opinions, published in the columns of this and other journals, over the signatures of the respective firms.

Enterprising but unscrupulous parties unable to reach the exalted standard of these celebrated goods, pay them the flattery of imitating the wrappings. It is the Goods, not the wrappings, the trade is after. See that Bands, Tickets and Tabs of every piece are marked

"JOHN KING & SON."

What a Retail House Thinks of "Chouaguens."

Window Shades.

Ever since the ready made window shade was "discovered" we have kept them and sold thousands of them every year. We know something about what are called "oil shades.' We handle only two qualities of shades. Our low-priced shades are what are called "water colors," or "American Opaque." They are the best of their kind and we sell them at 25c. each. They are mounted on spring rollers that are guaranteed to work, and these shades are

FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT.

We do not keep any "seconds" in stock Our other or best shades are all made of the celebrated

"CHOUAGUEN"

Shade cloth, which is the best, and the ONLY BEST shade cloth in the country. That "there are others" we do not deny. We have tried them all, and we have had trouble with them all but we never yet have had a complaint about our "Chouaguen" shades. They WON'T FADE. THEY ALWAYS WORK, and we do not hesitate to GUARANTEE EVERY ONE OF THEM. WE can buy "oil shades" that WE can sell for 33c.; we can buy them to sell for less than 33c., but

We don't want them, We won't have them,

for when the hot summer sun strikes them they will FADE. If you want your shades to look like the old fury next summer, then we advise you to buy the cheap oil shades; but if you want shades that the sun can't phaze and that will always look the same, that will always work, then pay 5c. a shade more and get the best shade cloth, and that is the "Chouaguen." That's our kind. That's the only kind of oil shades we keep.

We open this week 200 dozen of these "Chouaguen" never-fade shades. We have a sample of the cheaper oil shades, and will show you the difference, or you can see the difference quick enough without any assistance. We say to you, INSIST on having the Chouaguen shade cloth. Look out for the "just as good" kinds, for they are not as good.

Our Chouaguen shades are 38 inches wide; the cheaper kinds are 36 inches wide. The difference in width is worth the difference in price, to say nothing about the difference in quality.

Save Your STOCK By Using The EXCELSIOR CARPET EXHIBITING STAND.

CARPET DEALERS everywhere are now showing goods by samples instead of in the roll. The Excelsior Carpet Exhibiting Stand offers the best method of displaying samples and will save money for every Carpet Merchant. The Excelsior Carpet Exhibitor will keep samples clean and smooth. Will give you an opportunity to test whether the customer is a buyer or shopper. Is invaluable in the rush season. In order to make money you should save money by using the Excelsior Carpet Exhibitor, already used by a number of the leading Carpet Dealers throughout the country.

PRICE, $5.00.

SUBSTANTIAL, HANDSOME, HANDY, DURABLE, COMPACT, CHEAP. Price, $5.00.

Any pattern can be instantly and easily exposed entirely to view.

4/4 and 3/4 goods can be displayed on this stand at the same time. This is an important advantage.

The Excelsior Stands are light and very elegant in appearance; they are made of hardwood sides, stained and finished in oak; the tops are made with a hand screw and will easily hold from seventy-five to one hundred samples. Size of stand, 36 inches wide and 4 feet high. Patent rollers on the bottom, and no matter how many samples are on them they can be moved to any part of the room. When not in use they can be folded into a very small space. These many advantages make them invaluable for every Carpet store. The Excelsior Stands should be in possession of every Carpet Merchant in the country.

Crompton's New Ingrain Carpet Loom.

CROMPTON NEW INGRAIN CARPET LOOMS.

THE attention of manufacturers of Ingrain Carpets is called to the consideration of a new Carpet Loom just put on the market. It carries four (4) shuttle boxes at each end of the lathe; any one of the series at each end can be brought into line with the shuttle race at any pick, under the dictation of the Jacquard cards. The Jacquard is of the most approved construction and moves the warps kindly. The let off and take up motions bring out perfectly matched goods. On two ply work it makes sixty (60) yards per day. The apparatus for moving the boxes cannot be surpassed for its simplicity and efficiency. This Loom has no equal in speed and simplicity from four (4) to seven (7) colors.

CROMPTON ART SQUARE LOOM, for 3, 3½ and 4 yard goods, produces the best results and has no rival.

CROMPTON'S UPHOLSTERY LOOM, with Improved "1886" Box Motion, is capable of high speed and nice adjustment for its special line of goods.

CROMPTON LOOMS for Fancy Cassimeres, Worsteds, Flannels, Blankets, Jeans, Silks, Tapes, Ginghams, Fancy Cottons, &c., &c. Crompton "1888" and Noble Wool Comb.

Frames for holding the Fabric and Thread and Needles, specially prepared, for sale.

PATENTED AUGUST 25, 1885.

This Patent Rubber Binding holds the ends of Matting, Carpets, etc., down in place, does not curl up like other flexible bindings, is not affected by dampness, will not break when shaken and thrown about, and is very durable and easily adjusted.

The Many Advantages of this Patent Rubber Binding give it the preference over any other heretofore used on Matting and Carpet runners for Hotels, Stores, Steamboats, Offices, Elevators, Street Cars, Railroad Cars, etc., etc.

It is Made in ½, ¾, 1, 1¼ and 1½ lengths and is perforated to facilitate the sewing. The most inexperienced person can sew it on perfectly.

This PATENT RUBBER BINDING can be obtained from all the Leading Carpet and Upholstery Dealers.

LOWELL CARPETS have been justly celebrated for more than half a century. For the guidance of buyers the word "Lowell" is woven in white capital letters in the back of our Wiltons and Brussels at each repeat of the pattern. The fabrics are of the best quality, designs and coloring.

Our Middlesex Wiltons have the word "Middlesex" woven in the back. The word is registered as our Trade Mark in the United States Patent Office.

The popular Lowell Ingrains are wound on a hollow stick made in two solid pieces, with the words "Lowell Man'g. Co." stamped within, a patented United States Trade Mark.

GERMANTOWN EXTRA SUPERS.

THE BRAND

"Germantown Extra Supers"

has always been a guarantee of BEST QUALITY and satisfaction in handling. It is the name under which our HIGH GRADE EXTRA SUPERS have been handled by the leading Jobbing Trade in past years. We will hereafter use this name, so that the Trade in general may know who make this superior grade of Extra Supers, of which we are sole manufacturers. It is with great satisfaction we call your attention to . . .

THE LINE FOR THE FALL SEASON, which for handsome and original styles and colorings has no equal.

It has always been our aim to make the best goods that money, experience and best material can produce; and to this end we have brought out for the first time this season a new heavy weave fabric, which we offer to you as the best heavy Ingrain Carpet ever produced, and in the most beautiful shadings ever put in a carpet of this description.

"The Khorassan,"

OUR FALL LINE CONSISTS OF

Khorassan, heavy weave. Germantown High Grade A. W. Extra Supers.
Germantown High Grade C. C. Extra Supers.
Standard Regular A. W. Extra Supers.
A. W. Three Plys, C. C. Three Plys, Standard Regular C. C. Extra Supers.

Bigelow Carpet Company,

ORIGINAL POWER-LOOM MANUFACTURERS OF

WILTON AND BRUSSELS

CARPETS.

The Carpets made by this Company have received the highest award wherever exhibited, including Gold Medals at the Paris Exposition, 1878, and at the Centennial, 1876.

Their deserved reputation for excellence of fabric, richness and durability of color, novelty and beauty of design, has led to frequent infringements, and inferior goods have often been palmed off in their stead. For the protection of the public the Company has adopted as a trade-mark the word "BIGELOW," which will be woven (at every repeat of the pattern) in white capitals into the back of the fabric. Customers will therefore have merely to examine the back of a carpet to be certain that they are getting the genuine Bigelow Wiltons or Body Brussels.

These Goods can be obtained from all first-class dealers.

UPHOLSTERY DEPARTMENT, PAGE 49.

☞ Our readers are urged to remember that we are always desirous to receive communications of interest to the carpet or upholstery trades, such as changes in firms or managers, the building or opening of new stores, improvements in old ones, the adding of new departments, improved methods of doing business, new inventions, suggestions as to the cutting, making and laying of carpets, the designing and fitting of draperies, or inquiries and dissertations relating to the technical or commercial details of the trades to which this periodical is devoted.

THE OPENING SEASON.

THE travelers are all on the road and it is the general belief in the trade that the results of these trips will be quite satisfactory. All conditions now visible seem to be in favor of a large volume of business for the fall season. There is but little, if any, surplus stock in manufacturers' hands, and retail dealers' stocks are also much reduced, generally speaking.

But it is possible that on account of the prevalent superstitious feeling in regard to the bad effect of a presidential campaign on business some dealers may be disposed to delay the placing of their orders. If this be the case it is to be hoped that manufacturers will not endeavor to hasten sales by concessions in prices. This is a matter which now rests entirely with the manufacturers. It is in their power to maintain values firmly and make the season's business give a fair return to all concerned, for there is nothing whatever in the situation to justify the slightest reduction in prices of carpeting. We would therefore suggest that they can make no greater mistake than to show over-eagerness to secure orders at the opening of the season.

AROUND AND ABOUT.

S. M. KENNARD, president, and Col. J. S. Leeds, manager of the Business Men's League of St. Louis, have been in New York lately, and while here appeared before the board of managers of the Joint Traffic Association to ask that measures beadopted by that body to the end that the rate of traffic to and from St. Louis and passing through St. Louis shall include the terminal charge. The existing conditions were stated as follows: St. Louis is on the opposite side of the Mississippi River from the termini of the joint traffic lines. The river is crossed by a $10,000,000 bridge, for the use of which a separate charge is made. The object of Mr. Kennard's appearance was to persuade the railroads to assume the bridge toll.

THE Kidderminster Shuttle of the 16th ult. says: Export business continues to improve, and while the trade for the first four months of 1895 showed an increase of only £7,000 over the corresponding period of the previous year, the increase for 1896 over January to April, 1895, is £36,000. Looking at the values for the period just closed as compared with the previous two years, the exports to Germany have nearly doubled, and those to Australasia have literally "jumped." The ground lost in Holland last year has been more than regained, and although Belgium shows a slight falling off compared with last year the figures present no reason for uneasiness. France seems to be taking a less supply quarter by quarter, and we would suggest to the Foreign Office that the continued decrease of our exports to that once excellent market might form the subject of useful inquiries by our consuls in the republic.

Exports of British carpeting to the United States during the first four months of 1896 amounted to 246,200 yards, valued at £42,457. In the corresponding period of 1895 the exports were 242,000 yards, valued at £43,782.

A Chicago physician, Dr. Lonergan, reading in the paper that Charles Broadway Rouss, of this city, offered to give his big Broadway store to anyone who could cure him of blindness, took the first train to offer his services to Mr. Rouss. He found him, but the wily merchant of course said nothing about giving up any Broadway store or anything else.

During the course of the conversation the Chicago man intimated that if a cure was attempted it might be necessary for the New Yorker to remain in Chicago for a month or six weeks.

"That settles it!" remarked the Broadway merchant. "I would not live in Chicago even to get back my eyesight."

By the time the specialist comes along who is able to restore the eyesight of Mr. Rouss he will have received enough free advertising from the newspapers to be able to pay that $1,000,000 fee without missing the amount.

Mr. Stephen Sanford, head of the firm of S. Sanford & Sons, the Tapestry and Velvet manufacturers, has not been a very frequent visitor to New York of late years, finding his time more than occupied with the conduct of the great mills at Amsterdam and in looking after his extensive stock farm. Therefore on one of his recent visits to the metropolis he was much interested in the many new sky-scrapers that have been erected on Broadway, and while gazing intently upward a man of fine address and with a business air and tasteful raiment approached and, extending his hand, greeted Mr. Sanford most warmly. "I know you well," said he; "but you'll pardon my bad memory in not at once recalling your name." "And might I ask also for your name," responded Mr. Sanford with one of his quizzical looks. "Why, of course," answered the urbane hand-shaker, "my name's Brown—Tom Brown." "So is mine," retorted Mr. Sanford. "The —— you say," was the disgusted rejoinder of the disciple of Hungry Joe as he turned on his heel and made quick tracks down a cross street.

A Springfield, Mass., paper has discovered a new trust. This time it is in oil cloth. It says:

Report comes that the oil cloth companies in America have been busy forming another trust, and that the Taunton companies have included themselves in it. The trust will send up the price on oil cloth some a yard to take place June 1. In consequence of this users of the article are placing large orders now in order to get it at the present rates and not get caught by the advance. The Taunton Oil Cloth Works are having as much business as they can attend to at present D. L. Mitchell, formerly of this city, is said to have been prominent in organizing the trust.

This is perhaps all true, only it refers to table and enameled goods and not to floor oil cloths. Which reminds us that it is well for a writer to know "where he is at." An old farmer who went to hear for the first time the oratorio of "The Messiah" indignantly left Steinway Hall soon after the performance began, because, as he explained to his wife, "the show was so shameful." He said that he didn't know what the play or the singing was about, but he saw enough to satisfy him that it was bad! There were a lot of old maids at the front of the stage bellowing at the top of their voices, "Unto us a child is born," and then at the back of the stage a lot of men were guying them and hollering out, "Wonderful! Wonderful!"

You see, the old man was very much mistaken. Yet arguing from his premises, he was just right. The trouble was that he didn't know where he was at.

The other day there came to Joseph Wild & Co. a superb St. Bernard dog skin, with orders to mount it in a rug. No limit as to time or expense was given by the owner, S. G. Kerr, of S. G. Kerr, Son & Co, of Scranton, Pa. Thereby hangs a story. The dog was "Beauty," a famous St. Bernard belonging to Mr. Kerr. It is the dog that in 1888 won great fame by the finding of a little blind boy lost on West Mountain in April of that year. The child had been missed for twenty-four hours, and his heart-broken mother despaired of ever seeing him again. A friend told her of Mr. Kerr's St. Bernard, and she went to him to see if Mr. Kerr would allow her to take the dog. Mr. Kerr thought that a special training was necessary for the dog to trail a lost boy, but the woman pleaded so piteously, saying it was the only hope she had of finding her blind boy, that Mr. Kerr decided to let the dog go, with the hope that success would crown its efforts. Benny, Mr. Kerr's son, accompanied the dog and woman. After reaching the home of the sorrow-stricken woman in the mountain, the dog began to sniff about and in a few minutes the splendid animal bounded away. An hour afterward the loud barks of the dog resounded through the woods. A hasty visit was made to the place whence the sounds came, and there was a sight which made the mother's heart bound with joy. The noble dog was bending over and licking the face of the prostrate boy, who was alive, but nearly starved, after twenty-four hours of wandering in the woods. Mr. Kerr had repeatedly refused large sums of money for "Beauty."

THE STRAW MATTING TRADE.

Shewan & Co. in their circular dated Hong Kong, April 24, say: "Large settlements have been made during the last week; the price paid for 50 to 55 pounds fancy remains at 9¼@9½c., with dealers very reluctant to accept a large quantity, or even a small lot, without a proportion of the better grades. Medium grades are from one-quarter to one-half cent over normal, while Imperial and narrow Ningpo can be had at their usual rates. Dealers have now their straw stock fully engaged and count largely upon the new crop with which to complete their contracts. Orders are coming in freely and dealers show no very great anxiety to settle, as most of them have as much as they care to undertake. We put settlements to date at 230,000 rolls."

Arnhold, Karberg & Co., in their circular dated Canton, April 15, say:

Our last report was under date of 8th inst. Since then the demand for matting of all grades has continued to be very active, and owing to more liberality shown by buyers settlements reached the important figure of 130,000 rolls. Most of the manufacturers are now unable to book further orders for delivery within November, and as to 50 to 55 pounds, 60 to 65 pounds and 70 to 75 pounds fancy, 2 yards joined, it is impossible to obtain any quantities worth mentioning, even if better prices were offered.

Ehrich Brothers have decided to add a $60,000 building to their Sixth avenue store.

The Greater New York Carpet Cleaning Works is a new concern at 343 West Thirty-seventh street.

Charles Schwartz is about to remove his carpet and furniture business from First avenue to 828 Amsterdam avenue.

Jacob Kabatchnick, dealer in carpets and furniture, has removed from Division street to First avenue and Eighty-first street.

Star & Grundstein, dealers in dry goods, carpets, &c., Denison, Tex., have removed their New York office from Broadway to 45 Lispenard street.

The R. G. Dun Mercantile Agency is about to erect on the northeast corner of Broadway and Reade street a twenty-five story office building, 61x132 feet on the ground.

A number of houses and lots in this city, belonging to the estate of the late J. W. Dimick, were sold by auction on the 27th ult. The total amount realized by the sale was $888,600.

The Retail Furniture and Carpet Salesmen's Association of New York will enjoy an outing and clambake at Greenwald's Hotel, New Dorp, S. I., June 14 next. The boat leaves the foot of Whitehall street at 8:45 A. M.

The schedules of George Follett & Co., wool commission merchants, New York and Boston, show direct liabilities, $140,093; contingent liabilities, $121,241; actual assets, $101,243. The contingent liabilities are for indorsements of notes.

The Ferdinand Hosch Company has been incorporated to deal in fur skins and manufacture robes in Brooklyn; capital, $120,000, and directors, Ferdinand Hosch, Ferdinand Hosch, Jr., of Brooklyn, and B. H. Nauman, of Chicago.

The Carpet Upholsterers' Union will hold its annual picnic at Lion Park on the afternoon and evening of Saturday, June 27. These affairs are always well managed, and the occasion is certain to be a very enjoyable one to all concerned. In connection with the picnic the union is publishing a souvenir book, which will doubtless find a large demand.

In the membership of Long Island Council No. 173, Royal Arcanum, Brooklyn, the carpet trade is represented by C. K. Marx, with Alden Sampson & Sons; Charles Wenthrop, buyer for the Cowperthwait Company; H. McManus, manager for the Liebmann Company, and A. W. Kendrick and E. A. Irwin, of C. T. Kendrick & Co., 949 Myrtle avenue.

Abraham & Straus will add a new seven story building to their store in Brooklyn, seven buildings on Livingston street in the rear of the store having been torn down to make room for the new structure, which will have a frontage of 90 feet on Livingston street and 170 feet on Gallatin place. A feature of the new building will be a roof garden to be used exclusively by the employees of the firm.

While the committee for the organization of furniture dealers were in session the other day several instances were related whereby dealers had lost contracts for the furnishing of flats, &c., and sales of furniture on account of manufacturers stepping in and underbidding the dealers. There seems to be more such cases among the carpet houses than among furniture manufacturers. Mr. Friel, of Friel & Hand, related an instance which only happened a few weeks ago. According to his story he had given a bid for carpeting a flat at 75 cents per yard, made, laid and lined. The carpet cost him 55 cents per yard. He said that the very manufacturer who is supposed to sell and protect the dealers underbid him 10 cents per yard, or, in other words, he bid 65 cents per yard, and naturally secured the contract. The manufacturer evidently figured the carpet at mill prices. The forming of an association is supposed to obviate all these objectionable business methods.—Ex.

Among the buyers in town during the past two weeks were: Messrs. Wm. McClellan, for Burnham, Hanna, Munger & Co., Kansas City; F. A. McReynolds, for the Root & Bride Company, Cleveland; W. A. Boyd, of the Julius Lansburgh Furniture and Carpet Company, Washington, D. C.; George F. Otte and C. E. Spielman, of the George F. Otte Company, Cincinnati; S. Dorian, for Dey Brothers, Syracuse, N. Y.; F. P. Burlingame, for the Callender, McAuslan & Troup Company, Providence; T. A. Evoy, for Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., Chicago; R. S. Marshall, for the John Shillito Company, Cincinnati; W. G. Rogers, for Forbes & Wallace, Springfield, Mass.; E. B. Clark, for the Carter Dry Goods Company, Louisville; H. M. Bixby, of H. M. Bixby & Co., Salem, Mass.; E. J. Kuhne, for Brown, Thomson & Co., Hartford, Conn.; T. B. Kelly, for the Denholm & McKay Company, Worcester, Mass.; Justus Goebel, of Lowry & Goebel, Cincinnati; T. P. Turpin, for Sibley, Lindsay & Curr, Rochester, N. Y.; L. Koenig, Lewistown, Pa.; F. C. Krueger, for Tootle, Wheeler & Motter, St. Joseph, Mo.; Adam Strain, Darien, Ga.; H. Choate, of H. Choate & Co., Winona, Minn.; C. Arnold, of Arnold, Miller & Co., Providence, R. I.; Morris Benson, of the Adam, Meldrum & Anderson Company, Buffalo, N. Y.; A. Livingston, of A. Livingston & Son, Bloomington, Ill.; W. R. Havens, for Sterling, Welch & Co., Cleveland, Ohio; M. H. Harmon, for Green, Joyce & Co., Columbus, Ohio; O. M. Edwards, of E. W. Edwards & Sons, Syracuse, N. Y.; J. W. Eisenhart, of J. G. Eisenhart & Son; S. Rosenbaum, of Rosenbaum Brothers, Cumberland, Md.; H. G. Munger, Herkimer, N. Y.; J. R. Millner, of J. R. Millner & Co., Lynchburg, Va.; Charles F. Bacon, for R. H. White & Co.; T. W. Rich, for Houghton & Dutton, and Bennett Pike (rugs), for Jordan, Marsh & Co., Boston.

....John R. White, Jr., of Los Angeles, Cal., is visiting Philadelphia. Mr. White was connected with the late firm of Boyd, White & Co.

....John A. Dempsey, doing business as Dempsey Brothers, Columbus avenue and Twenty-first street, is closing out his business.

....John Kuestner has taken additional floor space in the building on Emerald street near Cumberland, and will concentrate both his plants there.

....John L. Smith, who travels for Swire & Scott in New York State and Michigan, was a visitor to the firm's mill last week preparatory to starting out on his fall trip.

....It is a standing joke among the carpet men that the next battle ship built by the Cramps for the United States Government will be armored with a certain make of plain linoleum.

....Frank Osborne, of the selling force of J. & J. Dobson, who has been very ill of typhoid pneumonia at a hospital in Detroit, has so far recovered as to be able to return to his business.

...."Harry" Marsh, of the Union Carpet Lining Company, Boston, visited the trade in Philadelphia during the past month, as did also Chas. E. Horne, of Robert Beattie & Sons, New York.

....W. S. Humphreys, for some time connected with the office of Dornan Brothers' mills, is on the road through Pennsylvania and neighboring States with a fine line of the Monitor Mills productions.

....Geo. Kelley's carpet department has been doing a phenomenal business in the firm's new quarters. Under the able management of John Eberbach the department has grown to be one of the finest in the city.

....D. T. McKelvey, well known to the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington trade as representing Boyd, Harley & Co. for several years past, goes with W. & J. Sloane in their rug and matting department on June 1.

....Strawbridge & Clothier have secured the contract for furnishing Forepaugh's Theatre with carpets and draperies. The floor will be covered with Wilton velvet in two shades of terra cotta, while the draperies, portières, &c., will be in harmonious colors.

....A meeting of the board of directors of the Philadelphia Bourse was held on Tuesday evening, May 19, followed by a banquet. Among those present were William H. McCallum and Robert Dornan, both gentlemen being active members of the board.

....A. E. Hand, for some time located at 245 Market street, will on the first of June remove to Rooms 602 and 603 Bourse Building. Mr. Hand will not only carry his own accounts to that locality, but will look after the interests of Dornan Brothers, who are the lessees of the rooms. He will attend to the nearby trade only.

....Mr. Walter M. La Rue, of Fritz, La Rue & Sinn, and Miss Nellie Clark Fruit were married at Hazleton, Pa., on the 12th ult. The bridal trip included a visit to New York, Old Point Comfort and Washington, and Mr. La Rue was back at business on the 22d ult. He stands the congratulations nobly.

....Dornan Brothers have gotten out a new heavy weave of Ingrain carpet which surpasses in texture all former products of that enterprising firm. It is a solid fabric, much heavier than the best extra Ingrain, and peculiarly adapted to delicate shading of color tints. The new fabric is christened the "Mogul," and is sure to be a favorite with the trade.

....The James Lee's Sons Company, of Bridgeport, Pa., are turning out highly satisfactory qualities of woolen and worsted carpet yarns. They have one of the largest and best equipped plants in the country running on various kinds of yarns and cloths. William Ivins, of the Ivins, Dietz & Metzger Company, is president of the Lee's Sons Company.

....At the annual meeting of the Manufacturers' Club on the 18th ult. John H. Converse was elected president and James Dobson was chosen as one of the two vice-presidents. Among the twenty-two directors elected were Robert Dornan and James Doak, Jr. A resolution regretting the retirement of Robert Dornan from the presidency of the club was adopted.

....The retirement of Joseph P. Truitt from the chairmanship of the house committee and from the board of directors of the Manufacturers' Club has led his fellow members to offer him a complimentary reception, which will be held on the 3d inst. Messrs. Robert Dornan and James Pollock are among the members of the committee that has charge of the arrangements for the reception.

....The following carpet firms have been represented at the Bourse during the past few days: J. S. Beckel & Son, Coatesville, Pa.; J. H. Law, Hollidaysburg, Pa.; Geo. T. Huston, of Hecht & Son, Baltimore, Md.; F. Miller, D. P. Irwin & Co., Indianapolis, Ind.; J. L. Branders & Son, Omaha, Neb.; W. B. Sharp & Co., Wilmington, Del.; Trorlicht, Duncker & Renard Carpet Company, St. Louis.

Keefer & Coon, the Ingrain manufacturers, of Seventh street and Lehigh avenue, Philadelphia, have made a good start on fall business.

Ingrain carpets, Art Squares and Smyrna rugs in great variety are offered by John Black, 115 Worth street, New York, who is agent for several mill accounts.

PRIZES FOR CARPET DESIGNS.

S. Sanford & Sons have authorized us to announce that they offer three prizes for Tapestry carpet designs; $100 for the best design, with a second prize of $80 and a third prize of $40. The competition is open to all, and will be conducted with absolute fairness, and The Review can assure the candidates that the awards will be made on the judgment of skilled and impartial experts on practical carpet designs. The identity of a competitor need not be disclosed if he desires to remain incognito, and the Messrs. Sanford will purchase all acceptable non-prize winning designs at prices to be mutually agreed upon between them and the designers. The competition will close on September 1, 1896, and instructions as to forwarding designs will be given in our next issue.

S. Sanford & Sons offered prizes through The Review on a similar basis in 1890, and the first prize design of that competition is still being made by them and has been a large seller.

D. Jamieson's Sons, proprietors of the Hope Mills, 1732 to 1738 Leib street, Philadelphia, make a strong bid for the favor of the trade in their new line of Ingrains. These goods come in new and handsome patterns, embracing a large range of choice designs and colorings, which are certain to make an excellent impression on buyers.

IMPORTANT TO BUYERS OF ROXBURY TAPESTRIES AND WHITTALL BRUSSELS.

A change has been made in the distribution of Roxbury Tapestries and Velvets and Whittall Body Brussels from Philadelphia. These very choice and attractive goods will hereafter be wholesaled from Philadelphia exclusively by the E. R. Artman-Treichler Company, who are in a position to interest all retail buyers of these makes.

Philadelphia has long been known as one of the largest distributing points on Roxbury and Whittall carpets, and in securing the goods the E. R. Artman-Treichler Company have still further strengthened their already leading position as carpet jobbers.

They have been particularly noted for their large and comprehensive assortment of all kinds of floor coverings, and the best evidence of their ability to interest buyers and of their great resources is the position they have maintained uninterruptedly for so many years.

The new fall lines of Roxbury and Whittall carpets, as well as their immense assortment of the other leading makes regularly carried, are ready for inspection at their sales-rooms, 713 Market street, Philadelphia.

Their traveling men will start out shortly on fall trips, and when they call carpet buyers should remember that there is an increased attraction in looking over this company's lines.

WM. FRANCIS CARROLL.

The New Jersey Car Spring and Rubber Company are well and favorably known as extensive manufacturers of rubber mats and matting. Among their offerings for the fall trade are their popular specialties, corrugated mats and treads, perforated mats, solid back mats, &c. Write to them for their illustrated catalogue, prices and samples. Their factory and office are at the corner of Wayne and Brunswick streets, Jersey City, N. J.

The Maryland Legislature has passed a law abolishing days of grace in that State. The law takes effect June 1, 1896. All instruments made prior to that time will bear the three days' grace.

Julius G. Pegel, whose studio is at the northwest corner of Hope and Dauphin streets, Philadelphia, is widely known as a skillful designer for carpets, rugs, curtains, &c. A call at his studio is recommended to anyone who needs first-class work in his line.

OFF FOR CHINA AND JAPAN.

Wm. F. Carroll, treasurer and manager of the New York and Amsterdam Carpet Company, sailed for China and Japan from San Francisco, on May 20, by the steamer China. The matting business of the company has increased to such proportions during the last few years that Mr. Carroll's personal supervision is required in those countries to extend the connections of the house and select goods for the coming season.

Mr. Carroll's rare ability as a buyer will undoubtedly enable him to make a decided success of his trip and to send over to his house a choice stock of mattings.

Mr. Carroll ranks as one of our most successful merchants. He is in every way a self-made man, and deserves his success, having risen to the high and respected position he occupies in the trade by his own unaided energy and push. Starting as a boy in one of our leading carpet houses, he mastered the business thoroughly and in time his talents as a buyer and salesman enabled him to try his fortunes in business on his own account. His beginning was a very modest one, but by degrees he organized the business now widely known as the New York and Amsterdam Carpet Company. By square dealing, ability and enterprise he has pushed himself and his company to the front rank, and to-day stands at the head of a large and prosperous concern whose steady growth has been the wonder of the trade. Possessing in an unusual degree the confidence of the business community and of his customers, Mr. Carroll is sure to lead his house on to continued success, and his many friends will wish him success in his present mission and a safe return. He expects to be back in New York in September. Meantime the business will be conducted in the usual progressive manner and is in safe and competent hands.

Bennett & Brickett, 26 Chauncy street, Boston, are showing the Damask and Venetian stair carpets of James Pollock & Sons, in addition to their other lines.

All grades of carpet lining are made by the New York Carpet Lining Company, and it will be well to remember this fact in putting in stock for the fall season. The factory of the company is at 308 East Ninety-fifth street, New York, and P. J. Donovan, its agent, shows the line at his office, 874 Broadway, New York. Call or write for samples and prices.

ARNOLD, CONSTABLE & CO.'S RUGS, INGRAINS AND MATTINGS.

For the fall trade the offerings in the rug, Ingrain and matting department of Arnold, Constable & Co. are in the highest degree attractive. As sole agents for the Van Deventer Carpet Company the firm shows three grades of that company's popular line of Ingrains; namely the Westminster, extra heavy; Marlboro, standard grade, and Fayran, cotton chain, the same grades being shown also in Art Squares. The line is especially strong, being replete with new and artistic patterns which must be seen to be appreciated. In Smyrnas Mr. Hockridge shows the new line of Victor rugs, for which Arnold, Constable & Co. are sole agents, and as usual the Lowell Daghestan rugs are a conspicuous feature of the firm's fall offerings. Among the other notable attractions are the Angora mohair rugs and the line of Japanese jute and cotton rugs and carpets manufactured under the supervision of Mr. Hockridge, and comprising a wide range of original designs and colorings, the patterns in cotton goods including Delft blue and white, olive and white, gold and white, &c.

Being especially extensive importers of straw mattings, controlling the output of factories in China and Japan, Arnold, Constable & Co. are in a position to offer the strongest possible inducements to buyers, the lines shown being notable not only for the assortment of standard patterns, but also for the great number of exclusive specialties and novelties prepared under the direction of Mr. Hockridge.

The offerings in China goat and sheep skin rugs are also especially attractive, including a large variety of some of the most attractive styles ever brought out in such goods.

JOHN DUNLAP & SON'S INGRAINS.

An especially prominent place among the fall offerings to the trade will be taken by the new line of John Dunlap & Son, Philadelphia, which includes those sterling brands of Ingrains known as the Khorassan, Germantown high grade, all wool Extra Supers and C. C. Extra Supers, the Standard regular all wool Extra Supers and C. C. Extra Supers, all wool and C. C. Three Plys, Union Three Plys and half and quarter wool heavy Unions.

These goods are shown in new lines of handsome, original designs and colorings, and in the Khorassans the Messrs. Dunlap show an entirely new weave of Ingrain which is one of the best heavy Ingrain ever produced.

See their new advertisement on page 10 of this issue.

M. H. Marcus & Brother offer a special inducement in carpet lining on page 76. They quote 115 pound cotton filled lining at $3 per bale. New customers are being added continuously on their patent Adjustable stair pads, and also on the flat quilted stair pads. It should be remembered that their salesroom is now at 115 Worth street, New York.

BOSTON BUDGET.

BOSTON, MAY 25.

The referees selected to make an award in the case of Thomas O'Callaghan & Co., dealers in carpets and rugs, Washington street, this city, whose stock was damaged by smoke from a fire last January in Seligman's cloak store, adjoining, forwarded the result of their deliberations to Mr. U. C. Crosby, representative of the insurance companies in this matter, and to Mr. O'Callaghan, on May 16. The amount was $14,750. The referees were Robert W. Nason, attorney-at-law, selected by the insurance companies; M. J. Whittall, carpet manufacturer, Worcester, selected by the claimant, and James R. Gilmore, Jr., of Lord & Taylor's, New York city, selected by the other two referees, as the law provides. The total amount of insurance carried at the time of the fire was $176,500. The award is thus about 8 per cent. of the amount of the policies carried. The damage was caused by a deposit of carbon on the edges of the rolls of carpet and by the odor of smoke. Large quantities of goods have been held since the fire occurred to show the referees and interested parties the extent of the damage. The fees of the referees were $1,500 each, one-half of which is paid by the insurance companies and the other half by the insured.

Trade remains dull.

John A. Pray is on a brief visit to Montclair, N. J.

Mr. Low, representing James Humphries' Sons, was among recent visitors.

The Boston office of the Lowell Company is now at Nos. 140 to 144 Essex street.

W. Potter, of Potter & Pearson, is here, showing the fall line of Farr & Bailey's oil cloths.

J. C. Church, for some time salesman in R. H. White & Co.'s carpet department, has left that firm.

Charles F. Bacon, manager of R. H. White & Co.'s carpet department, will sail from New York on June 4 for Europe, to make his annual tour of the carpet and rug centres.

At a meeting of creditors of W. E. Carpenter, of South Gardner, Mass., which was held at Boston on the 11th ult., it was decided to accept Mr. Carpenter's offer of 40 cents on the dollar.

C. A. Laubham, manager of Jordan, Marsh & Co.'s carpet department, has become a benedict and taken his wife to a pretty home in Allston, one of Boston's most attractive suburbs.

Frank H. Hubbard, who has represented Boyd, Harley & Co. in Boston for the past five years, goes with John H. Pray, Sons & Co. on June 1. Mr. Hubbard is an able and popular salesman who has always held the esteem of the trade and his employers. He will have an excellent line of floor coverings with which to interest his trade, including Roxbury Tapestries, in the sales of which he was remarkably successful while with Boyd, Harley & Co. F. J. B.

Robertson & Hall have realized some of the advantages of their new location at Lehigh avenue and Front street, Philadelphia, through the new jobbing customers made for the fall season on their desirable Ingrains. They have an attractive line, and will doubtless largely increase their business this fall.

FROM FIBRE TO THE FLOOR.

CHARACTER of the five frame design is exhibited in the accompanying figure. Here A represents the arrangement of the warp yarns, and each thread is obtained from a separate frame, hence there must be five frames. They are shaded differently, for the purpose of illustrating that they are not similar in color. B represents the position in which these yarns appear in the carpet. Thread No. 1 extends directly through the pattern without verging to the right or left, and the same may be said of threads Nos. 2, 3, 4 and 5. All of them extend parallelly through the warp and can never cross over one another.

PRINCIPLES OF A FIVE FRAME BRUSSELS.—Thus in designing a Brussels or Wilton carpet it is essential to maintain uniformity in the arrangement of the colors and to see that each warp thread corresponds in line with its frame. The binder threads are arranged in the intervening space between each five threads. Whenever a color is not wanted on the surface it remains depressed and weaves in on the under side of the texture.

APPLYING FLOWERS TO DESIGNS.—The art of transferring flowers and other effects to paper is accomplished as follows:

EXPLANATION OF THE TRANSFERRING ART.—In these cuts is a view of flowers. Now, the object is to select one or two for use in the pattern under consideration. E and F are selected and flattened out on a paper as shown. A little mucilage will hold the parts in place. Next check off the outlines by dotting, as shown. Then comes the work of filling in, as represented by G and H. Part of each sample only is filled in so as to show how it is done. Of course all must be filled in in practice. Now comes the regular work of making the risers and sinkers, which is done according to the usual rules of designing any patterns of the figure class. By the above method perfect forms of figures are assured.

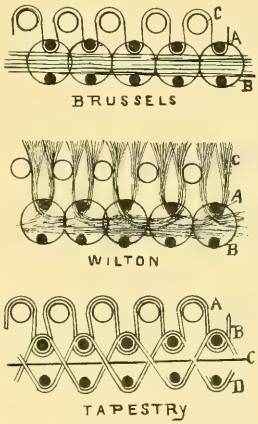
CLASSES OF CARPETS.—There are six classes of carpets in common use. These are the Brussels, the Wilton, the Kidderminster or Ingrain, the Scotch, the Axminster, the Venetian and the Tapestry. In the Brussels carpet a linen warp is employed and inclosed in worsted yarns raised into loops for the formation of the pattern. An examination of the following sectional view will show how the Brussels carpet is constructed.

PRINCIPLE OF THE FABRICATION OF THE BRUSSELS CARPET.—The pattern is formed by the arrangement of the straight worsted yarns which run longitudinally through its centre, as shown in the diagram. These yarns are variously colored and made to appear on the surface at the proper time, thus forming the figured effects. The black dots A represent the filling and the double lines B the linen warp; C indicates the ends of the wires which are employed for the purpose of maintaining the elevated worsted yarns in the form of a loop. The ground warp in the Brussels carpet is interlaced with the filling on what is termed the common four harness basket weave, which is so arranged that every two successive picks insert in the same shred of the ground warp and are separated by the pile warp. One pick passes above and the other below, thus forming a substantial fabric. There are several grades of Brussels carpet, and termed three frame, four frame, up to six frame, according to the different colors found in the different rows of squares in a vertical direction on the draughting paper. If the loops formed on the surface of the Brussels carpet were "cut" the result would be the production of the Wilton carpet.

Fig. 12.



The Wilton carpet differs from the Brussels in one feature only—that is in the loops. The wire used when weaving the Brussels is perfectly smooth throughout its entire length, therefore it effects no change in the loops when withdrawn.

In the case of the Wilton carpet, however, the wires are fitted with a sharp, knife-like piece at the end, so when it is withdrawn the loops are severed, as shown in the specimen. The structure of the Wilton carpet is precisely the same as that of the Brussels, and the only difference is due to the fact that the loops are cut in one case and not in the other.

THE KIDDERMINSTER OR INGRAIN CARPET.—This carpet is made with a worsted warp and a woolen filling, and consists substantially of two independent series of warp threads, united in such way that they produce the pattern. Each system of warp forms a separate cloth, both of which are woven simultaneously, one or the other being brought to the surface as often as necessary to produce the pattern. Great skill is called for in the manufacture of these carpets, for there is always a tendency to form stripes in the Ingrains, since the pattern produced by one set of colors crosses another. When a solid color is required the color of the filling is made to correspond with that of the warp. The Scotch carpet is very similar in its make and characteristics to that of the Ingrain, and consequently does not require an individual consideration.

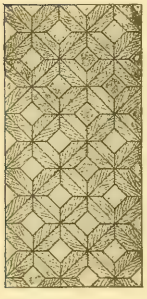
The Axminster Carpet.—This carpet derived its name from the town of Axminster in Devonshire, where they were largely manufactured fifty years ago. It is composed wholly of worsted yarns and is therefore an expensive carpet.

The Venetian Carpet.—The Venetian carpet is woven in a common loom, the pattern being formed entirely by the warp threads, which are manufactured of worsted fibres.

Tapestry Carpet. — Tapestry carpet is a warp pile texture and the loop is not cut. It resembles the Brussels carpet very closely, but its construction is different. Three separate systems of warp threads are required in the fabrication of Tapestry : 1. The ground warp. 2. The pile warp. 3. The thickening warp. The "pile" or face warp has the pattern printed on it before it is arranged on the beam for the loom. The structure of the Tapestry carpet will be understood by referring to the illustration. The ground warp is represented by B, the thickening warp by C, the pile or face warp by A. The circular spaces in the upper row indicate the position of the wires. The series of lower dots indicate the filling threads that interlace these different systems of warp yarns together. In the Tapestry carpet one double thread of worsted, printed according to the desired pattern, is employed for one row of loops in the direction of the warp, while in the case of the Brussels a similar double thread is employed for each color as needed by one row of squares in the direction of the warp on the design paper. The manipulation of the threads in the Brussels is such that the thickness of the carpet is obtained by the pure wool and worsted threads, while in the Tapestry cotton, jute and other low grade materials are often introduced for this purpose.

PARQUET FLOORS.



The sale of parquet floors can be made a profitable part of any carpet dealer's business. The samples occupy but a small space and the ordinary carpet measurer can easily learn to measure for a parquet floor. The Interior Hardwood Company, Indianapolis, Ind., manufacture these floors to order and ship them ready to lay down, so it may be seen that the carpet dealer can make a good profit with little or no trouble to himself. He can also largely increase the business of his rug department, for rugs are generally desired whenever a hardwood floor is used. The money diverted from the carpet department by the sale of a parquet floor is more than returned to the dealer by the sale of the floor and the rug or rugs which go with it.

The Interior Hardwood Company make the best parquet floors produced in this country, and their new book of designs and catalogue of new patterns, which should be in the hands of every carpet dealer, can be obtained by writing for them. The carpet and rug buyers who have recently received the new catalogue and circulars of this company should give them careful attention.

AN IMPORTANT PATENT DECISION.

The suit of the Singer Manufacturing Company against the June Manufacturing Company and Burt was decided in the Supreme Court on the 18th. The result was a practical victory for the Singer Company ; but one of the leading contentions of its counsel was overthrown by the decision which was announced by Justice White. He stated that where, under the life of a patent, a name became the generic designation of the thing made at the end of the life of the patent the name, with the article patented, became the property of the public, and its use could not be restrained by injunction. The court further held, however, that the right did not exist to use the name indiscriminately or without qualification so that the public would be deceived by its use into the belief that the thing manufactured was different from what it really was, or that it was made by a person or corporation other than the real maker. In these cases the name and the initial design used by the Singer Company, both being involved, were not so qualified, and the judgment of the Circuit Court of the Northern District of Illinois, in favor of the June Company and Burt, as reversed, with directions to modify the decree in accordance with the opinion of the Supreme Court of the United States.

JOHN BROMLEY & SONS.

T. B. Shoaff & Co., agents for John Bromley & Sons', Smyrna carpets, rugs and mats, have the new line of these choice and popular goods on view in their salesrooms, 935 Broadway, New York, and it is one which cannot fail to satisfy perfectly every possible demand of the trade. The immense variety of styles represented in it affords an exceptional opportunity for selections to suit every taste, and while high-class effects are shown in great number, the assortment of bright, popular patterns is even more extensive than ever before.

The Messrs. Bromley may justly be congratulated on the remarkable attractiveness of their offerings for the coming season.

ROXBURY CARPET COMPANY.

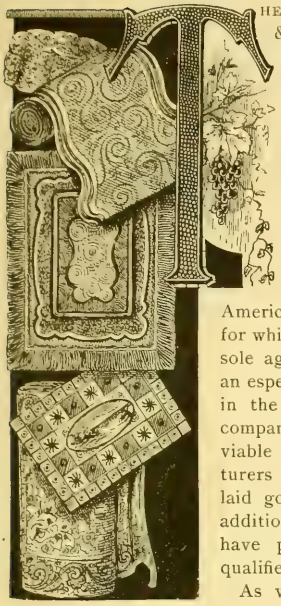
In the manufacture of Tapestry and Velvet carpeting, the Roxbury Carpet Company has long been particularly conspicuous, and its offerings for the coming season show conclusively that its prestige in this line of trade is to be held as strongly as ever.

In the new line of patterns now on view the trade will find the established favorites which are in demand season after season, and likewise an immense variety of entirely new and original designs and colorings, embracing the finest effects possible in Tapestry and Velvet manufacture.

The line is shown by the agents, T. B. Shoaff & Co., at their salesrooms, 935 Broadway, New York, and also at the Boston office, 67 Chauncy street and the Chicago office, 147 Fifth avenue.

D. N. & E. Walter & Co., San Francisco, Cal., show for the coming season lines of carpeting and upholstery goods which should be especially attractive to buyers on the Pacific Coast and tributary territory. The Messrs. Walter stand very high in the jobbing trade of San Francisco, and are in a position to interest every buyer.

JOSEPH WILD & CO.



The offerings of Joseph Wild & Co. for the coming season cover as usual an exceptional range of fabrics and styles, and a notable feature—even more marked than in any previous season—is the great variety of novelties and specialties prepared expressly for the fall trade.

The new line of the American Linoleum Company, for which Joseph Wild & Co. are sole agents, occupies of course an especially prominent position in the present offerings. The company have long held an enviable reputation as manufacturers of linoleum, and the inlaid goods, which are the latest addition to their attractive line, have proved a great and unqualified success.

As very extensive and direct importers of Chinese and Japanese mattings Joseph Wild & Co. are always in a position to strongly interest buyers, and their present offerings in these goods are even more important and interesting than in any previous seasons.

Joseph Wild & Co.'s Oriental rug department is also an especially conspicuous feature of their business. They show an immense line of these goods of their own importation, comprising a wide range of makes, sizes and styles in both antique and modern goods. A. H. Campbell, manager of this department, makes regular trips to the Orient to replenish his stock, and is now opening for inspection a great variety of choice things secured by him during his recent visit to the far East.

Mr. Charles Pearson, who has charge of the firm's art square and Smyrna department, is presenting particularly strong inducements to buyers, his new lines being replete with new and original conceptions, which are certain to win speedy favor in the trade. In Smyrnas and art squares all the well-known grades manufactured by Joseph Wild & Co. are shown in the usual variety of sizes, and the assortment of distinct novelties in designs and colorings is even greater than in any previous season.

Joseph Wild & Co. manufacture animal skin rugs, sheepskin mats, robes, &c., on a very extensive scale, and their offerings in these goods are worthy of particular attention, being more varied as well as more extensive than ever before. This department is now one of the most important in the establishment of Wild & Co., and an inspection of the offerings will well repay every buyer of such goods. In table, stair and shelf oil cloths the firm show an immense assortment of patterns in all grades. Being large manufacturers of these goods, they are in a position to meet any competition, whether it be in price or quality.

The firm's offerings are shown at their stores, 82 and 84 Worth street, and also at their Boston salesroom, 594 Washington street.

WHITTALL WILTONS AND BRUSSELS.

As sole agents for the noted manufacturer, Matthew J. Whittall, of Worcester, Mass., T. B. Shoaff & Co. have now on view in their New York salesrooms, 935 Broadway, the complete line of Victoria Wiltons and Brussels, Whittall Wiltons and Brussels, Edgeworth Brussels and Assyrian Wiltons, in the new designs and colorings prepared for the fall trade.

The enviable reputation of Mr. Whittall as a manufacturer of high grade carpeting would be a sufficient guarantee of the quality and attractiveness of the line, but the most casual inspection will also show that it speaks for itself and must indeed be seen to be appreciated.

D. POWERS & SONS.

In the floor oil cloth trade the semi-annual offerings of D. Powers & Sons are always a highly important factor, and the new line which the firm has prepared for the fall trade is in full accordance with this fact. It is shown in all the usual grades and with new and handsome patterns, even more prominent than ever before. James H. Clinchy, agent for the firm, has the line on view at the New York salesrooms, 117 Duane street, and is showing also a line of Chinese and Japanese mattings of the firm's own importation. Mr. Clinchy desires to close out this stock of mattings, and has marked down prices accordingly.

A NEW ORLEANS JOBBING HOUSE.

The extensive jobbing and importing establishment of Leopold Levy, 723 Canal street, New Orleans, offers special advantages to Southern dealers in the saving of time and freight expenses, while it also affords them the opportunity of securing complete assortments of carpeting, linoleum, floor oil cloth, rugs, upholstery goods, curtains, window shades, &c., from an immense stock, comprising judicious selections from the offerings of the leading manufacturers of the country.

In Chinese and Japanese mattings Mr. Levy offers the strongest possible inducements to buyers, being an extensive and direct importer of these goods. His line includes an immense range of standard, special and novel styles, in which can be found prices and patterns to suit every possible demand of the trade.

Among the old and prominent houses in the straw matting trade Hadden & Co. are especially notable, for the name of Hadden has been identified with the matting importing trade since this branch of business was in its infancy. Hadden & Co., although so old a firm, are thoroughly young and progressive in their business methods, as may be seen by any buyer who inspects their offerings of Chinese and Japanese matting now on view in their New York store, 356 Broadway. In extent, variety and attractiveness their line is all that could be desired, and is also replete with exclusive specialties and novelties which cannot be found elsewhere.

BUSINESS IN BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, MAY 25.

Samuel Hecht, Jr., & Sons have disposed of large quantities of mattings this season to meet the requirements of the local and outside trade. The stock of floor coverings carried by this enterprising firm comprises every variety, from the handsomest textures woven by Oriental skill to the products of our own mills.

John Swire, with Thomas L. Leedom & Co., was here the 18th inst.

Shaivitz & Co., South Charles street, are enlarging their carpet and curtain department.

Stephenson & Co., general merchandise and carpeting, are about to enlarge their store at Fountain Green, Md.

Emanuel Hecht, of Samuel Hecht, Jr., & Sons, will sail for Europe from New York June 13 on the steamship Saale.

A representative of the E. R. Artman-Treichler Company, Philadelphia, interviewed the Baltimore dealers the 20th inst.

The store of W. H. Hudings, carpets and furniture, Blokes, Va., was burned the 12th inst. Loss covered by insurance.

A. W. Dutton and others have incorporated the Augusta House Furnishing Company, Augusta, Ga., with a capital stock of $10,000.

The large store of John F. Powell & Son, dry goods and carpeting, Franklin City, Va., was destroyed by fire the 17th inst. Loss, $7,000; insured for $5,000.

Joseph Cocking, general merchandise and carpeting, is in jail awaiting trial on the charge of having murdered his wife and sister-in-law at Hill Top, Md., April 23.

The stock of goods of J. Wills & Co., general merchandise and carpeting, Charlottesville, Va., was badly damaged during a heavy wind and rain storm the 12th inst.

George Reynolds has taken the general merchandise store formerly occupied by Frank C. Norris, Fallston, Md., and opened with a new stock of dry goods, carpeting, &c.

The committee on decorations have awarded the contract for decorating the Auditorium for the Confederate reunion at Richmond, Va., next month to Mitteldorfer & Co., of that city.

The side wheel steamer City of Richmond, of New London, Conn., purchased by the Florida East Coast Line, has been handsomely fitted up with carpeting by John Turnbull, Jr., & Co.

Wm. Hicks, of William Hicks & Co., Bluefields, Va., and Thomas Reedy and Marcus Notes, Washington, D. C., were among the carpet and furniture buyers in town during the past week.

Costikyan Freres, importers of Oriental rugs and carpets, 49 Liberty street, New York, are now showing among their special offerings a lot of antique runners at $11.50.

In their preparations for the coming season dealers should bear in mind the cork carpeting and linoleum manufactured by the Kirkcaldy Linoleum Company and shown by Herbert Plympton, sole agent for the company in the United States, at his office, 100 Worth street, New York. Cork carpet is a warm, soft, elastic, durable floor covering which is rapidly winning popularity in this country, and the line shown by Mr. Plympton is the most attractive one ever brought out by the Kirkcaldy Company.

BIGELOW BRUSSELS, AXMINSTERS AND WILTONS.

The new line of the Bigelow Carpet Company for the fall trade is a striking illustration of the progress of the carpet industry in this country, for in the Bigelow Wiltons, Axminsters and Brussels now on view will be found the most admirable effects of coloring and shading known in carpet manufacture. The line includes the five-frame Bigelow Brussels, two grades of Axminsters, and Wiltons in three grades, and each grade is replete with new and artistic designs and colorings. Mr. William B. Kendall is well satisfied with the line, and that fact alone is sufficient to indicate its remarkable merit, for Mr. Kendall is one of the few men who are recognized as unquestionable authorities on the subject of carpet patterns.

BALTIMORE'S JOBBING HOUSE.

Samuel Hecht, Jr., & Sons, of Baltimore, Md., are preparing for a more extensive jobbing trade than ever before, and expect to cover the country fully with a select and in many cases an exclusive line of carpetings, rugs, oil cloths and linoleums; and their road men will also carry an extensive line of their mattings on the fall trip. This firm report an exceedingly good season in mattings, having done a business beyond their utmost expectations, and are preparing for the season of 1896–7 with a line to suit the most fastidious, both in styles and prices. As they are giving their whole attention to the importing and jobbing business, buyers can rely on getting every advantage to be derived from a stock selected with this view, as well as the best prices.

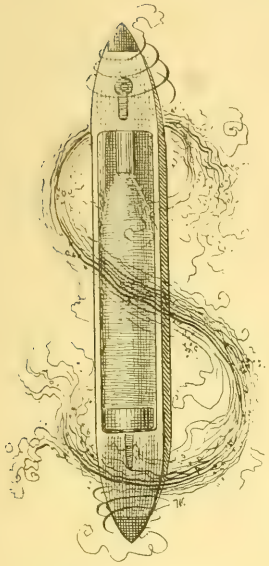
D. W. McCLAIN'S FALL OFFERINGS.

That well-known and popular manufacturers' agent, Daniel W. McClain, is showing a superb assortment of new patterns in the strong lines of carpets represented by him. He is selling agent for the Read Carpet Company's Axminster rugs and carpets and standard Extra Super Ingrains. The Read Axminster rugs and carpets have become firmly established as good sellers and give universal satisfaction to both the dealer and his customer. They are made in sizes from a rug 27 by 62 inches to a carpet 11 feet 3 inches by 14 feet 3 inches. Read Extra Supers are offered in a quality and weave even superior to the goods produced in former seasons, while the patterns and colorings will satisfy every desire for diversity and newness.

Mr. McClain is also selling agent for C. B. Ashbridge, manufacturer of C. C. Extra Supers, Unions, 10, 8 and 6 pair double cottons, and carries other desirable lines of Ingrains, including hall and stair Ingrains to match. His complete fall lines are displayed at his salesroom, 110 Worth street, New York, and he will show them on the road personally.

F. H. Lapsley & Brother, 12 South Charles street, Baltimore, will offer for the fall trade a large assortment of floor and table oil cloths, linoleums, &c., comprising judicious selections from the most desirable patterns in the market. Reference to their offerings in window shades, hollands, &c., will be found in our upholstery department.

THOMAS L. LEEDOM & CO.



SPECIAL importance always attaches to the semi-annual offerings of Thomas L. Leedom & Co., for the great productive facilities of this firm and their experience and skill as manufacturers enable them to offer the strongest possible inducements to buyers of Ingrains, art squares and Smyrnas.

In their line of Ingrains for the coming season two new grades are shown, namely, the Karadi and the Southdown. The Karadi, a three ply damask fabric, is an entirely new weave patented and controlled exclusively by Leedom & Co. In this weave five different colors can be used and the exceptionally handsome color effects thus made possible are well illustrated in the patterns now on view. The Southdown is a 15 pair pure all wool Extra Super, and being shown in a large assortment of novel and handsome patterns it is certain to make a highly favorable impression on the trade, fabric and patterns being alike attractive. In addition to these new grades Leedom & Co. show their regular grades, comprising their 4-4 Dundee, an extra heavy Three Ply, Extra Supers, Cotton Chain Extras, Unions and 8 and 6 pair Cottons in an immense variety of new and standard designs and colorings, and in both Extra Supers and art squares the Delft blue styles are a prominent feature. The art square offerings embrace five grades, the Arabian, Dundee, all wool, Cotton Chain and Union. In all these goods will be found an abundant assortment of novel and artistic patterns, for Leedom & Co. have always ranked especially high in the manufacture of art squares.

The same remark applies with equal force to the showing of Smyrnas. Leedom & Co. show for the coming season, in addition to their best grade, another called the Ratcliffe, which is replete with popular quick selling patterns. Their best grade is as usual notable for original, thoroughly artistic effects. The many choice novelties in this grade should be seen to be appreciated.

The offerings include also a large line of plain terries. A book embracing all the various shadings shown in these goods will be sent on application.

Leedom & Co.'s complete line is on view at the mills, Bristol, Pa., the New York salesroom, where Mr. Samuel Thomas, of the firm, is in charge, and also at their Boston office, 67 Chauncy street, where J. A. Pike receives the trade.

THE cocoa mats and matting manufactured by Thos. H. Lynn & Co., Trenton, N. J., are well calculated to interest the trade by both price and quality. The goods are shown at the firm's New York office, 110 Worth street, where S. Rodebaugh is in charge.

OBITUARY.

O. W. Knowlton.

O. W. Knowlton, dealer in carpets and furniture, Derby, Conn., died on the 15th ult. His death was the result of a fall a few days before from the third story of his building, where he had gone to adjust a block and fall used in hoisting goods. When picked up it was found that he had fractured his leg in three places and sustained a severe shock. He was removed to his home, where he received medical attention, and the physicians assured his wife and friends that he would undoubtedly recover. A few days elapsed, when congestion of the brain developed, followed by his death, as above noted.

Oliver W. Knowlton was born in Belchertown, Mass., in 1856 and at the time of his death was not quite forty years old. He went to Derby in 1884 as an agent, and in that year formed a copartnership with George Thomas, and they opened a furniture and carpet store in the Shay Building on Housatonic avenue. The business becoming quite extensive they moved to more commodious quarters in the Flaherty Building, and their business increasing, two stores were merged into one, for them. Then Mr. Thomas sold out his interest in the business, and thereupon the firm of O. W. Knowlton & Co. was formed, with V. A. Page, of Derby, as the silent partner. The business continued to grow, and shortly after the death of the late George C. Bedient his former stand was leased by Knowlton & Co., and there for some time past the firm has been doing a large business, commanding a very liberal share of the patronage of the community.

Mr. Knowlton's superior business abilities and his great popularity, combined, succeeded in building up a lucrative business. His methodical management of the business, finds it, at his death, in excellent condition, and his sudden and unexpected demise will in no sense mean its disruption. He was prominently identified with the Methodist Episcopal Church of Derby, and was a member of Ousatonic Lodge, I. O. O. F. A widow survives him.

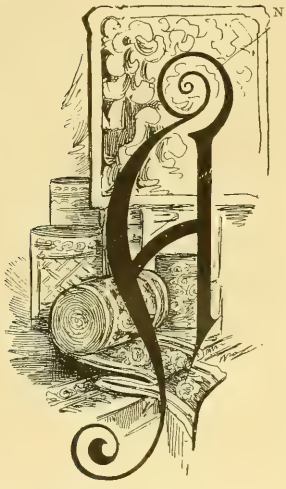
Carl Weigel, president of the Weigel & Sons Furniture Company, St. Joseph, Mo., died there on the 13th ult. of appendicitis after an illness of about one week. He was fifty-two years old and had been a resident of St. Joseph for thirty-two years, having gone there almost direct from his native country, Bavaria. He was a member of several fraternal organizations and leaves a widow and several children.

George Dompierrie, a well-known Jersey City dealer in carpets and furniture, died at his home in that city on the 16th ult. He was born in Quebec, Canada, forty-nine years ago, but had lived in Jersey City since 1870. He was a candidate for alderman at the last municipal election, and while out one night canvassing the ward he fell and sustained injuries which ultimately caused his death.

William Craven, a retired yarn manufacturer, died at Philadelphia recently at the age of seventy-eight years. He was for six years manager of the carpet yarn factory of J. & J. Dobson, and in 1872, when the factory was closed, he was given the management of the Messrs. Dobson's carpet mills, and remained in this position until 1880. In that year he engaged in the manufacture of yarns, on his own account at first, and later as a member of the firm of Craven & Dearnly. In October, 1894, Mr. Craven retired from business. He leaves a widow and three daughters.

"BUY YOUR CARPETS IN ST. LOUIS."

THE FALL OFFERINGS OF THE J. KENNARD & SONS CARPET COMPANY.



An announcement of extraordinary interest to all buyers of carpets or any kind of floor coverings and upholstery, is made by the J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company, of St. Louis, on the outside back cover of The Review. This great house is well justified in stating that it is being demonstrated more forcibly every year that they can offer greater advantages to the trade in the West, South and Southwest than the Eastern houses or any other wholesale carpet house in the West. These advantages arise from their carrying an immense stock of all kinds of floor coverings, which they are able to sell at factory prices, giving the buyer the advantages of lower freight charges, quicker deliveries, accommodations in cut quantities and in duplicating, and in offering him the choicest productions of the market, including every requirement of a well rounded carpet stock, from a hemp to the finest Axminster. It is obvious that judicious and careful buying can be better adhered to in selecting from such comprehensive lines as the Kennard Company's than in buying different grades from different houses. In duplicating their customers will have at their call the exceptionally large stock carried in St. Louis, saving the buyer days or weeks of valuable time in the active cutting season. Another, but not the least important, point is the accommodation which their customers can obtain in cut quantities for matching, as besides their wholesale stock the firm have one of the largest retail stores in the country, the great resources of which are always at the command of their customers. The business of the Kennard Company was established in 1853, and in their career of forty-three years as an exclusive carpet and upholstery house their record for honorable and fair dealing and financial strength, through either business prosperity or panic, is unexcelled by any other house in the country, and is approached by few.

The expansion of their wholesale business has been particularly large during late years, as instanced by the fact that their past spring trade was the largest in the history of the house, and with the changes that have come of late years in wholesale distribution from the East the Kennard Company have naturally received a very liberal share of the business that formerly went to New York and Philadelphia. The city of St. Louis is certainly the best located as a wholesale centre for the great section of the country comprising the Western, Southern and Middle States, a condition that the Messrs. Kennard were among the first to realize, and no man in St. Louis has done more toward impressing this fact upon the country than Mr. Samuel M. Kennard.

For the fall season of 1896 the preparations of the company indicate an intention to have the coming season mark another great increase in their wholesale carpet business. The assortment will be much larger than ever before and the inducements for buyers cannot be excelled by any other house. A list of the lines offered will be found in the company's advertisement, and a point to be remembered is that the company doubtless show the largest assortment of exclusive private patterns in Axminsters, Moquettes, Velvets and Tapestries to be found. These patterns are made solely for the Kennard Company and constitute a line unsurpassed in this country.

The Kennard Company are doubtless the largest importers of straw matting in the West, and a feature with them is that they have provided for supplying the trade with all qualities of matting, from the cheapest to the finest, and in the choicest effects, during the summer and fall months, as well as in the active spring months. Taken altogether, it will be to the interest of careful buyers to fully investigate the advantages of purchasing from the Kennard Company before placing fall orders. Their complete fall lines are on view in St. Louis, and will be shown by a large corps of travelers on the road in due season.

ARNOLD, CONSTABLE & CO.

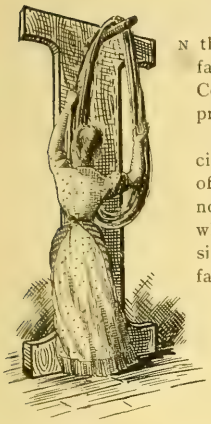
In the carpet department of Arnold, Constable & Co. the leading feature, namely, exclusive private patterns, is fully as prominent as ever before, the new lines of Lowell Wiltons and Brussels, Bigelow Axminsters and Schofield, Mason & Co.'s Brussels, making up a most admirable assortment of choice, novel, original and exclusive designs in colorings, which cannot be found in any other jobbing house in the country. An inspection of these patterns is absolutely essential for anyone who wishes to see the finest possible results attained by carpet manufacturers here or abroad. Mr. W. M. Daintrey holds a commanding position in the trade as both a critic and designer of patterns, and the offerings of his department for the coming season are well calculated to maintain his high reputation as an expert on the subject of designs and colorings.

Reference to the rug and Ingrain lines of Arnold, Constable & Co. will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Harutune Iskiyan, manufacturer of list, felt and rag carpets and importer of Turkish goods, shows his new line for the coming season at his warehouse, 42 Franklin street, New York, and buyers who handle list, felt and rag floor coverings will find in Mr. Iskiyan's offerings plenty of attractions, for a special experience in this line of manufacture enables Mr. Iskiyan to give perfect satisfaction to all his customers.

Robert Beattie & Sons have long been noted as manufacturers of high grade Velvet carpets, and their new line for the fall trade is in full keeping with this fact, being replete with choice novelties in artistic original designs and colorings well calculated to win the favor of the most exacting critics. The Messrs. Beattie give particular attention to carpeting for hotels, theatres, &c., and show a large variety of patterns especially adapted for such purposes. Their complete line is now on view in their New York salesrooms, Rooms 600 and 601 Constable Building, Fifth avenue and Eighteenth street.

E. S. HIGGINS CARPET COMPANY.



In their new lines of patterns for the fall trade the E. S. Higgins Carpet Company have surpassed all their previous records.

As usual the Tapestries are especially conspicuous. The superb line of ten wire Wilton backs comprises novelties in designs and coloring which represent the finest work possible in Tapestry weaving, and the famous, ever popular Double Stars are shown in an immense variety of new and standard patterns, while the quality of the fabric is in full keeping with the well-known policy of the company, which is to maintain strictly the uniform standard adhered to by them for the past twenty-five years.

The line of Velvets is in all respects the largest and most attractive ever shown by the company, embracing a wide range of novel and choice effects certain to win the favor of buyers.

In Ingrains several grades are shown, including the Peras, Imperials, Three Plys, Extra Supers, C. C. Extras, Emblematic Extra Supers and Ingrain fillings in solid colors. The new grade called Pera deserves particular notice, for the goods are extra heavy, 14 pair, 1088 ends, and the patterns are remarkable examples of the novel and artistic effects made practicable by the latest improvements in Ingrain weaving.

The line is shown at the company's New York warehouse, 84 and 86 White street; the Boston office, 611 Washington street, and the Chicago salesrooms, Marquette Building, rooms 835 and 836.

HIRST & ROGER'S TAPESTRIES.

The volume of business done by Hirst & Roger during the spring season was very satisfactory. The addition made to their plant at the beginning of last season has more than realized their expectation in the matter of turning out goods.

They are still fairly busy finishing up orders on last season's goods, but will have their new line ready to show about the first week in June. They will have a larger line of patterns, and the goods will be better in weave and superior in quality to anything heretofore shown by them. Mr. Hirst will visit the trade during the month of June, and buyers desiring to handle a line of quick selling and profit making goods should not fail to see the line.

Buyers visiting Philadelphia and not caring to visit the mill may inspect the full line at the Bourse Building, Room 664, by communicating with the mill, stating date and time desired.

L. C. Waterman & Sons, Hanover, Mass., are well known in the carpet trade as manufacturers of a superior quality of tacks for carpet and upholstery uses. Write to them for prices and other particulars.

CHICAGO CARPET COMPANY STILL JOBBING.

We are advised by the Chicago Carpet Company to announce that, while they have withdrawn their salesmen from the road, they still continue in the carpet jobbing business, and offer strong attractions to buyers who visit their salesrooms at Wabash avenue and Monroe street, Chicago. They consider that by saving the large expenses incurred in traveling they are in even better position than heretofore to interest all trade buyers. Mail applications for quotations on their lines are solicited.

LOWELL WILTONS, BRUSSELS AND INGRAINS.

In the new lines of Lowell Wiltons, Brussels and Ingrains the trade will find as usual the best quality of fabric, combined with the highest skill of the designers and weavers, and the good taste and sound judgment of Wm. H. Sheehy. It goes without saying that such a combination is certain to produce the finest results, and an inspection of the company's offerings will amply confirm this statement. The variety of novel, original and artistic effects in coloring and shading is even greater than has been shown by the Lowell Company in any previous season.

NEW ORLEANS NOTES.

New Orleans, May 20, 1896.

The Carpet and Upholstery Trade Review:

In compliance with your request I give you names of my traveling men during the coming season. There is absolutely nothing new to report in the carpet trade except that there was a large sale of Oriental rugs some two weeks ago, at which very low prices were the rule. Considering the fact that we have no sale for these goods, which are only bought by bargain seekers when sold by auction, they did us no direct harm, but indirectly we lose sales of fine domestic rugs and carpets. The carpet business is at a standstill, as usual at this time of the year. My matting men have just returned and brought in good import orders from adjoining States.

A. Baldwin & Co. have sold out their entire stock of shades and shade cloth to Johnson, Grehan & Co.

I will be in your city in about two months. Next month is stock taking, which keeps me very busy.

Leopold Levy.

Edward Muehsam, the popular and enterprising manufacturer of hassocks, ottomans, foot rests, &c., shows a very handsome line of these goods for the fall trade at his factory, 127 West Broadway, New York. Mr. Muehsam's goods are always attractive and salable, while the quality of the work in them is invariably first class. In the matter of prices, as well as appearance, Mr. Muehsam can offer inducements well deserving the attention of the closest buyers. He is also a large dealer in wrapping paper, twines, &c., and can interest any consumer of these goods.

AMERICAN LINOLEUM COMPANY.

JOSEPH WILD & Co., sole agents for the American Linoleum Company, have the new line for the fall trade now on view at their warehouse, 82 and 84 Worth street New York, and it is the largest and altogether the most attractive ever brought out by the company, fitly illustrating the progressive, enterprising spirit of this concern.

The offerings comprise the five well-known grades, A, B, C, D and E, and also the famous inlaid goods. In all these grades a great variety of entirely novel, original and artistic patterns will be found, and the A grade is especially notable in this respect. In the five regular grades about 200 patterns are shown, and the inlaid goods comprise thirty-three patterns. With so great a range of handsome designs and colorings there is naturally no difficulty in meeting the demands of the most exacting buyer. An inspection of this line is the best possible method of learning what are the finest results yet attained in the manufacture of linoleum.

The New England trade will find the line on view at the Boston office of Joseph Wild & Co., 594 Washington street.

THOS. DEVELON'S SONS will be represented on the road during the fall season by W. L. Lundy, New York State, Northern Ohio and Michigan, with headquarters at 343 Broadway, New York; A. J. Wilkinson, New England States, with headquarters at 564 Washington, street, Boston; Geo. D. Fleming, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland, with headquarters at 501 Bourse, Philadelphia; J. M. Allen, Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, with headquarters in the Bradford Block, Cincinnati; W. H. Treloar, Illinois and Wisconsin, with headquarters in Chicago, and G. F. Benedict, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, with headquarters at 12 Davidson Block, St. Paul Beattie.—Wm. Beattie, of Robert Beattie & Son, celebrated his silver wedding on May 25. A special train carried a number of invited guests from New York to Little Falls and brought them home after a most delightful evening.

Brewer.—Capt. John L. Brewer, the champion wing shot, indicted for removing goods on which John McPherson, the carpet and furniture dealer, Bridgeton, N. J., held a chattel mortgage, was tried in the Cumberland County Court on the 21st ult. and acquitted.

Daintrey.—Wm. M. Daintrey, manager of Arnold, Constable & Co.'s carpet department, returned from Europe on the 27th ult. This time Mr. Daintrey extended his trip to India.

Donovan.—J. P. Donovan, who has a carpet ancestry which dates back to the early days, will cover the Southern States for Ivins, Dietz & Metzger Co. He deserves the warm reception which he will undoubtedly meet.

English.—George C. English, manager of Hilton, Hughes & Co.'s carpet and furniture departments, sailed for Europe on the North German Lloyd steamer Havel on the 19th ult.

Gillmore.—Fred. Gillmore, formerly with the Goshen Sweeper Company, will hereafter travel in New England with the Smyrna rugs, Napier matting and hemp carpets of the Lamond & Robertson Company, and the chenille curtains, table covers and tapestry piece goods of Hyndman & Moore. His headquarters will be 40 Calumet street, Boston.

Haviland.—E. Haviland, with Sheppard Knapp & Co , has been seriously ill with pneumonia.

Helm.—G. A. Helm, carpet and furniture buyer for Frederick Loeser & Co., Brooklyn, sailed for Europe on the Havel May 19.

Holder.—F. T. Holder, president of the Alexander Smith & Sons Carpet Company, is a member of the Larchmont Yacht Club, and has a new and elegant steam yacht almost ready for launching.

Ivers.—R. W. Ivers, formerly in the credit department of W. & J. Sloane, is now associated with the banking and brokerage firm of E. B. Cuthbert & Co., in the new Wool Exchange Building, West Broadway and Beach street.

Jordan — The new Chicago office of Reune Martin & Sons, agents for the Hartford Carpet Company and Planet Mills, has been located in the Lees Building, 147 Fifth avenue. It is in charge of M. H. Jordan, recently with W. & J. Sloane, who is prepared to show complete new fall lines.

La Rue—Fruit.—Miss Nellie C. Fruit, of Hazleton, Pa., was married on the 12th ult. to Walter M. La Rue, of Fritz, La Rue & Sinn, Philadelphia.

Miller.—Robert Miller, the old-time carpet dealer of Eighth avenue, is, as is well known to our readers, deputy tax collector of New York. To him came recently a letter addressed "His Excellency," and so forth, asking the price for furnishing a flat. Before he was able to reply the young couple, who could not wait, had been married, and stepped off the German steamer into his store. He promptly fixed them up, and is now known to the trade as "His Excellency."

Nevins.—George Nevins is back again in his old stamping ground with Charles Broadway Rouss.

Sanford.—John Sanford, of the firm of S. Sanford & Sons, is the donor of the Laureate Cup, which was run for on the Morris Park race track the 26th ult. The cup is one of Tiffany's finest designs in sterling silver, and is valued at $1,000.

Smith.—W. H. Smith, of Kidderminster, England, arrived in this city on the Majestic May 27.

Taylor.—I. Preston Taylor, formerly with Abraham & Straus, Brooklyn, and Lord & Taylor, New York, has purchased the Brooklyn business of the Geneva (N. Y.) Mineral Spring Company, and has his offices at 328 Fulton street, Brooklyn. In answer to a personal note he writes: "I am glad that the fact of my dealing in fluids instead of solids has not washed me out of your mind. My future looks very bright. I regret not being able to meet the manly men in the carpet and upholstery trades, but will never forget them."

Treloar.—Geo. R. Taylor, Wheeling, W. Va., is opening a carpet department in connection with his new upholstery department, both to be under charge of J. A. Treloar, who belongs naturally to the carpet trade, being a cousin of Gustav and Walter Treloar.

Winters.—Lawrence Winters, manager of the H. B. Claflin Company's carpet department, has frequently promised to make a trip among the Western customers of his house. This month he is really going to do it, and will shortly start on a visit to all the large Western cities.

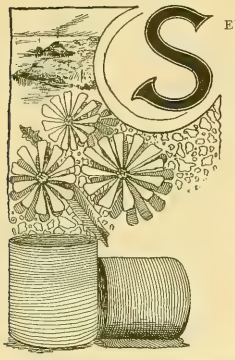
The Bissell Carpet Sweeper Company have just produced an extra size carpet sweeper branded "Bissell's Roller Bearing Hall." There has been a demand for several years past for a sweeper of this size and capacity, but until the Bissell Carpet Sweeper Company brought out this "roller bearing" feature they have not felt confident in placing a sweeper on the market of this size that would be manipulated satisfactorily without some effort of lightening up the friction. In this sweeper they have introduced for the first time their "roller bearing" feature, which tends to ease up the friction produced by the action of the wheels upon the revolving brush. It likewise does away with the necessity of frequent oiling of the wheels. This sweeper measures in length about 27 inches. It is made of highly polished oak woods with nickel mountings. It is very handsome in appearance and very effective in use. The Bissell Carpet Sweeper Company look forward to a large business on this sweeper. It is intended principally for halls, churches, hotels, lodge rooms and department store use, and where large surfaces are found. The handle of this sweeper is made in a cross-bar shape, with the cross-bar made adjustable. In this sweeper likewise is embodied the famous Bissell broom action brush adjustment.

CURRENT CARPET CHAT.



SEVENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS is the amount of the damage caused by a fire which originated in Andrew J. Haire's big general store at Hazleton, Pa., on May 15. The store, which was the largest of the kind in that locality, was entirely destroyed. Loss on stock, $60,000; insured for $50,000. Loss on building, $10,000; fully covered by insurance.

Work has begun on the new store of L. B. Root & Co., Terre Haute, Ind. The contract price of the building is $42,895.

C. P. Remore has bought the business of E. B. Lincoln & Co., Tully, N. Y.

Witcher & Coffield have sold their carpet and furniture business at Rockdale, Tex.

Blotcky Brothers are a new firm in the carpet and dry goods trade at Des Moines. Ia.

H. C. Blackburn has bought an interest in the business of Herring & Jenkins, Georgetown, Ky.

A. Zeller, proprietor of the Empire Furniture Company, Oakland, Cal., is closing out his stock by auction.

A new building, 25x75 feet, is to be added to the plant of the Bloomsburg Carpet Works, Bloomsburg, Pa.

Barker Brothers, Los Angeles, Cal., are doing a big cut order business in carpets and are also jobbing largely.

Soother Winslow has bought an interest in D. D. Bean's carpet and furniture business at Barton's Landing, Vt.

Frank M. Hammond has put a stock of rugs, curtains, clocks, lamps, jewelry, &c., in his store at Dalton, Mass.

The rumor that Tootle, Wheeler & Motter, St. Joseph, Mo., are to discontinue their carpet department is without foundation.

It is now thought that the unsecured creditors of Leon & H. Blum, Galveston, Tex., will receive about 35 cents on the dollar.

The firm of Goldsmith, Moore & Co., Lynn, Mass., has dissolved and the business is continued under the firm style of Nixon, Moore & Co.

The stock and fixtures of McLarty Brothers, Palatka, Fla., were sold by auction recently and bought by the H. B. Claflin Company.

At a fire in L'Anse, Mich., a short time ago, the stores of Peter Ruppe & Son and J. B. Smith, carpet and furniture dealers, were burned out.

Owings & Rimby, dry goods and carpet dealers, Winchester, Ill., have dissolved partnership, and S. A. Ferguson & Co., in the same line at Jackson, Mich., have sold out.

Huber & Chittenden, New London, Conn., last month completed the carpet and drapery work in three cottages at Eastern Point, one at Oswegatchie and another in the Pequot Colony.

R. F. Wollaston has purchased N. C. Jensen's interest in the carpet and furniture firm of Wollaston & Jensen, Fairmont, Minn., and will continue the business in his own name. Mr. Jensen is undecided as to future plans, but will remain in Fairmont and, it is hinted, enter the race for sheriff this fall.

A. H. Hurd, assignee of Wood & Hall, Fall River, Mass., is offering the creditors 10 cents on the dollar in cash.

S. B. Funz, Johnsonville, Md., is adding to his store a new two story building, 66x20 feet, which will be used chiefly for the carpet department.

A. H. Wheeler has opened new carpet rooms in the rear of his store at Southbridge, Mass., and is showing a handsome line of carpets, matting, oil cloths and linoleums.

Smith, Murray & Co., of Bridgeport, Conn., will soon occupy the whole of their present building and take in the adjoining premises, thus almost doubling their floor space.

J. A. Woodward's stock of carpets and furniture at Warrensburg, N. Y., was recently destroyed by fire, and Samuel Harris' stock at Williamsburg, Va., has suffered a like fate.

Smith & Edmonston succeed J. F. Smith, dealer in carpets, furniture, &c., Higbee, Mo., and G. A. Anderson succeeds C. O. Dalin & Co., dealers in dry goods, carpets, &c., Allerton, Ia.

William E. Carpenter, carpet and furniture dealer, South Gardner, Mass., has filed a petition in insolvency. The liabilities amount to $16,000. His creditors are said to have accepted 40 cents cash in settlement.

John Dixon was arrested on the 11th ult. charged with stealing oil cloth from the Elizabeth (N. J.) Oil Cloth Manufactory. The factory has missed a good deal of cloth, and a piece worth $5 was found upon him. He was held for trial.

The annual spring opening of French & Bassett, Duluth, Minn., took place on the 2d ult. and was attended by a great host of people, who enjoyed the music of a fine orchestra and the opportunity of inspecting the very extensive and attractive stock of this enterprising firm.

John Meckes, Cleveland, Ohio, is about to make an addition to his store which will give nearly 10,000 square feet more floor space. A 70 foot opening will connect the old and new premises. A large carpet department will be opened in the fall. The new establishment will be one of the largest in the State.

Cannon's, the Newark, N. J., carpet concern, will have the largest unbroken stretch of plate glass in Newark. The two stores at 248 and 250, adjoining Cannon's, are having their fronts torn down and their interiors renovated. All the partitions will be torn out, so that the full frontage of the store on Market street will be 75 feet. The fronts will then be fitted with plate glass, and every facility given for magnificent displays of goods. Heretofore, the great floor space of Cannon's has been mainly confined to a very large portion of the block in the rear of the two stores now being refitted, but the whole of the ground floor may now be seen from the front.

The Galveston (Tex.) Tribune, in a recent issue, refers to Kauffman, Meyers & Co., carpet and furniture dealers of that city, as follows:

This progressive and well-known firm, situated on the principal retail thoroughfare, display their well purchased and complete assortment of merchandise on three large sample floors, each 80x110 feet, divided into different departments, each department accessible by electric elevator service. The character, quality and assortment of goods handled by this firm would be creditable to a city thrice the size of Galveston, and as no house in the State enjoys a better reputation for straightforward business methods they are justly entitled to be ranked among the representative business concerns of the day. The volume of business intrusted to them by the citizens of the State is a tribute to the business capacity of the individual members of the firm, and is sufficient assurance that the house of Kauffman, Meyers & Co. will gently float on the tide of prosperity.

Caudle & Roane, Richmond, Va., who assigned on March 23, have issued the following statement :

After careful thought and investigation we are convinced that under good management of a trustee it will be impossible for him to pay more than first and second creditors in full, and to do this requires skilled management. Several failures in the furniture line have occurred here in the last five or six months, and the stock of these houses having been sold at a sacrifice has depreciated the demand. As we do an instalment business, it would be hard to realize more than 25 per cent. on our outstanding accounts if same were thrown on the market. Our stock, &c., amounts to $9,928.29, and handling and disposing of same by a trustee, who has six months to close the business, would not realize more than 60 per cent. Outstanding accounts, $14,996.64 ; stock and fixtures, $9,928.49 ; liabilities, $19,379.99 ; preferences, $11,888. Under the circumstances we offer creditors 25 per cent. cash. This proposition is made on condition that all our creditors accept and let us get to work. We promise, should prosperity dawn upon our country, to pay dollar for dollar, as an honest debt has no limitations with us.

W. & J. SLOANE.

The great manufacturing, importing and distributing establishment of W. & J. Sloane is always a commanding factor in the trade of every season; its semi-annual offerings are therefore of exceptional interest to every buyer, and its lines for the fall trade are well calculated to maintain and even increase this interest.

As selling agents for the Alexander Smith & Sons Carpet Company the offerings comprise the entire line of that company, including Savonneries, Axminsters, Gobelins, Moquettes, Velvets and Tapestries, these grades being shown in an immense range of new and admirable designs and colorings. In this connection it is pertinent to state that the Smith Company are preparing to place upon the market a new grade of Axminster, and they say that it will be heavier, thicker, finer and in every respect superior to any Axminster ever made before in this country.

W. &. J. Sloane are notably extensive and direct importers of Chinese and Japanese mattings, Oriental rugs and carpets, and their offerings in these goods are in keeping with the exceptional facilities and connections possessed by them in this line of trade. Through their resident and traveling representative in China, Japan, Turkey and other Oriental countries they are enabled to offer in mattings a great number of exclusive specialties and novelties, and in Oriental rugs an immense variety of modern and antique goods, including many choice things secured by Mr. Searing, manager of their Oriental department during his last trip to the far East.

In linoleum W. & J. Sloane show the complete line of the Nairn Linoleum Company, for whom they are sole agents, and their offerings in floor oil cloths include the new line of R. H. & B. C. Reeve, for whom W. & J. Sloane are also sole agents.

In cocoa mats and matting an especially strong showing is always made, W. & J. Sloane being extensive manufacturers of these goods.

An idea of the great resources of S. Sanford & Sons' mills for coloring is seen in their new No. 2615 Double Extra Tap, which contains 100 diffeernt shadings.

CHICAGO CARPET NOTES.

CHICAGO, MAY 24.

Marshall Field & Co.'s oil cloth and Ingrain travelers will go out this week. They will be the vanguard of the small army of salesmen who will leave here for the West, South and Northwest between now and the first week in June.

M. H. Jordan has secured the Hartford account, and will represent Reune Martin & Sons in Chicago and the West. The Chicago market for some years has been attended to by Henry Martin, while H. L. Billings looked after the West. Mr. Jordan has opened a showroom in Room 66 Lees Building.

Manager W. D. Porter, of Siegel, Cooper & Co., has been selling immense quantities of China matting. He reports trade for May above the average.

E. Mandel, of the firm of Mandel Brothers, has returned with his wife from a four months' trip to Europe and the Orient.

Simon Mandel and his efficient aid, Joseph Weber, are congratulating themselves on the success of their rug department.

R. H. H.

AN OVERSOLD RUG MILL.

On page 22 of this issue the Fries-Breslin Company, of Camden, N. J., make an apology to their many friends in the trade who may have been disappointed in not receiving their goods as promptly as desired during the past two seasons. They realize the annoyance of not receiving goods when expected, but with this apology is coupled the announcement that they have doubled their capacity in the past year, and will ship orders more promptly hereafter.

The concern is certainly making rapid strides. They have built two new additions to what was previously a large plant, and have equipped the same with the latest and best machinery. This has been done in the face of generally depressed business conditions, which fact testifies to more than usual attractions in their productions, and a thorough mastery of the manufacture and sale of Smyrna rugs. As there is every indication of their enlarged fall output being taken up as rapidly as the products of previous seasons, buyers should inspect the lines and place orders as early as possible.

An especially capable retail carpet salesman, of long experience and with the highest references, advertises for a position in our Want Columns under the address of Box 4.

The mill of Thomas L. Leedom & Co., Bristol, Pa., has been kept running full and steadily through the spring season, a fact which shows that the Leedom Ingrains, Art Squares and Smyrnas are in big demand in the trade.

Among the carpet travelers who started on the road last week there was much eagerness to reach St. Louis and finish all business there before the Republican Convention began its proceedings. As we go to press news of the great disaster which has occurred there reaches us, and as so many carpet men had intended to go directly there without stopping by the way, we can only hope that none of them can be counted among the sufferers by the tornado. Casualties and damage are reported as occurring in the section occupied by the large carpet and dry goods houses, but we have no definite news as to firms affected.

IVINS, DIETZ & METZGER COMPANY'S LINES.

With undiminished confidence in the stability of the carpet trade, and with the experience of a well sold up condition behind them even amid depressed conditions, the Ivins, Dietz & Metzger Company have given the highest degree of care and the most liberal outlay of their career to the preparation of their fall lines. More patterns are shown, and an idea of their merit and attractiveness is gained from the procedure of patenting a number of the new effects. That people come again for the I., D. & M. goods is proved from the running of the mills almost fully on duplicate orders for some weeks past, and that spring repeats are still keeping the machinery busy.

Among the offerings the Bundhar Wilton continues a leader; the various makes of rugs are steadily increasing in sales, and during the past season there has been an exceptional run on their Art Squares and Columbian Ingrains.

It is evident that more than ordinary attention and skill in designs and colors, and every minor detail in manufacture, have been exercised in getting up the various lines for the Ivins, Dietz & Metzger Company. This concern have long been noted for their patient attention to minor parts; but never before have they been so persistent in looking after every minutiæ in the manufacture. From the choice of the various wools in the first place, then all the way through the carding, spinning, scouring, dyeing, weaving and finishing, there are numerous details, not one of which has been neglected. Choice materials, evenly and in every other respect properly spun into yarns, coupled with skillful and careful dyeing, play an important part in securing the fast colors which this concern have the reputation of producing. The designing and combination of colors are as high and pleasing as they are varied. This applies to every grade of goods manufactured by the Ivins, Dietz & Metzger Company, from the Bundhar Wilton, through the French Wilton, Brussels, Columbian heavy Ingrain, Art Squares, Extra Super Ingrain, and down to the cheapest carpet made. Bundhar Wiltons, French Wiltons, extra quality of Body Brussels and the heavy weight Columbian Extra Supers are particularly interesting, and for novelty and variety, both as regards designs, colors, weaves, weight and durability, they are calculated to meet the full requirements of the trade.

There will be no change in the composition of the firm of Boyd, Harley & Co., the members of which are Robert Boyd, George Boyd and Milton Harley. The report that Mr. Harley was to make a connection with another house was erroneous. The firm will continue to interest the carpet trade as wholesalers of cut quantities of all grades of carpetings.

In the Oriental rug and carpet trade the name of H. S. Tavshanjian is particularly prominent as an importer on an exceptionally extensive scale. His offerings for the coming season are very notable as regards variety, extent and quality, comprising a remarkable range of makes, sizes and patterns. New goods are being continually received by him, and his salesroom at 343 Broadway, New York, is a place which no buyer of Oriental rugs should fail to visit, for the stock there includes, besides standard goods, a vast assortment of specialties which cannot be found elsewhere.

AMBER MILLS INGRAINS.

C. H. Masland & Sons' extensive Ingrain mills are located in Philadelphia, and it should therefore be remembered that the destruction by fire of the Brussels Mills at Mount Holly, N. J., interferes in no way with their Ingrain business. They are now running their entire Ingrain plant on the fall lines of Sevellan Ingrains, patented, Amber Extra Supers, Amber Extra Super C. C.'s, Manhattan Extra Supers, York Extra Supers, Plymouth Unions, Standard Cottons, Star Cottons, Elgin Cottons and stair Ingrains to match. The array of new patterns will suit the most exacting critics, and the goods will be found to be rapid sellers and of exceptional value. The lines are shown by the sole agents, W. & J. Sloane, at their salesrooms and on the road.

AMERICAN OTTOMAN AND HASSOCK COMPANY.

Exceptional facilities for manufacturing and long experience in meeting the demands of the trade render the American Ottoman and Hassock Company an especially conspicuous concern in its particular field. In his offerings for the coming season Wm. B. Shaw, the company's energetic and enterprising manager, shows himself thoroughly competent to maintain the prestige of the concern, for he has never before brought out so large and attractive a line of goods as he is now displaying for the fall trade. The line includes all the standard styles of the company, and also a large number of choice specialties and novelties, which must be seen to be appreciated.

Mr. Shaw's factory and salesroom are at 119 Leonard street, New York.

BROMLEY BROTHERS CARPET COMPANY.

The new lines of Ingrains, Art Squares and Smyrna rugs shown for the fall season by the Bromley Brothers Carpet Company are in full keeping with the exceptionally high reputation attained by them in this department of the carpet industry.

Their offerings embrace their regular line of Extra Supers, also the "Saxon" Extra Supers, Cotton Chains, Union and stairs, and borders to match any of these grades. They show a notably attractive line of Three Plys, and their new line of Art Squares is the finest ever brought out by them, and that is giving it the highest possible praise, for the Bromley Brothers Carpet Company have long held a commanding position in the Art Square market.

In rugs the company show their superb line of Nonpareil Smyrnas in all sizes from mats to carpets, and also their new Assyrian rugs, notable novelties, which are certain to find a great demand.

The line is on view at the mills, York, Jasper, and Taylor streets, Philadelphia, and at the New York office, 108 Worth street.

Exports of carpeting and kindred goods during the past fortnight were as follows: Carpeting—Southampton, 226 bls., $7,491; Dublin, 21 bls., $645; Argentine Republic, 12 bls., $375; Hong Kong, 6 bls., $222; Bremen, 5 bls., $200. Carpet Sweepers—Hamburg, 10 cs., $183; Christiania, 3 cs., $34; Uruguay, 1 cs., $25; Antwerp, 1 cs., $16; Blagoweschtschensk, 1 cs., $20; New Zealand, 2 cs., $15; Porto Rico, 1 cs. $12; London, 1 cs., $10.

WILL NOT REBUILD MOUNT HOLLY MILLS.

W. & J. Sloane state that they will not rebuild the Brussels Mills at Mount Holly, N. J., destroyed by fire on the 11th ult. The flames completely wiped out the vital portion of the plant, including eighty-four Brussels looms and the preparatory and finishing machinery. A few unused looms that had formerly been run on the plain goods for Stanwick printed Tapestries were saved.

W. W. Law, of W. & J. Sloane, says the fire was a matter of extreme regret as well as loss to them, as the mills had become a satisfactory enterprise to his firm and to C. H. Masland & Sons, the lessees. The product of Brussels had become well established and had been cleanly marketed during the spring. Mr. Law further said that it is a different matter just now from operating a plant already fully equipped and starting to build a new one.

To a Review representative C. H. Masland & Sons said they could not definitely state what they would do regarding further Brussels manufacture. The fire was a serious blow to them, as they had been through an arduous task in getting the mills into proper running condition, and were beginning to see a return on their efforts and expense. They had turned out some 6,000 rolls of Brussels since the mills were opened last summer, and had demonstrated that they could conduct the Brussels business successfully. Their loss was not fully covered by insurance.

ALDEN SAMPSON & SONS.

In the line of floor oil cloths shown for the fall trade by Alden Sampson & Sons the trade will find the finest material and color effects possible in floor oil cloth manufacture. Sampson & Sons are an old-established concern, with exceptional facilities, which are utilized in a thoroughly up to date style, embracing the latest improvements and effects known in the floor oil cloth industry.

The line is on view at the firm's New York warehouses, Nos. 58 to 62 Reade street, and also in the salesroom of W. W. Corson & Co., Boston, who are New England agents for the goods.

John C. Meyer & Co., 87 Summer street, Boston, show a particularly extensive and desirable line of spool silks and threads for carpet, drapery, window shades and general upholstery work. Write to them for samples and prices.

The Lyon Furniture Agency entered upon the year 1896 with the largest subscription roll in its history. Its facilities have been increased, its service improved, its clerical force added to. It stands as the representative agency of the trades reported—it desires to be the embodiment of the sentiment of "Reliability and Promptness" in every feature of its work.—Lyon's Report.

W. W. Corson & Co., 564 Washington street, Boston, and 110 Worth street, New York, have just issued a handsome illustrated pamphlet relating to the various lines of carpeting, floor oil cloth, cocoa mattings, stair pads, carpet linings, &c., which are included in their offerings for the coming season. Write for a copy of this pamphlet.

DINED BY MR. TRELOAR.

G. B. Treloar, the selling manager for S. Sanford & Sons, gave a dinner to the traveling men of the firm on the evening of the 20th ult. at the Arena, New York. The entire force was present: Thos. F. Bennett, Harry T. Browne, Walter Hannon and A. C. Greene, of the New York salesroom; H. B. Richmond, of the Boston office; Frank Schlegel and L. H. Besselman, of the Chicago office, besides Mr. Richmond, brother of H. B. Richmond, W. H. Hibbard and J. M. Cooney.

It was an entirely informal event, as Mr. Treloar took advantage of the fact that all the men were in town together and wished to give them a godspeed before starting out on fall trips.

After fully demonstrating that the Sanford force was in excellent gastronomical condition by doing away with mine host Treloar's epicurean feast, a very pleasant evening was spent in reminiscence and anecdote and in extempore remarks from everyone present.

Responding to a toast to the honored house of S. Sanford & Sons and its New York manager, Mr. Treloar warmly and sincerely spoke of his connection with the Messrs. Sanford, and said he considered it an honor to express loyalty and fealty to such fair minded superiors. He also feelingly referred to the able support and good will extended to him by the members of the force, and looked forward to a long and pleasant connection between them. Each of the staff testified that the regard expressed by Mr. Treloar was mutual, and stated that his best efforts could always be relied upon in forwarding the interests of the house and supporting Mr. Treloar in his responsible position.

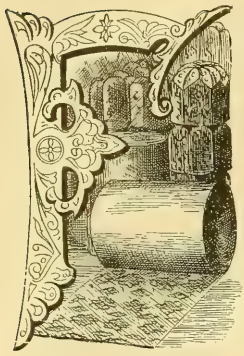
Incidentally H. B. Richmond, on the part of the company, thanked Mr. Treloar for the opportunity of being his guests, and wished him many happy returns of the occasion.

Park Mills Extra Supers are repeating their record of former seasons in the early fall orders. The buyers so far are universally confirming the encomiums bestowed upon the remarkably original and handsome new styles, and with a fair general trade Park Mills will have a busy season. The salesmen are now on the road and the opportunity should be seized to inspect the goods.

The Chelsea Jute Mills' new line of carpeting, Imperial Napier matting, &c., is now on view in the salesrooms, 316 Broadway, New York, and it is one which will repay the inspection of buyers who desire an attractive assortment of bright, popular patterns, which are certain to be quick sellers. The mills also manufacture floor cloth canvas, carpet and rug yarns and other jute products, all of which are shown in its New York salesroom.

The Bromley Brothers Carpet Company now have their new "Assyrian" rugs in the desired shape to present to the trade. This rug is an entirely new fabric, and is a very close imitation of fine imported rugs. The goods are made exclusively by the Bromley Brothers Company, and should find a ready sale. They are shown in a variety of attractive styles and are offered at very moderate prices. The price list of the "Assyrian" rugs will be found in our price list columns.

SWIRE & SCOTT'S NOVELTIES.



URTHER proof of the adhesion of Swire & Scott to their rule to produce only best quality goods and purely original effects is found in their new fall line, now on view at their mill in Philadelphia and on the road. We cannot too highly praise the rare and beautiful coloring effects to be found in these offerings, for they demonstrate that the firm rely altogether upon their own resources and are not influenced in any way by what other manufacturers produce. The shadings of the new goods in both grounds and figures are absolute departures from last season's lines, while, as usual, there are several risque effects in figures that this firm seem to be peculiarly successful in marketing. Patterns Nos. 1350, 1362 and 1369 are samples of this character.

A new Art Square fabric has been added this season, which in quality comes between the Barodas and Extra Super squares, and has been named the "Vera" Art Square. It is a heavy, solid fabric, with a foreign appearance. There is absolutely nothing like the Vera squares produced by any other manufacturer in this country. The array of patterns in the Baroda, Vera and Extra Super Art Squares forms an assortment that makes it incumbent upon every buyer to look over the lines, and the position of the firm as producers of Art Squares will be further strengthened by the fall goods. The Ajax extra heavy Ingrains, Extra Supers and Medium Supers all have a diversity of appearance, and will appeal to every dealer who appreciates very best fabrics and choice styles.

THE Lowell Company are showing ten different patterns in their new high grade Axminsters in a total of seventeen colorings. The two floral patterns displayed demonstrate the great possibilities in this fabric for brilliant coloring and free drawn designs.

THERE is apparently a well defined understanding among the Philadelphia makers of best Extra Supers to maintain the fall price at 42½ cents. There is no agreement, but a gradual increase of the opinion that a little more harmony on prices would be beneficial all around.

A NEW manufacturers' selling agency and also a purchasing agency for dealers has been opened by Frank J. Hughes at 337 Broadway, New York, on the floor with C. W. Bogert. Mr. Hughes has recently been buyer for J. A. Roberts & Co., Utica, N. Y., and formerly held a similar position with D. McCarthy & Sons, Syracuse, N. Y. He has had an extended experience in the carpet business, having been for eighteen years with W. & J. Sloane, and is exceptionally well fitted to execute purchasing orders for dealers throughout the country. As manufacturers' agent Mr. Hughes shows the complete lines of Keefer & Coon's Ingrains and Watt & Brothers' Union Ingrains. He is New York agent for these mills and quotes lowest prices, being able to interest all buyers on these goods.

AGENTS FOR DUNLAP TAPESTRIES.

BLAKE BROTHERS, who are well known to the trade as sole agents for Henry Holmes' Sherman Mills Ingrains, have also become sole agents in New York State for the James Dunlap Carpet Company's Lansdowne Tapestries and Velvets. These are the printed goods first introduced into this market by Mr. Dunlap, and which he has steadily improved in quality, finish and patterns until they are to-day firmly established as thoroughly satisfactory and popular selling Tapestries. As was demonstrated in the offerings of jobs last month, there is no surplus of the lowest priced Taps, and with the value and style given in the Dunlap Tapestries it is proper for every buyer to inspect the new fall lines at the salesroom of Blake Brothers, 108 Worth street, New York, who are direct mill representatives, and quote lowest prices to all buyers visiting New York.

The Messrs. Blake are now displaying the handsome fall line of the Sherman Mills Ingrains, including Extra Supers, Cotton Chains, Ingrain stairs and Art Squares. These goods are well intrenched in the favor of the trade, and as the mills are usually well sold up early ordering is advisable. The same remarks apply to Dickey & McMaster's Persian and Aubusson Damasks and Venetians, Granite Ingrains and domestic carpets.

DORNAN BROTHERS.

IN the race for supremacy in patterns and colorings Dornan Brothers can always be counted upon as maintaining and improving their position. Their new fall line will add another notch to their reputation for styles and will mark the introduction of another new weave into their products —the "Mogul," a heavy Ingrain, referred to elsewhere.

BRIGHTON MILLS SMYRNAS.

SAMUEL WHITE has improved the quality of his Brighton Mills Smyrna rugs for the fall trade and shows them in a number of new styles. He is running his complete plant of Ingrain looms and is busy on spring duplicates. The Centennial Mills Ingrains and Brighton Mills rugs are becoming more popular with the retail trade every season. Notable improvements have been made in the styles and fabrics during the past year, which now form one of the most attractive assortments for retail buyers in the market. Mr. White's salesmen are now showing the goods on the road, and the visiting trade can see the line at the New York store, 31 and 33 West Twenty-third street, where Mr. Schreiner is in charge of the mill business.

AMONG the latest special offerings of F. G. Rogers, 24 North Ninth street, Philadelphia, are the following inducements in matting: White and fancy at 10 cents; 80 to 85 pound fancy jointless at 13½ cents; cotton warps at 15 cents; cotton warp, inlaid figures, at 13½ cents; white, with inlaid figures, at 13½ cents; very finest white inlaid cotton warp, with flower figures, at 20 cents—it was imported to sell at 40 cents. Mr. Rogers invites sample orders of ten rolls to test the goods, and guarantees exceptional value. He also has some fresh new goods in Japanese rugs in attractive patterns, which he can sell at 50 cents per square yard. When you want a drive on anything consult Mr. Rogers.

CYRUS W. FIELD.

HIS EXPERIENCES IN THE EMPLOY OF A. T. STEWART.

The announcement that Harper Brothers will soon publish a life of Cyrus W. Field recalls the fact that Mr. Field when sixteen years of age entered the employ of A. T. Stewart as an errand boy. Stewart's store was then at 257 Broadway between Murray and Warren streets. There the young clerk received for his services the first year $50, and the second the sum was doubled. His home was in a boarding house in Murray street, near Greenwich, where he had board and lodging for $2 a week.

Mr. Stewart's rules were strict. One of them was that every clerk must enter in a book the minute that he came in the morning, left for dinner, returned from dinner, went to supper and came back; and if he were late in the morning, at dinner over an hour, or required more than three-quarters of an hour for supper, he must pay 25 cents for each offense. The fines thus collected, Mr. Stewart told his clerks, would be kept and given to any charity that they should select. This went on until September 30, 1837, and then a paper was drawn up by the clerks, appointing Cyrus as treasurer to receive all the fines collected during the month of September. Mr. Stewart ordered the amount to be paid over. That night all the clerks left the store in a body and proceeded to a well-known oyster house. It was voted unanimously that they should have an oyster supper, and that it should be paid for out of the funds in the hands of the treasurer. Then there was a long debate as to the charity to which the balance should be devoted. At last it was unanimously voted that there was no such charity in the city or State of New York as the clerks of A. T. Stewart & Co., and that Mr. Field, the treasurer, should return to each clerk the exact amount of his fines, less his proportion of the supper.

Next day Mr. Stewart summoned young Field to ask him for an account of what had been done with the funds. Field told him the exact truth in regard to the matter, when he dismissed him, saying that in the future he should be very careful that the firm selected the object of charity that this fund was given to.

Mr. Stewart was present at the great banquet given to Mr. Field at the Metropolitan Hotel, to celebrate the laying of the Atlantic cable. Turning to his neighbor he said: "Perhaps you don't know that I have taught Mr. Field all the art of telegraphing he knows." "No, I am not aware of that, Mr. Stewart." Stewart said, "It is quite notorious in our house." And he went on to explain that Mr. Field, when a clerk in his establishment, was in the habit of watching the old gentleman, and by a sort of tick, tick, giving notice to his fellow clerks of the fact that he was coming, so that every man was in his place, and from that simple idea Mr. Field got the idea of telegraphing, which had made his fortune.

The "Washington" Wiltons, the new grade just introduced by Wm. Jas. Hogg, are taking well with buyers and will be a popular selling carpet, as predicted.

THE E. R. ARTMAN-TREICHLER COMPANY.

The extensive and attractive offerings of the jobbing house of the E. R. Artman-Treichler Company, 713 Market street, Philadelphia, afford to dealers a very notable opportunity of replenishing stock, for they embrace careful selections from the new lines of leading manufacturers of carpeting, floor oil cloth, linoleum, cocoa matting, &c.

The offerings comprise the new fall lines of Smith Savonneries, Axminsters, Moquettes, Velvets and Tapestries, S. Sanford & Sons, the Higgins, Roxbury and Stinson Velvets and Tapestries, M. J. Whittall's Body Brussels, Schofield, Mason & Co.'s Body Brussels, and the Spring Garden Tapestries.

As sole agents for the Putnam Mills the Artman-Treichler Company show also the new lines of Three Plys, Extra Supers, C. C. Extra Supers, Union Extras, Art Squares, and Ingrain and Damask hall and stairs, as prepared for the fall trade.

The company's offerings cover also extensive lines of Chinese and Japanese matting, rugs, cocoa mats and matting, hemp carpets and Napier matting, Potter's, Blabon's and Nairn linoleums, and Sampson's, Potter's, Farr & Bailey's and Dunn's floor oil cloth.

It is clear that with offerings so extensive and comprehensive as these the Artman-Treichler Company is in a position to meet fully and satisfactorily the demands of the most exacting buyers for any class of trade.

J. & J. DOBSON LINES.

The fall offerings of John & James Dobson are completed and can be seen at the salesrooms in Philadelphia, New York, Boston and Chicago, and are also now shown on the road.

A new feature with this firm is cutting their Royal Wiltons in any quantity for the trade. Dealers need only buy samples and can order the goods when sold. Particulars will be sent on application.

The new high grade Crown Tapestries are shown in twenty patterns, including a handsome delft blue effect. Plain Wilton Velvets and Brussels continue a specialty with the firm, over thirty different colors being carried. See the fall announcement in this number.

H. B. Yardum, of Yardum Brothers & Co., the Oriental rug importers, will sail for the Orient in a few weeks, and to close out the stock on hand the firm will offer special inducements in prices. The offerings include invoices but recently received at the warerooms, 339 Broadway, New York.

A. F. Buchanan & Sons, 50 Leonard street, New York, who are sole agents for the Crown Smyrna rugs, have some handsome new designs for fall trade. The high grade and choice character of the goods are winning for them great popularity among first-class trade.

The M. A. Furbush & Son Machine Company, of Philadelphia, have recently furnished the Alex. Smith & Sons Carpet Company with twenty-three sets of spinning cards, and have furnished Smyrna rug looms to T. Romeyn Bunn, of Amsterdam, N. Y., and Thomson & Co., of Yonkers, N. Y.

READY FOR THE FALL CAMPAIGN.

The carpet department of the H. B. Claflin Company has never before shown so large and varied a stock as it is offering for this fall. It would be impossible to enumerate in detail the lines carried, but a few may be specially noted as characteristic of the quality of the whole.

Among the makes for which the company are sole agents are Nye & Wait's gold medal Extras, C. C.'s and twelve pair Supers. This fall they will also handle the product of the fifty new looms just added, which makes Nye & Wait's one of the largest Extra Super mills in the country. The Firth Carpet Company have also increased their capacity about 20 per cent., and show full lines of 7, 8, 9 and 10 wire Tapestries.

The Body Brussels and Stouts of the Amsterdam Carpet Company will also be controlled here, as will the C. C's, Unions and ten pair Supers of John Boggs.

Here will also be found in profusion Hartford Moquettes, Wiltons and Brussels, Roxbury Velvets and Tapestries, Stinson Velvets and Tapestries, Beattie high pile Velvets, Rifton Mills Velvets and Dunlap's Lansdownes, thus giving a choice of five makes of the most popular Velvets in the market.

The Claflin Company will continue to take from the Antwerp Linoleum Company the entire product sold to this country. They will again handle Highland Mills Smyrnas, and, as they have done for twenty-five years, Alden Sampson & Sons' floor cloths.

Art Squares, made up carpets of every size and kind, China and Japan mattings, in fact every article used by carpet dealers will be found in this immense stock.

The travelers of the house have their samples nearly ready and will all be off to their respective territories by the end of the first week in June.

Mr. Lard—Mr. Fresh, you're late this morning.
Mr Fresh—Yes, sir; we've got a new baby at our house.
Mr. Lard—Um-er-well, don't let it occur again.—Ex.

A "tried and found good" compound for destroying carpet bugs is made of 1 ounce of alum, 1 ounce of chloride of zinc and 3 ounces of salt. Mix with 2 ounces of water, and let it stand over night in a corked bottle; then pour it carefully into another vessel, add 2 quarts of water to it, and with an old whisk broom sprinkle until quite damp around the edges of the carpet for a quarter of a yard in depth from the wall. This will not injure the colors of the carpet.—Ex.

SPECIALISTS IN CUT WILTONS AND FINE GRADE CARPETS.

Boyd, Harley & Co. are entitled to the credit of being the first firm in the trade to systematically push the sale of Wiltons in cut quantities. Others may have cut Wiltons before Boyd, Harley & Co., but they did not make a special business of it. As a result this firm is now quoted all over the country on cut Wiltons, and do business with the majority of the leading retail houses, firms that do not sell Wiltons from samples on account of lack of capital, but because they find it the most satisfactory as well as the most profitable method.

With the practical closing out of their general jobbing business Boyd, Harley & Co. are enabled to devote greater energy to their cut carpet lines, and for the fall season are offering not only Wiltons, but all grades of the finer three-quarter carpets, including Axminsters, Wiltons, Body Brussels, Moquettes, Velvets and the best Tapestries.

They will sell lines of samples to regular carpet merchants or carpet departments, and will cut any quantity on order. A large number of private patterns are shown, and in Wiltons alone they offer over 100 styles. Particulars will be given on application to 1122 Market street, Philadelphia.

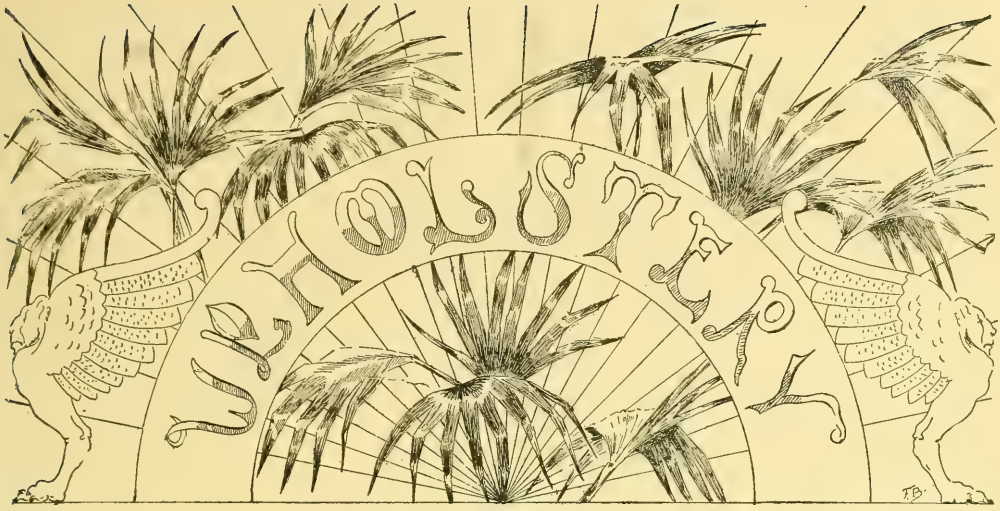
ALBION MILLS CARPETS.

The complete fall lines of James & George D. Bromley's Ingrains and Art Squares will be in the hands of their agents, T. J. Keveney & Co., on June 1. In the matter of satisfactory results to handlers there are no productions in the market that surpass the Albion mills goods, a fact demonstrated by the exceptional record of the mills in constant running. Their patent weave Ingrains and Squares have maintained their foremost position despite the many other weaves introduced during the past few years. For top notch quality and exclusive effects in styles the trade can always supply their wants from the lines of this concern.

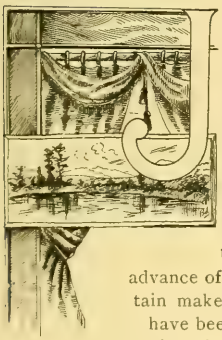
The complete fall lines of McCallum & McCallum's Glen Echo Wiltons, Brussels, Ingrains and rugs will be opened up this week at the Philadelphia and New York salesrooms. Detailed reference to these always attractive goods will be made in our next number.

Arthur L. Halliday, the noted designer of carpets and curtains, has attained a particularly conspicuous position in his profession, having designed a great number of the most successful patterns brought out in this country. Mr. Halliday and Mr. A. R. Charlton are now at the Tahawus House, Keene Valley, Adirondacks, N. Y., where they will remain for the next two months.

In James Pollock & Son's line for the coming season the double faced Brussels is especially prominent. This is a new and very successful fabric, showing a pattern on both sides. It is made in 4-4 and 3-4 bodies with borders to match, and in 4-4, 3-4 and 5-8 stairs. The Persian and Aubusson damasks and stair carpets for which the Messrs. Pollock are noted will be shown in a particularly attractive assortment of new and and standard patterns. The complete line is on view at the firm's mill, Dauphin and Tulip streets, Philadelphia.



THE UPHOLSTERY MARKET.



JUNE begins with a considerable number of prominent drapery buyers in the market, and there is apparent freedom in purchasing anything in the shape of novelties. The travelers who carry imported goods will be off earlier than usual, as one or two of the leading houses have been forehanded enough to get their samples ready at a period in advance of last season. Domestic lace curtain makers are holding their goods firmly, have been conservative in the matter of running their machines, have given especial care to their patterns, and are working very largely on advance orders.

Gentlemen of bearish tendencies who report that foreign makers of draperies and furniture coverings are frightened at the prospect of a frantic tariff bill in the near future, and are anxious to sell goods in anticipation of a change in the American import schedules, do not gain large credence. If they have bought anything below cost from our kin across the water they can realize on it quickly. There is at present no appearance of any break in the prices of staple goods.

Americans have a Presidential election every four years. They are used to such little affairs and do not worry greatly about them.

WOOL FELT FURNITURE COVERINGS.—In the case of Frank, Simmons & Co. against the collector at New York the Board of General Appraisers decides as follows :

The goods covered by this protest are pieces of wool felt and have printed or stenciled thereon fancy designs, landscapes or human figures, and are doubtless intended for covers for ottomans or to be used on furniture.

The collector assessed duty on the goods under the provisions of paragraph 283 of the act of August 28, 1894, at 50 per cent. ad valorem, and the appellants claimed them to be entitled to free entry, under paragraph 575, as paintings, or if not free entry, to be covered by and dutiable, under paragraph 311, as printed matter, at 25 per cent., or under paragraph 308, as lithographic prints.

Protests overruled and collector's decision stands.

CHENILLE YARN.—In the case of F. B. Vandergrift & Co. against the collector at New York the board in its decision says :

The merchandise in question is chenille yarn, which is invoiced as chenille fur and is claimed to be chenille fur. It is composed of wool and cotton and is probably intended for use in the manufacture of carpets.

The board affirms the collector's decision in assessing duty on the same at 40 per cent. ad valorem, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 283 of present act.

The several claims in the protest are without force and are overruled.

BUYERS in the market during the past fortnight were : Messrs. William McClellan, for Burnham, Hanna, Munger & Co., Kansas City ; William M. Hunter, of Hunter & Hardie, Dayton, Ohio ; John McLaren, for the William Hengerer Company, Buffalo, N. Y.; C. E. Lyle, A. S. Hibberd and W. Borzer, of C. E. Lyle & Co., Dowagiac, Mich.; E. S. Brown, of E. S. Brown & Co., Fall River, Mass.; C. A. Winsor, for the Hartwell, Richards Company, Providence, R. I.; E. B. Clark, for the Carter Dry Goods Company, Louisville ; H. M. Bixby, of H. M. Bixby & Co., Salem, Mass.; A. W. McLean (lace curtains), for Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., Chicago ; B. L. Young, for D. McCarthy & Sons, Syracuse, N. Y.; L. Koenig, Lewistown, Pa.; F. C. Krueger, for Tootle, Wheeler & Motter, St. Joseph, Mo.; H. Choate, of H. Choate & Co., Winona, Minn.; Morris Benson, of the Adam, Meldrum & Anderson Company, Buffalo, N. Y.; A. C. Bodman (wholesale), for Marshall Field & Co., Chicago; R. H. Hamilton, for Joseph Horne & Co., Pittsburg, Pa.; J. P. Johnston, of Johnston & Shurts, New London, Conn.; A. W. Mudge, Carroll, Beadle & Mudge, Rochester, N. Y.; E. C. Lines, for Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., and E. P. McPherson, for the John V. Farwell Company, Chicago; C. Pierson, for the John C. McInnes Company, Worcester, Mass.; H. B. Strong, for Brown, Thomson & Co., Hartford, Conn.; O. M. Edwards, of E. W. Edwards & Sons, Syracuse, N. Y.; S. Rosenbaum, of Rosenbaum Brothers, Cumberland, Md.; T. G. Peck, for Wm. H. Frear & Co., Troy, N. Y.

Mexico has abolished all taxes on commerce between the States. These taxes have been in existence for many years in Mexico and given rise to much embarrassment to external and internal trade. United States Consul-General Crittenden, in reporting to the State Department the fact that the repealing law takes effect July 1 next, says that while the repeal meets with general approval, some of the States will be obliged to seek other methods of taxation to supply the revenue heretofore derived from the tax on goods entering one State from another.

TABLE AND ENAMELED OIL CLOTH COMBINATION.

A combination has been formed including all the manufacturers of table and enameled oil cloths, with two exceptions. A meeting was held at the Hotel Waldorf, New York, on the 28th ult., to finish up the details and settle on prices for the fall season.

The new list price on 5-4 table goods will be $1.75, and on marbles $1.85, or an advance of 10 cents per piece over the former list. Fall sample books will be shown June 8.

The offerings of F. H. Lapsley & Brother, 12 South Charles street, Baltimore, for the coming season cover a big variety of window shades, Crown opaque shadings, spring rollers, fringes, mosquito canopies, &c. The firm are large importers of John King & Son's Scotch hollands, and show also the full lines of Bancroft's Sun-Fast hollands and Oswego shadings. Their offerings include likewise floor and table oil cloths, linoleums, stair rods and buttons, curtain poles, &c

L. C. Waterman & Sons, Hanover, Mass., manufacture tacks which are largely used in the upholstery trade, as their quality invariably gives perfect satisfaction. Write to the Messrs. Waterman for prices, &c.

Julius G. Pegel holds an especially high reputation as a designer for textile fabrics, chenille curtains and table covers, upholstery goods, &c. Mr. Pegel's studio is at the southwest corner of Hope and Dauphin streets, Philadelphia.

The Burlington Venetian Blind Company, manufacturers of inside sliding and Venetian blinds, Burlington, Vt., show their line for the fall trade at their New York office, 61 World Building, and their 1896 catalogue will be supplied to the trade on application. These blinds are capable of being made a profitable specialty in every upholstery establishment, and it will therefore be good policy for buyers to communicate with the company.

ORINOKA MILLS GREAT ATTRACTIONS.

The system inaugurated by the Orinoka Mills in producing a great variety of different upholstery and drapery fabrics in absolute novelties is bearing more fruit every season, both to the manufacturers and in convincing the trade that these products are highly satisfactory goods to handle. It is a great credit to the mills that they have continued their efforts uninterruptedly through all the depressing business of the past three years, but we predict that when general prosperity returns the trade will have to be very early buyers to procure supplies of the Orinoka Mills novelties. We are supported in this view by the statements of leading buyers who have already seen the new fall lines, and who say that the great attractions will compel them to handle the goods more extensively during the fall season. With such a recommendation we can justly urge all upholstery and drapery buyers to inspect these exceptionally desirable goods at the salesrooms of B. L. Solomon's Sons, the sole agents, 29 Union square, New York.

Harry Asher, 929 Broadway, Brooklyn, N. Y., manufactures a very desirable line of window shades, and his offerings for the fall trade will repay inspection, for he can present strong inducements to buyers.

John Oughton, designer for upholstery and drapery fabrics, chenille and Jacquard work, ranks among the leaders in his profession and manufacturers will find it well worth while to visit his studio, 2122 Germantown avenue, Philadelphia.

Chas. Emmerich & Co., 167 and 169 Fifth avenue, Chicago, show for the fall trade all grades of feathers and feather pillows. They deal in such goods exclusively, and have a patented and superior method of cleaning and curing feathers. Write to them for price lists, &c.

Grille work can be made an important and profitable feature in the retail carpet business, and dealers will find it well worth while to procure from Albert Gall, Jr., Indianapolis, Ind., his catalogue showing a number of handsome designs. Mr. Gall will also furnish original designs to order.

J. A. Filer & Co., 71 and 73 University place, New York, are showing for the fall season their complete lines of upholstery and drapery trimmings, fancy fringes, tassels, cords, &c., comprising notably attractive specialties and novelties manufactured only by them. The goods are shown at their factory, University place, and also at their downtown salesroom, 353 Broadway.

W. E. Arnold & Co., 20 South Charles street, Baltimore, are large manufacturers of window shades, shade cloths, &c., and show also for the fall trade full lines of Scotch hollands, Lonsdale hollands, dead finish hollands, Oswego shadings, curtain poles, upholstery hardware, table oil cloth, &c. They will send their catalogue and price list promptly on application.

Hyndman & Moore, manufacturers of chenille curtains and table covers, tapestry curtains and piece goods, are showing for the fall trade the largest and most attractive line of these goods ever brought out by them. The line is on view at the mills of the manufacturers, Coral and Adams streets, Philadelphia, and at the salesrooms of John Black, 115 Worth street, New York, and Rosenthal & Brownlie, Chicago.

THE GOBELINS TAPESTRIES.

E established his tapestry workers in a house in the Faubourg St. Antoine, in Paris. Here he collected a number of the best painters, engravers, carvers in gold, silver and ivory sculptors, to whom he added 200 tapestry workers from Italy and Flanders. Henry was carried off prematurely in the midst of his projects for the re-establishment of the industry and art of France, and unfortunately he left in his son, Louis XIII., a successor quite incapable to realize them, who, or rather his celebrated minister, Richelieu, however, established a carpet manufactory at Chaillot, near Paris, in some buildings which had been employed in the manufacture of soap, from which fact the establishment since become so celebrated derived the name of "La Savonnerie."

Owing to the state of France at that period the manufacture languished, and was almost extinguished during the long wars of the Fronde and other troubles during the minority of Louis XIV. As soon, however, as the latter monarch assumed the reins of government, he endeavored to organize the commerce and manufactures of the nation. A royal factory was established at Beauvais for the manufacture of tapestry, under the direction of Hinart; the Savonnerie was placed under the direction of the celebrated painter Le Brun, and the children of the hospitals were there trained in the manufacture of various woolen fabrics by Philippe Lourdet, at that time distinguished as a tapestry worker and carpet weaver. Even the private factories of Felletin and of Aubusson were provided with a dyer and a painter at the expense of the Government.

The efforts of the Government were soon crowned with success, and the manufactures of France became in a few years the most flourishing in Europe. In order to still further contribute to their advancement, the king determined to found a model factory in which he might concentrate the highest degree of talent in the nation, not for the purpose of exposing private enterprise to a disproportionate competition, but, by serving as an example to artisans, to elevate the whole taste of the nation. It was with this intention he established in the house of the Gobelins his celebrated "Manufacture Royale des Meubles de la Couronne," or Royal Manufactory of the Furniture of the Crown, since better known as the Manufactory of the Gobelins.

It was not, however, a simple factory of tapestry that Louis XIV. established; it was a great workshop, under the direction of Le Brun, the painter, having at least 250 tapestry workers continually employed in executing pieces after his design, the wool being dyed by one of the most celebrated dyers of the period. Then there were sculptors in metal, and goldsmiths, by whom were executed torch holders, candelabra, brackets, inlaid and applied ornaments, cast or chiseled in silver, gold, bronze or gilded copper, designed in unison with the tapestry. Cabinetmakers and carvers in wood and ivory constructed the furniture, while Florentine artists, under the direction of Ferdinand de Melini, inlaid them with marbles, agates and lapis lazuli, representing fruits, flowers and birds, which are still so much admired by all who visit the Palace of Versailles. Even the very hinges and locks of the doors of Louis XIV.'s palaces were made after designs executed at the Gobelins, under the direction of the universal Le Brun. The effects of the factory were soon perceptible in the impulse given to the application of design in all the manufactures of France, which ultimately gave to that country the empire of the world in matters of taste as applied to the wants of life.

The direction of Le Brun, which lasted from 1667 until 1690, was the epoch of the greatest prosperity of the Gobelins. He was succeeded by Pierre Mignard, one of the most distinguished painters of France, many of whose works adorn the Louvre and the Palace of Versailes; and under whom it continued to prosper until the great disasters which befel France toward the end of the reign of Louis XIV. forced the king to reserve his resources for the defense of the country, and to dismiss the greater part of the workmen. On the re-establishment of peace some encouragement was given to the Gobelins, but its splendor was gone, and from that time forward it became a mere manufactory of tapestry.

During the first revolution the Gobelins were naturally neglected. Louis Philippe was, however, a great patron of the Gobelins. Some very fine works were executed for him, such as the copy of Horace Vernet's "Massacre of the Mamelukes," which was at the London Exhibition of 1851. The fine hangings representing the "Marriage of Francis I.," and other scenes from the life of that monarch, after pictures of Rubens in the Louvre, were either made or at least begun under the Restoration.

The Patchogue Manufacturing Company will hereafter sell their own goods through Henson & Small.

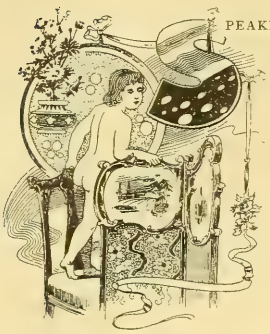
The Rome (N. Y.) Metallic Bedstead Company is enlarging its plant by the addition of a building 40x145 feet.

Schaum & Uhlinger, manufacturers of machinery for carpet weaving and looms for webbing, gimps and fringes, Glenwood avenue and Second street, Philadelphia, are very busy in filling orders for the trade. Their Mr. Rometsch, who is abroad on a business tour, has sent in numerous orders from Switzerland and France.

Campbell, Metzger & Jacobson is the name of a new manufacturing and importing firm at 32 Greene street, New York, who will deal in drapery, novelties, upholstery goods, &c. Messrs. Campbell and Jacobson have been for the past fifteen years with B. Ulman & Co. C. R. Lerch, formerly with Ulman & Co., and B. Altman & Co., will act as manager of the upholstery business.

The sheriff has received several claims aggregating about $500 against Henderson Brothers, decorators and parquette flooring, at No. 41 West 125th street, New York, in favor of various creditors. When the sheriff went there to make a levy they claimed that they had given a bill of sale on all the stock and fixtures. They have been in business since February, 1889, and, it is said, generally carried a stock of $5,000 to $10,000.

SOME POINTS ON LACE CURTAINS.



SPEAKING of styles in lace curtains for the fall season, Mr. H. J. Rieser, of Rieser & Co., who is one of the closest observers of the tendencies of the market in patterns, says :

"The better element of the trade have evidently become tired of the ruffled or lace edge goods, and for the fall season history will repeat itself regarding styles. We are getting back to one-piece curtains, with sashes to match. We have had quite an increased demand for sash yard goods in narrow and wide widths to match, which, of course, were the fashion three or four years ago and until these ruffled or imitation lace edge effects came in. The latter answered their purpose during depressed times from an economical standpoint, but now we find the demand steadily increasing for a better class of goods. We are selling more hand made laces than at any time in my memory, such goods as Renaissance and Arabians—all solid curtains with a sash length to match. A demand is springing up for sash yard Brussels to go with sets—that is, the curtain, sashes and piece goods to match. The demand for solid curtains of course includes Irish Points, Brussels, muslins and all the standard grades of regular one-piece curtains. The people seem to want something more substantial, as they have found that in the end it is more economical to buy a better article that will last for a number of years than to buy something that can only be used for one season. In our Nottinghams our endeavor is to tone up the Nottingham trade with higher class styles at popular prices, handling only standard goods of full length and width.

"Our Louis XV. line of French novelties, which has been very successful, has been largely increased for the fall, and we are also showing six different patterns of the Stephanie curtain in butter, cream and white effects. A new tint in laces is the canary color shown in our Louis XVI. curtains. Another very successful curtain with us is the Marlborough, in which we will show six patterns for the fall season, compared to four last season. We have sold out every pair of our spring stock of this attractive curtain. Everything is in readiness for fall trade and we are glad to note an improvement in our business during the last few weeks, showing that retailers are selling some goods and have light stocks."

Richmond & Mott, Incorporated, wholesale dealers in upholstery materials, New York, have removed from 127 to 140 Fifth avenue.

John Taylor, dealer in dry goods, upholsteries, &c., Kansas City, Mo., has opened an office in New York at 487 Broadway, Room 803.

It is reported that the Wyoming Manufacturing Company, Philadelphia, manufacturing chenille goods, will establish its factory at Lansdale, Pa.

HOLLINS MILL HOLLANDS.

The Hollins Mill Company, manufacturers of Scotch hollands, have never had so many or so large orders for these goods as during the past six months. The demand has greatly increased in America, and the home trade is taking more goods than usual, while shipments to the European Continent and British Colonies have been on a most extended scale. Their works have been kept going night and day, but even this has not sufficed to keep abreast of orders. They are endeavoring, however, to treat all customers fairly in the matter of shipments. Enlargements are being made in their plant and finishing facilities, so that in time they will be in a position to fully satisfy the trade on deliveries.

One of the most gratifying features of their business is the steady increase in their American trade, the Hollins Mill Scotch hollands being handled by more houses and to a greater extent than ever before.

THE MOUNTAIN STREAMS OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Where can a more enjoyable trip be made than to the mountains of western North Carolina, reached by the Southern Railway, Piedmont Air Line, in a few hours' ride from the metropolis? The charming resorts of Asheville and others located in these glorious mountains are making their annual preparation for taking care of the large summer travel that seek a cool and pleasant trip during the hot days of summer. An attractive book giving hotel and boarding house rates is now being distributed by the passenger department of the Southern Railway System upon application to 271 Broadway, New York.

L. S. Tower, who has recently opened a furniture store at 526 Cotton avenue, Americus, Ga., carries a stock of window shades.

Schwab & Wolff, manufacturers of golden art draperies and silk and cotton novelties, New York, have removed to enlarged quarters at 41 White street.

John Black, 115 Worth street, has strong attractions in chenille and tapestry curtains and table covers and upholstery piece goods for the big buyers.

F. J. Kloes, manufacturer of window shades and jobber of shade goods, has his fall styles on view at his factory, 240 Canal street, New York. Mr. Kloes is an experienced and successful manufacturer, who can offer strong inducements to buyers, as a call at his factory will quickly prove.

Costikyan Frères, importers of Oriental rugs and carpets, 49 Liberty street, New York, have just received the following specials, now ready for fall delivery : One lot of Bagdad portières, wide extra quality, one side five stripes at $2.45 ; also a lot two sides five stripes at $3.15, and an assortment of antique runners at $11.50.

The Persian drapery is a new kind of rope portière shown by Henry Meyers & Co., 343 Broadway, New York. The strands are composed of woven chenille and afford an enlarged scope for coloring effects over other makes of rope portières. James Feeley, the firm's traveler, who has recently returned from the road, reports that all buyers pronounce the Persian draperies a highly attractive novelty, and have universally placed orders.

A NEW FIRM.

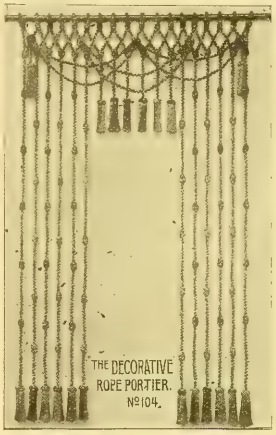
J. W. Henson and Maurice Small have formed a partnership under the title of Henson & Small. They have leased a handsome loft in the Baudoine Building, 458 Broadway, corner Grand street, and will handle the account of the Patchogue Manufacturing Company, makers of lace curtains. Mr. Henson has been with the company since it started, having been one of the original stockholders. Mr. Small has been with the concern since its reorganization, at which time he became one of the proprietors. Since the change in its management in 1894 it has been one of the most successful business enterprises connected with the domestic drapery industry.

An illustration of the American Pin Company's new extension rod is given on page 90. This rod can be used for the inside or outside windows and is made in three sizes, 14x24, 19x38 and 24x44. This rod is aptly termed "a big trade Winner" by Manager Sullivan, and is only one of a great many attractions in upholstery brass goods produced by the American Pin Company. Illustrated sheets of the goods will be mailed on application to the New York office, 441 Broadway.

The fall styles of E. V. Pike's chenille covers, curtains and piece goods are on view at the mill, Second street and Columbia avenue, Philadelphia.

THE "DECORATIVE" ROPE PORTIERE.

The Buffalo Fringe Works, manufacturers of the "Decorative" rope portière, have brought out several new colorings in these goods for fall, which, in addition to the styles shown for spring, make an exceptionally strong line. They also have many new effects and novelties in upholstery and drapery trimmings; just the kind to interest all live and progressive upholstery buyers. The complete lines of rope portières and trimmings will be shown during the month of August at the salesroom of T. I. Birkin & Co., 458 Broadway, New York, and Morris Bernhard, the proprietor of the Buffalo Fringe Works, will be on hand personally to meet the trade.



The salesmen of the Columbia Shade Cloth Company, who formerly traveled for the Meriden Curtain Fixture Company, held a reunion and dinner at the Broadway Central Hotel in New York on the 14th ult. Mr. J. C. Perkins, manager of the Meriden Company, and also now one of the three managers of the Columbia Company, was the guest of honor. The event gave an opportunity to the salesmen to express their great appreciation for the many favors and uniformly agreeable treatment extended to them by Mr. Perkins in the past, and in addition to these expressions the company presented to Mr. Perkins a handsome cane. Mr. Perkins acknowledged the complimentary sentiments of the company and his pleasure in receiving their gift in his usual genial and sincere way, and the event will doubtless be remembered by all present as one of the pleasant happenings of business life. The travelers who acted as the hosts of the evening were A. L. Teubner, V. J. Leigh, P. A. Michel, G. W. Reynolds, W. H. Porter, W. W. Zapp, M. J. McGinnis, C. C. Springer and W. D. Harned, Jr.

As this is the busy season for slip covers buyers should remember that one of the largest stocks and one of the biggest assortments is carried by J. B. Ryer, Son & Co., 167 Canal street, New York. This firm are also headquarters on the new styles of figured velours, and are showing several new patterns for fall. Another enlarged

FEMININE FINANCIERING.

Mrs. Shopleigh.—Yes; it is simply outrageous the way they keep us waiting for change. I have been sitting here for half an hour waiting for two cents! I won't leave without it, either. "Take care of the pennies, and the dollars will take care of themselves," you know.

(At the upper right you will see the carriage that is waiting for her at the rate of $1 an hour.)—Puck.

and strengthened feature with them is their assortment of curtains, including lace and tapestry, and drapery fabrics in wide variety. They show an unsurpassed line of inexpensive art draperies, such as silkolines, cretonnes, denims, &c., and are fitting up a spacious room in the basement of their establishment specially for their printed art draperies and coverings. Upholstery retailers, as well as upholstered furniture manufacturers, should make it a point to inspect this firm's offerings.

The Emrick shade slat manufactured by Schroth & Potter, Columbus, Ohio, is now wholesaled by F. H. Lapsley & Brother, Baltimore, Md., and Emil Sparfield, 602 Washington street, Buffalo, N. Y. Every shade dealer should handle this inexpensive and useful device for window shades, and can obtain them by addressing any of the three firms mentioned.

It should be remembered that the Oswego Shade Cloth Company do not send out any traveling salesmen. The retail trade can procure the always reliable Chouaguen opaque shadings from the window shade and upholstery jobbers throughout the country. Where they cannot be procured from a jobber, write to the Oswego Shade Cloth Company, Oswego, N. Y., who will provide an opportunity for intending purchasers.

The Henry Reubel Company are preparing a supplement to their appendix No. 1, showing all their new styles and the revised prices. The supplement will be ready for distribution about June 1, and will be sent on application. Illustrations of the company's brass pole sets in patterns Nos. 962, 974 and 975, also cuts of zinc nosings and stair plates, will be found in their new advertisement on page 100.

The Northern Shade Cloth Company, St. Anthony Park, Minn., possess the elements of a progressive and successful concern, as instanced by their very catchy and attractive bulletins printed on shade cloth and inclosed in their letters. One of their recent inclosures says: "We live to learn, and we have learned that cheap, trashy goods are dear at any price, and a damage both to the manufacturer and user. Northern shadings are all right." The demonstration given by them in a recent issue of The Review, showing how much nearer they are to the trade west of the Mississippi River than most other manufacturers, is worthy of careful consideration by all window shade buyers in that section. The Northern Company are ready to prove the correctness of their assertions by samples and prices on application.

A DELIGHTFUL EXCURSION.

"Hampton Roads and Thereabouts" is the title of a beautiful illustrated pamphlet issued by the Old Dominion Steamship Company to call public attention to the attractions comprised in an excursion to Old Point Comfort, Norfolk and Richmond, and other points of interest reached by the company's steamers, which leave New York daily except Sundays. Old Point Comfort, with its magnificent hotels and scenery, is a favorite resort for New Yorkers, and the trip by sea on one of the elegant and spacious steamers of the Old Dominion line is in itself a source of infinite pleasure and recuperation. Many carpet men are aware of the attractions of this trip, but there are others who have not yet enjoyed it, and we advise them to write to the company's office, Pier 26 North River, for the pamphlet to which we have referred.

MONUMENTAL CITY MATTERS.

BALTIMORE, MAY 25.

Arthur C. Bivens was one of the upholsterers who jumped from the fifth story of the establishment of Stumph Brothers, Washington, D. C., during the fire of September, 1894. He was so severely injured about the head and shoulders that he sued the Stumphs for $20,000. A verdict in favor of the defendant was returned in Justice Bradley's court the 11th inst.

James Callum will establish a bedding and upholstery factory in Greensborough, N. C.

J. C. Knipp, of J. C. Knipp & Brother, furniture and upholstery, visited the Northern cities the 18th inst.

David Hutzler, of Hutzler Brothers, dry goods and upholstery, sailed on the steamship St. Paul from New York on the 20th inst. for a two months' trip through Europe.

Gassinger, Hayman & Co., manufacturers of store and office furniture, have been adjudicated insolvent debtors. Joseph W. Hazell has been appointed preliminary trustee, furnishing bond for $3,000. August Gassinger, Jr., Gerhard Gassinger and Martin Heyman compose the firm.

Frank Frieburg was arrested the 23d inst. on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses from merchants and boarding house proprietors. He had ordered over $300 worth of goods from Henry W. Jenkins & Sons, furniture and upholstery, and $50 worth of lace curtains from J. E. Bird & Co.

George Whitelock was appointed by Judge Dennis the 22d inst. receiver of the business conducted by James L. Gough and Thomas O. Lloyd as the Household Supply Company, dry goods and upholstery. The bill of complaint filed by Mr. Gough in the Circuit Court stated that differences existed between the partners. Mr. Lloyd consented to the receivership. The receiver bonded for $5,000.

REUBEL EXTENSION POLE BRACKET.

A patent has recently been allowed to Henry Reubel, of the Henry Reubel Company, on the Reubel extension pole bracket, a cut of which is given herewith. The advantages of this bracket are that there are no thumbscrews to regulate extension and no detachable parts to get lost. The openings on the upper arm, being an inch apart, enable the worker to get accurate extension, thus avoiding the annoyance of measuring before getting the pole properly adjusted. The brackets are neatly brass plated and polished, and are made in two different weights, the No. 53 being extra heavy and the No. 54 being a lighter article of the same style. The brackets are made to fit 1, 1½ and 2 inch poles, in either 4 to 7 or 7 to 12 inch extension. A particularly attractive feature to the buyer is that they are sold at the same price as the ordinary extension brackets.

CHAS. W. BRENEMAN & CO.

The enterprising Cincinnati house of Chas. W. Breneman & Co. is ready for the fall trade with its complete lines of Camargo hand made opaque shade cloth and mounted window shades of all kinds. The Camargo shade cloth manufactured by Breneman & Co. is widely and very favorably known in the trade throughout the country, and Western buyers need hardly be reminded that this firm is well located for the prompt shipping of goods. Not only in this respect, but in others also this firm is in a position to strongly interest all handlers of shade cloths and shades.

Write to its Cincinnati headquarters, 1013 Walnut street, for a catalogue and price list.

Masten & Hund, of 33 Clinton place, find their trade holding up excellently. The demand for their mounted shades has been so good that they are compelled to work overtime to fill their orders.

The large stock of lace curtains purchased from A. Naumann by W. & J. Sloane is being moved rapidly by D. A. Fyfe, manager of their wholesale lace curtain department. Mr. Fyfe has visited the large buyers in some of the Eastern cities and was in Chicago last week. The Messrs. Sloane intend to turn over the Naumann stock quickly, and are now showing the goods at their Broadway salesroom, and are offering great inducements in price.

OBITUARY.

L. S. Ayres.

L. S. Ayres, of the firm of L. S. Ayres & Co., dry goods, Indianapolis, Ind., died at his home in that city on the 7th ult., after a brief illness from Bright's disease, aged seventy-two years. He started in business in Chardon, Ohio, and subsequently removed to Geneva, N. Y., where he remained some time. He then purchased an interest in the business of N. R. Smith, of Indianapolis, which was continued under the name of N. R. Smith & Ayres. Subsequently he purchased the Smith interest, and under the firm name of L. S. Ayres & Co. the business was continued for more than twenty years. His commercial life was without reproach, and by his neighbors and citizens who knew him he was regarded with very high esteem. A notable characteristic was his consideration for others, which awakened in them the tenderest of feelings. He was a very successful business man and left a large estate. A widow, one son and two daughters survive him.

William S. Taylor.

William S. Taylor, of the firm of W. S. Taylor & Bloodgood, Jr., manufacturers of woolen felts, died at his home in Brooklyn on the 23d ult.

Mr. Taylor was born in England in 1827. He came to New York about forty-five years ago, and a few months later went to Toronto, Canada, where he remained in mercantile business for five years. Returning then to New York he began the manufacture of women's skirts, but about twenty years ago he formed a copartnership with Mr. Bloodgood and engaged in the manufacture of upholstery and other felts, establishing at Cranford, N. J., one of the largest mills in the country for the making of such goods.

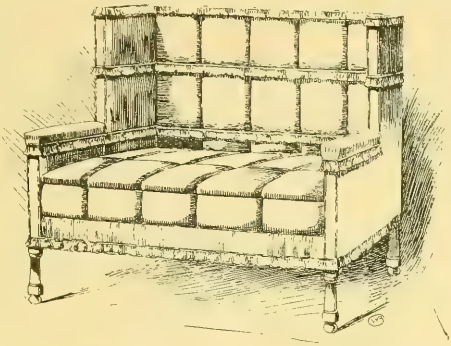
He was prominent in the social life of Brooklyn, his place of residence for many years. He was a member of the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian church, of Bedford Lodge, F. and A. M.; a director in the Oxford Club, late president of the Library Association of the Oxford Club, a member of the Manufacturers' Association of Kings and Queens Counties, of the Manhattan Club, the Merchants' Club, the Wool Club, a director in the City Savings Bank of Brooklyn, and in the Scranton, Pa., Lace Manufacturing Company.

He leaves a widow and two sons, William J. and Herbert. William J. Taylor is connected with the house of W. S. Taylor & Bloodgood, Jr., and Herbert is superintendent of the Scranton Lace Manufacturing Company's factory.

Henry W. Green & Co. give a list on page 85 of the very extensive and comprehensive lines of window shade goods carried by them. They always have in stock about every kind of shade cloth and hollands, and make a specialty of Duchesse shade laces, which they show in 125 patterns ; also made up lace shades, which are shown in twelve different styles. Green & Co. rank among the largest wholesalers of the Chouaguen oil opaque shades, carrying all widths and colors in stock, and as usual they are to the front in the distribution of John King & Son's first quality Scotch hollands, carried in all regular widths and colors, besides some specially wide widths in colors exclusive to them. Shade buyers should carefully consult their announcement.

STEWART HARTSHORN AND THE BICYCLISTS.

"My latest find," said the wheeling girl, "is a grand rack, I suppose you would call it, for storing a wheel. It is made by a famous shade roller manufacturer, and works on exactly the same principle as an automatic shade. A roller covered with heavy tin is attached to a board 2½ feet long and about 5 inches wide. This is screwed to the ceiling anywhere in any room where you wish to keep your wheel. Two strips of heavy webbing, about 3 inches wide, work up and down on the roller. Each has a hook attached to the end. The wheel is simply set in these two hooks, and all you have to do is to give it a slight shove and up it goes as easily as your window shade. Of course, having an automatic stop, the wheel can be left in any position. This is the most sensible device yet invented for storing a wheel at home, and is well worth the cost, $3. People living in flats and apartments have no place to keep their wheels, and are compelled to store them, while those who own a whole house find difficulty in providing a suitable place for two or three machines. One of my friends told me that formerly the family wheels were kept in the basement hall, and it was crash, bang, smash, all day long. Either the servants were falling over the wheels or the wheels were tumbling down on the servants. Now the three bikes rest undisturbed on three of these bicycle rollers screwed to the laundry ceiling. It 's a good thing."



In a London shop window is shown the settee which is illustrated on this page. It is upholstered in a dull reddish fabric, and is in every way a very handsome piece of furniture, and has the additional charm of being out of the beaten path.

Robert S. Warner has issued the following to the creditors of Warner & King, the Sixth avenue, New York, bedding and brass bedstead manufacturers : "In view of the fact that certain of the creditors of the above concern refused to accept the compromise settlement offered by Mr. Warner of 25 per cent. cash, the assets of the concern will be sold at auction at a date to be determined within a few days. The understanding with the majority of the creditors that all interested should be treated alike compels me to abandon the compromise scheme." May 26 was the date set for the sale.

AN INGENIOUS WAY OF DISPOSING OF

A large plate of glass, valued at $300, was broken on the 18th ult. in the show window of Goerke Brothers' store, at the corner of Bedford avenue and South Eighth street, Brooklyn. It was during the windstorm that came up about 2:30 o'clock. The ironwork supporting the canvas awning became detached and swung with violence against the window. The glass was insured.

Fire in the building at 388 Boylston street, Boston, caused a loss of $3,000 on the 21st ult. The street floor and basement are occupied by Z. Mode, dealer in upholstery materials.

At the annual meeting of the Washburn & Moen Manufacturing Company, held at Worcester, Mass., on the 26th ult., the old board of directors was re-elected as follows : President, William E. Rice ; vice-president, treasurer and general manager, Philip W. Moen ; directors, the above officers and George T. Dewey, Stephen Salisbury and Rockwood Hoar. It was voted to increase the capital stock from $3,500,000 to $4,000,000. A quarterly dividend of 2 per cent. will be declared.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Bethlehem (Pa.) Chenille and Tapestry Company was held on the 18th ult. About one-half of the stock was represented. Charles Broadhead, president of the company, occupied the chair. The directors were authorized to continue running the mill until the present supply of materials is exhausted, which will be in about two or three weeks from the date of the meeting. They are then to settle up the indebtedness against the concern with the funds on hand. All the liabilities can be wiped out, it is believed, except the mortgage of $2,200. The stockholders then adjourned to meet again at the call of the president. It is intended to effect a reorganization of the company when the contemplated settlement of all outstanding accounts is effected.

The Westphalia Mills, Philadelphia, of which H. B. Herlitzius is the proprietor, are going out of chenille manufacture, and are changing their looms for the manufacture of tapestry curtains and other upholstery products. Ryan & McGahan, the selling agents, will show a new line of goods by the 15th inst.

ONE'S BICYCLE WHEN IT IS NOT IN USE.

Bell.—A. C. Bell, formerly with Wanamaker & Co., Philadelphia, and recently manager of Hilton, Hughes & Co.'s upholstery department, succeeds A. Harrison as head of the upholstery department of Abraham & Straus, Brooklyn.

Birkin.—T. Stanley Birkin, of T. I. Birkin & Co., Nottingham, England, arrived in this country on the Campania May 16.

Bodman.—The ever welcome A. C. Bodman, of Marshal Field & Co., is here. Age has not withered nor a bicycle accident staled his infinite variety. He is the same Bodman, only with one arm, but he has been buying goods with the vigor which characterized him when he was only a drapery buyer and not habituated to giving exhibitions on the single wheel.

Bradbury.—The friends of Geo. T. Bradbury, upholstery manager for M. C. Spencer & Co., will regret to learn that his visit to the Adirondacks failed, owing to the severity of the weather, to do him the good he anticipated. After a few weeks in the country to store up some strength he will sail for Europe.

Bratton.—Just by way of a passing note upholstery men should see that great bicycle show on the New York Boulevard June 6. David Bratton will steer that Dayton wheel made for three, and the uniforms will be modeled on the best known upholstery designs.

Burbridge.—Charles Burbridge, who represents Arnold, Constable & Co.'s upholstery department in Chicago, has been home on a few weeks' vacation. He returned this week and did not attempt to conceal his pride in the line he has to show this fall.

Ellis.—The Henry Reubel Company will have their Boston office at 120 Tremont street. C. W. Ellis will make that his headquarters when not on the road.

Fletcher.—That little two weeks' vacation W. H. Fletcher promised himself turned out to be about a ten days' rest. He was back at his desk on the 25th, ult., all the better for his holiday, but as hungry for work as ever.

Fried.—Samson Fried, of A. S. Rosenthal & Co., importers of silks, &c., 45 Greene street. New York, will sail for Europe per steamer Havel on the 16th inst.

Gage.—F. S. Gage has completely changed the aspect of Arnold, Constable & Co.'s upholstery department. The old tables have disappeared, racks are substituted for wide goods; he has a strong force, and during his recent trip to Europe he has secured some things that the drapery and upholstery trade will have to look at.

Harrison.—A. Harrison, who resigns the management of the upholstery department of Abraham & Straus, Brooklyn, will, it is understood, go into business for himself as a manufacturer of ostrich feathers.

Lockhart.—Robert Lockhart, head of Sweetser, Pembrook & Co.'s lace, linen and white goods department, sailed for Europe recently.

Onslow-Burton.—W. Onslow-Burton has made out of Ehrich Brothers' upholstery department one of the prettiest shows in the city. He has just filled a contract with the Emigration Commissioners for awnings, &c., at Ellis Island.

Perry.—John Perry, formerly with Robert & R. J. Ritchie, assumes charge of C. B. Young & Co.'s Chicago office, Room 437 American Express Building, and will travel thence to St. Louis and the West.

Perkins.—J. C. Perkins, of the Columbia Shade Cloth Company, was presented with an elegant cane by the former salesmen of the Meriden Company. The presentation took place at the Broadway Central Hotel on the 14th ult., A. L. Teubner, of Chicago, making the presentation speech.

Sadd.—The upholstery department of the Denholm & McKay Company, Worcester, Mass., is now in charge of E. A. Sadd, who was formerly with the Barnard, Sumner Putnam Company.

Small.—J. Small, assistant superintendent of the Patchogue Mill, is a brother of Maurice Small, of Henson & Small, who represent the account.

Solomon.—S. M. Solomon, of D. L. Solomon's & Sons, has returned from Europe.

Taylor.—I. Preston Taylor has purchased the Brooklyn business of the Geneva Mineral Spring Company. His address will be found under the "Personal" head in the carpet department.

Walker.—W. H. Walker, president of the Ely & Walker Dry Goods Company, St. Louis, has left for Europe, accompanied by his family, for a trip of several months' duration.

Wallis.—Stephen Wallis, manager of the American business of W. E. Meats & Co., 33 Howard street, New York, manufacturers of lace curtains, Nottingham, England, was a passenger on the Campania, which sailed hence on the 23d ult.

Warner.—R. Warner, of the firm of Lindeke, Warner & Schurmeier, St. Paul, Minn., sailed from New York for Europe per steamship La Touraine, on the 16th ult.

Watson.—Thomas H. Watson, manager of Mills & Gibb's upholstery department, returned from Europe on the Fürst Bismarck May 23.

Wechsler.—Abe Wechsler, of Joseph Wechsler's Sons, under a wager that he could not master without a rehearsal the score of Sousa's El Capitan—now running at the Casino—played the music of the opera on the piano before a few friends in the Elks' parlors in Brooklyn the other night. He won his bet.

Campbell, Metzger & Jacobson are a new firm in upholstery goods at 32 Greene street, New York.

Emil Sparfield, Buffalo, N. Y., is now conducting two stores, having recently opened a new one at 602 Washington street.

Hood, Foulkrod & Co., the Philadelphia dry goods jobbers, have removed their New York office from White street to 115 and 117 Worth street, where they are represented by J. Fergus Wardhaugh, Jr.

In this issue A. A. Vantine & Co. show a line of summer trade bringers and money winners for live dealers. Especially noticeable are the India seats, cane folding stands and Madras rush chairs which are illustrated in the advertisement.

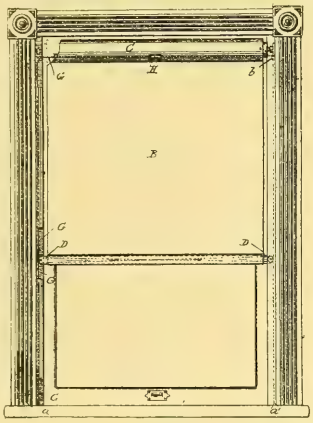
George W. Holt, formerly with W. T. & J. Mersereau, New York, has been indicted in Brooklyn for an alleged attempt to swindle an insurance company by presenting false proof of loss at a fire in South Eighth street, that city. Holt was held for trial in $2,500 bail.

The dry goods firm of T. S. Wilson & Co., Newark, N. J., has suspended, because of depression in business. Orlando Demarest, representing the H. B. Claflin Company, to whom Mr. Wilson gave a bill of sale for $65,000, has assumed charge. Mr. Demarest said on the 21st ult. that he did not know the value of the assets, but he was certain they would be below one-half the liabilities. The house was one of the oldest in the city, having been conducted under the firm name of McWhirter & Wilson from 1873 until 1893, when it failed. An assignment was made and the store reopened in December, 1893, under the name of T. S. Wilson & Co. Mr. Wilson was sole proprietor.

Inventions.

No. 560,133. Fixture for Window Shades.—Plato G. Emery, Chicago, Ill., assignor to the Adams & Westlake Company, of Illinois. Filed January 22, 1896. Issued May 12, 1896.

Claim.—1. In a curtain fixture, a window frame and a spring operated curtain secured thereto, and having a lower rod carrying at each end a pulley, combined with a single cord supported in a loop at each upper corner of the window frame and secured thereto at each lower corner, passing over and around each of said pulleys, and crossing centrally of the said lower rod.



2. In a curtain fixture, the combination, with a window frame, of a curtain or shade, a spring roller secured to the upper end of said shade, a rod secured to the lower end thereof, cord guides attached to the ends of the rod, and a single cord supported by a loop at each upper corner of the window frame and extending across the top of the window frame down the sides thereof to and longitudinally of the said rod, passing under and over the cord guides thereon to the opposite ends of said rod, and then down the sides of the window frame to the bottom thereof, where the ends of said cord are secured.

3. In a curtain fixture, the combination, with a window frame and a curtain or shade having a spring roller, of a hollow rod at the bottom of the curtain, a pulley mounted at each end of said rod, loops at the upper corners of the window frame, and a single cord crossing the top of the window frame to the loops, and passing downwardly therefrom, on each side, to and through the hollow rod to the opposite side, under and over the said pulleys, and again downwardly to the bottom corners of the window frame, where the ends of the cord are secured, substantially as shown and described.

4. In a curtain fixture, a window frame and a spring operated curtain secured thereto, and having a lower rod carrying at each end a pulley, combined with a single cord supported at each upper corner of the window frame and secured thereto at each lower corner, passing over and around each of said pulleys, and crossing centrally of the said lower rod, and a take-up device in said cord, substantially as set forth.

5. In a curtain fixture, a window frame and a spring operated curtain secured thereto, and having a lower rod carrying at each end a pulley, combined with a single guiding and retaining cord extending from the frame to the curtain and passing over or around the pulleys of said rod, and a take-up device in said cord, substantially as set forth.

6. In combination with a window frame, a curtain, means for exerting an upward lifting action thereon, a hollow rod, a pulley at each end thereof, loops at each side of the window frame, a single cord extending horizontally across the window frame to the loops and thence through the hollow rod to the diagonally opposite corners of the window frame, and a take-up device secured to the cord to take up slack therein, substantially as shown and described.

Claim.—In combination with frame A provided with upright arms C and hooks a, corner hangers E, and rods D having their ends removably seated in said hangers.

LAKE CITY LEAFLETS.

CHICAGO, MAY 24.

Mrs. W. B. McEnery, wife of W. B. McEnery, Mandel Brothers' drapery man, died last Monday. Messrs. Shauer, Rauh and Bennet, of the department, attended the funeral, which was held at the family residence, 3806 Wabash avenue, and presented a floral tribute.

W. H. Fletcher, of W. H. Fletcher & Co., lace curtains, New York, has been in the city. He booked a number of large orders while here.

The procession of wholesale buyers to New York has begun. A. C. Bodman, of Marshall Field & Co., and E. C. Lines, of Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., are among the first to go.

E. E. Shauer, manager of Mandel Brothers' upholstery department, has recently taken charge of the furniture department, Mr. Doty, formerly at the head of that department, having resigned.

Mr. Macfarlane, of Hees, Macfarlane & Co., Detroit, Mich., took several large orders while in the city recently. At the Chicago branch of the house, 307 and 309 Wabash avenue, a full line of the company's shade cloths, fringes, rollers, felts, and shade hardware is always kept in stock.

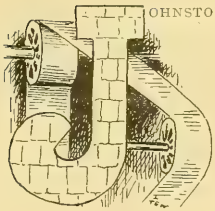
S. C. Hodgman, who travels in the South and West for W. E. Rosenthal & Co., agents for mattings, rugs, lace curtains, &c., reports trade good with him. The Chicago office of the firm is in the Lees Building. They are agents for Fritz, La Rue & Sinn, of Philadelphia, and T. I. Birkin & Co.

Manager Dainty, of Marshall Field & Co.'s retail upholstery department, will go East to buy goods next week. Mr. Clark, who is second in command of the department, says business so far during May exceeds that of any month, not excepting the World's Fair year, and that business this year up to the present time is 10 per cent. better than ever before. R. H. H.

Hyer & Flock have opened an upholstering establishment at 192 Broadway, Long Branch, N. J.

John C. Meyer & Co., 87 Summer street, Boston, show a great variety of spool silks and threads for draper, window shade and general upholstery work, and will send samples and prices promptly on application.

MURAL MEMORANDA.



JOHNSTOWN WALL PAPER COMPANY is a new wall paper manufacturing concern at Johnstown, Pa., capitalized at $50,000. The officers are: T. C. Dupont, president; A. B. Davis, vice-president and manager, and William C. Krieger, treasurer. Peter R. Diehl will be foreman and color mixer.

..Allan Chantz, Quincy, Ill., has been arrested on a charge of defrauding the National Wall Paper Company by securing goods to the amount of about $800 from them by representing himself as free from debt, and thus inducing them to give him credit.

..A. S. Hart & Son, Unionville, Conn., are succeeded by H. W. Hart & Co.

..W. A. Alexander, who carries a stock of wall paper in connection with his drug business at Leon, Ia., has bought the stock of Avery & Bonsor, furniture dealers of the same town.

..Allen & Co. have bought the stock of Drisko & Parlin, Machias, Me.

..Dumphier & Wyman, Randolph, Vt., have dissolved partnership, and the business is continued by Frank Wyman.

..The employees of Wm. Campbell & Co., New York, will have their annual outing at Donnelly's Pavilion, College Point, L. I., on June 6. The boat will leave the foot of Forty-fourth street, North River, at 9 o'cclok A. M.

Three Vital Points . . .

Are necessary to insure a perfect roller such as . . . .

The Improved Hartshorn Wood Roller.

FIRST—No Tacks Are to Be Used.

The patent shade holders furnished free with Improved Hartshorn Wood Rollers eliminate the use of tacks in the most satisfactory manner possible.

SECOND—Provision for Mounting Shade Cloth Absolutely True.

The groove in this roller is the only place where the shade can be fastened to the roller. As the groove is as straight as machinery can make it, the cloth must be fastened in a straight line.

THIRD—Prevention Against Tearing Cloth from Rolls.

Owing to the scientific construction of the new roller, when the shade cloth is fastened upon the roller in the groove with our shade holders, the resistance which it offers is so strong that when shade and roller are hung it is almost impossible to tear the cloth off.

This Roller received specific indorsement in our award of a Gold Medal and Special Diploma of Honor by the Judges of the Atlanta Exposition.

Our new Descriptive Catalogue for 1896 is now ready. Free on application.

One eminent and popular house that has tried all makes announces them to be

"The Best Window Hollands Made."

Another equally large Importer of great experience states:

"The goods have always been and are now fast colors."

Another firm in the very front rank of the business describes them as

"Unequalled in quality, unshrinkable and of finest dyes."

While another firm of Importers, probably one of the largest shade goods houses in the world, characterizes them in these terms:

"JOHN KING & SON'S Famous Scotch Hollands."

JOHN KING & SON'S

ESTABLISHED IN THE YEAR 1775

Celebrated

Scotch Window HOLLANDS

ILLUSTRATING the high consideration these popular goods hold in the estimation of the most experienced importers of shade goods in the country, the attention of the trade is invited to the above opinions, published in the columns of this and other journals, over the signatures of the respective firms.

Enterprising but unscrupulous parties unable to reach the exalted standard of these celebrated goods, pay them the flattery of imitating the wrappings. It is the Goods, not the wrappings, the trade is after. See that Bands, Tickets and Tabs of every piece are marked

"JOHN KING & SON."

What a Retail House Thinks of "Chouaguens."

Window Shades.

Ever since the ready made window shade was "discovered" we have kept them and sold thousands of them every year. We know something about what are called "oil shades.' We handle only two qualities of shades. Our low-priced shades are what are called "water colors." or "American Opaque." They are the best of their kind and we sell them at 25c. each. They are mounted on spring rollers that are guaranteed to work, and these shades are

FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT.

We do not keep any "seconds" in stock Our other or best shades are all made of the celebrated

"CHOUAGUEN"

Shade cloth, which is the best, and the ONLY BEST shade cloth in the country. That "there are others" we do not deny. We have tried them all, and we have had trouble with them all; but we never yet have had a complaint about our "Chouaguen" shades. They WON'T FADE, THEY ALWAYS WORK, and we do not hesitate to GUARANTEE EVERY ONE OF THEM. WE can buy "oil shades" that WE can sell for 33c.; we can buy them to sell for less than 33c., but

We don't want them, We won't have them,

for when the hot summer sun strikes them they will FADE. If you want your shades to look like the old fury next summer, then we advise you to buy the cheap oil shades; but if you want shades that the sun can't phaze and that will always look the same, that will always work, then pay 5c. a shade more and get the best shade cloth, and that is the "Chouaguen." That's our kind. That's the only kind of oil shades we keep.

We open this week 200 dozen of these "Chouaguen" never-fade shades. We have a sample of the cheaper oil shades, and will show you the difference, or you can see the difference quick enough without any assistance. We say to you, INSIST on having the Chouaguen shade cloth. Look out for the "just as good" kinds, for they are not as good.

Our Chouaguen shades are 38 inches wide; the cheaper kinds are 36 inches wide. The difference in width is worth the difference in price, to say nothing about the difference in quality.

Is Not Your Idea

Of a perfect floor covering something like this: A material durable as marble; beautiful as mosaic; noiseless as carpet. "All good points doubtless, but impossible to find combined in one material," you will say. This was the case, but is so no longer. Interlocking Rubber Tiling possesses each of the essentials you specify, and others which you did not think of, such as cleanliness, non-slipperyness, imperviousness to moisture, elasticity, and—most important of all—our Patented Interlock, which makes it absolutely impossible to displace or separate the Tiles.

Crompton's New Ingrain Carpet Loom.

CROMPTON NEW INGRAIN CARPET LOOMS.

THE attention of manufacturers of Ingrain Carpets is called to the consideration of a new Carpet Loom just put on the market. It carries four (4) shuttle boxes at each end of the lathe; any one of the series at each end can be brought into line with the shuttle race at any pick, under the dictation of the Jacquard cards. The Jacquard is of the most approved construction and moves the warp kindly. The let off and take up motions bring out perfectly matched goods. On two-ply work it makes sixty (60) yards per day. The apparatus for moving the boxes cannot be surpassed for its simplicity and efficiency. This Loom has no equal in speed and simplicity from four (4) to seven (7) colors.

CROMPTON ART SQUARE LOOM for 3, 3½ and 4 yard goods, produces the best result and has no rival.

CROMPTON'S UPHOLSTERY LOOM, with Improved "1886" Box Motion, is capable of high speed and nice adjustment for its special line of goods.

CROMPTON LOOMS for Fancy Cassimeres, Worsteds, Flannels, Blankets, Jeans, Silks, Tapes, Ginghams, Fancy Cottons, &c., &c. Crompton "1888" and Noble Wool Comb.

CARPETS, RUGS, OIL CLOTHS, Etc.

Sample and Price List forwarded on application.

Frames for holding the Fabric and Thread and Needles, specially prepared, for sale.

PATENTED AUGUST 25, 1885.

This Patent Rubber Binding holds the ends of Matting, Carpets, etc., down in place, does not curl up like other flexible bindings, is not affected by dampness, will not break when shaken and thrown about, and is very durable and easily adjusted.

The Many Advantages of this Patent Rubber Binding give it the preference over any other heretofore used on Matting and Carpet runners for Hotels, Stores, Steamboats, Offices, Elevators, Street Cars, Railroad Cars, etc., etc.

It is Made in ½, ¾, ⅞, 1, 1¼ and 1½ lengths and is perforated to facilitate the sewing. The most inexperienced person can sew it on perfectly.

This PATENT RUBBER BINDING can be obtained from all the Leading Carpet and Upholstery Dealers.

LOWELL CARPETS have been justly celebrated for more than half a century. For the guidance of buyers the word "Lowell" is woven in white capital letters in the back of our Wiltons and Brussels at each repeat of the pattern.

Our Middlesex Wiltons have the word "Middlesex" woven in the back. The word is registered as our Trade Mark in the United States Patent Office.

The popular Lowell Ingrains are wound on a hollow stick made in two solid pieces, with the words "Lowell Man'g Co." stamped within, a patented United States Trade Mark.

Bigelow Carpet Company,

ORIGINAL POWER-LOOM MANUFACTURERS OF

WILTON AND BRUSSELS

CARPETS.

The Carpets made by this Company have received the highest award wherever exhibited, including Gold Medals at the Paris Exposition, 1878, and at the Centennial, 1876.

Their deserved reputation for excellence of fabric, richness and durability of color, novelty and beauty of design, has led to frequent infringements, and inferior goods have often been palmed off in their stead. For the protection of the public the Company has adopted as a trade-mark the word "BIGELOW," which will be woven (at every repeat of the pattern) in white capitals into the back of the fabric. Customers will therefore have merely to examine the back of a carpet to be certain that they are getting the genuine Bigelow Wiltons or Body Brussels.

These Goods can be obtained from all first-class dealers.

UPHOLSTERY DEPARTMENT, PAGE 43.

Our readers are urged to remember that we are always desirous to receive communications of interest to the carpet or upholstery trades, such as changes in firms or managers, the building or opening of new stores, improvements in old ones, the adding of new departments, improved methods of doing business, new inventions, suggestions as to the cutting, making and laying of carpets, the designing and fitting of draperies, or inquiries and dissertations relating to the technical or commercial details of the trades to which this periodical is devoted.

STATE OF TRADE.

All the travelers are on the road and report business as fairly satisfactory. Many dealers are showing some hesitation about placing orders at this time, but these will come in later, and the general outlook is even more encouraging than it was a fortnight ago.

The Ingrain manufacturers are showing a most commendable spirit in the conduct of their business. There is no forcing of sales through sacrifices in prices, and if looms cannot be kept running on orders at regular prices they are allowed to remain idle. Among the mills which furnish goods directly to retailers there are few which have not at present some idle looms, and the calmness with which this situation is regarded by the manufacturers augurs well for the stability of prices throughout the season.

FALL PRICE LISTS.

The Lowell Company's price list for the fall season was issued June 1, and is as follows:

BOSTON and NEW YORK, June 1, 1896.

GENTLEMEN—Herewith we submit present prices for the Lowell Manufacturing Company's carpets, subject to change without notice. Orders will be taken only at value when received:

Axminsters	$1.75

The official award to Thos. Potter, Sons & Co. on light oil cloths from the Columbian Exposition is as follows :

"A medal for specific merit, which is set forth in the certificate of award as follows :

"For high excellence in the manufacture of table, stair and shelf oil cloths, and for diversity of patterns, skill in printing, effective coloring and fine finish of this class of goods ; superiority of enameled cloth and imitation leathers, especially adapted to carriage, upholstery and cabinet work, as substitutes for leather.

AROUND AND ABOUT.

The London Warehouseman and Draper, in a recent issue, says : As two of the "ambassadors of commerce" met outside a well-known city house recently, a remark was made by one of them which caught the ear of a passer-by : "Oh, he's what I call a two-two buyer !" and as this was a novelty in the way of description, on the first occasion that informant had he (knowing the speaker well) recalled the words to his attention, explained how it came that he had heard them, and inquired their meaning. It would seem that it was "too-too" buyer that was meant. "For," said the seller, "I am always 'too' early or 'too' late, my goods are 'too' common or 'too' expensive ; 'too' heavy or 'too' light ; 'too' this, 'too' that, or 'too' the other. Though I represent one of the best firms, it is rarely that I get a look in practically. So that is why I called Mr. —— a 'too-too' buyer, and I don't mind you knowing it."

A commercial traveler just returned from a business trip through Mississippi tells a story of how his bath tub rolled into town.

"It's a hard matter to get a bath in certain parts of Mississippi, and it was a realization of this fact that compelled me to make the effort at getting a bath while making the run between two towns on the caboose of a freight train. My bath tub consisted of a large tin cup and my bathroom of the body of the caboose, which, as you know, is as open as an observation car. Well, I had gotten into the usual condition essential to bathing, and was pouring water over my limbs when, lo and behold! the caboose, with every door wide open, rolled into a city where 500 people were gathered at a depot waiting for an excursion train. The caboose, as luck would have it, stopped precisely opposite the station, and as the crowd caught sight of me I could hear angry mutterings. I looked around me ; I pondered every chance of escape ; I figured the expediency of personating a wild man, and finally leaped at the top of the car and hung by some projection near the roof while the train rolled out of town. It was a terrible experience, and I do not care for another bath in a caboose."

Sometimes young men in the carpet trade complain of lack of opportunities. If they would weigh the example afforded by the sons of Mr. Peter Grogan, well known in the carpet trade of Washington, D. C., they would realize that there is more than one way to get on in this world. Messrs. T. J. and P. J. Grogan, young men of twenty-three and twenty-five years, respectively, have for two years been studying law at the Georgetown University Law School, and have just passed their final examinations. This fact alone is not remarkable, but when one bears in mind that they are the sons of a wealthy man, and have never been absent from their business one day in the last two years, but have done all of their studying at night, it is a unique example to be followed. Their purpose is not to give up their business, but they feel that the knowledge in regard to law which they have obtained will be useful to them while pursuing it.

Robert P. Porter, who returned from Japan recently, believes that Japanese competition will soon be very formidable to other manufacturing nations. Speaking of the matting and rug industry of Japan, he said :

"Ten years ago the amount of matting and rugs exported from Japan was infinitesimally small, only $885 worth of matting being then exported. Rugs were not mentioned in their reports. Last year these two items amounted to $7,000,000. They do this with a combination of modern machinery and the most docile laborer in the world. They have no factory laws and can employ children at any age. Children work at seven, eight and nine years of age, the whole day long, for from one to two American cents per day. The relative positions of English and American trade to Japan are illustrated by the fact that England sold to Japan last year $56,000,000 worth of products and purchased $7,000,000 worth, while America bought from Japan $54,000,000 worth and sold her only $9,000,000 worth, 61 per cent. being our staple products."

Gleanings in Gotham

The stock of Andrew Schmitt, 161 Graham avenue, Brooklyn, was sold by auction recently.

H. L. Mesereau is now representing Lipman, Wolfe & Co., of Portland, Ore., in this market, with offices at 45 Leonard street.

The wife of Robert T. Duncan, manager of the carpet department of R. H. Macy & Co., New York, died suddenly of heart disease on the 11th inst.

The rapid growth of the business of M. B. Evens & Co., Brooklyn, has obliged them to enlarge their premises by the addition of another store. They are now occupying the stores 375 to 379 Grand street.

William G. Watt, who succeeded his father, George Watt, in the carpet business at 630 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, recently sold his stock, and has embarked as an engraver and illustrator, making a specialty of advertising cuts. His studio is at 70 Fifth avenue, this city.

R. Rosenheim & Co., carpet and furniture dealers, 1550 First avenue, have dissolved partnership and are succeeded at the old stand by Max Helborn. R. Rosenheim has formed a partnership with his son and opened in the same line at 2001 Third avenue under the firm name of R. Rosenheim & Son.

The Saturday half-holidays have come again. Most of the large retail establishments in this city are now closing at noon on Saturdays. Arnold, Constable & Co. and W. & J. Sloane will do so during June, July, August and September. Hilton, Hughes & Co. and Altman & Co. are among the firms that began the Saturday half-holidays with the opening of the present month.

Pearson & Emmott, the wool and matting importers, are now settled in their new quarters in the Wool Exchange Building, West Broadway and Beach street (Telephone number, 1377 Franklin), and are prepared to show their new lines, comprising Chinese and Japanese matting, Smyrna rugs, jute carpets, &c. As large importers of and dealers in wools and mattings Pearson & Emmott are in a position to offer strong inducements to buyers.

On account of the illness of his wife, Joseph H. Bromley, of John Bromley & Sons, was unable to sail for Europe on the Ems with the Philadelphia Manufacturers' Club excursionists on June 6. Mrs. and Mr. Bromley, however, did sail on La Touraine early on the morning of the 13th inst., and hope to join their friends at some point on the journey. Among those who visited the steamship on the evening before sailing was T. B. Shoaff, who has been the selling agent for the Messrs. Bromley for over fifteen years.

G. B. Treloar, of S. Sanford & Sons, has been elected a member of the Up-Town Association, a club composed of the leading up-town merchants of New York, with rooms in the new Constable Building on Fifth avenue.

Charles Onativia Anderson, manager of H. C. F. Koch & Co.'s carpet and furniture department, is a veteran in point of service in the carpet business, dating back his connection forty years ago, when as a boy of eight he commenced to be of use about his father, Hiram Anderson's, store.

Manager Miller, of Tefft, Weller & Co.'s carpet department, has now on view for the fall trade the complete line of jute Brussels manufactured by Coates Brothers & Co., Perth, Scotland, the account of this firm having been transferred recently from Wilmerding, Morris & Mitchell to Tefft, Weller & Co.

Exports of carpeting and kindred goods during the past fortnight were as follows: Carpeting—Genoa, 89 bs., $2,910; Southampton, 80 bs., $2,540; Bristol, 19 bs., $709; Liverpool, 15 bs., $413; British West Indies, 10 bs., $120. Carpet Sweepers—Havre, 25 cs., $630; Rotterdam, 14 cs., $196; Hamburg, 2 cs., $80; Glasgow, 4 cs., $72; Antwerp, 5 cs., $66; New Zealand, 2 cs., $43.

The safe in P. H. Hanley's carpet and furniture store in Jersey City was robbed on the 12th inst of $200. The detectives are puzzled. Besides Hanley himself, four of his employees have the combination of the safe, and it is suspected that one of them is the thief, but which one is the problem to be solved. Hanley will change the combination and not allow so many persons hereafter to help him keep the secret.

Joseph Loader, carpet and furniture dealer, 976 Fulton street, Brooklyn, has brought suit against his son Henry to compel him to return certain real estate which had been transferred to him by Joseph Loader. The property had been conveyed to Henry Loader by his father to protect it against a claim which was about to be made against the latter. Henry has begun a suit against his father and his brother George for an accounting, a dissolution of the partnership, and the appointment of a receiver.

The building formerly occupied by M. Gould's Sons on Duane street, running through to Thomas, is being fitted up as a restaurant by Henry Rackebrandt, who is obliged to move by the erection of the new twenty-three story building projected by the Dun Mercantile Agency. Rackebrandt was for many years with Holtz and has a large clientèle among the carpet and upholstery trades, who will doubtless continue in the new quarters their noontime discussions of the men, the moods, and the methods of the carpet and upholstery business.

The following buyers have visited the market since Memorial Day: Messrs. H. Higgins, for the Williams & Rodgers Dry Goods Company, Cleveland, Ohio; I. A. Goldstein, of Goldstein & Migel, Waco, Tex.; W. C. Hager, of Hager & Brother, Lancaster, Pa.; M. M. Beringer, Eufala, Ala.; W. A. Boyd, for the Julius Lansburgh Furniture and Carpet Company, Washington, D. C.; E. Slaughter, for the Fourquerean, Price Company, Richmond, Va.; D. N. and E. E. Arnold, of Arnold, Miller & Co., Providence, R. I.; E. Hecht, of Samuel Hecht, Jr., & Sons, Baltimore; D. M. Applegate, of J. Applegate & Son, Catasauqua, Pa.; D. W. Hare, of D. W. Hare & Co., Monmouth, Ill.; C. A. Rex, Mauch Chunk, Pa.; H. A. Graves, Wolcott, N. Y.; Fred Stafford for the Combination Cash Store, Rutland, Vt.; A. H. Dainty (retail) for Marshall Field & Co., Chicago; J. Barnes, of Julius Barnes & Co., Laporte, Ind.; L. McDonald, of the McDonald, Sparks & Stuart Company, Rome, Ga.; G. P. Welch, of Sterling, Welch & Co., Cleveland, Ohio; A. K. Watson, for Finch, Van Slyck, Young & Co., St. Paul; Charles R. Hart, of C. R. Hart & Co., Hartford, Conn.; Ithiel Stone, Cleveland, Ohio; Edward Groetzinger, Pittsburg, Pa.; J. Meade, for the Philip J. Walsh Estate, Philadelphia; Mark Henry, for Schlesinger & Mayer, and C. S. Wilcox and J. Weber (rugs), for Mandel Brothers, Chicago; C. E. Osgood, of the C. E. Osgood Company, Boston; I. Rosenthal, of M. Rosenthal & Sons, Baltimore; H. Higgins, for the Williams & Rodgers Company, Cleveland, Ohio; Charles Stearns, of Charles Stearns & Co., Rutland, Vt.; E. G. Miller, for G. M. McKelvey & Co., Youngstown, Ohio.

SOME WORCESTER PATTERNS.

One of the main contributory causes to the great advances in reputation and sales of the Worcester Carpet Co.'s Wiltons and Brussels in the past few years is the attractions in patterns and colorings. Wm. Jas. Hogg made up his mind that he could hoe a row as well as any competitor, and the result has been styles that stand on their own bottoms and reach up the ladder of approval to the top round. Speaking plainly, Mr. Hogg has gone in for original and proprietary patterns, and his liberal outlay has been repaid in a well sold up product and the satisfaction of his customers.

Most of these original patterns have been patented and a few of them are shown on page 2. The honors for placing the Worcester Company's Brussels in the front rank should not all be paid to Mr. Hogg, Sr., however, as it must be admitted that some of the biggest strides forward have been made since his son, Wm. F. Hogg, became actively interested in the business.

The travelers for John Gay's Sons are W. W. Corson & Co., with their force, in New England, New York State and New Jersey; D. T. Evans, E. S. Schultze, W. D. Baker, P. K. Reifsnyder, John H. Gay and Lewis Lodholz, with H. D. Thomas, Jr., who covers from Denver to the Pacific Coast.

THE SANFORD PRIZE DESIGNS.

Regarding the prizes offered by S. Sanford & Sons for sketches for Tapestry carpets, the third prize will be $60, instead of $40, as stated in our last issue. Three prizes are to be given—the first of $100, the second of $80 and the third of $60. The size of the sketches submitted should be 9x15 inches, and the design must be one that can be properly produced in a Tapestry carpet.

In order to make the competition perfectly fair and equitable the Messrs. Sanford have requested The Review to take charge of it. All sketches should therefore be carefully enclosed and sealed, and addressed to The Carpet and Upholstery Trade Review, 335 Broadway, New York, the wrapper also to be marked "Sanford Prize Competition." Each sketch should contain in the lower left hand corner some identifying mark. A competitor should also inclose in a plain sealed envelope a copy of this identifying mark, along with his name and address. If he does not wish to disclose his identity he can send the name of some person to whom the money can be paid if his design is a winner.

The sketches and envelopes, with names, will remain in the care of The Review and will not be opened by anyone until the date of the decision, and we can assure all candidates that the awards will be made solely on the merits of the designs. All designs which do not receive an award will be returned to the owners, and where the Messrs. Sanford desire to purchase any of the non-winners the designer will be so notified. The competition is open to anyone either in this country or abroad and should attract the best effort of every Tapestry designer. To the winners there will certainly be attached an honor of which they can be justly proud, while to those who do not obtain a prize there can be no injury under the rules adopted by The Review for guarding the interests of all competitors.

All designs should be received at the office of The Review by 10 A. M. on September 1.

The strike of the dyers in the Kidderminster, England, carpet mills continues, about 300 men being out, and both sides seem equally determined to make no material concessions.

Henry Dickel & Son are running their looms to fullest capacity upon C. C. Extra Supers, Unions Extra Supers, 8, 9 and 10 pair Cottons—all with 1080 warp ends. The firm have a list of regular customers who adhere faithfully to their goods, which is proof that they turn out highly satisfactory fabrics and styles. They have a quarter wool Union, made in a special manner, that will interest very close buyers. The colors in these goods will not rub out, and in weight and texture they form a carpet that the firm claim cannot be equaled for the price asked. We advise buyers to communicate with Dickel & Son, at 2012 Ella street, Philadelphia, regarding this special Ingrain.

....James Mahoney has recently started in the carpet and furniture business in this city.

....John & James Dobson have just filled a large order for Wilton Velvet, to be laid in the large halls of old Congress Hall, Cape May.

....Edward Whitehill has removed his carpet and furniture business from 1026 South street to new quarters at Thirteenth and South streets.

....V. E. Archambault & Son are reducing their stock preparatory to making extensive alterations in all their departments during the summer months.

....The excursion party to Europe composed of members of the Manufacturers' Club, their relatives and friends sailed from New York on the steamer Ems the 6th inst.

....The Quaker City Home Supply Company is a new concern in the carpet and furniture business at 4096 Lancaster avenue. Horenstein & Federman are the proprietors.

....Trade in Strawbridge & Clothier's carpet department during the past fortnight has been fully up to that of last year at the same date, which is a good record considering the state of trade generally.

....A. M. McKnight, of Philip Doerr & Sons' traveling force did not leave for the road until the 7th inst., owing to the serious illness of his wife. F. W. Doerr took his place on the first portion of his route.

....The commencement exercises of the Pennsylvania Museum and School of Industrial Art were held at the Broad Street Theatre on the 5th inst. An address was delivered by L. N. D. North, secretary of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers.

....R. Windisch, with Carl Grubner, the large wool importer, is back from his trip to China and Japan. He remembered his friends among the carpet manufacturers, as he brought back for them many souvenirs of Chinese and Japanese skill.

....The committee appointed by the Manufacturers' Club to go to St. Louis at the time the Republican National Convention meets there and look after the interests of manufacturers, especially as regards the framing of the platform, includes Messrs. Robert Dornan, T. Benton Dornan, James Pollock and S. S. Stinson.

....Wm. H. Snowden, instalment dealer, 36 North street, has sold his stock and book accounts to F. Shamberg & Co., who carry on a similar business at 9 and 11 South Second street. It is said that the stock was worth about $25,000, and that the book accounts were about $30,000, but nothing definite is known on these points because Mr. Snowden has not been seen since by his creditors. His liabilities are said to be about $14,000. His attorney, W. P. Pedrick, 528 Walnut street, says that his client has gone to Atlantic City for a short time. The creditors have received a letter from him, dated the 28th ult., requesting them to send statements of their claims to his attorney.

....J. H. Jarman, recently of Boyd, Harley & Co.'s old traveling force, is now with Albert Graff & Co., and will travel with the latter's special offerings.

....Thos. Develon's Sons are getting a satisfactory share of the orders so far placed on Ingrains. Buyers can readily appreciate the advantages of purchasing the Victoria Extra Supers under the strong guarantee given by the Messrs. Develon.

...Charles P. Cochrane's specialties in Ingrains have received a good start for the fall season. The popular priced heavy weight goods continue to be especially free sellers. Mr. Cochrane is also obtaining a due share of the Damask and Venetian carpet trade.

....The Union League, of Philadelphia, has sent a committee of its members to St. Louis to urge the Republican National Convention to make an open, clear, positive declaration opposing the free coinage of silver and insisting on the maintenance of the existing gold standard of value. William Potter, of Thomas Potter, Sons & Co., was appointed as one of the members of the committee.

....The following traveling men were in town calling upon the trade during the past fortnight : Chas. E. Horne, of Robert Beattie & Sons, New York ; Charles Lowe, of James Humphries & Son, Kidderminster, England ; "Larry" Duncan, of T. B. Shoaff & Co., New York ; A. W. Cole, of John H. Pray, Sons & Co.; F. B. Wentworth, Royal Carpet Lining Company, Boston ; Harry T. Browne, of Stephen Sanford & Sons ; Messrs. Cornell and Rosenberg, of W. & J. Sloane, and Mr. Cook, of Smith, Hogg & Gardner.

The new illustrated advertisement of the Ivins, Dietz & Metzger Company is one of the most attractive advertising pages that has ever appeared in The Review. The design and engraving were gotten up under the direction of Harry Hardwick, the company's weave expert and one of its directors. The carpet trade are bound to hear frequently and forcibly from the Ivins, Dietz & Metzger Company, as their organization for making and distributing desirable carpets and rugs is unsurpassed.

Thomas Hirst seems to have very appropriately named his new low price Smyrna rugs the "Hustlers," for the goods are well constituted in attractiveness, quality and price to hustle orders out of the most reluctant buyer. New patterns have been added constantly since this grade was first placed on the market and it is incumbent on buyers to become posted on the great values offered in these goods. Address the mill, Vineland, N. J., or the New York salesroom, 337 Broadway.

The E. S. Hollister store at Great Barrington, Mass., has been leased by Smith & Murray, of Springfield, Mass., and the business will be conducted under the style of J. B. Oliphant & Co. The store will be under the management of Mr. Oliphant, who is from Joliet, Ill. The administration of the Hollis estate is selling the stock at retail.

The King-Oates Company, Knoxville, Tenn., has sold its stock of carpets and furniture to Sterchi Brothers, the well-known furniture men. The King-Oates Company will continue to do business at the same stand, carrying a line of mantels, grates, tiles, fire goods, &c. The stock of carpets and furniture has been removed to the house occupied by Sterchi Brothers.

At a recent meeting of the Denver (Col.) Dry Goods Company the old officers were re-elected. They are: Dennis Sheedy, president; G. C. Bartels, vice-president; C. T. Austin, secretary and treasurer; W. R. Owen, manager. This concern has been displaying as an attraction in its store the celebrated painting entitled "The Morning of the Crucifixion," which is valued at $75,000.

Kaufman Brothers, Pittsburg, recently celebrated their twenty-fifth year in business in an elaborate manner. They inaugurated a grand jubilee sale and donated a portion of the proceeds of the same for distribution among forty-two of the city's charitable institutions. The exterior of the building was decorated with bunting and the interior was transformed into a bower of greens and flowers. Five carloads of evergreen, 25 yards of laurel, and flags almost without number were used in the decorations. The store comprises fifty-six departments, employs 1,200 people, and occasionally the employees number 2,000. Morris Baer is general manager of the establishment and has an interest in the firm.

San Francisco's new department store, known as the Emporium, was opened on May 23. A feature of the opening was the presentation of an entire new outfit to a newsboy, who was the first individual to enter the store in front of the large crowd which besieged the doors for some time previous to the opening. The building is a very extensive one, really containing sixty-one large stores. Between 10 and 12 acres of glass of all kinds were used in its construction, the plates in the front windows being among the largest in the city. The entire building is heated by steam and lighted by electricity, about 80 miles of wire being used for the latter purpose, connected with 370 arc and 6,000 incandescent lights. Forty miles of pneumatic tubes are provided for the cash carrier system. The windows, which were dressed by J. W. Howell, who won first honors at the Columbian Exposition, attracted a great deal of attention. All the most modern conveniences are provided for the comfort and benefit of customers, including a restaurant, waiting room, ladies' parlor, &c.

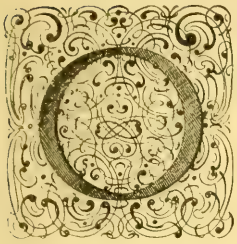
B. Lowenstein & Brother, Memphis, Tenn., are building a large addition to their wholesale store. The new structure will have a frontage of 75 feet, will be seven stories in height, with a basement and sub-cellar. In view of their largely increasing business this extension was absolutely requisite. Every modern improvement customary in business establishments of the first order will be introduced. A new electric plant will be added to the one already in the main building, which will make it the largest private plant in the South. They expect by November 1 to have possession of this much needed space.

Morris, Ellis and David Gross, comprising the firm of Gross Brothers, dry goods and carpet dealers, Tacoma, Wash., one of the largest firms in the Northwest, have decided to retire from business on account of poor trade during the past three years. They started in Tacoma eighteen years ago, and now own the second largest retail establishment in that city, employing fifty clerks. Six years ago they erected a $125,000 building, their store occupying the two lower floors. It is probable that they will form a new firm within the next year or two and re-enter the business.

A fire, which at one time threatened to eclipse any former experience of Toronto, Ont., in that line, started in McKendry & Co.'s big department store on Yonge street on the evening of the 8th inst. The whole place was quickly ablaze, and the entire block, including the large department store of the T. Eaton Company, adjoining, was in imminent danger. The fire was confined to McKendry & Co.'s store. The interior of the building was gutted, and the stock, valued at $170,000, is nearly a total loss. The stock of the Eaton Company suffered considerable damage from water and smoke. The total loss on the building and stock is estimated at $200,000; insurance, $150,000.

It is a new departure in the mercantile business of Topeka, Kan., to have a firm open a housefurnishing store and not carry a line of furniture. But this is the case with the firm of Fernald, Martin & Co., Kansas avenue. They confine themselves to the furnishing of a house preparatory to the reception of the furniture. Messrs. Fernald and Martin have both had many years of experience in the business which they now conduct, prior to their union under the present firm name, the 1st of April, and are well known in Topeka and vicinity. Mr. Fernald has handled the marble and mantel business (which is a prominent feature of the new firm's stock in trade) for fifteen years, while Mr. Martin has spent about the same length of time in the carpet business. They carry in stock a full line of carpets, rugs, &c., also curtains, shades and window fixtures. Mr. Fernald has secured practically all of the marble, tile and slate floor work done in Topeka of late, having on his list the State house, the court house, the Columbian Building, the National Hotel and Rigby's. The tile top to Rigby's counter was also put in by Fernald & Martin. Their out-of-town business is considerable.

THE CARPET SWEEPER.



One of the largest dry goods firms in Macon, Ga., Wolff & Happ, failed on the 1st inst. The liabilities amount to $250,000 and are almost equaled by the assets. The failure has caused considerable comment in the trade in New York. They did the largest business in their line in Macon and generally carried a stock of $200,000, the greater part of which was purchased in New York. Wm. Wolff, the senior partner, is well known in New York, having come to this city frequently to buy goods. He was formerly in the wholesale dry goods business and formed the present firm in 1889. He was also interested in a clothing store in Macon, and in a dry goods store at Little Rock, Ark.

W. H. Cox succeeds Cox & Bell in the carpet and furniture business at Hartford City, Ind., and F. E. Snyder & Co. succeed C. W. E. Snyder in the same line at Belle Plaine, Ia.

G. C. Huckstaedt will retire from the retail carpet and furniture business at Rock Island, Ill., and go into the manufacture of furniture under style of the Rock Island Couch Company.

Alexander & McQuay, carpet and furniture dealers, Harrisonburg, Va., are succeeded by R. G. Alexander, and Smith & Warne, in the same line at Stockton, Ill., are succeeded by C. A. Hammond.

A receiver has been appointed in the affairs of White Brothers, Greenfield, Mass., and he is offering creditors 85 per cent. of their claims, payable one-fourth in two months, one-fourth in four months, one-fourth in six months, and one-fourth in cash.

Jewett & Knapp's dry goods and carpet store at Albion, Mich., was burned out recently. They were insured for $15,000. Austin & Tucker's dry goods and carpet stock was damaged by the same fire and by smoke. Their loss is also covered by insurance.

Samuel Cragg, the Chelsea, Mass., carpet and furniture dealer, who filed a petition in insolvency a few days since, has now presented his schedules, which show debts of $8,000, of which $4,200 is secured. The leases are pledged to J. L. Choate, A. Minturn and G. H. Jones. Melvin H. Lee has a mortgage on the stock for $600.

The old oil cloth factory property of Theodore Pomeroy has been on the market for some time, and negotiations for its sale have been in progress for several months. Now it is said that the buildings are to be torn down and the property sold for residence or business purposes or both. The location is central and desirable. It is understood that the stock of oil cloth has been practically disposed of and negotiations are being carried on for the sale of the machinery.—Utica (N. Y.) Press, June 3.

BALTIMORE BRIEFS.

BALTIMORE, JUNE 12.

Judges Fowler and Burke have passed an order dismissing the petition of John C. Reisinger, surviving partner of William Reisinger & Son, carpets and furniture, against Samuel D. Schmucker, permanent trustee in insolvency of J. J. Nicholson & Sons. Mr. Reisinger had asked the court to require the trustee to pay him about $1,500, which his firm deposited in the Nicholson bank on the morning of the failure, January 14, 1892, upon an express understanding with Mr. Nicholson that it should be applied to the payment of a note falling due on that day.

J. N. Strobhar will erect a new hotel in Gainesville, Fla.

T. H. Fallin, Coan, Va., has added carpeting and furniture to his stock.

D. M. Nelson is erecting a hotel in Urbana, Va., to have twenty-five rooms.

E. Millhiser, of the Millhiser Company, Richmond, Va., was in New York the 1st inst.

Colonel Wall, with the H. B. Claflin Company, was in town the 7th inst. and J. P. Hunter, with T. J. Keveney & Co., the 9th inst.

The store of Mitchell & Thomas, general merchandise and carpeting, Greenville, W. Va., was gutted by fire the 4th inst. Loss, $5,000; insured.

W. D. Meyer, of Julius Meyer & Sons, dry goods and carpets, Richmond, Va, sailed from New York the 30th ult. on the steamship Bretagne for Europe.

By virtue of a deed of trust and in pursuance of an order of the Circuit Court, all the stock of furniture, carpet lounges, &c., contained in the warehouse of William Schmidt, No. 613 South Caroline street, will be disposed of at public auction by the trustee the 15th inst.

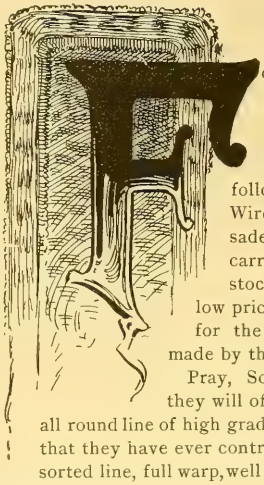
A meeting of the retail dry goods, carpet and other salesmen was held in Richmond, Va., the 5th inst. for the purpose of forming a salesmen's union. It was decided to make application at once for a charter from the Retail Clerks' National Protective Association, whose headquarters are at Chicago.

A fire in Parkesley, Va., the 3d inst., destroyed the warehouse of Pate & Mason, carpets and furniture. Their loss is $22,500; insurance, $9,000. They had $75 to $100 burned in their money drawers. The general merchandise and carpeting stores of J. R. Hickman and L. F. Hinmann & Sons were also burned. Hickman's loss is $6,000; no insurance. Hinmann & Son lose $5,000; uninsured.

R. L. E.

In addition to their Damask and Venetian and reversible Brussels carpets, James Pollock & Son are to show a line of Ingrain stair carpets for the fall season, having put in nine Crompton Ingrain looms for that purpose.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.



For the fall season John H. Pray, Sons & Co. will offer to the New England trade, at the mill prices, Smith Tapestries in the following grades: Extras, Nine Wires, B Palisade and F Palisade. Pray, Sons & Co. will carry these goods largely in stock, and will not only make low prices, but will guarantee them for the season against any prices made by the mill.

Pray, Sons & Co. also announce that they will offer for the fall trade the best all round line of high grade full standard Extra Supers that they have ever controlled. It will be a well assorted line, full warp, well scoured filling, and at a price which will be attractive. The firm will also show the fall line of Lowell Extra Supers, and their offerings in these goods will include a number of private patterns. A big assortment of lower grades of Extra Supers and Supers, embracing between 400 and 500 patterns, will be shown.

An important fact to remember in connection with these offerings in Tapestries and Extra Supers is that the goods will be cut for the accommodation of customers.

HARTFORD CARPETS.

The offerings of the Hartford Carpet Company comprise attractions that it would seem difficult for careful buyers to resist. The assortment of different grades is large, and there is no merchant who handles carpets in any manner who cannot properly use some of the Hartford goods. They have always been noted for handsome and original patterns, and in this direction alone the fall line is a trade winner.

The product consists of Wiltons, Axminsters, Brussels, Three Plys, Extra Supers, Art Squares and Saxony carpets and rugs. The Axminsters have become high favorites through supplying a richly furnishing carpet at a popular price, and the very attractive effects, combined with the durability of the fabric, make the Hartford Axminsters one of the best selling carpets of the day. Reune Martin & Sons, the selling agents, invite the most careful comparison and inspection of the Hartford carpets.

W. H. Reid, the manufacturers' agent, 611 Washington street, Boston, is very well pleased with his spring season's business and looks for a greater improvement during the fall season. He has done a large business in Samuel White's Smyrna rugs this spring, and thinks the new patterns will bring out heavy orders for fall. W. T. Smith & Son's full line of chenille curtains, covers, &c., is also much stronger and better in every way, and the new samples are all ready. Mr. Reid and his brother will travel more extensively through New England, but the office will always be found open for business.

OBITUARY.

John Q. Adams.

John Quincy Adams, who died at his home in Montrose, N. J., on the 29th ult., was for many years a retail carpet dealer in New York city. He began his business career in the shoe trade, and was successful in it, but in 1860 decided to invest his capital in the carpet business, having found a partner in Stephen A. Spencer, who was then in the employ of Young & Jayne on Pearl street. The firm of Adams & Spencer started in business on Pearl street, but soon afterward removed to Grand street, where they built up a very extensive business. Mr. Adams retired from the firm in 1874, and his connection with the carpet trade ended then. He was subsequently appointed chief bank examiner for the New York State Banking Department, and held that position until, with Willis S. Paine, he established the State Trust Company. He was an incorporator and a director of the Old Bowery Bank, and at one time was president of the Atlantic Savings Bank, now the Bond Street Savings Bank. He leaves a widow, a son and a daughter.

William J. Collins.

There are many men actively engaged in the trade who will remember the doubt, hesitation and even ridicule with which the wool bordered coir mat was received some twenty-five years ago. It was made by William J. Collins, then superintendent for J. & H. Hutchinson, of Brooklyn. A cable from Alleppy, India, announced his death on the 27th ult., in the sixty-first year of his age. Mr. Collins was born in London, and had always been in the coir trade. On coming to this country he engaged with the Hutchinsons, and afterward went into business for himself. Trade conditions were adverse at that time, and he was unable to meet the success that his ability and hard work deserved. He then traveled across the continent to Honolulu, Australia and Europe, returning to engage with Joseph Wild & Co., for whom he went to India. For seven years he had been in the employ of Darragh & Smail as superintendent of their factory.

His death will be regarded as a personal loss by everybody who was connected with the business at Alleppy. His charitable nature made him especially loved by the work, people there, and they will feel that they have lost a just master and kind friend.

He leaves a son, William, who has for twenty-two years been with Joseph Wild & Co., and who has seen the fur business of the house grow from small beginnings to its present great proportions.

For two or three years Mr. Collins had been suffering from heart trouble, but his death was caused by the liver disorder which sooner or later overtakes the foreigner who dwells too long on the sand strip at Alleppy.

P. H. Welch.

Col. Patrick H. Welch, who had been connected with the carpet trade for many years, died at his home, 343 East 116th street, on the 4th inst., of general debility. His early life was one full of adventure. At the outbreak of the civil war he went to the front as a drummer boy with the Thirty-fifth Massachusetts Volunteers. His unflinching courage—in fact a daring amounting almost to recklessness—and his devotion to duty won for him rapid promotion, and he was made colonel on the recommendation of President Lincoln for bravery displayed at Malvern Hill, Antietam, Beverly Ford and Lookout Mountain.

On the cessation of hostilities he became engaged in the steamboat business, but soon obtained a clerkship with Hiram Anderson and later in 1879 with Gregg & Co. He left them to take charge of J. & C. Johnston's carpet department, and was with them until they went out of business. He was also with E. J. Denning, successor to A. T. Stewart & Co., retail, with the Baumanns, and finally went to Joshua Gregg & Co., with whom he served for many years, finally dying in harness at the age of fifty-nine. He leaves a widow and one daughter. For many years he had drawn a colonel's pension of $90 a month.

Mr. Welch was a man of considerable literary attainments and had a happy facility for verse making, being a frequent contributor to the minor magazines. Under a somewhat bluff exterior he carried a kindly and generous nature, and will be mourned by many sincere friends.

William Andrew Ure, the president of the Newark, N. J., Board of Trade, died in that city on June 8. He was born at West Farms, N. Y., in 1839, and began life as a weaver in the mill operated there by the late Alex. Smith, prior to the establishment of the great plant at Yonkers.

Emanuel Ryder, son of the senior member of the firm of Ryder, Shane & Hyman, proprietors of the Household Fair, Kansas City, died on the 1st inst. at the home of his father of appendicitis. An operation was performed about six weeks ago, and he seemed to be getting along nicely when he had a relapse. He was in his twenty-second year and was a salesman in his father's store.

The mercantile agencies announce the deaths of E. Hollister, of E. Hollister & Son, Great Barrington, Mass.; Alvin Hussey, of A. Hussey & Son, Damariscotta, Me.; R. Boone, of R. Boone & Son, St. Clair, Pa.; I. Smith, of Myer & Smith, Idaho City, Idaho; M. Myers, of M. Myers & Co., Athens, Ga.; Mr. Garrett, of Garrett & Zellars, Grantville, Ga., and Mr. Andrews, of Andrews & Stringley, Pueblo, Col.

Geo. S. Macauley, who died at his home in Philadelphia on the 21st ult., was the son of Isaac Macauley, an old-time manufacturer of floor oil cloth and carpeting. In 1810 Isaac Macauley bought the plant of John Dorsey, who was the first manufacturer of oil cloth in Philadelphia, and under the management of Mr. Macauley and his son William the factory became the most prominent one in the country in its line of trade. The plant was finally purchased by the late Thomas Potter, forming the nucleus of the great establishment now conducted by Thomas Potter, Sons & Co. Isaac Macauley manufactured carpeting also, and it is claimed that the first yard of perfect Brussels carpet ever made in the United States was woven in Mr. Macauley's mill. George S. Macauley was connected with the carpet trade for a short period. In 1864 he obtained a position in the Philadelphia Water Department and held this post until his death.

Simon Drum, who was for some years a member of the firm of Schloss & Drum, carpet dealers, Allegheny, Pa., died suddenly on the 23d ult., at his home in that city, aged seventy-two years. His death was due to heart failure. He embarked in business life in Allegheny at an early age. He served as mayor of the city, 1861–2, but resigned the chief executive position to serve his country in the field by taking out a company, afterward known as Company H, 123d Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, which Colonel Clarke commanded, and which did gallant service. At the conclusion of the war Mr. Drum resumed his business career in Allegheny, and was re-elected to the mayoralty office for the years 1868 and 1869. For the past fifteen years he has been engaged in the insurance business.

Louis Wild died of paralysis at Baraboo, Wis., on the 2d inst. He went there half a century ago, and had been a leading dealer and manufacturer of furniture. His son, ex-Mayor Charles Wild, is at present engaged in the carpet and furniture business at the same place.

Henry Rath, Sr., father of Henry Rath, Jr, the well-known carpet manufacturer, died last month at his home in Philadelphia at the age of eighty-two years. Mr. Rath came to this country from Prussia in 1841, but did not enter the carpet trade until 1865 when he began the manufacture of Ingrains on hand looms in a mill on Otis street, now Susquehanna avenue. The enterprise was successful from the start, and when Mr. Rath retired from business he had accumulated a competency.

FLORIDA NOTES.

Jacksonville, Fla., June 3, 1896.

Trade is normal for this season of the year, but the entire season was not up to last year. But it was hardly to be expected, however much hoped for, when the orange crop damage was taken into consideration. The orange crop is to Florida what the peach crop is to Georgia. It is the surplus wealth which is distributed into the arteries of trade, and indicates with the verity of a thermometer on the weather the prosperity or reverse of that section. But we do expect a good fall trade, not based on general hopefulness without data, but upon the basic principle of settled finances; money will be turned loose here in the South, and things can't help but boom in the most boomable section of this big country. As soon as we can eliminate the silver nightmare the country will be cured of the monetary ophthalmia which is afflicting it at present, and it will see nothing but prosperous times in this section anyhow.

E. F. Clark reports a fair business in carpets, though not up to previous seasons.

H. E. Clark says he feels hopeful for the next season's business, "if they don't tinker with the wool tariff."

The Cleveland Furniture Company is going to build a fine store and relinquish its carpet business, devoting its entire energies and resources to making itself the biggest furniture house in the South.

L. Furchgott, the hustler of the town, the Chas. Broadway Rouss of Jacksonville, says he is very hopeful for next season's business; that he is going to market next month, and intends buying a big stock, for which he knows there will be a demand, if only sound money wins the day in November.

Si Twist.

The carpet travelers, like pride, go before a fall. When other people are enjoying their summer vacations the knight of the carpet trunk is making his autumnal trip.

The latest patented device produced by the Bissell Carpet Sweeper Company in connection with their new "Hall" sweeper, and referred to in our last issue as the "Roller Bearing," the Bissell Company have since determined to name "Cyco-Bearing." So it will hereafter be known as "Bissell's Cyco-Bearing Hall" sweeper.

AFFAIRS OF BOVARD, LIPPHART & CO.

The Union Trust Company, of Pittsburg, Pa., receiver of Bovard, Lipphart & Co., of that city, has furnished to the firm's creditors a statement as follows:

Dear Sir—This company has received inquiries from various creditors of Bovard, Lipphart & Co., with reference to their claims against that partnership.

That the creditors may all be fully informed as to the affairs of this firm we have prepared a statement of the assets, liabilities and receipts up to the present time, which we submit with this letter for your information.

This company was appointed receiver on April 4, 1896, and took possession of the assets of Bovard, Lipphart & Co. upon that day; the Court of Common Pleas No. 2 of Allegheny County, who appointed the receiver, granted an order to continue the business for six months for the benefit of creditors, which we have been doing. As soon as there is sufficient money in our hands to pay 50 per cent. on the liabilities we propose to file a first and partial account; this will be about June 1 next.

If the creditors of the firm will send to us an itemized statement, properly probated, we will present the same to the auditor appointed by the court, for allowance. In the event of any of these statements being disputed by the members of the firm we will immediately notify such creditors, upon which notification it will be necessary for them to take measures to properly prove such claims.

The statement of assets, liabilities, &c., is as follows:

ASSETS.

Accounts receivable	$39,503.10
Bills receivable	442.22
Stock as inventoried	80,150.40
Total	$120,095.72

LIABILITIES.

Bills payable	$26,876.49
Accounts payable	59,794.92
Rent	7,000.00
Total	$93,671.41

RECEIPTS BY RECEIVER TO MAY 20, 1896.

Cash from sales	$46,023.87
Cash from old accounts	12,791.09
Total	$58,814.96

PAID OUT BY RECEIVER TO SAME DATE.

Purchase of necessary merchandise, running expenses, wages, &c	$11,247.70
Rent paid by order of court	7,000.00	$18,247.70
Cash on hand		$40,567.26

On taking possession the receiver found no preferred claims excepting rent, wages and goods left to be sold upon commission; of these all rent and wages have been paid, leaving to be adjusted only claims for goods upon commission; of this there is probably less than $1,000. All running expenses have been paid to date.

The present estimated liabilities are $86,671.41, the cash on hand $40,567.26; stock unsold and accounts receivable, $65,000. This last item is entirely an estimate, as some of the accounts may not be good and the remainder of the stock may not be realized on in full.

The Union Trust Company of Pittsburg.

The Southern Railway, Piedmont Air Line, will sell excursion tickets at one fare for the round trip to Knoxville, Tenn., June 18 to 20, an opportunity for everyone to visit the mountains of Western North Carolina at very low rates. For further information call on or address 271 Broadway, New York. Excursion rates reduced to Asheville and Hot Springs, N. C., during the summer months. A more delightful spot cannot be found to spend a few weeks than in the glorious mountains of Western North Carolina, "Land of the Sky."

BRITISH CARPETING FOR SOUTH AMERICA.

A NOTABLE EXHIBITION OF SAMPLES FROM BRITISH MILLS.

A LARGE number of samples of Brussels and Tapestry carpets of English manufacture can now be found on exhibition at the Philadelphia Museum. They represent the quality, designs and colorings that are now being produced for the South American trade by the British manufacturers. The samples show that high art is not yet in demand in the continent south of us, that is, so far as floor coverings are concerned. Not a white, or even a light, ground appears among the patterns, and the designs are largely of the floral order, in the deep, glowing colors of a bygone age; gold, deep green, scarlet and black being prominent. The quality varies from the full five frame down to the "skinned out" two and three frames. One very striking pattern in loud coloring was found in a Body Brussels fabric composed entirely of jute. If, as it is asserted, the dwellers in tropical latitudes are fond of combinations of glowing colors, they certainly will find enough to please them in this collection.

It was a happy thought, growing out of the World's Fair at Chicago, that such an institution as this Philadelphia Museum should be established in the great manufacturing city from which it derives its name. Simular institutions exist in the Old World, one very prominent being located in London, but we doubt very much whether any of them were conceived and brought into working order in so short a space of time as this one located in Philadelphia. When we consider the amount of labor and time involved in the procuring of samples of textile fabrics from all parts of Europe, together with the almost innumerable metal products, the results attained are simply wonderful. The system of exhibiting the samples to those manufacturers interested in extending trade into foreign countries, especially to South America, is admirable. At a glance the American producer sees just what is wanted in any country, learns exactly at what prices the European producers are selling the same goods in that locality, and of course knows whether he can successfully compete with them or not. The information obtained by the Philadelphia Museum is reliable, as it is obtained not only from boards of trade in various European cities, but from trustworthy agents residing in different countries of the Old World.

If any American manufacturer of Brussels or Tapestry carpets wishes to find a market for his productions in South America all he has to do is to consult with the proper parties at the Philadelphia Museum, see the style of goods wanted there, learn the price at which the European manufacturers are furnishing them, and govern himself accordingly. It will cost him nothing.

"It pays to buy at Vantine's" continues to be the watchword at the big Oriental house up Broadway. In their advertisement in this issue Vantine & Co. show some illustrations of rug manufacture in their factories in Japan.

CREDIT MEN'S NATIONAL CONVENTION.

A special meeting of the members of the New York City Credit Men's Association was held on the 9th inst. at the Broadway Central Hotel for the purpose of hearing an address by W. H. Preston, credit manager of Knapp, Spalding & Co., of Sioux City, Ia., upon the history of the movement for a national credit men's association.

Mr. Preston in the course of his remarks took occasion to show the desirability of a large attendance of the national convention of credit men which is to be held at Toledo June 23, 24 and 25. About 150 prominent credit men in various cities have been selected as members of the national executive committee. A constitution has been drawn up for the national organization, and will be presented at the convention for discussion and action. Some of the principal objects provided for in this constitution are as follows :

The maintenance of a central office, for the purpose of gathering, collecting and disseminating such information and taking such action as may be deemed desirable by its members.

To advise and take active steps toward the reform of laws unfavorable to creditors.

To influence and effect enactment of necessary laws.

To determine upon topics of information desired concerning applicants for credit and to formulate some plan by which such information shall be obtained and distributed, either through existing agencies or otherwise.

To hold one general meeting annually for discussion, election of officers and outlining duties for such officers to perform until next meeting; such annual meeting to be held in June or July at such place as may be decided upon at the annual meeting preceding.

To provide a fund to be used for protection of its members against injustice and fraud.

To bring about mutual improvements and reforms in business methods.

To affiliate with organizations where it is thought such affiliation will serve the best interests of the association.

To establish closer ties of business association, that the welfare of all may be best conserved.

LOWELL AXMINSTERS.

The new line of Lowell Axminsters for the fall season is one which should be seen by all who desire to obtain an idea of the most admirable effects possible in Axminster manufacture. The line comprises a superb variety of original high-class patterns and colorings harmonizing with the fashionable styles of interior furnishing and decoration. Among the patterns shown are examples of Indian, Imperial, Persian, Louis XV. and XVI., Empire and other styles, embracing color effects which must be seen to be appreciated. The Lowell Axminster carpets are strictly worsted goods and therefore thoroughly high class in fabric as well as in designs and colorings.

"I think," said the receiver, "that you will be able to pay 50 cents on the dollar."

"Why, man," said the bankrupt, protestingly, "that will take half of my private fortune!"—Ex.

John H. Pray, Sons & Co.'s line of Lowell Brussels and Wiltons is entirely distinct from that of the Lowell Company, as they furnish their own designs and colorings, which are strictly private. This line of goods is not surpassed for the best retail trade, and as they confine them in cities and towns it enables the dealer to be sure of a profit.

NEW BUILDINGS NEEDING CARPETS.

PROJECTED NEW BUILDINGS OF INTEREST TO LARGE CARPET AND FURNITURE DEALERS.

We present herewith a carefully compiled report of all the hotels, churches, theatres, club houses and other large buildings in course of erection which will soon be in need of extensive furnishings. REUNE MARTIN & SONS GET A TAPESTRY ACCOUNT.

The sole selling agency for the Tapestry product of the Magee Carpet Works, of Bloomsburg, Pa., has been placed in the hands of Reune Martin & Sons. Our readers will remember the full description given in our April 15 issue of this new Tapestry plant, organized and erected under the direction of James Magee, 2d. The plant now has fifty-two looms, and the first product will consist of ten wire Taps.

Some samples will be shown by Reune Martin & Sons by July 1 and from that time on work will be rapidly pushed toward placing the plant in full operation. The Magee Carpet Works are equipped in a first-class manner throughout, and it will be of import for buyers to examine the samples of the product.

Bissell's wonderful electric wheel during the month of June revolved in the show windows of Hahne & Co., of Newark, N. J.; E. Groetzinger, Pittsburg, Pa.; Bloomingdale Brothers, New York city, and H. Batterman, Brooklyn, N. Y. Dates are booked for the use of this striking electric display almost one year ahead.

The Travelers' Protective Association held its seventh annual convention at Terre Haute, Ind., on the 2d inst. The address of John A. Lea, the president, showed that the organization now comprises thirty-two State divisions and 11,000 active members. A resolution was adopted looking to legislation in the several States to secure interchangeable 5,000-mile tickets at two cents a mile.

THE ST. LOUIS TORNADO.

HAVOC WROUGHT BY IT AMONG THE CARPET AND UPHOLSTERY ESTABLISHMENTS OF THE CITY.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE REVIEW.]

St. Louis, June 8, 1896.

The St. Louis carpet and upholstery dealers did not escape the fury of the great storm which struck this city on May 27 and left ruin and desolation in its wake. So far as known no fatalities occurred directly in the carpet and upholstery trade line, although one carpet dealer's engineer met the fate of many others. Thousands of dollars' worth of property and goods were destroyed, however, and it will take months before the usual order of things is restored. A conservative estimate places the loss in the carpet and upholstery trade at not less than $50,000, and considerable more may be figured on by the interference of the storm with future prospects.

Probably the heaviest losers by the storm are the Mueller Brothers Furniture and Carpet Company, whose store and warehouse are located opposite each other at Fourth and Chouteau avenues. The entire warehouse was blown down and thousands of dollars' worth of carpets and furniture destroyed and damaged. The company's fine store on Fourth street was also badly damaged, the whole rear wall being blown out and the large plate glass windows in front demolished. The entire damage to the goods and building is placed at something over $25,000, of which about $5,000 is on carpets and upholstery goods. Luckily, however, the buildings did not belong to the company.

C. Hartenbach, at 2210 Chouteau avenue, is also a heavy loser. A building used by him for carpet and lace curtain cleaning was blown down and the engineer was crushed to death. The entire roof of Mr. Hartenbach's store was also blown off and many of his carpets damaged by water. His loss will foot up nearly $10,000.

Ben Westhus, the usually jovial South End carpet dealer, is mourning the loss of about $1,200 worth of goods. His show windows were blown in, part of the roof and chimney carried away, and his carpets and wall papers damaged by the rain to the extent mentioned.

The Trorlicht, Duncker & Renard Carpet Company, at Fourth and Washington avenue, had four large plate show windows and several smaller ones destroyed by the wind. The damage would have footed up $500, but luckily the glass windows were insured. The goods in the windows escaped with but slight damage.

J. H. Trorlicht's palatial residence opposite the once beautiful Lafayette Park had the entire roof blown off, and the household effects were damaged to a considerable extent. Several members of the household had narrow escapes from injury.

Charles Lutz, the carpet and upholstery dealer on South Broadway, had the rear of his store blown away and several hundred dollars' worth of carpets damaged.

Jacob Stumpf, the well-known carpet dealer just below the French market, had the top of his building and the front windows blown in. The rain which followed damaged many of his fine carpets and lace curtains.

Louis Kaltwasser, the other South St. Louis carpet dealer, situated within a few blocks of Mr. Westhus, escaped with comparatively little damage, having only a few windows demolished. This seems to have been one of the freaks of the storm. It would play havoc at one place and leave unmolested others.

The J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company, at Broadway and St. Charles street, had five large windows broken by the wind and some of the goods damaged. Their large warehouse on South Second street, where several hundred thousand dollars' worth of goods are stored, escaped with a few scratches.

The Wm. Barr Dry Goods Company had several large windows destroyed at their store at Sixth and Olive streets. The skylight was also broken and the rain which poured in did considerable damage to the goods.

D. Crawford & Co. had the entire southeast corner of their store at Broadway and Franklin avenue blown away. The damage amounted to several hundred dollars.

Several large show windows of Penny & Gentles were also blown in and a large amount of goods damaged by the rain.

Wm. Prufrock, the well-known dealer in parlor furniture and upholstered goods, had his home opposite Lafayette Park nearly demolished.

Several other carpet and upholstery dealers suffered more or less damage by the storm and the consequent strain on the pockets of the people has given the business quite a setback. The relief committees, however, are doing heroic work, and the damaged district is rising out of the ruins. St. Louis pride is such that at first she refrained from asking for outside help. She has found it a herculean task, however, and the main relief committee, with George H. Morgan, of the Merchants' Exchange, as secretary, has decided to receive, with thanks, any and all contributions that come voluntarily and without asking.

Among the St. Louis contributors to the relief fund are the following : The Trorlicht, Duncker & Renard Carpet Company, $250 ; the Hargadine-McKittrick Dry Goods Company, $500 ; Wm. Barr Dry Goods Company, $500 ; H. T. Simon and Gregory Dry Goods Company, $400 ; Wear & Boogher Dry Goods Company, $500 ; J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company, $250 ; D. Crawford & Co., $500 ; B. Nugent & Brother, $500 ; John H. Tiemeyer, carpet dealer, $100 ; Kroeger & Linde, carpet dealers, $100, and Louis Sicher, carpet dealer, $25. H. E. H.

From Another Source.

A number of the carpet and furniture establishments along South Broadway suffered severely. The losses estimated by the St. Louis representative of the Lyon Furniture Agency are as follows :

Charles H. Thuner, 2122 and 2124 South Broadway, $6,000 ; Estate of Henry Westhus, 2001 South Broadway, $2,000 ; Frank Francis, 1515 South Broadway, $4,000 ; Henry Kotte Furniture Company, 1540 South Broadway, $6,000 ; George J. Fritsch Furniture, Stove and Carpet Company, 1513 South Broadway, $18,000 ; Wagenbach & Seiling, 1423 South Broadway, $2,000 ; Henry Ploehn, 1412 South Broadway, stock a total loss, $8,000 ; Muller Brothers Furniture and Carpet Company, 910 South Fourth street, $8,000.

The Louis Ottenad Furniture Company's buildings, at Broadway and Soulard street, are a complete loss. The building cost $25,000 at sheriff's sale, and the stock was worth $30,000, making a total of $55,000. Louis Ottenad, president of the company, was killed.

The entire roof of the large six-story warehouse of the Lammert Furniture Company, at Second and Olin streets, was blown off and carried to Main and Chestnut streets, and the building occupied by the Jacob Stumpf Carpet Company, at 1300 South Broadway, was badly damaged.

BOSTON BUDGET.

BOSTON, JUNE 10.

Frank Greenough has established an office in the Jefferson Building on Washington street. He represents the E. R. Artman-Treichler Carpet Company, of Philadelphia.

Improvements are being made in the Norfolk Carpet Mill, at East Dedham, by J. E. Cochrane, and a new weave shop has been constructed.

Joel Goldthwait is ill.

Hugh Keveney made a flying trip to the Hub this week.

Mr. Miller now has charge of the Boston office of T. B. Shoaff & Co.

Mr. Bushnell was here for the Stewart Hartshorn Company last week.

Wm. F. Kramer was here this week showing Dimick Wiltons and Velvets.

W. W. Law and Wm. B. Kendall were among the prominent carpet men in Boston recently.

A number of the employees of Thos. O'Callaghan & Co. had a harbor outing on Memorial Day.

John J. Henderson has been showing the Henderson Ingrains to Boston dealers the past few days.

Wm. James Hogg, of Worcester, the well-known carpet manufacturer, called on the Boston trade the past week.

Visitors from Philadelphia the past few days include Mr. Carson, of Carson & Irwin, and Mr. La Rue, of Fritz, La Rue & Sinn.

Messrs. J. R. Leeson & Co. are in receipt of the medals and diplomas awarded them by the judges at the Columbian Exposition.

F. B. Wentworth, of this city, has just returned from a trip to New York and Philadelphia in the interests of the New Royal Carpet Lining Company.

Mr. Lyndoe, of R. H. White & Co.'s carpet department, will celebrate the tenth anniversary of his wedding Thursday evening next at his home on Cobden street, Roxbury.

Mr. Kennard, of O'Callaghan's, who has just returned from a trip in Maine, reports a good business. Mr. Gilbert is on the road in the western part of the State for the same house.

The annual meeting of the Bigelow Carpet Company took place the last Wednesday in May. Mr. Fairchild tells me there was only routine business transacted, the old officers being re-elected.

F. A. Wellman, William Leavens and A. A. Lawson were appointed a committee to investigate the affairs of J. F. Puffer & Son, Lowell, who recently filed a petition in insolvency. The firm offers 50 cents in settlement, one-half in cash and one-half in notes. Creditors have the offer under advisement.

Among our recent prominent visitors were : William H. Sheehy, of the Lowell Company ; Charles E. Horne, representing Robert Beattie & Sons; John M. Miller, representing T. B. Shoaff & Co.; Thomas Breslin, of the Fries-Breslin Company, and William G. Hockridge, head of Arnold, Constable & Co.'s rug, matting and Ingrain department.

Trade through New England is more or less affected by the political situation, but Pray's people report a fairly good road business. One of their strong lines this season is Essex Mills Extra Supers, and these goods are meeting with excellent success. There is probably not a house in this country that has sold more yards of Extra Super carpet in the last twenty years, and they thoroughly understand their end of the business. In colorings and patterns they claim the leading line for the fall of 1896 in their Essex Mills Extras.

F. J. B.

TEFFT, WELLER & CO.

In the extensive carpet department of Tefft, Weller & Co., now established in its new quarters 109 and 111 Leonard street, the offerings for the fall season are calculated to strongly interest every buyer of floor coverings.

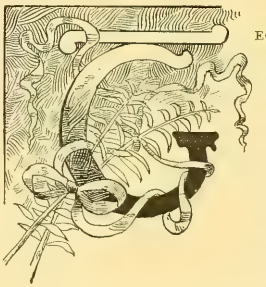
Manager Miller shows the complete line of Smith Savonneries, Gobelins, Axminsters, Moquettes, Velvets and Tapestries as prepared for the fall trade, and offers also the full line of Stinson Brothers' Tapestries and Velvets.

In Ingrains the offerings comprise the popular grades known as the Empire, Eclipse and Royal Ingrain or Union Extra Supers, these goods being manufactured by Tefft, Weller & Co., who are also sole agents for Geo. Crawshaw's Sons' Highland Mills Extra Supers and fine Ingrains.

As noted elsewhere in this issue, Mr. Miller is now showing the complete line of Coates Brothers & Co.'s jute Brussels, the account of this concern having been transferred recently to Tefft, Weller & Co.

Buyers are also advised to inspect the offerings in Nairn linoleums, comprising the complete line of these celebrated goods, which are offered at lowest prices.

A PITTSBURG SELLING AGENCY.



Geo. Wehn & Son, who were the Pittsburg representatives of Boyd, Harley & Co., are now selling agents for several representative manufacturers, and continue their salesroom at the old headquarters, 713 Penn avenue, Pittsburg. They show J. & J. Dobson's full lines of Axminsters, Wiltons, Brussels, Velvets and Tapestries ; John Dunlap & Son's Ingrains, John Hamilton's Ingrains, James Dunlap Carpet Company's Lansdowne Tapestries and Velvets, Bromley Brothers Carpet Company's rugs and Art Squares, Fritz, La Rue & Sinn's imported rugs and domestic fur and skin rugs, together with other general lines of floor coverings. With such a strong collection of goods and through their long and pleasant acquaintance with the trade in their section the Messrs. Wehn are bound to do a large business. They will cover the same territory as heretofore, and will always welcome visiting buyers to their salesroom in Pittsburg.

To maintain an assortment of mattings Arnold, Constable & Co. have arranged for special shipments from China and Japan as late as April. These goods are coming in now, and the trade can order summer and early fall supplies from this well rounded stock. Manager Hockridge sent out the traveling men of the rug, matting and Ingrain department about the 6th inst., and the trade will have every opportunity to look over the many new attractions in the exclusive lines offered.

Bacon.—Charles F. Bacon, carpet buyer for R. H. White & Co., Boston, spent a few days in New York the first week of the month, previous to his embarkation on the 4th inst. for Europe, on his annual tour of the Oriental carpet and rug centres.

Baker.—Harry Baker, one of J. & J. Dobson's selling force, was initiated in Colfax Council, R. A., on the night of the 27th ult. Many of his friends were present to make the occasion interesting to him.

Bedell.—Stephen C. Bedell, of the Chelsea Jute Mills, has received substantial evidence of the esteem in which he is held by his Masonic brethren of Ancient Lodge, 724. Mr. Bedell was master of the lodge for the years 1894 and 1895, and on the 28th ult. the lodge members presented him with a costly and elegant gold badge, containing thirteen sapphires, eight pearls and a good-sized diamond.

Bennett.—The Heber City correspondent of the Salt Lake City Herald writes as follows under date of May 28: "Mr. Bennett, of the Dinwoodey Furniture Company, was in Heber this week, having driven from Provo, coming through the canyon. He was highly delighted with the scenery of the Provo canyon. He says it is simply grand. The canyon appears alive with surveyors who are at work surveying for the proposed new railroad and the power dam, &c."

Black.—J. H. Black, so long and favorably known to the carpet and upholstery trades, is visiting his brother at Rockwood, Ont., Canada. He would like to take charge of an office in some Western city and travel part of the time, or travel in the States for some manufacturer of carpets, curtains, oil cloths or furniture, or would take charge of a carpet department in a retail house. He has always been a successful salesman.

Doherty.—John F. Doherty, of Doherty & Co., the Eighth avenue carpet and furniture dealers, has a heavy gold thirty-second degree emblem which was presented to him by business friends in Cincinnati. It is a beautiful and highly prized piece of jewelry.

Dowler.—Arthur E. Dowler, of Arnhold, Karberg & Co., China, leaves for China at the end of this month, to visit his firm's offices in Hong Kong, Canton, Shanghai, Nankin and Tientsin in the general interests of their American business, returning to this country again the latter part of the year.

Grayhurst.—John Grayhurst started on a Western trip for Harrison, Townsend & Co. on the 3d inst., and will show the firm's line in all the large cities through the West.

Greenough.—F. D. Greenough, 564 Washington street, Boston, is representing the E. R. Artman-Treichler Company on the road and is showing the entire product of the Putnam Mills.

Hynes.—John J. Hynes, who was stenographer for the California department of W. & J. Sloane, under Mr. Scherer, was recently graduated from the New York University Law School.

Judd.—C. B. Judd, vice-president and general manager of the Bissell Carpet Sweeper Company, recently took a party of friends on his handsome new naphtha launch from Toledo around by Mackinaw to Ottawa Beach, the trip occupying ten days.

Law.—Walter W. Law Jr., of W. & J. Sloane, was a passenger on the steamship Columbia, which sailed on the 4th inst. for Plymouth, Cherbourg and Hamburg.

Lowenstein.—L. B. Lowenstein, of B. Lowenstein & Brothers, Memphis, Tenn., with his bride, sailed for Europe on the 6th inst, per steamer La Bourgogne.

Mason.—E. T. Mason, of E. T. Mason & Co., the rug and matting importers, is now in Europe.

Meyer.—D. W. Meyer, of Julius Meyer & Sons, Richmond, Va., is in Europe combining business with pleasure. He will return about August 1.

Proctor.—Frank B. Proctor, with Gullabi Gulbenkian & Co., New York, sailed for the Orient per steamship Lucania last week.

Roberts.—Deacon Sam Roberts, of Wm. Berri's Sons, Brooklyn, resides at Rockville Centre, midway between New York and Patchogue, on the road much affected by the long distance wheelmen of Long Island. Mr. Roberts' hospitality is unbounded and the latch-string of his door is always out. He extends a cordial invitation to gentlemen in the trade when making the century run, or any time, to visit him coming, going, or both. Mr. Roberts has sold his racing stock, but has fitted up his famous barn with racks for the use of his cycling friends.

Rosenthal.—Ben. Rosenthal, of the People's Furniture and Carpet Company, Omaha, who has recently returned from a tour around the world, didn't do it in eighty days. He took fourteen months and enjoyed himself.

Schulz.—Adam Schulz, the Brooklyn carpet and furniture dealer, sailed for Europe May 28 with his wife to visit their son John H. D. Schulz, who is a student in Paris. The boys of the Latin quarter will probably show Adam some things he cannot see in staid old Brooklyn.

Sloane.—John Sloane, of W. & J. Sloane, returned from Europe on the steamer Teutonic the 11th inst.

Talbot.—Fred Talbot was in Philadelphia and New York the early part of the month. He is the organizer of the Talbot Brussels Carpet Manufacturing Company, which has just been organized, and made application for incorporation papers from the Dominion Government. The company's mill is at Sherbrooke, Que., Canada, where a building formerly used as a corset factory has been secured. The owner of the property contributes it as his share to the new concern's capital. It and the ground it covers are valued at $23,000.

Terry.—Boyd, Harley & Co. having given up their New York office Edward B. Terry's engagement with them is terminated. Elsewhere Mr. Terry announces that he is ready to engage with some first-class house as salesman or to handle the goods of a manufacturer. He has had long experience and will be in every way a valuable man in either capacity.

Webb.—W. H. Webb, of the firm of Dunham, Buckley & Co., returned from Europe on the steamer Teutonic the 12th inst.

McCALLUM'S JOBBING LINES.

The jobbing lines of McCallum & McCallum, Philadelphia, for the fall season consist of Roxbury, Sanford and Higgins Tapestries and Velvets, Glenvale heavy weight Ingrains, Extra Supers, C. C.'s, half wool Extras, Cottons, Damasks, Venetians and Art Squares. The Sakai rugs are also in this department, and as shown for the fall season are a wonderful improvement in color shadings and designs over the first goods produced. The Sakai rugs are made in sizes 30 inch, 4-4, 6x9, 7x10 and 9x12 feet. Some of the new patterns are faithful reproductions of high-class Oriental effects, and we doubt if there is anything in the market for the price, which is about $1 per square yard, than can equal these rugs in appearance or wear. The travelers for McCallum & McCallum are the same as last year; namely, C. S. Price, C. Y. Dougherty, J. P. Summerfield and J. T. MacElroy.

The Dundee (Scotland) Advertiser says that A. Taylor & Co.'s Forebank Carpet Works, which were destroyed by fire last year, have been reconstructed and will soon be in operation.

Inventions.

No. 25,630. WILLIAM JAMES HOGG (WORCESTER CARPET COMPANY).

No. 25,630. Carpet and Border.—Frederic M. Parker, Worcester, Mass., assignor to William James Hogg (Worcester Carpet Company), same place. Application filed May 1; patent issued June 9, 1896. Term of patent, 3½ years.

THE line of rugs now turned out by W. T. Smith & Son consists of Regents, the best grade; Gold Eagles, the standard grade, and Orientals, a popular priced rug. The latter will compete with anything in the market in value, and the firm show several new patterns for fall. They will be pleased to quote prices on Orientals, as well as on the other grades, upon application to their mill, Third street, north of Lehigh avenue, Philadelphia; 337 Broadway, New York, or at their various offices throughout the country.

CHICAGO CARPET NOTES.

Daniel E. Brink, formerly with the Chicago Carpet Company, but now with Comstock, Avery & Co., of Peoria, was in town last week.

CHICAGO, JUNE 9.

The Chicago Carpet Company reports business as good. Among other contracts which the house is filling now is the recarpeting with Velvet carpets of the Schiller Theatre.

John S. Luthy, formerly with the J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company, St. Louis, is now traveling through Iowa and Nebraska for Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co.

Meier, Held & Rosenfeld, who conducted a department store at 143 West North avenue, have been succeeded by the Humboldt Merchandise and Manufacturing Company.

George L. C. Drovin, of Drovin & Clery, selling agents for the George W. Blabon Company, oil cloths, Philadelphia, is in the city, as is also W. H. Daley, of Thomas Potter, Sons & Co.

N. G. Rowley has been added to the traveling force of W. & J. Sloane. He is now traveling through Wisconsin and will visit Minnesota also. He formerly traveled for Andrew Nelson, of Rochester, Minn.

Schlesinger & Mayer, the State street firm, have secured a lease for a Wabash avenue frontage corresponding with their State street premises. This indicates the turning to Wabash avenue for relief from the overcrowded condition of State street.

The oil cloth men on the road report a brisk trade. Mr. Evoy, manager of Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co.'s wholesale carpet and oil cloth department, says his travelers have sold twice as much oil cloth as he has ever known in the history of the house. There are similar reports from other houses.

J. F. Norman, of the E. S. Higgins Carpet Company, had an experience in the St. Louis cyclone which he will not care to undergo again. He was lying sick in a hotel when the storm came and blew off the roof. He was struck on the leg by a stone, and was compelled to go about on crutches for a day or so. Mr. Norman thinks his escape from death was miraculous.

Mark Henry will soon transfer his carpet department to the Wabash avenue extension which Schlesinger & Mayer will open. They have leased the ground at 141 and 143 Wabash avenue, and will remodel the four story building there at present for the use of their business. The property has a frontage of 40 feet, and extends back 171 feet to the alley in the rear of the firm's present State street store, which extends south from Madison street 180 feet.

L. T. Klein's dry goods store, at Halstead and Fourteenth streets, was robbed on the evening of the 6th inst. by men who entered the store while it was open and well lighted and forced the cashier to surrender her money, estimated at $500, at the point of a revolver. Klein's is one of the largest dry goods stores in the city, and at the time the robbery was committed the building was not only brilliantly lighted, but was filled with customers. The job is supposed to have been done by the three men who killed Proprietor Marshall, of the Golden Rule store, several weeks ago and who have robbed nine stores since. The men have used the same methods in every case, and have so far managed to get away without their identity becoming known.

CONFINED PATTERNS.

THE proposition offered to carpet dealers by Arnold, Constable & Co. is growing steadily in favor, and there are very few carpet dealers to-day who do not have a few patterns in 3–4 goods that they can tell their customer are made especially for them. The attractions and advantages of handling confined patterns hardly need emphasizing, as every carpet salesman knows that in most sales the pattern is the most important feature for decision. No carpet man has devoted more time and study to the development of this method of doing a carpet business than W. M. Daintrey, manager of Arnold, Constable & Co.'s carpet department, and no one has greater resources for bringing out patterns and colorings of strict individuality. For the fall season the lines shown consist of Lowell Axminsters, Bigelow Imperial Axminsters, Bigelow Axminsters, Lowell Wiltons, Lowell Brussels, Hartford Axminsters, Tacony Wiltons and Delaware Brussels. The assortment in these goods comprises all exclusive patterns in original colorings, adapted to the wants of first-class retail dealers and confined to them in their respective cities. In addition the firm also show the full line of Stinson Tapestries and Velvets. There should always be a particularly warm welcome for the representatives of Arnold, Constable & Co.

JOHN GAY'S SON'S Park Mills Ingrains are holding their usual prominent position in the opening fall business. There is no experiment in purchasing them, and in any comparison of value with other makes they represent in quality and style the best value obtainable.

To have a supply of Alex. Morton & Co.'s rugs and one-piece carpets for the fall trade orders should be placed now while there is yet time to make up the goods and deliver them before the retail season opens. The line can be seen at the New York salesroom, 874 Broadway.

ON the morning of the 13th inst. fire started in the four story brick building, 417 Delaware street, Leavenworth, Kan., occupied by S. Simmonds, carpet and furniture dealer, and the stock was damaged to the extent of 35 per cent. of its insurance. Insurance on building, $17,500; insurance on stock, $14,100.

HIS FATE.

MR. DUDE—I was thinking how much I resemble your carpet—always at your feet, you know!

MISS SLY—Yes, you are very much like my carpet. I am going to shake it soon.—Leslie's Weekly.

POTTER'S DIPLOMA.

THE wording of the award to Thos. Potter, Sons & Co., for linoleum and floor oil cloths, received from the World's Columbian Exposition is as follows :

AWARD.

LINOLEUM—For eminent merit in the production of cork linoleum of ideal excellence. Remarkable combination of high artistic value in design and scrupulous regard to finished effects. Variety and excellence of patterns and exact application of fundamental principles in designs and execution, and a unique and classic display of linoleum in conjunction with oil cloths.

FLOOR OIL CLOTHS—For masterful success in the development of the process of manufacture, affording striking contrast to the initial product of the early post-colonial industry perpetuated by this exhibitor. Superior excellence of product in all the standard weights ; felicitous coloring and thorough appreciation of the conditions essential to successful design, and for their judicious application. A. H. DAINTY, Individual Judge.

Potter, Sons & Co. have just received their diploma and medal.

THE MILLS AT MOUNT HOLLY.

THERE will be a public meeting of citizens of Mount Holly, N. J., this week to consider what disposition can be made of the ruins of the Brussels carpet mills, recently destroyed by fire. It is stated that W. & J. Sloane, of New York city, who own the property, are willing to sell the same as it stands for $30,000. There is a loom shed containing twenty-nine looms, a dye house, stock room, office and some other machinery that escaped the fire, and together with the real estate and the ruins—which are sound to the second story—the sum asked for the same is said to be quite reasonable. Just what action will be taken at the meeting is not known.

ALEXANDER CROW, JR., of Philadelphia, is a delegate to the Republican convention at St. Louis. James Pollock is chairman of the committee appointed by the Manufacturers' Club, of Philadelphia, to attend the convention.

H. W. HAMMOND & Co., the Liverpool (England) wool brokers, in their circular dated May 27 say :

At the public auction of East India wool held last week the total quantity offered was 27,717 bales, of which 4,700 bales are held over account of importers, exclusive of 236 bales Thibet. There was no further change on the closing day; the tone was quiet and rather more had to be withdrawn, but values remained unaltered. It was very evident that the supply was in excess of the demand, and considering the limited support from America the result, both as regards the quantity sold and prices realized, was fully as good as could have been expected.

Speaking generally, wool was rather easier to buy, but the decline was most marked in Joria and Kandahar whites ; the former lost the advance made in March, about ½d. per pound, and Kandahar was affected to the same extent, but of this class the selection was not as good as that of the previous series, and the few lots of long, soft wool realized within ¼d. per pound of previous rates. Vickanier whites were well represented by some bright, sound stapled parcels of the new season's wool, and sold steadily throughout. Medium and coarse whites also elicited good competition, and where free from burr commanded extreme prices. Yellow wools, on the whole, sold very well, the best, such as Joria, Vickanier and choice Packputtan, fully up to March sales' rates, but common Packputtan and other wasty Kurrachee sorts went somewhat irregularly. Grays were again in request for the home trade, but lacked the usual foreign competition, and all sorts were rather easier to buy. The Thibet was held for extreme prices and had to be withdrawn.

GLEN ECHO CARPETS.

THE opening of a new season's line by McCallum & McCallum is a matter of great interest to a large number of best retailers throughout the country, for they have become accustomed to find in the new offerings effects of startling beauty and pure novelty. McCallum & McCallum supply a large number of patterns in Wiltons and Brussels that are quoted by retailers as private to them, and have secured a large clientele in this direction.

In the fall patterns, which are now complete and ready for inspection, we find, as usual, a number of designs showing thoroughly radical departures from anything previously produced, the figures and outlines in which, combined with the coloring effects, produce an ensemble that could be properly designated "McCallumesque." These extreme effects have proved very successful and profitable sellers in the past, and the firm's customers evidently cannot be weaned away from them. We note a larger selection than last season of chintz and floral effects in the Wiltons and Brussels, so that the line is particularly well varied. Another noticeable feature is the patterns in two or three tone colors, which, with some remarkably handsome new effects in borders, will certainly be among the leaders of the fall season. Some superb white ground Brussels, some all-over figured designs, the new reds, several new things in high colors, the new light grounds, and the especially large variety of halls and stairs are matters to be remembered by buyers.

The novelty and exclusiveness of effects is kept up in the line of Extra Supers, which comprise 160 new samples, in addition to the things retained from last season.

Byzantine rugs are also shown in some handsome new effects.

A reference to the jobbing lines of this firm will be found in another column.

THE CHINESE MATTING MARKET.

IN their circular dated Hong Kong, May 13, a large export firm say : "Large settlements have been made during the last week; the price paid for 50–55 pounds fancy remains at 9¼@9½ cents, with dealers very reluctant to accept a large quantity, or even a small lot without a proportion of the better grades. Medium grades are from ¼ cent to ½ cent over normal, while Imperial and Narrow Ningpo can be had at their usual rates. Dealers have now their straw stock fully engaged, and count largely upon the new crop with which to complete their contracts. Orders are coming in freely and dealers show no very great anxiety to settle, as most of them have as much as they care to undertake. We put settlements to date at 280,000 rolls."

Shipments from Hong Kong and Canton to New York and Baltimore from June 1, 1895, to May 13 of the present year were 373,656 rolls, against 252,869 same time last year, and 281,616 rolls same time year before.

WITH the restoration of the parts of their works destroyed by fire in February last, the Farr & Bailey Manufacturing Company have made several important improvements in fire extinguishing appliances. Two 50,000 gallon water tanks, with pipe service connecting with the different portions of the plant and a new steam pump that will throw 1,000 gallons per minute, give them an exceptionally extensive fire department of their own. Sprinklers are also being applied in all parts of the works.

IN THE UPHOLSTERY MARKET.

NOTHING of importance in the way of business is being done in the drapery houses. Many large buyers have been in town, but their mission was merely to see what they would be compelled to look over later in the season. Stock taking is about done, and dealers find that the six months' business has not been entirely without profit, although some of them manifest a curious anxiety to have the balance sheet show the contrary. But while there has not been much business during the fortnight the trade has not been idle. Several meetings of the most prominent men in the lace curtain business have been held to discuss abuses which have grown up and to attempt to devise some remedy.

Seven off ten sounds much prettier than six off ten, but it eats up the footings of a ledger very fast. Goods on memorandum or approbation is a very convenient way of carrying a large stock at the expense of the jobber or manufacturer, and the jobber or manufacturer is a patient animal. But when his samples are retained for months at a time, never folded in the original creases, and sent back stained or soiled or crumpled, even the patient animal kicks. Absurd datings and discounts have been talked over, and at present writing it seems safe to say that some arrangement will be arrived at. Experience shows that an arrangement will have to be an ironclad one and backed by the whole trade to be of any effect.

It is always better for both buyer and seller that business should be done in business methods and by men who know what business is.

E. H. PLUMACHER, United States consul at Maracaibo, reports to the State Department that the Government of Venezuela has made contracts with William Harper, representing the Philadelphia Museum and American Manufacturing Association, for the establishment of a permanent exhibition of American goods in Caracas, with their own building, and other permanent exhibitions in Valencia, Ciudad Bolivar and Maracaibo. The purpose of the exhibition is to give the Venezuelans an opportunity to formally inspect and compare our goods with those of the Old World. Mr. Plumacher says that Germany, England and France overrun South America with commercial traveling agents, mostly energetic young men, well versed in the Spanish language and the customs of the South American people. A commercial traveler for an American house is seldom seen in the country. Mr. Plumacher thinks the permanent exhibitions will help American trade without the great expense attending the sending of agents to South America.

TAMBOURED COTTON CURTAINS.—In the case of Newburger, Heine & Co. against the collector at New York the Board of General Appraisers decided as follows :

The merchandise subject of protest consists :

1. Of cotton cambric, muslin and net or netting, designed for use as sash curtains and returned by the appraiser as "tamboured cotton sash, 50 per cent."

2. Of tamboured or embroidered pillow shams, bed sets, &c., consisting of a foundation of lace net, or other fabric, composed of cotton or other vegetable fibre.

3. Of scalloped edgings or insertings, having cotton lace net foundation and cotton appliqué thereon, intended for use as parts of window curtains and similar articles.

4. Window curtains and other articles of cotton or other vegetable fibre, composed wholly or in part of lace.

5. Of laces composed of cotton, flax and silk, respectively.

6. Of cotton net or netting.

7. Of cotton ruffling, described in the invoice as "esprit fluting."

The merchandise was assessed for duty at 50 per cent. ad valorem under the appropriate provisions in paragraphs 276 and 301 of the act of August 28, 1894, and was claimed to be dutiable under either the provisions in paragraphs 252 to 256, inclusive, according to the number of threads, yards to the pound and value, or at 55 per cent. ad valorem under paragraphs 264 to 277, inclusive, or at 45 per cent. ad valorem under paragraphs 300 or 302 of said act.

As it appears from the findings of facts the merchandise is chiefly of the same character as that which was the subject of G. A. 3,443.

Applying the doctrines of that decision to these cases the protests are overruled on all grounds.

Among the buyers in town during the past fortnight were: Messrs. H. Higgins, for the Williams & Rodgers Company, Cleveland, Ohio; E. C. Lines, for Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., Chicago; R. E. Slaughter, for the Fourquerean, Price Company, Richmond, Va.; J. K. Johnston, of Elder & Johnston, Dayton, Ohio; E. A. Sadd, for the Denholm & McKay Company, Worcester, Mass.; E. P. MacPherson, for the John V. Farwell Company, Chicago; George J. Carter, for R. H. White & Co., Boston; B. Peck, of the B. Peck Dry Goods Company, Lewiston, Me.; W. E. Georgia, for the J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company, St. Louis; John C. Crew, for Sterling, Welch & Co., Cleveland, Ohio; C. A. Winsor, for the Hartwell, Richards Company, Providence, R. I.; A. C. Bodman (wholesale), for Marshall Field & Co., Chicago; John R. Coppin, Covington, Ky.; Thomas Irwin, for William Taylor, Son & Co., Cleveland, Ohio; A. K. Watson, for Finch, Van Slyck, Young & Co., St. Paul; Samuel Karpen, of S. Karpen & Brothers, Chicago; L. F. Cornell and H. L. Phillips, of the Jamestown (N. Y.) Lounge Company; Ithiel Stone, Cleveland, Ohio; M. F. Horan, of M. F. Horan & Co., Boston; A. W. McLean (lace curtains), for Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., Chicago; John McLaren, for the William Hengerer Company, Buffalo, N. Y.; J. P. Johnston, of Johnston & Shurts, New London, Conn.; H. Higgins, for the Williams & Rodgers Company, Cleveland, Ohio; Charles Stearns, of Charles Stearns & Co., Rutland, Vt.; Andrew Dobbie, Columbus, Ohio, and E. G. Miller, for G. M. McKelvey & Co., Youngstown, Ohio.

THE NEW LIGHT OIL CLOTH AGREEMENT.

As noted in our issue of the 1st inst., a new agreement has been made between the table oil cloth manufacturers, and those concerned in the arrangement seem certain that it will be more successful than any previous plans in this direction have been. One strong reason for this belief is that the new arrangement is supported by all but two of the manufacturing concerns in the trade, fifteen manufacturers having joined in the agreement. An important feature of the new plan, and one never adopted in previous schemes for the same end, is the formation of a clearing house, through which all the business of the combination, except manufacturing and its needful provisions, and actual selling, is to be transacted. The various firms have a percentage standing in the clearing house and the proceeds of their aggregate business are to be divided among them pro rata. There are no restrictions upon manufacturers as to the extent of their output nor upon individual enterprise; neither would a manufacturer, should he deem it prudent to shut down his works, forfeit his right to his percentage of any profits the others might have made. The clearing house is in Boston; its president is George Hughes, of Atha & Hughes, and its vice-president, A. M. Cole, of the Western Linoleum Company, Akron, Ohio.

The new price list for table, stair and shelf oil cloths is as follows:

For 5–4 fancies, $1.75 per piece, old price, $1.65; 5–4 marbles, $1.85 per piece, old price, $1.75; 6–4 fancies, $2.60, old price, $2.45; 6–4 marbles, $2.70, old price, $2.55; 15 inch stair oil cloth, 5½c. per yard; 18 inch stair oil cloth, 8½c. per yard; 12 inch shelf oil cloth, 12 yards, 52½c. per yard; 15 inch shelf oil cloth, 12 yards, 80c. per yard; 18 inch shelf oil cloth, 12 yards, $1 per yard; 5–4 damask fancies, $2.35 per piece; 5–4 damask marbles, $2.45 per piece; 6–4 damask fancies, $3.35 per piece; 6–4 damask marbles, $3.45 per piece; 5–4 black and wood covers, $2.40 per piece; 6–4 black and wood covers, $3.15 per piece; 5–4 white cashmere covers; $2.40 per piece; 5–4 brocade covers, $2.25 per piece; 5–4 white cashmere muslin, $2 per piece. Terms, cash: 4 per cent. ten days, 2 per cent. thirty days, net sixty days. Invoices will date from day of shipment.

As shown by this list, prices of 5–4 marbles and fancies are advanced 10c. and on 6–4 15c. above the old list.

The two concerns not identified with the new combination are Thomas Potter, Sons & Co., and the Geo. W. Blabon Company.

THE ATTRIBUTES OF AN UPHOLSTERY TRADE PAPER.

The Carpet and Upholstery Trade Review was the first trade publication in this country to devote special attention to upholstery and drapery goods, and during the twenty-seven years of its existence The Review has printed the news of the trade more thoroughly and has disseminated it more quickly than any other publication.

With its two issues every month The Review's pages furnish the trade with fresh, timely matter, and its advantages in this respect alone make it the only actual upholstery newspaper issued.

The combining of carpet and upholstery news and information within one cover is essentially and obviously another great advantage both to our subscribers and advertisers. Floor coverings, draperies and upholsteries are so closely connected by the modern demand for tasteful furnishing that it is a necessary part of the upholstery man's business education to be posted on carpets, or vice versa, and we need only point to the number and standing of the houses which carry carpets and upholsteries to show the appropriateness of connecting them in a single publication. Where a merchant carries either carpets or upholsteries alone he not only obtains the fullest information on his own branch from The Review, but is kept freshly in touch with the trend of the times in the other branch, and the knowledge thus gained has in hundreds of instances prompted the profitable introduction of the other goods.

We point with pride to the large and important representation of drapery and upholstery houses in our advertising columns and to the presence on our subscription list of practically all the best and most desirable buyers of carpets and upholstery combined or of either goods singly. The Review stands pre-eminently at the top as the live upholstery paper of the day, and we mean to maintain its supremacy.

Personal

Brill.—J. Brill, importer of lace curtains, 472 Broadway, New York, has returned from his trip to Europe.

Baerlein.—S. Baerlein, importer of lace curtains, 443 Broadway, returned from Europe the early part of the month. He came home by the Lucania.

Cooper.—A. M. Cooper, manager of the Dry Goods Alliance, 54 Franklin street, New York, sailed for Europe on the Normannia on the 11th inst.

Cable.—Frank Cable, with the Henry Reubel Company, is winding up the spring season at home, preparatory to starting on his fall trip about July 1.

Dasey.—John Dasey, Jr., formerly with Simon Greenbaum & Co., is now with J. S. Lesser & Co. and will represent them among the Western trade.

Fyfe.—D. A. Fyfe, manager of W. & J. Sloane's lace curtain department, has just returned from a very successful trip among the large dealers of the West.

Garwood.—Harry Garwood, formerly with Chas. B. Young & Co., has been with Bossut Père & Fils' upholstery department since the 1st inst., and will go on the road with the goods.

Georgia.—W. E. Georgia, upholstery buyer for the John Kennard & Sons Carpet Company, St. Louis, was, figuratively speaking, blown into town by the tornado, coming on immediately after the great storm. He saw the meeting of the two big clouds, but had no idea of the extent of the disaster until he read his newspaper the next morning.

Irwin.—Thomas Irwin, manager of Wm. Taylor, Sons & Co.'s upholstery department, Cleveland, was in New York last week. He reports an excellent spring trade in his department, and says the business is increasing largely every year. The traveling men say this doesn't change Mr. Irwin's uniformly pleasant reception of them in the least.

Johnson.—J. Russell Johnson, of Elder & Johnson, Dayton, Ohio, sailed on the 3d inst. per Majestic for a brief tour through Europe.

Jacobs.—N. W. Jacobs, who will have charge of Siegel, Cooper & Co.'s upholstery department in this city, expects to be in town about the 25th inst.

Kohner.—The Messrs. Kohner, of the firm of Rieser & Co., the lace curtain importers, have recently formed the New York City Watch Company, with a factory at 109 and 111 Broad street, New York. Marcus Kohner is president and Maurice W. Kohner is secretary and treasurer. They manufacture a good timekeeping watch that can be retailed for $1.

Loughran.—Thomas P. Loughran, manager of Healy's dry goods house on Broadway, Brooklyn, has recently returned from an extended trip through the Catskill Mountains. Mr. Loughran has thoroughly recuperated his health, is as brown as a chestnut, and reports having had a most delightful time. He was accompanied by his wife.

McDonald.—Alexander McDonald, with J. S. Lesser & Co., New York, has gone to Europe on a brief pleasure trip.

McBride.—C. S. McBride, who for some years has held a leading position in the store of the Gould-Mersereau Company, has branched out as a road salesman for the same concern. He has returned from his first trip, after fully demonstrating his ability to sell goods outside as well as inside.

Plaut.—Louis Plaut, of L. S. Plaut & Co., Newark, N. J., sailed for Europe recently.

Rigney.—James Rigney, father of J. E. Rigney, manager of Bossut Père & Fils' upholstery department, died on the 27th ult. in Brooklyn, of which city he was an old and respected resident.

Rogers.—Charles Rogers, the old Eastern manager for E. T. Mason & Co., importers and commission merchants, Chinese and Japanese silks, rugs, art draperies, &c., who has been in this country for the past two years on account of sickness, sailed on the steamer Empress of India, from San Francisco, June 1, having regained his health and strength.

Smith.—W. J. Smith, buyer of upholstery goods for W. & J. Sloane, recently returned from Europe.

Selig.—J. Selig, upholstery buyer for Ludwig Brothers, will sail for Europe by the Augusta Victoria next Thursday, 18th inst.

Shaw.—Charles R. Shaw, buyer of linens, white goods, curtains, &c., for Tefft, Weller & Co., New York, returned from his trip to the European markets on the Teutonic on the 10th inst.

Straus.—Nathan Straus, of R. H. Macy & Co., New York, who, with Mrs. Straus and their three children, has been abroad, chiefly in Italy, for the past three months, returned on the 7th inst., having arrived on La Touraine.

Webster.—Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Locke Webster celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage at their residence in Providence, R. I., a few days ago. They were assisted in receiving by their three sons, two of whom, C. B. and W. G. Webster, are prominently identified with the firm of R. H. Macy & Co., New York.

A NOTTINGHAM LACE CURTAIN MANUFACTURER'S VIEWS.

Mr. T. Stanley Birkin, of T. I. Birkin & Co., spent a fortnight at his firm's New York house, and sailed for Southampton per the Spree on the 2d inst. Speaking of the present agitation on sound money, he says there is not the slightest doubt in his mind that the United States will continue to maintain a gold standard, but foreign capitalists cannot be blamed for being affected by what seems a strong silver element existing in this country. He thinks, however, that the adoption of a gold platform by the Republican convention will immediately reassure the investors abroad, and cause a return of a large amount of money to American investments. He said his firm's business in Great Britain, the Continent, and colonies was never better than at present, their factories in Nottingham, Glasgow and Germany being run to fullest capacity to supply the demand.

The Gould-Mersereau Company are pushing their new catalogue and now feel that they can promise faithfully to have it ready about July 1. This catalogue will contain everything made and handled by the company, including all their latest designs and corrected prices to date. They show a handsome line of pole trimmings and a new angle joint made of fluted brass that will match the general run of pole trimmings. An important improvement has been made in the arrangement of the store at 259 Canal street, the samples being brought to the front and arranged so as to afford a quick inspection. Mr. Judd, the store manager, is a man of versatile ideas and is becoming very popular with the buyers visiting the establishment.

BICYCLES.

A man connected with the upholstery and carpet trade has gone into the bicycle business, and his many friends will now have a chance to buy a high grade wheel at the right price. Charles W. Lawrence, formerly of the Gould-Mersereau Company, has opened a store at 91 Leonard street, New York, for the sale of the "Lawrence Special" bicycle, a first-class, high grade wheel that will be sold exclusively through him. Mr. Lawrence invites all of the trade wheelmen to examine his new cycle, and will send particulars and prices by mail on application.

With all the world awheel it's a good thing to have a friend in the wheel business, and we advise all intending purchasers to consult Mr. Lawrence.

TWO NOTABLE BRUSSELS CURTAINS.

There are probably as few or fewer radical departures from regulation effects in Brussels curtains than in any other grade of lace curtains. Hence the startlingly new character of two patterns in Brussels just received by Rieser & Co. will excite the interest of buyers. The treatment in design is bold, exceedingly graceful and handsome, and the patterns, which are numbered 6017 and 6018, will be big sellers.

W. & J. SLOANE.

The offerings for the fall trade in the upholstery department of W. & J. Sloane should be seen by every buyer who desires to get a comprehensive idea of the fabrics and styles which will be in vogue during the coming season. Manager Smith's offerings comprise an immense variety of novelties, specialties and standard goods for portieres, curtains, furniture coverings, draperies, wall hangings, &c. Mr. Smith is also showing a large lot of Oldham Mills goods at reduced prices to close them out before stock taking.

FERGUSON BROTHERS' SPECIALTIES.

In furniture specialties and novelties, such as screens, easels, cabinets, flower stands, book shelves, tabourets, grills, &c., Ferguson Brothers show an immense assortment of attractive, styles which are quick sellers and return a good profit to the retailer. Buyers will find the Messrs. Ferguson's fall line on view at their factory, 431-433 West Thirty-first street, and at their salesrooms, 275 Canal street, New York, and an early inspection of it is advised.

LONSDALE HOLLANDS.

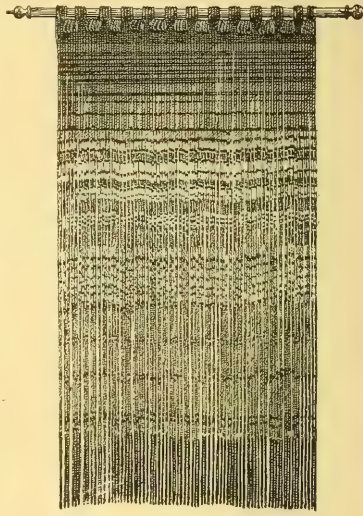
It is an exception nowadays to find any window shade or upholstery wholesaler without a full stock of Lonsdale beetle finished hollands. The black cloth coverings of the goods are a familiar sight throughout the trade, and Lonsdales are figuring more prominently every year in the consumption of window hollands. The wholesale trade is supplied by Converse, Stanton & Cullen, 83 and 85 Worth street, New York, and 62 Franklin street, Boston.

Samuel W. Graves, doing business as Samuel W. Graves & Co., dealers in furniture, mantels and wall paper at Knoxville, has made an assignment. Two years ago he claimed assets of $115,000; liabilities, $38,000.

THE NEW PERSIAN DRAPERY.

AN ATTRACTIVE NOVELTY IN STRAND PORTIERES THAT IS SELLING FREELY.

A novelty on the cord portiere order is shown in the illustrations on this and the opposite page, and it introduces new opportunities and a wider scope for portieres made of detached strands. The Persian Drapery, as it has been named, was invented by T. Romeyn Bunn, of Amsterdam, N. Y., whose application for a patent upon it is now on file at Washington. This drapery has the advantage of giving almost unlimited opportunities for variations of artistic skill, in which direction is one of its greatest contrasting advantages with other kinds of portieres. The suggestions that come to the draper's fertile mind can be carried out in graceful combinations formed by taking any number of the strands and arranging them through the apertures of grille work or over and around poles, in this way making a pair of Persian Draperies fill an 8, 9 or 10 foot opening. Such an arrangement can obviously be more easily accomplished with this strand drapery than with a portiere woven in one piece.



BAMBOO EFFECT IN PERSIAN DRAPERY.

Another special feature is the opportunity for variegated coloring effects, and in this respect the Persian Drapery certainly cannot be surpassed by any other portiere, as the manner of construction is altogether different from any strand or cord portiere heretofore on the market. The goods are already shown in twenty-five different combinations of colorings and others are being continually added.

In the illustration on this page an idea is given of the Persian Drapery with the strands hanging straight down to the floor. In this manner all the effect of the bamboo or reed portieres is obtained in a textile fabric, as the new drapery is composed largely of wool pile strands. This insures the colors holding and also gives weight and softness to the drapery, while in wear it is evident that it will last much longer than the bamboo or reed curtains. The Persian Drapery has only been placed upon the market within a few weeks past, and almost every buyer who has so far seen it has placed an order. It is sold exclusively by the Union Upholstery Trimming Company, with salesroom at 343 Broadway, New York, who are prepared to take orders and give prompt deliveries. We strongly advise all buyers throughout the country to send in sample orders, as the goods will sell particularly freely during the summer months, and the price is sufficiently moderate to warrant a consumption among the general trade.

Jas. J. Feeley, the Union Company's traveler, has just started out on the road with the samples and will thus supply an opportunity for inspecting the goods.

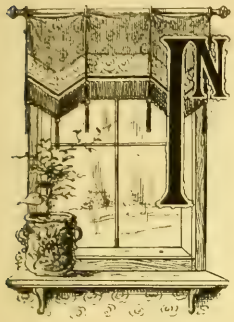
FALL STYLES IN FURNISHINGS.

LEADING FABRICS AND COLORS IN PORTIERES, CURTAINS, FURNITURE COVERINGS AND HANGINGS.



IN THE lines of upholstery goods, shown for the fall trade, the styles differ materially from those of the previous season. One notable feature of the new lines is the prominence of decided colorings; but while neutral tints and hues have lost ground there is no tendency to unduly accentuate the primary colors, the intention apparently being to make coloring well defined, avoiding faded, washed-out effects, and securing richness and depth without harshness or crudity.

In certain fabrics the figured goods will be largely used, but plain satins, silk velours and similar fabrics will be employed quite extensively, and especially in portières and curtains. Embossed or figured plush will also be used very freely for furniture coverings and portieres. In portieres the Louis XV. and XVI. styles will be notable features.

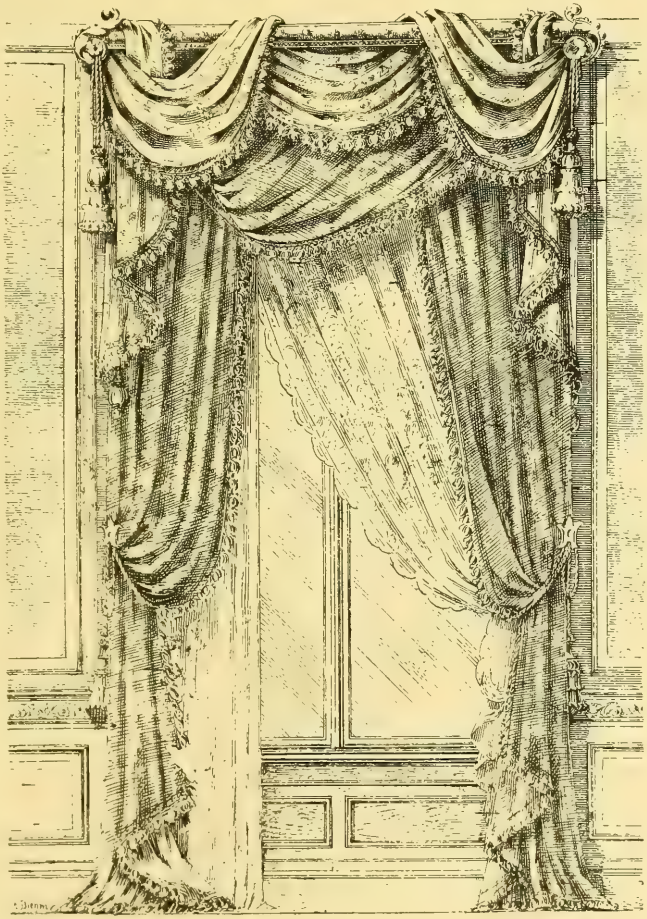
For wall hangings the favorite materials will be satin damask, figured silk tapestry, silk velours, figured damask in textile fabrics, and in wall paper the satin embossed styles.

Where the wall hanging is figured satin damask the portieres may be plain satin, relieved with embroidery, and plain satin or satin plush for the window curtains. In this scheme the furniture coverings can be in silk tapestry silk or velours.

For draperies and furniture coverings the new "chini" effects, produced by printing the warp before it is woven, are likely to be in special demand. The wants of people of moderate means, but not deficient in good taste, have not been forgotten, for besides the lines of expensive goods will be found imitations of the best styles, made in cotton tapestry or inexpensive materials.

For libraries and dining rooms wool tapestries will be in as much demand as ever for furniture coverings, portieres and wall hangings. The crinkled tapestry with silk face and wool back will be especially favored for portieres and curtains.

In drawing room curtains some very rich effects are obtained in plain satin, satin damask, or velours by the use of Pompadour embroidery—a combination of embroidery and lace. With such curtains the furniture coverings should be of the same material or in old brocades, in which the patterns are reproductions of the old Italian tapestries. Among the more prominent colors in such schemes will be strong yellows, greens and the old-fashioned crimson. In lace curtains the lead will be held by the Russian or Arabian in écru and cream in Louis XV. and rococo styles. The Renaissance, Louis XV. and Marie Antoinette in cream or white will come next, and Brussels will of course be also in large demand, being a standard thing which many people prefer to any other. Sash curtains will be made to match the long ones.

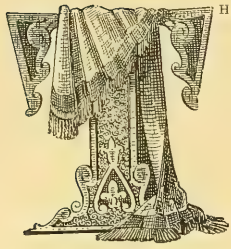


DESIGN FOR WINDOW DRAPERY.

J. H. Hamilton & Co., 275 Church street, New York, are showing for the fall season a notable line of awning bindings which should receive prompt attention from the trade. Hamilton & Co. show also large lines of carpet, petersham, oil cloths, mattress and mitre bindings, braided shade cords, ball cords, and wire and worsted picture cord. Call on them or write to them for prices, &c.

W. M. Cathrall has sold the business of his wholesale upholstery department to H. C. D'Orsay & Co., who will continue it and carry a complete upholstery stock, including hardware. The firm consists of H. C. D'Orsay, W. C. Hartman and O. M. Schoettle. Mr. Cathrall continues the awning supply business.

CHAS. B. YOUNG & CO.'S LINES.



This popular firm of upholstery and drapery selling agents are strongly equipped to attract fall orders. In the new lines of Hoyle, Harrison & Kaye's chenilles and upholstery fabrics they have an unusually fine collection of novelties, effects of color and design that you will positively not see elsewhere. In the Eden Manufacturing Company's goods the assortment has been greatly enlarged. The popular snowflake and lightweight curtains are continued with several new patterns, and a new line of tapestry or jacquard made curtains is displayed containing effects not heretofore produced in this country. These tapestries are absolute novelties and a class that the best trade will at once appreciate.

Everything is ready to show at Young & Co.'s salesroom, 88 Worth street, New York.

BACK TO BROADWAY.

A. Naumann, the lace curtain manufacturer and importer, will go back to quarters on Broadway on July 1, having found his present location, at Spring and Mercer streets, a little out of the curtain centre. His new salesroom will be in the new building on the southeast corner of Broadway and Grand street, in which T. I. Birkin & Co. and the Patchogue Lace Manufacturing Company are already located.

Mr. Naumann will have a St. Gall account, including all kinds of Swiss curtains, a large assortment of French curtains, exclusive patterns in Nottinghams, the novelty Tarare curtain, toilet and bed sets, scarfs, tidies, &c. These goods will be sold from stock and on import orders, and Mr. Naumann will be prepared to meet the buyers coming to town in July.

Henry Busching, one of the oldest merchants on Government square, Cincinnati, and who has had a retail furniture and upholstery establishment there for the past twenty-five years, deeded his property to Albert Bettinger, of Goebel & Bettinger, for the benefit of his creditors, on the 25th ult. The assets are about $15,000 and the liabilities will probably reach the same figure. Mr. Busching is a member of the Legislature, and has always been respected as a business man. Dull trade was the cause of the assignment. The following preferences are given: Louisa Busching, $650; Geo. D. Ehle, $1,189.89; John Kindle, $307.28; National Lafayette Bank, $4,500; Goebel & Bettinger, $250.

Butler & Weed, dealers in furniture and decorations, 165 Fifth avenue, New York, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Butler continues the business at 125th street and Park avenue, in the Morris Building.

Creditors of Benjamin Fitch, who did business as B. Fitch & Co., New York, have been notified to present their claims, duly verified, to James Cowden Meyers, assignee, 108 Fulton street, before July 6.

MONUMENTAL CITY MEMS.

BALTIMORE, JUNE 12.

Samuel Posner, of Posner Brothers, dry goods and upholstery, has purchased the property Nos. 211 and 213 North Howard street and an adjoining lot in the rear, on Clay street, improved by a five-story warehouse. The three lots front 40 feet on Howard street and 28 feet on Clay street. The purchase price was $81,250, for which Mr. Posner gave a certified check. Mr. Posner now owns 110 front feet on Lexington street to Howard street, and 157 front feet on Howard street to within a short distance of Clay street.

Edward Nelson will establish a mattress and cushion factory in Miami, Fla.

William E. Lapsley, of F. H. Lapsley & Brother, window shades, was in Gotham the first of the month.

Marshall W. Harden, of Fred Walpert & Co., manufacturers of curled hair, was in New York the 9th inst.

J. C. Callum, High Point, N. C., will remove his bedding and upholstery business to Greensborough, same State.

The curled hair factory of Wueger & Sons, Landwehr street, was destroyed by fire the 30th ult. Loss, $5,000; insured.

The Baltimore Upholstery Company are closing out their entire stock of goods with the intention of retiring from business.

The store of E. Cohen & Co., dry goods and upholstery, Sistersville, W. Va., was burned the 27th ult. Loss several thousand dollars; insured.

The Rhodes, Snook & Haverty Furniture Company, Atlanta, Ga., have purchased the entire furnishings of 175 rooms of the Aragon Hotel annex.

J. Howard Estes died at his home in Danville, Va., the 8th inst., after a brief illness. From 1870 to 1895 he carried on the dry goods and upholstery business in Danville, and held many positions of trust.

By virtue of a deed of trust and an order of the Circuit Court, the stock of hair, husk and fibre mattresses, pillows, cushions, &c., of August Schuster & Co. was sold by public auction by Harry C. Gaither, trustee, the 11th inst.

Johnson & Walkington, counsellors-at-law, Belfast, Ireland, want the address of Hugh McCann, an upholsterer, who at one time was employed in this city. He has fallen heir to a fortune through the death of his mother. He is supposed to be working in some upholstery establishment in the North or West.

The Hamilton Easter Building, formerly occupied by the late dry goods and upholstery firm of Hamilton Easter & Sons, was offered for sale at public auction the 4th inst., but was withdrawn at a bid of $150,000. W. Stanley Easter states that $200,000 had been offered at private sale and had been declined.

R. L. E.

In their preparations for the coming season dealers will find it worth while to remember the patented folding pillow sham manufactured by A. S. Rosenbaum, 67 Grand street, New York. This pillow is said to be superior to all other devices for the same purpose, being ornamental, practical, light and durable. Write to Mr. Rosenbaum or call on him.

SUGGESTIONS FOR WINDOW DRAPERIES

ABOUT TACKS.

The best tacks are made of imported Swedish iron ; the next grade of American soft steel, and the cheapest of common American iron. Tacks are also made of copper. Some tacks are tinned, and for ship use tacks are galvanized. Tacks are made of sizes ranging from one-half ounce to 24 ounces. The tack commonly used as a carpet tack is an 8 ounce tack. A 24 ounce tack is about 1⅛ inches in length.

There are many kinds of tacks made for a great variety of uses, and they are put up in many different forms. There are gimp tacks, looking-glass tacks, upholsterers' tacks, trunk tacks, lace tacks, basket tacks, brush tacks, coffin tacks, shank tacks, lasting tacks, miners' tacks, cheese box tacks and tacks for many other uses. Within the past dozen years the sale of double-pointed tacks has increased tenfold with the greatly increased use of electrical wires. Double pointed tacks are also used for tacking down straw matting and for other purposes.

Tacks that are sold in papers are put up in full weights, half weights and quarter weights, the weights indicating the size of the package. Almost all kinds of tacks are also sold in bulk, in 25 pound and 50 pound boxes and in 100 pound kegs.

A 1 ounce tack machine will make in a day about 100,000 tacks altogether. The iron is fed into the machine in a plate which is of a width a little greater than the length of the finished tack, so as to allow of material to be upset for the head. An 8 ounce machine will make about 250 pounds of tacks a day, 1,250 to the pound, about 312,000 tacks, Tacks that are put up in papers are weighed out and the papers filled by hand. Comparatively few tacks are put up nowadays in tied up papers ; they are put up mostly in little pasteboard boxes. These boxes are packed in larger boxes and in turn in cases for shipment. A common tack package is a case weighing about 100 pounds.

The annual tack product of the country is estimated at about 20,000 tons. If these tacks were put up in papers of the usual assortment of sizes and weights the papers would number about 300,000,000, or something more than four papers per capita of the population.

The shade roller factory of the Stewart Hartshorn Company, on George street, Toronto, Ont., was damaged to the extent of $1,500 by fire on June 1. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

McPartland & O'Flaherty, dry goods, upholsteries, &c., 629 and 631 Eighth avenue, New York, have dissolved partnership. Edward O'Flaherty continues the business under the old style.

The Interior Decorative Society was incorporated on the 28th ult. to manufacture interior decorations and furniture in New York city. The capital stock is $5,000, and the directors are A. J. Vieau and George M. Wilson, of New York, and Frederick O. Vieau, of Syracuse.

CORNER OF A LOUIS QUINZE DRAWING ROOM.

SINGER FANCY STITCHING MACHINES.

The Singer Manufacturing Company has just issued a catalogue of its sewing machines, which is perhaps the finest thing of the kind ever published. The purpose of the company in circulating this new catalogue is to show the users of sewing machines what has been accomplished, not only in the regular production of machines for all the usual stitching processes employed in manufacturing, but also the unequaled facilities of this company for producing sewing machines for special purposes in any branch of trade.

The company's vast business interests have been extended to every civilized nation on the globe, necessitating the establishment of factories for the manufacture of its machines in several countries. Its immense factory at Elizabethport, N. J., is but one of a series; another factory equally extensive is in operation near Glasgow, Scotland, and large factories are also operated at Montreal, Hamburg and Vienna, while the company's selling agencies are situated in every city in the world.

By this direct connection with all the manufacturing centres of the world the company is able to keep in touch with the needs of every class of manufacture in which it is possible to use a sewing machine, and as special devices are required to accomplish any desired economy in the stitching room the company is called upon to supply them. In this way has been accumulated the great variety of machines for special work which are illustrated in the new catalogue of the company.

One of these special devices, which should receive the attention of all manufacturers of draperies, curtains, portieres, piano and table covers, &c., is the sewing machine No. 31–4 for fancy stitching. We reproduce on the following page some illustrations of the work done by it. In operating this machine the fabric is moved in any direction and to any distance required for the formation of a stitch of any desired length. Manufacturers are advised to write to the Singer Company for a copy of its new catalogue. It will be supplied from any of the company's offices. In New York the company has a manufacturers' salesroom at 561 Broadway.

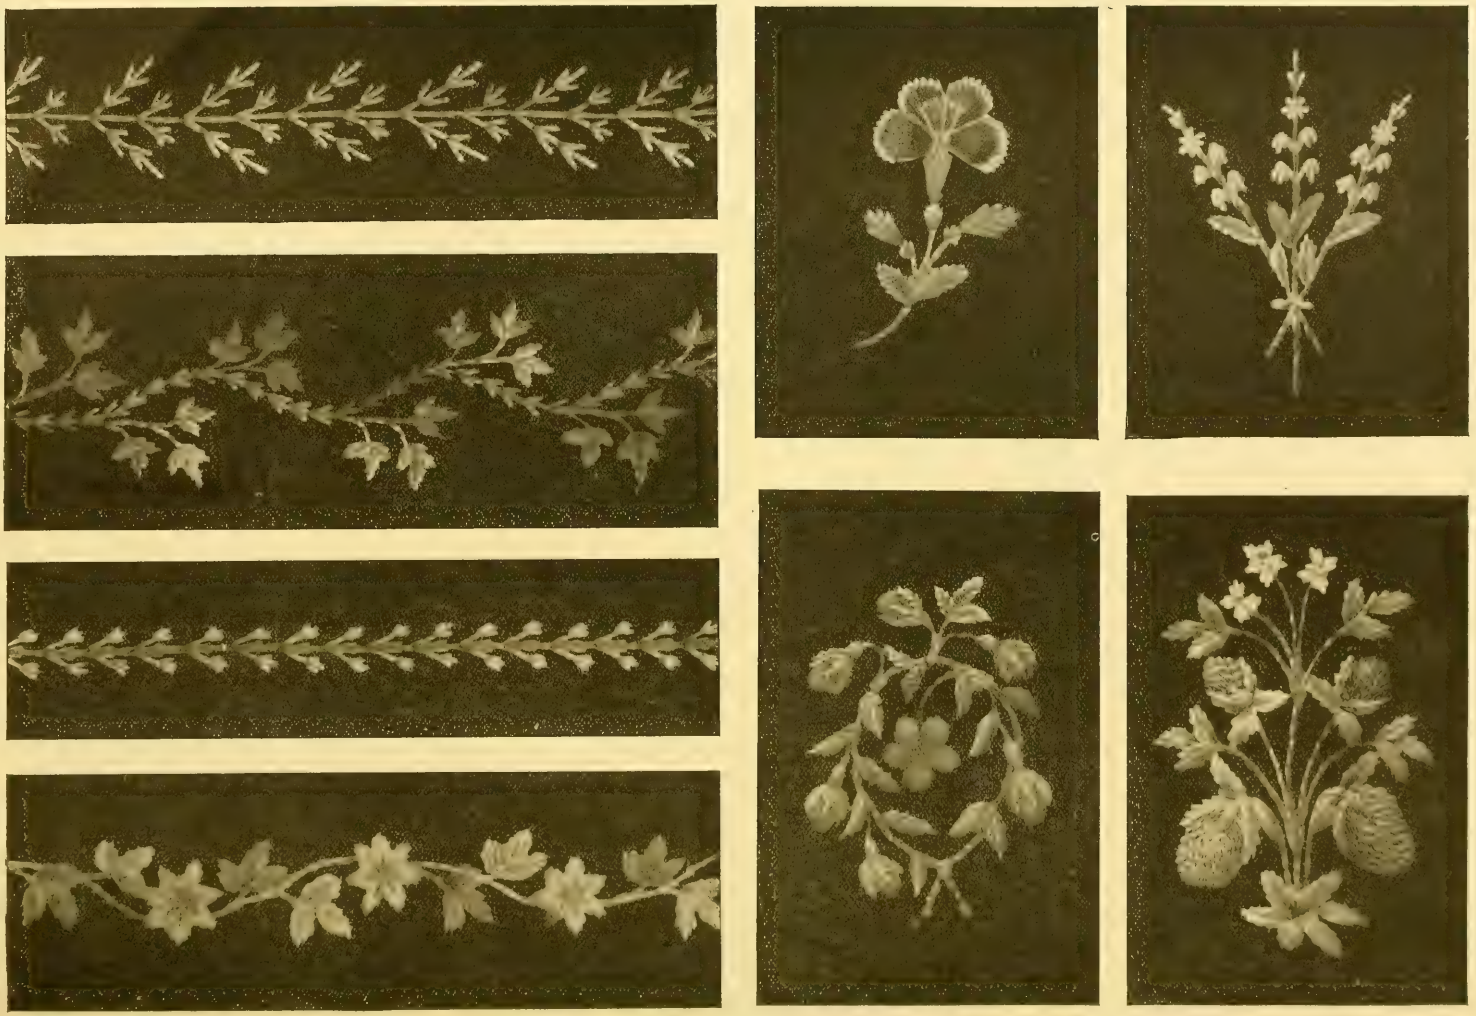
Robert Lewis, manufacturer of satin Derby and tapestry table covers, Derby curtains and draperies, Marseilles portières and couch covers, Tabreez draperies and couch covers and Royal Mitcheline quilts, has his new lines for the coming season on view at the mills, Richmond and Franklin streets, Bridesburg, Philadelphia. Mr. Lewis shows his satin Derby and tapestry table covers in six grades, and the Marseilles portières and couch covers come in 50 and 60 inch widths. His line is replete with new and handsome patterns, which must be seen to be appreciated. It is shown in the large cities by W. C. Hyde.

HOYLE, HARRISON & KAYE'S FALL STYLES.

The result of especially painstaking care and liberal outlay is seen in the new fall line of curtains, table covers and upholstery fabrics offered by Hoyle, Harrison & Kaye. Their new styles in chenilles will convince any doubting Thomas that a fabric in which such beautiful and brilliant colors can be found is bound to be a permanent feature of the drapery trade. The large and wonderfully beautiful assortment of all-over and detached figured designs shows the greatest advance ever made over a previous season's line, and any buyer who misses seeing this new line is not doing justice to his own interests. The same degree of radical departure and novelty treatment has been exercised on the yard stuffs for coverings, draperies and hangings, and the jobbing buyers have uniformly praised the firm's progressiveness in getting out such purely new and taking effects. The full lines can be seen at the mills in Philadelphia, and are shown by Chas. B. Young & Co., the selling agents, 88 Worth street, New York.

SINGER LACE CURTAIN BINDING MACHINE 24-3.

F. H. Lapsley & Brother, 12 South Charles street, Baltimore, are large manufacturers of window shades, Crown opaque shadings, spring rollers and fringes, mosquito canopies, &c., and carry also full lines of John King & Son's Scotch hollands, Bancroft's Sun Fast hollands and Oswego shadings. Their offerings include likewise floor and table oil cloths, linoleums, curtain poles, stair rods and stair buttons. The Messrs. Lapsley are thoroughly familiar with the wants of the trade, and an inspection of their offerings for the coming season will make this fact clear to the most critical buyer.



EXAMPLES OF STITCHING DONE BY THE SINGER SEWING MACHINE NO. 31-4.

R. J. Umbstaetter, who is a wide-awake and observant traveler, picked up some queer things during his recent trip to China, Japan and India. I copy out of his scrap book the following specimen of English as she is wrote in India. It is from the advertisement of a hotel at which he stopped :

The advertiser begs to say that from the 1st of October, 1895, I am in charge of the above from the other man who was manager here for few years. Flesh of Club and store Calcutta is supplied here, for Butter and Milk Cows live here ; if 8 gentlemen eat on one table they can get English things, Bread and Sweet maker is present here. All thing are new and fresh than before, if any gentlemen will give great Tiffin or dinner or supper, &c., then we will make the management very well and the charge will be less and the cook is of the first class, every gentleman can get rest like his own will ; the railway station is on the few feet from here, and wine can also be supplied.

Here also is the business card of a Japanese photographer—and no country has better photographic artists than Japan—which is reproduced verb. et lit.:

Of course the compositor who resets this—and there are no better compositors anywhere than those who work on The Review—will smile. Perhaps if he were obliged to get up a similar card in Jap characters the Japs might smile likewise.

Manager W. E. Georgia, of the J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Company, was in New York for a week this month, and hurried through his purchases to get back to St. Louis before the convention opened. The Kennard Company have furnished all the decorations for Convention Hall, and the work has been done through Mr. Georgia's department. He relates that when he gave the estimate of price to "Sam" Kennard, the latter said the amount was considerably above what had been set aside for the work.

"But the figures you name will hardly cover the cost," answered Mr. Georgia. "Never mind," said Mr. Kennard, "you go ahead and do the work as a good St. Louisian, even if you don't get the cost." "That is only one of the many examples of the public spirit shown by Mr. Kennard," continued Mr. Georgia, "and when the tornado swooped down upon us, and the firm got around to finding out how it had affected them, I tell you it seemed a case of being rewarded by good luck. Our store building had only a few windows broken, and the warehouse, which was far more dangerously exposed, was unhurt. The street car line in which Mr. Kennard is largely interested was the first line to commence running after the storm, and practically everything with which Sam Kennard is connected came out of the big blow all right, including the convention hall."

The age of invention will never cease—that is, among "our kin across the sea." Here on May 20, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, a Liverpool genius has been granted by the English Government a patent for an excelsior mattress. Here is the specification, which we publish, so that none of our readers may unwittingly infringe the inventor's rights :

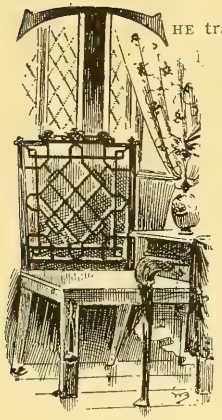
"Mattresses for hospitals, emigrant and transport ships and barracks, &c., are made of a fabric cover, a, closed at the ends by flaps, b, b^{1}, secured by buttons, &c., and of a 'filler,' Fig. 2, composed of wood fibre loosely matted or stitched together. When necessary the cover can be removed and disinfected, a new filler put into it, and the old one destroyed."

American patent lawyers may also take a lesson from this. The idea of protecting the right to destroy the old excelsior when taken from a mattress will probably strike them as entirely new.

A prominent wholesale merchant in upholstery goods is of the opinion that the bicycle craze is responsible for the stagnation of trade existing among the retailers in his line of goods, and cites instances where householders have countermanded orders for upholstered furniture for the avowed purpose of investing the money in "wheels" for the use of the different members of the family. The fact that quite a number of legitimate furniture dealers have opened bicycle departments is significant. They feel loss of trade and are laying in a stock of wheels in sheer self-defense. That a very large proportion of the expenditure for family expenses goes into bicycles is proven by the fact that more than thirty stores on Arch street, Philadelphia, are devoted exclusively to the sale of "wheels;" besides more than double that number existing in different parts of the city are doing a thriving business. It would seem that almost any sacrifice of household luxuries would be borne for the sake of the wheel, especially by the younger portion of the family.

Formerly most of the feathers imported by this country from China, which is the leading source of supply of cheap feathers, came via Europe, where they were cleaned, but considerable importations of the raw goods are now made direct to this country, and the cleaning is done here. The Chinese feathers, which are mainly sold as duck feathers, it is said, are exported in bad shape. They are not only mixed, but very dirty also. It is estimated that there is a waste of from 25 to 30 per cent. on these goods. Formerly, as already stated, most of these feathers were cleaned in Europe, especially in Germany. The business in the United States has, however, it is said, been increasing during the past four or five years, until about one-half of the entire importations are now made direct to this country.

A LEADING TRIMMING LINE.



The trade have had many examples of the enterprise and progressiveness of the Hensel Silk Manufacturing Company, and the customers of the concern doubtless realize that its guiding hand must be skilled and ingenious and with a mind prolific in new ideas. Mr. G. F. Hensel is a man whose paramount study is his business and how to improve and advance it, and his characteristics are well demonstrated in the large number of novelties in upholstery and drapery trimmings that have been and are continually being brought out by the Hensel Company. Their line is noted as containing an extra large assortment in every branch of trimmings and they not only seek but obtain a liberal share of the best and largest trade.

The Hensel Company's fall offerings are now on view and constitute an array of goods that no careful buyer can afford to pass. Some of its attractions are rope portieres in a multitude of styles, colorings and grades. They are the sole manufacturers of the adjustable rope portiere with retaining friction device whereby the rope strands can be adjusted to a variety of positions by a simple operation of a cord. Another patented specialty is the corded jewel mount for use on loops, rope portieres, &c. Loops, cords, fringes, tassels, borders, insertions, special denim trimmings and a general variety too numerous to mention are shown in innumerable styles.

Their line of rope portieres runs from the cheapest at $1.50 or $1.75 up to the finest goods of this character, and they will make special sizes or styles to order. The factory and main office are at 639 to 641 North Broad street, Philadelphia; the New York office is at 337 Broadway in charge of D. Robb Stirratt; the Boston office is at 76 Chauncy street, and the Chicago office at 147 Fifth avenue, Lees Building, where they are represented by Rosenthal & Brownlie. They also have an office in the Phelan Building, San Francisco.

A number of the employees of Simpson, Crawford & Simpson, New York, met on the night of the 11th inst., at 19 West Twenty-seventh street, and instituted a council in the Royal Arcanum, to be known as James Simpson Council, No. 1705. The following officers were elected: J. B. Kavanagh, regent; J. S. McPartland, vice-regent; S. C. Braddick, orator; G. Harrison, past regent; T. J. Daly, secretary; J. J. Murphy, collector; W. J. O'Brien, treasurer; H. Bentley, chaplain; J. J. Brophy, guide; J. J. Hendricks, warden; J. Daly, sentry; J. W. McCormack, P. C. Smith and Frank Magee, board of trustees. There are already nearly 100 members. Vice-Regent J. S. McPartland was a member of the late firm of McPartland & O'Flaherty, and Frank Magee is upholstery buyer for Simpson, Crawford & Simpson.

ROBERT J. RITCHIE'S CHANGE.

As announced by Robert J. Ritchie on page 72 he has withdrawn from his connection as selling agent for the Robert J. & R. Ritchie Company. He retains his financial interest in the company, however, in which he is also a director. Mr. Ritchie proposes to devote his entire attention hereafter to representing upholstery manufacturers as selling agent, with office and salesroom the same as heretofore, at 110 Worth street, New York. He continues as selling agent for A. T. Baker & Co., manufacturers of corduroys, plushes, velvets and extracted color goods, and for Porter & Dickey, manufacturers of denims. Other leading accounts will be added later.

Mr. Ritchie has a host of friends throughout the trade who will be very happy to assist with their patronage his success with the above mentioned goods and the accounts that he may hereafter represent.

SOME ORIGINAL WINDOW DRAPERIES.

The page of window draperies on page 51 is from the pencil of W. Baldock, the well-known English designer, and they manifest a vigorous originality of feeling which is particularly effective in point of style and treatment. They are essentially Continental in conception, and offer some bold suggestions which enterprising upholsterers might find worthy of practical consideration. The stiffened buckram pelmets form a decorative and attractive set-off to the drapery folds by which they are surrounded, and afford opportunities for the development of decidedly original and ornamental results in the domain of window drapery. The canopy drapery on the right is of an uncommon description, and betrays a desire upon the part of the designer to produce something different from the traditional valance and curtain arrangement. The result, upon the whole, is sufficiently suggestive to indicate further possibilities in this direction.

GOVERNMENT SUPPLIES.

Proposals will be received until June 24 at the office of the General Superintendent United States Life Saving Service, Washington, D. C., for furnishing supplies consisting of beds, bedding, furniture, &c. Specifications and bid forms can be obtained at the Washington office or from the Inspector of Life Saving Stations, 24 State street, New York City; Superintendent Eleventh Life Saving District, Grand Haven, Mich., and Superintendent Twelfth Life Saving District, New Appraisers' Stores, San Francisco, Cal. Envelopes containing proposals should be addressed to the "General Superintendent United States Life Saving Service, Washington, D. C.," and marked on the outside "Proposal for Annual Supplies." The right is reserved to reject any or all bids, and to waive defects, if deemed for the interests of the Government.

F. G. King, Western representative of Barnes & Beyer, and J. A. Meek, Western representative of the Brussels Tapestry Company, have been East during the past week arranging their fall samples.

LAKE CITY UPHOLSTERY NOTES.

CHICAGO, JUNE 9.

W. J. Watson has been appointed manager of Marshall Field & Co.'s branch at Chemnitz, Germany. He succeeds Mr. Vail, who died recently. He has been connected with Field's since 1873, and since 1882 has been their foreign glove buyer, and in that capacity has made fifty-six trips abroad. He is thirty-six years old.

A. M. Langwill, of Stead & Miller, is absent on a flying trip to St. Louis. He is expected back to-morrow.

Harry C. Read, of Marshall Field & Co.'s upholstery department, died May 14. He had been with Marshall Field & Co. a number of years.

The Cold Blast Feather Company, at Clinton and West Van Buren streets, is just closing a busy season. While trade has not been up to that of some former seasons, Manager Snell says they are not complaining.

The upholstery department of Schlesinger & Mayer will probably be moved to the new Wabash avenue extension soon. It will be considerably enlarged. Manager Haselgreen is now in Europe looking after art fabrics and novelties. He is expected home in August.

Business among the shade cloth dealers is said to be somewhat slow. Notwithstanding this, over at the factory of C. Schotte, on Canal street, there was a fair degree of activity when I called yesterday. The three road men which the firm keeps on the road have taken their share of the orders.

R. H. H.

Wm. Baumgarten & Co. and George Herzog, of New York, have opened a wall paper, upholstery and general furnishing establishment at 1404 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

Commencing Sunday, June 14, the Southern Railway, Piedmont Air Line, inaugurated a new passenger service between Norfolk and Chattanooga, via its new line, through Selma, Raleigh, Greensboro and Asheville. The new route will be through the most attractive portion of North Carolina, "The Land of the Sky," and East Tennessee. The opening of the new line will give Norfolk and Chattanooga direct connection over a line all under one management. Connection will be made at Norfolk with rail line and Old Dominion Steamship Company. For further information call on or address 271 Broadway, New York.

The Defiance Button Machine Company sold a much larger number of their machines during the first four months of this year than since they were placed on the market, but report trade quiet since the 1st of May. The Defiance machine was the first thoroughly satisfactory machine for making upholstery buttons introduced. It was invented by C. B. Krom, who has since devoted his time to managing the Defiance Company's business, and has made an eminent success of it. One of the misrepresentations corrected by time is seen in the alleged adoption by another concern making a button machine of the elements of the Defiance machine, whereas they had been industriously crying down this same construction for the past four or five years. While imitation is the sincerest compliment, the Defiance Company will doubtless take steps to prevent any encroachment upon their patented rights. Their salesroom is at 266 Greene street, New York.

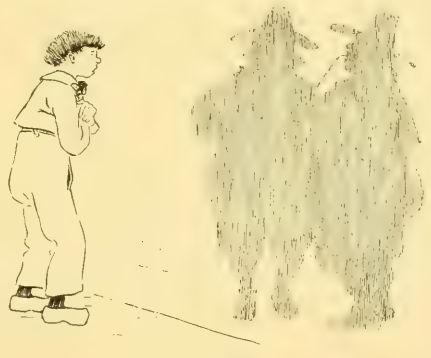
J. A. BRITTAIN & CO.'S LACES.

J. A. Brittain & Co. have increased the attractiveness of their big new showroom at 434 to 438 Broadway by erecting more poles and making a permanent display thereon of their great assortment of novelty nets and figured curtains. The goods can be looked over very rapidly, a convenience that quick buyers will greatly appreciate. The firm's complete fall line of Nottingham and Swiss curtains is on view and contains about everything in new departures produced up to date, and in patterns exclusive with Brittain & Co. They have an unusually good stock for this season and can particularly interest buyers who want quick deliveries.

The Henry Reubel Company have decided not to occupy the office previously announced as in the Phillips Building, on Tremont street, Boston, but have taken a larger and better located office at 7 Temple place, which C. W. Ellis is now placing in shape for business.

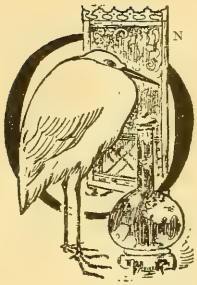
The young men in Johnson & Faulkner's, who had been knocking a ball around a vacant lot uptown for several Sundays, began to feel their oats recently, and challenged the upholstery force of W. & J. Sloane to a game of baseball. The affair came off in Claremont Park on June 6, and the Broadway men toyed with the Seventeenth street tyros in fine style. When Johnson & Faulkner's score was 15 the Sloane nine sailed in and had made 29 runs when game was called.

The Novelty Textile Printing Company, 525 West Twenty-fourth street, New York, will soon have an eight color printing machine in operation for printing silk and cotton fabrics. This company are doing excellent and thoroughly satisfactory converting work for several large houses, and the new machine will enable them to widen the scope of their operations. They print on silk, silkoline, satin, sateen, chenille, velvet, plush, felt, velour, denim and other fabrics, and will be pleased to submit estimates to any wholesale or manufacturing firms, as their specialty is printing in large quantities. The head of the company is Mr. Andrew Barricklo, who is acknowledged to be one of the most skillful converters in the country and who was for many years engaged in the window shade trade.



HOLLAND SHADES.—LIFE.

J. B. RYER, SON & CO.



On page 84 of this issue J. B. Ryer, Son & Co., 167 Canal street, New York, give the trade some idea of the remarkably comprehensive character of their offerings for the fall trade, which comprise an immense range of fabrics and styles in upholstery goods, curtains, &c. The firm show all classes of furniture coverings and draperies, corduroys, cretonnes, velours, denims, damasks, plushes, figured pile fabrics, hair cloth, tapestry curtains and table covers, silkoline draperies, lace and muslin curtains in all grades, Scotch hollands, upholstery trimmings, &c.; in a word everything essential for the complete stocking of an upholstery goods and curtain department or store.

Ryer, Son & Co. have never before shown such an exceptionally great variety of goods, and in the character as well as in the extent and remarkably varied nature of their offerings they unquestionably present exceedingly strong attractions to buyers.

UDELL WORKS FURNITURE SPECIALTIES.

A highly attractive line of parlor cabinets, music cabinets, fancy wall brackets, buffets, china closets, hall stands, desks, &c., is shown for the fall season by the Udell Works, North Indianapolis, Ind. The goods are made in white and gold finish, mahogany, curly birch and quartered oak. Buyers are advised to write for catalogues and prices. See the new advertisement of the Udell Works on page 74 of this issue.

The complete lines of Stead & Miller's curtains, table covers and upholstery fabrics can be seen at their spacious office in the Bourse, Philadelphia, which is always open during business hours, and one of their selling force, Grant Kunze, is on hand to attend to buyers.

The business of the late L. S. Ayres, Indianapolis, Ind., is to be continued by a corporation, the capital stock of which is $200,000. The officers are: President, Fred. M. Ayres; vice-president, William B. Wheelock; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Maria H. Ayres.

Chas. B. Young & Co., selling agents for Hoyle, Harrison & Kaye and the Eden Manufacturing Company, present at their salesrooms, 88 Worth street, New York, a wide range of strong attractions in upholstery goods, hangings, draperies, coverings, curtains, table covers, &c., comprising new textures and weaves and many new patterns, all of which should receive the early attention of buyers who are looking for novel and thoroughly attractive styles.

Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart have in course of preparation plans for a six story addition to their large store in Harrisburg, Pa. The concern began business in Harrisburg in 1878, and the business has grown to such an extent that several removals were necessary before it occupied its present large quarters. In addition to the Harrisburg branch the concern, whose headquarters are in Reading, has stores at Altoona, Pottsville and Pottstown, Pa., and Knoxville, Tenn.

UPHOLSTERY TRAVELERS.

The following lists of travelers for the fall season 1896 came to hand too late for insertion in the last number of The Review:

Lewis, Robert, Philadelphia—Mr. Wilber C. Hyde.

Stead & Miller, Philadelphia—(additional) Mr. A. M. Langwill, Chicago and Northwest.

Young, Charles B., & Co., New York—Messrs. Gardner H. Wright, of the firm, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington; Oscar H. Schwarz, Middle States; John Perry, Chicago, St. Louis and West, with office in Chicago; H. A. Roys, New York State and New England.

J. B. Ryer, Son & Co. are represented on the road by H. J. Huyler, New York State and Pennsylvania; A. G. Smith, Middle States, with office at 303 Beckman Block, Cleveland, O.; B. M. Carr, Chicago, St. Louis and West, with office at 918 Medina Temple, Chicago; A. N. Avery, 171 Island st., Grand Rapids, Mich.; E. Beyfus, 82 Wells-Fargo Building, San Francisco.

The travelers for the Winsted Metalliform Company are Fred K. Phillips, Arthur M. Flynn and J. E. Morris. Mr. Phillips, who is also a member of the company, has been at the New York office of the concern, 343 Broadway, during the past few weeks waiting on visiting buyers. He reports a very good movement in their fancy goods, but states that the pole trimming business is open for very material improvement.

GREAT SALE OF LACE CURTAINS.

As announced on page 73 of this issue, W. & J. Sloane have purchased A. Naumann's large stock of lace curtains, comprising a superb assortment of highly desirable goods, all of which are new, the bulk of them having arrived in port within the last six months. Mr. Naumann has long been noted as an expert on lace curtains, and his experience, skill and good taste are well illustrated in the goods which W. & J. Sloane are now offering. The stock will be closed out at exceptionally low figures and an early inspection of it is advised, as it will undoubtedly be disposed of very quickly.

A very attractive and novel piece of lace embroidery is shown in the curtain department of Mills & Gibb. The American eagle and the national colors, along with golden stars and the words E Pluribus Unum have been worked by hand on a lace net. The embroidering is done in silk and cotton in a very skillful and effective manner. The piece will make an appropriate sash curtain for a hotel, club house or some public building, and Mills & Gibb will take orders to reproduce it.

L. S. Plaut & Co., proprietors of The Beehive, Newark, N. J., have leased the building at 711 and 713 Broad street, that city, the upper portion of which they have occupied for some time. The first floor will be lowered to the street level, and a large archway 18 feet wide will be constructed, in the front and rear. The wall in the rear of the building will be demolished, and the construction of an entirely new building, 20x75 feet, three stories, will be commenced. A spacious entrance will be erected on Cedar street, and many new departments will be added, including a ladies' waiting and writing room. The alterations will, it is estimated, cost $25,000.

WALL PAPER GOSSIP.

N May 27 fire destroyed two storehouses containing wall paper and workshop belonging to the Stark Paper Company, at Bennington, Vt. Loss, $4,500.

..Judge Wheeler, in the United States Circuit Court on the 6th inst., dismissed the suit brought by Henry M. Washburn and others to prevent the payment of interest upon the debenture stock of the National Wall Paper Company, Judge Wheeler's decision is on the ground that sufficient profits have been ascertained to warrant such payment. The debenture stock of the company amounts to about $8,000,000, and the common stock to $30,000,000.

..Philip Britt has been appointed receiver in the action of J. S. Jacobs v. Leopold Schiller, shades, wall paper, &c., New York city.

Three Vital Points . . .

Are necessary to insure a perfect roller such as . . . .

The Improved Hartshorn Wood Roller.

FIRST—No Tacks Are to Be Used.

The patent shade holders furnished free with Improved Hartshorn Wood Rollers eliminate the use of tacks in the most satisfactory manner possible.

SECOND—Provision for Mounting Shade Cloth Absolutely True.

The groove in this roller is the only place where the shade can be fastened to the roller. As the groove is as straight as machinery can make it, the cloth must be fastened in a straight line.

THIRD—Prevention Against Tearing Cloth from Rolls.

Owing to the scientific construction of the new roller, when the shade cloth is fastened upon the roller in the groove with our shade holders, the resistance which it offers is so strong that when shade and roller are hung it is almost impossible to tear the cloth off.

This Roller received specific indorsement in our award of a Gold Medal and Special Diploma of Honor by the Judges of the Atlanta Exposition.

Our new Descriptive Catalogue for 1896 is now ready. Free on application.

TO THE

Upholstery Trade.

I beg to inform the Trade that I have severed my connection as Selling Agent for the Robt. J. & R. Ritchie Co.
I will continue my Office and Salesroom at

110 Worth Street, New York, and will remain, as heretofore,

——SELLING AGENT FOR——

Yours respectfully,

ROBERT J. RITCHIE.

New York, June 13, 1896.

A NEW LINE OF Tapestries.

About July 1st we will show samples of an entirely new line of 10 Wire Tapestries, from the mills of the

of which we have the exclusive agency.

This is a new plant, fitted with the most modern machinery and operated by the most approved methods. The goods, therefore, must of necessity be an improvement upon any similar production, and as such they will merit the attention of buyers.

REUNE MARTIN & SONS, Commission Merchants,

114-116 Worth Street, New York.

The Largest Lace Curtain Deal

in the History of the United States.

We have closed out the entire stock of Mr. A. Naumann, who in his career has been recognized as the head of the Lace Curtain business, both in styles and values.

We are now offering these goods at exceptionally low figures, and would advise an early inspection to those desirous of securing goods at the lowest price ever offered.

These are all new goods, the bulk having arrived in port with the last six months, and are representative of Mr. Naumann's well-known good taste and judgment.

Our Fall Line of Regular Goods Now Ready for Inspection.

It Is Near Stock-Taking Time, and before then we will close out all the small lots of LACE CURTAINS we have in hand. We have marked the goods at a price which will do it.

Our sale of the stock of CHAS. T. STRAUSS & BRO., announced two weeks ago, was a success in every respect. Nearly all the goods are sold, but what few are left you can buy at almost your own price.

We have just received a line of Embroidered Muslin Curtain Piece Goods and some Irish Point and Swiss Curtains. These were intended for next season, but as they are on hand we will throw them in now, just to give the buyers a chance at something new.

One eminent and popular house that has tried all makes announces them to be

"The Best Window Hollands Made."

Another equally large Importer of great experience states:

"The goods have always been and are now fast colors."

Another firm in the very front rank of the business describes them as

"Unequalled in quality, unshrinkable and of finest dyes."

While another firm of Importers, probably one of the largest shade goods houses in the world, characterizes them in these terms:

"JOHN KING & SON'S Famous Scotch Hollands."

JOHN KING & SON'S

ESTABLISHED IN THE YEAR 1775

Celebrated

Scotch Window HOLLANDS

ILLUSTRATING the high consideration these popular goods hold in the estimation of the most experienced importers of shade goods in the country, the attention of the trade is invited to the above opinions, published in the columns of this and other journals, over the signatures of the respective firms.

Enterprising but unscrupulous parties unable to reach the exalted standard of these celebrated goods, pay them the flattery of imitating the wrappings. It is the Goods, not the wrappings, the trade is after. See that Bands, Tickets and Tabs of every piece are marked

Wholesaled from every Shade Goods Importer and Leading Carpet and Upholstery Importer in the Country.

What a Retail House Thinks of "Chouaguens."

Window Shades.

Ever since the ready made window shade was "discovered" we have kept them and sold thousands of them every year. We know something about what are called "oil shades." We handle only two qualities of shades. Our low-priced shades are what are called "water colors," or "American Opaque." They are the best of their kind and we sell them at 25c. each. They are mounted on spring rollers that are guaranteed to work, and these shades are

FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT.

We do not keep any "seconds" in stock Our other or best shades are all made of the celebrated

"CHOUAGUEN"

Shade cloth, which is the best, and the ONLY BEST shade cloth in the country. That "there are others" we do not deny. We have tried them all, and we have had trouble with them all; but we never yet have had a complaint about our "Chouaguen" shades. They WON'T FADE. THEY ALWAYS WORK, and we do not hesitate to GUARANTEE EVERY ONE OF THEM. WE can buy "oil shades" that WE can sell for 33c.; we can buy them to sell for less than 33c., but

We don't want them, We won't have them,

for when the hot summer sun strikes them they will FADE. If you want your shades to look like the old fury next summer, then we advise you to buy the cheap oil shades; but if you want shades that the sun can't phaze and that will always look the same, that will always work, then pay 5c. a shade more and get the best shade cloth, and that is the "Chouaguen." That's our kind. That's the only kind of oil shades we keep.

We open this week 200 dozen of these "Chouaguen" never-fade shades. We have a sample of the cheaper oil shades, and will show you the difference, or you can see the difference quick enough without any assistance. We say to you, INSIST on having the Chouaguen shade cloth. Look out for the "just as good" kinds, for they are not as good.

Our Chouaguen shades are 38 inches wide; the cheaper kinds are 36 inches wide. The difference in width is worth the difference in price, to say nothing about the difference in quality.

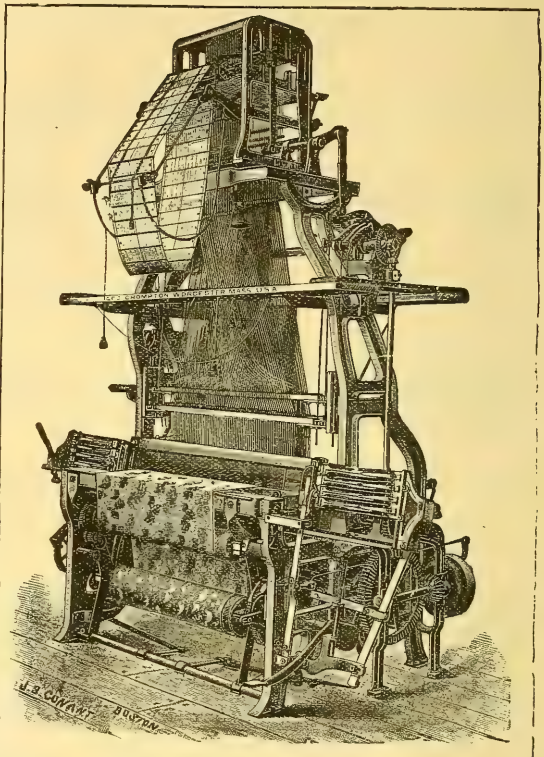
CROMPTON LOOM WORKS,

WORCESTER, MASS.

The Original and Most Extensive Works for the Building of Carpet, Fancy Woolen, Cotton and Silk Looms in This Country.



Crompton's New Ingrain Carpet Loom.

CROMPTON NEW INGRAIN CARPET LOOMS.

THE attention of manufacturers of Ingrain Carpets is called to the consideration of a new Carpet Loom just put on the market. It carries four (4) shuttle boxes at each end of the lathe; any one of the series at each end can be brought into line with the shuttle race at any pick, under the dictation of the Jacquard cards. The Jacquard is of the most approved construction and moves the warps kindly. The let off and take up motions bring out perfectly matched goods. On two ply work it makes sixty (60) yards per day. The apparatus for moving the boxes cannot be surpassed for its simplicity and efficiency. This Loom has no equal in speed and simplicity from four (4) to seven (7) colors.

CROMPTON ART SQUARE LOOM, for 3, 3½ and 4 yard goods, produces the best results and has no rival.

CROMPTON'S UPHOLSTERY LOOM, with Improved "1886" Box Motion, is capable of high speed and nice adjustment for its special line of goods.

CROMPTON LOOMS for Fancy Cassimeres, Worsteds, Flannels, Blankets, Jeans, Silks, Tapes, Ginghams, Fancy Cottons, &c., &c. Crompton "1888" and Noble Wool Comb.

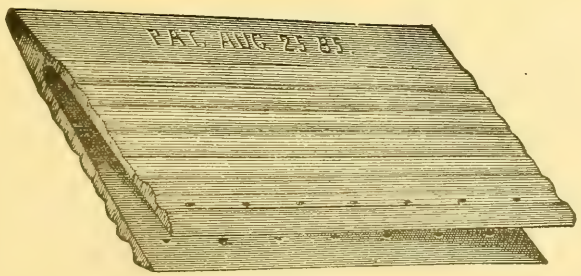
Frames for holding the Fabric and Thread and Needles, specially prepared, for sale.



PATENTED AUGUST 25, 1885.

This Patent Rubber Binding holds the ends of Matting, Carpets, etc., down in place, does not curl up like other flexible bindings, is not affected by dampness, will not break when shaken and thrown about, and is very durable and easily adjusted.

The Many Advantages of this Patent Rubber Binding give it the preference over any other heretofore used on Matting and Carpet runners for Hotels, Stores, Steamboats, Offices, Elevators, Street Cars, Railroad Cars, etc., etc.

It is Made in ⅜, ½, ⅝, ¾, ⅞ and 1 lengths and is perforated to facilitate the sewing. The most inexperienced person can sew it on perfectly.

This PATENT RUBBER BINDING can be obtained from all the Leading Carpet and Upholstery Dealers.
